Mat. 19, 8.

14 *And when the^e houre was come, he fate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.
15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pasceouer with you before I suffre.

16 For I say vnto you, Hence forthe I wil not eat of it any more, vntil it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And he toke the cup, and gaue thanks, and said, Take this, and deuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I wil not drinke of the frute of the vine, vntil the kingdome of God be come.

19 *And he toke bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my bodie, which is giuen for you: do this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after supper he toke the cup, saying, This cup is the new^e Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 *Yet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is^e appointed: but wo be to that man, by whome he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among the felues which of the it shulde be, that shulde do that.

24 *And there arose also a strife among the, which of them shulde seme to be the greatest.

25 But he said vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer the, are called^e Gracious lords.

26 But ye shal not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the^e least: & the chiefeest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to me,

30 *That ye may^e eat, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 *And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, beholde, Satan hath desired you, to wynowe you, as wheat.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 *And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shal not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denyed that thou knewest me.

35 *And he said vnto the, *Whē I sent you without bagge, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then he said to them, But now he that hath a bagge, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him fel his coate, and^e bye a sworde.

37 For I say vnto you, That yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, *Euen with the wicked was he nominated: for douteles those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, beholde, here are 2 swordes. And he said vnto them, It is ynough.

39 *And he came out, and went (as he was wonte) to the mounte of oliues: and his discipies also followed him.

40 *And when he came to the place, he said to them, Pray, lest ye enter into tentation.

41 And he gate him self from them, about a stones cast, and kneled downe, & prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from me: neuertheles, not my wil, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an^e agonie, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweate was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the grounde.

45 And he rose vp from prayer, & came to his disciples, and founde them sleping for heauines.

46 And he said vnto them, Why slepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye entre into tentation.

47 *And while he yet spake, beholde a companie, and he that was called Judas one of the twelue, went before them, and came nere vnto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus said vnto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, sawe what wolde followe, they said vnto him, Lord, shal we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and strake of his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffre them thus farre: and he touched his eare, & healed him.

52 Then Iesus said vnto the hie Priests, & captaines of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a thefe with swordes and stauess

53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forthe the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the power of darkenes.

54 *Then toke they him, and led him, and broght him to the hie Priests house. And Peter followed a farre of.

55 *And whē they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also fate downe among the.

56 And a certeine maide behelde him as he fate by the fyre, and hauing wel looked on 60 And Peter said, Man, I knowe not what thou saiest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembered the worde of the Lord, how he had said vnto him, * Before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thrise.

62 And Peter went out, & wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that helde Iesus, mocked him, and stroke him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, & asked him, saying, * Prophecie who it is y^e smote thee.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herode 18 Of Barabbas, 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian 27 The women make lamentacion 33 Christ crucified 34 He praueth for his enemies 40 He conuerteth the thefe & manie others at his death, 53 And is buried.

Mat. 23. 31. 1 Then * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto * Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue founde this man peruertering the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou saist it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no faute in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching through out all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, he ^b sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those daies.

8 And when Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was ^c desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard manie things of him, and trusted to haue sene some ^d signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of manie things: but he answered him ^e nothing.

10 The hie Priests also and Scribes stood forthe and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his ^f men of warre, despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in ^g white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 * And the same daye Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 And said vnto them, Ye haue broght this man vnto me, as one that peruertert the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and haue founde no faute in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and lo, nothing worthie of death is done ^h to him.

16 I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lowse.

17 (For of ⁱ necessitie he must haue let one lowse vnto them at the feast.)

18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certeine insurrection made in the citie, & murther was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus lowse.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euil hathe he done? I finde ^j no cause of death in him: I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lowse.

23 But they were instant with loude voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them and of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it shulde be as they required.

25 And he let lowse vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whome thei desired, and deliuered Iesus to do with him what they wolde.

The journey to Emmaus. Chap. XXIII. The eyes opened. 42

8 And they remembered his wordes,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, & tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.
10 Now it was Marie Magdalene & Ioanna, & Marie the mother of Iames, & other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.
11 But their wordes seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, nether beleued they them.
12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes laid by themselves, & departed wondering in him self at that which was come to passe.
Mat. 16, 12. 13 ¶ And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c thre score furlongs, called Emmaus.
c Which is about seuen miles & an halfe. d Hereby appeareth y they had faith, although it was weake.
14 And they ^d talked together of all these things that were done.
15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus him self drewe nere, and went with them.
e This declarereth that we can nether see, nor vnderstand til God open our eyes.
16 But their eyes ^e were holden, that they colde not knowe him.
17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?
18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?
f For the thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knowne it.
19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in dede and in worde before God, and all the people, 20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.
g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance y Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prospe-ritie.
21 But we trusted that it had bene he that shulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.
22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.
23 And when they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also sene a visiõ of Angels, which said that he was aliue.
24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.
h Infidelitie is reproved. i Christ onely is the interpreter of y Scriptures: for bothe the beginning and end thereof direct vs to him, because he is the Saviour that is promised.
25 Then he said vnto them, ^h O fooles and slowe of heart to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glorie?
27 And he began at Moses, & at all the Prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drewe nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he ^k made as though he wolde haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs. for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he toke the bread, ^l and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, & they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betwene themselves, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?
33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and founde the Eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which said, The Lord is risen in dede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of them in ^m breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus him self stode in the middes of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed & afraid, supposing that they had sene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do doubtis arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine hands and my fete: for it is I my self: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them ⁿ his hands and fete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for ioye, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honye combe, 43 And he toke it, & did eat before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, that all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffice, & to rise againe from the dead the thirde day, 47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes shulde be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

⁵ And the light shineth in ^f ^y darkenes, & the darkenes comprehended it not.

⁶ ¶ There was a man sent fro God, whose name was Iohn.

⁷ The same came for a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that all me through him might beleue.

⁸ He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnes of the light.

⁹ That was the true light, which lighteth euerie man that cometh into the worlde.

¹⁰ He was in the worlde, and the worlde said plainely, I ^a am not the Christ.

²¹ And they asked him, What the? Art thou

²³ He said, I ^a am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, Make straight the way of ^y Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias. ⁱ Isa 40, 3.

²⁴ Now they which were sent, were of the

- 43 ¶ The day following, Iesus wolde go into Galile, and founde Philippe, and said vnto him, Followe me.
- 44 Now Philippe was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrew and Peter.
- 45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and said vnto him, We haue founde him, of whome * Moses did write in the Law, and the * Prophetes, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.
- 46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe said to him, Come, and se.
- 47 Iesus sawe Nathanael coming to him, & said of him, Beholde, in dede an Israhelite, in whome is no guile.
- 48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, & said vnto him, Before that Philippe called thee, whē thou wast vnder the figge tre, I sawe thee.
- 49 Nathanael answered, & said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.
- 50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tre, * beleuest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.
- 51 And he said vnto him, Verely, verely, I say vnto you, hereafter shal ye see heauen open, & the Angels of God * ascending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.
- 3 Christ turneth the water into wine: 14 He driueth the buyers, and sellers out of the Temple 19 He forewarneth hi: death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.
- And the thirde day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iesus was there.
- 2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.
- 3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.
- 4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.
- 5 His mother said vnto the seruants, What-soeuer he saith vnto you, do it.
- 6 And there were set there, six waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the * purifying of the Iewes, containing two or thre ^b firkins a piece.
- 7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fil the waterpottes with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.
- 8 Then he said vnto them, Drawe out now & beare vnto the * gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.
- 9 Now whē the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but ^γ seruāts, which drew the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,
- 10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forthe good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.
- 11 This beginning of * miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forthe his glorie: & his disciples beleued on him.
- 12 After ^γ he went downe into Capernaū, he and his mother, and his ^γ brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not manie dayes there.
- 13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.
- 14 * And he founde in the Temple those that solde oxen, and shepe, and doves, and changers of money, sitting there.
- 15 Thē he made a scourge of smale cordes, & draue them all out of the Temple with the shepe, and oxen & powred out the chāgers money, and ouerthrewe the tables,
- 16 And said vnto them that solde doves, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of marchandise.
- 17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.
- 18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What * signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?
- 19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I wil raise it vp againe.
- 20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and six yeres was this Temple a buylding, and wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes?

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration 15 Of faith 16 Of the loue of God towards the worlde.
23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn, 28 And the witness that he beareth of Christ.

1 THere was now a mā of y^e Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of y^e Iewes.
2 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man colde do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not^a se the^b kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of^c water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: & that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Marueile not that I said to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The^d winde bloweth where it listeth, & thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tel whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is euerie man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and^e knowest not these things?

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we speake that we^f knowe, & testifie, that we haue sene: but ye receiue not our witness.

12 If when I tel you^g heathlie things, ye beleue not, how shulde ye beleue, if I shal tel you of heauenlie things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in^h heauen.

14 *And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man beⁱ lift vp,

15 That whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perishe, but haue eternal life.

16 *For God so loued the worlde, that he^j hath giuen his onely begotten Sone, that whosoever beleueth in him, shulde not perishe, but haue euerlasting life.

17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he shulde^k condemne the worlde, but that the^l worlde through him might be saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shal not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in y^e Name of the onely begottē Sone of God.

19 *And this is the^m condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, & mē loued darkenes rather then light, because their dedes were euil.

20 For euerie man that euil doeth, hateth the light, nether commeth to light, lest his dedes shulde be reprobued.

21 But he that doethⁿ trueth, commeth to the light, that his dedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought^o p according to God.

22 ¶ After these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the^p land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and^q baptizd.

23 And Iohn also baptizd in Enon besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptizd.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Thē there arose a questiō betwene Iohns disciples & the Iewes, about^r purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and said vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome^s thou barest witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, & said, A mā can receiue nothing, except it be giuē him frō heauē.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that^t I said, I am not the Christ, but y^e I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friēd of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of y^e bridegromes voice. This my ioye therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must^u increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: he that is of the^v earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hath sene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimonie, hath sealed that^w God is true.

34 For he whome God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth him^x not the Spirit by^y measure.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus the wearied in the iorney, sate thus on the well: it was about the sixth houre.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to bye meat.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.

d For the Iewes esteemed the Samaritans as wicked, and prophane. e Meaning of him self whom his Father had sent to conuert this woman

f Which is the loue of God in his Sonne poured into our hearts by the holie Ghost vnto euerlasting life, Rom 5, 5 1 ioh. 3, 5 Or, the liuelie water.

11 The woman said vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothing to drawe with, & the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, & he him self drinke thereof, & his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:

g Of the spiriual grace h He shal neuer be dryed vp or destitute

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shal giue him, shal neuer be more thirsty: but the water that I shal giue him, shal be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Syr, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, nether come hither to drawe.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine housband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said I haue no housband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast wel said, I haue no housband.

18 For thou hast had fise housbands, and he whome thou now hast, is not thine housband: that saidest thou truely.

19 The woman said vnto him, Syr, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre cometh, when ye shal nether in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye knowe not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shal worship the Father in spirit, & trueth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit & trueth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know wel that Messias shal come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he wil tell vs all things.

i Til he was liuely touched with her fautes, she mocked and wolde not heare Christ Deut. 18, 6.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and wet her way into the citie, & said to her me, 29 Come, se a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him.

31 In the meane while, his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye knowe not of.

33 Then said the disciples betwene themselves, Hathe anie man broght him meat?

34 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, & then cometh haruest? Beholde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and loke on the regions: for they are white already vnto haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages, & gathereth frute vnto life eternal, that both he that soweth, & he that reapeth, might reioyce together.

1 After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus wēt vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the shepe, a poole called in Ebrewe Bethesda, hauing fīue porches:

3 Which signifieth the house of pouring out, because the water ranne out by conduits.

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halte, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certeine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certeine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am coming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the mā was made whole, and toke vp his bed, and walked: & the same day was the Sabbath.

c This was, to the end that the miracle might be so euident, that no mā coulde speake against it.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carie thy bed.

1er. 17.22.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, & walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed him self away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus founde him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

d The afflictions that we endure, are chastisements for our finnes.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, & soght to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered the, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes soght the more to kil him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but said also that God was his Father, and made him self equal with God.

e That is, proper & peculiar to him alone.
f It was lawful for all Israel to call God their Father, Exod 4.22, but because Christ did attribute to himself, y he had power over all things, and wrought as his Father did, thei gathered y Christ did not onely make him self y Sonne of God, but also equal with him.
g That is, he doeth communicate w him, hauing the same power and the same will.

19 Then answered Iesus, & said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of him self, saue that he seeth y Father do: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth y Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, & sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he him self doeth, and he wil shewe him greater workes then these, that ye shulde marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, & quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth quickeneth whome he wil.

 22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but ha-the committed all ^h iudgement vnto the Sonne,
 23 Because that all men shulde honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoreth not the Sonne, the same honoreth not the Father, which hath sent him.
 24 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, he that heareth my worde, & beleueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, & shal not come into condemnacion, but hath passed from death vnto life.
 25 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, the houre shal come, and now is, when the dead shal heare the voyce of the Sone of God:
 and they that heare it, shal liue.
 26 For as the Father hath life in ^k him self, so likewise hath he giue to the Sonne to haue life in him self, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute ^l iudgement, in that he is the Sone of man.
 28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shal come in the which all that are in the graues, shal heare his voyce.
 29 And they shal come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life:
 but they that haue done euil, vnto the resurrection of condemnacion.
 30 I can do nothing of mine owne self: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgemēt is iust, because I seke not mine owne wil, but the wil of the Father who hath sent me.
 31 If I ^l shulde beare witness of my self, my witness were not ^m true.
 32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I knowe that the witness, which he beareth of me, is true.
 33 * Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witness neuertheles these things I say, y^e ye might be saued.

 35 He was a burning, and a shining ⁿ candle:
 and ye wolde for a ^o season haue reioyced in his light.
 36 But I haue greater witness then the witnes of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finish, the same workes that I do, beare witness of me, that the Father sent me.
 37 And the ^o Father him self, which hath sent me, ^o beareth witness of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at anie time, * nether haue ye sene his shape.
 38 And his worde haue ye not abiding in you: for whome he hath sent, him ye beleue not.
 39 * Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternal life, & they are they which testifie of me.
 40 But ye wil not come to me, y^e ye might haue life.

 41 I receiue not praise of men.
 42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.
 43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and ye receiue me not: if ^p another shal come in his owne name, him wil ye receiue.
 44 How can ye beleue, which ^q I receiue * honour one of another, and seke not the honour that cometh of God alone!
 45 Do not thinke that I wil accuse you to my Father: there is one that ^r accuseth you, ^r euen Moses, in whome ye trust.
 46 For had ye beleued Moses, ye wolde

10 Iesus feedeth five thousand men with five loaves & two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they shoulde not make him King. 26 He reproveth the fleshy hearers of his worde. 41 The carnal are offended at him. 53 The flesh profiteth not.

After these things, Iesus went his way ouer the ^a sea of Galile, or of ^b Tiberias.
 2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

 7 Philippe answered him, * Two hundred penyworthe of bread is not sufficient for them, that euerie one of them may take a litle.
 8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples,
 Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a litle boye here, which hath five barlie loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so manie?
 10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was muche grasse in that place) Then the men sate downe in number, about five thousand.
 11 And Iesus toke the bread, and ^d gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: & likewise of the fishes as muche as they wolde.
 12 And when they were satisfied, he said of the five barlie loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

24 Then the men when they had sene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a trueth the Prophet that shulde come into the worlde.

25 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they wolde come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a mountaine him self alone.

26 ¶ Whē euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 27 * And entred into a ship, and went ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, & Iesus was not come to them.

28 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

29 And when they had rowed about five & twentie, or thirtie furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afraied.

30 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afraied.

31 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whether they went.

32 ¶ The day following, the people which stode on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone,

33 And that there came other shippes from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

34 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, nether his disciples, thei also toke shipping, & came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

35 And when they had founde him on the other side of the sea, thei said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

36 Iesus answered them, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

37 Laboure not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of mā shal giue vnto you: for him hathe * God the Father sealed.

38 Then said they vnto him, What shal we do, that we might worke the * workes of God?

39 Iesus answered, & said vnto them, * This is * worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whome he hathe sent.

40 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we maye se it, and beleue thee? what doest thou worke?

* Our fathers did eat Māna in the desert, as it is * written, He gaue them bread fro heauen to eat.

32 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, * Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the worlde.

34 Then thei said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto the, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shal not hunger, and * he that beleueth in me, shal neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that ye also haue sene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shal come to me: and him that cometh to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne wil, but his wil which hathe sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers wil which hathe sent me, that of all which he hathe giuen me, I shulde lose nothing, but shulde raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the wil of him that sent me, that euerie man which seeth the Sonne, & beleueth in him, shulde haue euerlasting life: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father & mother we knowe? how the saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, & said vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father, which hathe sent me, drawe him: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophetes, And they shalbe all taught of God. Euerie man therefore that hathe heard, & hathe learned of the Father, cometh vnto me, 46 * Not that anie man hathe sene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hathe sene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that beleueth in me, hathe euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which cometh downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it, shulde not dye.

51 I am the * liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if anie man eat of this bread, he shal liue for ever: and the bread that I wil giue, is my flesh, which I wil giue

51 Then the Iewes stroue among them selues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eat?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sone of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

^a Where Christ is not, there death reigneth. 1. Cor. 15, 27.

54 Whosoever eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat in dede, & my blood is drinke in dede.

^y As our bodies are sustained with meat & drinke, so are our soules nourished with the bodie, and blood of Iesus Christ. ^z To eat the flesh of Christ and drinke his blood, is to dwell in Christ and to haue Christ dwelling in vs.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Manie therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can heare it?

^a That is, vnderstand it.

61 But Iesus knowing in him self, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto the, Doeth this offende you?

62 What then if ye shulde see the Sone of man ascende vp where he was before?

^{Chap. 3, 13.} b He meaneth not that his humanitie descended from heauen: but he speaketh touching y^e vnion of bothe natures, attributing to the one that which apperteineth to the other. ^c To wit, if it be separate from y^e spirit, wherof it hath the force: for it cometh of the power of the spirit that the flesh of Christ giueth vs life.

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speak vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleued not, & who shulde betraye him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, manie of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 The said Iesus to the twelue, Wil ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master to whome shal we go? Thou hast the wordes of eternal life:

^d The without Christ there is but death: for his worde onely leadeth vs to life.

69 And we beleue and knowe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

^{Mat. 16, 16.} e Although your number be small, yet shall ye be diminished.

70 Iesus answered the, Haue not I chosen you twelue and one of you is a deuill?

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simo: for he it was that shulde betraye him, though he was one of y^e twelue.

CHAP. VII.

^d Iesus reproveth the ambition of his cousins. 13 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 17 He sheweth how to knowe the truth. 20 The iurise they do vnto him. 47 The Pharisee rebuke the officers because they haue not taken him. 52 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his parts.

^a After these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and wolde not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kil him.

2 Now the Iewes feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Departe hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth anie thing secretly, & he him self seeketh to be famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy self to the worlde.

5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto the, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The worlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euil.

^b Why the worlde hateth Christ. ^c Christ doeth not utterly denie that he wolde go to y^e feast, but signifieth y^e as yet he was not fully determined.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I wil not go vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he said vnto them, and abode stil in Galile.

10 But as soon as his brethren were gone vp, then wet he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuely.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, & said, Where is he?

12 And muche murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Naye: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

^d These were the heads of y^e people who did enuie Christ.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned.

^{Or, letter.}

16 Iesus answered them, & said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If anie man wil do his wil, he shall knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my self.

^e In that, that he is man onely.

18 He that speaketh of him self, seeketh his owne glorie: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no vnrighteousnes is in him.

19 Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you kepeth the Law? Why go ye about to kil me?

^f By this mark we may knowe whether the doctrine be of God, or of man. ^g Nothing contrary or untrue. ^{Exod. 24, 3.}

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kil thee?

^{Chap. 5, 18.} h Who did not know the seiche of the Scribes.

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all marueile.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

ⁱ Because I did it on the Sabbath day. ^{Lewi. 12, 3.} ^{Gen. 17, 10.}

- 27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shal knowe whence he is.
- 28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye *bothe knowe me, and knowe whence I am: yet am I not come of my self, but he that sent me, is true, whome ye knowe not.
- 29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hathe sent me.
- 30 Then they sought to take him, but no mā laid hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.
- 31 Now manie of the people¹ beleued in him, and said, When the Christ cometh, wil he do mo miracles then this man hath done?
- 32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises, and high Priests sent officers to take him.
- 33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a litle while with you, and then go I vnto him that sent me.
- 34 *Ye shal seke me, & shal not finde me, & where I am, can ye not come.
- 35 Then said the Iewes amongs them selues, Whither wil he go, that we shal not finde him? Wil he go vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?
- 36 What saying is this that he said, Ye shal seke me, and shal not finde me: and where I am, can ye not come?
- Len. 23. 16.* 37 Now in the last & *great day of y feast, Iesus stode and cryed, saying, If anie man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.
- 38 He that^o beleueth in me, *as saith the Scripture, out of his bellie shal flowe riuers of water^r of life.
- 39 (*This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleued in him, shulde receiue: for the sholie Gost was not yet giuen because that Iesus was not yet glorified)
- 40 So manie of the people, whē they heard this saying, said, Of a trueth this is the *Prophet.
- 41 Other said, This is the Christ: and some said, But shal Christ come out of Galile?
- 42 *Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shal come of the sede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehē, where Dauid was?
- 43 So was there dissention amōg the people for him.
- 44 And some of them wolde haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.
- 45 Then came the officers to y high Priests & Pharises, & they said vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?
- 46 The officers answered, ¶ Neuer mā spake like this man.
- 47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are ye also deceiued?
- 48 Doethanie of the rulers, or of the Pharises beleue in him?
- 49 But this people, which knowe not the Law, are cursed.
- 50 Nicodemus said vnto the, (*he that came to Iesus by night, & was one of them.)
- 51 Doeth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, * & knowe what he hathe done?
- 52 They answered and said vnto him, Art thou also of Galile? Search and loke: for out of Galile ariseth no Prophet.
- 53 And euerie man went vnto his owne house.

Wherein appeareth the mightie power of Christs worde against his enemies: They alledge the autoritie of man against Gods autoritie.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the treasure, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shal seke me, and shal dye in your sinnes. Whether I go, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Wil he kil him self because he saith, Whether I go, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, i Ye are fro beneth: I am fro aboue: ye are of this worlde: I am not of this worlde.

24 I said therefore vnto you, That ye shal dye in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shal dye in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you k from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.

27 They vnderstode not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, Whē ye haue l lift vp the Sonne of man, then shal ye knowe that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self, but as my Father hathe taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hathe not left me alone, because I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shal knowe the trueth, & the trueth shal make you fre.

33 They answered him, ¶ We be Abrahams fede, and were neuer bonde to any man: why saist thou then, Ye shalbe made fre?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that who so euer committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

37 I knowe that ye are Abrahams fede, but ye seke to kill me, because my worde hathe no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue sene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue sene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus said vnto the, If ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the workes of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that haue tolde you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: we haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then wolde ye loue me: for I proceded forthe, & came from God, nether came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye can not heare my worde.

44 * Ye are of your father the deuill, and the lustes of your father ye wil do: he hathe bene a murtherer from the beginning, & abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why do ye not beleue me?

47 ¶ He that is of God, heareth Gods wordes: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not wel that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

CHAP. IX.

Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde men Christ giueth sight.

1 And as Iesus passed by, he sawe a mā which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parēts, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, ^a Nether hathe this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God shulde be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is ^b day: the night cometh whē no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the worlde, ^{*} I am the light of the worlde.

6 Alsone as he had thus spoken, ^c he spate on the grounde, & made claye of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the claye,

7 And said vnto him, Go wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, ^d Sēt) He went his way therefore, and washed, & came againe seing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had sene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: & others said, He is like him: but he him self said, I am he.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made claye, and anointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I can not tell.

13 [¶] They broght to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 The againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid claye vpon mine eyes, & I washed, and do se.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he kepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do suche miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What saist thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntil they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked the, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now se then?

20 His parents answered them, & said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, ^e can we not tell: he is olde ynough: aske him: he shal answer for him self.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordeined alreadie, that if any mā did confesse that he was the Christ, he shulde be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, ^f Giue glorie vnto God: we knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whither he be a sinner or no, ^g I cannot tell: one thing I knowe, that I was blinde, and now I se.

28 Then checked they him, & said, Be thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We knowe that God spake with Moses: but this man we knowe not frō whence he is.

CHAP. XI.

Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priestes and Pharisees gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

1 And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her heere, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, beholde, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in y^e same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, & dost thou go thither againe.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stonbleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stonbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto the, Our friend Lazarus slepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the natural slepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also go, that we may dye with him.

17 ¶ The came Iesus, & founde that he had line in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalē, about fiftene furlongs of.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, wēt to mete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God wil giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth, and beleueth in me, shall neuer dye. Beleuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which shulde come into the worlde.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

52 And not for the nacion onely, but that he shulde gather together in one ^y children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand, and manie went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Pascheouer, to ^p purifie them selues.

- 26 * If anie man serue me, let him followe me: for where I am, there shal also my seruant be: and if anie man serue me, him wil my Father honour.
- 27 Now is my soule troubled: & what shal I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.
- 28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue bothe glorified it, and wil glorifie it againe.
- 29 Then said the people that stode by and heard, that it was a thundre: others said, An Angel spake to him.
- 30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.
- 31 Now is the iudgement of this worlde: now shal the prince of this worlde be cast out.
- 32 * And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, wil drawe all men vnto me.
- 33 Now this said he, signifying what death he shulde dye.

NOW* before the feast of the Pasceouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he shulde departe out of this worlde vnto the Father, for asmuche as he loued his owne which were in the worlde, vnto the end he^a loued them.
2 And when^b supper was done (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betraye him)
3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, & that he was come from God, and went to God, 4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and toke a towel, and girde him self.
5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples fete, and to wipe them with the towel, wherewith he was girde.
6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my fete?
7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.
8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my fete. Iesus answered him, If I^c wash thee not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.
9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my fete onely, but also the hands & the head.
10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, nedeth not, saue to^d wash his fete, but is cleane euerie whit: and ye are^e cleane, but not all.
11 For he knewe who shulde betraye him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.
12 ¶ So after he had washed their fete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?
13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.
14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your fete, ye also ought to wash^e one anothers fete.
15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye shulde do, euen as I haue done to you.
16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, *The seruuant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.
17 If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye, if ye do them.
18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whome I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, *He y^e eateth bread with me, hath e^e lift vp his heele against me.

19 From hence forth tell I you before it come, y^e when it is come to passe, ye might beleue that I am^e he.

20 *Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send anie, he that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, & testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betraye me.

22 *Then the disciples looked one on another, douting of whome he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, w^{ch} leaned on Iesus^k bosome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, y^e he shulde aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whome I shal giue a soppe, when I haue dipte it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, ^lSatan entred into him. The said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Bie those things that we haue nede of against the featt: or that he shulde giue some thing to the poore.

30 As sone then as he had receiued the soppe, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shal also glorifie him in him self, & shal straight way glorifie him.

33 Little childre, yet a litle while am I with you: ye shal seeke me, but as I said vnto the Iewes, Whither I go, can ye not come: Chap 7, 34. also to you say I now, 34 *A new commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shal all mē knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simō Peter said vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not followe me now: but thou shalt followe me afterwarde.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not followe thee now? I wil lay downe my life for thy sake.

1 And he said to his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleue in God,^a beleue also in me.

2 In my Fathers house are^b many dwelling places: if it were not so, I wolde haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And thogh I go to prepare a place for you, I wil^c come againe, and receiue you vnto my self, that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

5 Thomas said vnto him, Lord, we^d knowe not whither thou goest: how can we then knowe the way?

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am the^e Way, and the Truth, & the Life. No man cometh vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also: and from hence forth ye knowe him, and haue sene him.

8 Philippe said vnto him, Lord, shewe vs^f thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philippe? he that hathe sene me, hathe sene my Father: how the^g saist thou, Shewe vs thy Father?

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he^h doeth the workes.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleue me for the very workes sake.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in me, the workes that I do, he shal do also, & greater then these shal he do: for I go vnto my Father.

13 *And whatsoever ye aske in my Name, that wil I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, I wil do it.

15 If ye loue me, kepe my comandements,

16 And I wil pray the Father, and he shal giue you anotherⁱ Comforter, that he may abide with you for euer.

17 Euen the Spirit of trueth, whome the worlde can not receiue, because it seeth him not, nether knoweth hi: but ye knowe him: for he dwelleth with you, and shal be in you.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortles: but I wil come to you.

19 Yet a litle while, and the worlde shal se me no more, but ye shal se me: because I liue, ye shal liue also.

20 At that day shal ye knowe that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hathe my commandements, and kepeith them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shall be loued of my Father: and I wil loue him, and wil shewe mine owne self to him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not^j Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy self vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue me, he wil kepe my worde, & my Father wil loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him.

24 He that loueth me not, kepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holie Gost, whome the Father wil send in my Name, he shal teache you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the worlde giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I go away, and wil come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye wolde verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue.

30 Hereafter wil I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this worlde commeth, and hathe^k nought in me.

31 But it is that the worlde may knowe that I loue my Father: & as the Father hathe commanded me, so I do. Arise, let vs go hence.

7 If ye abide in me and my wordes abide in you, aske what ye wil, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much frute, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall kepe my commandements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spokē vnto you, that my ioye might remaine in you, and that your ioye might be full.

12 *This is my commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I commande you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends: for all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowne to you.

16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeined you, *that ye go & bring forth the frute, and that your frute remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.

17 These things commande I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde wolde loue his owne: but because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therefore the worlde hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I said vnto you, *The seruant is not greater then his master. *If they haue persecuted me, they wil persecute you also: if they haue kept my worde, they wil also kepe yours.

21 But all these things wil they do vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not known him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto the, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they bothe sene, &

haue hated bothe me, and my Father.

25 But it is that the worde might be fulfilled, that is written in their Law, *They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter shall come, *whome I wil send vnto you from the Father, euen the Spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall witnesse also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, wil thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 And these things wil they do vnto you, because they haue not knowne the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I tolde you the. And these things said I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me and none of you asketh me, *Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue said these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorowe.

7 Yet I tel you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter wil not come vnto you: but if I departe, I wil send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil reprove the worlde of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleue not in me:

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he wil lead you into all trueth: for he shall not speake of him self, but whatsoever he shall heare, shall he speake, and he wil shewe you the things to come.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shal receiue, that your ioye may be ful.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time wil come, when I shal no more speake to you in parables: but I shal shewe you plainly of y^e Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my Name, & I say not vnto you, that I wil pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father him self loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, & came into the worlde: againe I leaue the worlde, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now knowe we that thou knowest all things, and nedeft not that any mā shulde aske thee. By this we beleue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleue now?

32 Beholde, the houre cometh, & is alreadie come, that ye shalbe scattred euerie mā into his owne, and shal leaue me alone:

but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, y^e in me ye might haue peace: in the worlde ye shal haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the worlde.

CHAP. XVII.

The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, bothe for himself and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, & said, Father the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

* As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that he shulde giue eternal life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they knowe thee to be the onely verie God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to do.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne self, with y^e glorie which I had with thee before the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the worlde: * thine they were, and thou gauest the me, and they haue kept thy worde.

7 Now they knowe that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the wordes, which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for y^e worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the worlde, but these are in the worlde, & I come to thes. Holie Father, kepe them in thy Name, * them whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the worlde, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things speake I in y^e worlde, that they might haue my ioye fulfilled in them selues.

14 I haue giuen them thy worde, and the worlde hathe hated them, because they are not of the worlde, as I am not of y^e worlde.

15 I pray not that thou shuldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou kepe them from euil.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I am not of the worlde.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the grounde. 10 Peter smiteth of Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Cai-phas. 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

1 WHen Iesus had spokē these things, he went forth with his disciples ouer y ^a broke Cedro, where was a gardē, into the which he entred, and his disciples.
2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knewe also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.
3 * Iudas then after he had receiued a ^b bāde of men and officers of the high Priests, and of the Pharises, came thither with lan-ternes and torches, and weapons.
4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shul-de come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, Whome seke ye?
5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Ie-sus said vnto thē, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stode with them.
6 Aftone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they wēt backwards, and fel to the grounde.
7 Then he asked them againe, Whome seke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.
8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seke me, let these go their way,

9 Thū was that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, * ^c Of thē which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.
10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drew it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut of his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.
11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shal I not drinke of y cup which my Father hath giue me?
12 Then the bande and the captaine, & the officers of the Iewes toke Iesus, and bounde him, 13 And led him away to * ^d Annas first (for he was Father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high Priest: that same yere) 14 * And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsel to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.
15 ¶ Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, & another disciple, and that disciple was knowē of the high Priest: therefore he wēt in with Iesus into the hall of y high Priest.
16 But Peter stode at the dore without.
Then went out the other disciple which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the dore, and broght in Peter.
17 Then said the maide that kept the dore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.
18 And the seruants and officers stode there, which had made a fyre of coles: for it was colde, and they warmed them selues.
And Peter also stode among them & warmed him self.
19 (¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.
20 Iesus answered him, I spake ^f openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue & in the Tēple, whither the Iewes resorte continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.
21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I said vnto them: beholde, they knowe what I said.
22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the high Priest so?
23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euil spoken, beare witnes of the euil: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?
24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bounde vnto Caiaphas the high Priest)
25 * And Simon Peter stode and warmed him self, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, & said, I am not.

his cousin whose eare Peter smote of, said,

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

b He spake thus disdainfully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie.
Mat. 26. 19.
i As if they shulde say, Thou wilt not suffice vs to do it: for he knew that it was not permitted to them by the Romanes to punish with death.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take he him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not lawful for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifyng what death he shulde dye.

33 ¶ So Pilate entred into the commune hall againe, and called Iesus, & said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Saist thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

k It Randeth not in strength of men nor in worldlie defenses.

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants wolde surely fight, that I shulde not be deliuered to the Iewes; but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King? Iesus answered, Thou saist that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, & for this cause came I into the world, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the trueth: euenie one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

l This was a mocking and disdainful question.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, & said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

40 ¶ Thei cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murderer.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ When Pilate could not avenge the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him up with his superscription to be hanged betwixt two thieves. 23 They cast lottes for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Callest for drinke. 33 Dyeth, and his side is perced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

n He thought to haue pacified the fure of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

And said, Hail, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their roddes.

¶ Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Beholde, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, if I finde no faute in him at all.

¶ Thei came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockery, because Christ called him self King.

¶ Then when the high Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no faute in him.

¶ The Iewes answered him, We haue a Law, and by our Law he ought to dye, because he made him self the Sonne of God.

e Christ was in truth the Sonne of God, and therefore might truly call him self so, without breache of Law: wherefore their colored accusation was falsely applied.

¶ ¶ Whē Pilate then heard that worde, he was the more afraide,

¶ And went againe into the commune hall and said vnto Iesus, Whēce art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

¶ Thei said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to lose thee?

¶ Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

d Her by he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and autoritie.

¶ From thence forth Pilate sought to lose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cēsars friend: for whosoever maketh him self a King, speaketh against Cesar.

¶ ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

f This was a mocking and disdainful question.

¶ And it was the Preparation of the Pasche, and about the sixth houre: and he said vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

g Which was mudday.

¶ But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shal I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

¶ Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. ¶ And they toke Iesus, and led him away.

Psal 68.22.
 28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that y^e * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.
 29 And there was set a vessel ful of vinegre: & they filled a sponge with vinegre, and put it about an hylope stake, and put it to his mouth.

Or fastened it vpon an hylope stake. It may appeare that y^e crosse was as not hie, seime.
 31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies shulde not remaine vpo the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) befoght Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.
Or, the lowest of the cedre was hieft among trees. Mans saluacion is perfected by the onelie sacrifice of Christ: all y^e ceremonies of the Law are ended. Because the day of Christ was 32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.
 33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

 38 * And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a discipule of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) befoght Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and toke Iesus bodie.

Chap 3.2.
 40 ¶ Then toke thei y^e bodie of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of y^e Iewes is to burie.
q This honorable burial was as a preparation & curie vnto the resurrection.
 41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.
 42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was nere.

 3 Peter therefore went forth, & the other discipule, & they came vnto the sepulchre.
 4 So they ranne bothe together, but the other discipule did out runne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
 5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

14 When she had thus said, she turned herself backe and sawe Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why wepest thou? whome seekest thou? She supposing that he had bene the gardener, said vnto him, Syr, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her self, & said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touche me not: for I am not yet^d ascended to my Father, but go to my^e brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, & to your Father, and to my God, and your^f God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had sene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The same daye then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stode in the middes, & said to them, Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they had sene the Lord.

21 Then said Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And whē he had said that, he breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holie Gost.

23 ¶ Whoso euer sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: & whoso euer sinnes ye reteine, they are reteined.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue sene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I se in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I wil not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight daies after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus, whē the doores were shut, and stode in the middes, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and se mine hands, and put forth the third hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithles, but faithful.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast sene me, thou beleuest: blessed are they that haue^k not sene, and haue beleued.

30 ¶ And manie other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, y^e ye might beleue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleuing ye might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commendeth Peter earnestly to fede his shepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 And of Christs manifolde miracles.

After these things, Iesus shewed himself againe to his disciples at y^e sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, & Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I go a fishing. They said vnto him, We also wil go with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, Sirs, haue ye anye meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, & ye shal finde. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whome Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girde his coate to him (for he was naked) and cast him self into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they sawe hotte coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto the, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundred, fiftie and thre: and albeit there were so manie, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, & dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came & toke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Ieſus ſhewed him ſelf to his diſciples, after that he was riſen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So whē they had dined, Ieſus ſaid to Simon Peter, Simon ſonne of Iona, c loueſt thou me more thē theſe? He ſaid vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He ſaid vnto him, Fede my lambes.

16 He ſaid to him againe the ſecōde time, Simon the ſonne of Iona, loueſt thou me? He ſaid vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He ſaid vnto him, Fede my ſhepe.

17 He ſaid vnto him the 3^d third time, Simon the ſonne of Iona, loueſt thou me? Peter was ſorie because he ſaid to him the third time, Loueſt thou me: and ſaid vnto him, Lord, thou knoweſt all things: thou knoweſt that I loue thee. Ieſus ſaid vnto him, Fede my ſhepe.

18 Verely, verely I ſay vnto thee, When thou waſt yong, thou girdedſt thy ſelf, & walkedſt whither thou woldeſt: but when thou ſhalt be olde, thou ſhalt ſtretch forth the thine hands, & another ſhal c^e girde thee, & lead thee whither thou woldeſt not.

19 And this ſpake he, ſignifying by what death he ſhulde glorifie God. And whē he had ſaid this, he ſaid to him, Followe me.

21 When Peter therefore ſawe him, he ſaid to Ieſus, Lord, what ſhal this man doe?

22 Ieſus ſaid vnto him, If I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this diſciple ſhulde not dye. Yet Ieſus ſaid not to him, He ſhal not dye: but if I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that diſciple, which teſtifieth of theſe things, & wrote theſe things, and we knowe that his teſtimonie is true.

25 * Now there are alſo manie other things which Ieſus did, the which if they ſhulde be written euerie one, I ſuppoſe the worlde coulde not containe the booke that ſhulde be written, Amen. Chap 30. 3.

THE ACTES OF THE holie Apoſtles written by Luke the Euangelifte.

THE ARGUMENT

CHRIST, after his aſcenſion, performed his promes to his Apoſtles, and ſent them the holie Goſt, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindeſul of his Church, but wolde be the head & maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein alſo his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan & the worlde reſiſted neuer ſo muche againſt this noble worke, yet by a fewe ſimple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the ſounde of his Goſpel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increaſe thereof, we may plainly perceiue the practiſe and malice which Satan continually ſeeth to ſuppreſſe, and ouerthrowe the Goſpel: he raiſeth conſpiracies, tumultes, commotions, perſecutions, ſlanders and all kinde of crueltie. Againe we ſhal here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterpriſes, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, ſtrengtheneth, and incourageh his moſt valiantly and conſtantly to followe their captaine CHRIST, leauing as it were by this hitorie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the criffe is ſo ioyned with the Goſpel, that they are fellowes inſeparable, and that the end of one aſſiction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, perſecutions, imprifonings and tentations of his, to a good yſſue, giuing them as it were, in ſorrowe, ioye: in bandes, fredome: in priſon, deliuerance: in trouble, quietneſſe: in death, life. Finally, this booke cōteineth manie excellent ſermons of the Apoſtles & diſciples, as touching the death, reſurreccion, and aſcenſion of CHRIST. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remiſſion of ſinne through Ieſus CHRIST. Of the bleſſed immortalitie. An exhortation to the miniſters of CHRISTS flocke. Of repentance, & feare of God, with other principal points of our faith ſo that this onelie hitorie in a manner may be ſufficient to inſtruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

5 *For Iohn in dede baptized with water, but ye shalbe baptized with the holie Gost within these fewe dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shal receiue power of the holie Gost, when he shal come on you: and ye shalbe witnesses vnto me bothe in Ierusalem, & in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost parte of the earth.

9 * And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken vp: for a cloude toke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while thei looked stedfastly towarde heauen, as he went, beholde, two men stode by them in white apparel, 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galile, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal so come, as ye haue sene him go into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of oliues, which is nere to Ierusalem, conteining a Sabbath dayes journey.

13 And when thei were come in, they wet vp into an vpper chamber, where abode bothe Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philippe, and Thomas, Bartlemewe, and Mattheue, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplicati&on with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stode vp in the middes of the disciples and said (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie)

16 Ye men brethren, this Scripture must nedes haue bene fulfilled, which the holie Gost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that toke Iesus.

17 For he was nombred with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministrati&on.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the rewarde of iniquitie: and when he had throwe downe him selfe head long he brast a sondre in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabit&nts of Ierusalem, in so muche, that that field is called in their owne lagage, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the boke of Psalmes, *Let his habitacion be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: also, Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conversant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of the be made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take the roume of this ministrati&on and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray, to go to his owne place.

26 Then they gaue forth their lottes: and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was by a commune consent counted with the Eleue Apostles.

CHAP. II.

¶ And when the day of Pentecoste was come, they were all with one accorde in one place.

4 And suddenly there came a sounde from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie winde, and it filled all the house where they sate.

5 And there appeared vnto them clouen tongues, like fyre, and it sate vpon eche of them.

6 And they were all filled with the holie Gost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them utterance.

7 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euerie nation vnder heauen.

8 Now when this was noised, the multitude came together and were astonied, because that euerie man heard them speake his owne langage.

9 And they wondred all, and marueiled, saying am&og them selues, Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

10 How then heare we euerie man our owne langage, wherein we were borne?

CHAP. III.

The lame is restored to his feet. As Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

- 1 NOW Peter and Iohn went vp together into the Temple, at the ninth houre of prayer.
2 And a certeine man which was a creple fro his mothers wombe, was caryed, whome they laid daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of the that entred into the Temple.
3 Who seing Peter and Iohn, that they wolde entre into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.
4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with Iohn, said, Loke on vs.
5 And he gaue hede vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.
6 Then said Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but suche as I haue, that giue I thee: In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret rise vp and walke.
7 And he toke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his fete and ancle bones receiued strength.
8 And he leaped vp, stode, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people sawe him walke, and praising God,
10 And thei knewe him, that it was he which fate for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple: & they were amased, and sore astonied at that, which was come vnto him.
11 And as the creple which was healed, helde Peter and Iohn, all the people ran amased vnto them in the porche which is called Solomons.

12 So whē Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marueile ye at this? or why loke ye so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne power or godlines, we had made this man go?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, whē he had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 But ye denied the holie one & the iust, and desired a murderer to be giuen you, 15 And killed the Lord of life, whome God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

- 16 And his Name hath made this man founde, whome ye se, and knowe, through faith in his Name: & the faith which is by him, hath giue to him this disposition of his whole bodie in y^e presēce of you all.
17 And now brethre, I knowe that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouerners.
18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophetes, that Christ shulde suffre, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, whē the time of refreshing shal come from the presēce of the Lord.

20 And he shal send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

21 Whome the heauen must containe vntil the time that all things be restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of all his holie Prophetes since the worlde began.

22 For Moses said vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shal raise vp vnto you a Prophet, euen of you brethren like vnto me: ye shal heare him in all things, whatsoever he shal say vnto you.

23 For it shalbe that euerie persone which shal not heare that Prophet, shalbe destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophetes from Samuel, and thence forth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretold of these dayes.

25 Ye are the children of the Prophetes, & of the couenant, which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, Euen in thy sede shal all the kinreds of the earth be blessed.

26 First vnto you hath God raised vp his Sonne Iesus, & him he hath sent to blesse you, in turning euerie one of you from your iniquities.

- their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes, were gathered together at Ierusalem,
- 6 And Annas the chief Priest, & Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priestes.
- 7 And when they had set the before them, they asked, By what power, or^d in what Name haue ye done this?
- 8 Then Peter full of the holie Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, & Elders of Israel,
- 9 For asmuche as we this day are examined of the good dede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,
- 10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome ye haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.
- 11 * This is the stone cast a side, of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
- 12 Nether is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name: vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.
- 13 Now when they sawe the boldnes of Peter and Iohn, & vnderstode that they were vnlearned men and without knowledge, they marueiled, & knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:
- 14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.
- 15 Then they commanded them to go aside out of the Council, and^k conferred among them selues,
- 16 Saying, What shal we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by the, & it is openly knowen to all the that dwell in Ierusalem: and we can not denye it.
- 17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge the, that they speake henceforth to no man in this^l Name.
- 18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in^m no wise they shulde speake or teache in the Name of Iesus.
- 19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto the, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.
- 20 For we can not but speake the things which we haueⁿ sene and heard.
- 21 So they^o threatened them, and let them go, and founde nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.
- 22 For the man was aboute fourtie yere olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed.
- 23 Then as sone as they were let go, they came to their felowes, & shewed all that the hie Priests & Elders had said vnto them.
- 24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accorde, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, & all things that are in them.
- 25 Which^q by the mouth of thy seruāt Dauid hast said, * Why did the Gētiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

- 30 So that thou stretche forth the thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holie Sonne Iesus.
- 31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all^x filled with the holie Ghost, and they spake the worde of God^y boldly.
- 32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one heart, and of one^z soule: nether any of them said, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his^a owne, but they had all things^b commune.
- 33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.
- 34 Nether was there any among them, that^c lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the things that were solde,

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hathe Satan filled thine heart, that thou shuldest lie vnto the holie ^b Gost, and kepe away parte of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, ^c appertained it not vnto thee: and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne ^d power? how is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart?
thou hast not lied vnto me, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these wordes,

10 Then she fell downe straight way at his fete, and yelded vp the gost: and the yong men came in, and founde her dead, and caryed her out, and buryed her by her housbād.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accorde in Solomons porche.

13 And of the other ^h durst no man ioine him self to them: neuertheles the people into the stretes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, whē he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalē, bringing sick folkes, & them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the commune prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison dores, & broght them for-the, and said,

20 Go your way, and stand in the Temple, & speake to the people all the wordes ^m of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Tēple early in the morning & taught.
And the chief Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be broght.

22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certainely we founde ⁿ prison shut as sure as was possible, & the keepers standing without, before the dores: but when we had opened, we founde no man within.

24 Then whē the chief Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doutē of them, whereunto this wolde growe.

25 Then came one and shewed thē, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teache the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and broght them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they shul-de haue bene stoned)

27 And when they had broght them, they set them before the Council, and the chief Priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not we straitly commande you, that ye shulde not teache in this Name: and beholde, ye haue filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, & ye wolde bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God then ^o men.

33 Now when they heard it, they braist for anger, and consulted to slay them.

But when the time of the promes diue nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people * grewe & multiplied in Egypt, Til another King arose, which knewe not Ioseph.
The same dealt ⁱ subtilly with our kinred, and euil intreated our fathers, & made them to cast out their yong children, that they shulde not remaine alie.
* The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house thre moneths.
And when he was cast out, Pharaos daughter toke him vp, & nourished him for her owne sonne.
And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in dedes.
Now when he was full fortie yere olde, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.
* And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrel that had the harme done to him, & smote the Egyptian.
For he supposed his brethren wolde haue vnderstand, that God by his hand shulde giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.
* And the next day, he shewed him self vnto them as they stroue, and wolde haue set them at one againe, saying, Syrs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?
But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee

a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?
Wilt thou kil me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?
Then fled Moses at that saying, & was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.
And when fourtie yeres were expired,
there appeared to him in the * wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame ^k of fyre, in a bush.
And when Moses sawe it, he wondred at the sight: & as he drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,
I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, & durst not beholde it.
Then the Lord said to him, ^m Put of thy shoes from thy fete: for the place where thou standest, is holie ground.
I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I wil send thee into Egypt.
This Moses whome thei forsoke, saying,
Who made thee a prince and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hands of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.
He * brought them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wilderness * fourtie yeres.
This is that Moses, which said vnto the childre of Israel, * A ⁿ Prophet shal ^y Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shal ye heare.
* This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the ^o Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the liuelie oracles to giue vnto vs.
To whome our fathers wolde not obey, but refused, & in their hearts turned backe again into Egypt,
Saying vnto Aaron, * Make ^q vs gods that may go before vs: for ^r we knowe not what is become of this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.
And they made a calfe in those daies, and offered sacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne madnes.
Then God turned himself away, & * gaue them vp to serue the ^s hoste of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophetes, * O house of Israel, haue ye offered to me slayne beafts & sacrifices by the space of fourtie yeres in the wilderness?
And ye ^t toke vp the tabernacle of * Moloch, & ^y starre of your god Remphan, figures, w^h ye made to worship them: therefore I wil carie you away beyode Babylo.

54 But when they heard these things, their

55 But he being ful of the holie Gost, loked stedfastly into heauen, and sawe the glorie of God, and Iesus standing at^d the right hand of God,

56 And said, Beholde, I se the heauē open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shout with a loude voyce, and stopped their eares, and^e ran-ne vpon him all at once,

58 And cast him out of the citie, and stoned him: and the^{*} witnesses laid downe their clothes at a yong mans fete, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on God, & said, Lord Iesus, receiue my spirit.

60 And he kneled downe, and cryed with a loude voyce, ^{*}Lord, lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he slept.

CHAP. VIII.

² Steuen is lamented & buried. ³ The rage of the Jewes and of Saul against them. ⁴ The faithful scatted, preache here & there ⁹ Samaria is seduced by Simo the forcerer, but was conuerted by Philippe, and confirmed by the Apostles ¹⁸ The couetousnes and hypocrisie of Simon, ²⁶ And conuersion of the Eunuche.

And Saul consented to his death, and at that time, there was a great perfecution against the Church which was at Jerusalem, & they were all scatted abroade through the regions of Iudea & of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certeine men fearing God, ^acaryed Steuen amongs the, to be buried, and made great^b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euerie house, and drewe out bothe men and women, and put them into prifon.

4 Therefore they that were scatted abroade, went to and fro preaching the worde.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie^c of Samaria, & preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue hede vnto those things which Philippe spake, with one accorde, hearing & seing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, & that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioye in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a cer-teine man called Simon, which vsed wit-checraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he him self was some great man.

10 To whome they^d gaue hede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great^e power of God.

11 And they gaue hede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But aslone as they beleued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and in the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized bothe men and women.

13 Then Simon him self^f beleued also and was baptized, & continued with Philippe, and wondred, when he sawe the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now whē the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had re-ceiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the^g holie Gost.

16 (For as yet, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized^h onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, & they receiued the holie Gost.

18 And when Simon sawe, that through laying on of the Apostles hads the holie Gost was giuen, he offered them money,

21 Thou hast nether parte nor fellowship in this busines: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I see that thou art in y gall of bitterness, and in the bonde of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, y none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 So they, when they had testified and preached the worde of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritans.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise, and go toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe fro Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.

27 And he arose and went on: and beholde, a certeine Eunuche of Ethiopia Cadaces the Quene of the Ethiopians chief Gouerner, who had the rule of all her treasure, & came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he red Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philippe, Go nere & ioyne thy self to yonder charet.

30 And Philippe ranne thether, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, & said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philippe, that he wolde come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he red, was this, * He was led as a shepe to y slaughter: & like a lambe domme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie his iudgement hathe bene exalted: but who shal declare his generation? for his life is taken fro the earth.

34 Then the Eunuche answered Philippe, and said, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of him self, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certeine water, and the Eunuche said, Se, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philippe said vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou maist. Then he answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charet to stand stil: and they went downe bothe into the water, bothe Philippe & the Eunuche, and he baptized him.

39 And as sone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that y Eunuche sawe him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philippe was founde at Azotus, & he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, til he came to Cefarea.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe y as he was come nere to Damascus, suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

4 And he fel to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whome thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

6 He then bothe trembling and astonied, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I do? And y Lord said vnto him, Arise and go into the citie, and it shalbe tolde thee what thou shalt do.

15 Then the Lord ſaid vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a ^b choſen veſſel vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, & Kings, and the children of Iſrael.

16 For I wil ſhewe him, how many things he muſt ſuffre for my Names ſake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the houſe, and put his hands on him, and ſaid, Brother Saul, the Lord hath ſent me (euen Ieſus ſ appeared vnto thee in the way as thou cameſt) that thou mighteſt receiue thy ſight, and be filled with the holie Goſt.

18 And immediatly there fel from his eyes as it had bene ſcales, & ſuddenly he receiued ſight, and aroſe, and was baptized, 19 And receiued meat, & was ſtrengthened. So was Saul certeine dayes with the diſciples which were at Damafcus.

20 And ſtraight way he preached Chriſt in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

21 So that all that heard him, were amafed, and ſaid, Is not this he, that deſtroyed the which called on this Name in Ieruſalem, & came hither for that intent, ſ he ſhoulde bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul encreaſed the more in ſtrength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damafcus, ^k confirming, that this was the Chriſt.

23 And after ^l that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes toke counſel together, to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knowne of Saul: now they ^m watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the diſciples toke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a baſket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ieruſalem, he aſſaide to ioyn him ſelf with the diſciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a diſciple.

27 But Barnabas toke him, and brought him to the Apoſtles, and declared to them, how he had ſene the Lord in the way, & that he had ſpoken vnto him, & how he had ſpoke boldly at Damafcus in ſ Name of Ieſus.

28 And he ⁿ was conuerſant with ^o them at Ieruſalem, 29 And ſpake boldly ^p in the Name of the Lord Ieſus, & ſpake and diſputed with the Greciās; but they went about to ſlay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they

31 Then had the Churches reſt through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holie Goſt.

32 And it came to paſſe, as Peter walked through out all quarters, he came alſo to the ſainctes which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he founde a certeine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, and was ſicke of the palſie.

34 The ſaid Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Ieſus Chriſt maketh thee whole: ariſe and make vp thy bed. And he aroſe immediatly.

35 And ^r all that dwelt at Lydda and ^s Saron, ſawe him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was alſo at Ioppa a certeine woma a diſciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called ^t Dorcas) ſhe was ^u ful of good workes & almes which ſhe did.

37 And it came to paſſe in thoſe dayes, that ſhe was ſicke and dyed: and when they had ^v waſhed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuche as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, and the diſciples had heard that Peter was there, they ſent vnto him two men, deſiring that he wolde not delaye to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter aroſe and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes ſtoode by him weping, and ſhewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while ſhe was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and knelled downe, and praid, and turned him to the bodie, and ſaid, Tabitha, ariſe. And ſhe opened her eyes, and when ſhe ſawe Peter, ſate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand & liſt her vp, and called the ^x ſainctes & widdowes, and reſtored her alieue.

42 And it was knowne throughout all Ioppa, and manie beleued in the Lord.

4 But when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers & thine almes are come vnto remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, & call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shal tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, & a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iorney, and drewe nere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then waxed he an hungred, and wolde haue eatē: but while they made some thing readie, he fel into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted, or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hathe purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessel was drawn vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in his self what this visio which he had sene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, & asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, three men seke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, & go with them, and doute nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter wēt downe to the men, which were sent vnto him frō Cornelius, & said, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good reporte among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holie Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy wordes.

23 Then called he them in, & lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certeine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, & had called together his kinsmen, and special friends, 25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fel downe at his fete and worshipped him.

26 But Peter toke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my self am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, & founde manie that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe that it is an vnlawful thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hathe shewed me, that I shulde not callanie man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying naye, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me.

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes ago, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I praid in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he cometh, shal speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast wel done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a trueth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persones.

35 But in euerie natio he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 Ye knowe the worde which God hathe sent to his childre of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

37 Euen the worde which came through all Iudea beginning in Galile, after the baptism which Iohn preached,

38 To wit, how God anointed Iesus of Nazaret with the holie Ghost, and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did bothe in the land of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem: whome they slewe, hanging him

h Shewed to muche reuerence, and farre passing decet ordre, as though Peter had bene God.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, & magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can anie man a forbid water, that these shulde not be baptized, which haue receiued the holie Gost, as well as we?

NOW the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard, that the Gentiles had also receiued the worde of God.

3 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision a contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to b them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I sawe this vision, A certeine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great shete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, & foules of the heauē.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at anie time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

a For they coulde not yet comprehend this secret, w^h was hid from the Angels the secret, euen from the creation of the worlde. Eph. 3. 3. cōf. 1. 26. b He purged his fact before y^e Church.

10 And this was done thre times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then beholde, immediatly there were thre me already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I shulde go with them, without douting: moreover these six brethren came with me, & we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how he had sene an Angel in his house, which stode and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 He shal speake wordes vnto thee, whereby bothe thou and all thine house shalbe saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holie Gost fel on them,  euen* as vpon vs at the beginning. Chap 2. 4. & 3. 6.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lord, how he said,  Iohn* baptized with water, but ye shalbe c baptized with the holie Gost. Chap 1. 5. & 19. 4. mat 3. 11.

19 ¶ And they which were  scattered* abroad because of the  affliction* that arose about Steuen, walked throughout til they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the f Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the h hand of the Lord was with them so that a great number beleued & turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, & they sent forth Barnabas that he shulde go vnto h Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come & had sene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they wolde cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holie Gost, and faith, and muche people ioyned them selues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seke Saul:

26 And when he had founde him, he brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe that a whole yere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught muche people, in so muche, that the disciples were first called  Christians* in Antiochia. || Where as before they were called disciples, now they are named Christians.

27 In thoe dayes also came Prophetes fro Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the ^k Spirit, that there shulde be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euerie man according to his habilitie, ^l purposed to send succour vnto the brethern which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians. 2 He killeth Iames, 4 And putteth Peter in prison. 7 Whome the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 21 The horrible death of Herode. 24 The Gospel flourisheth. 25 Barnabas & Saul returning to Antiochia take Iohn Marke with them.

NOW about that time, ^a Herode the King stretched forth his hands to vex certaine of the Church.

2 And he killed Iames the ^b brother of Iohn with the sworde.

3 And when he sawe that it ^c pleased the Iewes, he proceded further, to take Peter also (then were ^d daies of vnleauened bread)

4 And whē he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to ^e foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herode wolde haue broght him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bounde with two chaines, and the keepers before the dore kept the prison.

7 ^g And beholde, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fel off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Girde thy self, and binde on thy ^h sandales. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, & knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had sene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the secōde watche, they came vnto the y^rō gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by its owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one strete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to him self, he said, Now I know for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the ^f waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where manie were gathered together and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie dore, a maide came furthe to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie dore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stode before the entrie.

15 But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his ^g Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and whē thei had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them how the Lord had broght him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into ^h another place.

18 ¶ Now as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, & founde him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidō, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and ⁱ perswaded Blaſtus the Kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the Kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arrayed him self in royal apparel, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he ^k gaue not glorie vnto God, so that he was catē^l of wormes, and gaue vp the goſt.

24 And the worde of God ^m grewe, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their ⁿ office, and toke with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certeine Prophetes and teachers, as Barnabas, & Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, & Manahen (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

Now as they ministred to the Lord, & fasted, the holie Gost said, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

Then fasted they and praied, and laid their hands on them, and let them go.

And they, after they were sent forth of the holie Gost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

And whē they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they founde a certeine forcerer, a false prophet, being a Iewe, named Bariesus,

Which was with y Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the worde of God.

But Elymas, the forcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstode them, & focht to turne away the Deputie frō the faith.

Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being ful of the holie Gost, set his eyes on him,

And said, O ful of all subtiltie and all mischief, the childe of the deuill, & enemye of all righteousnes, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight waies of y Lord?

Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, & thou shalt be blinde, & not se the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a miste and a darkenes, and he went about, seking some to lead him by the hand.

Then the Deputie when he sawe what was done, beleued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

Now when Paul and they that were with him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

And after the lecture of the Law & Prophetes, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue anie worde of exhortacion for the people, say on.

Then Paul stode vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, & with an high arme brought them out thereof.

And about the time of fortie yeres, suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

And he destroyed seuen nacions in the land of Chanaan, & deuided their land to them by lot.

Then afterwarde he gaue vnto them Iudges about foure hundreth and fiftie yeres, vnto the time of Samuel y Prophet.

So after that they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fortie yeres.

And after he had takē him away, he raised vp Dauid to be their King, of whome he witnessed, saying, I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which wil do all things that I wil.

Of this mans sēde hathe God accordig to his promes raised vp to Israel, the Sauour Iesus:

When Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, he said, Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthie to lose.

Ye men and brethren, children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you seareth God, to you is the worde of this saluacion sent.

For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are red euerie Sabbath daye, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

And thogh they founde no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they toke him downe from the tre, and put him in a sepulchre.

But God raised him vp from the dead.

And he was sene manie dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witness vnto the people.

And we declare vnto you, that touching the promes made vnto the fathers,

God hathe fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotē thee.

the holie things of Dauid, which are faithful.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another place, *Thou wilt not suffer thine Holie one to se corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsel of God, he slept, & was laid with his fathers, & sawe corruption.

37 But he whome God raised vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it known vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things, from which ye coulde not be iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euerie one that beleueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophetes, 41 * Beholde, ye despisers, & wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a worke in your daies, a worke which ye shal not beleue, if a man wolde declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they wolde preache these wordes to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, manie of the Iewes, and proselytes that feared God, followed Paul & Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole cite together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes sawe the people, they were full of enuie, & spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessarie that the worde of God shulde first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues unworthie of euerlasting life, lo, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluacion vnto the end of the worlde.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord: and as manie as were ordeined vnto eternal life, beleued.

49 Thus the worde of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred up deuoute & honorable women, & the chief men of the cite, & raised persecucion against Paul & Barnabas, & expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shooke of the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioye, and with the holie Ghost.

3 God giueth successe to his words. 6 Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra thei wolde do sacrifice to Barnabas & Paul, which refuse it, & exhorite the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 23 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appointe ministers. 26 And passing through manie places, make reporte of their diligence at Antiochia.

And it came to passe in Iconiu, that they went bothe together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude bothe of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleued.

But the vnbeleuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the worde of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

And when there was an assault made bothe of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to do them violence, and to stone them,

They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, & vnto the region rounde about,

And there were preaching the Gospel.

¶ Now there sate a certeine man at Lystra, impotent in his fete, which was a creple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

Said with a loude voyce, Stand vp right on thy fete. And he leaped vp, & walked.

Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speache of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenes of men.

And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, & Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

Then Iupiters priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlandes vnto the gates, & wolde haue sacrificed with the people.

But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, & ran in among the people, crying,

And saying, O men, why do ye these things? We are euen men, subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preache vnto you, that ye shoulde turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, & all things that in them are.

29 That is, that ye absteine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye kepe your selues, ye shal do wel. Fare ye wel.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the epistle.

31 And when they had red it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas and Silas being Prophetes, exhorted the brethre with manie wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had taried there a space, they were let go in^e peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding^e Silas thought good to abide there stil.

35 Paul also and Barnabas cōtinued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with manie other the worde of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certeine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, & visite our brethren in euerie citie, where we haue preached y^e worde of y^e Lord, & se how thei do.

37 And Barnabas counseled to take with them Iohn, called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not mete to take him vnto their companie, which departed frō them from Pamphilia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred that they departed a sunder one from the other, so that Barnabas toke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

3 Therefore Paul wolde that he shulde go forth with him, & toke and^e circumcised him, because of the Iewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all, that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to kepe, ordered of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and encreased in nombre daily.

26 And suddēly there was a great earthquake, so that the fundation of the prison was shaken: & by and by all the dores opened, and euerie mans bandes were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his slepe, and when he sawe the prison dores open, he drew out his sworde and wolde haue killed him self, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed w^a a loude voyce, saying, Do thy self no harme: for we are all here.

34 And when he had broght them into his house, he ¹⁰ set meat before them, and reioycēd that he with all his household beleued in God.

35 And when it was day, ¹¹ the gouernours sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, saying, The gouernours haue sent to lose you: now therefore get remēbring you hence, and go in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncōdemned, which are ^a Romaines, they haue cast vs into prison, & now wolde they put vs out priuely: nay verely: but let them come & bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the gouernours, who ^a feared when they heard that they were Romaines.

39 Then came they and prayed them, and broght them out, and desired them to departe out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had sene the brethrē, they comforted them, and departed.

abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tentes.)

And he disputed in the Synagogue eue- rie Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, & the Grecians.

Now when Silas & Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shooke his raiment, & said vnto them,

Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: fro hence forth wil I go vnto the Gentiles.

So he departed thence, and entred into a certeine mans house, named Iustus, a wor- shipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue,

And Crispus the chief ruler of the Sy- nagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his housholde: and many of the Corin- thians hearing it, beleued & were baptized.

Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & holde not thy peace.

For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue mu- che people in this citie.

So he continued there a yere and six mo- neths, and taught the worde of God amog them.

Now when Gallio was Deputie of A- chaia, the Iewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and broght him to the iud- gement seat, Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to thes Law.

And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euil dede, o ye Iewes, I wolde according to reason main- teine you.

But if it be a question of wordes, and na- mes, and of your Law, loke ye to it your selues: for I wil be no iudge of those things.

And he draue them from the iudgemēt seat.

Then toke all the Grecians Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and bet him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he toke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shor- ne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vowe.

Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

Who desired him to tary a longer time with them; but he wolde not consent,

But bade them fare wel, saying, I must needs kepe this feast that commeth, in Ie- rusalem: but I wil returne againe vnto you, *if God wil. So he sailed from Ephesus.

¶ And whē he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: & when he had sa- luted the Church, he wēt downe vnto An- tiochia.

Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galacia & Phrygia by order, strengthe- ning all the disciples.

And a certeine Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent mā, & mightie in the Scriptures.

The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, & he spake feruently in the Spi- rit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knewe but the baptisme of Iohn onely.

And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whome when Aquila & Pri- cilla had heard, they toke him vnto them, and expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

And when he was minded to go into A- chaia, the biethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receaue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe the muche which had beleued through grace.

For mightely he confuted publicly the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul whē he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and founde certeine disciples,

And said vnto the, Haue ye receued the holie Gost sence ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so muche as heard whether there be an holie Gost.

And he said vnto them, Vnto what we- re ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

Then said Paul, Iohn verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they shulde beleue in him, which shulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

So when they heard it, they were bapti- zed in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and so be dedicate and consecrate vnto him: to be baptized in the death of Christ, or for the dead, or into one bodie, vnto remission of sinnes, is, thus sinne by Christs death may be abolished, and dye in vs, & that we may growe in Christ our head, and that our sinnes may be washed away by the blood of Christ. * Mar 3. 21. mar. 1. 8 luk 3. 16 iohn 1. 27 chap 1. 5 & 2. 2. & 12. 6. c Endewed with the visible graces of the holie Gost.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldly for the space of thre moneths, disputing & exhorting to the things that apperteine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certeine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euil of the way of God before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schole of one Tyrannus.

¶ From five a clocke vnto ten.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the worde of the Lord Iesus, bothe Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no smale miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his bodie were brought vnto the sicke, kerchefts, or handkerchefts, and the diseases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

Or, napkins. e This was to authorize the Gospell, and to confirme Pauls ministerie, not to cause men to worship him or his napkins. Or, consuetudine. f They abuse Pauls autoritie, & without any vocation of God, vsurpe that which is not in mans power.

13 Then certeine of the vagabonde Iewes, exorcistes, toke in hand to name ouer the which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We fadiure you by Iesus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certeine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome y euil spirit was, ran on them, & ouercame them, & preuailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Iewes & Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, & feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and cōfessed, and shewed their workes.

g That is, declared by confession of their finnes and by shewing good workes y they were faithful. h This mounteth to of our money about 2000 markes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bokes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & founde it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightely, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also se Rome.

i By the motion of the holie Gost, he vnderstode this ierney.

k That is, about the state of the Christians: for they condemned the Christians because they left the olde religion, & brought in another trade of doctrine.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no smale trouble about that way.

24 For a certeine man named Demetrius a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gainer vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome he called together, with the workemen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye knowe that by this craft we haue our goods.

26 Moreouer ye se and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almoste through out all Asia this Paul hath persuaded, & turned away muche people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with hands,

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the state shulde be reproued, but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana shulde be nothing esteemed, and that it wolde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the worlde worshippeth, shulde be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was full of cōfusiō, and they rushed into the commune place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his journey.

30 And whē Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certeine also of the chief of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he wolde not present him self in the commune place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemblie was out of order, and the more parte knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and wolde haue excused the matter to the people.

q And set him in an hie place where the people coulde not come nere him but whēcer he might wel heare his voyce.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almoste for the space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne clarke when he had stayed the people, said, Ye me of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue nether commit sacrilege, neither do blaspheme your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any mā, the lawe is open, & there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

Or, priuilege. l What simpletie doeth not conuentionalitie drue a man vnto?

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutyphus 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOW after the tumulte was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with manie wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there thre moneths, because the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These wet before, & taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forthe from ^a Phisippi, after the daies of vnleauened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in fise daies, where we abode seuen daies.

7 And ^b the first day of the weke, the disciples being come together to ^c breake bread, Paul preached vnto the, readie to departe on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were manie lightes in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certeine yong^d man, named Eutyphus, fallen into a depe slepe: & as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with slepe, fell downe from the third losfe, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and laid him self vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he commoned a long while til the dawning of the daye, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boie aliue, and they were not a litle comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went forthe to ship, & sailed vnto the ^e ane ^f Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and wolde him self go a fote.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next daye we arriued at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next daye we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he wolde not spend the time in Asia: for he halted to be, if he colde possiblie, at Ierusalem, at the day of ^g Pentecoste.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of ^h the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe fro the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons, 21 Witnessing bothe to the Iewes, & to the Grecians the ^l repentance towarde God, & ^m faith towarde our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now beholde, I go ⁿ bounde in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and knowe not what things shal come vnto me there,

24 But I passe not at all, nether is my life deare vnto my self, so that I may fulfil my course with ioye, and the ministracion which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie ^p the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now beholde, I knowe that hence forth ye all, through whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shal se my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the ^q blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you ^r all the counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holie Ghost hathe made you Ouerseers, to fede the Church of God, which he hathe purchased with his ^s owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shal gieuous wolues entre in among you, not sparing the flocke.

ger that he was in, and how he escaped.

1 And as we lauched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the daye following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ship that went ouer vn-

3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed towarde Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde disciples, we taryed there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul a through the Spirit, that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem.

5 But whē the daies were ended, we departed, and went our way, and thei all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: & we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we toke ship, & thei returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one daye.

8 And the next day, Paul & thei that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesa-rea: and we entred into the house of Philippe the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

Now he had foure daughters virgines, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taryed there manie dayes, there came a certeine Prophet fro Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and feete, and said, Thus saith the holie Gost, So shal the Iewes at Ierusalē binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer him into the hands of Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, bothe we and other of the same place besought him that he wolde not go vp to Ie-rusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What do ye weping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bounde onely, but also to dye at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he wolde not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The wil of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trusted vp our fardeles, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certeine of the disciples of Cefarea, & broght with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whome we shulde lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next daye Paul went in with vs vnto James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by ordre all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministracion.

20 So when thei heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how manie thousand Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teacheest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and saist, that they ought not to circumcise their children, nether to liue after the scu-ltomes.

22 What is then to be done, the multitude must nedes come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we saye to thee.
We haue foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, & purifie thy self with the,
and contribute with them, that they maye shauē their heades: and all that knowe, that those things, whereof they haue bene

26 Then Paul toke the men, and the next day wa: purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the daies of the purification, vntil that an offering shulde be offered for euerie one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (whē they sawe him in the Temple) moued all the people, and ^k laid hands on him, ^l crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Law, and this place: moreover, he hathe broght Grecians into the Temple, and hathe ^l polluted this holie place.

28 For they had sene before Trophimus an Ephesiā with him in the citie, whome they supposed that Paul had broght into the Temple.

29 Then all the citie was moued, & the people ran together: and they toke Paul, and drew him out of the Tēple, & forthewith the doores were shut.

30 But as they went about to kill him, tydings came vnto the chief Captaine of the bāde, that all Ierusalem was on an vp-roare.

31 Who immediatly toke souldiers and ^m Centurions, and ran adowne vnto them: and when they sawe the chief Captaine & the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

32 Then the chief Captaine came nere and toke him, & commanded him to be bounde with two chaines, and demāded who he was, and what he had done.

33 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when he colde not knowe the certeinetic for the tumulte, he cōmanded him to be led into the castle.

34 And whē he came vnto the griecces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for y violence of the people.

35 For the multitude of y people followed after, crying, Away with him.

36 And as Paul shulde haue bene led into the castle, he said vnto the chief Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greke?

37 Art not thou the * o Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, & led out into the wildernes foure thousand mē that were murtherers?

38 Then Paul said, Douteles I am a man which am a Iewe, & citizen of * Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, & I beseeche thee, suffre me to speake vnto the people.

39 And when he had giué him licence, Paul stode on the griecces, & beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrue tongue, saying,

2 (And whē they heard that he spake in the Hebrue tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said)

3 I am verely a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia, but broght vp in this citie at the * fete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the Fathers, and was zealous towarde God, as ye all are this day.

4 * And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison bothe men and women,

5 As also y chief Priest doeth beare me witness, & all the state of the Elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring the which were there, bounde vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 ¶ And so it was, as I iourneid and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light rounde about me.

7 So I fel vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whome thou persecutest.

9 Moreover they that were with me, sawe in dede a light and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and go into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 So when I colde not se for the glorie of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias a godlie man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwell there, 13 Came vnto me, and stode, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: & that same houre I looked vpon him.

22 ¶ And they heard vnto this worde, but the they liſt vp their voyces, and ſaid, Away with ſuche a felowe from the earth: for it is not mete that he ſhulde liue.

23 And as they cryed and caſt of their clothes, and threwe duſt into the aire,

24 The chief captaine commanded him to be led into the caſtle, & bade that he ſhulde be ſcourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed ſo on him.

25 And as they bounde him with thongs, Paul ſaid vnto the Cēturion that ſtoode by, Is it lawful for you to ſcourge one that is a Romaine, and not condemned?

f Not becauſe he was borne at Rome, but by reaſon of his citie: for Tarſus was inhabited by the Romans, and was their Colonia, whereof read cha. 16. 12.

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chief captaine, ſaying, Take heed what thou doeſt: for this man is a Romaine.

27 Then the chief captaine came, and ſaid to him, Tell me, art thou a Romaine? And he ſaid, Yea.

28 And the chief captaine answered, With a great ſumme obteined I this burgeſſhip. Then Paul ſaid, But I was ſo borne.

g This priuiledge was oft times giuen in recompence of ſeruiſe to them that were ſlaves of Rome, & to their childre, though they were not borne in the citie.

29 Then ſtraight way they departed from him, which ſhulde haue examined him: & the chief captaine alſo was afraid, after he knewe that he was a Romaine, and that he had bounde him.

30 On the next day, becauſe he wolde haue knowne the certeinetic wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loſed him from his bondes, & commanded the hie Priests and all their Council to come together: and he brought Paul, and ſet him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answer of Paul being smitten, and the overthrowe of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes layed waite for him, he is sent to Caſarea.

And Paul behelde earnestly the Council, and said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntil this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded the that stode by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And the that stode by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speake euil of thy Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one parte were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissension betweene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was deuided.

8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, nether Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse both.

9 Then there was a great crye: & the Scribes of the Pharises parte rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euil in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chief captaine, fearing lest Paul shulde haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the caſtle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stode by him, & said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ieruſalem, so must thou beare witnes also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certein of the Iewes made an asſembly, and bounde them selues with an othe, saying, that they wolde nether eat nor drinke, til they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bounde our selues with a ſolene othe, that we wil eat nothing, vntil we haue ſlaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Council signifye to the chief captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though ye wolde knowe ſome thing more perſectly of him, and we, or euer he come nere, wil be readie to kil him.

a Paul doeth not curſe the hie Priests, but denounceth ſharply the puniſhment of God which ſhulde light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law doeth transgreſſe it.

b He made this excuſe as it were in mockerie, as if he wolde ſay, I knowe nothing in this man wortheie of office of the hie Priest.

c He denieth not but there were other points, but he expreſſeth that for the which the Sadduces that were the chief gouerners, hated him moſte.

d Vanderſtanding both kindes, the Angels & the ſpirits, which he concludeth vader one, & the reſurrection which is the other parte.

e The worde ſignifieth curſing, as when a man euer ſweareth, voweth or wiſheth him ſelf to die, or to be giuen to the deuil, except he bring his purpoſe to paſſe.

16 But when Pauls sisters^f sonne heard of their laying await, he went, and entred into the castle, and tolde Paul, 17 And Paul called one of [¶] Cēturiōns vnto him, & said, Bring this yong man vnto the chief captaine: for he hathe a certeine thing to shewe him.

18 So he toke him, and broght him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong mā vnto thee, which hathe some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chief captaine toke him by the hand, and went aparte with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou woldest bring for-the Paul to morow into the Council, as though they wolde inquire somewhat of him more perfirely.

21 But let them not persuaue thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde them selues with an othe, that they wil nether eat nor drinke, til they haue killed him:
and now are they readie, and wait for thy promes.

22 The chief captaine then let the yong man departe, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had^g shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certeine Centuriōns, saying, Make readie two hundredth souldiers, that they may go to Cesa-rea, and horsmen thre score and ten, and two hundredth, with dartes at the thirde houre of the night.

24 And let them make readie an horse that Paul being set on, may be broght safe vnto Felix the Gouvernour.

25 And he wrote an^h epistle in this maner,

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and shulde haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, ^h perceiuing that he was a Romaine.

28 And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I broght him forth into their council.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthie of death, or of bondes.

30 And whē it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Fare wel.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, toke Paul, and broght him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned vnto the castell.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the Gouvernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouvernour had red it, he asked of whatⁱ prouince he was: and whē that it was so.

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues loke for also, shalbe bothe of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeouour my self to haue alway a cleare conscience towards God, & towards men.

17 Now after many yeres, I came and broght almost to my nacion & offrings.

21 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

22 Now when Felix heard these things, he differred them, & said, When I shal more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this way, by the coming of Lyfias, y chief Captaine, I wil decide your matter.

23 Then he commanded a Centurion to kepe Paul, and that he shulde haue ease, and that he shulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

24 And after certeine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, & he called for the Paul, & heard him of the faith in Christ.

25 And as he disputed of righteousness, and temperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, & answered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I wil call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money shulde haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rourne: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bounde.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 3 He answereth for himself. 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is brought forth.

1 When Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chief of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he wolde send for him to Ierusalem: and they laid wait to kil him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea, & y he him self wolde shortly departe thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be anie wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when he had taried among the no more then ten dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day saie in the iudgement seat, & commanded Paul to be broght.

7 And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stode about him and laid manie and gricuous complaints against Paul, which they coulde not proue, Forasmuche as he answered, that he had nether offended anie thing against y Law of the Iewes, nether against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

8 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

9 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie wel knowest.

10 For if I haue done wrong, or committed anie thing worthie of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things, whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

11 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

12 And after certeine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

13 And when they had remained there manie dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certeine man left in prison by Felix.

14 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

15 To whome I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romaines for fauour to deliuer anie man to the death before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend him self, concerning the crime.

12 At which time, euen as I went to *Damascus with autoritie, & cōmiſſion from the high Priests, Chap. 9. 3.

13 At midday, o King, I ſawe in the way a light from heauen, paſſing the brightnes of the ſunne, ſhine rounde about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice ſpeaking vnto me, and ſaying in the Hebrew tongue, *Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke againſt prickles. Chap. 9. 4. & 22. 7.

15 Then I ſaid, Who art thou, Lord? And he ſaid, I am Ieſus whome thou perſecuteſt.

16 But riſe and ſtand vp on thy ſere: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpoſe, to appoint thee a miniſter and a witneſs, bothe of the things which thou haſt ſene, & of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee, 17 Deliuering thee from the ^d people, & frō the Gētiles, vnto whome now I ſend thee, d Of the Iewes.

18 To ^e opē their eyes, that they may turne from darkenes to light, and frō the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of ſinnes, and inheriſce amōg them, which are ſanctified by faith in me. e Although this properly apperteineth vnto God, yet he applieth this vnto his miniſters vnto whome he giueth his holie Spirit.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not diſobedient vnto the heauenlie viſion, 20 * But ſhewed firſt vnto them of Damascus, and at Ieruſalem, and throughout all the coaſtes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they ſhulde repent, and turne to God, and do workes worthie amendemēt of life. Chap. 13. 14.

21 For this cauſe the Iewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kil me. Chap. 21. 30.

21 Neuertheles, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing bothe to smal & to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophetes & Moses did say shulde come,

22 To wit, that Christ shulde suffer, and that he shulde be the first that shulde rise from the dead, and shulde shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

23 And as he thus answered for himself, Festus said with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy self: muche learning doeth make thee mad.

24 But he said, I am not mad, o noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and sobernes.

25 For the King knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

26 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophetes? I know that thou beleuest.

27 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christiā.

28 The Paul said, I wolde to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to daye, were bothe almost, & altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

29 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that fare with them.

30 And when they were gone aparte, they talked berweene them selues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, nor of bondes.

31 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This mā might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous viage and his companie towards Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

Now when it was concluded, that we shulde saile into Italie, they deliuered bothe Paul, & certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the bande of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium purposing to saile by the costes of Asia, and launched forthe, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, w vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon; & Iulius courteously entreated Paul, & gaue him libertie to go vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, and sailed harde by Cyprus, because the windes were contrarie.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion founde a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly manie dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed harde by Candie, nereto Salomone,

8 And with muche a do sailed beyonde it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when muche time was spent, and sailing was now ieopardous, because also the Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted the,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I se that this viage wil be with hurt & muche damage, not of the lading & shippe onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour & the master of the ship, the those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, manie toke counsel to departe thence, if by anie meanes they might attein to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haven of Candie, and lieth towards the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the southern winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed nerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anone after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, & colde not resist the winde, we let her go, & were caryed away.

16 And we ran vnder a litle yle named Clauda, and had muche a do to get the boat.

17 Which they toke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into Syrtis, and they let downe the vessel, and so were caryed.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the shippe.

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the takling of the ship.

20 And when nether sunne nor starres in manie dayes appeared, and no smal tepest lay vpon vs, all hope that we shulde be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stode forthe in the middes of the, and said, Syrs, ye shulde haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so shulde ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhorte you to be of good courage: for there shalbe no losse of anie mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stode by me this night the Angel of God, whose I am, & whome I serue,

24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath giuen

b Which was an high hil of Candie boweing to the sea wards.

c This fast the Iewes obserued about the moneth of October in the Feast of their expiation, Leui. 23. 37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to saile in the diepe of winter & was at hand.

d That is, the Northeast winde, or euerie East winde that is furious and stormie.

 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shalbe so as it hath bene told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certeine yland.

27 And when the fourtenth night was come, as we were caryed to & fro in the ^k Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen demed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And founded, and founde it twentie fathoms: & when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and founde fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, & wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, & had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they wolde haue cast ankers out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ⁱ ye can not be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut of the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be daye, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourtenth daye that ye haue taryed, and continued ^m fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhorte you to take meat: for this is for your sauegarde: for there shal not ⁿ an heere fall from the head of anie of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he toke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good courage, & they also toke meat.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundred, thre score and sixtene soules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was daye, they knewe not the countrey, but they spyed a certeine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed the ship vnto the sea, and losed the rudder bondes, and hoyed vp the maine saile to the winde, & drewe to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte stucke fast, and colde not be moued, but the hinder parte was broked with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was ^o to kill the prisoners, lest anie of them, when he had swome out, shulde flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, staid them from this counsel, and commanded that they that colde swimme, shulde cast them selues first into the sea, and go out to land:

44 And the other, some on boardes, & some on certeine ^pieces of the ship: and so it came to passe, y^e thei came all safe to land.

³ And when Paul had gathered a number of sticke, and laid them on the fyre, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoner to the general Captaine: but Paul was s suffred to dwel by him self with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together: & when they were come, he said vnto them, Men & brethren, though I haue committed nothing agāst the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romaines.

18 Who when they had examined me, wolde haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to se you, and to speake with you: for the hope ^h of Israels sake, I am bounde with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We nether receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, nether came anie of the brethrē that shewed or spake anie euil of thee.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleued not.

30 And Paul remained two yeres ful in an house hired for him self, and receiued all that came in vnto him,

THE

THE EPISTLE OF the Apostle Paul to the Romaines.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared towarde man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption colde not fulfil the Law, yea, committed moste abominably, bothe against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindeful of his promes made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleuers, ordeined that mans saluation shulde onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles shulde be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iuste onely through faith, and yet afterwarde receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent, that none shulde thinke that the covenant which God made to him, and his posteritie, was not performed: ether because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed seale) or els beleued not that he was the true redemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserve the Iewes, the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the verie strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heres of the promes. The cause whereof is the onelie wil of God: forasmuche as of his fre mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iuste iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes shulde not be to muche beaten downe, nor the Gentiles to muche puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hathe yet his elect euen of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it procedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch towarde the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them bothe. This groundeworke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners followe: teaching euery man to walke in roundenes of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing, and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting of the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally S. Paul after his commendacions to the brethren exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

to preache the Gospel to you also, that are at Rome.

For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God vnto saluatiō to euerie one that beleueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the Grecian.

For by it the righteousness of God is reueiled, from faith to faith: as it is writte, *The iuste shal liue by faith.

For the wrath of God is reueiled from heauen against all vngodlines, and vn- righteousness of men, which withholde the truth in vnrighteousnes, Forasmuche as y, which may be knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intēt that they shulde be without excuse:

* Because that when they knewe God, they glorified him not as God, nether were thankful, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenes.

When they professed them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, & of birdes, and foure footed beastes, & of creeping things.

Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vnclēnes, to defile their owne bodies betwene the selues:

Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the natural vse into that which is against nature.

And likewise also the men left the natural vse of the woman, and burned in their luste one toward another, and man with man wrought filthines, & receiued in them selues suche recompense of their error, as was mete.

For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto reprobat mīde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

Being full of all vnrighteousnes, fornication, wickednes, couetousnes, malicioufnes, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of disceite, taking all things in the euil parte, whisperers,

Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrōg, proude, boasters, inuenters of euil things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without natural affection, suche as can neuer be appeased, merciles.

Which me, though they knewe the Law of God, how that they which commit su- che things, are worthe of death, yet not onely do the same, but also fauour them that do them.

CHAP. II.

He feareth the hypocrites with Gods iudgemēt, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beat downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holines, and of alliance with God, he proueth all men to be finners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Iewes by the Law written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, o mā, whosoever thou art that iudgeth: *for in that that thou iudget another, thou cōdemnest thy self: for thou that iudget, doest the same things.

But we knowe that the iudgemēt of God is according to truth, against the which commit suche things.

And thinkest thou this, o thou man, that iudget them which do suche things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

Or despisest thou the riches of his boun- tifulnes, and *paciēce, and long sufferan- ce, not knowing that the bountifulnes of God leadeth thee to repentance?

But thou, after thine hardnes and heart that can not repent, *heapest vnto thy self wrath against the day of wrath and of the declaration of the iuste iudgement of God,

*Who wil reward euerie mā according to his workes:

That is, to them which by continuance in wel doing seke glorie, and honour, & im- mortalitie, eternal life:

But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the truth, and obey vnrighteous- nes, shalbe indignation and wrath.

Tribulation and anguish shalbe vpon the soule of euerie man that doeth euil: of the Iewe first, and also of the Grecian.

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and euerie man a liar, as it is writtē, *That thou mightest be iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrighteousnes commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake as a man.)

6 God forbid: els how shall God iudge the worlde?

7 For if y veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why do we not euil, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, bothe Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne.

10 As it is writtē, *There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

if they wil haue anie diffe-ſtandeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Chriſt, who by his death haſte ſatiſfied the Law: ſo that the Law which colde not bring vs to ſaluation by reaſon of our owne corruption, is now made effectual to vs by Chriſt Ieſus.

conciliation through faith in his blood to declare his ^k righteouſnes, by the forgi-uenes of the ſinnes that are paſſed through the pacience of God,

16 To ſhewe at this time his righteouſnes, that he might be iuſte, and a iuſtifier of him which is of the faith of Ieſus.

17 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the ^l Law of faith.

18 Therefore we conclude that a man is iu-ſtified by faith without the workes of the Law.

19 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, & not of the Gentiles alſo? Yes, euen of the Gentiles alſo.

20 For it is one God who ſhal iuſtifie circumciſion ^m of faith, and vncircumciſion through faith.

21 Do we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea ⁿ we eſta-bliſh the Law.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iuſtification is a free gift euen by them them ſelues, of whome the Iewes moſte boaste as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And alſo by the office of the Law & faith.

1 What ſhal we ſay then, that Abraham our father haſte ſoude ^a cōcerning the fleſh?

2 For if Abraham were iuſtified by workes, he haſte wherein to breioyce, but not with God.

3 For what faith the Scripture? ^a Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteouſnes.

4 Now to him that ^c worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette,

5 But to him that ^d worketh not, but bele-ueth in him that ^e iuſtifieth the vngodlie, his faith is counted for righteouſnes.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the bleſſednes of the mā, vnto whome God imputeth righteouſnes without workes, ſaying,

7 ^f Blessed are thei, whoſe iniquities are forgiuen, and whoſe ſinnes are couered.

8 Blessed ^g is the mā, to whome the Lord im-puteth not ſinne.

9 Came this bleſſednes then vpon the ^f circumciſion onely, or vpon the vncircumciſion alſo? For we ſay, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteouſnes.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumciſed, or vncircumciſed? not when he was circumciſed, but when he was vncircumciſed.

11 ^h After he receiued the ſigne of circumciſio, as ⁱ ſeale of the righteouſnes of the faith which he had, when he was vncircu-ciſed, that he ſhulde be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumciſed, that righteouſnes might be imputed to them alſo,

12 And the father of circumciſion, not vnto them onely which are of the circumciſion, but vnto them alſo that walke in the ſteppes of the faith of our father Abraham, ^j which he had when he was vncircum-ciſed.

13 For the promes that he ſhulde be the heire of the worlde, was not ^k giuen to Abraham, or to his ſeed, through the ^h Law, but through the righteouſnes of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law, ^l be heires, faith is made voyde, & the promes is made of none effect.

15 For the Law cauſeth ^l wrath: for where no Law is, there is no ^m tranſgreſſion.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promes might be ſure to ⁿ all the ſede, not to that onely which is of the Law: but alſo to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, ^a I haue made thee a father of many nacions) euen ^o before God whome he beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth thoſe things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope, beleued vnder hope, that he ſhulde be the father of many nacions: according to that which was ſpoken to him, ^a So ſhal thy ſede be.

19 And he was not weake in the faith, confidered not his owne bodie, which was now dead, being almoſt an hundreth yere olde, nether ^r the deadnes of Saras wombe.

20 Nether did he doute of the promes of God through vnbeleife, but was ſtreng-thened in ^g faith, & gaue ^g glorie to God,

21 Being fully aſſured that he which had promiſed, was alſo able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him
for righteouſnes.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteouſnes,

24 But alſo ^t for vs, to whome it ſhal be imputed for righteouſnes, which beleue in him that raiſed vp Ieſus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered to death for our ſin-nes, & ^u is riſen againe for our iuſtification.

faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, & reioyce vnder y hope of the glorie of God.

3 Nether do we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulatioⁿs, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth the patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ^b ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holie Ghost, which is giueⁿ vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the * vngodlie.

7 Douteles one wil scarce dye for a ^d righteous man: but yet for a ^a good maⁿ it may be that one dare dye.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seing y while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for vs.

9 Muche more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shal be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were ^f enemies, we were recoiled to God by the death of his Sonne, muche more being recoiled, we shal be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receiued y atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the worlde, and death by sinne, and so death wet ouer all men: for as muche as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the ^g time of the Law was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses euen ouer them also that sinned not ^h after the like maner of the transgression of ⁱ Adam, which was y figure of ^k him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, muche more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hathe abounded vnto many.

16 Nether is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faute came of one offence vnto condēnacion: but the gift is ^l of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by y offence of one, death reigned through one, muche more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of ^m righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise the as by the offence of one the faute came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one the benefite abounded toward ⁿ all men to y iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shal many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the ^o Law entred thereupon that the offence shulde ^p abunde: neuertheles where sinne abounded, there grace abounded muche more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternal life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man shulde glorie in the flesh, but rather seke to subdue it to the Spirit. 3 He sheweth by the verue & end of Baptisme. 5 That regeneration is soyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godlie life. 21 Setting before mens eyes the rewarde of sinne and righteousness.

What shal we say then: Shal we continue stil in sinne, that grace may abunde? God forbid.

2 How shal we, that are ^a dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that ^a all we which haue bene baptized into ^b Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 ^a We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also shulde ^a walke in newnes of life.

5 ^a For if we be ^a grafted with him ^d to the similitude of his death, euen so shal we be ^e to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the ^e bodie of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we shulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is ^f freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleue that we shal liue also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from y dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he dyed, he dyed once ^g to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to ^h God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are ⁱ dead to sinne, but are aliue ^k to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortal bodie, that ye shulde obey it in the lustes thereof.

13 Nether giue ye your membres as ^l weapons of vnrightheousnes vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your membres as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the maner of man, because of the infirmite of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vn-clennes and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousnes in holines.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What frute had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your frute in holines, and the end, euerlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gifte of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1.7.12 The use of the Law, 6.24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmite of the fleshful.
23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh & the Spirit.

1 KNowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the law to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shalbe called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, she is fre fro the Law, so that she is not an adulteresse, thogh she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethre, are dead also to y Law by the bodie of Christ, that ye shulde be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp fro the dead, that we shulde bring forthe frute vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the Law, had force in our membres, to bring forthe frute vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shulde serue in newnes of Spirit, and not in the oldenes of the letter.

1 What shal we say then? Is the Law sin-ne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen lust, except the Law had said, *Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne toke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Law sin-ne is dead.

9 For I once was a liue, without the Law:
but when the commandement came, sinne reuered,

10 But I dyed: and the same comandement which was ordained vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne toke occasion by the comandement, and disceiued me, and thereby flew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holie, and the commandement is holie, and iust, & good.

13 Was that the which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinful by the commandement.

14 For we knowe that the Lawe is spiritual, but I am carnal, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I do: for what I wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I wolde not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to wil is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I wolde, but the euil, which I wolde not, that do I.

20 Now if I do that I wolde not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I wolde do good, euil is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I se another law in my membres, rebellig against the law of my minde, & leading me captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my membres.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shal de-liuer me from the bodie of this death!

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my self in my minde ser-ue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

NOW then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh.) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

That the righteousness of y Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh, saour the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life & peace, because the wisdom of the flesh is enemie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in dede can be.

So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

And if Christ be in you, the bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shal also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal dye: but if ye mortifie the dedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shal liue.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we crye Abba, Father.

The same Spirit beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the childre of God.

If we be children, we are also heires, euen the heires of God, & heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we maye also be glorified with him.

For I counte that the afflictions of this present time are not worthie of the glory, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

For the feruent desire of the creature

waiteth when the sonnes of God shalbe reueiled.

Because the creature is subiect to vanity, not of it owne wil, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope,

Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of y sonnes of God.

For we knowe that euerie creature groeneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the first frutes of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our bodie.

For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

But if we hope for that we se not, we do with patience abide for it.

Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to praye as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighs, which can not be expressed.

But he that searcheth y hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh request for the Saintes, according to the wil of God.

Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

For those which he knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among manie brethren.

Moreouer whome he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he iustified, and whome he iustified, them he also glorified.

What shal we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shal he not with him giue vs all things also?

Who shal lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that iustificieth,

Who shal condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

Who shal separate vs from the loue of Christ? shal tribulacion or anguish, or persecucion, or famine, or nakednes, or peril, or sword?

As it is writte, For thy sake are we killed all day long: we are counted as shepe for the slaughter.

Neuertheles, in all these things we are more then conquerors through him that loued vs.

The creature shal not be restored before that Goss children be brought to their perfection in the meane season that waite.

That is, to destruction, because of mans sinne.

He meaneth not the Angels, neither deuils nor men.

And yet are farre from the perfection.

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Jacob, & haue hated Esau.

14 What shal we say then? Is there vnright-teousnes with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, * I wil haue mercie on him, to whome I wil shewe mercie:
and wil haue compassion on him, on who-me I wil haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willet, nor in him that runeth, but in God that sheweth mercie:

17 For the^k Scripture saith vnto Pharao, ^k That is, God
* For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared through out all the earth.

18 Therefore he hathe mercie on whome
he wil, & whome he wil, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth he yet complaine for who hathe resisted his wil?

honour, and another vnto dishonour?

22 What and if God wolde, to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowne, suffere with long pacience the vessels of wrath, prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glorie vpon^y vessels of mercie, which he hathe prepared vnto glorie?

24 Euen vs, whome he hathe called, not of the Lewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As he saith also in Osee, * I wil call them, My people, which were not my people: &
ber, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shalbe in the place where it was said vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shalbe called, The childre of the liuing God.

27 Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel,
* Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shal but a remnant be saued.

28 For he wil make his account, & gather it into a short fume with righteousness: for the Lord wil make a short count in the earth.

29 * And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a fede, we had bene made asⁿ Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorra.

30 What shal we say then? That the Gentiles which folowed not righteousness, haue atteined vnto righteousness, euen the rightteousnes which is of faith.

31 But Israel which folowed the Law of righteousnes, colde not attein vnto the Law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it^o not by faith, but as^p were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stom-

Bethrē, mine hearts desire & prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

For I beare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

For they, being ignorāt of the righteousness of God, & going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted them selues to the righteousness of God.

* For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness vnto euerie one y beleueth.

For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascende into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

Or, Who shall descende into the deepe? (y is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

But what saith it? * The worde is nere thee, euē in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is y^e worde of faith which we preache.

For if thou shalt cōfesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

For there is no difference between the Iewe & the Grecian: for he y^e is Lord ouer all, is riche vnto all, that call on him.

* For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

But how shall they call on him, in whome they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleue in him, of whome they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

And how shall they preache, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the fete of them which bring glad tydings of peace, and bring glad tydings of good things!

But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

Then saith this by hearing, & hearing sby the worde of God.

But I demāde, Haue they nor heard? No doute their founde went out through all the earth, & their wordes into the ends of the worlde.

But I demāde, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, * I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, & by a foolish nation I wil anger you.

* And Esaias is bolde, and saith, I was founde of them that sought me nor, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a disobedient, and gamefaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hathe his Church although it be not sene to mā's eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 G. d hathe blinded the Iewes for a time, and reueiled him self to the Gentiles. 18 Whome he warneth to humble the selues. 29 The giftes of God without repentāce. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I demāde then, Harhe God cast away this people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the sede of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

God hathe not cast away his people which he knewe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

* Lord, they haue killed thy Prophetes, & digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seke my life?

But what saith y^e answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my self a seue thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

Euē so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were worke no more worke.

What then? Israel hathe not obtained y^e he sought: but the electiō hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened, According as it is written, * God hathe giuen the spirit of slomber: eyes that they shulde not se, & eares that they shulde not heare vnto this day.

And Dauid saith, * Let their table be made a snare, & a net, & a stumbling block, euē for a recompense vnto them.

Let their eyes be darkened that they se not, & bowe downe their backe alwayes.

I demāde then, Haue they stumbled, that they shulde fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the worlde, & the diminishing of the riches of the Gētiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

k Then seeing all the worlde knewe God by his creatures, the Iewes coulde not be ignorant, and so named of malice.

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in asmuche as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 14 To trie if by any meanes I might prouoke them of my flesh to followe them, & might saue some of them.
 15 For if the casting away of them be the recōciling of the worlde, what shal the receiuing be, but a life from the dead?
 16 For if the first frutes be holie, so is the whole lompe: and if the roote be holie, so are the branches.
 17 And thogh some of the brāches be broken of, & thou being a wilde oliue tre, wast grafte in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the oliue tre, 18 Boast not thy self against the branches: and if thou boast thy self, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.
 19 Thou wilt say then, The brāches are broken of, that I might be grafte in.
 20 Wel: through vnbelefe they are broken of, and thou standest by faith: be not hie minded, but feare.
 21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take hede, lest he also spare not thee.
 22 Beholde therefore the bountifulnes, & seueritie of God: towarde them which haue fallen, seueritie: but towarde thee, bountifulnes, if thou continue in his bountifulnes: or els thou shalt also be cut of.
 23 And thei also, if thei abide not stil in vnbelefe, shal be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.
 24 For if thou wast cut out of the oliue tre, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right oliue tre, how muche more shal they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne oliue tre?
 25 For I woldenot, brethré, that ye shulde be ignorant of this secret (lest ye shulde be arrogant in your selues) y partely obstinacie is come to Israel, vntil the fulnes of the Gentiles be come in.
 26 And so all Israel shal be saued, as it is written, * The deliuerer shal come out of Sion, and shal turne away the vngodlines from Iacob.
 27 And this is my couenāt to them, * When I shal take away their sinnes.
 28 As cōcerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the electiō, they are beloved for the fathers sakes.
 29 For the giftes and calling of God are without repentance.
 30 For euen as ye in time past haue not beleued God, yet haue now obtēined mercie through their vnbelefe, 31 Euen so now haue they not beleued by the mercie shewed vnto you, that they also may obtēine mercie.
 32 For God hathe shut vp all in vnbelefe, that he might haue mercie on all.

O the depnes of the riches, bothe of the wisdom, & knowledge of God! how vnsearcheable are his iudgemēts, & his wayes past finding out!
 34 *For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord? or who was his counsellor?
 35 Or who hath giuen vnto him first, and he shal be recompensed?
 36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glorie for euer. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue, and workes of such as beleue in Christ. 19 Not to seke reuengence.

I Beseeche you therefore, brethré, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holie, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.
 2 And facion not your selues like vnto this worlde, but be ye changed by y renuing of your minde, y ye may proue what is the good wil of God, & acceptable, & perfite.
 3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euerie one that is amōg you, y no man presume to vnderstand aboute that which is mete to vnderstand, but that he vnderstand according to sobrietie, as God hathe dealt to euerie man the measure of faith.
 4 For as we haue many mēbers in one bodie, and all members haue not one office,
 5 So we being many are one bodie in Christ, and euerie one, one anothers members.
 6 *Seing then y we haue giftes that are diuers, according to y grace that is giue vnto vs, whether we haue prophecie, let vs prophecise according to y proportiō of ffaith:
 7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:
 8 Or he y exhorteth, on exhortatiō: he that distributeth, let him do it * with simplicitie: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercie, with *cherefulness.
 9 Let loue be without dissimulation. * Abhorre that which is euil, and cleaue vnto that which is good.
 10 *Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherlie loue, In giuing honor, go one before another, 11 Not surlifful to do seruice; seruēt in spirit: seruing the Lord, 12 Reioycing in hope, paciēt in tribulatiō, *continuing in prayer, 13 *Distributing vnto the necessities of the Sautes: giuing your selues to hospitalitie.
 14 *Blesse thē which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

*1. The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the swords. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings.
11 An exhortation to innocencie & puritie of life.*

- ¹ Let *euerie soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: & the powers that be, are ordained of God.
- ² Whosoever therefore resisteth ^y power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receiue to them selues iud-gement.
For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euil. Wilt ^y then be without feare of the power? do wel: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.
- ⁴ For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euil, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doeth euil.
- ⁵ Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for ^b conscience sake.
- ⁶ For, for this cause ye paye also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the same thing.
- ⁷ *Giue to all men therefore their due tie:
tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: custome, to whome custome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whome ye owe honour.
- ⁸ Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the ^d Law.
- ⁹ For this, *Thou shalt not commit adul-terie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly com-prehēded in this saying, euē in this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self.
- ¹⁰ Loue doeth not euil to his neighbour:
therefore is loue ^y *fulfilling of the Law.
- ¹¹ And that, cōsidering the season, that it is now time that we shulde arise from slepe:

for now is our saluation ^e nerer, then whē
we beleued it.

- ¹² The night is past, & the day is at hand:

darkenes, and let vs put on the ^f armour of light,
- ¹³ So that we walke honestly, as in the day:
not in *glotonie, and dronkennes, nether lustes of it.

CHAP. XIII.

- ¹ Him that is weake in the *faith, receiue vnto you, but not ^b for controuer-sies of disputations.
- ² One beleueth ^y he may eat of all things:
& another, which is weake, eateth herbes.
- ³ Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.
- ⁴ *Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne ^c master: yea, he shalbe established:
for God is able to make him stande.
- ⁵ This mā esteemeth one day aboue another day, & another man counteth euerie daye a like: let euerie man be ^d fully perswaded in his minde.
- ⁶ He that ^e obserueth the day, obserueth it to the ^f Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thākes: and he ^y eateth not, ^h eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.
- ⁷ For none of vs liueth ⁱ to him self, nether doeth anye dye to him self.
- ⁸ For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.
- ⁹ For Christ therefore dyed and rose agai-ne, and reuiued, that he might be Lord bo-the of the dead and the quicke.
- ¹⁰ But why doest thou iudge thy brother?
or why doest thou despise thy brother?
*for we shal all appeare before the iudge-ment seat of Christ.
- ¹¹ For it is written, *I ^k liue, saith the Lord, and euerie knee shal bowe to me, and all tongues shal ^l confesse vnto God.
- ¹² So then euerie one of vs shal giue accountes of him self to God.
- ¹³ Let vs not therefore iudge one another

1. Cor. 8. 13.

q Faith here is taken for a full persuasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferēt as the Apostles interpret it in the 24. verse.

r Which hath the none euil remors of conscience in his doing.

s Meaning, of a right conscience.

14 I knowe, & am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it self: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meat, now walkest thou not charitably: *destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ dyed.

16 Cause not your^a commoditie to be euil spoken of.

17 For the^a kingdome of God is not meat nor drinke, but righteousness, and peace, & ioye in the holie Ghost.

18 For whosoever^a in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approved of men.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not y^e worke of God for meats sake: *all things in dede are pure: but it is euil for the man which eateth with offence.

21 *It is good nether to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumblēth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou^a faith? haue it with thy self before God: blessed is he y^e condemneth not him self in y^e thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that douteth, is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: & whatsoever is not of^a faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

2 Paul exhorteth the^a to support & loue one another by the example of Christ, p And by the onelie mercie of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one & the other. 14 He sheweth his sale to warde them, & the Church, 30 And requereth the same of them.

2 WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery mā please his neighbour in that that is good to^a edification. For Christ also wolde not please him self, but as it is written, *The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fel^b on me.

4 For whatsoever things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that we through patience, & cōsorte of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of^a patience and cōsolation giue you that ye be^a like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God euē the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the^a glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a^a minister of the circumcision, for the^a truth of God, to cōfirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is writtē, *For this cause I wil confesse thee amōg the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, *Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, *Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, & laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shalbe a roote of Iesse, and s^a he that shal rise to reigne ouer^b the Gentiles, in him shal the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fil you with all ioye, and peace in beleuing, that ye may abunde in hope through the power of the holie Ghost.

14 And I my self also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodness, and filled with^a all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheles brethré, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort writtē vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I shulde be the minister of Iesus Christ towards the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable^a being sanctified by the holie Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not^a speake of anie thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and dede, 19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: for that from Ierusalem, and rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abunde the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my self to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I shulde haue buylt on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, *To whome he was not spoken of, they shal se him, & they that heard not, shal vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene^a oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue^a bene defirous manie yerres agoe to come vnto you.

24 When I shal take my iourney into Spaine, I wil come to you: for I trust to se you in my

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affectat eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition suchie factions & schismes stragg vp in the Church, that frō opinions in pollicies & ceremonies they fel to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doute the resurrection frō the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religio. Against these evils the Apostle procedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, & eares with gentle salutations: but sone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie & pride, and exhorteth the to cōcorde & humilitie, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, & heauenlie wisdom of the Gospel, which cā not be perswaded by worldlie wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attribute to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church wherein S. Paul behaued him self skilfully, buylding according to the fundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent hede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seruing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his coming he wolde declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought them selues onely, & therefore suffered moste horrible Vices vnreproved & unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, & such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certeine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discorde & dissension among the married, of virginite, & seconde marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, & their consciences wounded, which thing rather the he wolde do, he wolde neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuche as pride, & self wil was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spiritual giftes, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and wel doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

- 2 He praiseth the great graces of God shewed towards them, 10 Exhorting them to concorde and humilitie. 19 He beateh downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whome God hath chosen to confounde the wisdom of the worlde.

me of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye all h speake one thing, and that there be no dissentions among you: but be ye knit together in one minde, and in one iudge-ment.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of ¹ Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euerie one of you saith, I am Pauls, and I am ^{*} Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 Is Christ deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptized ^k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but ^{*} Crispus, and ¹ Gaius,

15 Lest anie shulde say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the housholde of Srephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized anie other.

17 For Christ sent me not to ^m baptize, but to preache the Gospel, not with ^{*} a wifdo-me of wordes, ^o lest the crosse of Christ shulde be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to the that perish, foolishnes: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the ^{*} power of God.

19 For it is written, I ^{*} wil destroye the wifdome of the wise, and wil cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the ^p Scribe?
where is the ¹ disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wifdome of this worlde foolishnes?

21 For seing the worlde by wifdome knewe not God in the wifdome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnes of preaching to saue them that beleue:

22 Seing also that the Iewes require a ^{*} signe, and the Grecians seke after wifdome.

23 But we preache Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, & vnto the Grecians, foolishnes.

24 But vnto them which are called, bothe
of the Iewes & Grecians we preache Christ, the power of God, and the wifdome of God.

25 For the ^r foolishnes of God is wiser then men, and the weakenes of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you se your calling, how that not manie wise men ^r after the flesh, not manie mightie, not manie noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the worlde to confounde the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things.

28 And vile things of the worlde & things which are despised, hath God chosen, & things ^{*} which are not, to bring to nought things ^u that are,

29 That no ^{*} flesh shulde reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs ^{*} wifdome and righteousnes, and sanctificacion, and redempcion,

31 That, according as it is written, ^{*} He that reioyceth, let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. III.

He putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel. & Which Gospel was contemptible & hid to the carnal, so And againe honorable and manifest to the spiritual.

And I, brethren, when I came to you,
I came not with ^{} excellencie of wor-des, or of wifdome, shewing vnto you the ^{} a testimonie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to knowe anie thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 ^{*} And I was among you in ^b weakenes, and in feare, & in muche trembling.

4 Nether stode my worde, & my preaching in the ^{*} entising speache of mans wifdo-me, but in plaine euidence of ^o the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith shulde not be in the wifdome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wifdome among them that are ^c perfit: not the wifdome of this worlde, nether of the ^d princes of this worlde, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wifdome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wifdome, which God had determined before the worlde, vnto our glorie.

8 Which ^{*} none of the princes of this worlde hath knowen: for had they knowe it, they wolde not haue crucified ^y ^f Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, ^{*} The things which eye hath not sene, nether care hath heard, nether came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reueiled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit ^h searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit ⁱ of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we haue ^k receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the ^l things that are giuen to vs of God.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the felines and outours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluacion to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines.
11 Christ is the fundacion of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office bothe of the ministers and also of all the faithful.

ANd I colde not speake vnto you, brethre, as vnto spiritual me, but as vnto carnal, even as vnto a babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meat:
for ye were not yet able to beare it, nether yet now are ye able.

For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome ye beleued, &
as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, nether is he that planteth, anie thing, nether he that watreth, but God that giueth the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, & he that watreth, are b one,  and euerie man shal receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods c laborers: ye are Gods housbandrie, and Gods buylding.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master buylder, I haue laid the fundacion, and another buylderh thereon: but let euerie man d take hede how he buylderh vpon it.

11 For other fundacion can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if anie man buylde on this fundacion, golde, siluer, precious stones, tymber, haye, or stubble,

13 Euerie mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the e daye shal declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the f fyre: & the fy-re shal trye euerie mans worke of what sorte it is.

14 If anie mans worke, that he hath buylt vpon, abide, he shal receiue wages,

15 If anie mans worke burne, he shal g lose, but he h shalbe safe him self: neuertheles yet as it were by the fyre.

16  Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If anie man destroy the Tēple of God, him shal God destroy: for the Temple of God is holie, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue him self. If anie man among you seme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For y^e wisdom of this worlde is foolishnes with God: for it is written,  He cat-cheth the wise k in their owne craftines.

20  And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man l reioyce in men:
for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the worlde, or life, or death:
whether they be things present, or things to come, even all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

vs the laste Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stocke vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are^h fooles for Christs sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honorable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we bothe hōger, & thirst, and are naked, and are buffered, and haue no certeine dwelling place,

12 *And labour, working w our owne hands: we are reuiled, & yet we bleſſe: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 *We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filthe of the worlde, the ofskowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued childre I admonish you 15 For thogh ye haue ten thousand^{*} instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not manie fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithful in the Lord, w shal put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teache euerie where in euerie Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as thogh I wolde not come to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortly, *if the Lord wil, and wil knowe, not the speache of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the^k kingdome of God is not in worde, but in^l power.

21 What wil ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of mekenes?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Wilking them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And see wickednes.

1 IT is heard certainly that there is fornication amōg you, and suche fornicatiō as is not once named among the^a Gentils, *that one shulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp & haue not rather forowed, that he which hath done this dede, might be put from among you.

3 *For I verely as absent in bodie, but present in spirit, haue determined already as thogh I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

4 When ye are gathered together, and my^c spirit, d in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that suche one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

5 *Be deliuered vnto^e Satan, for the *delstruō of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

6 Your reioycing is not^s good: *know ye not that a litle leauē, leaueneth the whole lumpe?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, ^h as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs kepe the feast, not with olde leauē, nether in the leauen of malitiousnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an epistle, *that ye shulde not cōpanie together w fornicators,

10 Andⁱ not all together with the fornicators of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extorcioners, or with idolaters: for then ye muste go out of the worlde.

11 But now I haue writen vnto you, that ye companie not together: if ane that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or^k an idolater, or a railar, or a drunkard, or an extorcioner, with suche one eat not.

12 For what haue I to do, to iudge them also, which are^l without? do ye not iudge the that are^m within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore frō among your selues that wicked man.

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to law together before the Heathen 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely bothe in bodie, and in soule.

1 ARE anie of you, hauing busines against another, be iudged vnder^a the vnjust, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 *Do ye not knowe, that the Saintes shal iudge the worlde? If the worlde then shal be iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not y we shal iudge the^b Angels? how muche more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgemēts of things pertaining to this life, set vp them which are^d least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, y can iudge betwene his brethre?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is vtterly^c a faute among you, because ye go to law one with another: *why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather susteine ye not harme?

8 *Nay, ye your selues^e do wrong, and do harme, and that to your brethren.

12 *All ^e things are lawful vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may do all things, but I wil not be brought vnder the power of anie thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the bellie, and the bellie for ^f meates: but God shal destroe bothe it, and them. Now the bodie is not for ^h fornication, but for the ⁱ Lord, & the Lord for the bodie.

14 And God hathe also raised vp ^j Lord, and ^k shal raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shal I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an ^l harlot? God forbid.

16 Do ye not knowe, that he which coupleth him self with an harlot, is one bodie? ^m for two, saith he, shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euerie sinne that a man doeth, is without the bodie: but he ⁿ comitteth fornicatiō, sinneth against his ^o owne bodie.

19 Know ye not, that ^p your bodie is ^q temple of the holie Ghost, which is in you, whome ye haue of God: and ye are not your owne.

20 *For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your bodie, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certeine questions, which the Corinthians desired to knowe, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duetie of mariage, 11 Of discordes & dissension in mariage, 13 Of mariage betwene the faithful & vnfaithful, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 And seconde mariage.

1 NOW concerning the things whereof I wrote vnto me, It were ^a good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auoide fornication, let ^b euerie man haue his wife, and let euerie woman haue her owne housband.

3 *Let the housbād giue vnto the wife due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the housband.

4 The wife hathe not ^c power of her owne bodie, but the housband: and likewise also the housband hathe not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, & againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, ^d not by commandement.

7 For I wolde that all men were euen as I my self am: but euen ^e man hathe his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they can not abstaine, let the marrie: for it is better to marie the ^f to burne.

10 And vnto the married I comāde, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife ^g departe from her housband.

11 But and if she ^h departe, let her remaine vnmarried, or be recōciled vnto her housband, and let not the housband put ⁱ away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, ^j not ^k the Lord, If anie brother haue a wife, that be leueh not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the womā which hathe an housbād that beleueh not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleuing housband is ^l sanctified by the wife, & the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the housband, els were your childre vncleane: but now are they ^m holie.

15 But if the vnbeleuing departe, let him departe: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in ⁿ suche things: but God hathe called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, ^o wife, whether thou shalt saue thine housband? Or what knowest thou, ^p mā, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hathe distribute to euerie mā, as the Lord hathe ^q called euerie one, so let him walke: and so ordeine I, in all Churches.

18 Is anie man called being circumcised? let him not ^r gather his vncircumcision: is anie called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, & vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

20 *Let euerie man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? ^s care not for it: but if yet thou maist be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the ^t Lord being a seruant, is the Lords freman: likewise also d He sheweth that he commandeth not precisely all men to marie, but that God hathe granted this remedie vnto them w^h can not liue chaste.

e With the fyre of concupiscence, that is when mans will so giueth place to the lust that tempteth, that he can not call v^o God with a quiet conscience.

called, therein abide with God.25 Now concerning virgines, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduiſe, as one that hathe obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.26 I ſuppoſe then this to be good for the preſent neceſſitie: I meane that it is good for a man ſo to be.27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? ſeke not to be loſed: art thou loſed from a wife? ſeke not a wife.28 But if thou takeſt a wife, thou ſinneſt not:
and if a virgine marie, ſhe ſinneſt not: ne-fleſh: but I ſpare you.29 And this I ſay, brethré, becauſe the time is ſhort, here after that bothe they which haue wiues, be as thogh they had none:30 And they that wepe, as thogh they wept not: and they that reioyce, as thogh thei reioyced not: & thei that bie, as thogh they poſſeſſed not:31 And they that vie this worlde, as thogh they vſed it not: for the facion of this worlde goeth away.32 And I wolde haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of y Lord, how he may pleaſe the Lord.33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how he maie pleaſe his wife.34 There is differéce alſo betwene a virgine & a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that ſhe may be holie, bothe in bodie and in ſpirit: but ſhe that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how ſhe may pleaſe her houſ-band.35 And this I ſpeake for your owne commoditie, not to tangle you in a ſnare, but that ye followe that, which is honeſt, and that ye may cleaue faſt vnto the Lord without ſeparation.36 But if anie man thinke that it is vncomlie for his virgine, if ſhe paſſe the flowre of her age, & ſe nede ſo require, let him do what he wil, he ſinneſt not: let them be married.37 Neuertheles he that ſtanderh firme in his heart, that he hathe no nede, but hathe power over his owne wil, & hathe ſo decreed in his heart, that he wil kepe his vir-gine, he doeth wel.38 So then he that giueth her to mariage, doeth wel, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.39 The wife is bounde by the law, as long as her houſband liueth: but if her houſ-band be dead, ſhe is at libertie to mary w whome ſhe wil, onely in the Lord.band be dead, ſhe is at libertie to mary w whome ſhe wil, onely in the Lord.40 But ſhe is more bleſſed, if ſhe ſo abide, in

CHAP. VIII.

He rebuketh the that uſe their libertie to the ſlander of other, in going to the idolatrous ſacrifices. And ſheweth how men ought to behaue them towards ſuche as be weake.And as touching things ſacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.3 But if any man loue God, the ſame is known of him.4 Concerning therefore meat ſacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idol is nothing in the worlde, & that there is none other God but one.5 For thogh there be that are called gods, whether in heauē, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whome are all things, & we in him: & one Lord Ieſus Chriſt, by who-me are all things, and we by him.7 But euery man hathe not knowledge: for ſome hauing conſcience of the idol, vntil this houre, eat as a thing ſacrificed vnto the idol, and ſo their conſcience being weake, is defiled.8 But meat maketh not vs acceptable to God: for nether if we eat, haue we more:
nether if we eat not, haue we the leſſe.9 But take hede leſt by any meanes this power of yours be an occaſion of falling to them that are weake.10 For if any man ſe thee which haſt knowledge, ſit at table in the idoles temple, ſhal not the conſcience of him which is weake, be boldened to eat thoſe things which are ſacrificed to idoles?11 And through thy knowledge ſhal the l Seeing he is charged to preache, he must willingly and earnestly followe it: for if he do it by constraints, he doeth not his dutie.

m That I be not chargeable to the vnto whom I preache, (seeing that they thinke that I preache for gaines.

Act. 16. 3.

Gal. 2. 3.

douteles I am vnto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

My defense to the y examine me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eat & to drinke?

5 Or haue we not power to lead about a wife being a sister, as wel as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare anie time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the frute thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? faith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is writtē in y Law of Moses, *Thou shalt not muffle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?

10 Ether saith he it not all together for our sakes? For our sakes no doute it is written, that he which eareth, shulde eare in hope: and that he that thresheth in hope, shulde be partaker of his hope.

11 *If we haue sown vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnal things?

12 If others with you be partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheles, we haue not vsed this power: but suffre all things, that we shulde not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not knowe, that they which minister about the holie things, eat of y things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hathe the Lord ordeined, that they which preache the Gospel, shulde liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it shulde be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to dye, then that anie man shulde make my reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preache the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon me, and wo is vnto me, if I preache not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I do it against my wil, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that whē I preache the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ more fre that I abuse not mine autoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be fre frō all men, yet haue I made my self seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 *And vnto y Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Law, that I may winne the that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without lawe, as though I were without law (whē I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne y weake: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I do for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Knowe ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the price? so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euerie man that proueth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre.

27 But I beat downe my bodie, & bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my self shulde be reprobued.

28 He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie. 23 And of fence of their neighbour.

29 Moreouer, brethren, I wolde not that mye shulde be ignorāt, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed through the sea,

30 And were all baptized vnto Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,

31 And did all eat y same spiritual meat,

32 *And did all drinke the same spiritual drinke (for they dranke of the spiritual Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ)

33 But with many of the God was not pleased: for they were ouerthrowen in the wilderness.

34 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent y we shulde not lust after euil things as they also lusted.

35 Nether be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, *The people sate downe to eat and drinke, and rose vp to playe.

36 Nether let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fel in one daye thre & twētie thousand.

37 Nether let vs tempt y Christ, as some of them also tempted him, & were destroyed of serpents.

38 Because hereby occasion was taken to forget God, & comit for these indifferent things are counted idolatrie: f Moses and twētie thousand, which declareth an infinite number. their leader: and was called the Angel of God.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish vs, vnto whome ^y ends of the worlde are come.

12 Wherefore, let him ^y thinketh he standeth, take hede lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but suche as apperteineth to man: and God is faithful, which wil not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but ^l wil euen giue the yssue with the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe of blessing which we ^mblese, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, ⁿ is it not the communion of the bodie of Christ?

17 For we that are many, are ^o one bread & one bodie, because we all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel which is after the ^p flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I wolde not that ye shulde haue a fellowshipe with the deuils.

21 Ye can not drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Ye can not be partakers of the Lords table and of the table of deuils.

22 Do we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

23 *All things are lawfull for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not.

27 If any of them which beleue not, call you to a feast, and if ye wil go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eat it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is)

And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why shulde my libertie be condēd of another mans conscience?

30 For if I through Gods benefite be partaker, why am I euil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 *Whether therefore ye eat or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the glorie of God.

32 Giue none offence, nether to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please ^x all men ^y in all things, not seeking mine owne profite, but ^z the profite of many, that they might be saued.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church. 4 As touching prayer, prophecyng. 18 And ministering the Lords Supper. 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

1 BE ye the followers of me, euen as I ^a 2. Thes. 3. 9. am of Christ.

2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remembre ^b all my things, & kepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I wil that ye knowe, that Christ is the ^c head of euerie man: & the man is the ^d mans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euerie man ^e praying or ^f prophecyng hausing ^g any thing on ^h his head, ⁱ dishonoreth his head.

5 But euerie woman that prayeth or ^j prophcieth bareheaded, dishonoreth her head: for it is euē one very thing, as thogh she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be ^k shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer ^l his head: for asmuche as he is the ^m image and glorie of God: but the woman is the ⁿ glorie of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 *For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought ^y woman to haue ^o power on ^p her head, because of the ^q Angels.

11 Neuertheles, nether is the man without the woman, nether the woman without the man in the ^r Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, is it comelie that a woman praye vnto God vncovered?

14 Doeth not nature it self teache you, that if a man haue long ^k heere, it is a shame vnto him?

16 But if any man luste to be contentious, we haue no suche custome, nether ¹ Chur- ches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dis- fensions among you: and I beleue it to be true ² in some parte.

19 For there must be ³ heresies euen among you, that they which are approued amōg you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ⁴ this is not to eat the Lords Sup- per.

21 For euerie man when they shulde eat, ta- keth his owne supper afore, and one is hun- grie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eat & to drinke in: dispise ye ⁵ Church of God, and shame thē that haue not: what shal I say to you: shal I praise you in this: I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the ⁶ Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread.

24 *And when he had giuen thakes, he bra- ke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my bodie, which is ⁷ broken for you: this do ye in re- membrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he toke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the Newe testament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remēbrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shal eat this bread, & drinke this cup, ye shewe the Lords death til he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shal eat this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord ⁸ vnworthely, shalbe gillie of the bodie & blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine him self, and so let him eat of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnwor- thely, eateth and drinketh his owne dam- nation, because he discerneth not ⁹ the Lords bodie.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many ¹⁰ slepe.

31 For if we wolde iudge our selues, we shul- de not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chaste- ned of the Lord, because we shulde not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungrie, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things wil I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the giftes of the holie Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church. 12 As the me- bers of mans bodie serue to the use one of another.

Now concerning spiritual giftes, bre- thren, I wolde not haue you ¹ igno- rant.

2 Ye knowe that ye werē Gentiles, and we- re caryed away vnto the ² domme idoles, as ye were ³ led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man ⁴ speaking by the ⁵ Spirit of God, cal- leth Iesus ⁶ execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the ho- lie Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of giftes, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administra- tions, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operatiōs, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is gi- uen to euerie man, to ⁸ profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the wor- de of wisdom: and to another the worde of ⁹ knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another ¹⁰ is giuen ¹¹ faith, by the sa- me Spirit: and to another the giftes of hea- ling, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another ¹² ¹³ operations of great workes: and to another, ¹⁴ prophecie: and to another, ¹⁵ the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: & to ano- ther the interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the self same Spirit, distributing to euerie mā ¹⁶ feuerally as he wil.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hathe many membres, and all the membres of the bo- die, which is one, thogh they be many, yet are ¹⁷ but one bodie: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized in- to ¹⁸ one bodie, whether ¹⁹ we be Iewes or Grecians, whether ²⁰ we be bonde, or fre, and haue bene all made to drinke into o- ne Spirit.

14 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

15 If the fote wolde say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it the- refore not of the bodie?

16 And if the eare wolde say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it the- refore not of the bodie?

17 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing: If the whole were hea- ring, where were the smelling?

18 But now hathe God disposed the mem- bres euerie one of them in the bodie. at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?

m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profit ought to be commune and serue to the edification of the Church. Whose use seemeth to be more vile.

20 But now are there manie membres, yet but one bodie.

o We are more careful to couer them.

21 And the eye can not say vnto the hand, I haue no nede of thee: nor the head againe to the fete, I haue no nede of you.

22 Yea, muche rather those membres of the bodie, which seeme to be more feble, are necessarie.

p Euerie one in his office for the preferuacion of the bodie.

25 Lest there shulde be anie diuision in the bodie: but that the members shulde haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the membres reioyce with it.

q For all Churches dispersed throughout the world are diuers membres of one bodie. Or, exerte use for his parte. Ephes. 4.11. As Deacons. As Elders.

27 Now ye are the bodie of Christ, & membres for your parte.

28 And God hathe ordeined some in the Church: as first, Apostles, secondly Prophetes, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophetes? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? do all speake with tongues? do all interpret?

r Or, do you then desire the best giftes.

31 But desire you the best giftes, and I will yet shewe you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

Chap. XIII. All the Angels had tongues, & I had the vse thereof, & did not becoue them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babling.

Mat. 17. 20. Luk. 17. 6.

b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22, & also for that faith (called historical). We beleue the mightie power of Christ, but can not apprehend Gods mercie through him: & this deuils haue, I am. 2. 19: & therefore is separate from charitie, but faith that iustifieth in effect can not, as 1 Iohn. 2. 9.

1 THogh I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasie, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And thogh I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all secretes and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I coulde remoue mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And thogh I fede the poore with all my goods, and thogh I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffreth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it self: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euil:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffreth all things: it beleueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, thogh that prophecying be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For we knowe in parte, and we prophesie in parte.

10 But when that which is perfecte, is come, then that which is in parte, shalbe abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glasse darkely: but then shal we see face to face. Now I knowe in parte: but then shal I knowe euen as I am knowne.

13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, euen these thre: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorreth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, & other spiritual gifts, & But chiefly prophecying.
34 He commaundeth women to kepe silence in the Church.
40 And sheweth what good ordre ought to be obserued in the Church.

Followe after loue, and couet spiritual gifts, and rather that ye maye prophecie.

1 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

2 But he that prophecieeth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortacion, and to comfort.

3 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth him self: but he that prophecieeth, edifieth the Church.

4 I wolde that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophecied: for greater is he that prophecieeth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expoude it, that the Church may receiue edification.

5 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shal I profite you, except I speake to you, ether by reuelacion, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

6 Moreouer things without life which giue a founde, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shal it be knowne what is piped or harped?

^o He threatneth the moche sharply, that God wil punish the contempt of his wordes, & their correfait ignorance, forasmuch as to speake w unknowe tongues is a signe of Gods curse towards the wicked. ^p Of Gods curse when they are not vnder stand.

^q By hearing his secret fautes ript vp, & his finnes reproved by Gods wordes, he is compelled by his owne conscience to praise God. ^r Which expounded the worde of God.

10 There are so manie kindes of voyces, (as it cometh to passe) in the worlde, and none of them is domme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh, a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for asmuche as ye couet spiritual gifts, seke that ye maye excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, praiſe, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit praieth: but mine vnderstanding is without frute.

15 What is it then? I wil praye with the spirit, but I wil pray with the vnderstanding also: I wil sing with the spirit, but I wil sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blestest with the spirit, how shal he that occupieth the rounge of the vnlearned, say Amen, at thy giuing of thankes, seing he knoweth not what thou saist?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake fewe wordes with mine vnderstanding that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning maliciouſnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, By men of other tongues, & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: yet so shal they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to the that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for the that beleue not, but for the which beleue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, wil they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, & so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you in dede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerie one of you hathe a psalme, or hathe doctrine, or hathe a tongue, or hathe reuelacion, or hathe interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If anie man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by thre, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him self, and to God.

29 Let the Prophetes speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge.

30 And if anie thing be reueiled to another y sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, y all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophetes are subiect to the Prophetes.

33 For God is not the autor of confusion, but of peace, as we se in all the Churches of the Saintes.

34 * Let your women kepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the Law saith.

35 And if thei wil learne anie thing, let the aske their housbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in y Church.

36 Came the worde of God out from you? ether came it vnto you onely?

37 If anie man thinke him self to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if anie man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophesie, & forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly and by order.

if he mencioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reproved, because there he brought it in for another purpose. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, that ye neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whome you haue receiued the Gospell, nor haue respect to the others to whome the Gospell doeth likewise apperteyne? z To haue vnderstanding of spiritual things. a If anie man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credit them that are learned.

THE SECONDE EPI- 1117/1224

stle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

As nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not unprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a love towards them farre passing all natural affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornnes, and contemne the Apostles autoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iuste occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them wel in the Lord, declaring that albeit certeine wicked persones abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his autoritie, yet they were necessarie schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherlie affection, he shulde haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their faulte, as is now euident bothe in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuche as the false Apostles went about to vndermine his autoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which se not the brightness of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persones slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth suche as reuell against his autoritie, that he wil declare by liuelie example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

- 4 He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15.17 And because they shulde not impute to lightnes, that he deferred his comming contrarie to his promes, he proueth his constancie, bothe by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is ground on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holie Ghost.

Paul an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST by the wil of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saintes, which are in all

Achaia:

- 2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ. 3 *b Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforte,

- 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comforte the which are in anie affliction by the comforte wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

- 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abunde in vs, so our consolation abundeth through Christ.

- 6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and ^d saluation, which ^e is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

- 7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as muche as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

- 8 For brethren, we wolde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we all together doubted, euen of life.

- 9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because we shulde not trust in our selues, but in God, who raiseth the dead.

- 10 Who deliuered vs from so ^h great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet here after he wil deliuer vs,

- 11 *So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thanks may be giuen by manie persones for vs.

^b Or praise & glorie beginneth.

^c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me. Rom 7.5 & 8.17. col 1.24

^d For seeing he indure so muche, they had occasion to be confirmed in the Gospel. ^e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercie, and by such means as he hathe here left in this life for vs to be exercised in. ^f Hereby he sheweth his owne infirmities, it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him. ^g I was utterly resolved in my self to dye. ^h So manie dangers of death.

Rom 15.30.

ⁱ He rendereth a reason why they ought to praye vnto God for his recovery. ^k Vnto that wisdom which God gaue me from heauen.

¹ Ye knowe partly my cōfancie bothe by my dwelling with you, and also my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shal knowe me to be the same to y very end. ^m In that we haue taught you y Gospell so sincerely. ⁿ Because we haue wōt you to Christ. ^o Which shal abolish all worldlie glorie. ^p Which is reshely to promes and not to performe. ^q Now to affirm one thing, and then to deny it, which is a signe of incofancie. ^r He taketh God to witness that he preacheth y truth. ^s He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ who is the most constant and infallible truth of the Father. ^t They are made, performed & we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephes. 4. 30. ^u In that I say I came not because I wolde spare you, I meane not that I haue autoritie to alter true religio, or to binde your consciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. ^x And faith is not in subiection to man.

¹ For we write none other things vnto you, then y ye read or els that ye acknowledge, & I trust ye shal acknowledge vnto the end. ¹⁴ Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioicing, euen as ye are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus. ¹⁵ And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace, ¹⁶ And to passe by you into Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth towarde Iudea of you. ¹⁷ When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde, according to y flesh, that w me shulde be, ^a Yea, yea, and Nay, nay? ¹⁸ Yea, ^r God is faithful, that our worde towarde you was not Yea, and Nay. ¹⁹ For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, ^t that is by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea. ²⁰ For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs. ²¹ And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs. ²² Who hath also sealed vs, & hath giue the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts. ²³ Now, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus. ²⁴ Not that we haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye: for by ^x faith ye stande.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towardes them. 7 Requiring like wise that they wolde be favorable to the incessant adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also rayceth in God for the efficacy of his doctrine. 17 Consuting thereby suche quarelpickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his persone, sought nothing, but the overthrowe of his doctrine.

¹ But I determined thus in my self, that I wolde not come againe to you in heauines. ² For if I make you sorie, who is he then that shulde make me glad, but the same which is made sorie by me? ³ And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I shulde take heauines of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all. ⁴ For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shulde be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you. ⁵ And if any hath caused sorow, the same hath not made me sorie, but partly (lest I shulde more charge him) you all. ⁶ It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of manie. ⁷ So that now contrarie wise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comforte him lest the same shulde be swallowed vp with ouer muche heauines. ⁸ Wherefore, I praye you, that you wolde confirme your loue towards him. ⁹ For this cause also did I write, y I might knowe the profe of you, whether ye wolde be obedient in all things. ¹⁰ To whome ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verely if I forgave any thing, to whome I forgave it, for your sakes forgive I it in the sight of Christ, ¹¹ Lest Satan shulde circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises. ¹² Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preache Christs Gospell, & a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of the, and went away into Macedonia. ¹⁴ Now thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place. ¹⁵ For we are vnto God the swete fauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish. ¹⁶ To the one we are the fauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life, vnto life, ^a and who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not as manie, which make marchandise of the worde of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

CHAP. III.

He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalte his Apostleship against the braggies of the false apostles. 7. 13 He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospell.

¹ DO we beginne to praise our selues againe? or nede we as some other, epistles of commendation vnto you, or letters of commendation from you? ² Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstand and red of all men, ³ In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, and written, not with yncke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart. ⁴ And suche trust haue we through Christ to God:

^c After his adulterer did repēt & amēd, Paul did so vterly cast of all sorowe, y he denieth that in maner he was aue whit sorie. ^d And so shulde increase his sorowe which I wolde diminish. ^e The adulterer, which interceded his mother in Law. ^f That as my intercession you wolde declare by the publike consent of the Church that you embrace him againe as a brother feeling he was excommunicate by the common consent. ^g That is, truly, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ. ^h By our rigorous punishing. ⁱ Or, in my misde. ¹ Fro this place vnto the 6. chap. 11. he excreateth onely of y misde, saue he some time intermmedleth that w appertineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 17, and 18 verses, and not onely to y ministers. ^k In working mightly by vs he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph. ^l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a comune death, & be thereat offēded, or els thinke it folie: & brighten againe life to the who in his death beholde their life. ^m That is, w preache for gaue, & corrupt it to false mens afflictions. ⁿ Or, through Christ, or of Christ Rom. 11. 16. Chap. 4. 2.

^k In working mightly by vs he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph. ^l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a comune death, & be thereat offēded, or els thinke it folie: & brighten againe life to the who in his death beholde their life. ^m That is, w preache for gaue, & corrupt it to false mens afflictions. ⁿ Or, through Christ, or of Christ

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke anie thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the New testament, not of the letter but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministratiō of death written w^h letters & ingraue in stones, was glorious so y^e the childre of Israel colde not beholde the face of Moses for the glorie of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

8 How shal not the ministratiō of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of cōdēnation was glorious, muche more doeth the ministratiō of righteousness excede in glorie.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glorie.

11 For if that which shulde be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seing then that we haue suche trust, we vse great boldenes of speache.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel shulde not looke vnto the end of that which shulde be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntil this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layed over their hearts.

16 Neuertheles when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

He declareth his diligence, and roundenes in his office. And that which his enemies roke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turned it to his great advantage. 11. 17 Shewing what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, we fainte not:

2 But haue cast from vs the cōclokes of shame & walke not in craftines, nether handie we the worde of God disceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euerie mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospell be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

In whome the god of this worlde hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infideles, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the image of God, shulde not shine vnto them.

4 For we preache not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

5 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkenes, who which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

6 But we haue this treasure in earthe vessels, y^e the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

7 We are afflicted on euerie side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

8 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

9 Euerie where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

10 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

11 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

12 And because we haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, I beleue, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake, 13 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shal raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shal set vs with you.

14 For all things are for your sakes that moſte plenteous grace by the thankesgiuing of manie may redoude to the praise of God.

15 Therefore we faint not, but thogh our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

16 For our light affliction w^h is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre moſte excellent & eternal waight of glorie:

17 While we loke not on the things which are sene, but on the things which are not sene: for the things which are sene, are temporal: but the things which are not sene, are eternal.

for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are borne partakers of mine affliction and comforte, may abundantly set forth his glorie. Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euertasting life.

Reuel. 16. 15.
¹⁰ Or, whether

^b Not onely quiet in mide, but also ready to suffer all dangers: being assured of the good successe thereof.

¹⁰ Or, strangers in the bodie.

^c For here onely we beleue in God, & se him not.

^d In this bodie.
Rom. 14. 10.

^e Out of this bodie, to heauen.

^f That is, ether glorie, or shame.

^g His feareful iudgement.
^h He prometh the dignitie of his ministerie by fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

ⁱ By embracing the same faith which we preach to others.

^k As they, & more esteemed the outward shewe of wisdom and eloquence, then true godlines.

^l As the aduersaries said, & coulde not abide to heare them praised in our folie serueth to Gods glorie.

^m Therefore who soeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

Isa. 43. 19.
Reuel. 21. 5.

ⁿ As the onely faithful do in Christ.
^p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.
^q We do not esteeme, nor commend Christ him self now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God, partaker of his glorie, and in whome God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke, that I will flatter my self or anye man in setting forth his gifts: Yea, when I praise my minister, I comende the power of God: when I commend our wortheie factes, I praise the mightie power of God, set forth by vs wormes and wretches.
^r Let him be regenerat, and renounce him self, & all the rest is nothing.

FOr we knowe that if ^a our earthlie house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a buylding giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

² For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is fro heauen.

³ "Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be founde ^anaked.

⁴ For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, "because we wolde not be vnclouted, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

⁵ And he that hathe created vs for this thing, ^u God, who also hathe giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

⁶ Therefore we are alway ^bbolde, thogh we knowe that whiles we are "at home in the bodie, we are absent from the Lord.

⁷ (For we ^c walke by faith, & not by sight)

⁸ Neuertheles, we are bolde, & loue rather to remoue out of the bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

⁹ Wherefore also we couet, that bothe dwelling ^d at home, and remouing ^e from home, we may be acceptable to him.

¹⁰ *For we must all appeare before the iudgemēt seat of Christ, that euerie man may receiue the things which are done in his bodie, according to that he hathe done, whether it be ^f good or euil.

¹¹ Knowing therefore the ^s terror of the Lord, we ^h persuade men, & we ⁱ are made manifest vnto God, & I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

¹² For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the ^k face, and not in the heart.

¹³ For whether we be ^l out of our wit, we are it ^m to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

¹⁴ For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were ⁿ all dead,

¹⁵ And he dyed for all, that they ^o which liue, shulde not hence forth liue vnto the selues, but vnto him which dyed for the, and rose againe.

¹⁶ Wherefore, hence forth we know we no mā past the flesh, yea thogh we had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now hence forth we know we him no more.

¹⁷ Therefore if anye man be in Christ, let him be a ^r new creature. *Olde things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

¹⁸ And all things are of God, which hathe recociled vs vnto him self by Iesus Christ, and hathe giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

²⁰ Now then are we ambassadours for Christ: as thogh God did beseeche you through vs, we praye you in Christs stede, that ye be reconciled to God.

²¹ For he hathe made him to be ^t sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we shulde be ^u made the righteousnes of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

^r An exhortation to Christian life, ¹¹ And to beare him like affection, as he doeth them. ¹⁴ Also to kepe them selves from all pollution of idolatrie bothe in bodie, and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

SO we therefore as workers together be sicke you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

² For he saith, * I haue heard thee in a time Isa. 49. 8. accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I suckered thee: beholde now the ^a accepted time, beholde now the daye of saluation.

³ We giue no occasion of offence in anye thing, that our ministerie shulde not be ^b reprehended.

⁴ But in all things we approue our selues as ^c the ministers of God, in muche patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

⁵ In stripes, in prisonnes, in tumultes, in labours,

⁶ By ^d watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnes, by the ^e holie Ghost, by ^f loue vnfeined,

⁷ ^f By the worde of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the lefte,

⁸ By honour, and dishonour, by euil reporte & good reporte, as deceiuers, and yet true:

⁹ As vnknown, and yet known: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

¹⁰ As sorowing, & yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make manie riche: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹ O Corinthians, our ^s mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

¹² Ye are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne ^h bowelles.

¹³ Now for the same recompense, I speake as to my children, ⁱ Be you also enlarged.

^f Therefore without Christ we can not enioye the life everlasting nor come to God.

^t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.

^u By imputation, when we shalbe clad with Christs iustice.

^a To wit, Gods fre mercie, wherein he hathe powred forth his infiniti loue.

^b By the infidels, if they sawe no frute come thereof.

in all our tribulacion.
5 For whē we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no reste, but we were troubled on euerie side, fightings ^e without, & terrors within.
6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:
7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolacion wherewith he was cō-forted of you, whē he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent min-de to mearde, so that I reioyced ^f muche more.
8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.
9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye forowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.
10 * For godlie sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluacion, not to be repented of: but the worldlie sorowe causeth death.

- 11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene ^s godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what ^h clearing of your selues: yea, what indignacion: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale:
yea, what ⁱ punishmēt: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrog, nether for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towards you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.
13 Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioy-ced muche more for the ioy of Titus, because his ^h spirit was refreshed by you all.
14 For if y I haue boasted anie thig to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truerh, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.
15 And ^k his inwarde affection is more abundant towards you, when he remem-breth the obedience of you all, and how with feare & trembling ye receiued him.
16 I reioyce therefore that I may ⁱ put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

*By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ
he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saintes, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his felowes vnto them.*

- 1 WE do you also to wit, brethren, of the ^a grace of God bestowed vp-on the Churches of Macedonia, 2 Because in great tryal of affliction their ioye abunded, and their moste extreme pouertie ^b abunded vnto their riche liberalitie.
3 For to ^c their power (I beare recorde) yea, & beyond their power, they were willing, 4 And prayed vs with great instance that we wolde receiue the ^c grace, & fellowship * of the ministring which is towards the Saintes.
5 And ⁱ thus they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the wil of God, 6 That we shulde exhorte Titus, that as he had begonne, so he wolde also accomplish the same grace among you also.
7 Therefore, as ye abunde in euerie thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so se that ye abude in this grace also.
8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnes of your loue.
9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Ie-sus Christ, that he being riche, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made riche.

g And willingly offred him self to gather your almes.

h In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstand Luke, others Barnabas.

Rom. 12. 19. i This weldoing is approved before God & man.

k That is, by whome Christs glorie is greatly advanced.

10 And I shewe my minde herein : for this is expedient for you, w^h haue begonne not to do onely, but also to wil, a yere ago.

11 Now therefore performe to do it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euē so ye maye performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a mā hathe, & not according to that he hathe not.

13 Nether is it that other men shulde be eased and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condicion, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitye:

15 As it is written, * He that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hathe put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Becaufe he accepted the exhortacion, yea, he was so careful that of his owne accorde he went vnto you.

18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in y^e Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosē of the Churches to be a felowe in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lord, and declaration of your prōpt minde)

20 Auoyding this, that no man shulde blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,

21 * Prouiding for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And we haue sent with the our brother, whome we haue oft times proued to be diligent in manie things, but now muche more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether come do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper to youwarde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, & the glorie of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe towards them, & before the Churches the proue of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to the. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cherefully. 7 Shewing what frute wil come thereof.

1 FOR as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I knowe your readines of mīde, whereof I boast my self of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yere ago, and your zeale hathe prouoked manie.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you shulde be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be readie:

4 Lest if thei of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I nede not to say, you) shulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shal reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shal reape also liberally.

7 As euerie man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loueth a chereful giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abounde towards you, that ye alwaies haue all sufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euerie good worke,

9 * As it is written, c He hathe sparfed abroad and hathe giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, wil minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your sede, and increase the frutes of your beneuolence,

11 That on all partes ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, w^h causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministracion of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of y^e Saintes, but also is abundant by the thanksgiuing of manie vnto God,

13 (Which by the experimēte of this ministracion praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by d their praier for you, desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his autoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

1 NOW I Paul my self beseeche you by the mekenes, & gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, am a base, but am bolde towards you being absent:

2 And thus I require you, that I nede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, w^h esteeme vs as though we walked according to the flesh.

3 Neuertheles, though we walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh, Prou. 11. 25.

Rom. 12. 8.
Eccle. 35. 11.

a Lest thei shulde giue but little, distrustiug to impouerish the selues thereby, he sheweth y^e God wil so blesse their liberal heartes, y^e bothe they shal haue y^e enough for the selues & also to helpe others with all.

Psal. 112. 9. b That ye may do good & helpe others at all times.

c Dauid speaketh of that man w^h feareth God & loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shal bepraised, thei also shal be commended to God by their prayers whome thei haue holpen. yea, & all men shal reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God. Or, greatly affected towards you.

e These wordes his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his autoritie, as ver. 6. 10.

f As though we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

- 4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)
- 5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euerie high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euerie thoght to the obedience of Christ,
- 6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 7 Loke ye on things after the appearance: If anie man trust in him self that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of him self, that as he is Christs, euē so are we Christs.
- 8 For thogh I shulde boast somewhat more of our autoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shulde haue no shame.
- 9 Thus I say that I may not seme as it were to feare you with letters.
- 10 For the letters, saith he, are fore and strong, but his bodelie presence is weak, and his speache is of no value.
- 11 Let suche one thinke this, that suche as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche wil we be also in dede, when we are present.
- 12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to the, which praise them selues: but they vnderstand not that they measure them selues with them selues, & compare them selues with them selues.
- 13 But we wil not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine even vnto you.
- 14 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as thogh we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,
- 15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,
- 16 And to preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyode you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is in the things that are prepared already.
- 17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.
- 18 For he that praiseth him self, is not allowed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

He declareth his affection towards them. 5 The excellence of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne praises.

- 1 W Olde to God, ye colde suffer a litle my foolishnes, and in deed, bye suffer me.
- 2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godlie ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one housband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:
- 3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes shulde be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ.
- 4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Iesus then him whome we haue preached: or if ye receiue another spirit then that which ye haue receiued: ether another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might wel haue suffered him.
- 5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the verie chief Apostles.
- 6 And thogh I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifeste to the utmost, in all things.
- 7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my self, that ye might be exalted, & because I preached to you the Gospel of God frely?
- 8 I robbed other Churches, and toke wages of them to do you seruice.
- 9 And when I was present with you, and had nede, I was not slothful to the hindrance of anie man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came fro Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and wil kepe my self that I shulde not be grieuous to you.
- 10 The truth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.
- 11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.
- 12 But what I do, that wil I do: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.
- 13 For suche false apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme them selues into the Apostles of Christ.
- 14 And no maruail: for Satan him self is transformed into an Angel of light.
- 15 Therefore it is no great thing, thogh his ministers transforme them selues, as thogh they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shalbe according to their workes.
- 16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euē as a foole, that I also may boast my self a litle.
- 17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

to the Lord: but his facion of boasting semed according to they compelled him.

a He calleth the praising of his self dotage to the wthing the arrogancie of the false apostles copied him, who fought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the autoritie of his ministerie. Gene. 3. 4.
b To speake in mine owne commendation.
c The minister maisteth Christ & his Church as housband and wife by preaching of the Gospel.
d That is, more perfite doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.
e More excellent gifts of the spirit by other mens preaching.
f They did not preache Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferior to the chiefest Apostles.
g That is, ye no worldlie eloquence.
h Other Churches relieved me.
i He did not onely labour with his hands for his living, but in his extreme poverthe preached diligently, without burdening anie mā, or els waxing slothful to do his due tie to euerie man. Chap. 12. 13.
k Let not the truth of Christ be thoght to be in me, if I suffer my ioye to be shut vp, wth I haue conceiued of G. c. 11. 1. To slander my ministerie, if I shulde receive wages.
l By false apostles here is not meant: suche as teache false doctrine (wth doudles, they wolde haue growen vmo) but suche as were vaine glorious, and did not shew onely sincerely. In his heart he had respect to man, whereunto

e Meaning, a certeine man among the, wth thus spake of Paul.

d He measureth anie thing, must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it self: so these boasters must measure them selues by their worthie adies: & if they wil compare with others, let the shewe what countreis, what cities, & people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who wil praise y^e souldeier, wth onely at the table can finely talke of the warres, & whe he cometh, ro the brunt, is nether valiant nor expert? Eph. 4. 8.

e That is, the gifts & vocacion, wth God had giuen him to winne others by. f God gaue y^e whole worlde to y^e Apostles to preache in, so that Paul here meaneth by y^e line his porcion of the countreis where he preached. 1er. 9. 24. 3. cor. 1. 31.

^o In outward things.

18 Seing that maniereioyce after the flesh, I wil reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffice euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalte him self, if a man smite you on the face.

^p I note this dishonour, w^h they do vnto you.

^{Philip 3.5.}

CHAP. XII.

¹ He reioyceth in his preferment. ^{5. 7} But chieſly in his humbles. ¹² And layeth the cauſe of his boasting vpon the Corinthians. ¹⁴ He ſheweth what good wil he beareth them. ²⁰ And promiſeth to come vnto them.

¹ It is not expedient for me no dout to reioyce: for I wil come to viſion and reuelations of the Lord.

² I knowe a man in Chriſt aboue fourtene yeres agoe, (whether he were in the bodie, I can not tel, or out of the bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the third heauen.

And I knowe ſuche a man (whether in the bodie, or out of y^e bodie, I can not tel: God knoweth.)

4 How that he was takē vp into Paradiſe, & heard wordes which can not be ſpoken, which are not poſſible for man to vtter.

5 Of ſuche a man wil I reioyce: of my ſelf wil I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I wolde reioyce, I ſhulde not be a foole: for I wil ſay the trueth, but I reſtraine, leſt anie mā ſhulde thinke of me aboute that he ſeeth in me, or y^e he heareth of me.

7 And leſt I ſhulde be exalted out of meaſure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me ^d a pricke in the fleſh, y^e meſſenger of Satā to buſt me, becauſe I ſhulde not be exalted out of meaſure.

8 For this thing I beſoght the Lord * thiſe, that it might departe from me.

9 And he ſaid vnto me, My grace is ſufficiēt for thee: for my power is made ^f perſite through weakenes. Verſe gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Chriſt may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take pleaſure in infirmities, in reproches, in neceſſities, in perſecutions, in anguiſh for Chriſts ſake: for whē I am weak, then am I ſtrong.

11 I was a foole to boalt my ſelf: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene comended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the verie chief Apoſtles, though I be nothing.

12 The ſignes of an Apoſtle were wrought among you with all patience, with ſignes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene ſlothful to your hinderance: forgive me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the thurde time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be ſlothful to your hinderance: for I ſeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to laye vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I wil moſte gladly beſtowe, and wil be beſtowed for your ^g ſoules: though the more I loue you, the leſſe I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: ^k yet for aſmuch as I was craftie, I toke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by anie of them whome I ſent vnto you?

b In my first epistle, Chap. 4, 20.

c In that he humbled him self and toke vpon him the forme of a seruant.

d Christ as touching the flesh in mans iudgement was vile & abject: therefore we that are his members, can not be otherwise esteemed: but being crucified, he shewed him self verie God: so thinke, that we whome ye cōtemne as dead men & castaways, haue through Gods such power to execute against you, & ye may feel sensibly that we liue in Christ.

20 For I feare lest when I come, I shal not finde you suche as I wolde: and that I shal be founde vnto you^m suche as ye wolde not, and lest there be strife, enuyng, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings & discorde.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God shall abase me among you, and I shal bewaile manie of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the^{*} vncleannes, and fornication, and wantonnes, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He threateneth the obstinate. 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimony. 10 Also he sheweth what is the effect of this epistle. 11 After hauing exhorted them to their dutie, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

THIS is the^{*} thirde time & I come vnto you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euerie worde stand.

2 I tolde you before, and tel you before: as though I had bene present the seconde time, so write I now being absent to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I wil not spare,

3 Seing that ye seke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though he was crucified concerning his^c infirmities, yet liueth he through the power of God. And we no dout are weake in him: d but we shal liue w^h him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 Proue your selues whether ye are in the^{1. Cor. 11, 28.} faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shal knowe that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God y^e ye do none euil, not that we shulde seme approued, but y^e ye shulde do that which is honest: though we be as^e reprobates.

8 For we can not do anie thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For we are glad when we are weake, and that ye are^f strong: this also we wish for euen your perfection.

THE EPISTLE OF the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no autoritie, but spake of him self, he proueth bothe that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are frely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, & not to haue their consciences snared in the gennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

An Angel from heauen. To the Galatians. Paules constancie.^{1126/1224}

CHAP. I.

Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered them selues to be seduced by the false apostles who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessarie to saluation. 8 And detesteth them that preache a me otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office & Apostleship, and declareth him self to be equal with the chief Apostles.

Tit. 1. 3. a For God is the autor of all ministerie. b This prerogative was peculiar to the Apostles.

Luk. 1. 74. c Which is, y 2 corrupt life of man without Christ.

Or. doctrine. d That is, to be partakers of the saluation offered freely by Christ. e For what is more contrary to our fre iustification by faith, then the iustification by Law, or our workes? therefore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light & darkenes, death with life, & doeth viterly ouerthrow the Gospel. f If it were possible, that an Angel shuld do so: whereby Paul declareth the certetie of his preaching.

1. Cor. 15. 1. g Since that of a Pharisee I was made an Apostle. h That is, doctrine inuetered by mā, nether by mā's autorsie do I preache it.

Act. 9. 1. i By an extraordinary reuelation. Or. age. k That is, of Law of God w was giuen to the ancient fathers. l He maketh stite degrees in Gods eternal predestination first his eternal couel, then his appointing from the mothers wombe, & churldly his calling.

Ephes. 3. 8. m That is, w anie man, as though I had aced of his couel to aproue my doctrine.

PAUL*an Apostie(not a of men, nether by mā, but by IESVS CHRIST, and God the Father w hath raised him from the dead)

And all the brethren w are with me, vnto y Churches of Galatia: Grace be with you and peace from God the Father, & from our Lord Iesus Christ, Which gaue him self for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs * from this e present euil worlde according to the wil of God euen our Father,

To whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

I marueile that ye are so sone remoued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the d grace of Christ,

Which is not another Gospel, saue y there be some which trouble you, and intende to e peruert the Gospel of Christ.

But thogh that we, or an f Angel from heauen preache vnto you other wise, the that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now againe, If anie man preache vnto you otherwise, the y ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

For s now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods: or go I about to please men? for if I shulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

* Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

For nether receiued I it of man, nether was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Iesus Christ.

For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time paste, in the Iewish religiō, how that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

And profited in the Iewish religiō aboute manie of my * companions of mine owne nacion, and was muche more zealous of y traditions of my fathers.

But when ic¹ pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

To reueile his Sonne in me, that I shulde preache him * among the Gentiles, immediately I cōmunicated not with m flesh and blood:

Nether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vnto Damascus.

Then after thre yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fiftene dayes.

And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I wnesse before God, that I lie not.

After that, I went into the coastes of Syria & Cilicia: for I was vnknownen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

But they had heard onely some say, He w persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the faith, which before he destroyed.

And they glorified God for me.

n That is, the Gospel which is the doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised. 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reprobated Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he cometh to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

THEN fourtene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

And I went vp by reuelation, and a communicated with the of the Gospel which I preache among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chief, lest by any meanes I shulde runne, or had runne in vaine:

But nether yet Titus which was with me, thogh he were a Grecian, was b compelled to be circumcised

For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuely to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, y they might bring vs into bondage.

To whome we e gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the truerth of the Gospel might continue with you.

And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they d were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: * God accepteth no mans persone) neuertheles, they y are the chief, e did communicate nothing with me.

But cōtrariwise, when they sawe that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the Circumcision was vnto Peter:

(For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcisiō, was also mightie by me towarde the Gentiles)

And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knewe of the grace that was giuen vnto me, w are counted to be pillars, thei gaue

¹¹ ¶ And whē Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstode him ^{sto} to his face: for he was to be blamed.

¹² For before that certeine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles : but when they were come, he withdrewe & separated him self, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

¹³ And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in somuche that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

¹⁴ But when I sawe, that they went not the "right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If ŷ being a Iewe, liuest as the Gētiles, & not like the Iewes, why *h*cōstrainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Iewes?

¹⁵ We which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, ¹⁶ Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ : euen we, I say, haue beleued in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no "flesh shal be iustified.

¹⁷ *If then while we seke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde "sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God ¹ forbid.

¹⁸ For if I buyld againe the things that I haue destroyed, ^m I make my self a trespasser.

¹⁹ For I through the Law am dead to the Law, & that I might liue vnto God, I am "crucified with Christ.

²⁰ Thus I liue yet, ^o not I now, but Christ liueth in me: & in that that I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who harhe loued me, & giuen him self for me.

²¹ I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by ŷ Law, then Christ dyed ^{"without a cause}.

CHAP. III.

He rebuketh them sharply. 2 And proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith. 6 As appeareth by the example of Abraham. 10. 19. 24. And by the office, & the end, bothe of the Law. 11. 25. And of faith.

O Foolish Galatiās, who hathe bewitched you that ye shulde not obey the trueth, to whome Iesus Christ before ^{"was} described in your sight, & among you crucified?

² This onely wolde I learne of you, Receive ye the "blessing of God, which is in Christ Iesus, which is the blessed fountaine, because he is ioyned in Christ which is this blessed fountaine, might appeare and be made more abundant, and so all to be shut up vnder sinne.

ued ye the "blessing of God by the workes of ŷ Law, or by the hearing of "faith preached?

Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begunne in the Spirit, ye wolde now ^{"be made} depertise by the "flesh?

⁴ Haue ye suffred so many things in vaine, if so be it be euen in vaine.

⁶ Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, & it was ^{"imputed to him} for righteousness.

⁷ Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

⁸ For the Scripture foreseeing, ŷ God wolde iustifie ŷ Gētiles through faith, preached before ŷ Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, *In thee shal all the Gentiles be blessed.

⁹ So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

¹¹ And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shal liue by faith.

¹² And the "Law is not of faith : but * the man that shal do those things, shal liue in them.

¹³ Christ hathe redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Curfed is euerie one that hangeth on tre)

¹⁵ Brethren, ¹ I speake as men do, * Though it be but a mans couenant when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or "addeth any thing thereto.

¹⁶ Now to Abraham and his sēde were the promises made. He saith not, And to the sēdes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy sēde, as of one, which ¹ is Christ.

¹⁷ And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundredth and thirtie yeres after, can not disanul the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, ŷ it shulde make the promises of none effect.

¹⁸ For if the inheritance be of the Law, ¹¹ is no more by the promises, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promises.

¹⁹ Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the "transgressions, til ŷ sēde came vnto ŷ which the promises

10 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

11 Is the Law then against the promes of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law giuen which coulde haue giuen life, surely righteousness shulde haue bene by the Law.

12 But the Scripture hathe concluded all vnder sinne, that the promes by the faith of Iesus Christ shulde be giuen to them that beleue.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined.
2 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the truth commeth. 3 He moueth them by certeine exhortations. 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example or allegorie.

Then I say, that the heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, thogh he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouerners, vntil the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the worlde.

4 But when the fulnes of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, & made vnder the Law,

5 That he might redeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hathe sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But euen then, when ye knewe not God, ye did seruite vnto them, which by nature are not gods.

9 But now seing ye knowe God, yea, rather are known of God, how turne ye againe vnto impotent and beggerlie rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yerres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseeche you: ye haue not hurt me at all.

13 And ye knowe, how through infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 And the tryal of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, nether abhorred: but ye receiued me as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie: for I beare you recorde, that if it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you amisse: yea, they wolde exclude you, that ye shulde altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, & not onely when I am present with you,

19 My litle children, of whome I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Christ be formed in you.

20 And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you.

21 Tell me, ye that will be vnder the Law, do ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a seruant, & one by a fre woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promes.

24 By the which things another thing is ment: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mounte Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, & it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth, & crye, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hathe many mo. children, then she which hathe an housband.

neighbour as thy self.

15 If ye byte & deuoure one another, take hede lest ye be consumed one of another.

16 Then I say, * walke in the Spirit, and ye shal not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrarie one to the other, so that ye can not do the same things that ye wolde.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not as I also haue tolde you before, that they which do suche things, shal not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the frute of the Spirit is loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faith,

23 Mekenes, temperancie: against suche
there is no Law.

24 For they that are Christs, haue crucicasion into anie faute, ye which are spiritual, restore suche one with the spirit of mekenes, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfil the Law of Christ.

3 For if anie man seme to him self, that he is some what, when he is nothing, he deceiueth him self in his imagination.

4 But let euerie man proue his owne worke, and then shal he haue reioycing in him self onely and not in another.

5 * For euerie man shal beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the worde, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all his goods.

7 Be not deceived: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shal he also reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shal of the flesh reape corruptiō: but he that seweth to the spirit, shal of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 * Let vs not therefore be wearie of weldoing: for in due season we shal reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs do good vnto all men, but specially vnto the,
which are of the housholde of faith.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason wherof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutacion, he assureth them of saluacion, because they were thereunto predestinate by the fre election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vnto this eternal life by the holie Gost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which myserie he prayeth God to confirme towards them. And to the intent they shoulde not glorie in them selues, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plonged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promises were not made, and yet by the fre mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their A-postle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfite vnderstanding of his Sonne, & exhorteih them like wise to be mindeful of so great benefites, nether to be moued with the false apostles, which seke to overthrowe their faith, and treade vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsel of God: who by this meanes preseruethe onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministrie, forasmuche as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth the moste plentiful frutes, as innocencie, holines, with all suche offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euerie mans vocacion.

CHAP. I.

After his salutacion, ⁴ He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluacion standeth in the fre election of God through Christ. ¹⁶ He declareth his good wil towards them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith.
²¹ The maiestie of Christ.

PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by y wil of God, to the ^a Saintes, which are at Ephesus, & to the faithful in Christ Iesus:
² Grace be with you, & peace fro God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

³ * Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all ^a spiritual blessing in heauenlie things in Christ,

⁴ * As he hath ^b chosen vs in him, before y fundacion of the worlde, y we ^c shulde be scholie, & without blame before hi in loue:

⁵ Who hath predestinate vs, to be ^d adopted through Iesus Christ vnto him self, according to the good pleasure of his wil,

⁶ To the ^e praise of the glorie of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

⁷ By whome we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgienes of sinnes, according to his riche grace:

⁸ Whereby he hath bene abundant toward vs in all wisdom & vnderstanding,

⁹ And hath opened vnto vs the myserie of his wil according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed ^f in him,

¹⁰ That in the dispensacion of the fulnes of the times he might gather together in one ^g all things, bothe which are in heaue and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

¹¹ In whome also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsel of his owne wil,

¹² That ^h we, which first trusted in Christ, shulde be vnto the praise of his glorie:

¹³ In whome also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the worde of trueth, euen y Gospel of your saluacion, wherein also after that ye beleued, ye were sealed with the holie Spirit of promes,

- i* Though we be redeemed fro y^e bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6.22, yet we hope for this secode redemption which shalbe when we shal possesse our inheritance in the heauens, whereof we haue the holie Ghost for a gage, as Chap. 4.30.
- k* Or Christ. I Made him Gouverneur of all things bothe in heauen & in earth so that Christ's bodie is now one ly there, or els it shulde not be a true bodie and his ascension shulde be but a fantastical thing and onely imagined.
- Col. 2.12.*
Chap. 3.7.
Psal. 8.8.
ebz. 2.8.
m This is the great loue of Christ towards his Church that he counteth not himself perfect without vs w^e are his members: and therefore the Church is also called Christ, as 1. Cor. 12.12.
- Col. 2.13.*
Chap. 6.12.

- b* Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.
- c* Bothe Iewe and Gentil.
Or, with Christ
d We that are the members, are raised vp from death & reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.
- 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession purchased vnto the praise of his glorie.
- 15 Therefore also after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, & loue towards all the Saintes,
- 16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,
- 17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glorie, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,
- 18 That y^e eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightened that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saintes,
- 19 And what is y^e exceeding greatnes of his power towards vs, which beleue, according to the working of his mightie power,
- 20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heauenlie places,
- 21 Farre aboue all principallitie, and power, & might, & domination, & euerie Name, that is named, not in this worlde onely, but also in that that is to come,
- 22 And hath made all things subiect vnder his fete, & hath appointed him ouer all things to be the head to the Church,
- 23 Which is his bodie, euen the fulnes of him that filleth all in all things.
- CHAP. II.
- 1* To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onlie cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what manner of people they were before their conversion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

- Col. 2.13.*
Chap. 6.12.
a Meaning Satan.
- b* Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.
- c* Bothe Iewe and Gentil.
Or, with Christ
d We that are the members, are raised vp from death & reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.
- 1 And y^e you haue he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes,
- 2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, & after the prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the childe of disobedience,
- 3 Among whome we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, & of the minde, and were by nature the children of wrath, as well as others.
- 4 But God which is riche in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,
- 5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saved,
- 6 And hath raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenlie places in Christ Iesus,
- 7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnes towards vs in Christ Iesus.
- 8 For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gifte of God,

- 9 Not of workes, lest any man shulde boast himself.
- 10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes; which God hath ordeined, that we shulde walke in them.
- 11 Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, & called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,
- 12 That ye were, I say, at y^e time without Christ, & were alienates from the comune welth of Israel, & were strangers fro the covenants of promes, & had no hope, & were without God in the worlde.
- 13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ.
- 14 For he is our peace, which hath made of bothe one, & hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,
- 15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in him self, so making peace,
- 16 And that he might reconcile bothe vnto God in one bodie by his crosse, & slaye hatred thereby,
- 17 And came, and preached peace to you w^e were a farre of, & to them that were nere.
- 18 For through him we bothe haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.
- 19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers & foreners: but citizens with the Saintes, and of the housholde of God,
- 20 And are buylt vpon the fundacion of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone,
- 21 In whome all the buylding coupled together, groweth vnto an holie Temple in the Lord,
- 22 In whome ye also are buylt together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

- 1* He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment: 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.
- 1 For this cause, I Paul am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,
- 2 It ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to you warde,
- 3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto me (as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes,
- 4 Whereby when ye read, ye may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)
- 5 Which in other ages was not opened was not in coparison of that abundance which was shewed when they were called: neither yet was the time, nor the manner known.

e Here he meaneth, as concerning grace, and not by nature.

f He sheweth here that the further y^e Gentiles were of from the grace of God, the greater debtors they are now to the same.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holie Gost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preache the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauielled from place to place, til at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians, being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relief vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good wil towards them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who shulde instruct them in matters more amply yea, and that he him self wolde also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he cōfute their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certeine admonitions bothe particular and general, with testification of his affection towards them, and thankful accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 S. Paul discovereth his heart towards them, 3 By his thankes giuing, 4 Prayers, 5 And wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20. He sheweth the frutes of his crosse. 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnto. 28 And patience.

PAUL & Timotheus the seruants of I E S U S C H R I S T, to all the Saintes in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the ^a Bishhops, and Deacons:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ. * I thanke my God hauing you in perfect memorie, (Alwaie in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnes)

5 Because of the ^b fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the ^c first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that he that hath begone this good worke in you, wil performe it vntil the ^d day of Iesus Christ,

7 As it becometh me so to iudge of you all because I haue you in remembrance * that bothe in my ^e bādes, and in my defense, and confirmation of the Gospel you all were partakers of my ^f grace.

8 For God is my recorde, how I long after you all from the verie heart rote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abūde, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and without offence, vntil the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the frutes of ^h righteousnes, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 ¶ I wolde ye vnderstode, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bādes in ⁱ Christ are famous throughout all the ^k iudgement hall, and in all other places,

14 In so muche that manie of the brethren in the Lord are boldned through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the ^l worde.

15 Some preache Christ euē through enuie and strife, and some also of good wil.

16 The one parte preacheth Christ of contention & not ^m purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I ⁿ am set for the defense of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether it ⁿ be vnder a pretence, or syncerely: and I therein ioye: yea, and wil ioye.

19 For I knowe that this shal turne to my saluation, through your prayer, & by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ, 20 As I hartely loke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed, but that with all confidence, as all wayes, so now Christ shal be magnified in my bodie, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ ^o is to me bothe in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And whether to ^o liue in the flesh we re profitable for me, and what to chose I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doute on bothe sides, desiring to be losed and to be with Christ, which is beste of all.

24 Neuertheles, to abide in the ^o flesh is more nedeful for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shal abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioye of your faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 * Onely let your cōuersation be, as it becometh ^p Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and se you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye ^q continue in one Spirit, & in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a ^r token of perdition, & to you of saluation, and ^s that of God.

29 For vnto you it is giuen ^t for Christ, that not onely ye shulde beleue in him, but also suffer for his sake, 30 Hauing the same fight, which ye sawe in me, and now heare to be in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them aboute all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that he and Timotheus wil speedely come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long tarying of Epaphroditus.

2 Fulfil my ioye, that ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accorde, and of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contentiō or vaine glorie, but that in mekenes of minde euerie man esteeme other better then him self.

4 Loke not euerie mā on his owne things, but euerie man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same minde be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 But he made him self of no reputation, and toke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 He humbled him self, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hathe also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euerie name,

10 That at the Name of Iesus shulde euerie knee bowe, bothe of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth,

11 And that euerie tongue shulde confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glorie of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as ye haue alwaie obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now muche more in mine absence, so make an end of your owne saluatiō with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, bothe the wil and the dede, euen of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blameles, and pure, the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and croked nation, among whome ye shine as lights in the worlde, 16 Holding forth the worde of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, nether haue labored in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus, to send

*Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comforte, when I knowe your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who wil faithfully care for your matters.

21 For all seke their owne, & not y which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye knowe the profe of him, that as a sonne with the father, he hathe serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send assone as I knowe how it wil go with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my self shal come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellowe souldier, eue your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me suche things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauines, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doute he was sicke, verie nere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, & not on him onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligetly, that when ye shulde se him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowful.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnes, and make muche of suche:

30 Because that for the worke of Christ he was nere vnto death, & regarded not his life, so fulfil that seruice which was lacking on your parte towarde me.

h We can raine no further, the God giuech vs strength, and sheweth vs ^h way i That is, to obtaine the crowne of glorie in the heauens.
k Or, haue more profited the others.

12 ^g Not as thogh I had alreadie attained to it, ether were alreadie perfect: but I followe, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am ^h comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I counte not my self, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I do: I forget that which is behinde, and endeouore my self vnto that which is before,

14 And followe hard toward the ⁱ marke, for the prise of the hie calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as manie as ^k be ^l perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shal reueile euē the ^m same vnto you.

16 Neuertheles, in that whereunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, ⁿ that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and loke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an ensample.

18 ⁿ For manie walke, of whome I haue tolde you often, & now tell you weping, that they are the enemies of the ^o Crosse of Christ, 19 Whose ^p end is damnacion, whose God is their belie, and whose ^q glorie is to their shame, which minde earthlie things.

20 But our ^r conuersacion is in heauen, fro whence also we loke for the ^s Sauour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Who shal change our vile bodie, that it may be facioned like vnto his glorious bodie, according to the working, whereby he is able euē to subdue all things vnto him self.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conuersacion, 15 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison. 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

1 Therefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, & beseeche Syntyche, that they be of one accorde in the Lord,

3 Yea, and I beseeche thee, faithful yokefelowe, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clemente also, and with other my felowe laborers, whose names are in the ^t boke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knownen vnto all men. The Lord is ^u at hand.

6 ^v Be nothing careful, but in all things let your requestes be shewed vnto God in praier, and supplicacion with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shal ^w preferue your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethre, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good reporte, if there be anie vertue, or if there be anie praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue bothe learned and receiued, and heard, and sene in me: those things do, and the God of peace shal be with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are ^x reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of ^y want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, the rewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abunde: euerie where in all things I am instructed bothe to be ful, and to be hongrie, and to abunde, and to haue want.

13 I am able to ^z do all things through the helpe of ^a Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue wel done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians knowe also that in the ^b beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with me concerning the ^c matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For euen when I was in Thessalonica, ye sent once, and afterwarde againe for my necessitie, 17 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire the frute which may further your reckening.

18 Now I haue receiued all, and haue plentie: I was euen filled, after that I had receiued of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an odour that smelleth swete, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasant to God.

19 And my God shal fulfil all your necessities through his riches with glorie in Iesus Christ.

20 Vnto God euen our Father be praise for euermore, Amen.

21 Salute all the Saintes in Christ Iesus. The brethren, which are ^d with me, grete you.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuelie, effectual and true Chriſt, and the ſu-ned, contrefait and imagined Chriſt, whome the ſaſe apoſtles taught. And firſt, he confirmeſh the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wiſhing them increaſe of faith, to eſtme the excellencie of Gods benefite towards them, teaching them alſo that ſaluacion, and whatſoeuer good thing can be deſired, ſtandeth onely in Chriſt, whome onely we embrace by the Goſpel. But forasmuche as the ſaſe breithre wolde haue mixed the Law with the Goſpel, he toucheſh thoſe flatterers Vehemently, and exhortieth the Colossians to ſtaye onely on Chriſt, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for Circumciſion, abſtinence from meates, external holines, worſhiping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Chriſt, he utterly condemneth, ſhewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Chriſt are abrogate: ſo that now the exerciſes of the Chriſtians ſtande in moriſication of the fleſh, newenes of life, with other like offices appertaining to the generally & particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

2 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Con-firmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Praiſeth for the increaſe of their faith. 13 He ſheweth vnto them the true Chriſt, and diſcouereth the contrefait Chriſt of the ſaſe apoſtles. 25 He approueth his autoritie & charge, 25 And of his faithfull executing of the ſame.

PAUL an Apoſtle of Ieſus Chriſt, by the wil of God, & Timotheus our brother,

To the, which are at Coloſſe, Saintes & faithful breithren in Chriſt:
Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

3 We giue thanks to God euē the Father of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Chriſt
Ieſus, and of your loue towards all Saintes, 5 For the hopes ſake, which is layd vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the worde of trueth, which is the Goſpel,

6 Which is come vnto you, even as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruſefull, as it is alſo among you, from the day that ye heard and truly knewe the grace of God,

7 As ye alſo learned of Epaphras our deare felowe ſeruant, which is for you a faith-full miniſter of Chriſt:

8 Who hath alſo declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the Spirit.

9 For this cauſe we alſo, ſince the daye we heard of it, ceaſe not to pray for you, and to deſire that ye might be fulfilled with 12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs mete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenes, and hath tranſlated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome we haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiuenes of ſinnes,

15 Who is the * image of the inuiſible

THE FIRST EPISTLE of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene wel instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most careful for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who sone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, & to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godlie liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seke curiously to knowe the times, willing them rather to wathe lest the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certeine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

- 2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith & good workes. 6 And receiue the Gospel with such earnestnes. 7 That they are an example to all others.

THE SECONDE EPI- stle to the Thessalonians.

1144/1224

THE ARGUMENT.

Lest the Thessalonians shoulde thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places, rather then came to the, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth the to patience and other frutes of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of suche as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuche as before that day there shoulde be a falling away from true religion, even by a great parte of the worlde, and that Antichrist shoulde reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending him self to their prayers, & encouraging them to constancie, he willethe the to correcte suche sharply, as live idelly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

- 1 He thanketh God for their faith, loue and patience.
11 He prayeth for the encrease of the same. 12 And sheweth what frute shal come thereof.

PAUL and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. Thess. 1. 1.

*We ought to thake God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is mete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euerie one of you towarde another aboundeth,

So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffre, a Which proceedeth of your faith as a moste notable frute.

b The faithful by their afflictions se, as in a cleare glasse the end of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shal reigne w Christ which haue suffered with him, and the wicked shal feelee his extreme wrath and vengeance

1. Thess. 4. 16.

c By whome he declareth his might.

*Which is a broken of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for y which ye also suffre.

For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lord Iesus shal shewe him self from heauen with his mightie Angels,

In flaming fyre, rendring vengeance vnto them, that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

Which shalbe punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power, d As God is euerlasting, so shal their punishment be euerlasting: and as he is moste mightie of power, so shal their punishment be moste fore.

When he shal come to be glorified in his Saintes, and to be made marueilous in all the that beleue (because our testimony towarde you was beleued) in that day.

Wherefore, we also praye alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodnes, & the worke of faith with power,

That y Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, & ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

e The fre beneuolence of Gods goodnes, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith containeth our mission, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs. g As the head with the bodie.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shal not come, til the departing from the faith come first. And the kingdome of Antichrist. 11 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOW we beseeche you, brethren, by y comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

That ye be not suddenly moued fro your minde, nor troubled neither by a spirit, nor by worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as thogh the daye of Christ were at hand.

a As false reuelation, or dreames.

b Which are spoken or written.

Ephes. 5. 6.

*Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shal not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne be disclosed, even y sonne of perdition, c A wonderful departing of the moste part from the faith.

d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecutors of the Church, & all that abominable kingdome of Satan, whereof some were beares, some Lyons, others Leopards, as Daniel describeth the, and is called y man of sinne because he setteth him self vp against God.

Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth him self against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him self that he is God.

Remeber ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

And now ye knowe what I withholdeth, that he might be reueiled in his time.

For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth alreadye sworke: onely he which know withdestroyeth others, so shal he be destroyed him self. f Because the false apostles had perswaded after a sorte the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before, and therefore rather to prepare them selues to patience, then to rest and quietnes. for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel shoulde be preached throughout all, Mat. 24. 14. g To wit, priuely, and is therefore called a mysterie because it is secret. h Which shal last for a time.

holdeth,

- holderth; shal let til he be taken out of the waye.
- 8 And then shal the wicked man be reueiled,* whome the Lord shal consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shal abolish with the brightnes of his comming,
- 9 Euen him whose ^k comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,
- 10 And in all deceiueablenes of vnrighteousnes, amōg the that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be sauēd.
- 11 And therefore God shal send the strong delusion, that they shulde beleue lyes,
- 12 That all they might be damned which beleued not the trueth, but had ^m pleasure in vnrighteousnes.
- 13 But we oght to giue thanks alwaye to God for you, brethren ⁿ beloued of the Lord, because that God hathe from the beginning chosen you to saluaciō, through sanctificaciō of the Spirit, and the faith of p trueth,
- 14 Whereunto he called you by ^q our Gospel, to obtaine the glorie of our Lord Iesus Christ.
- 15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and kepe the ^r instructions, which ye haue bene taught, ether by worde, or by our Epistle.
- 16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord & our God euen the Father which hathe loued vs, and hathe giuen vs euerlasting cōsolacion and good hope through grace,
- 17 Comforte your hearts, and stablsh you in euerie worde and good worke.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6 And giueth them warning to reprove the ydle, 16 And so wissheth them all wealth.

Ephes. 6. 18. colos. 4. 3.

Furthermore, brethren,* pray for vs, y the worde of the Lord may haue fre passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that we may be deliuered from vnreasonable and euil men: for all men haue not ^a faith.

a Although they boast them selves thereof. b From the slaughts of Satan.

3 But the Lord is faithful, which wil stablsh you, and kepe you from ^b euil.

4 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye bothe do, and wil do the things which we ^c commande you.

c By the worde of God.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, & the weating for of Christ.

6 We commande you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye withdrawe your selues frō euerie brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the ^d instruction, which he receiued of vs.

d Which is, to trauail, if he wil eat, Chap. 2. 15.

7 For ye your selues knowe* how ye oght to folowe vs:* for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

1. Cor. 4. 12. 1. thes. 4. 11. Act. 20. 34.

8 Nether toke we bread of anie man for nocht: but we wrought with labour & trauaile night & day, because we wolde not be chargeable to anie of you.

1. Cor. 4. 12. 1. thes. 2. 9.

9 Not but that we had autoritie, * but that we might make our selues an eniample vnto you to folowe vs.

1. Cor. 11. 1.

10 For euen when we were with you, this we warned you of, that if there were anie, which wolde not ^e worke, that he shulde not eat.

e Then by the worde of God none ought to liue idelly, but oght to giue him self to some vocation, to get his liuing by, and to do good to others

11 For we heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are suche, we commande and exhorte by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quiernes, and eat their owne bread.

13 * And ye, brethren, be not wearie in wel doing.

Galas. 6. 9.

14 If anie man obey not our sayings, note him by a lettre, * and haue no companie with him, that he maie be ashamed.

Mat. 18. 17. 1. Cor. 5. 9.

15 Yet count him not as an ^f enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

f The end of excommunication is not to drine from the Church, but to winne them to the Church by amendment.

16 Now the Lord of peace giue you peace alwaies by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.

17 The saluacion of me Paul, with mine owne hand, which is the token in euerie Epistle: so I write, g Whether the be mine Epistles or others meanes.

18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

The seconde Epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPI- stle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

In writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to kepe other in awe, which wolde haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therfore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godlie with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law they knewe not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for him selfe he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willesh prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuche as God hath the lesse ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluacion, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whome the mystere of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal susteine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shal teach things contrarie to the worde of God. Thus done, he teacheth what widdowes shulde be received or refused to minister to the sick: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him nether to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the dutie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of contentions, of riote men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods worde, &c. Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof, and admonisheth of Himeneus and Alexander.

DAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the commandement of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ our hope, Vnto Timotheus my natural sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, & peace from God our Father, & from Christ Iesus our Lord.

As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so do, that thou maiest comande same, that thei reache none other doctrine, Nether that they giue hede to fables and genealogies, which are endles, which brede questionnes rather then godlie edifying which is by faith.

For the end of the commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained.

From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

They wolde be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, nether whereof they affirme.

And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawles and disobedient, to the vngodlie, and to sinners, to the vnholie, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslaughterers,

To whoremongers, to buggerers, to me stealers, to liars, to the periured, & if there be anie other thing, that is contrarie to wholesome doctrine,

Which is according to the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, which is committed vnto me.

Therefore I thanke him, which hath made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his seruice:

When before I was a blasphemour, and a persecuter, and an oppressor: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued, that Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whome I am chief.

Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ shulde first shewe on me all log suffring vnto the ensample of them, which shal in time to come beleue in him vnto eternal life.

Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer, Amen.

This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the prophecies, which went before vnto thee, that thou by them shuldest fight a good fight, Hauing faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwracke.

Of whome is Himeneus, and Alexander, whom I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that thei might learne not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to pray for all men, & wherefore, & And how. As touching the apparel and modestie of women.

I Exhorte therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions & giuing of thanks be made for all men,

For Kings, and for all that are in autoritie, that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlines and honestie.

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour,

Who wil that all men shalbe saved, & come

Or, vnto saue. a So called because he followed the similitude of the Gospel

b Because these questioners preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified them with the Law, as if they had bene the verie Law of God, S. Paul sheweth that the end of Gods Law is loue, & cannot be without a good conscience, nether a good conscience without faith, nor faith without worde of God: so their doctrine is an occasion of contentions, is worth nothing.

The first epistle to Timotheus written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest citie of Phrygia Pacatiana.

THE SECONDE EPI- stle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (in him all the faithful) in the faith of the Gospel, & in the constant & sincere confessiō of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attende the issue, as do husband men, which at length receiue the frutes of their labours, & to cast off all feare & care, as souldiers do which seek onely to please their capitaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commanding him to preache the same to other, diligently taking hede of contentions, curious disputations, & vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may all together stande. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus & Phileus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: & yet to the intent that no man shoulde be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation, he sheweth that all that profess Christ, are not his, & that the Church is subiect to this calamitie: that the euil must dwell among the good till Gods trial come: yet he reserveth them whome he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus shoulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, & dangerous times shal followe, willing him to arme him self with the hope of the good issue that God wil giue vnto him, and to exercise him self diligently in the Scriptures, bothe against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certein necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him. 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

IN Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, according to the promes of life, which is in CHRIST IESVS, To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie, & peace from God the Father, & from Iesus Christ our Lord.

I thanke God, * whome I serue fro mine belders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

Desiring to se thee, mindful of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioye:

When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, & am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre vp the gifte of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sounde minde.

Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, nether of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

Who hath saued vs, & called vs with an holie calling, not according to our workes, but according to his owne purpose & grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the world was,

But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Sauour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

*Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, & Apostle, & a teacher of the Gentiles.

For the which cause I also suffice these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whome I haue beleued, & I am perswaded that he is able to kepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

Kepe the true paterne of the wholsome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

That worthwhile thing, which was committed to thee, kepe through the holie Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sorte are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

But when he was at Rome, he sought me out verie diligently, and founde me.

The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, & in how manie things he hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest verie wel.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abyde faste in the wholsome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ. 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his. 19 And the marke thereof.

THOU therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

And what things thou hast heard of me, by manie witnessers, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shal be able to teach other also.

Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

No man that warreth, entangleth himself with the affaires of this life, because he wolde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

And if anie man also strue for a matterie, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to do.

The housband man must labour before he receiue the frutes.

Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

Remember that Iesus Christ made of the sede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel.

Wherein I suffer trouble as an euil doer, euen vnto bonds: but the worde of God is not bounde.

Therefore I suffer all things, for the elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternal glorie.

It is a true saying, For if we be dead with him, we also shal liue with him.

If we suffer, we shal also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also wil denie vs.

If we beleue not, yet abideth he faithful: he can not denie him self.

Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruertering of the hearers.

Studie to shewe thy self approued vnto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the worde of truth aright.

*Stay prophane, and vaine babblings: for they shal encrease vnto more vngodlines.

And their worde shal fret as a canere: of which sorte is Hymeneus and Philetus,

Which

The seconde Epistle written from Rome vnto Timotheus the first bishoppe elected, of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the seconde time before the Emperour Nero.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, Satan stirred vp certeine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernemēt of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition wolde haue thrust in them selues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in manie trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongst other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certeine holines in meates & suche outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, & what things appertaine to euerie mans vocation. Against the which if anie man rebelle or els doeth not obey, he willett him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

³ The Elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becometh holines, not false accusers, not giuen to muche wine, but teachers of honest things,

⁴ That they may instruct the yong women to be sobre minded, that they loue their housbands, that they loue their children,

⁵ That thei be discrete, chaste, ^b kepig at home, good and ^a subiect vnto their housbands, ^y the worde of God be not euil spoken of.

⁶ Exhorte yong men likewise, that thei be sobre minded.

⁷ Aboue all things shewe thy self an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

⁸ And with the wholsome worde, which can not be reprobued, that he which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euil of.

⁹ ^a Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answerig againe,

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnes, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenes of his matter, he fleeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon bothe robbed his master, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent again to his master, earnestly begging his pardone, with moste waightie arguments prouing the dutie of one Christian to another, & so with salutations endeth.

- 1 Hereioyeth to heare of the faith and laue of Philemon.
2 Whome he desireth to forgieue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAUL a prisoner of Iesus
Christ, and our brother Timothéus, vnto Philemon our dere friend, & fellow helper,
And to our dere sister
Apphia, and to Archip-pus our felowe souldier, & to the Church that is in thine house:

- 3 Grace be with you, and peace from God
our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.
4 I giue thanks to my God, making men-cion alwaies of thee in my praier, 5 (When I heare of thy loue & faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, & toward all Saintes)

6 That the felowship of thy faith may be made fruteful, and that whatsoeuer good thig is in you through Christ Iesus, may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioye and consolacion in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, thogh I be verie bolde in Christ to commande thee that which is conuenient,

9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseeche thee, thogh I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseeche thee for my sonne Onesimus, whome I haue begotten in my bondes, 11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable bothe to thee and to me,

12 Whome I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, y is mine owne bowels,

13 Whome I wolde haue reteined with me, that in thy stede he might haue ministred vnto me in the bondes of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde wolde I do nothing, that thy benefite shulde not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore departed

THE EPISTLE TO the Ebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

FOrasmuche as diuers, bothe of the Greke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iuste causes wolde not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our parte to labour muche therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the autor thereof, it diminisheth nothing the autoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to perswade vnto the Ebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuche as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophetes, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through him self: for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Levitical Priests were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the seventh chap. verse 11. vnto the 12. chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophetes in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. chapter, verse 18. to the twentieth and five verse of the same chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, and courageously perseuere euen to the end in hope of that ioye that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may bothe be thankfull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 About the Angels, 7 And of their office.

AT sondrie times & in diuers maners God spake in y olde time to our fathers by the Prophetes:

In these last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whome he hath made heir of all things, by whome also he made the worldes, 9 Thou hast loued righteousness and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with y oyle of gladnes about thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shal perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shal waxe olde as doeth a garment.

heard, lest at anie time we shulde let the slippe.

For if the worde spoken by Angels was stedfaste, and euerie transgression, and disobedience receiued a iuste recompense of rewarde,

How shal we escape, if we neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterwards was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

* God bearing witness thereto, bothe with signes and wonders, & with diuers miracles, and giftes of the holie Ghost, according to his owne will.

For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the worlde to come, whereof we speake.

But one in a certeine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shuldest be mindeful of him! or the sonne of man that thou woldest consider him!

Thou madest him a litle inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him aboute the workes of thine hands.

* Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his fete. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that shulde not be subiect vnto him. But we yet se not all things subdued vnto him.

But wese Iesus & crowned with glorie & honour, which was made a litle inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whome are all things, seeing that he brought manie children vnto glorie, that he shulde consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, * I wil declare thy Name vnto my brethre: in the middes of the Church wil I sing praises to thee.

And againe, * I wil put my trust in him. And againe, * Beholde, here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.

Forasmuche then as the children were partakers of flesh and bloode, he also him self likewise toke parte with them, that he might destroye through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

And that he might deliuer all the, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

For he in no sorte toke the Angels, but he toke the seed of Abraham.

Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethre, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

For he in no sorte toke the Angels, but he toke the seed of Abraham.

Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethre, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

He requireth them to be obedient vnto the worde of Christ. Who is more worthie then Moses. The to his worde & receiue him. Of that doctrine w we beleue, & ought to confesse.

Therefore, holie brethren, partakers of the heauenlie vocatiō, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our professiō Christ Iesus:

Who was faithful to him that hath appointed him, euen as Moses was in all his house.

For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, inasmuche as he which hath buylded the house, hath more honour then the house.

For euerie house is buylded of some man, & he that hath buyt all things, is God.

Now Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witness of things which shulde be spoken after.

But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the reioicing of the hope vnto the end.

Wherefore, as the holie Ghost saith, * To day if ye shal heare his voyce,

Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wilderness,

Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fortie yeres long.

Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, nether haue they knowen my wayes.

Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shal enter into my rest.

Take hede, brethren, lest at anie time there be in anie of you an euil heart, and vnfaithful, to departe away from the liuing God.

But exhorte one another daily, while it is called * To day, lest anie of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

For we are made partakers of Christ, if we kepe sure vnto the end the beginning, wherewith we are vpholden,

So long as it is said, * To day if ye heare his voyce, hardē not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

For some when they heard, prouoked him to angre: howbeit, not all that came

1 LEt vs feare therefore, lest at anie time by forsaking the promes of entring

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If ^b they shal enter into my rest: althogh ^c the workes were finished from the fundation of the worlde.

4 For he spake in a certeine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shal enter into my rest.

6 Seing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeleues sake:

7 Againe he appointed ^d in Dauid a certei-ne day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For ^e if Iesus had giuen them rest, then wolde he not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, ^f hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to entre into that rest, lest anie man fall after the same en-

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which can not be touched with the feling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sorte, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto ^m the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, & finde grace to helpe in time of nede.

CHAP. V.

1 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Levitical Priests, shewing wherein they ether agree or dissent. 11 Afterwarde he reproveth the negligence of the Iewes.

1 FOr euerie hie Priest is taken from among men, and is ^a ordeined for men, in things pertaineing to God, that he may offer bothe ^b giftes & ^c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue copafsion on them ^d that are ignorant, & that are out of the way, because that he also is co-passed with infirmities,

3 And for the sames sake he is bonde to offer for sinnes, as wel for his owne parte, as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto him self, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ toke not to him self this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, ^e gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh,
* Thou art a Priest for euer after the ^f order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the ^g dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with was able to saue him from death, and was 8 And thogh he were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he

CHAP. VI.

He proceedeth in reproofing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast & patient, 18 Forasmuche as God is sure in his promises.

T Herefore, leauing the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe ^a fundacion ^b of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptismes, & laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement. And this wil we do ^c if God permit. *For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenlie gift, and were made partakers of the holie Gost, And haue tasted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the worlde to come, If they fall away, shulde be renewed againe by repentance: seing they ^d crucifie againe to them selues the sonne of God & make a mocke of him. For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh vpon it, and bringeth forth the herbes mete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueith blessing of God. But that which beareth thornes & briars, is reprobued, and is nere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned. But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and suche as accompanie saluation, though we thus speake. For God is not vnrighteous, that he shulde forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saintes, & yet minister. And we desire that euerie one of you shewe the same diligence, to the ^e full assurance of hope vnto the end, That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises. For when God made the promes to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he swaie by him self, Saying, *Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiplie thee marueilously. And so after that he had raryed patiently, he enioyed the promes. For men verely sweare by him that is greater then them selues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife. So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promes the stabilitie of his counsell, bound him self by an othe, That by two immutable things, where-rein it is vnpossible that God shulde lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs, 19 Which we haue, as an ancre of the soule, bothe sure and stedfast, & it entrencheth into that which is within the vaile, 20 Whether the fore runner is for vs entered in, euen Iesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchi-sedec.

CHAP. VII.

He compareth the Priesthode of Christ vnto Melchisedec. 11 Also Christs Priesthode with the Leuites.

F Or this Melchi-sedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most hie God, who met Abraham, as he returned fro the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

Without father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

Now consider how great this man was, vnto whome euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthode, haue a commandement to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

But he whose kinred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

And without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

And here me that dye, receiue tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whome it is witnessed, that he liueth.

And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueith tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

For he was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.

If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shulde rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, & not to be called after the order of Aaron?

For if the Priesthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the Law.

For he of whome these things are spokē, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

For it is euident, that our Lord sprang out of Iuda, concerning the which tri-^k He returneth to the comparison between Christs Priesthode & the Leuitical which he had begun in the 5. chap. 1 Which heauen whether Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

Christs eternal Priesthod. Chap. VIII. IX. The new Testament. 104 be Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthode.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For he testifieth thus, *Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of y^e weakenes thereof, and vnprofitableness.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.

20 And forasmuche as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that said vnto him, *The Lord hathe sworn, & wil not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec)

22 By so muche is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among the many were made Priests, because they were not suffred to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hathe an euerlasting Priesthode.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfite to saue them that come vnto God by him, semg he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holie, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauens:

27 Which neded not daily as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, *first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered vp him self.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmities: but y^e worde of the othe that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing of the Levitical Priesthode, as of the olde Couenant by the spiritual & euerlasting Priesthode of Christ, & And by the new Couenant.

1 Now of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue suche an hie Priest, y^e sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuarie, and of the true Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not a man.

3 For euerie hie Priest is ordeined to offer

bothe giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seing there are Priests that according to the Law offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadowe of heauenlie things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. *Se, said he, that thou make all things according to y^e paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hathe obtained a more excellent office, inasmuche as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is established vpō better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faueteles, no place shulde haue bene sought for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, *Beholde, the dayes wil come, saith the Lord, when I shal make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testamēt:

9 Not like the Testamēt that I made with their fathers, in the day that I toke them by the had, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded the not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testamēt that I wil make with y^e house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their munde, and in their heart I wil write them, and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people, 11 And they shal not teache euerie man his neighbour & euerie man his brother, saying, Knowe y^e Lord: for all shal knowe me, from the least of the to the greatest of them.

12 For I wil be merciful to their vnrighteousnes, and I wil remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith a newe Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that w^{ch} is disanulled & waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the Ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished. 11 By the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

1 Then the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worldlie Sanctuarie.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, & the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the Holie places.

3 And after the seconde vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

m Outwardely in the sight of man.

n Which of the selues procure death & are the frutes thereof.

o He proueth that and Christ, who by his death shulde make vs heires.

p Without the death of the testator.

q Without the death of beastes that were sacrificed & signified, that which had manna, was, and A Aarons rodde that had budded, and the t tables of the Testament.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the mercie seat: of which things we wil not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, & accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the *h*ie Priest alone, once euerie yere, not without blood which he offered for him self, and for the "ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holie Ghost this signified, that the c way into the Holiest of all was, not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that coulde not make *h*olie, concerning the cōscience, d him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stode in meats and drinckes, and diuers washings, and *c*arnal rites, vntill the time of *r*eformation.

11 But Christ being come an *h*ie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfecte Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this buylding, 12 Nether by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the *h*olie place, and obtained eternal redemption for vs.

13 *For if the k blood of bulles & of goates & the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling the that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the l flesh,

14 How muche more shal y blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offered him self without spot to God, purge your conscience from m dead workes, to *s*erue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatur of the new Testamēt, that through d death which was for the redēption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promes of eternal enheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must be the death of him that made the testamēt.

17 *For the e testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is a liue.

18 Wherefore nether was the first ordeined without p blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euerie precept to the people, according to the Law, he and pure the Levitical Priest offered yereley, and therefore did onely represent the true holines: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holie for euer all the that beleue. l Outwardely in the sight of man. m Which of the selues procure death & are the frutes thereof. n Made betwene God and Christ, who by his death shulde make vs heires. o He proueth that and Christ, who by his death shulde make vs heires. p Without the death of the testator. q Without the death of beastes that were sacrificed & signified, that Christ wolde pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood.

he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hyssope, and sprinkled bothe the boke, and all the people, 20 *Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauēlie things shulde be purified with such things: but the heauēlie things the selues are purified with better q sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holie places that are made with hands, which are r similitudes of the true *S*anctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shulde offer him self often, as the *h*ie Priest entred into the Holie place euerie yere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the fundacion of the worlde) but now in the *e*nd of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him self.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once dye, and after that cometh the iudgement, 28 So s Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of *m*any, and vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare the seconde time u without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

The olde lawe had no power to chenge away sinne. 10 But Christ did it with offering of his bodie once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnes of God thankfully with patience and stedfast faith.

*F*or the *L*awe hauing the s shadowe of good things to *b*ecome, and not the very *i*mage of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, *s*anctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For wolde they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, shulde haue had no more cōscience of finnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of finnes euerie yere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles & goates shulde *t*ake away finnes.

5 Wherefore when he *c*ommeth into the worlde, he saith, s Sacrifice & offering thou woldest not: but a d bodie hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou hast had no pleasure.

Exo. 24, 8.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice & offring, and burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou woldest not haue, nether hadst pleasure therein (which are offred by the Law)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy wil, o God, he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the seconde.

10 By the which wil we are sanctified, even by the offring of the bodie of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euerie Priest appeareth daiely ministring, and oft times offreth one maner of offring, which can neuer take awaye sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from hence forth tarieth, * til his enemies be made his foete.

14 For with one offring hath he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holie Gost also beareth vs re- corde: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I wil make vnto them after those dayes, saith y Lord, I wil put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I wil write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities wil I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more k offring for sinne.

19 Seing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we l may be bolde to enter into the Holie place

20 By the new and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the House of God,

22 Let vs drawe nere with a true heart in assurace of faith, n sprinkled in our hearts from an euil conscience, & washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to pro- uoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhorte one another, & that so muche the more, because ye se that the o day draweth nere.

26 * For if we sinne willingly after that we haue receiued the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a feareful loking for of iudgement,

& violet fyre, which shal deuoure the ad- uersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dyeth without mercie * vnder two, or thre wit- nesses.

29 Of how muche forer punishmet suppo- se ye shal he be worthie, which treadeth vnder fore the Sonne of God, and coun- teth the blood of the Testament as an vn- holie thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace, 30 For we knowe him that hath said, * Ve- geance belongeth vnto me: I wil recompen- se, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shal iudge his people.

31 It is a feareful thing to fall into y hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions.

33 Partely while you were made a gazing stocke bothe by reproches and afflictions, and partely while ye became s companios of them which were so tossed to and fro.

34 For bothe ye sorowed with me for my bondes, and suffred with ioye the spoyling of your goods, knowig in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an en- during substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confiden- ce which hath great recompense of re- warde.

36 For ye haue nede of patience, that after ye haue done the wil of God, ye might re- ceive the promes.

37 * For yet a verie litle while, and he that shal come, wil come, and wil not tarie.

38 Now the iust shal liue by faith: but if a- nie withdrawe him self, my soule shal haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

18 (To whome it was said, * In Isaac shal thy sede be called).

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sorte.

20 By faith * Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith * Iacob when he was a dying, blessed bothe the sonnes of Ioseph, and * leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith * Ioseph when he dyed, made mention of the departing of y childre of Israel, & gaue comandement of his bones.

23 * By faith Moses when he was borne, was hid thre moneths of his parentes, because they sawe he was a proper childe, nether feared they the Kings * commandement. Exod. 1. 16.

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinnes for a ceason,

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith he forsoke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenes of the King: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the * Passouer and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, shulde touche them.

29 By faith they * passed through the red sea as by drye land, which whe the Egyptians had assaiied to do, they were drowned.

30 By faith the * walles of Iericho fell downe after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot * Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, whe she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shal I more say? for the time wolde be to short for me to tell of * Geaccon, of * Barac & of * Sampson, & of * Iephth, also of * Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophetes:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousness, obteined the promises, stopped the mouthes of Lyons, 34 Quenched the violence of fyre, escaped the edge of the sworde, of weak were made strong, waxed valiant in battel, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes.

35 The ^r women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and wolde not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bondes and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen a sunder, they were tempted, they were slayned with the sworde, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skinned, and in goates skinned, being destitute, afflicted, & tormented:

38 Whome the worlde was not worthie of: they wandred in wildernesses and mountaines, & dennes, & caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good reporte, & receiued ^s not y promes,

Wherefore, let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a "cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presseth downe, and the sinne that langueth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs, looking vnto Iesus the autor and finisher of our faith, who for the ioye that was set before him, endured the croffe, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, lest ye shulde be wearied and fainte in your mindes.

Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against sinne.

And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto childre, My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

For whome the Lord loueth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.

If ye endure chastening, God offreth him self vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

Moreover we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: shulde we not muche rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

For they verely for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holines.

Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet frute of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weake knees,

And make straight steppes vnto your feete, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

Followe peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man shal se the Lord.

Take hede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no roote of bitterness spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

Let there be no fornicator, or prophane person as Esau, which for a portion of Gen. 27. 37. meat solde his byrth right.

For ye knowe how that afterwarde also when he wolde haue inherited the blessing, he was reiecte: for he founde no place to repentance, though he sought the blessing with teares. Gen. 27. 38.

For ye are not come vnto the mounte that might be touched, nor vnto burning fyre, nor to blackenes and darkenes, and tempest,

Nether vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused them selues, that the worde shulde not be spoken to them any more.

(For they were not able to abyde that which was commanded, Yea, though a beast touche the mountaine, it shalbe stoned, or thrust thorowe with a dart:

And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare & quake.)

But ye are come vnto the mounte Siō, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celestial Ierusalem, and to the companie of innumerable Angels,

And to the cōgregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, & to God the iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfit men,

And to Iesus the Mediator of the newe Testament, & to the blood of sprinkeling that speaketh better things then that of Abel.

Se that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him, that spake on earth: muche more shal we not escape, if we turne away from him, that speaketh from heauen.

Whose voyce then shouke the earth, and now hathe declared, saying, Yet once more wil I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

And this worde, Yet once more, signifieth the remouing of those things, which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

Wherefore seeing we receiue a kingdome, which can not be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

For euen our God is a consuming fyre.

THE * GENERAL Epistle of Iames.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alphew wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were converted to Christ, but disperied throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true worde of God, & not to be partial, neither to boast of an idle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuelie frutes, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble & loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to ritter their fautes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

Thyning.

AMES a seruant of God, & of the Lord IESVS CHRIST, to the twelue Tribes, & are scattred abroad, salutation.

My brethre, counte it excedding ioye, whē ye fall into diuers "tentacions,

* Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth the patience.

And let patience haue her^b perfitte worke, that ye may be perfitte and entier, lacking nothing.

If any of you lacke wisdome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

* But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caryed away.

Nether let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

A^d wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

Againe he that is riche, in that he is made lowe: for as the flower of the grasse, shall he vanish away.

For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beaurie of the faction of it perisheth: euen so shall the riche man fade away in all his wayes.

* Blessed is the man, that endureth tentacion: for when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

Let no man say whē he is temptēd, I am temptēd of God: for God can not be temptēd with euil, nether tempteth he any man.

But euerie man is temptēd, when he is drawne away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth the death.

Erre not, my deare brethren.

Euerie good giuing, and euerie perfitte gift is from aboue, and cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variableness, neither shadowing by turning.

Of his owne wil begate he vs with the worde of trueth, that we shulde be as the first frutes of his creatures.

Wherefore my deare brethren, let euerie man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, & slowe to wrath.

For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnes of God.

Wherefore lay aparte all filthines, & superfluitie of malicioufnes, & receiue with mekenes y^e worde that is graffed in you, which is able to saue your soules.

* And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

For if anie heare the worde, & do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his natural face in a glasse.

For when he hath considered him self, he goeth his way, & forgetteth immediately what maner of one he was.

But who so loketh in the perfit Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his dede.

If anie man among you semeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueh his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles, and widdowes in their aduersitie, and to kepe him self vnspotted of the worlde.

CHAP. II.

He forbiddeth to haue anie respect of persones, But to regarde the poore as wel as the riche. To be louing and merciful. And not to boast of faith where no dedes are. For it is but a dead faith, where good workes followe not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persones.

For if there come into your companie a man with a golde ring, and in goodlie apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

And ye haue a respect to him y^e weareth the gaye clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, & say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my fote stole,

Are ye not partial in your selues, and are become iudges of euil thoughts?

Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosē the poore of this worlde, that they shulde be riche in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the riche oppresse you by tyrannie, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

Do not they blaspheme the worthie Name after which ye be named?

those things which are nedeful to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it self.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast ⁱ the faith, & I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy * workes, & I wil shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleuest that there is one God:
thou doest wel: the deuils also beleue it, & tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, o thou vaine man, that the faith which is without wor-kes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?

22 Seest thou not that ^j his faith wrought with his workes? & through the workes was the faith made ^m perfecte.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnes: & he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye se then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not ^o of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, whē she had receiued the messengers, and sent thē out another way?

26 For as the bodie without the spirit is dead, euen ^q so the faith without workes is dead.

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethren. 2 He describeth the properties of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the worlde.

1 MY brethren, be not ^a manie masters, ^a v^{er}s^up^{er} see knowing that we shal receiue the through ambi-

2 For in manie things we ^b sinne all. * If anie man sinne not in ^c wordē, he is a perfect man, and able to bridel all the bodie. Eccle. 14. 1.
Eccl. 19. 16.

3 Beholde, we put bits into the horses mou-thes that they shulde obey vs, and we turne about all their bodie. Or simile.
b He that wel

arde his brethren.

4 Beholde also the shippes, which though they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a verie smale rudder, whether soeuer ^e gouerner listeth. c He that is able to moderate his tōgue, hath attained to an excellēt vertue.

5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boaster of great things: beholde, how great a thing a litle fyre kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fyre, yea, a ^d worlde of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and ^e setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hel. d An heape & ful measure of all iniquitie.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes and of creping things, and things of the sea is tamed and hath bene tamed of the nature of man. e The intem-perancie of ^f tōgue is as a flame of hel fyre.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. ^f It is an vnrulie euil, ful of deadielie poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, and therewith curse we mē, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethré, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place swete water and bytter?

12 Can the figge tre, my brethren, bring forth the oliues, other a vine figges? so can no fountaine make bothe salte water & swete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in mekenes of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuyng and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, nether be liers against the trueth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not fro aboue, but ^g is earthlie, sensual, and diuelish. f Without mis-tion and dissimulation.

16 For where enuyng and strife is, there is federation, and all maner of euil workes. g And examining things w^{ch} extreme ri-gour as hypocrites, who

17 But the wisdom that is from aboue, is first ^h pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, ful of mercie and good frutes without ⁱ iudging, and without hy-pocrisie. h So that their life is according to their profession.

18 And the ⁱ frute of righteousnes is sowne in peace, of them that make peace.

1 Having shewed the cause of all wrong and wickednes, 2 and also of all graces and goodnes, 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit them selues to him, 11 Not speaking euil of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods providence.

1. cor. 4.19.

h He answereth to them, which said they knewe what was good, but they wolde not do it.

From whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, even of your lustes, that a fight in your members?

1 Ye luste, and haue not: ye enuie, and haue indignation, and can not obtaine: ye fight and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske, and receiue not because ye aske a misse, that ye might consume it on your lustes.

4 Ye adulterers and b adulteresses, knowe ye not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God?  Who* soeuer therefore wil be a friend of the worlde, maketh him self the enemy of God.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The  spirit* that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace & therefore saith,  God* resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

7  Submit* your selues to God: resist the deuil, and he wil flee from you.

8 Drawe nere to God, and he wil drawe nere to you. Clenſe your hands, ye sinners, & purge your hearts, ye wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and d forowe ye, and wepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioye into heauines.

10  Cast* downe your selues before y Lord, and he wil lift you vp.

11 Speake not euil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euil of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euil of the Law, and  condemneth* the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one f Law giuer, which is able to saue, & to destroye.  Who* art thou that iudgeſt another man?

13 Go to now ye that say,  To* day or to morowe we wil go into suche a citie, and continue there a yere, and bye and sel, and get gaine,

14 (And yet ye can not tel what shal be to morowe. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterwarde vanissheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say,  If* the Lord wil, and, If we liue, we wil do this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all suche reioycing is euil.

17 Therefore, h to him that knoweth how to do wel, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

2 He threateneth the wicked riche men, 7 Exhorteth vm to patience, 12 To beware of swearing. 16 One to knowledge his fautes to another. 20 And one to labour to bring another to the truth.

Go to now, ye riche men: wepe, and howle for your miseries that shal come vpon you.

3 Your riches are corrupt: & your garmets are motheaten.

5 Your golde and siluer is cankered, and the rust of them shal be a b witnes against you, and shal eat your fleshe as it were fyre.  Ye* haue heaped vp treasure for y last dayes.

4 Beholde, the hyre of the laborers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth, and the cries of the which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, & in wantones. Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of d slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and haue killed the iuste, and he hathe not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord. Beholde, the husband man waiteth for the precious frute of the earth, and hathe long patience for it, vntil he receiue the  former*, and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore & setle your hearts: for the comming of the Lord draweth nere.

9  Grudge* not one against another, brethre, lest ye be condemned: beholde, the iudge standeth before the dore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophetes for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, we count the blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the paciēce of Iob, and haue knowe what end the Lord made. For the Lord is verie pitiful & merciful.

12 But before all things, my brethren,  we* are not, nether by heauen, nor by earth, nor by anie other othe: but let your s yea, be yea, and your naye, naye, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is anie amōg you afflicted? Let him pray. Is anie merie? Let him sing.

14 Is anie sicke amōg you? Let him call for the h Elders of the Church, and let them praye for him, and anoint him with  i* oyle in the k Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shal saue the sicke, and the Lord shal raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shalbe forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge l your fautes one to another, & praye one for another, that ye may be healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auaileth much, if it be feruent.

THE FIRST EPI- stle general of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithful to denie them selues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenlie kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possesed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiect-ed almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he shoulde be the stumbling stone to the reprobate and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godlie, to suffre persecutions, he sheweth them what good yssue their afflictions shal haue, and contrarie wise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue them selues, forbidding them to vsurpe autoritie over the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

- 2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuelie hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godlie conuersation, forasmuche as they are now borne a newe by the worde of God.

lacia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

- 2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.
- 3 * Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuelie hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,
- 4 To an inheritance immortal and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you,
- 5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

- 6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if nedes require) ye are in heauines, through manifold tentations,
- 7 That the trial of your faith, being muche more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tryed with fyre) might be foude vnto your praise, & honour and glorie at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

- 8 Whome ye haue not sene, and yet loue him, in whome now, though ye see him not, yet do you beleue, and reioyce with ioye vnspokeable and glorious,
- 9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

- 10 Of the which saluation the Prophetes haue inquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that shoulde come vnto you,

- 11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, shoulde declare the sufferings that shoulde come vnto Christ, and the glorie that shoulde followe.

- 12 Vnto whome it was reueiled, that not vnto them selues, but vnto vs they shoulde minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holie Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

17 Honour all men : ^{*} loue ^f brotherlie felowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 ^{*} Seruants, be subiect to your masters with teous, but also to the ^g frowarde.

19 ^{*} For this is thanke worthie, if a man for his conscience toward God endure grief suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your fautes, ye take it patiently;
but and if when ye do wel, ye suffer ^h wrong and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called : for Christ

THE ARGUMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here is to exhort the which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards me moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godlie: wherefore by godlie life he being now almost at death's dore, exhorteth the to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldlie things (as he had oft writ vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heaven, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnes, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they shoulde promise to them selues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth the bothe of troubles which they shoulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuche as the power of God hathe giuen them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldlie lusts. 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and frutes of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death. 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he him self had sene vpon the mounte.

IMON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the righteousnes of our God and Sauour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his godlie power hathe giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlines, through the knowledge of him that hathe called vs vnto glorie and vertue.

4 Whereby moste great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye shoulde be partakers of the godlie nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlines:

7 And with godlines, brotherlie kindenes: and with brotherlie kindenes, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abounde, they will make you that ye neither shalbe ydle, nor vnfruitful in your knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hathe not these things, is blinde, & can not se farre of, & hathe forgottē that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shal neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministered vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord & Sauour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwaies in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it mete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.

14 Seing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hathe shewed me.

15 I wil endeavour therefore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we folowed not deceiueable fables when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came suche a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, *This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am wel pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holie mounte.

19 We haue also a moste sure worde of the Prophetes, to which ye do wel that ye take hede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntil the day dawne, and the daye starre arise in your hearts.

20 *So that ye first know this, that no propheticie in the Scripture is of priuate motion.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man shoulde thereby take a boldenes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, onles he doeth endeuour him self to kepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophetes, whome he calleth Antichrists, and to trye the spirits. Laste of all he doeth earnestly exhorthe them vnto brotherlie lone, and to beware of deceiuers.

3 That, I say, which we haue sene & heard, declare we vnto you, that ye may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the Father and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioye may be full.

5 This then is the message which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God ^e is ^f light, & in him is no darkenes.

6 If we say ^g we haue fellowship with him, and walke in ^h darkenes, we lye, & do not truly.

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship ⁱ one with another, and the ^j blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgie vs our sinnes, & to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnes.

CHAP. II.

a Christ is our Aduocate. 10 Of true loue, & how it is tried. 15 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Aduocat with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

And he is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole worlde.

And hereby we are sure that we knowe him, if we kepe his commandements.

He that saith, I knowe him, and kepeth not his commandements, is a lier, and the trueth is not in him.

But he that kepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfite in dede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

He that saith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

Brethren, I write no newe commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this time.

He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

Litle children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowne him that is fro the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.

I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowen the Father. I haue writen vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowne him, that is from the beginning. I haue writen vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the worde of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

Loue not the worlde, nether the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, he loue of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the flesh, the luste of the eyes, & the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

Loue not the worlde, nether the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde, he loue of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the flesh, the luste of the eyes, & the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

And the worlde passeth awaye, and the luste thereof: but he that fulfilleth the wil of God, abideth euer.

Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, eue now are there many Antichrists: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they wolde haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

But ye haue an ointement fro him, that is Holie, & ye haue knowen all things.

I haue not writen vnto you, because ye knowe not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

Who is a lier, but he that denyeth that Iesus is Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

Whosoever denyeth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shal remaine in you, ye also shal continewe in the Sonne, & in the Father.

And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternal life.

These things haue I writen vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye nede not that any man teache you: but as the same Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, & as it taught you, ye shal abide in him.

And now, litle children, abide in him, that when he shal appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

The singular loue of God towards vs. 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another

BEHOIDE, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we shulde be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: and we knowe that when he shal appeare, we shalbe like him: for we shal se him as he is.

And euerie man that hath this hope in him, purgeth him self, euen as he is pure.

Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

And ye knowe that he appeared that he

Which seemed to haue bene of our number, because for a tyme they occupied a place in the Church. The grace of the holie Ghost which is Christ. In this Epistle which I now write vnto you.

He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the nature in Christ, or he that commeth out of or separateth them, is he that putteth not difference betweene the persone of the Sonne, & also he that belongeth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias. Then the infidels worship not the true God. But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the Father.

Christ communicateth himself vnto you and teacheth you by the holie Ghost & his ministers. Or, in Christ. By this name he meaneth the whole Church of Christ in general.

Being made the sonnes of God in Christ, he sheweth what qualities we must haue to be discerned from bastards. That is, Christ. As the members and head are which make one perfect bodie.

That is, in whome sinne doeth reigne, so he sheweth not to be sanctified.

1 Derely beloued, beleue not euerie Spirit, but trye the ^a ſpirits whether they are of God: for many falſe Prophetes are gone out into the worlde.

Whofoeuer beleueth that Iesus is the Christ, is ^a borne of God, & euerie one that loueth him, which begate, loueth him also which is begott of him.

2 In this we knowe that we loue the children of God, when we loue ^b God, & kepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God that we kepe his commandements: and his ^c commandements are not ^e grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the worlde: and this is the victorie that ouercometh the worlde, ^{euen} our faith.

5 * Who is it that ouercometh the worlde, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the Sone of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by ^d water & ^e blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the ^f spirit, y beareth witnes: for the Spirit is ^g trueth.

THE GENERAL Epiſtle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admoniſheth all Churches generally to take hede of deceiuers which go about to drawe away the hearts of the ſimple people from the trueth of God, and willet them to haue no ſocietie with ſuche, whome he ſetteth forth in their liuelie colours, ſhewing by diuers exāples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithfull and exhorteth them to perſeuere in the doctrine of the Apoſtles of Ieſus Chriſt.

selues by euil speaking, but to referre the thing to God. m By vnal iudgement. *Gen. 4, 8.

Vde a seruant of IESVS CHRIST, and brother of Iames, to them which are called & sanctified * of God the Father, and ^b referred to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the comune saluation, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you to exhorte you, that ye shulde earnestly cōtende for the maintenance of y^e faith, which was ^d once given vnto the Saintes.

For there are certeine mē crept in which were before of olde e ordeined to this cō-demnation: vngodlie men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and * denye God the onelie Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I wil therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuche as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them afterwarde which ^f beleued not.

6 The * Angels also which kept not their first ^g estate, but lest their owne habitation, he hath referred in euertasting chaines vnder darkenes vnto y^e iudgement of the great daye.

7 As * Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about the, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed ^h strange flesh, are set forthe for an ensample, and suffre the vengeance of eternal fyre.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these i dreamers also denie the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euil of them that are in autoritie.

9 Yet ^k Michael the Archangel, when he stroue against the deuil, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but faith, ^l The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euil of those things, which they knowe not: and whatsoever things they knowe ^m naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt them selues.

11 Wo be vnto the: for they haue followed the way * of Cain, and are cast away by the deceite * of Balaams wages, and perish in the ⁿ gaineſaying * of Core.

12 These are spotted in your feasts of charitie when they feast with you, without ^p all feare, feeding them selues: cloudes they are without water, caryed about of win-des, corrupt trees & without frute, twise dead, & plucked vp by the rootes.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: they are wandring starres, to whome is referred the blackenes of darkenes for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuēth from Adam, prophecied of sicke, saying, * Beholde, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Saintes,

15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all y^e vngodlie among the of all their wicked dedes, which they haue vngodly committed, & of all their cruel speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes: * whose mouths speake proude things, hauing mens perſones in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the wordes which were spokē before of the Aposties of our Lord Iesus Christ,

18 How that they tolde you that there shul-de be mockers * in the last time, which shulde walke after their owne vngodlie lustes.

19 These are makers of sectes, fleshlie, having ^r not the Spirit.

20 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holie faith, praying in the ho-lie Gost,

21 And kepe your selues in y^e loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lord Iesus Christ, vnto eternal life.

22 And haue compassiō of some, ^s in putting difference:

23 And other saue with ^t feare, pulling the out of the fyre, and hate euen the ^u garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now vnto him that is able to kepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you faultles before the presence of his glorie with ioye,

25 That ^v is, to God onely wise, our Sauour, be glorie, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, bothe now and for euer, Amen.

THE REVELATION

1180/1224

of Iohn the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holie Gost wolde as it were gather into this moſte excellent booke a ſumme of thoſe prophecies, which were written before, but ſhoulde be fulfilled after the coming of Chriſt, adding alſo ſuche things as ſhoulde be expedient, as wel to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admoniſh vs to beware ſome, and encourage vs againſt others. Herein therefore is lively ſet forth the Diuinitie of Chriſt, & the teſtimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the miniſters, and what things he reprobeth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and conſolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which ſting like ſcorpions the members of Chriſt, ſhall be deſtroyed, but the Lambe Chriſt ſhal defende them, which beare witnes to the truth, who in diſpite of the beaſt and Satan wil reigne ouer all. The liuelie deſcription of Antichriſt is ſet forth, whoſe time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage againſt the elect, yet his power ſtretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he ſhal be deſtroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect ſhal give praiſe to God for the victorie: neuertheleſſe for a ceaſon God wil permut this Antichriſt, and ſtompes vnder colour of faire ſpeeches and pleaſant doctrine to deceiue the worlde: wherefore he aduerſeth the godlie (which are but a ſmale portion) to auoide this harlots flatteries, and bragges, whoſe ruine without mercie they ſhal ſee, and with the heauenlie companies ſing continual praifes: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: ſat that a long time was vntied, is now caſt with his miniſters into the pit of fyre to be tormented for euer, where as contrariwiſe the faithfull (which are the holie Cite of Ieruſalem, & wife of the Lambe) ſhal enioye perpetual glorie. Read diligently: iudge ſoberly, and call earneſtly to God for the true vnderſtanding hereof.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the masekie of God. 2 He seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it. 3 And 24. seates about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beholde, a dore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I wil shewe thee things which muste be done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, & beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 And he that sate, was to loke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a sardine, & there was a raine bowe rounde about the throne in sight like to an emeraude.

4 And rounde about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raimēt, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, & there were seuen lampes of fyre, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto cristall: and in the midst of the throne, & rounde about y throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, & the seconde beast like a calfe, and the thirde beast had a face as a man, and the fourthe beast was like a flying egle.

8 And the foure beafts had eche one of the fix wings about him, and they were ful of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holie, holie, holie Lord God, almightie, which Was, & Which is and Which is to come.

9 And when those beafts gaue glorie, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euer more, & cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthie, o Lord, to receiue glorie and honour, & power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the boke. 2. 14 And therefore the foure beafts, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, & do him worship 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

And I sawe in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a boke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I sawe a strong Angel which preached with a lowde voyce, Who is worthie to open the boke, and to lose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauē, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the Boke neither to loke thereon.

4 Then I wept muche, because no mā was founde worthie to open, and to reade the Boke, neither to loke thereon.

5 And one of the elders said vnto me, Wepe not: beholde, the lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the rote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Boke, and to lose the seauē seales thereof.

6 Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beafts, & in the middes of the elders, stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seuen hornes, & seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the worlde.

7 And he came, and toke the Boke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the Boke, the foure beafts and the foure and twentie elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euerie one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of the Saines, & they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the Boke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euerie kinred, and tōgue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God Kings and Priests, and we shal reigne on the earth.

11 Then I behelde, and I heard the voyce of manie Angels rounde about the throne and about the beafts and the elders, & there were thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the Lābe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wisdom, and strength, & honour, and glorie, and praise.

13 And all y creatures which are in heauē, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise & honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, & vnto the Lambe for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fixe ſeales, and manie things follow the opening thereof, ſo that this containeth a generall prophete to the end of the worlde

After, I behelde when y Lambe had opened one of the ſeales, & I heard one of the foure beaſts ſay, as it were the noyce of thunder, Come and ſe.

- 2 Therefore I behelde, and lo, there was a white horſe, and he that ſate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forthe conquering that he might ouercome.

3 And when he had opened the ſeconde ſeale, I heard the ſeconde beaſt ſay, Come and ſe.

4 And there went out another horſe that was red, & power was giuen to him that ſate thereon, to take peace from the earth and that they ſhulde kil one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great ſworde.

5 And when he had opened the thirde ſeale, I heard the thirde beaſt ſay, Come and ſe. Then I behelde, & lo, a blacke horſe, & he that ſate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beaſts ſay, A meafure of wheat for a penie, and thre meafures of barlie for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth ſeale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beaſt ſay, Come and ſe.

8 And I looked, & beholde, a pale horſe, & his name that ſate on him was Death, and Hel followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kill with ſworde, and with honger, and with death, and with the beaſts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth ſeale, I ſawe vnder the altar the ſoules of them, that were killed for the worde of God, & for y testi monie which they mainteined.

10 And they cryed with a lowde voyce, ſaying, How long, Lord, holie and true! doeſt thou iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euerie one, and it was ſaid vnto them, that they ſhulde reſt for a litel ceafon vntil their felowe ſeruants, and their brethren that ſhulde be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I behelde when he had opened the ſixt ſeale, and lo, there was a great earthquake, & the ſunne was as blacke as ſackcloth of heere, and the moone was like blood.

13 And the ſtarres of heauen fel vnto the earth, as a figge tre caſteth her grene figges when it is ſhaken of a mightie winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a ſcrole when it is rolled, and euerie mountaine & yle were moued out of their places.

15 And the Kings of the earth, & the great men, and the riche men, and the chief capitaines, and the mightie men, and euerie bondman, and euerie fre man, hid them ſelues in denes, and among the rockes of the mountaynes,

16 And ſaid to the mountaynes and rockes, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the preſence of him that ſitteth on the throne, & fro the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can ſtand?

CHAP. VII.

9 He ſeeth the ſeruants of God ſealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 Which though they ſuffer trouble, yet the Lambe ſedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water. 17 And God ſhal wipe away all teares from their eyes.

And after that, I ſawe foure Angels ſtand on y foure corners of the earth, holding the foure windes of the earth, y the windes ſhulde not blowe on the earth, nether on the ſea, nether on anie tre.

2 And I ſaw another Angel come vp from the Eaſt, which had the ſeale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a lowde voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the ſea, ſaying, Hurt ye not the earth, nether the ſea, nether the trees, til we haue ſealed y ſeruants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were ſealed, and there were ſealed an hundred and foure and fortie thouſand of all the tribes of the children of Iſrael.

l For at the beginning they sting of their conscience semeth as nothing, but except they soue seke remedie, they perish.

m Such is the terror of the vnbelaung conscience, which hath no assurance of mercie, but seeth the iudgement of God against it.

n When men embrace error and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods worde.

o Which signifieth that the Popes clergie shalbe proude, ambitious, bold, rouse, rash, rebellious, subber, cruel, lecherous & authors of warre & destruction of the simple children of God.

p They pretend a certeine title of honour, which in dede belongeth nothing vnto the, as the Priests by their crownes and strange apparel declare.

q That is, they pretend great gentlenes & leue: they are wise, politike, subtil, eloquent & in worldlie craftines passe all in all their doings.

r Signifying their oppression of the poore & crueltye against Gods children.

s Which signifye their hardenes of heart and obstination in their errors, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldlie princes.

t For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp about the comune sorte of men & esteemed mozte holie & do all things w rage & fierenes.

u To infect & kil w their venomous doctrine.

x Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites & Satans ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the forner of perdition destroyeth mens soules w false doctrine, & the whole worlde w fyre & sword.

z Which was the voyce of Christ sitting at the right hand of the Father.

a Meaning the enemies of the East country, which shulde afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracines, Turkes & Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readines of the enemies.

and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

And there came out of the smoke d Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen e power, as the f scorpions of the earth haue power.

And it was commanded them, that they shulde not hurt the g grasse of the earth, nether anie grene thing, nether anie tree: but onely those h men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.

And to them was commanded that they shulde not i kil them, but that they shulde be k vexed five moneths, and that their paine shulde be as the paine that cometh of a l scorpion, when he hath stung a mā.

Therefore in those daies shal men m seke death, and shal not finde it, and shal desire to dye, and death shal flee from them.

And the forme of the locustes was like vnto n horses prepared vnto battel, and on their heades were as it were o crownes, like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

And they had heere as the q heere of women, and their r teeth were as the teeth of lions.

And they had s habbergions, like to habbergions of yron: and the sounde of their t wings was like the sounde of charets when manie horses runne vnto battel.

And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were u stings in their tailes, & their power was to hurt v me five moneths.

And they haue a King ouer them, which is the x Angel of the bottomles pit, whose name in Hebrew is, y Abaddon, and in Greke he is named Apollyon.

One wo is past, & beholde, yet two woes come after this.

Then the first Angel blewe the trūpet, & I heard a z voyce from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God, Saying to the first Angel, which had the trumpet, Lose the foure a Angels, w are bounde in the great riuer Euphrates.

And the foure Angels were losed, which were prepared at an b houre, at a day, at a moneth, & at a yere, to slay the third parte of men.

And the number of horsemen of warre were twetic thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fyrie habbergions, & of Iacinth & of brimstone, & the heads of the horses were as c heads of lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth the fyre and smoke and brimstone.

Of these thre was the third parte of d me killed, that is, of the fyre and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

For their power is in their e mouthes, & in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, and had heades, wherewith they hurte.

And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, f repented not of the workes of their hands that they shulde not worship deuils, and g idoles of golde and of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which nether can se, nether heare nor go.

Also they repented not of their murther, and of their forcerie, nether of their fornicacion, nor of their thefte.

CHAP. X.

The Angel hath the boke open. h He sweareth there shalbe no more time. i He giueth the boke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

And I sawe another mightie j Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the k raine bowe vpon his head, & his face was as the l sunne, and his m feete as pillars of fyre.

And he had in his hand a litle n boke open, and he put his right fore vpon the sea, and o he left on the earth,

And cryed with a p lowde voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seven q thondres vttered their voyces.

And when the seven thondres had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, r Seale vp those things which the seven thondres haue spoken, & write the not.

And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea and vpon the earth, lift vp his had to heauen,

And sware s by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, & the things that therein are, & the earth & the things that therein are, & the sea & the things, w therein are, that time shulde be no more.

But in the daies of the voyce of the seven t Angel, whē he shal beginne to blowe the trumpet, euen the u mysterie of God shalbe finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophetes.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the ſunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which perſecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten to the comfort of the faithful.

ANd there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne, & the moone was vnder her fete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

And she was with childe and cryed traouailing in birth, and was pained readie to be deliuered.

And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great red dragon hauing seven heades, and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heads:

And his taile drue the third parte of the starres of heauen, & cast the to the earth. And the dragon stode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she had brought it forth.

So she brought forth a man childe, which shulde rule all nations with a rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to this throne.

And the woman fled into wilderness where she hath a place prepared of God, that they shulde fede her there a thousand, two hundred and threscore dayes.

And there was a battell in heauen. Michael & his Angels foght against the dragon, and the dragon foght & his Angels.

But they preuailed not, nether was their place founde anie more in heauen.

And the great dragon, that olde serpent, called the deuil and Satan, was cast out, which deceiueh all the worlde: he was cast into the earth, & his Angels were cast out with him.

Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength & the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, & ye that dwell in the. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

And when the dragon saw that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man childe.

But to the woman were giuen two winges of a great eagle, & she might flie into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, & times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

And the serpent cast out of his mouth water like as a fountain, that he might cause her to be caryed away of the flood.

But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and wet and made warre with the remnant of her seide, which kepe the commandments of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ.

And I stode on the sea sande.

ter after the woman like a flood, & he might cause her to be caryed away of the flood.

But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

And I stode on the sea sande.

CHAP. XIII.

The beast deceiueh the reprobate. 2. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beasts marke.

ANd I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing seven heades, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his fete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, & great autoritie.

And I sawe one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadlie wounde was healed, and all the worlde wōdred and followed the beast.

And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, & they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast, who is able to warre with him!

And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to do two and fortie moneths.

And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, & the dwell in heauē.

And it was giue vnto him to make warre with the Saintes, and to ouercome them, & power was giuen him ouer euerie kindred and tongue, and nation.

Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shal worship him, whose names are not written in the Boke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the worlde.

If anie man haue an eare, let him heare.

If anie lead into captiuitie, he shal go into captiuitie: if anie kil with a sworde, he must be killed by a sworde: here is the pacience, & the faith of the Saintes.

And I behelde another beast comming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes.

As God ordeined frō before all beginning, & all sacrifices were as signes & sacraments of Christs death. o Thei which led soules captiues, go them selues into captiuitie. p As the kingdome of Christ is frō heauē, & bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth & leadeth to perdition, & is begone, & established by ambition, couetousnes, beafelines, craft, treason & tyrānie. q Which signifie the priesthode & the kingdome, and therefore he giuerh in his armes two keis, and hath two swordes caryed before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Tūbille, shewed him self one day in apparel as a Pope, & the next day in harness as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the bishops mitre are signes hereof.

Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the bodie, and therefore he weth his rage against the members.

Here is the description of the Romaine empire which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.

Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seven Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seven mountaynes.

Which signifie manie provinces.

By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians & Chaldeans whome the Romaines ouercame.

That is, the deuil.

This maie be vnderstand of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew him self, so the familie of the Cæsars ended in him.

For the empire was established againe by Vespasian.

By receiuing the statutes, of dināces, decrees, ceremonies, & religion of the Romaine empire.

Antichrists time & power is limited.

In their bodies, not in soules.

He meaneth the vniuersal departing where of S. Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.

In this third vision is declared how the Church which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the Sonne of righteousness, is persecuted of Antichrist. The Church treadeth vnder foot what soeuer is mutable, and inconstant, with all corrupt affections and such like. Which signifie God and his worde. The Church euer with a most feruent desire longed for Christ shulde be borne, & that the faithful might be regenerate by his power. Psal. 9. The deuil, & all his power which burneth with furie and is red with blood of the faithful. For he is prince of this worlde & almost hath the vniuersal gouernement. By his starres & promises he gaineth manie of excellent ministers & honorable persones, and bringeth the destruction. Which is Iesus Christ the first borne among manie brethren, who was borne of the virgin Marie as of a special member of the Church. The Church was removed from among the Jewes to the Gentiles, which were as a bare wilderness, and so it is persecuted to & fro. Iesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithful. For the dragon was deprived of all his dignitie and had no more place in the Church. They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required. Meaning, the that are giuen to the worlde and fleshly lustes. And was ouercome of Christ, then he saith against his members. Which the Lord had appointed for her. God giueh meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.

nes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.

And he did all that the first beast colde do before him, & he caused the earth, and them which dwel therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadlie wounde was healed.

And he did great wonders, so that he made fyre to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

And deceiued the that dwel on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the sight of the beast, sayig to them that dwell on the earth, that they shulde make the image of the beast, which had the wounde of a sworde, & did liue.

And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast shulde speake, and shulde cause that as manie as wolde not worship the image of the beast, shulde be killed.

And he made all, bothe small and great, riche and poore, fre and bonde, to receiue a marke in their right hand or in their forehead.

And that no man might bye or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Heare is wisdome. Let him that hathe wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundredth, threscore and six.

The same things the Pope, or false prophetes instruct him in. b Receiue the ordinances & decrees of the seat of Rome, & to kisse the shoes, if he were puttherunto. c Whereby he renouēth Christ: for as faith, the worde & the sacramēts are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as will aproue his doctrine: so it is not yough to confesse Christ, & to be lieue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreover their chrismaties, grasings, vowes, othes & shawings are signes of this marke. and the Elders, and no man colde learne that song, but the hundreth, fortie and foure thousand, which were boght from the earth.

These are they, which are not defiled with womē: for they are virgins: these folowe the Lābe whither soeuer he goeth: these are boght from men, being the first frutes vnto God, and to the Lambe.

And in their mouths was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

Then I sawe another Angel flee in the middes of Heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preache vnto them, that dwell on the earth, and to euerie nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Sayig with a loude voyce, Feare God, and giue glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

And there followed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

And the thirde Angel followed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any mā worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

The same shal drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cuppe of his wrath, and he shalbe tormented in fyre and brimstone before the holie Angels, & before the Lambe.

And the smoke of their torment shal ascende euermore: & they shal haue no rest day nor night, which worshippe the beast and his image, and whoeuer receiue the print of his name.

Here is the patience of Saintes: here are they that kepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

Then I heard a voyce frō heauen, saying vnto me, Write, Blessed are the dead, which hereafter dye in the Lord. Euē so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes followe them.

And I looked, & beholde, a white cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sōne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

And another Angel came out of the Tēple, crying with a loude voyce to him to wrath: so that he suffereth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction. o That is, of his terrible iudgement. p The faithful are exhorted to patience. q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, and rest with God. r On, for the Lords cause. s Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay onely on him and reioyce to be with him: for immediately after their death they are receiued into ioye. t Signifying that Christ shal come to iudgement in a cloude, such as he was sene to go vp.

None can praise God, but the elect whom he hathe boght.

By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly mee of idolatrie, which is the spiritual whoredome.

For their whole delite is in the Lābelesus and they loue none but him. Which declareth that the faithful ought to liue in chastity and holily, that they may be the first frutes & an excellent offering of the Lord.

For as muche as their sinnes are pardoned, & they are cled with the iustice of Christ.

By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ, which preache the Gospel faithfully.

Isa. 21, 9.

Isa. 31, 8.

chap. 18, 8.

The Gospel teacheth vs to feare God and honour him, which is beginning of heauenlie wisdome.

Signifying Rome, for as muche as the vices which were in Babylon, are founde in Rome in greater abundance, as perfection of the Church of God, oppression & slaughter, destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impietie, and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shal this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it be great & seemeth to extend throughout all Europa.

By which fornication God is prouoked

Isa. 53.

mat. 13. 39.

The ouerthrowe of the people is compared to an haruest, Isa. 19. 5: also to a vintage, Isa. 63.

This is spoken familiarly for our capacite, alluding vnto an house-band man who suffereth him self to be aduertised by his seruants when his haruest is ripe, and not that Christ hath the neede to be tolde when he shulde come to iudgement for the confort of his Church and destruction of his enemies.

This was Christ who is also the altar, the Priest and sacrifice.

That is, a certaine place appointed and not in the heauen.

By this similitude he declarerh the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delite in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

And he that sate on the cloude, * thrust in his sickle on the earth, & the earth was reaped.

Then another Angel came out of the temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a lowde crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, & cutte downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

And the wine presse was trode without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the horsebridles by the space of a thousand and fix hundredth furlongs.

CHAP. XV.

Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

This is the fourth vision which containeth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godlie.

Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite manners of sortes and punishments.

Exod. 15. 1.

Psal. 145. 17.

Lere. 20. 16.

Signifying this bristled & inconstant world mixt with fyre, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saintes of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God by whose power they get the victorie.

Or, after and desired.

Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust, and without spot.

And I sawe another^a signe in heauē great & marueilous, ^b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

And I sawe as it were a^c glassie sea, mingled with fyre, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

And they sung the song of Moses the^d seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great & marueilous are thy workes, Lord God almightie: iuste and true are thy^e wayes, King of Saintes.

* Who shal not feare thee, o Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou onely art holie, and all nations shal come & worshippe before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and^d bright linnen, and hauing their^e breastes girded with golden girdles.

As ready to execute the vengeance of God.

And one of the^f foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

And the Temple was ful of the smoke of the glorie of God and of his power, and no mā was able to enter into the Tēple, til the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath. 6 And what plagues followe thereof. 15 Admonition to take hede and wash.

And I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seue^g Angels, Go your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noy^hsome, and a grievousⁱ sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, & vpon them which worshipped his image.

And the secōd Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the^j blood of a dead man: and euerie liuing thing dyed in the sea.

And the thirde Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers & fountaines of waters, and they became^k blood.

And I heard the Angel of the^l waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and Holie, because thou hast iudged these things.

For they shed the blood of the Saintes, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euē so, Lord God almightie, ^m true and righteous are thy iudgements.

And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men withⁿ heat of fyre,

And men boyled in great heat, and^o blasphemed the Name of God, which hath the power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

And the fift Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the^p beast, & his kingdom waxed darke, & they^q gnewe their tongues for sorowe,

And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, & repented not of their workes.

And the sixt Angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuier^r Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, & kepeth men in darke ignorance and errors. k They shal thewe their furie, rage & blasphemie against God when the light of his Gospel shal shine. l By Euphrates which was strength of Babylon, is ment^s riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, & the faithful^t are the true Kings & Priests in Christ, haue taken away by disclosing their wicked disceit.

By the foure beastes are met all the creatures of God & willingly serue him for the punishment of the infidels.

God giuerh vs full entrie in to his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saintes can not clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the ful end of all things.

This was like the first plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles or pockes: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, monkes, friers, nuns, Priests and such like vermin which beare the marke of^u beast.

s Meaning the whole number of them that call them selues Christians, whereof some are so in dede, some are Papistes and vnder pretence of Christ serue Antichrist, and some are nenters which are nerher on the one side nor of the other. t Signifying, all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes & others, which then shal fall with that great whore of Rome, & be tormented in eternal paines.

the Kings of the East shulde be prepared. And I sawe three vncleane spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, & out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of deuils, working miracles, to go vnto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole worlde, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almightye.

(* Beholde, I come as a thefe. Blessed is he that watcheth & kepeth his garmets, lest he walke naked, and men se his filthines)

And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrue q Armagedon.

¶ And the seuenth Angel powred out his vial into the ayre: & there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, r It is done.

And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

And the great citie was diuided into thre partes, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, * to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenes of his wrath.

And euerie yle fled away, & the mountaines were not founde.

And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her finnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

Then there came one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen viales, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shewe thee the danacion of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters, With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication. So he caried me away into the wildernes in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a skarlat coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heads, & ten hornes.

And the woman was araied in purple & skarlat, & guilded with golde, & precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of abominations, and filthines of her fornication.

And in her forehead was a name written, h A Mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: & when I sawe her, I wadded with great marueile.

Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marueilest thou? I wil shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

The beast that thou hast sene, was, and is not, and shal ascende out of the bottomles pit, and shal go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shal wondre (whose names are not written in the Boke of life from the fundacion of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

Here is the minde that hath wisdome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also l seuen Kings.

Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and wher he cometh, he must continue a short space.

And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seuen, & shal go into destruction.

And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are tē Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shal receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

¶ These haue one minde, and shal giue their power, and autoritie vnto the beast.

These shal fight with the Lambe, & the Lambe shal ouercome them: * for he is Lord of Lords, & King of Kings: & they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful.

And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shal make her desolate and naked, & shal eat her flesh, & burne her with fyre.

For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his wil, & to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntil the wordes of God be fulfilled.

18 And the womā which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer y^e Kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

3.9 The louers of the worlde are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon: 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

1 And after these things, I sawe another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glorie.

2 And he cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon y^e great citie, & is become the habitation of deuils, and the holde of all fowle spirits, and a cage of euerie vnclane and hateful byrde.

3 For all nations haue drōken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchāts of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce frō heauen say, d Go out of her, my people, that ye be not partetakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come vp vnto heauen, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 f Rewarde her, euē as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: & in the cup that she hath filled to you, fil her the double.

7 In asmuche as she glorified her self, and liued in pleasure, so muche giue ye to her torment and sorowe: for she saith in her heart, * I sit being a quene, and am no widowe, and shal se no mourning.

8 Therefore shal her plagues come at one day, death, and sorowe, and famine, & she shalbe burnt with fyre: for strong is the Lord God which wil condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shal bewaile her, & lament for her, which haue comitted fornication, & liued in pleasure with her, when they shal se the smoke of her burning,

10 And shal stande a farre of for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the marchāts of the earth shal wepe and waile ouer her: for no man byeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, & of all maner of Thyne wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of moste precious wood, & of brasfe, and of yron, and of marble,

13 And of synamon, and odours, and ointments, and franckinsence, and wine, and oile, and fine floure, and wheat, & beastes, and shepe, and horses, and charets, & seruants, and soules of men.

14 (And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, & all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more)

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed riche, shal stand a farre of frō her, for feare of her torment, weping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen and purple, and skarlet, and guilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euerie shippe master, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and whosoeuer trauiil on the sea, shal stand a farre of,

18 And crye, when they se the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast dust on their heads, and crye weping, and wailing, & say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made riche all that had shippes on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holie Apostles and Prophetes: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel toke vp a stone like a great millstone, & cast it into the sea, saying, With suche violēce shal the great citie Babylon be cast, and shalbe founde no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, & musicians, and of pipers, & trumpeters shalbe heard no more in thee, and no craftes man, of whosoeuer craft he be, shalbe founde any more in thee: and the sounde of a millstone shalbe heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantements were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the Prophetes, and of the Saintes, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

ANd after these thigs I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, ^a Hallelu-iah, saluacion & glorie, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

^a That is, praise ye God, because of his Anichrist & all wickednes is take out of the worlde. ^b So that all the Saintes are confirmed and ought nothing to doute of the saluacion of the faithful. ^c The wicked shalbe burned in continual fyre, & neuer shalbe extinguished. ^d By the foure beastes are met all creatures. ^e Signifying his iudgements are true & iust, and ye ought to praise him euermore for the destruction of the Pope.

² For ^b true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornicacion, and hath aduenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

³ And againe they said, Hallelu-iah: & her smoke rose vp for euermore.

⁴ And the foure and twentie Elders, & the foure ^d beastes fell downe, and worshiped God that sate on the throne, saying, ^e Amen, Hallelu-iah.

⁵ Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, bothe smale and great.

⁶ And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of manie waters, and as the voyce of strong thondrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lord God almightie hath reigned.

⁷ Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the ^f mariage of the Labe is come, and his wife hath made her self readie.

^f God made Christ his bridegrome of his Church at the beginning, and at the last day he shalbe fully accomplished when we shal be ioyned w our head.

solowed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linen white and pure.

¹⁶ And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his ^u thigh a name written, ^v THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷ And I sawe an Angel stand in the ^x sunne, who cryed with a lowde voyce, saying to all the foules that did flye by the middes of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God,

¹⁸ That ye may eat the flesh of Kings, & the flesh of his Captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all fre me and bondemen, and of smale and great.

¹⁹ And I sawe the beast, and the Kings of the earth, and their ^y warriors gathered together to make battel against him, that sate on the horse & against his souldiers.

²⁰ But the beast was ^z taken, and with him that false prophete that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceived them that receiued the beastes marke, & them that worshiped his image. These bothe were aliue cast into a lake of fyre, burning with brimstone.

The Lambe is the temple. Chap. XXII. Adde not, nor diminish

122

- 17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, fortie & foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.
- 18 And the buylding of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.
- 19 And the fundacions of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of precions stones: the first fundacion was Iasper: the secod of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:
- 20 The fift of a Sardonyx: the sixt of a Sardi: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleueth of a Iacynth: the twelue of an Amethyst.
- 21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euerie gate is of one pearle, and the strete of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.
- 22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for the Lord God almightie and the Lambe are the Temple of it.
- 23 *And the citie hath no nede of the sunne, nether of the moone to shine in it: for the glorie of God did light it: & the Lambe is the light of it.
- 24 *And the people which are sau'd, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glorie and honour vnto it,
- 25 *And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.
- 26 And the glorie, and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.
- 27 And there shall entre into it none vncleane thing, nether whatsoever workerh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes * Boke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

The riuer of the water of life. 2 The frutesfullnes & light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angel wil not be worshipped. 18 To the worde of God may nothing be added nor diminished therefrom.

And he shewed me a pure riuer of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

In the middes of the strete of it, and of ether side of the riuer, was the tre of life, which bare twelue maner of frutes, & gaue frute euerie moneth: & the leaues of the tre serued to heale the nations with.

And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God & of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheades.

*And there shall be no night there, and they nede no candle, nether light of the sun ne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

And he said vnto me, These wordes are faithful and true: & the Lord God of the holie Prophetes sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed is he which keepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke.

And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard & seen, I fell downe to worship before the fete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

But he said vnto me, Se thou do it not: for I am thy fellowe seruant, & of thy brethren the Prophetes, and of them which kepe the wordes of this boke: worship God.

And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophecie of this boke: for the time is at hand.

He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: & he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he which is righteous, let him be righteous still: & he which is holie, let him be holie still.

And beholde, I come shortly, & my reward is with me, to giue euerie man according as his worke shall be.

I am the first and the last, the first and the last.

Blessed are they, that do his commandments, that their right may be in the tre of life, & may entre in through the gates into the citie.

For without shall be dogges & enchaters, & whoremongers, & murtherers, & idolaters, & whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote & the generaciō of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come: & let him which is athirst, come: & let whosoever wil, take of the water of life frely.

For I protest vnto euerie man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke, if any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this boke.

And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of this boke of this prophecie, God shall take away his parte out of the Boke of life, and out of the holie citie, and from those things which are written in this boke.

He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come, Lord Iesus.

The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

Chap. 19. 10.

g This is not then as the other Prophecies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12. 4, because these things should be quickly accomplished, & did now begin. They shall live eternally with the Sonne of God. That maintaineth false doctrine and delect therein.

A BRIEF TABLE OF THE INTERPRETATION OF THE PROPER NAMES which are chiefly founde in the olde Testamēt, wherein the first number signifieth the chapter: the seconde the verse.

197/1224

WHereas the wickednes of time, and the blindnes of the former age hath bene suche that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuerse of the holie men named in the Scriptures haue bene forgotten, and now some strange vnto vs, and the names of infants that shulde euer haue some godlie aduertisements in them, and shulde be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his householde, hath bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie, we haue now set forth this table of the names that be most vsed in the olde Testament with their interpretations, as the Ebrewe importeth, partly to call backe the godlie frō that abuse, when they shal know the true names of the godlie fathers, & what they signifie, that their children now named after them may haue testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithfull familie that in all their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bounde by these their names to serue God from their infancie & haue occasion to praise him for his workes wrought in them & their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, whereby many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holie Ghost shal better be vnderstand. We haue medled rarely with the Greke names, because their interpretation is vncertaine, & many of the are corrupted from their original, as we may also see these Ebrewe names set in the margent of this table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Ebrewe names that are not here interpretate, let not the diligent reader be careful: for he shal finde them in places moste cōuenient amongst the annotations: at least so many as may seme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

A PERFITE SUPPUTATION OF THE YERES AND TIMES FROM ADAM VNTO Chriſt, proued by the Scriptures, after the collection of diuers autors.

The ſumme of the yerres of the firſt age
From Adam vnto Noes flood are yerres 1656.
For when Adam was a 130 yere olde,
he begate Seth.
Seth being 105 yerres, begate Enos.
Enos being 90 yerres, begate Cainan.
Cainan being 70 yerres, begate Ma-halaleel.
Mahalaleel being 65 yerres, begate Iared.
Iared at the age of a 162 yerres, begate Enoch.
Enoch being 65 yerres, begate Ma-thufelah.
Mathufelah at the age of 187 yerres, begate Lamech.
Lamech being 182 yerres, begate Noe.
Noe at the comming of the flood was 600 yerres olde, as appeareth in the ſeuenth of Genetiſ.
The whole ſumme of the yerres are 1656.
From the ſaid flood of Noe vnto Adrahams departing from Chalde were 363 yerres, and ten dayes.
For the ſaid flood continued one whole yere and ten dayes.

Sem (which was Noes ſonne) begate Arphaxat two yerres after that.
Arphaxat begate Salah whē he was 35 yerres olde.
Salah being 30 yerres olde, begate
Heber.
Heber at his age of 34 begate Phalech.
Phalech being 30 yerres, begate Regu.
Regu being 32 yerres, begate Saruch.
Saruch being 30 yerres, begate Nahor.
Nahor being 29 yerres, begate Thare.
Thare being 70 yerres, begate Abraham.
And Abrahā departed from Chal-
de when he was 70 yerres olde.
Theſe ſaid yerres accounted are 363 yerres, & ten dayes.
From Abrahams departing frō Vr in Chalde vnto the departing of the children of Iſrael frō Egypt are 430 yerres, gathered as followeth.
Abrahā was in Charran ſiue yerres, and departed in the 75 yere.
He begate Iſaac when he was 100 yerres olde, and in the 25 yere of his departing.

Iſaac begate Iakob when he was 60
yerres olde.
Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie, whē he was 130 yere olde.
Iſrael was in Egypt 220 yerres, which remaiue from that time.
Then rebate 80 yerres from this: for ſo olde was Moſes when he cōducted the Iſraelites from Egypt.
So the reſte of the yerres, that is to ſay 130, are deuided betwixt Am-ram and Chath.
Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67 yerres.
Amram being 65 yerres, begate Moſes, who in the 80 yere of his age departed with the Iſraelites from Egypt.
So this ſupputation is the 430
yerres mencioned in the 12. of Exod. & the 3.
to the Galatians.
From the going of the Iſraelites from Egypt vnto the firſt buylding of the Temple are 480 yeres, after this ſupputation and accounte.
Moſes remained in ſ desert or wil-

 Samuel & Saul reigned 40 yeres.
 Dauid was King 40 yeres.
 Salomon in the 4 yere of his reigne began the buylding of the Tēple.
 These are the 480 yeres mencioned in the first of the Kings, & the 6 chap.
From the first buylding of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylon are 419 yeres & an halfe.
 Salomon reigned yet 36 yeres.
 Roboam 17 yeres.
 Abia 3 yeres.
 Afa 41 yeres.
 Iosaphat 25 yeres.

 Ozias 52 yeres.
 Ioathan 16 yeres.
 Achas 16 yeres.
 Ezechias 29 yeres.
 Manaffes 55 yeres.
 Amon 2 yeres.
 Iofias 31 yeres.
 Ioachas 3 moneths.
 Eliacim 11 yeres.
 Ioachim, Iechonias 3 moneths.
 And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon.

The summe of these yeres are 419 yeres.

Ierusalem was reedified & buyl-ded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 143 yeres.

The captiuitie continued 70 yeres.
 The children of Israel were deliue-red and restored to their fredome in the first yere of Cyrus.

The Temple was begonne to be buylded in the 2 yere of the said Cyrus, & finished in the 46 yere, which was the 6 yere of Darius.
 After that Darius had reigned 20 yere, Nehemias was restored to libertie, and went to buylde the citie, which was finished in the 222/1224 yere of the said Darius.

All the yeres from the buylding of the Temple againe are 16 yeres.

The whole summe of yeres amount to 143 yeres.

From the reedifying of the ci-tie vnto the coming of Christ, are 481 yeres, after this supputatio or nombring.

It is mencioned in the 9 of Daniel that Ierusalem shulde be buylt vp againe, and that from that time vnto the coming of Christ are 67 weekes, & euerie weeke is reckoned for seuen yeres. So 67 weekes amount to 481 yeres. For from the 32 yere of Darius vnto the 42 yere of Augustus, in the which yere our Saviour Christ was borne, are 1111 and complet so many yeres, whereupon we reckon, that from Adam vnto Christ are 3974
 yeres, six moneths and ten dayes, and from the byrth of Christ vnto this present yere, is 1560.

Then the whole summe and nomber of yeres from the beginning of the worlde vnto this present yere of our Lord God 1560 are 1111, 6 moneths, and the said
 odde ten dayes.

The End.

I O S H V A CHAP. 1. VERS. 2.

Let not this boke of the Law departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein daye and night, that thou mayest obserue and do according to all that is written therein: so shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou haue good successe.
