Given back to the people so all may understand

The Geneva Bible was first printed in Geneva, Switzerland, by refugees from England, fleeing the persecution of Protestants by Roman Catholic Queen “Bloody” Mary. Many copies were smuggled back into England at great personal risk. In later years, when Protestant-friendly Queen Elizabeth took the throne, printing of the Geneva Bible moved back to England. The Geneva Bible was produced by John Calvin, John Knox, Myles Coverdale, John Foxe, and other Reformers. It is the version that William Shakespeare quotes from hundreds of times in his plays, and the first English Bible to offer plain roman-style type in some of its early printings.

The Geneva Bible was the first Bible taken to America, brought over on the Mayflower... it is the Bible upon which early America and its government was founded (certainly not the King’s of England’s Bible!) The Geneva Bible was also the first English Bible to break the chapters of scripture into numbered verses, and it was the first true “Study Bible” offering extensive commentary notes in the margins. It was so accurate and popular, that a half-century later, when the King James Bible came out... it retained more than 90% of the exact wording of the Geneva Bible.

OW hard a thing it is, and what great impedimentes let, to enterprise any worthie act, not only daile experience sufficiently sheweth (moste noble and vertuous Quene) but also that notable prouerbe doeth cōfirme the same, which admonisheth vs, that all thīgs are hard which are faire and excellēt. the other, as to present vnto your Maiestie the holy Scriptures faithfully and playnely translated according to the languages wherein they were first written by the holy Ghost. For the worde of God is an euident token of Gods loue and our assurance of his defence, wherefoeuer it is obediently receyued: it is the trial of the spirits: and as the Prophet saith, It is as a fyre and hammer to breake the stonie heartes of them that resist Gods mercies offered by the preaching of the same. Yea it is sharper then any two edged sworde to examine the very thoghtes and to iudge the affections of the heart, and to discouer whatsoeuer lyeth hid vnder hypocrisie and wolde be secret from the face of God and his Church. So that this must be the first fundacion and groundworke, according whereunto the good stones of this building must be framed, and the euil tried out and reiected.

Now as he that goeth about to lay a fundacion surely, first taketh away suche impedimentes, as might iustely either hurt, let or difforme the worke: so is it necessarie that your graces zeale appeare herein, that nether the craftie perswasion of man, nether worldly policie, or natural feare dissuade you to roote out, cut downe and destroy these wedes and impedimentes which do not only deface your building, but vtterly indeuour, yea & threaten the ruine thereof. For when the noble Iosias entreprised the like kinde of worke, among other notable and many things he destroyed, not only with vtter confusion the idoles with their appertinances, but also burnt (in signe of detestation) the idolatrous priests bones vpon their altars, and put to death the false prophetes and sozcerers, to performe the wordes of the Lawe of God: and therefore the Lord gaue him good successe & blessed him wonderfully, so long as he made Gods worde his line and rule to followe, and enterprised nothing before he had inquired at the mouth of the Lord.

And if these zealous beginnings seme dangerous and to brede disquietnes in your dominions, yet by the storie of King Ahas is manifest, that the quietnes and peace of kingdomes standeth in the vtter abolishing of idolatrie, and in aduancing of true religion: for in his dayes Iudah lyued in rest and quietnes for the space of fyue and thirtie yere, til at length he began to be colde in the zeale of the Lord, feared the power of man, imprisoned the Prophet of God, and oppressed the people: then the Lord sent him warres, & at length roke him away by death.

Wherefore great wisdom, not worldelie, but heauenly is here required, which you grace must earnestly craue of the Lord, as did Salomon, to whome God gaue an vnderstanding heart to iudge his people aright, and to discerne betwene good and bad. For if God for the furnishing of the olde temple gaue the Spirit of wisdom & vnderstanding to them that shulde be the workemen thereof, as to Bezaleel, Aholiab, and Hiram: how much more wil he indewe your grace and other godly princes and chiefe gouernours with a principal Spirit, that you may procure and commande things necessarie for this moste holy Temple, forese and take hede of things that might hinder it, and abolish and destroy whatsoeuer might impere and ouerthrowe the same?

Moreouer the maruelous diligence and zeale of Iehoshaphat, Iosiah, and Hezekiah are by the singuler prouidence of God left as an example to all godly rulers to reforme their countreys and to establish the worde of God with all spede, lest the wrath of the Lord fall vpon them for the neglecting thereof. For these excellent Kings did not onely imbrace the worde promptly and ioyfully, but also procured earnestly and commanded the same to be taught, preached and maynteyned through all their countreys and dominions, bynding them and all their subiectes bothe great and smale with solemne protestations and couenantes before God to obey the worde, and to walke after the waies of the Lord. Yea and in the daies of seruyng ¶ As it was enacted that whosoever wolde not leke the Lord God of Israel, shulde be slayne, whether he were smale or great, man or woman. And for the establishing hereof and performance of this solemne othe, as well ¶ Priests as Iudges were appointed and placed through all the cities of Iudah to instruct the people in the true knollage and feare of God, and to minister iustice according to the worde, knowing that, except God by his worde dyd reigne in ¶ the heartes and soules, all mans diligence and indeuours were of none effect: for without this worde we can not discerne betwene iustice, and iniurie, protection and oppression, wisdom and foolishnes, knollage and ignorance, good and euil. Therefore the Lord, who is the chefe gouernour of his Church, willeth that nothing be attempted before we haue inquired thereof at his mouth. For seing he is our God, of duetie we must giue him this preeminence, that of our selues we entrepryse nothing, but that which he hath appointed, who only knoweth all things, and gouerneth them as may best serue to his glorie and our saluation. We ought not therefore to preuent him, or do any thing without his worde, ¶ but assone as he hath reueiled his wil, immediately to put it in execution.

Now as concerning the maner of this building, it is not according to man, nor after the wisdom of the flesh, but of the Spirit, & according to the worde of God, whose ¶ wais are diuers from mans wais. For if it was not lawfull for Moses to build the material Tabernacle after any other sorte then God had shewed him by a ¶ patern, nether to prescribe any other ¶ ceremonies & lawes then suche as the Lord had expressely commāded: how can it be lawfull to procede in this spiritual building any other wais, then Iesus Christ the Sonne of God, who is bothe the fundacion, head and chief corner stone thereof, hath commanded by his worde? And for as muche as he hath established and left an order in his Church for the building vp of his body, ¶ appointing some to be Apostles, some Prophetes, others Euangelistes, some pastors, and teachers, he signifieth that euery one according as he is placed in this body which is the Church, ought to inquire of his ministres concerning the wil of the Lord, which is reueiled in his worde. For thei are, saith ¶ Ieremiah, as the mouth of the Lord: yea he ¶ promisseth to be with their mouth, & that their ¶ lippes shal kepe knollage, & that the trueth & the law shal be in their mouth: For it is their office chiefly to vnderstand the Scriptures & teache them. For this cause the people of Israel in matters of difficultie vsed to ¶ aske the Lord ether by the ¶ Prophetes, or by the meanes of the hie ¶ Priest, who bare Vrim & Thummim, which were tokens of light & knollage, of holines & perfectiō which shulde be in the hie Priest. Therefore when Iehoshaphat toke this order in the Church of Israel, he appointed Amariah to be the chief concerning the worde of God, because he was moste expert in the law of the Lord, and colde gyue counsell and gouerne according vnto the same. Els there is no degre or office which may haue that autoritie and priuiledge to decide concerning Gods worde, except withall he hath the Spirit of God, and sufficient knollage and iudgement to define according thereunto. And as euery one is indued of God with greater giftes, so ought he to be herein chiefly heard, or at least that without the expresse worde none be heard: for he that hath not the worde, ¶ speaketh not by the mouthe of the Lord. Agayne, what danger it is to do any thing, seme it neuer so godly or necessarie, without consulting with Gods mouth, the examples of the Israelites, ¶ deceiued hereby through the Gibeonites: and of ¶ Saul, whose intention semed good and necessarie: and of ¶ Iosiah also, who for great considerations was moued for the defence of true religion & his people, to fight against Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt, may sufficiently admonish vs.

and rearing vp of the worke, two things are necessarie, First, that we haue a iu& stedfast faith in Christ Iesus, who must dwell in our heartes, as the only mean and assurance of our saluation: for he is the ladder that reacheth from the earth to heauen: he lifteth vp his Church and setteth it in the heauenly places: he maketh vs liuely stones and buildeth vs vpon him selfe: he ioyneth vs to him selfe as the me-bres and body to the head: yea he maketh him selfe and his Church one Christ.
The next is, that our faith bring forth the good fruites, so that our godly conuersa-tion may serue vs as a witnes to confirme our election, and be an example to all others to walke as apperteyneth to the vocation whereunto thei are called: lest the worde of God be euil spoken of, and this building be stayed to growe vp to a iust height, which can not be without the great prouocation of Gods iuste vengeance and discouraging of many thousandes through all the worlde, if thei shulde se that our life were not holy and agreable to our profession. For the eyes of all that feare God in all places beholde your countreyes as an example to all that beleue, and the prayers of all the godly at all tymes are directed to God for the preseruatiō of your maiestie. For considering Gods wonderful mercies toward you at all seasons, who hath pulled you out of the mouthe of the lyons, and how that from your youth you haue bene broght vp in the holy Scriptures, the hope of all men is so increased, that thei can not but looke that God shulde bring to passe some wonderful worke by your grace to the vniuersal comfort of his Church. Therefore euen aboue strength, you must shewe your selfe strong and bolde in Gods matters: and thogh Satan lay all his power and craft together to hurt and hinder the Lodes building: yet be you assured that God wil fight from heauen against this great dragon, the ancient serpent, which is called the deuil and Satan. til he haue accomplished the whole worke and made his Church glorious to him selfe, without spot or wrinkle. For albeit all other kingdomes and monarchies, as the Babylonians, Persians, Grecians & Romans haue fallen & taken end: yet the Church of Christ euen vnder the Crosse hath from the beginning of the worlde bene victorious, and shalbe euerlastingly. Trueth it is, that some tyme it semeth to be shadowed with a cloude, or diuē with a stormie perfection, yet suddenly the beames of Christ the sunne of iustice shine and bring it to light and libertie. If for a tyme it lie couered with ashes, yet it is quickly kindeled agayne by the wynde of Gods Spirit: thogh it seme drowned in the sea, or parched and pynd in the wildernes, yet God giueth euer good successe. for he punisheth the enemies, and deliuereth his, nourisheth them and stil preserueth the vnder his wyngs. This Lord of lordes & King of kings who hath euer defended his, strengthen, comfort and preserue your maiestie, that you may be able to builde vp the ruines of Gods house to his glorie, the discharge of your conscience, and to the comfort of all them that loue the comning of Christ Iesus our Lord.
From Geneva. 10. April. 1560.

THE FIRST BOKE OF Moses, called * Genesis.

THE ARGUMENT.

Moses in effect declareth the things, which are here chiefly to be considered: First, that the worlde & all things therein were created by God, & that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the worlde to behold Gods wonderfull workes, & to praise his Name for the infinite graces, wherewith he had endued him, fell willingly from God through disobedience: who yet for his owne mercies sake restored him to life, & confirmed him in the same by his promises of Christ to come, by whome he shulde overcome Satan, death and hel. Secondly, that the wicked, vnmindful of Gods moste excellent benefites, remained still in their wickednes, & so falling moste horribly from sinne to sinne, prouoked God (who by his preachers called them continually to repentance) at length to destroye the whole world. Thirdly, he assureth vs by the example of Abraham, Isaac, Iacob & the rest of the Patriarkes, that his mercies neuer faile them, whome he chuseth to be his Church, and to professe his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and persecutions he euer assisteth them, sendeth comforte, & deliuereth them. And because the beginning, increase, preservation and success thereof might be onely attributed to God, Moses sheweth by the examples of Cain, Ishmael, Esau and others, which were no lein mans iudgement, that this Church dependeth not on the estimation and nobilitie of the worlde: and also by the fewenes of them, which haue at all times worshipped him purely according to his worde, that it standeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and despised, in the small flocke and little number, that man in his wisdom might be confounded, & the Name of God euer more praised.

CHAP. I.

God created the heauen & the earth, 3 The light & the darkenes, 8 The firmament. 9 He separateth the water from the earth 16 He createth the sunne, the moone, & the starres. 21 He createth the fish, birdes, beastes. 26 He createth man and giveth him rule over all creatures, 28 And prouideth nourriture for man and beast.

IN THE beginning * God created y^e heauen and the earth. And the earth was without forme & voyde, and darkenes was vpon the depe, & the Spirit of God moued vpon the waters.

Then God said, * Let there be light: and there was light.

And God sawe y^e light that it was good, and God separated the light from the darkenes.

And God called the light, Day, and the darkenes, he called Night. || So the euenig and the morning were the first day.

¶ Againe God said, * Let there be a firmament in the middes of the waters: and let it separate the waters from the waters.

Then God made the firmament, & parted the waters, which were vnder the firmament, from the waters which were above the firmament, and it was so.

And God called the firmament, s Heauen. || So the euenig and the morning were the seconde day.

¶ God said againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauē be gathered into one place, & let the drye land appeare, and it was so.

And God called the drye land, Earth, & he called y^e gathering together of the waters, Seas: & God sawe that it was good.

Then God said, h Let the earth budde forthe the budde of the herbe, that sedeth se, the fructefull tre, w^{ch} beareth frute according to his kinde, which male haue his se, in it self vpon the earth. & it was so.

And the earth broght forth the budde of the herbe, that sedeth se, according to his kinde, also the tre that yeldeth frute, w^{ch} hath his se, in it selfe according to his kinde: & God sawe that it was good. || So the euening and the morning were the third daie.

¶ And God said, * Let there be lightes in the firmament of the heauen, to separate the daie from the night, & let them be for signes, and for seasons, and for daies and yeres.

And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpon the earth, and it was so.

God then made two great lightes: the greater light to rule the daie, & the lesse light to rule y^e night: he made also y^e starres.

And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth;

And to rule in the daie, & in the night, and to separate the light from the darkenes: and God sawe that it was good.

|| So the euening and the morning were the fourth daie.

Afterwarde God said, Let the waters bring forth in abundance euerie creeping thing that hath life: & let the foule flie vpon the earth in the open firmament of the heauen.

Then God created the great whales, & euerie thing liuing & moving, w^{ch} the waters broght forth in abundance, according to their kinde, & euerie feathered foule according to his kinde: & God sawe that it was good.

* This worde signifieth the beginning and generation of the creatures.

This sentence is so oft repeated, to signifye God made all his creatures to serue to his glorie, & to the profit of man: but for time they were created, yet to y^e end, by Christ they are restored & serue to their welch.

26 Furthermore God said, * Let vs make man in our i image according to our li- ckenes, and let them rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer the beastes, & ouer all the earth, and ouer euerie thing that crepeth & mo- ueth on the earth.

27 * Thus God created the man in his im- age: in the image of God created he him: he created them * male and female.

28 And God * blessed them, and God said to them, * Bring forth the frute and multi- plie, and fil the earth, and subdue it, and rule ouer the fish of the sea and ouer the foule of the heauen, & ouer euerie beast that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God said, Beholde, I haue giuen vnto you * euerie herbe bearing seede, which is vpon all the earth, & euerie tre, where- in is the frute of a tre bearing seede: * that shalbe to you for meat.

30 Likewise to euerie beast of the earth, and to euerie foule of the heauen, & to euerie thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hath life in it selfe, euerie grene herbe shalbe for meat. and it was so.

31 * And God sawe all that he had made, & lo, it was very good. || So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAP. II

2 God resteth the seventh day, and sanctifieth it. 15 He setteth man in the garden. 22 He createth the womā. 29 Marriage is ordained.

1 Thus the heauens and the earth were finished, & all the holte of them.

2 For in the seventh day God ended his worke which he had made, * & the seventh daye he * rested from all his worke, which he had made.

3 So God blessed the seventh day, & * sanc- tified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had crea- ted and made.

4 ¶ These are the generacions of the hea- uens & of the earth, when they were crea- ted, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,

5 And euerie plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and euerie herbe of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to raine vpon the earth, nether was there a man to til the ground, 6 But a myst went vp from the earth, and watered all the earth.

7 ¶ The Lord God also made the mā of the dust of the ground, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing soule.

8 And the Lord God plated a garden East- warde in Eden, and there he put the man whome he had made.

9 (For out of the ground made the Lord God to growe euerie tre pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: the tre of life also in the middes of the garden, and the tre of knowledge of good and of euil.

10 And out of Eden went a riuier to water the garden, and from thence it was deu- ided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of one * Rishon: the same compasseth the whole land of Hau- lah, where * golde.

12 And the golde of that land is good: the- re * also * bdelium, and the onix stone.

13 And the name of the secōde riuier * Gi- hon: the same compasseth the whoie land of Cush.

14 The name also of y third riuier * Hid- dekel: this goeth towarde the Eastside of Asshur: and the fourth riuier is Perath

15 ¶ Then the Lord God toke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might * dresse it and kepe it.

16 And the Lord God * commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eat frey of eue- rie tre of the garden, 17 But as touching the tre of knowledge of good and euil, thou shalt not eat of it: for * whensoever thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye the death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man shulde be him selfe alone. I wil make him an helpe * mete for him.

19 So the Lord God formed of the earth euerie beast of the field, and euerie foule of the heauen, & brought them vnto the mā to se how he wolde call the: for howsoever the man named the liuing creature, so was the name thereof.

20 The man therefore gaue names vnto all catte, and to the foule of the heauen, and to euerie beast of the field: but for Adam founde he not an helpe mete for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heaue slepe to fall vpon the man, & whi- les he slept, he toke one of his rybbes and closed vp the flesh in steade thereof.

22 And the rybbe which the Lord God had taken from the man, made he a woman, and brought her to the man.

Because mention is made in the tenth verse of this seconde chapter of the river that watered the garden, we muste note that Euphrates and Tigris called in ebrew, Perath and Hiddikel, were called but one river where they joyned together, els they had foure heades: that is, two at their springs, & two where they fell into the Persian sea. In this country and moste plentiful land Adam dwelt, and this was called Paradise: that is, a garden of pleasure, because of the frutesfulness and abundance thereof. And whereas it is said that Pishon compasseth the land of Havilah, it is meant of Tigris, which in some place, as it passed by diuers places, was called by sondry names, as some time Diglith, in other places Pasitigris, & of some Phasin or Pishon. Likewise Euphrates towards the country of Chus or Ethiopia, or Arabia was called Gihon. So that Tigris and Euphrates (which were but two rivers and some time when they joyned together, were called after one name) were according to diuers places called by these foure names, so that they might seme to have bene foure diuers rivers.

CHAP. III.

2 The woman seduced by the serpent, 6 Enticeth her husband to sinne. 14 They three are punished 15 Christ is promised 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of paradise.

Wisdo 2, 25 a As Satan can change him selfe into an Angel of light, so did he abuse the wisdom of the serpent to deceaue man b God suffered Satan to make the serpent his instrument: and to speake in him. c In doubting of Gods threatening she yielded to Satan.

Now the serpent was more subtil then any beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he said to the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of euery tree of the garden?

And the woman said vnto the serpent, We eat of the frute of the trees of the garden, But of the frute of the tree, which is in the middes of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touche it, lest ye dye.

4 Then the serpent said to the woman, Ye shall not dye at all,

5 But God doeth knowe, that when ye shall eat thereof, your eyes shall be opened, & ye shall be as gods, knowing good and euil.

6 So the woman (seeing that the tree was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, & a tree to be desired to get knowledge) took of the frute thereof, and did eat, and gaue also to her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, & they knewe that they were naked, and they sewed fig tree leaues together, and made them selues breeches.

8 Afterwarde they heard the voyce of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day.

11 And he said, Who tolde thee, that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat in no case?

12 Then the man said, The woman which thou gauest to be with me, she gaue me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent beguyled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God said to the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattel, and aboue euery beast of the field: vpon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.

15 I wil also put enimitie betwene thee and the woman, & betwene thy seede & her seede. He shall breake thine head, & thou shalt bruise his heele.

16 ¶ Vnto the woman he said, I wil greatly increase thy sorowes, & thy conception. In sorowe shalt thou bring forth the childre, and thy desire shall be subiect to thine husband, and he shall rule ouer thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adám he said, Because thou hast obeyed the voyce of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree (whereof I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it) cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorowe shalt thou eat of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 Thornes also, and thyistles shall it bring forth to thee, and thou shalt eat the herbe of the field.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, til thou returne to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou returne.

20 (And the man called his wiues name Hcuáh, because she was the mother of all liuing)

21 Vnto Adám also and to his wife did the Lord God make coates of skinnnes, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God said, Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, to knowe good and euil. And now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life and eat and liue for euer, 23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to til the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he cast out man, and at the Eastside of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a sword shakene, to kepe the waye of the tree of life.

23 Lamech a tyrant encourageth his fearful wues.

26 True religion is restored.

Afterward the man knewe Hcuáh his wife, which conceived & bare Káin, & said, I haue obtained a man by the Lord.

2 And againe she brought forth his brother Hábel, and Hábel was a keeper of shepe, & Káin was a tiller of the grounde.

3 ¶ And in processe of time it came to passe, that Káin brought an oblation vnto the Lord of the frute of the grounde.

4 And Hábel also him selfe brought of the first frutes of his shepe, and of the fat of them, and the Lord had respect vnto Hábel, and to his offering,

5 But vnto Káin and to his offering he had no regarde: wherefore Káin was exceeding wroth, & his countenance fel downe.

6 Then the Lord said vnto Káin, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance cast downe?

7 If thou do wel, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not wel, sinne lieth at the dore: also vnto thee his desire shall be subiect, and thou shalt rule ouer him.

8 ¶ Then Káin spake to Hábel his brother. And when they were in the field, Káin rose vp against Hábel his brother, and slew him.

9 Then the Lord said vnto Káin, Where is Hábel thy brother? Who answered, I can not tel. Am I my brothers keeper?

10 Againe he said, What hast thou done? the voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me from the grounde.

11 Now therefore thou art cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brothers blood from thine hand.

12 When thou shalt til the grounde, it shall not henceforth yelde vnto thee her strength: a vagabonde and a renegate shalt thou be in the earth.

13 Then Káin said to the Lord, My punishment is greater, then I can beare.

14 Beholde, thou hast cast me out this day from the earth, and from thy face shall I be hid, and shall be a vagabonde and a renegate in the earth, & whosoever findeth me, shall slay me.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Douteles whosoever slayeth Káin, he shall be punished seven folde. And the Lord set a mark vpon Káin, lest any man finding him shoulde kill him.

This is the booke of the generacions of Adam. In the day that God created Adam, in the likenes of God made he him,

2 Male and female created he the, & blessed them, and called their name Adam in the day that they were created.

3 ¶ Now Adam liued an hundred and thirtie yeres and begate a childe in his owne likenes after his image, and called his name Sheth.

4 ¶ And the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Sheth, were eight hundred yeres, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

5 So all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundred and thirtie yeres: and he dyed.

6 And Sheth liued an hundred, and fyue yeres, and begate Enosh.

7 And Sheth liued, after he begate Enosh, eight hundred and seuen yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

8 So all the dayes of Sheth were nine hundred and twelue yeres: & he dyed.

9 ¶ Also Enosh liued ninety yeres & begate Kenan.

10 And Enosh liued, after he begate Kenan, eight hundred and fiftene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

11 So all the dayes of Enosh were nine hundred and fyue yeres: and he dyed.

12 ¶ Likewise Kenan liued seuentie yeres, and begate Mahalaleel.

13 And Kenan liued, after he begate Mahalaleel, eight hundred and fourty yeres, & begate sonnes and daughters.

14 So all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundred and ten yeres: and he dyed.

15 ¶ Mahalaleel also liued sixty & fyue yeres and begate Iered.

16 Also Mahalaleel liued, after he begate Iered, eight hundred and thirty yeres, & begate sonnes and daughters.

17 So all the dayes of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and fyue yeres: and he dyed.

18 ¶ And Iered liued an hundred sixty and two yeres, and begate Henoch.

19 Then Iered liued, after he begate Henoch, eight hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 So all the dayes of Iered were nine hundred sixty and two yeres: & he dyed.

21 ¶ Also Henoch liued sixty and fyue yeres, and begate Methuselah.

22 And Henoch walked with God, after he begate Methuselah, thre hundred yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

23 So all the dayes of Henoch were thre hundred sixty and fyue yeres.

24 And Henoch walked with God, and he was no more sene: for God toke him away.

25 Methuselah also liued an hundred eighty and seuen yeres, and begate Lamech.

26 And Methuselah liued, after he begate Lamech, seuen hundred eighty and two yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

27 So all the dayes of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine yeres: and he dyed.

28 ¶ Then Lamech liued an hundred eighty and two yeres, and begate a sonne, 29 And called his name Noah, saying, This same shal comforte vs concerning our worke and sorowe of our hands, as touching the earth, which the Lord hath cursed.

30 And Lamech liued, after he begate Noah, fyue hundred ninety and fyue yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

CHAP. VII.

1 Noah and his entre into the Arke. 20 The flood destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

And the Lord said vnto Noá, Entre thou and all thine house into the Arke: for thee haue I sene ^a righteous before me in this age.

2. Pet. 2. 5. a In respect of the rest of the worlde, & because he had a desire to serue God and liue vprightly. b Which might be offered in sacrifice, whereof six were for breed and the seuech for sacrifice.

Of euerie ^b cleane beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: but of vncleane beastes by couples, ^y male and his female.

Of the foules also of the heauen by sevens, male and female, to kepe sede aliue vpon the whole earth.

For seuen dayes hence I wil cause it raine vpon the earth fourty dayes & fourty nights, and all the substance that I haue made, wil I destroye from of the earth.

Mat. 24. 37. Luk 17. 26. 1 Pet. 3. 20.

Noá therefore did according vnto all that the Lord commanded him.

And Noá was six hundreth yeres olde, when the flood of waters was vpon the earth.

So Noá entred and his sonnes, & his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him into the Arke, because of the waters of the flood.

Of the cleane beastes, and of the vncleane beastes, and of the foules, & of all that crepeth vpon the earth, c God compelled them to preſerue the felues to Noah, as they did before to Adam, when he gaue them names, Chap. 2. 19.

There ^c came two & two vnto Noá into the Arke, male & female, as God had commanded Noá.

And so after seuen dayes the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

d Whien was about the beginning of Maie, when all things did moſte flourish.

In the six hundreth yere of Noahs life in the ^d seconde moneth, the seuententh day of the moneth, in the same day were all the ^e fountaines of the great depe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened,

e Bothe y waters in y earth did ouerflowe, and also the cloudes powdered downe.

And the raine was vpon the earth fourty dayes and fourty nights.

In the selfe same day entred Noá with Shem, & Ham and Iapheth, the sonnes of Noá, and Noahs wife, and the thre wiues of his sonnes with the into the Arke.

They and euerie beast after his kinde, & all cattel after their kinde, & euerie thing that crepeth and moueth vpon the earth after his kinde, & euerie foule after his kinde, euem euerie birde of euerie fether.

f Euerie thing that God wolde haue to be preſerued on earth, came into the Arke to Noá. g So y Gods secret power defended him against the rage of y mighty waters.

For they came to Noá into the Arke, two and two, ^f of all flesh wherein is the breath of life.

And they entring in, came male & female of all flesh, as God had comanded him: and the Lord ^g shut him in.

Then the flood was fourty dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, & bare vp ^y Arke, which was liſte vp aboue the earth.

The waters also waxed strong, and were increased exceedingly vpon the earth, and the Arke went vpon the waters.

The waters ^h preuailed so exceedingly vpon the earth, that all the high mountaines, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered.

Fiftene cubites vpwarde did the waters preuaile, when the mountaines were couered.

Then all flesh perished that moued vpon the earth, bothe foule and cattel and beast, & euerie thing that crepeth & moueth vpon the earth, and euerie man.

Euerie thing in whose nostrils the spirit of life did breathe, whatſoeuer they were in the drye land, they dyed.

So ^h he destroyed euerie thing that was vpon the earth, from man to beast, to the creeping thing, and to the foule of the heauen: they were euen destroyed from the earth. and Noá onely ⁱ remained, & they that were with him in the Arke.

And the waters preuailed vpon the earth an hundreth and fiftie dayes.

h That is, God. i Learne what it is to obey God onely, & to forsake the multitude, 1. Pet. 3. 20.

CHAP. VIII.

13 The flood ceaseth. 16 Noá is commanded to come forth of the Arke with his. 20 He sacrificeth to the Lord. 22 God promiſeth that all things ſhal continue in their firſt oráre.

Now God ^a remembred Noá & ^b euerie beast, & all the cattel that was with him in the Arke: therefore God made a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceased.

The fountaines also of the depe & the windowes of heauen were stopped & the raine from heauen was restrained,

And the waters returned from aboue the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundreth and fiftieth day the waters abated.

And in the ^c seuenth moneth, in the seuenth day of the moneth, the Arke ^d rested vpon the mountaines of Ararat.

And the waters were going & decreasing vntil the ^e tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, & in the first day of the moneth were the toppes of the mountaines sene.

So ^f after fourty dayes, Noá opened ^g the windowes of the Arke, which he had made,

And sent forth the ^h rauen, which went out going forth and returning, vntil the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.

Agaime he sent a ⁱ doue from him, that he might se if the waters were diminished from of the earth.

But the doue founde no rest for the sole of her foote: therefore she returned vnto him into the Arke (for the waters were vpon the whole earth) & he ^j put forth his hand, & toke her, and pulled her to him into the Arke.

a Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he sendeth such a winde, then he sheweth that he remembreth them. b If God remembreth euerie brute beast, what ought to be the aduance of his children?

g Ebr. at the end of fourty dayes.

h The rauen is sent forth & returneth.

i He sendeth the doue.

j It is like, y the rauen did flic to and fro, resting on the Arke, but came not in to it, as the doue that was taken in.

10 And he abode yet other seven dayes, and againe he sent forth the doue out of the Arke.

11 And the doue came to him in the euenig, & lo, in her' mouthe was an ^e oliue leafe that she had pluckt: whereby No^ah knewe that y^e waters were abated from of y^e earth.

12 Notwithstanding he waited yet other seven dayes, & sent forth the doue, which returned not againe vnto him any more.

13 ¶ And in the six hundredth and one yere, in the first ^d daye of the ^s first moneth the waters were dⁱyed vp from of the earth: & No^ah remoued the couering of the Arke & looked, & beholde, the vpper parte of the ground was drye.

14 And in the seconde moneth, in the seven and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth drye.

15 ¶ Then God spake to No^ah, saying,

16 Go forth of y^e Arke, thou & thy wife, & thy sonnes & thy sonnes wiues wⁱ thee.

17 Bring forth the with thee euerie beast that is with thee, of all flesh, ^b bothe foule and cattel, & euerie thing that creepeth & moueth vpon the earth, that thei maie brede abundantly in the earth, * & bring forth the frute and increase vpon the earth.

18 So No^ah came forth, and his sonnes, & his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him.

19 Euerie beast, euerie creeping thing, & euerie foule, all that moueth vpon the earth after their kindes went out of the Arke.

20 ¶ Then No^ah buylt an altar to y^e Lord and toke of euerie cleane beast, & of euerie cleane foule, and offered burnt offerings vpon the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a ^s sauour of rest, & y^e Lord said in his heart, I wil henceforth curse the ground no more for mas' cause: for the imaginacion of mans' heart is euil, ^e euen fr^o his youth: nether wil I smite aⁿie more all things liuing, as I haue done.

22 Hereafter ⁱ s^ede time & haruest, & colde & heate, & sommer and winter, & daye & night shal not cease, so long as the earth remaineth.

1 The confirmacion of marriage 3 Permissio of meates 6 The power of the swordes. 14 The remembrance is the signe of Gods promes 21 No^ah is drunken & mocked of his sonne, whome he curseth. 29 The age & death of No^ah.

And God ^a blessed No^ah & his sonnes, and said to them, Bring forth the frute, and multiplie, and replenish the earth.

Also the ^b feare of you, and the dread of you shalbe vpon euerie beast of the earth, and vpon euerie foule of the heauen, vpon all that moueth on the earth, & vpon all the fishes of the sea: into your hand are thei deliuered.

Euerie ^c thing that moueth & liueth, shalbe meat for you: as y^e grene herbe, haue I giuen you all things.

4 *d But flesh with the life thereof, I ^m mean, with the blood thereof, shal ye not eat.

5 * For surely I wil require your blood, wherein your liues are: at the hand of euerie beast wil I require it: and at the hand of man, ^e euen at the hand of a mas' brother wil I require the life of man.

6 Whofo^r sheddeth mans blood, ^f by man shal his blood be shed: for in the ^s image of God hath he made man.

7 But bring ye forth the frute and multiplie: growe plentifully in the earth, and increase thei in.

8 ¶ God spake also to No^ah & to his sonnes with him, saying,

9 Beholde, I, euen I establish my ^b couenāt with you, and with your ⁱ sed: after you,

10 And with euerie liuing creature that is with you, with the foule, with the cattel, & with euerie beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the Arke, vnto euerie beast of the earth.

11 * And my couenāt wil I establish with you, that from henceforth the all flesh shal not be rooted out by the waters of the flood, nether shal there be a flood to dest^roye the earth any more.

12 Then God said, This is the token of the couenāt which I make betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing, that is with you vnto perpetual g^eneracions.

13 I haue set my ^k bowe in the cloude, and it shalbe for a signe of the couenāt betwene me and the earth.

14 And when * I shal couer the earth with a cloude, and the bowe shal be sene in the cloude, 15 Then wil I remeber my ^l couenāt, which is betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing in all flesh, & there shalbe no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore y^e bowe shalbe in the cloude, y^e I may se it, & remember the euerlasting couenāt betwene God, and euerie liuing thing in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 God said yet to No^ah, ^m This is the signe of the couenāt, which I haue established betwene me and all flesh that is vpon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sonnes of No^ah going forth of the Arke, were Shem & Ham & Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the thre sonnes of No^ah, and of them was the ⁿ whole earth ouerspred.

20 * No^ah also began to be an housband mā and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drōke of y^e wine & was ^o drunkē, & was vncovered in y^e middes of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father ^p of Canaan sawe the nakednes of his father, he tolde his two brethren without.

28 And Noah liued after the flood thre hundred and fifty yeeres.

29 So all the dayes of Noah were nine hundred and fifty yeeres: and he dyed.

CHAP. X.

The increase of mankind by Noah and his sonnes 10 The beginning of cities, countreys and nations.

Now these are the generations of the sonnes of Noah, Shem, Ham & Iapheth: vnto whome sonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Iapheth were Gomer and Magog, and Madai, and Iauan, and Tubal and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath and Togarmah.

4 Also the sonnes of Iauan, Eliphaz and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the yles of the Gentiles deuised in their landes, euery man after his tongue, and after their families in their nations.

6 Moreover the sonnes of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Seba and Hama, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: also the sonnes of Raamah were Seba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begate Nimrod, who began to be mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord. wherefore it is said, As Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdome was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land came Asshur, & buylded Ninueh, and the citie Rehoboth, and Calah:

12 Resen also betwene Ninueh and Calah: this is a great citie.

13 And Mizraim begate Ludim, and Ananiam, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim.

14 Pathrusim also, and Casluhim (out of whome came the Philistims) and Caphtorims.

15 Also Canaan begate Zidon his first borne, and Heth,

16 And Iebusi, and Emori, and Girgashim,

17 And Hiuim, and Atkiz, and Sinim,

18 And Aruadim, and Zemarim, & Hamathim: & afterwarde were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon, as thou comest to Gerar vntil Azzah, & as thou goest vnto Sodom, and Gomorah, and Admah, & Zeboiim, euen vnto Lasha.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues in their countreys and in their nations.

21 Vnto Shem also the father of all the sonnes of Eber, and elder brother of Iapheth were children borne.

22 The sonnes of Shem were Elam and Ashurim, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Uz & Hul, and Gether and Mash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth diuided: & his brothers name was Joktan.

26 Then Joktan begate Almodad, and Sheleph, & Hazarmaueth, and Ierah, 27 And Hadoram, & Vzai, and Dicklah,

28 And Obal, & Abimelech, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Jobab. all these were the sonnes of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreys and nations.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generations among their people: and out of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

1 Then the whole earth was of one language and one speache.

2 And as they went from the East, they founde a plaine in the land of Shinar, & there they abode.

3 And they said one to another, Come let vs make brycke, and burne it in the fire. So they had brycke for stone, and fyme had they in steade of morter.

4 Also they said, Go to, let vs buyld vs a citie and a tower, whose toppes may reach vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest we be scattered vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord came downe, to see the citie & tower, which the sonnes of men buylded.

10 ¶ These are the generacions* of Shem:
Shem was an hūdreth yere olde, and bega-

11 And Shé liued, after he begate Arpachshád, fūe hundreth yeres, and begate son-

12 Also Arpachshád liued fūe and thirty yeres, and begate Shélah.

13 And Arpachshád liued, after he begate Shélah, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And Shélah liued thirty yeres, and begate Eber.

15 So Shélah liued, after he begate Eber, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

16 Likewise Eber liued foure and thirty ye-

17 So Eber liued, after he begate Péleg, fou-

18 And Péleg liued thirty yeres, and begate Reú.

19 ¶ And Péleg liued, after he begate Reú,

20 Also Reú liued two and thirty yeres, & begate Serúg.

21 So Reú liued, after he begate Serúg, two 22 Moreouer Serúg liued thirty yeres, and begate Nahór.

23 And Serúg liued, after he begate Nahór, two hundreth yeres, and begate sonnes &

24 And Nahór liued nine & twenty yeres, and begate Térá.

25 So Nahór liued, after he begate Térá, an hūdreth and ninetene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

26 ¶ So Térá liued seuentie yeres, & begate Abrám, Nahór, and Harán.

27 ¶ Now these are y^e generaciōs of Térá: Térá begate Abrám, Nahór, & Harán:
and Harán begate Lot.

28 Then Harán dyed before Térá his father in the land of his natiuitie, in Vr of the Caldees.

29 So Abrám and Nahór toke them wiues.
the name of Abráms wife was Sarái, and the name of Nahors wife Milcán, the daughter of Harán, the father of Milcán, and the father of Iscáh.

30 But Sarái was barren, and had no childe.

31 Then Térá toke Abrám his sonne, & Lot the sonne of Harán, his sonnes sonne, and Sarái his daughter in lawe, his sonne Abráms wife: and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to go into the land of Canaan, and they came to Harrán, and dwelt there.

32 So the dayes of Térá were two hundred and fūe yeres, and Térá dyed in Harán.

2 And I wil make of thee a great nacion, and wil blesse thee, and make thy name

11 And when he drewe nere to entre into Egypt, he said to Sarái his wife, Beholde now, I knowe that thou art a faire woman to loke vpon:

12 Therefore it wil come to passe, that whē the Egyptians se thee, they wil say, She is his wife: so wil they kille me, but they wil kepe thee aliue.

13 Say, I pray thee, & thou art my sister, that I may fare wel for thy sake, and that my life may be preferred by thee.

14 ¶ Now, when Abrám was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for she was very faire.

15 And the princes of Pharaóh sawe her, and commended her vnto Pharaóh: so the woman was taken into Pharaóhs house:

16 Who intreated Abrám wel for her sake, and he had sheepe, and beues, and he asses, and men seruantes and maide seruantes, and she asses, and camelles.

17 But the Lord plagued Pharaóh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarái Abrams wife.

18 Then Pharaóh called Abrám and said, Why hast thou done this vnto me? Wherefore diddest thou not tel me, that she was thy wife?

19 Why saiddest thou, She is my sister, that I shulde take her to be my wife? Now therefore beholde thy wife, take her and go thy way.

20 And Pharaóh gaue men & commanded him concerning him: and they conuered him forthe, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XII.

1 Abrám departeth out of Egypt. 2 Lot departeth from him. 3 The wickednes of the Sodomites. 4 The promises made to Abrám are renewed. 5 Abrám buyeth an altar to the Lord.

Then Abrám went vp from Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, & Lot with him towards the South.

2 And Abrám was very riche in cattel, in siluer and in golde.

3 And he wēt on his iourney frō the South toward Beth-él, to the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, betwene Beth-él and Haái,

4 Vnto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abrám called on the Name of the Lord.

5 ¶ Lot also, who wēt with Abrám, had sheepe cattel and asses,

6 So that the land coulde not beare them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they coulde not dwell together.

7 Also there was debate betwene the herdmen of Abrams cattel, & the herdmen of Lots cattel. (and the Canaanites & the Perizzites dwelled at that time in the land)

8 Then said Abrám vnto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, betwene thee & me, nether betwene mine herdmen and thine herdmen: for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? departe I pray thee from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I wil go to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I wil take the left.

10 So when Lot lifted vp his eyes, he sawe the ail the plaine of Iordén was watered euerie where: (for before the Lord destroyed Sodóm and Gomorá, it was as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest vnto Zóar)

11 The Lot chose vnto him all the plaine of Iordén and toke his iourney frō the East: & they departed the one from the other.

12 Abrám dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen to Sodóm.

13 Now the men of Sodóm were wicked & exceeding sinners against the Lord.

14 ¶ The Lord said vnto Abrám, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift vp thine eyes now, and loke from the place, where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward:

15 For all the land, which thou seest, wil I giue vnto thee and to thy sede for euer, 16 And I wil make thy sede, as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shal thy sede be numbered.

17 Arise, walke through the land, in the length thereof, and breadth thereof: for I wil giue it vnto thee.

18 Then Abrám remoued his tent, and came and dwelled in the plaine of Mamré, which is in Hebrón, & buylded there an altar vnto the Lord.

9 Then thei said, Awaie hence. and thei said, He is come alone as a stranger, & shal he iudge and rule? we wil now deale worfe with thee then with them. So thei preased fore vpon Lot³⁰ him selfe, & came to breake y³¹ dore.

10 But the men put forthe their hand & pulled Lot into the house to them and shut to the dore.

11 * Then thei smote the men that were at the dore of y³² house with blindenes bothe smale and great, so that thei were wearie in³³ seeking the dore.

12 ¶ Then the men said vnto Lot, Whome hast thou yet here? ether sonne in lawe or thy sonnes, or thy daughters, or whatsoever thou hast in the citie, bring it out of this place.

13 For we³⁴ wil destroe this place, because the³⁵ crie of them is great before y³⁶ Lord, and the Lord hath sent vs to destroe it.

14 Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in lawe, which³⁷ married his daughters, & said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord wil destroe the citie: but he semed to his sonnes in lawe as thogh he had mocked.

15 ¶ And when y³⁸ morning arose, the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters³⁹ which are here, lest y⁴⁰ be destroyed in the punishment of the citie.

17 ¶ And when they had brought the out, the Angel said: escape for thy life: loke not behinde thee, neither tarie thou in all the plaine: escape into the mountaine, lest thou be destroyed.

18 And Lot said vnto them, Not so, I praie thee, my Lord.

19 Beholde now, thy seruant hath founde grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercie, which thou hast shewed vnto me in sauing my life: and I can not escape in the mountaine, lest some euil take me, and I die.

26 ¶ Now his wife behīde him looked backe, and was turned into aⁿ pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abrahám rising vp early in y^e morning went to y^e place, where he had stand before the Lord, and loking toward Sodóm and Gomoráh and toward all the land of the plaine:

28 Beholde, he sawe the smoke of the land mounting vp as the smoke of a fornace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroyed the cities of the plaine, God thought vpon Abrahá, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, whē he ouerthrewe the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went vp frō Zóar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he^o feared to tarie in Zóar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said vnto y^e yonger, Our father is olde, and there is not a man in the earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of all the earth.

32 Come, we wil make our father a drinke wine, and lye with him, that we maie preferue sede of our father.

33 So thei made their father drinke wine y^e night, and the elder went and laie with her father: but he perceiued not, neither when she laie downe, neither when she rose vp.

34 And on the morow the elder said to the yonger, Beholde, yester night laie I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and go thou and lye with him, y^e we maie preferue sede of o^r father.

1 Abrahám dwelleth as a stranger in the land of Gerár.

2 Abimélech taketh awaie his wife. 3 God reprobeth the King. 9 And the King, Abrahá. 11 Sarah is restored with great giftes. 17 Abrahám praieth, and the King and his are healed.

2 And Abrahám said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. The Abimélech King of Gerár sent and toke Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimélech in a dreame by night and said to him, Beholde, thou art but dead, because of the womā, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

4 (Notwithstanding Abimélech had not yet come nere her) And he said, Lord, wilt thou slaie euen d the righteous nation?

5 Said not he vnto me, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe said, He is my brother: w^h an vpright minde, and innocēt hāds haue I done this.

6 And God said vnto him by a dreame, I knowe y^e thou didest this euen with an vpright minde, & I kept thee also that thou shuldest not sinne against me: therefore suffred I thee not to touche her.

7 Now then deliuer y^e man his wife againe: for he is a^h Prophet, & he shal praye for thee y^e thou mayest liue: but if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure y^e thou shalt die the death, thou, & all that thou hast.

8 Then Abimélech rising vp early in the morning called all his seruātes, and tolde all these things vnto them, and the men were sore afraide.

9 Afterward Abimélech called Abrahám, and said vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my^k kingdome this great sinne? thou hast done things vnto me that oght not to be done.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Izhák is borne. 9 Ishmael mocketh Izhák. 14 Hagár is cast out with her sonne. 17 The Angel comforteth Ha-gár. 22 The couenant betwene Abimélech & Abrahám.

1 Now the Lord visited Sarah, as he had said, and did vnto her according as he had promised.

2 For Sarah conceived, & bare Abrahám a sonne in his olde age, at the same season that God tolde him.

3 And Abrahám called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sarah bare him, Izhák.

4 Then Abrahám circumcised Izhák his sonne, when he was eight daies olde, * as God had commanded him.

5 So Abrahám was an hundredth yere olde, when his sonne Izhák was borne vnto him.

6 ¶ The Sarah said, God hath made me to reioyce: all that heare will reioyce with me.

7 Againe she said, Who wolde haue said to Abrahám, that Sarah shulde haue giuen children sucke? for I haue borne him a sonne in his olde age.

8 Then the childe grewe & was weaned: & Abrahám made a great feast the same day that Izhák was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah sawe the sonne of Hagár the Egyptiā (which she had borne vnto Abra-hám) * mocking.

10 Wherefore she said vnto Abrahám, Cast out this bond woman and her sonne: for the sonne of this bond woman shal not be heire with my sonne Izhák.

11 And this thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 ¶ But God said vnto Abrahám, Let it not be grievous in thy sight for the childe, and for thy bond womā: in all that Sarah shal saie vnto thee, heare her voice: for in Izhák shal thy sede be called.

13 As for the sonne of the bond womā, I wil make him a naciō also, because he is thy sede.

14 So Abrahám arose vp early in the morning, and toke bread, and a bottel of water, and gaue it vnto Hagár, putting it on her shulder and the childe also, and sent her away: who departing wandred in the wildernes of Beer-sheba.

15 And when the water of the bottel was spent, she cast the childe vnder a certeine tre.

16 Then she went and sate her ouer against him a farr of about a bowe shote: for she said, I wil not se the death of the childe.
and she sate downe ouer against him, and lift vp her voyce and wept.

17 Then God heard the voyce of the childe, and the Angel of God called to Ha-gár from heauen, and said vnto her, What aileth thee, Hagár? feare not, for God hath heard thy voyce of the childe where he is.

18 Arise, take vp the childe, and holde him in thine hand: for I wil make of him a great people.

19 And God opened her eies, & she sawe a well of water: so she went and filled the bottel with water, & gaue the boye drinke.

20 So God was with the childe & he gre-we and dwelt in the wildernes, and was an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wildernes of Parān, and his mother toke him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And at that same time Abimélech and Phichól his chief captaine spake vnto A-that thou doest.

23 Now therefore sweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: thou shalt deale with me, and with my countrie, where thou hast bene a stranger, according vnto the kindenes that I haue shewed thee.

24 Then Abrahám said, I wil sweare.

25 And Abrahám rebuked Abimélech for a well of water, which Abimélechs seruantes had violently taken away.

26 And Abimélech said, I knowe not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, nether heard I of it but this daie.

Abrahám causeth his seruant to sweare to take a wife for Izhák in his owne kinred. 12 The seruant prayeth to God. 34 His fidelitie toward his master. 50 The friends of Rebekáh commit the matter to God. 58 They aske her consent and she agreeth. 67 And is married to Izhák.

^a Ebr come into dayes.

Now Abrahám was olde, and stricken in yeres, and the Lord had blessed Abrahám in all things.

1 Therefore Abrahám said vnto his eldest seruant of his house, which had the rule ouer all that he had, ^a Put now thine hand vnder my thigh,

3 And I wil make thee b sweare by the Lord God of y heauen, & God of y earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites among whome I dwell.

4 But thou shalt go vnto my c countrey, & to my kinred, & take a wife vnto my sonne Izhák.

5 And the seruant said to him, What if the woman wil not come w me to this land: shal I bring thy sonne againe vnto the lād from whence thou camest?

6 To whome Abrahám answered, Beware y y bring not my sonne d thither againe.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heauen, who toke me from my fathers house, & from y lād where I was boine, and that spake vnto me, & that sware vnto me, saying, ^e Vnto thy fede wil I giue this land, he shal send his Angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence.

8 Neuertheles if the womā wil not followe thee, then shalt thou be ^e discharged of this mine othe: onely bring not my sonne thither againe.

9 Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abrahám his master, & sware to him for this matter.

10 ¶ So the seruant toke ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed: for he had all his masters goods in his hād, & so he arose, and went to Aíám Naharám, vnto the e citie of Nahór.

11 And he made his camels to lie downe without the ciue by a well of water, at euen about the time that women come out to drawe water.

12 And he said, O f Lord God of my master Abrahám, I beseeche thee, send me good speede this day, and shewe mercie vnto my master Abrahám.

13 Lo, I stand by the well of water, whiles the mēs daughters of this citie come out to drawe water.

14 g Grant that y maide, to whome I saie, Bowe downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if she say, Drinke, and I wil giue thy camels drinke also: may be she y thou hast ordeined for thy seruant Izhák: & thereby shal I knowe y thou hast shewed mercie on my master.

she went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 Then the seruant ran to mete her, and said, Let me drinke, I praye thee a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke ¹⁷ fyr: and she hasted, & let downe her pitcher vpon her hand & gaue him drinke.

19 And when she had giuen him drinke, she said, I wil drawe water for thy camels also vntil they haue dronken ynough.

20 And she poued out her pitcher into the trough spedely, and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and she drewe for all his camels.

21 So the man wondred at her, and helde his peace, to wite, whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man toke a golden ^k abillement of halfe a shekel weight, & two bracelettes for her hands, of tē shekels weight of golde: And he said, Whose daughter art thou? tel me, I praie thee, Is there roume in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?

23 Then she said to him, I am ¹⁷ daughter of Bethuél the sonne of Milcáh whome she bare vnto Nahór.

24 Morcouer she said vnto him, We haue lytter also and prouander ynough, and roume to lodge in.

25 And the man bowed him selfe and worshipped the Lord,

26 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abrahám, w^h hath not withdrawn his mercie ^m and his trueth from my master: for whē I was in ^y waie, ^y Lord brought me to my masters brethens house.

27 And the maide ran & tolde them of her mothers house according to these wordes.

28 ¶ Now Rebekáh had a brother called Labán, & Labán ran vnto ^y mā to the well.

29 For when he had sene the earrings & the bracelettes in his sisters hands, & when he heard the wordes of Rebekáh his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto me, then he went to the man, & lo^a he stode by the camels at the well.

30 And he said, Come i ^y blessed of ^y Lord: wherfore standest ^y without, seing I haue prepared the house, & roume for ^y camels?

31 ¶ Then ^y man came into ^y house, and he vnshaded the ^p camels and brought lytter & prouander for the camels, and water to washe his fete, & the mens fete that were with him.

32 Afterward the meat was set before him: but he said, I wil not eat, vntil I haue said my message: And he said, Speake on.

33 Then he said, I am Abrahams seruant,

34 And the Lord hath ^r blessed my master wonderfully, that he is become great: for he hath giuen him shepe, and beues, & siluer, and golde, and men, seruantes, & maide seruantes, and camels, and asses.

35 And Saráh my masters wife hath borne a sonne to my master, whē she was olde, & vnto him hath he giue all that he hath.

36 Now my master made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the ^f Canaanites, in whose land I dwel:

37 But thou shalt go vnto my ^r fathers house and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne.

38 Then I said vnto my master, What if the woman wil not followe me?

39 Who answered me, The Lord, before whome I walke, wil send his Angel with thee, and prosper thy iourney, and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred and my fathers house.

40 Then shalt ^y be discharged of ^u mine othe, when thou comest to my kinred: and if they giue thee not one, thou shalt be fre from mine othe.

41 So I came this daie to the well, and said, O Lord, the God of my master Abrahám, if ^y now prosper my ^r iourney which I go,

42 Beholde, ^{*} I stand by the well of water: when a virgine commeth forthe to drawe water, & I saie to her, Giue me, I praie thee, a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke, 43 And she saie to me, Drinke ^y, and I wil also drawe for thy camels, let her be the wife, which the Lord hath ^r prepared for my masters sonne.

44 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine ^x heart, beholde, Rebekáh came forthe, and her pitcher on her shuldre, & she went downe vnto the well, and drewe water. Thē I said vnto her, Giue me drinke, I praie thee.

45 And she made haste, and toke downe her pitcher from her ^{shuldre}, and said, Drinke, & I wil giue thy camels drinke also. So I dranke, & she gaue the camels drinke also.

46 Then I asked her, & said, Whose daughter art ^y? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuél Nahors sonne, whome Milcáh bare vnto him. Then I put the abillement vpon her face, and the bracelettes vpon her handes:

47 And I bowed downe & worshipped ^y Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abrahám, which had brought me ^y right waie to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.

48 Now therefore, if ye wil deale ^z mercifully and truly with my master, tel me: and if not, tel me that I maie turne me to the ^a right hand or to the left.

5 Because that Abrahám * obeyed my voy- ce and kept mine * ordinance, my com- mandemētes, my statutes, and my Lawes.

6 ¶ So Izhák dwelt in Gerár.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife, & he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest, said he, the men of the place shulde kil me, be- cause of Rebekah: for she was beautiful to the eie.

8 So after he had bene there long time, Abimélech King of the Philistims looked out at a window, and lo, he sawe Izhák * sporting with Rebekáh his wife.

9 Then Abimélech called Izhák, and said, Lo, she is of a suretie thy wife, & why saidst y^e, She is my sister: To whome Izhák answered, Because I thought this, It maie be that I shal die for her.

10 Then Abimélech said, Why hast thou donethis vnto vs? one of the people had almost lien by thy wife, so shuldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.

^{Or, he, I.}

2 Then he ſaid, Beholde, I am now olde and knowe not the daie of my death:

3 Wherefore now, I praie thee take thine instruments, thy quier and thy bowe, & get thee to the field, that thou maielt

"take me ſome veniſon.

4 Then make me ſauourie meat, ſuch as I loue, and bring it me that I maie eat, and ^ſ my ^a ſoule maie bleſſe thee, before I dye.

5 (Now Rebekah heard, when Izhák ſpake to Eſáu his ſonne) and Eſáu went into the field to hunt for veniſon, and to bring it.

6 ¶ Then Rebekáh ſpake vnto Iakób her ſonne, ſaying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking w Eſáu thy brother, ſaying, 7 Bring me veniſon, and make me ſauourie meat, that I maie eat and bleſſe thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my ſonne, heare my voyce in that which I commande thee.

9 Get thee now to the flocke, & bring me thence two good kyds of the goates, that I maie make pleaſant meat of them for thy father, ſuch as he loueth.

10 Then thou ſhalt bring it to thy father, and he ſhal eat, to the intent, that he maie bleſſe thee before his death.

11 But Iakób ſaid to Rebekáh his mother, Beholde, Eſáu my brother ^{wrough}, and I am ſmothe.

12 My father maie poſſibly ſele me, and I ſhal ſeme ["] to him to be ^a a mocker: ſo ſhal I bring a curſe vpon me, and not a bleſſing.

13 But his mother ſaid vnto him, ["] Vpō me be thy curſe, my ſonne: onely heare my voyce, and go and bring me ^{them}.

14 So he went and ſet ^{them}, and brought ^{them} to his mother: and his mother made pleaſant meat, ſuch as his father loued.

15 And Rebekáh toke faire clothes of her elder ſonne Eſáu, which were in her houſe, and clothed Iakób her yonger ſonne:

16 And ſhe couered his hands and the ſmothe of his necke with the ſkinnes of the kyds of the goates.

17 Afterwarde ſhe put the pleaſant meat and bread, which ſhe had prepared, in the hand of her ſonne Iakób.

18 ¶ And whē he came to his father, he ſaid, My father. Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my ſonne?

19 And Iakób ſaid to his father, ^d I am Eſáu thy firſt borne, I haue done as ^ſ badelt me, ariſe, I praie thee: ſit vp and eat of my veniſon, that thy ſoule maie bleſſe me.

20 Then Izhák ſaid vnto his ſonne, How haſt thou founde it ſo quickly, my ſonne? Who ſaid, Because the Lord thy God brought it to mine hand.

21 Againe ſaid Izhák vnto Iakób, Come nere now, that I maie ſele thee, my ſonne, whether thou be that my ſonne Eſáu or not.

22 Then Iakób came nere to Izhák his father, and he felt him and ſaid, The ^e voyce ^ſ Iakobs voyce, but the hāds are the handes of Eſáu.

23 (For he knewe him not, because his handes were rough as his brother Esaus handes: wherefore he blessed him)

24 Again he said, Art thou that my sonne Esau? Who answered, Yea.

Gen. 1. 10.

25 Then said he, Bring it me hether, and I wil eat of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he broght it to him and he ate: also he broght him wine, and he dranke.

26 Afterwarde his father Izhák said vnto him, Come nere now, and kisse me, my sonne.

27 And he came nere and kissed him. Then he smelled the sauour of his garments, & blessed him, and said, Beholde, the smel of my sonne is as the smel of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

Gen. 11. 20.

28 * God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heauen, and the farnes of the earth, and plentie of wheat and wine.

29 Let people be thy seruants, and nacions bowe vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethre, and let thy mothers childre honour thee. cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And when Izhák had made an end of blessing Iakób, and Iakób was scace gone out from the presence of Izhák his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting, 31 And he also prepared sauourie meat and broght it to his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 But his father Izhák said vnto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy sone, euen thy first borne Esau.

Gen. 1. 10.

33 Then Izhák was f stricken with a meruelous great feare, & said, Who and where is he that hunted venison, and broght it me, and I haue eat of all before thou camest? and I haue blessed him, therefore he shal be blessed.

34 When Esau heard the wordes of his father, he cryed out with a great crye and bitter, out of measure, and said vnto his father, Blesse me, euen me also, my father.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy blessing.

g In the chap. 25. he was so called because he helde his brother by the helle, as though he wolde ouerthrowe him: & therefore he is here called anouerthrower, or deceiver.

36 Then he said, Was he not iustly called Iakób? for he hath deceiued me these two times: he toke my birthright, and lo, now hath he taken my blessing. Also he said, Hast thou not reserued a blessing for me?

h For Izhák did this as he was the minister and Prophet of God.

37 Then Izhák answered, and said vnto Esau, Beholde, I haue made him thy lord, and all his brethren haue I made his seruantes: also with wheat and wine haue I furnished him, and vnto thee now what shal I do, my sonne?

38 The Esau said vnto his father, Hast thou but one blessing my father? blesse me, euen me also, my father: and Esau lifted vp his voyce, and * wept.

Gen. 12. 16.

39 Then Izhák his father answered, and said vnto him, Beholde, the farnes of the earth shal be thy dwelling place, and thou shalt haue of the dewe of heauen from aboue.

40 And by thy sworde shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers k seruant. But it shal come to passe, when thou shalt get the mastery, that thou shalt breake his yoke from thy necke.

41 ¶ Therefore Esau hated Iakób, because of the blessing, wherewith his father blessed him. And Esau thought in his minde, * The dayes of mourning for my father wil come shortly, l then I wil slay my brother Iakób.

42 And it was tolde to Rebekáh of the wordes of Esau her elder sonne, and she sent to call Iakób her yonger sonne, and said vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Esau is comforted against thee, m meaning to kill thee:

m He harbe good hope to recover his birthright by killing thee.

43 Now therefore my sone, heare my voyce: arise, and flee thou to Harán to my brother Labán,

44 And tary with him a while vntil thy brothers fearcenes be swaged,

45 And til thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the things, which thou hast done to him: then wil I send and take thee from thence: why shulde I be n depriued of you bothe in one day?

46 Also Rebekáh said to Izhák, * I am weary of my life, for the o daughters of Heth. If Iakób take a wife of the daughters of Heth like these of the daughters of the land, p what auaieth it me to liue?

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Izhák forbiddeth Iakób to take a wife of the Canaanites. 6 Esau taketh a wife of the daughters of Ishmael against his fathers wil. 12 Iakób in the way to Harán seeth a ladder reaching to heauen. 14 Christ is promised. 20 Iakób asketh of God onely meat and clothing.

1 Then Izhák called Iakób and a blessed him, and charged him, and said vnto him, Take not a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

a This seconde blessing was to confirme Iakobs faith, lest he shuld thinke that his father had giuen it without Gods motion.

2 Arise, * get thee to * Padán Arám to the house of Bethuél thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Labán thy mothers brother.

3 And God b all sufficiēt blesse thee, & make thee to encrease, & multiplie thee, that thou maiest be a multitude of people,

b The godlie fathers were put in minde continually, that they were but strangers in this world: to trust thei shulde lift vp their eyes to the heauen where they shulde haue a sure dwelling.

4 And giue thee the blessing of Abraham, euen to thee & to thy seed with thee, that thou maiest inherit the lād (wherein thou art a b stranger) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

Thus

- 5 Thus Izhák sent forth the Iaakób, and he went to Padán Arám vnto Labán sonne of Bethuél the Aramite, brother to Rebekáh, Iaakobs and Esaus mother.
- 6 ¶ Whē Esau sawe that Izhák had blessed Iaakób, and sent him to Padán Arám, to fet him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,
- 7 And that Iaakób had obeyed his father & his mother, & was gone to Padán Arám:
- 8 Also Esau being y the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhák his father,
- 9 Then went Esau to Ishmaél, & toke vnto y wiuēs, which he had, Mahaláth the daughter of Ishmaél Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabaióth, to be his wife.
- 10 ¶ Now Iaakób departed frō Beer-sheba, and went to Harán,
- 11 And he came vnto a certē place, & tarried there all night, because y sonne was downe, and toke of the stones of the place and laied vnder his head and slept in the same place.
- 12 Then he dreamed, and beholde, there stode a ladder vpon the earth and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and lo, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it.
- 13 ¶ And beholde, the Lord stode about it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, & the God of Izhák: the land, vpon the which thou sleepest, wil I giue thee and thy sede.
- 14 And thy sede shal be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spreade abroad* to y West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy sede shal all the families of the earth be blessed.
- 15 And lo, I am with thee, & wil kepe thee whither soeuer thou goest, and wil bring thee againe into this land: for I wil not forsake thee vntil I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee.
- 16 ¶ Then Iaakób awoke out of his slepe, and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.
- 17 And he was afraid and said, How fearful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heauen.
- 18 Then Iaakób rose vp early in the morning, and toke the stone that he had laied vnder his head, and set it vp as a pillar, and powred oyle vpon the top of it.
- 19 And he called the name of that place Beth-él: notwithstanding the name of the cite was at the first called Luz.
- 20 Then Iaakób vowed a vowe, saying, If God wil be with me, and wil kepe me in this iourney which I go, and wil giue me bread to eat, and clothes to put on:
- 21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safety, then shal the Lord be my God.
- 22 And this stone, w I haue set vp as a pillar, shal be Gods house: & of all that y shal giue me, wil I giue the tenth vnto thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

13 Iaakób commeth to Labán and serueth seuen yere for Rahél. 23 Leah broght to his bed in fiede of Rahél. 29 He serueth seuen yere more for Rahél. 32 Leah conceiueth and beareth foure sonnes.

- 1 Then Iaakób lift vp his fete, and came into the East countre.
- 2 And as he looked about, beholde there was a well in the field, and lo, thie flockes of shepe lay thereby (for at that well were y flockes watered) and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouthe.
- 3 And thither were all y flockes gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouthe, and watered the shepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouthe in his place.
- 4 And Iaakób said vnto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Harán.
- 5 Then he said vnto them, Knowe ye Labán the sonne of Nahór? Who said, We knowe him.
- 6 Again he said vnto them, Is he i good helth? And they answered, He is in good helth, and beholde, his daughter Rahél commeth with the shepe.
- 7 Thē he said, Lo, it is yet hie day, nether is time y the cattel shulde be gathered together: watter ye the shepe & go fede thē.
- 8 But they said, We may not vntil all the flockes be broght together, & til that men rolle the stone frō the welles mouth, that we may watter the shepe.
- 9 ¶ While he talked with them, Rahél also came w her fathers shepe, for she kept thē.
- 10 And as sone as Iaakób sawe Rahél the daughter of Labán his mothers brother, and the shepe of Labán his mothers brother, thē came Iaakób nere, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Labán his mothers brother.
- 11 And Iaakób kissed Rahél, and lift vp his voyce and wept.
- 12 (For Iaakób tolde Rahél, that he was her fathers brother, & that he was Rebekahs sonne) then she ran and tolde her father.
- 13 And whē Labán heard tel of Iaakób his sisters sonne, he ran to mete him, and embraced him and kissed him, & broght him to his house: and he tolde Labán all these things.
- 14 To whome Labán said, Wel, thou art my bone and my flesh, and he abode with him the space of a moneth.
- 15 ¶ For Labán said vnto Iaakób, Thogh thou be my brother, shuldest thou there-

& said, Come in to me, for I haue bought and payed for thee with my sonnes man-

18 The said Leáh, God hathe giuen me my rewarde, because I gaue my maide to my housband, & she called his name Issachár.

19 After, Leáh conceived againe, and bare Iaakób the sixt sonne.

20 The Leáh said, God hathe endued me wth a good dowrie: now wil mine housbād dwell with me, because I haue borne him six sones: & she called his name Zebulún.

21 After that, she bare a daughter, and she called her name Dináh.

22 ¶ And God remembred Rahél, and God heard hei, and opened hei wombe.

23 So she conceived and bare a sonne, and said, God hathe taken away my rebuke.

24 And she called his name Ioséph, saying, The Lord wil giue me yet another sonne.

25 ¶ And as Rahél had borne Ioséph, Iaakób said to Labán, Séd me away that I may go vnto my place and to my countrey.

26 Giue me my wiues and my children, for whome I haue serued thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.

27 To whome Labán answered, If I haue now founde fauour in thy sight, tarry: I haue perceiued that the Lord hathe blessed me for thy sake.

28 Also he said, Appoint vnto me thy wages, and I wil giue it thee.

29 But he said vnto hi, Thou knowest, what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattel hathe bene vnder me.

30 For the litle, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hathe blessed thee by my coming: but now whe shal I triuel for mine owne house also?

31 Then he said, What shal I giue thee? And Iaakób answered, Thou shalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I wil returne, fede, and kepe thy shepe.

32 I wil passe though all thy flockes this day, and separat from them all the shepe with litle spotted and great spotted, & all blacke lambes among the shepe, and the great spotted, and litle spotted among the goates: and it shal be my wages.

33 So shal my righteousness answere for me hereafter, when it shal come for my rewarde before thy face, & euery one that hathe not litle or great spotted among the goates, and blacke among the shepe, the same shal be theft with me.

34 Then Labán said, Go to, wolde God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore he toke out the same day the he goates that were party coloured and with great spotted, and all the she goates with litle and great spotted, and all y^e had white in the, and all the blacke among y^e shepe, & put the in y^e keeping of his sonnes.

36 And he set thre dares iourney betwene him selfe and Iaakób. & Iaakób kept the rest of Labans shepe.

37 ¶ Then Iaakób toke rodde of grene poplar, and of hasel, and of the chefnut tre, and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in the rodde.

38 Then he put y^e rodde, which he had pilled, in the gutters and watering troughes, when the shepe came to drinke, before y^e shepe: (for they were in heate, when they came to drinke)

39 And the shepe were in heate before the rodde, & afterward brought forth the yong of party colour, and with smale & great spotted.

40 And Iaakób parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards these lambes party coloured and all maner of blacke, among the shepe of Labán: so he put his owne flockes by them selues, & put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in euery ramming tyme of the stronger shepe, Iaakób laied the rodde before the eyes of the shepe in the gutters y^e they might conceiue before the rodde.

42 But when the shepe were feble, he put them not in: and so y^e febler were Labans, and the stronger Iaakobs.

43 So the man encreased exceedingly, and had manie flockes, and made seruants, and men seruants, and camels and asses.

1 Labans children murmure against Iaakób 3 God commandeth him to returne to his countrey 14 The care of God for Iaakób 19 Rahél stealeth her fathers idoles. 23 Laban followeth Iaakób. 44 The covenant betwene Laban and Iaakób.

1 NOW he heard the wordes of Labáns sonnes, saying, Iaakób hathe takē away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hathe he gottē all this honour.

2 Also Iaakób behelde the countenance of Labán, that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had said vnto Iaakób, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinred, and I wil be with thee.

4 Therefore Iaakób sent and called Rahél and Leáh to the field vnto his flocke.

5 The said he vnto them, I fe your fathers countenance, that it is not towards me as it was wonte, and the God of my father hathe bene with me.

6 And ye knowe that I haue serued your father with all my might.

7 But your father hathe deceiued me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffred him not to hurt me.

43 Then Labán answered, & said vnto Iaakób, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these shepe are my shepe, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I do this day vnto these my daughters, or to their sonnes which they haue borne?

ⁱ His conscience reproveth him of his misbehaviour toward Iaakób and therefore moued him to seke peace

44 Now therefore come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witness betwene me and thee.

CHAP. XXXII.

¹ God comforteth Iaakób by his Angels. ^{p. 10} He prayeth vnto God confessing his Unworthines. ¹³ He sendeth presents vnto Esáu. ^{24 25} He wrestled with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

^a He acknowledgeth Gods benefits: who for the preservation of his seedeth hostes of Angels.

² And when Iaakób sawe them, he said, ^a This is Gods host, & called the name of the same place ^o Mahanáim.

³ Then Iaakób sent messengers before him to Esáu his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the countrey of Edóm:

⁴⁰ Or, friend

⁴ To whome he gaue commandemēt, saying, Thus shal ye speake to my ^b lord Esáu: Thy seruant Iaakób saith thus, I haue bene a stranger with Labán & taried vnto this time.

^b He reuerenced his brother in worldly things, because he chafely looked to be preferred to ^y spiritual promise.

⁵ I haue beues also & asses, shepe, & men seruantes, and women seruantes, and haue sent to shewe my lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

⁷ Then Iaakób was ^c greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, & deuided the people that was with him, and the shepe, and the beues, and the camels into two ^c companies.

⁸ For he said, if Esáu come to the one companie and smite it, the other companie shal escape.

¶ Moreover Iaakób said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Izhák: Lord, which saidest vnto me, Returne vnto thy countrei & to thy kined, and I wil do thee good,

¹⁰ I am not ^o worthe of the least of all the mercies & all the truth, which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: For ^w my ^d staffe came I ouer this Iordén, and now haue I gotten two bandes.

²⁰ I am less than all thy mercies.

¹¹ I pray thee, Deliuer me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esáu: for I feare him, lest he wil come and smite me, & the ^e mother vpon the children.

- 28 Then said he, *Thy name shal be called Iaakób no more, but Israël: because thou hast had * power with God, thou shalt also preuaile with men.
- 29 Then Iaakób demāded, saying, Tel me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now dost thou aske my name? And he blessed him there.
- 30 And Iaakób called the name of the place, Peniél: for, said he, I haue sene God face to face, and my life is preserued.
- 31 And the sunne rose to him as he passed Peniél, and he halted vpon his thigh.

- 7 Leah also with her children came nere and made obeisance, and after Ioseph & Rahél drewe nere and did reuerence.
- 8 Then he said, What meanest thou by all this droue, which I met? Who answered, I haue sent it, that I mase finde fauour in y sight of my lord.
- 9 And Esau said, I haue ynough, my brother: kepe that thou halt to thy selfe.
- 10 But Iaakób answered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue founde grace now in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hand: for I haue sene thy face, as though I had sene the face of God, because thou hast accepted me.
- 11 I praie thee take my blessing, that is brought thee: for God hathe had mercie on me, & therefore I haue all things: so he compelled him, and he toke it.
- 12 And he said, Let vs take our iourney & go, and I wil go before thee.
- 13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tendre, and the ewes & kine with yong vnder mine hād: & if they shulde ouerdriue them one day, all the flocke wolde dye.
- 14 Let now my lord go before his seruāt, and I wil driue softly, according to the passe of the cattel, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, vntil I come to my lord vnto Seir.

e Their faulte is the greater, in that they make religion a cloke for their craft.

Whome when Shechém the sonne of Hamó the Hiuite lord of that countrie sawe, he toke her, and lay wth her, & defiled her.

So his heart claue vnto Dináh y^e daughter of Iaakób: and he loued the maide, & spake kindly vnto the maide.

Thē said Shechém to his father Hamór, saying, Get me this maide to wife.

(Now Iaakób heard that he had defiled Dináh his daughter, and his sonnes were with his cattel in y^e field: therefore Iaakób helde his peace, vntil they were come)

¶ Then Hamó the father of Shechém went out vnto Iaakób to commune with him.

And when the sonnes of Iaakób were come out of the field and heard it, it grieved the men, & they were very angrie, because he had wrought vilennie in Israël, in that he had liē with Iaakobs daughter: which thing ought not to be done.

And Hamór comuned with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechém longeth for your daughter: giue her him to wife, I pray you.

So make affinitie wth vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you,

And ye shal dwel with vs, and the land shal be before you: dwel, and do your busines in it, and haue your possessions therein.

Shechém also said vnto her father and vnto her brethren, Let me finde fauour in your eyes, and I wil giue whatsoeuer ye shal appoint me.

Aske of me abundantly bothe dowrie and giftes, & I wil giue as ye appoint me, so that ye giue me the maide to wife.

Thē the sonnes of Iaakób answered Shechém and Hamór his father, talking among them selues deceitfully, because he had defiled Dináh their sister,

And they said vnto them, We can not do this thing, to giue our sister to an vn-circumcised man: for that were a reprofe vnto vs.

But in this wil we consent vnto you, if ye wil be as we are, that euerie mā childe among you be circumcised:

Then wil we giue our daughters to you, and we wil take your daughters to vs, and wil dwel with you, and be one people.

But if ye wil not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then wil we take our daughter & departe.

Now their wordes pleased Hamór, and Shechém Hamors sonne.

And the yong man deferred not to do the thing because he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was also the moste set by of all his fathers house.

¶ Then Hamór and Shechém his sonne went vnto the gate of their citie, & com- muned with the men of their citie, saying,

These men are peaceable with vs: & y^e they may dwel in the land, and do their affaires therein (for beholde, the land hath roume ynough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

Onely herein wil y^e men consent vnto vs for to dwel with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised.

Shal not their flockes and their substance and all their cattel be ours: onely let vs consent herein vnto thē, and they wil dwel with vs.

And vnto Hamór, & Shechém his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumcised, euē all that went out of the gate of his citie.

And on the thurd day (when thē were fore) two of the sonnes of Iaakób, Simeón and Leui, Dinahs brethren toke e- ther of them his sworde & went into the citie boldely, and slewe euerie male.

Thei slewe also Hamór and Shechém his sonne with the edge of the sworde, & toke Dináh out of Shechems house, and went their way.

Againe the other sonnes of Iaakób came vpon the dead, and spoiled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.

Thei toke their shepe, and their beues, and their asses, and whatsoeuer was in the citie, and in the fields.

Also they caried away captiue and spoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wiues, and all that was in the houses.

Then Iaakób said to Simeón and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, & made me stinke among the inhabitants of the land, as wel the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being fewe in nombre, they shal gather them selues together against me, and slay me, and so shal I, and my house be destroyed.

And they answered, Shulde he abuse our sister as a whore?

^c For therein was some signe of superstition as in tablets & Augurs deis.

^d Thus, not withstanding his incommenca. 3 came before, God deli-uered Iaakób.

Chap. 28. 19.

Chap. 32. 28.

^f Or, almighty.

^g As God is said to defend, when he sheweth some signe of his presence: so he is said to defend, when his vision is ended.

^h The Hebrew word signifieth as much ground as one may goe to bayte to bayte, & is take for halfe a days journey.

Then ^a God said to Iaakób, Arise, go vp to Beth-él & dwel there, & make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee, ^{*} whē thou fleddest from Esāu thy brother.

2 Then said Iaakób vnto his housholde & to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, & ^b cleanse your selues, and change your garments:

3 For we wil rise and go vp to Beth-él, and I wil make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulacion, & was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iaakób all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their ^c earings which were in their eares, and Iaakób hid them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their journey, and the ^d feare of God was vpon the cities, that were round about them: so that they did not followe after the sonnes of Iaakób.

6 ¶ So came Iaakób to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Beth-él) he and all the people that was with him.

Chap. 28. 19. 7 And he buylt there an altar, & ^{*} had called the place, The God of Beth-él, because that God appeared vnto him there, whē he fled from his brother.

8 Then Deborah Rebekahs nurse dyed, and was buried beneth Beth-él vnder an oke: and he called the name of it ^e Allón bachúth.

9 ¶ Againe God appeared vnto Iaakób, after he came out of Padán Arám, and blessed him.

10 Moreouer God said vnto him, Thy name is Iaakób: thy name shal be no more called Iaakób, but ^{*} Israel shal be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 Againe God said vnto him, I am God ^f all sufficiēt. growe, & multiplie: a nation & a multitude of natiōs shal sprig of thee, and Kings shal come out of thy loynes.

12 Also I wil giue ^g land, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhák, vnto thee: & vnto thy fede after thee wil I giue that land.

13 So God ^{*} ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Iaakób set vp a pillar in the place where he talked with him, a pillar of stone, and powred drinke offering thereon: also he powred oyle thereon.

15 And Iaakób called the name of the place, where God spake with him, Beth-él.

16 ¶ Then they departed from Beth-él, & whē there was about halfe a daies journey of ground to come to Ephrath, Rahel traualled, and in trausiling she was in peril.

17 And when she was in peines of her labour, the midwife said vnto her, Feare not: for thou ^h shalt haue this sonne also.

18 Then as she was about to yelde vp the goste (for she dyed) she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Beniamin.

19 Thus dyed Rahel, & was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-léhem.

20 And Iaakób set a ^{*} pillar vpon her graue: This is the pillar of Rahels graue vnto this day.

21 ¶ The Israel went forward, & pitched his tent beyonde Migdal-éder.

22 Now, when Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went, and ^b laye ^{*} with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Isaacs eare. And Iaakób had twelue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Leah: Reuben Iaakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, & Leui, & Iudáh, & Issachar, & Zebulun.

24 The sonnes of Rahel: Ioseph and Beniamin.

25 And ^g sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maide: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs maide: Gad and Asher. these are the sonnes of Iaakób, which were borne him in Padán Arám.

27 ¶ Then Iaakób came vnto Izhák his father to Mamré a citie of Arbáh: this is Hebrón, where Abraham and Izhák were strangers.

28 And the dayes of Izhák were an hundred and foure score yeres.

29 And Izhák gaue vp the goste and dyed, and was ^{*} gathered vnto his people, being olde and ful of daies: & his sonnes Esāu and Iaakób buried him.

CHAP. XXXVI.

^a The wives of Esāu. ⁷ Iaakób and Esāu are riche. ⁹ The genealogie of Esāu. ²⁴ The finding of mules.

1 Now these are the ^a generations of Esāu, which is Edóm.

2 Esāu toke his wiues of the ^b daughters of Canaan: Adáh the daughter of Elón an Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anáh, the daughter of Zibeón an Hiuite.

3 And toke Basemath Ishmaels daughter, sister of Nebaióth.

4 And ^{*} Adáh bare vnto Esāu, Elipház: & Basemath bare Reuel.

5 Also Aholibamah bare Ieúsh, & Iaalám, and Kórah: these are the sonnes of Esāu which were borne to him in the land of Canaan.

6 So Esāu toke his wines and his sonnes, & his daughters, & all the soules of his house, and his flockes, and all his cattel, and all his substance, which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, & ^{*} went into an other countrei from his brother Iaakób.

7 For their riches were so great that they colde not dwel together, & the land, wherein they were strangers, colde not receiue them because of their flockes.

^g The ancients vied this ceremonie to testifie their hope of the resurrection to come, which was not generally reucaled.

^h This teacheth that the fathers were not chosen for their merites, but by Gods onely mercies, whose electiō by their fauours was not changed.

olde age, and he made him a coate of many colours.

4 So when his brethren sawe that their father loued him more then all his brethré, then thei hated him, and colde not speake peaceably vnto him.

e God reuiled to him by a dreame, what shulde come to passe.

5 ¶ And Ioséph dreamed a dreame, and tolde his brethren, who hated him so muche the more.

6 For he said vnto thei, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Beholde now, we were binding sheues in y^e middes of the field: & lo, my shefe arose and also stode vpright, & beholde, your sheues compassed rounde about, and did reuerence to my shefe.

8 Then his brethren said to him, What, shalt thou reigne ouer vs, and rule vs? or shalt thou haue altogether dominioⁿ ouer vs? And thei^d hated him so muche the more, for his dreames, & for his wordes.

d The more y^e God sheweth him selfe fauorable to his, y^e more doeth the malice of y^e wicked rage against them.

9 ¶ Againe he dreamed an other dreame, & tolde it his brethren, & said, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the sunne and the moone and eleuen starres did reuerence to me.

e Not despising the vision, but seeking to appease his brethren

10 Then he tolde it vnto his father & to his brethren, and his father rebuked him, & said vnto him, What is this dreame, which thou hast dreamed? shal I, & thy mother, and thy brethren come in dede and fall on the grounde before thee?

11 And his brethren enuied him, but his father^d noted the saying.

Or, kept diligently

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to kepe their fathers shepe in Shechem.

f He knewe that God was auctor of the dreame, but he understood not the meaning 13 And Israël said vnto Ioséph, Do not thy brethren kepe in Shechem? come & I will send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Then he said vnto him, Go now, se whether it be wel with thy brethren, and how the flockes prosper, and bring me worde againe. so he sent him from the vale of Hebrion, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ Then a man founde him: for lo, he was wandring in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What sekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seke my brethren: tel me, I pray thee, where they kepe sheps.

17 And the man said, Thei are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let vs go vnto Dothan. Then went Ioséph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when thei saw him a far of, euen before he came at them, thei conspired against him for to slaie him.

19 For thei said one to an other, Beholde, this^r dreamer commeth.

g The holy Ghost couereth not mens fautes, as do vain writers & make vice vertue.

Or, master of dreames.

20 Come now therefore, & let vs slaie him, and cast him into some pit, & we wil say, A wicked beast hath deuoured him: the we shal se, what wil come of his dreames.

21 *But whē Reubén heard that, he deliuered him out of their hands, & said, "Let vs not kil him."

Chap. 43. 22. "Ely let vs not smite his life."

22 Also Reubén said vnto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wildernes, & lay no hand vpon him. Thus he said, that he might deliuer him out of their hand, and restore him to his father againe.

23 ¶ Now when Ioséph was come vnto his brethré, thei stript Ioséph out of his coate, his particoloured coate y^e was vpon him.

24 And thei toke him, & cast hⁱ into a pit, & the pit was empty, without water in it.

h Their hypocritie appeareth in this y^e thei feared mā more than God: & thought it was not murther, if thei shed not his blood: or els had an excuse to couer their faule.

25 Then thei sat them downe to eat bread: and thei lift vp their eyes and looked, and beholde, there came a company of Ishmeelites from Gileád, and their camels laden with spicerie, and rosen, and myrrhe, and were going to carie it downe into Egypt.

26 The Iudáh said vnto his brethré, What auaieth it, if we slaie our brother thogh we kepe his blood secret?

27 Come and let vs sel him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hands be vpon him: for he is our brother & our flesh: and his brethren obeyed.

28 The^e the^e Midianites marchāt men passed by, and thei drewe forthe, and lift Ioséph out of the pit, and solde Ioséph vnto theⁱ Ishmeelites for twentie pieces of silver: who brought Ioséph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reubén returned to y^e pit, and beholde, Ioséph was not in the pit: the^e he rent his clothes, 30 And returned to his brethré, & said, The childe is not y^eder, & I, whether shal I go?

31 And thei toke Iosephs coate, and killed a kid of the goates, and depped the coate in the blood.

32 So thei sent that particoloured coate, & thei brought it vnto their father, & said, This haue we foude: se now, whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

33 Then he knew it and said, It is my sonnes coat: a wicked beast hath^e deuoured him: Ioséph is surely torne in pieces.

Chap. 44. 28.

34 And Iakób rēt his clothes, & put sackcloth about his loynes, & sorowed for his sonne a long season.

35 Then all his sonnes & all his daughters rose vp to cōforte him, but he wolde not be comforted, but said, "Surely I wil go downe into y^e graue vnto my sōne mourning: so his father wept for him.

Or, I wil mourne for him so long as I liue.

⁶ The Iudáh toke a wife to Er his first borne sonne whose name was Tamar.

⁷ ^{*} Now Er y^e first borne of Iudáh was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slewe him.

⁸ Then Iudáh said to Onán, Go in vnto thy brothers wife, and do the office of a kinsman vnto her, & raise ^cvp sede vnto thy brother.

⁹ And Onán knewe y^e the sede shulde not be his: therefore when he wēt in vnto his brothers wife, he spilled it on the groude, lest he shulde giue sede vnto his brother.

¹⁰ And it was wicked in the eyes of y^e Lord, which he did: wherfore he slewe him also.

¹¹ Then said Iudáh to Tamar his daughter in lawe, ^dRemaine a widowe in thy fathers house, til Sheláh my sonne growe vp (for he thought thus, Lest he die aswel as his brethren) So Tamar went & dwelt in her fathers house.

¹² ¶ And in proceffe of time also the daughter of Shuáh Iudahs wife dyed. Then Iudáh, when he ^ehad left mourning, went vp to his shepe shepers to Timnáh, he, and his neighbour Hiráh the Adullamite.

¹³ And it was tolde Tamar, saying, Beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp to Timnáh, to there his shepe.

¹⁴ Then she put her widowes garmentes of from her, & couered her with a vaile, and wrapped her selfe, & fate downe in ^fPerháh-enáim, w^h is by the way to Timnáh, because she sawe y^e Sheláh was grow-en, & she was not giue vnto him to wife.

¹⁵ When Iudáh sawe her, he iudged her an whore: for she had couered her face.

¹⁶ And he turned to the way, towards her,
& said, Come, I pray thee, let me lye with thee. (for he ^gknewe not that she was his daughter in lawe) And she answered,
What wilt thou giue me for to lie wth me?

¹⁷ Then said he, I wil send thee a kid of y^e goates from the flocke. & she said, Wel, if thou wilt giue me a pledge, til y^e send it.

¹⁸ Then he said, What is the pledge that I shal giue thee? And she answered, Thy signet, & thy ^hcloke, and thy staffe that is in thine hand. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and she was with childe by him.

¹⁹ Then she rose, and went & put her vaile fro her & put on her widowes raymēt.

²⁰ Afterward Iudáh sent a kid of the goates by the hād of his ⁱneighbour y^e Adul-lamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he founde her not.

²¹ Then asked he the mē of that place, saying, Where is y^e whore, that ^jsate in Enáim by y^e way side? And they answered, There was no whore here.

²² He came therefore to Iudáh againe, & said, I cā not finde her, & also the mē of y^e place said, There was no whore there.

²³ Then Iudáh said, Let her take it to her, lest we be ^kshamed: beholde, I sent this kid, and thou hast not founde her.

²⁴ ¶ Now after thre moneths, one tolde Iudáh, saying, Tamar thy daughter in lawe hathe playd the whore, and lo, with playing the whore, she is great with childe. Then Iudáh said, Bring ye her forth and let her be ^lburnt.

²⁵ When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, vnto whome these things ^mpertaine, am I with childe: & said also, Loke, I praye thee, whose these are, the seale, & y^e cloke, and y^e staffe.

²⁶ Then Iudáh knewe ⁿthem, and said, She is more righteous the I: for ^oshe hath done it because I gaue her nort to Sheláh my sonne. So he laye with her ^pno more.

²⁷ ¶ Now whē the time was come that she shulde be deliuered, beholde, there were twinnes in her wombe.

²⁸ And when she was in trauel, ^qthe one put out his hand: & the midwife toke and bounde a ^rred threde about his hand, saying, ne, lo, his brother came out, & ^tthe midwife said, How hast ^uthou broken the breache

7 ¶ Now therefore after these thigs, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Ioséph, and said, ^f Lye with me.

8 But he refused & said to his masters wife, Beholde, my master knoweth not what he hath in the hōuse with me, but hath cōmitted all that he hath to mine hand.

9 Therē is no man greater in this hōuse then I: nether hath he kept any thing frō me, but only thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickednes & so sinne againsts God?

10 And albeit she spake to Ioséph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her, to lye with her, or to be in her companie.

11 Then on a certeine day Ioséph entred into the hōuse, to do his busines: & there was no man of the hōusholde in the hōuse:

12 Therefore she caught him by his garment, sayig, Slepe wth me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, & got him out.

13 Now when she sawe that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out,

14 She called vnto the men of her hōuse, and tolde them, saying, Beholde, he hath brought iⁿ an Ebrewe vnto vs^e to mocke vs: who came into me for to haue slept with me: but I^h cryed with a loude voyce.

15 And when he heard y^e I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment with me, & fled away, and got him out.

16 So she layed vp his garment by her, vntill her lord came home.

17 Then she tolde him^g according to these wordes, saying, The Ebrewe seruant, wth thou hast brogt vnto vs, came into me to mocke me.

18 But asōne as I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garmēt wth me, & fled out.

19 Then when his master heard the wordes of his wife, which she tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruāt to me, his angre was kindled.

20 And Ioséphs master toke him and put him in^h iⁿ prison, in the place, where the Kings prisoners lay bounde: and there he was in prison.

21 ¶ But y^e Lord was with Ioséph, & shewed him mercie, and got him fauour in the sight of theⁱ master of the prison.

22 And the keper of the prison committed to Ioséphs hād all the prisoners that were in the prison, and^k whatsoeuer they did there, that did he.

23 And the keper of the prison loked vnto nothing that was vnder his hand, seing that the Lord^l was with him: for whatsoeuer he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

CHAP. XL.

8 The interpretation of dreames is of God. 12. 19. Ioséph expoundeth the dreames of the two prisoners. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

1 And after these thigs, the butler of y^e King of Egypt and his baker offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaōh was angry against his two officers, against the chief butler, and against the chief baker.

3 Therefore he put them in warde in his chief stuardes hōuse, in the prison and place where^m Ioséph was bounde.

4 And the chief stuarde gaue Ioséph charge ouer them, & he serued them; and they continued a season in warde:

5 ¶ And they bothe dreamed a dreame, ether of the his dreame in one night, ⁿ eche one according to y^e interpretation of his dreame, bothe y^e butler & the baker of the King of Egypt, wth were bounde in the prison.

6 And when Ioséph came in vnto them in the morning, and loked vpon them, beholde, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his masters warde, saying, Wherefore^o loke ye so sadly to day?

8 Who answered him, We haue dreamed, eche one a dreame, & there is none to interpret the same. Then Ioséph said vnto the, Are not interpretations of God^p tel them me now.

9 So the chief butler tolde his dreame to Ioséph, and said vnto him, In my dreame, beholde, a vine^q was before me,

10 And in the vine were thre branches, and as it budded, her floure came forth: & the clusters of grapes waxed ripe.

11 And I^r had Pharaohs cup in mine hand, & I toke the grapes, and wrong them into Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 Then Ioséph said vnto him, This^s is the interpretation of it: The thre branches are thre dayes.

13 Within thre dayes shal Pharaōh lift vp thine head, & restore thee vnto thine^t office, and thou shalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner, when y^e wast his butler.

14 But haue me in remembrāce with thee, when thou art in good case, & shewe mercie, I pray thee, vnto me, and^u make mencion of me to Pharaōh, that thou maiest bring me out of this hōuse.

17 And in the vppermost basket there was of all maner bakē meates for Pharaōh: & the birdes did eat them out of the basket vpon mine head.

18 Then Ioséph answered, & said, This is the interpretacion thereof: The three baskets are three dayes:

19 Within three daies shal Pharaōh take thine head from thee, & shal hang thee on a tre, and the birdes shal eat thy flesh from of thee.

20 ¶ And so the third day, which was Pharaōhs birth day, he made a feast vnto all his seruantes: and he lifted vp the head of the chief butler, and the head of the chief baker among his seruantes.

21 And he restored the chief butler vnto his butlership, who gaue the cup in to Pharaōhs hand, 22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Ioséph had interpreted vnto them.

CHAP. XLI.

26 Pharaōhs dreames are expounded by Ioséph. 40 He is made ruler ouer all Egypt: 51 He hath two sonnes: Manasséh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth shrougthout the worlde.

i Ebr. at the end of two yeres of dailie a This dreame was not so muche for Pharaōh, as to be a meane to deliuer Ioséph, and to prouide for his Church e Or, flaggy place.

1 And two yeres after, Pharaōh also dreamed, and beholde, he stode by a riuer,

2 And lo, there came out of the riuer seuen goodlie kine and fatfleshed, and thei fed in a meadow:

3 And lo, seuen other kine came vp after them out of the riuer, euilfaoured and leane fleshed, and stode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.

4 And the euilfaoured and leane fleshed kine did eat vp the seuen wel faoured & fat kine: so Pharaōh awoke.

b All these meanes God vsed to deliuer his seruante, & to bring him in to fauour and autoritie

5 Again he slept, and dreamed the second time: and beholde, seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, ranke and goodlie.

6 And lo, seuen thinne eares, & blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them:

c This feare was ynough to teache him, that this vision was sent of God

7 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke and full eares. then Pharaōh awaked, and lo, it was a dreame.

d The wife of the worlde vn derstand not Gods secrets, but to his seruantes his will is reueiled.
e He cōfesseth his faure against y King, before he speake of Ioséph.

8 Now when the morning came, his spirite was troubled: therefore he sent and called all the sothesaiers of Egypt, & ail the wise men thereof, and Pharaōh tolde them his dreames: but none colde interpret them to Pharaōh.

9 Then spake the chief butler vnto Pharaōh, saying, I call to minde my fautes this day.

10 Pharaōh being angry with his seruantes, put me in ward in the chief stuardes house, both me and the chief baker.

11 The we dreamed a dreame in one night, both I, and he: we dreamed eche man according to the interpretacion of his dreame.

12 And there was with vs a yong man, an Ebrewe, seruant vnto the chief stuarde, whome when we tolde, he declared our dreames to vs, to euerie one he declared according to his dreame.

f Read Chapter 40, 5.

13 And as he declared vnto vs, so it came to passe: for he restored me to mine office, and hanged him.

14 ¶ Then sent Pharaōh, and called Ioséph, and they brought him hastily out of prison, and he shaued him, and changed his raiment, and came to Pharaōh.

g Psal. 105. 20. f The wicked seke to y Prophets of God in their necessity, whome in their piperie they abhorre.

15 Then Pharaōh said to Ioséph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interpret it.

16 And Ioséph answered Pharaōh, saying, Without me God shal answer for the welth of Pharaōh.

g As though he wolde say, If I interpret thy dreame, it cometh of God & not of me.
h Ebr. answer peace.

17 And Pharaōh said vnto Ioséph, In my dreame, beholde, I stode by the banke of the riuer:

18 And lo, there came vp out of y riuer seuen fatfleshed, and wel faoured kine, and thei fed in the medow.

19 Also lo, seuen other kine came vp after them, poore and very euilfaoured, and leane fleshed: I neuer sawe the like in all the land of Egypt, for euilfaoured.

i Ebr. nanges.

20 And the leane and euilfaoured kine did eat vp the first seuen fat kine.

21 And when they had eaten them vp, it colde not be knowne that they had eaten them, but they were stil as euilfaoured, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

i Ebr. were gone into their inward partes.

22 Moreouer I sawe in my dreame, and beholde, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, full and faire.

23 And lo, seuen eares, withered, thinne, and blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares. Now I haue tolde the sothesaiers, and none can declare it vnto me.

25 ¶ Then Ioséph answered Pharaōh, Both Pharaōhs dreames are one. God hath shewed Pharaōh, what he is about to do.

h Bothe his dreames tend to one end.

26 The seuen good kine are seuen yeres, & the seuen good eares are seuen yeres: this is one dreame.

27 Likewise the seuen thinne and euil faoured kine, that came out after them, are seuen yeres: and the seuen emptie eares blasted with the East winde are seuen yeres of famine.

38 This is the thing, which I haue said vnto Pharaóh, that God hath shewed vnto Pharaóh, what he is aboute to do.

39 Beholde, there come seuen yeres of great^{or, abundance and fruitful.} plentie in all the land of Egypt.

40 Againe, there shal arise after them seuen yeres of famine, so that all the plentie shalbe forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shal consume the land:

31^{or, they shal remember as were the p^{er}is.} Nether shal the plentie be knowe in the land, by reason of this famine that shal come after: for it shalbe exceeding great.

32 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaóh the second time, because the thing is established by God, & God hateth to performe it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaóh prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisdom, & set him ouer the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaóh make and appoint officers ouer the land, and take vp the fiftte parte of y^e land of Egypt in y^e seuen plenteous yeres.

35 Also let them gather all the fode of the se good yeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharaóh for fode, in the cities, and let them kepe it.

36 So the fode shalbe for the prouision of the land, against the seuen yeres of famine, which shalbe in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine.

37 ¶ And y^e saying pleased Pharaóh and all his seruantes.

38 Then said Pharaóh vnto his seruantes, Can we finde suche a man as this, in whome is the^k Spirit of God?

39 The Pharaóh said to Ioséph, For as muche as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding, or of wisdom like vnto thee.

40^{¶ Psal 105, 21. 1. mac 2, 53. Act. 7, 10. ¶ For m^{er}it.} Thou shalt be ouer mine house, & at thy[¶] wordes shal all my people be armed, only in y^e Kings thron wil I be aboue thee.

41 Moreouer Pharaóh said to Ioséph, Beholde, I haue set thee ouer all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaóh toke of his[¶] ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, and araid him in garments of fine linen and put a golden chaine about his necke.

43 So he set him vpon the[¶] best charret that he had, saue one: & they cryed before him, m^{er} Abrech, and placed him ouer all the land of Egypt.

44 Againe Pharaóh said vnto Ioséph, I am Pharaóh; & without thee shal no man lift vp his hand or his foce in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaóh called Iosephs name[¶] Zaphnath-paaneáh: and he gaue him to wife Asenath y^e daughter of Poti-phérah[¶] prince of On. then went Ioséph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Ioséph was^a thirty yere olde wheⁿ he stode before Pharaóh King of Egypt: and Ioséph departing from the presence of Pharaóh, went through out all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeres the earthⁿ broght forth the store.

48 And he gathered vp all the fode of the seuen plenteous yeres, which were in the land of Egypt, and layed vp fode in the cities: the fode of the field, that was round about euery cite, layed he vp in the same.

49 So Ioséph gathered wheat, like vnto the sand of y^e sea in multitude out of measure, vntil he left nombring: for it was without nombre.

50 Now vnto Ioséph were borne[¶] two sonnes (before the yeres of famine came) w^h Asenath the daughter of Poti-phérah prince of On bare vnto him.

51 And Ioséph called the name of the first borne Manasséh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my labour & all my^o fathers householde.

52 Also he called the name of the seconde Ephraím: for God, said he, hath made me fruteful in the land of mine affliction.

53 ¶ So the seuen yeres of the plentie that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 ¶ The began the seuen yeres of famine to come, according as Ioséph had said: & the famine was in all landes, but in all the land of Egypt was[¶] bread.

55 At the length all the land of Egypt was affamished and the people cryed to Pharaóh for bread. And Pharaóh said vnto all the Egyptians, Go to Ioséph: what he saith to you, do ye.

56 When the famine was vpon all the land, Ioséph opened all places, wherein[¶] the store was and solde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countreis came to Egypt to bye corne of Ioséph, because the famine was fore in all landes.

24 Then he turned from them, and ^xwept, and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and toke Simeon from amôg them, and bounde him before their eyes.

25 ^y* So Ioséph commanded that thei shulde fille their sackes with wheat, and put euerie mans money againe in his sacke, & giue them vitaille for the iourney: and thus did he vnto them.

26 And they laied their vitaille vpon their asses, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asle prouandre in the ynne, he espied his money: for lo, it was in his sackes mouthē.

28 Then he said vnto his brethren, My money is restored: for lo, it is euen in my sacke. And their heart ^zfailed them, & they were ^aastonnished, and said one to an other, What is this, ^bthat God hathe done vnto vs?

^eBecause their conscience accused them of their sinne: they thoghe God wolde haue broght thē to trouble by this money.

29 ^f* And they came vnto Iaakób their father vnto the land of Canaan, and tolde him all that had befallen them, saying,

30 The man, ^gwho is lord of the land, spake roughly to vs, and put vs in prison as spies of the countrei.

31 And we said vnto him, We are true mē, and are no spies.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is ^hnot, and the yongest ⁱthis day with our father in the lād of Canaan.

33 Then the lord of the countrei said vnto vs, Hereby shal I knowe if ye be true mē: Leauē one of your brethren with me, and take fode for the famine of your houses & departe,

34 And bring your yongest brother vnto me, that I may knowe that ye are no spies, but true mē: ^lso wil I deliuer you your brother, and ye shal occupie in the land.

35 ^m* And as they emptied their sackes, beholde, euerie mans bundel of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father sawe the bûdels of their money, they were afraied.

36 Then Iaakób their father said to them, Ye haue robbed me of my childre: Ioséph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye wil take Bēiāmin: all these thiḡs ⁿare against ^ome.

37 Then Reubēn answered his father, saying, Slay my two sōnes, if I brig him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I wil bring him to thee againe.

^rFor they seemed not to be touched by any loue toward their brethren, & increased his sorowe: & partly as appeared he suspected them for Ioséph.

38 But he said, My sōne shal not go downe wth you: for his brother is dead, & he is left alone: if death come vnto him by ^sḡ way, which ye go, then ye shal bring my graie head with sorowe vnto the graue.

NOW great ^a famine was in the land. And when they had eaten vp the vitaille, which they had broght from Egypt, their father said vnto them, Turne againe, and bye vs a litle fode.

3 And Iudáh answered him, saying, The man charged vs by an othe, saying, * Neuer se my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with vs, we wil go downe, and by thee fode:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we wil not go downe: for the man said vnto vs, * Loke me not in the face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israël said, Wherefore delt ye so euil with me, as to tel the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?

7 And they answered, The man asked straitly of ^{our selues} and of our kinned, sayig, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye any brother? And we tolde him ^{according to these wordes: colde we knowe certainly y^e he wolde say, Bring your brother downe?}

9 I wil be suretie for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. * If I bring him not to thee, & set him before thee, ^{then let me beare the blame for euer.}

10 For except we had made this tarying, doutles by this we had returned the seconde time.

11 Then their father Israël said vnto them, If ^{it must needs be} so nowe, do thus: take of the best frutes of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a litle rosen, and a litle homie, ^{spices and myrrer, nuttes, and almondes:}

12 And take ^b double money in your hand, and the money, that was broght againe in your sackes mouthes: carie it againe in your hand, lest it were some ouer sight.

14 And ^c God almightie giue you mercie in the sight of the man, that he maie deliuer you your other brother, and Beniamín: but I shalbe ^d robbed of my childe, as I haue bene.

15 ¶ Thus ^y men toke this present, and toke twise so muche money in their hand with Beniamín, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt and stode before Ioséph.

16 And when Ioséph sawe Beniamín wth e, he said to ^{his sward}, Bing these men home and kil meat and make readie: for the men shal eat with me at noone.

17 And ^y man did as Ioséph bad, & broght the men vnto Iosephs house.

18 Now when the me were broght into Io-

19 Therefore came thei to Iosephs stuard, and communed with him at the dore of the house.

20 And said, Oh syr, ^{we came iⁿ dede downe} hether at the first time to bye fode, 21 And as we came to an ynne and opened our sackes, behold, euerie mans money was in his sackes mouth, ^{even} our money in ful weight, but we haue broght it againe in our hands.

22 Also other money haue we broght in o^r handes to bye fode, ^{but we cā not tel, who put our money in our sackes.}

23 And he said, Peace be vnto you, feare not: ^f your God and the God of your father hathe giuen you that treasure in your sackes, I had your money: and he broght forth the Simeón to them.

27 And he asked them of ^{their} prosperitie, and said, Is your father the olde man, of whome ye tolde me, in good health? is he yet aliue?

28 Who answered, Thy seruāt our father is in good helth, he is yet aliue: and they bowed downe, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifting vp his eies, behelde his brother Beniamín ³ mothers sonne, & said, Is this your yonger brother, of whome ye tolde me? And he said, God be merciful vnto thee, my sonne.

CHAP. XLIIII.

- 15 Ioseph accuseth his brother of theste. 33 Iudab offreth him selfe to be seruant for Beniamin.

1 A fterwarde he comanded his stuard, saying, Fil the mens sackes with fode, as muche as thei can cary, and put euerie mans money in his sackes mouthe.

2 And a put my cup, I meane the siluer cup, in the sackes mouthe of the yongest, and his corne money. And he did according to the commandement that Ioseph gaue him.

3 And in the morning the men were sent away, thei, and their asses.

4 And when thei went out of the citie not faire of, Ioseph said to his stuard, Vp, followe after the men: & whē thou doest ouertake them, say vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euil for good?

5 Is that not the cup, wherein my lord drinketh^b and in the which he doeth deuine and prophecie^c ye haue done euil in so doing.

6 ¶ And whē he ouertoke the, he said those wordes vnto them.

7 And thei answered him, Wherefore saiest my lord suche wordes? God forbid that thy seruants shulde do suche a thing.

8 Beholde, the money which we found in our sackes moutches, we brought againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then shulde we steale out of thy lordes house siluer, or golde?

9 With whome soeuer of thy seruants it be founde, let him dye, and we also wil be my lords bondmen.

10 And he said, Now then let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whome it is founde, shalbe my seruant, & ye shal be blameles.

11 Then at once euerie mā toke downe his sacke to the grounde, and euerie one opened his sacke.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest and left at the yongest: and the cup was founde in Beniamins sacke.

13 Then thei rent their clothes, and laded euerie man his asse, and went againe into the citie.

14 ¶ So Iudab & his brethren came to Iosephs house (so he was yet there) and thei sel before him on the grounde.

15 The Ioseph said vnto the, What acte is this, which ye haue done? Knowe ye not that suche a man as I, can deuine & prophecie?

16 Then said Iudab, What shal we say vnto my lord? what shal we speake? & how can we iustifie our selues? God hathe founde out the wickednes of thy seruantes: beholde we are seruants to my lord, bothe we, and he, with whome the cup is founde.

17 But he answered, God forbid, y I shulde do so, but the man, with whome the cup is founde, he shalbe my seruant, & go ye in peace vnto your father.

18 ¶ The Iudab drewe nere vnto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy seruant now speake a worde in my lords eares, and let not thy wrath be kindled against thy seruant: for thou art euen as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his seruants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, We haue a father that is olde, and a yong childe, which he begate in his age: and his brother is dead, & he alone is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 Now y saidest vnto thy seruants, Bring him vnto me, that I may set mine eie vpon him.

22 And we answered my lord, The childe can not departe from his father: for if he leaue his father, his father wolde dye.

23 Then saidest thou vnto thy seruants, Except your yonger brother come downe with you, loke in my face no more.

24 So when we came vnto thy seruant our father, and shewed him what my lord had said,

25 And our father said vnto vs, Go againe, bye vs a litle fode,

26 The we answered, We can not go downe: but if our yongest brother go with vs, then wil we go downe: for we may not se the mā face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 Then thy seruant my father said vnto vs, Ye knowe that my wife bate me two sonnes, 28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Of a surety he is toine in pieces, and I sawe him not since.

29 Now yet take this also away from me: if death take him, then ye shal bring my gray head in sorowe to the graue.

30 Now therefore, whē I come to thy seruant my father, and the childe be not with vs (seing that his life dependeth on the chilles life)

31 Then when he shal se that the childe is not come, he wil dye: so shal thy seruants bring the gray head of thy seruant our father with sorowe to the graue.

32 Doubtes thy seruant became suretie for the childe to my father, and said, If I bring him not vnto thee againe, the I wil beare the blame vnto my father for euer.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide for the childe, as a seruant to f.i.

THE SECONDE BOKE of Moſés, called Exodus.

THE ARGUMENT.

AFTER that Iaakób by Gods commandemēt Gen. 46. 3. had brought his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the ſpace of ſoure hundredeth yeres, and of ſeuenty perſones grew to an infinite nombre, ſo that the King and the countrey grudged and endeuored both by tyrannie and cruel ſlauey to ſuppreſſe them: the Lord according to his promes Gen. 15. 14. had compaſſion of his Church & deliuered them, but plagued their ennemies in moſte ſtrage and ſondry ſortes. And the more that the tyrānie of the wicked enraged againſt his Church, the more did his heavy iudgements increaſe againſt them, til Pharaōh & his armie were drowned in the ſame Sea, which gaue an entrie and paſſage to the childrē of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great ſo did they immediatly forget Gods wōderful benefites: & albeit he had giuen them the Paſſouer to be a ſigne & memorial of the ſame, yet they fel to diſtruſt, & tempted God with ſondry murmurings and grudgings againſt him and his miniſters: ſometime moved with ambition, ſometime for lacke of drinke or meate to cōtent their luſtes, ſometime by idolatrie or ſuche like. Wherefore God viſited them with ſharpe rodde and plagues that by his corrections they might ſeke to him for remedy againſt his ſcourges & earneſtly repent them for their rebellioſ & wickednes. And becauſe God loueth the to the end, whome he hathe once begōne to loue, he puniſhed the not according to their deſertes, but dealt with them in great mercies, and euer with newe benefites labored to ouercome their malice: for he ſtil gouerned them and gaue the his worde & Law, bothe cōcerning the maner of ſeruing him, & alſo the forme of iudgements and ciuil policie: to the intent that thei ſhulde not ſerue God after their owne inuention, but according to that ordre, which his heauenlie wiſdome had appointed.

e The more that God bleſſeth his, the more dooth he wicked murther them.

11 Therefore did they set taskmasters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burdens: and they buylt the cities Pithom & Raamses for the treasures of Pharaoh.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they multiplied and grewe: therefore they were more grieved against the children of Israël.

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie caused the children of Israël to serue.

e Or, when with rice ſerued the ſlaves of them by crueltie

14 Thus they made them weary of their liues by ſore labour in claye and in bricke, and in all worke in the field, with all manner of bondage, which they laied vpon them moſte cruelly.

15 Moreover the King of Egypt commanded the midwives of the Ebrewe women, (of which the ones name was ſ Simphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

16 And ſaid, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes & ſe them on their ſtollies, if it be a ſonne, thou ſhalt kil him: but if it be a daughter, then let her liue.

17 Notwithstanding the midwives feared God, & did not as the King of Egypt commanded them, but preſerued aliuie the me children.

18 Then the King of Egypt called for the midwives, & ſaid vnto the, Why haue ye done thus, and haue preſerued aliuie the men children?

h Their diſobediſſe herein was lawfull, but their diſſembling euill.

19 And the midwives answered Pharaoh, Because the Ebrewe women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuelie, and are deliuered yet the midwife come at the.

20 God therefore prospered the midwives, and the people multiplied & were very mightie.

21 And because the midwives feared God, therefore he made them houſes.

Then Mofes answered, and said, ^a But lo, thei wil not beleue me, nor hear- ken vnto my voyce: for thei wil say, The Lord hathe not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lord said vnto him, What is y^b in thine hād? And he answered, A rod. 3 Then said he, Cast it on the grounde. So he cast it on the grounde, and it was turned into a serpent: and Mofes fled from it.

4 Againe the Lord said vnto Mofes, Put forth the thine hād, and take it by the taile. Then he put forth the his hand and caught it, and it was turned into a rod in his hand.

5 Do this^b that thei may beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, & the God of Iaakób hathe appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Lord said furthermore vnto him, Thrust now thine hand into thy bo- some. And he thrust his hand into his bo- some, and when he toke it out againe, be- holde, his hand was^c leprous as snowe.

7 Moreouer he said, Put thine hand into thy bosome againe. So he put his hād into his bosome againe, & pluckt it out of his bosome, and beholde, it was turned agai- ne as his other flesh.

8 So shal it be, if thei wil not beleue thee, nether obey^d the voyce of the first signe, yet shal thei beleue for the voyce of the seconde signe.

9 But if thei wil not yet beleue these two signes, nether obey vnto thy voyce, then shalt thou take of the^e water of the ri- uer, and powie it vpon the drye land: so the water which thou shalt take out of the riuer, shalbe turned to blood vpon the drye land.

10 And Mofes said vnto the Lord, Oh my Lord, I am not eloquent, nether at any time haue bene, nor yet since thou haste spoken vnto thy seruant: but I am^f slow of speache and slow of tongue.

11 Then the Lord said vnto him, Who ha- the giuen the mouth to man? or who ha- the made the dōme, or the deafe, or him^g seeth, or the blinde? haue not I the Lord?

12 Therefore go now, and^h I wil be with thy mouth, & wil teache thee what thou shalt say.

13 But he said, Oh my Lord, send, I pray thee, by theⁱ hand of him, whome y^d shul- dest send.

14 Then the Lord was^j very angry with Mofes, and said, Do not I knowe Aarón thy brother the Leuite, that he him selfe shal speake for lo, he cometh also forth to mete thee, and when he seeth thee, he wilbe glad in his heart.

15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, & put these wordes in his mouth, and I wilbe with thy mouth, and w^k his mouth, and wil teache you what ye ought to do.

16 And he shalbe thy spokesman vnto the people: he shalbe, ^l enen he shalbe as thy mouth, & thou shalt be to him as^m God.

17 Moreouer yⁿ shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do miracles.

18 And therefore Mofes went and returned to Iethró his father in lawe, & said vnto him, I pray thee, let me go, and returne to my^o brethen, which are in Egypt, and se whethe: thei be yet aliue. Then Iethró said to Mofes, Go in peace.

19 (For the Lord had said vnto Mofes in Midian, Go, returne to Egypt: for thei are all dead which went about to kil thee)

20 Then Mofes toke his wife, and his son- nes, and^p put them on an asse, and retur- ned towarde the land of Egypt, & Mofes toke the^q rod of God in his hand.

21 And the Lord said vnto Mofes, When thou art entred and come into Egypt a- gaine, se that thou do all the wonders be- fore Pharaoh, which I haue put in thine hand: but I wil^r harden his heart, and he shal not let the people go.

22 Then thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my sonne, ^s my first borne.

23 Wherefore I say to thee, Let my sonne go, that he may serue me: if thou refuse to let him go, beholde, I wil slay thy sonne, ^t enen thy first borne.

24 And as he was by the way in the ynne, the Lord met him, and^u wolde haue kil- led him.

25 Then Zipporáh toke a sharpe knife, and cut away the fore skinne of her sonne, and cast it at his fete, and said, Thou art in dede a bloodie housband vnto me.

26 So he departed frō him. Then she said, O bloodie housband (because of the cir- cumcision)

27 And then the Lord said vnto Aarón, Go mete Mofes in the wilderness. And he wēt and met him in the^v Mount of God, and kissed him.

28 Then Mofes tolde Aarón all the wordes of the Lord, who had sent him, and all the signes wherewith he had charged him.

29 And so went Mofes and Aarón, & gathered all the Elders of the children of Israël.

30 And Aarón tolde all the wordes, which the

the Lord had spoken vnto Mofés, and he did the miracles in the sight of the people, ⁿ So that Mofés had now experience of Gods promes that he shulde haue good successe.

37 And the people beleued, and when they heard that the Lord had visited y^e children of Israël, and had looked vpon their tribulaciō, they bowed downe, & worshipped.

CHAP. V.

1 Mofés and Aarōn do their message to Pharaōh, who letteth not the people of Israël departe but oppresseth them more and more 20 They crye out vpon Mofés & Aarōn therefore, and Mofés complaineth to God.

^a Faith overcometh feare, and maketh men bolde in their vocatiō. ^b And offre sacrifice.

1 Then afterward Mofés & Aarōn went & said to ^a Pharaōh, Thus saith the Lord God of Israël, Let my people go, that they maie ^b celebrate a feast vnto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaōh said, Who is the Lord, y^e I shulde heare his voyce, & let Israël go? I knowe not the Lord, nether wil I let Israël go.

^c Or, God haith me.

3 And they said, We worship the God of y^e Ebiewes: we pray thee, suffre vs to go thre daies iournei in the desert and to sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, lest ^e he bring vpon vs the pestilence or sword.

4 Thē said the King of Egypt vnto them, Mofés and Aarōn, why cause ye the people to cease from their workes? get you to your burdens.

5 Pharaōh said furthermore, Beholde, muche people is now in the land, & ye ^e make them leaue their burdens.

6 Therefore Pharaōh gaue commādemēt the same day vnto the taskemasters of the people, and to their ^d officers, saying,

^d Which were of the Israēlites and had charge to see them do their worke.

7 Ye shal giue the people no more strawe, to make bricke (as in time past) but let them go and gather them straw them selues:

8 Notwithstanding lay vpon them the nōbre of bricke, which they made in time past, diminish nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore thei crye, saying, Let vs go to offre sacrifice vnto our God.

^e The more cruelly that tyrāts rage, y^e merer is Gods helpe of O^r Mofés & Aarōn

9 Lay more worke vpon the men, and cause them to do it, and let them not regaide ^f vaine wordes.

10 ¶ Then went the taskemasters of y^e people & their officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaōh, I wil giue you no more straw.

11 Go your selues, get you straw where ye can finde it, yet shal nothing of your labour be diminished.

12 Then were the people scatred abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steede of straw.

^f For the worke of a day is his day

13 And the taskemasters hastid the, saying, Finish your dayes worke ^e euerie dayes taske, as ye did when ye had straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israël, which Pharaōhs taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making bricke yesterday and to day, as in times past?

15 ¶ Thē the officers of the childrē of Israël came, & cryed vnto Pharaōh, sayig, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruants?

16 There is no straw giuen to thy seruants, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and lo, thy seruants are beaten, and thy people is blamed.

^g Or, thy people the Egyptians are in tise fault.

17 But he said, Ye are to muche idle: therefore ye say, Let vs go to offre sacrifice to the Lord.

^h For idle, ye are idle

18 Go therefore now & worke: for there shal no straw be giuen you, yet shal ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Israël sawe thē selues in an euil case, because it was said, Ye shal diminish nothing of your bricke, nor of euerie daies taske, ⁱ Or, I shal find in them, wherof said.

20 ¶ And they met Mofés & Aarōn, which stode in their way as they came out from Pharaōh, 21 To whome they said, The Lord loke vpon you and iudge: for ye haue made our sauour to ^k stincke before Pharaōh & before his seruants, in that ye haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

^{Read. Gen. 34.30.}

^g It is a grieuous thing to the seruants of God to be accused of euil, specially of their brethren, when they do as their due-tye requireth.

22 Wherefore Mofés returned to y^e Lord, and said, Lord, why hast thou afflicted this people? wherefoie hast thou thus sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaōh to speake in thy Name, he hathe vexed this people, and yet thou hast not deliuered thy people.

CHAP. VI.

3 God reneweth his promes of the deliuerance of the Israēlites 9 Mofés speaketh to the Israelites, but they beleue him not. 10 Mofés and Aarōn are sent againe to Pharaōh 14 The genealogie of Reuben, Simeon, and Lewis, of whome came Mofés and Aarōn.

^h For in a strong hand.

2 Moreouer God spake vnto Mofés, and said vnto him, I am the Lord,

5 So I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israël, whome the Egyptians kepe in bondage, & haue remembered my couenant.

6 Wherefore say thou vnto the childre of Israël, I am the Lord, and I wil bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and wil deliuer you out of their bondage, and wil redeme you in a stretched out arme, and in great iudgements.

8 And I wil bring you into the land which I sware that I wolde giue to Abraham, to Izhák and to Iaakób, and I wil giue it vnto you for a possession: I am the Lord.

9 ¶ So Mofes tolde the children of Israël thus: but they hearkened not vnto Mofes, for anguish of spirit & for cruel bódage.

10 Then the Lord spake vnto Mofes, saying,

11 Go speake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that he let the children of Israël go out of his land.

12 But Mofes spake before y Lord, saying, Beholde, the children of Israël hearken not vnto me, how then shal Pharaoh heare me, which am of ^d vncircumcised lippes?

13 Then the Lord spake vnto Mofes and vnto Aaron, & charged them to go to the children of Israël and to Pharaoh King of Egypt, to bring the children of Israël out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the ^e heades of their fathers houses: the sonnes of Reubén the first borne of Israël are Hanóh and Pallú, Hezrón and Carmí: these are the families of Reubén.

15 Also the sonnes of Simeón: Iemuél & Iamín, & Ohád, and Iachín, & Zóar, and Shaúl the sonne of a Canaanitish womā: these are the families of Simeón.

16 ¶ These also are the names of the sonnes of Leui in their generacions: Gersón & Koháth and Merarí (and the yeres of the life of Leui were an hundreth thirty and seuen yere)

17 The sonnes of Gersón were Libní & Shimí by their families.

18 And the sonnes of Koháth, Amráam and Izhár, & Hebrón and Vzziel. (& Koháth liued an hundreth thirti and thre yere)

19 Also the sonnes of Merarí were Mahálí and Mushí: these are the families of Leui by their kinreds.

20 And Amráam toke Iochébed his ^g fathers sister to his wife, and she bare him Aaron and Mofes (and Amráam liued an hundreth thirty and seuen yere)

21 ¶ Also the sonnes of Izhár: ^h Kórah, & Népheg, and Zichrí.

22 And the sonnes of Vzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphán, and Sithí.

23 And Aaron toke Elifheba daughter of Aminadáb, sister of Nahashón to his wife, which bare him Nadáb, and Abihá, Eleazár and Ithamár.

24 Also the sonnes of Kórah: Afsír, & Elkanáh, & Abiafaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazár Aarons sonne toke him one of the daughters of Putiél to his wife, which bare him ⁱ Phinehás: these are the principal fathers of the Leuites through out their families.

26 These are Aa ón and Mofes to whome the Lord said, Bring the childre of Israël out of the land of Egypt, according to their ^k armies.

27 These are y Mofes & Aaron, w spake to Pharaoh King of Egypt, that they might bring the childre of Israël out of Egypt.

28 ¶ And at that time when the Lord spake vnto Mofes in the land of Egypt,

29 When the Lord, I say, spake vnto Mofes, saying, I am the Lord, speake thou vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt all that I say vnto thee, 30 Then Mofes said before the Lord, Beholde, I am of ^l vncircumcised lippes, and how shal Pharaoh heare me?

^k For their families were so great, y they might be compared to armies.

^l The disobedience both of Mofes and of y people sheweth y their deliuerance came onely of Gods fre mercie.

CHAP. VII.

¹ God hardeneth Pharaohs heart. 10 Mofes and Aaron do the miracles of the serpent, and the blood: and Pharaohs sorcerers do the like.

1 HÉ the Lord laid to Mofes, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaohs ^a God, & Aaron thy brother shal be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commanded thee: and Aaron thy brother shal speake vnto Pharaoh, that he suffre the children of Israël to go out of his land.

3 But I wil harden Pharaohs heart, and multiplie my miracles and my wondres in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shal not hearké vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, & bring out mine armies, ^b out my people, the childre of Israël out of the lād of Egypt, by great ^b iudgements.

5 Then the Egyptians shal know that I am y Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israël from among them.

6 So Mofes and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, ^c euen so did they.

7 (Now Mofes was ^c foure score yere olde, & Aaron foure score and thre, when they spake vnto Pharaoh)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken vnto Mofes and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharaoh speake vnto you, saying, Shewe a miracle for you, then y shalt say vnto Aa ón, Take thy rod & cast it before Pharaoh, and it shal be turned into a ^d serpēt.

10 ¶ Then went Mofes and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron caste forth his rod rod before Pharaoh and before his ser-

11 Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and forcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like maner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast downe euerie man his rod, and thei were turned into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, & he hearkned not to the, as the Lord had said.

14 ¶ The Lord then said vnto Moses, Pharaohs heart is obstinat, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Go vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (lo, he wil come vnto the water) & thou shalt stand & mete him by the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of y Ebrews hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serue me in the wilderness: & beholde, hither to thou woldest not heare.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord: beholde, I wil smite with the rod that is in mine hand vp-on y water that is in the riuer, & it shalbe turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the riuer shal dye, and the riuer shal stinke, & it shal greue y
Egyptiās to drinke of y water of y riuer.

19 ¶ The Lord then spake to Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, & stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their st. eames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their poudes, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shalbe blood, and there shalbe blood through out all y land of Egypt, bothe in vessels of wood, & of stone.

20 So Moses and Aaron did euē as the Lord commanded: * and he lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuer in y sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer, was turned into blood.

21 And the fish that was in the riuer dyed, and the riuer stanke: so that the Egyptiās colde not drinke of the water of the riuer:
and there was blood through out all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did likewise w their sorceries: & the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so y he did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had said.

23 Then Pharaoh returned, & wet againe into his house, nether did this yet entre into his heart.

24 All y Egyptiās the digged round about y riuer for waters to drinke. for they col-de not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And this continued fully seue daies after the Lord had smitten the riuer.

6 Frogges are sent. 13 Moses praith and they dye. 18
Lyce are set, whereby the forcerers acknowledge Gods power 24 Egypt is plagued with noysom flies. 30 Moses praith againe: 32 But Pharaohs heart is hardened.

1 Afterwarde the Lord said vnto Moses, Go vnto Pharaoh, and tel him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, y
they may serue me:

2 And if thou wilt not let them go, beholde, I wil smite all thy countrey with a frogges:

3 And the riuer shal scrall ful of frogges, which shal go vp and come into thine house: and into thy chambie, where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed, & into the house of thy seruants, and vpon thy people, and into thine ouens, and into thy knea-ding troghes.

4 Yea, the frogges shal climbe vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants.

5 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Say thou vnto Aaron, Stretch thine hand with thy rod vpon the streames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the podes, and cause frogges to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched his hand vpon the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the land of Egypt.

7 And y forcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and brought frogges vp vpon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses & Aaron, & said, Pray ye vnto the Lord that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people, & I wil let the people go, that they may do sacrifice vnto the Lord.

9 And Moses said vnto Pharaoh, As concerning me, euē commande when I shal praye for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroye the frogges fro thee and from thine houses, that they may remaine in the riuer onely.

10 The he said, To morowe. And he answered, Be it as y hast said, that thou maiest knowe, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.

11 So the frogges shal departe fro thee, & from thine houses, and from thy seruants, and from thy people: onely they shal re-mayne in the riuer.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cryed vnto the Lord concerning the frogges, which he had sent vnto Pharaoh.

13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: so the frogges dyed in the houses, in the townes, & in the fields.

14 And they gathered them together by heapes, and the land stanke of them.

griued him, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.

¶ The third plague.

16 ¶ Again the Lord said vnto Moſes, Say vnto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, & ſmite the duſt of the earth, that it may be turned to lye throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did ſo: for Aaron ſtretched out his hand with his rod, and ſmote the duſt of the earth: and lye came vpon man & vpon beaſt: all the duſt of the earth was lye throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 Now y^e enchaunters aſſaied likewise with their enchantments to bring forth the lye, but they^e coulde not. ſo the lye were vpon man and vpon beaſt.

e God confounded their wiſdome & auerſe in a thing moſte vile
f They acknowledged y^e this was done by Gods power and not by ſorcerie

19 Then ſaid y^e enchaunters vnto Pharaoh, Thiſ iſ the finger of God. But Pharaohs heart remained obſtinat, and he hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had ſaid.

20 ¶ Moreouer the Lord ſaid to Moſes, Riſe vp early in y^e morning, and ſtand before Pharaoh (ſo, he wil come forth vnto the water) & ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith y^e Lord, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

Or, a multitude of venomous beaſts, as ſcorpions, &c.

21 Els, if y^e wilt not let my people go, behold, I wil ſend^e ſwarms of flies bothe vpon thee, & vpon thy ſeruants, and vpon thy people, & into thine houſes: and the houſes of the Egyptiaſ ſhal be full of ſwarms of flies, and the grounde alſo whereon they are.

Or, I wil ſeparate.

22 But the land of Góſhen, where my people are, wil I cauſe to be^e wonderful in that day, ſo that no ſwarms of flies ſhal be there, y^e thou maielt knowe that I am the Lord in the middes of the earth.

Or, Land of R-22^{re}

23 And I wil make a deliuerance of my people from thy people: to morowe ſhal this miracle be.

¶ The fourth plague.

24 And the Lord did ſo: for there came great ſwarms of flies into the houſe of Pharaoh, and into his ſeruants houſes, ſo that through all the land of Egypt the earth was corrupt by the ſwarms of flies.

25 Then Pharaoh called for Moſes and Aaron, & ſaid, Go, do ſacrifice vnto your God in this land.

26 But Moſes answered, It is not mete to do ſo: for then we ſhulde offre vnto the Lord our God that, which iſ an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, can we ſacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and they not ſtone vs?

g For the Egyptians worſhipped diuers beaſts, as the ox, the ſhepe & ſuche like, & the Iſraelites offered in ſacrifice 27 Let vs go three daies journey in the deſert, & ſacrifice vnto the Lord our God, as he hath commanded vs.

h So y^e wicked preſcribe vnto Gods meſſengers how farre they ſhal go

28 And Pharaoh ſaid, I wil let you go, y^e ye may ſacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wildernes: but^e go not farre away, pray for me.

29 And Moſes ſaid, Beholde, I wil go out from thee, and pray vnto the Lord, that y^e ſwarms of flies may departe fro Pharaoh, from his ſeruants, and from his people to morowe: but let Pharaoh ſið henceforth^e deceiue no more, in not ſuffering y^e people to ſacrifice vnto the Lord.

30 So Moſes went out from Pharaoh and prayed vnto the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to y^e ſaying of Moſes, and the ſwarms of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his ſeruants, and fro his people, & there remained not one.

32 Yet Pharaoh^e hardened his heart euen then alſo, & did not let the people go.

i He coulde not iudge his heart, but yet he charged hi to do this vnfaindly

1 The moraine of beaſtes 10 The plague of botches & ſores 23 The horrible haile, thundre, and the lightening. 26 The land of Góſhen euer is excepted 27 Pharaoh confeſſeth his wickednes 33 Moſes prayeth for him, 35 Yet he obſtinat.

1 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Go to Pharaoh, and tel him, Thus ſaith y^e Lord God of the Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may ſerue me.

2 But if thou reſuſe to let them go, & wilt yet holde them ſtil,

3 Beholde, the hand of the Lord iſ vpon thy flocke which iſ in the field: for vpon y^e horſes, vpon the aſſes, vpon the camels, vpon the cattel, & vpon the ſhepe ſhal be a mighty great moraine.

4 And the Lord ſhal do^e wonderfully betwene the beaſtes of Iſraél, and the beaſtes of Egypt: ſo that there ſhal nothing dye of all, y^e pertaineth to the childre of Iſraél.

a He ſhal declare his beaue iudgement againſt his enemies, & his fauour toward his children.

5 And the Lord appointed a time, ſaying, Tomorowe the Lord ſhal finiſh this thing in this land.

6 So the Lord did it on the morowe, & all the cattel of Egypt dyed: but of the cattel of the children of Iſraél dyed not one.

7 Then Pharaoh^e ſent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattel of the Iſraelites dead: and the heart of Pharaoh was obſtinat, and he did not let the people go.

b In to the land of Góſhen, where the Iſraelites dwelled

8 ¶ And the Lord ſaid to Moſes & to Aaron, Take your handful of^e aſhes of the fornace, and Moſes ſhal ſprinkle them toward the heauen in the ſight of Pharaoh,

Or, imbreas.

9 And they ſhal be turned to duſt in all the land of Egypt: & it ſhal be as a ſcab breaking out into bliſters vpon man and vpon beaſt throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 Then they toke aſhes of the fornace, and ſtode before Pharaoh: and Moſes ſprinkled them toward the heauen, and there came a ſcab breaking out into bliſters vpon man, and vpon beaſt.

11 And the ſorcerers coulde not ſtand before Moſes, becauſe of y^e ſcab: for the ſcab was vpon the enchaunters, & vpon all the Egyptians.

 12 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not vnto the,
Chap. 4, 21. *as the Lord had said vnto Moses.
 13 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tel him, Thus saith the Lord God of y. Ebrewes, Let my people go, that they may serue me.
 14 For I wil at this time send all my plagues vpon ^c thine heart, and vpon thy seruants, & vpon thy people, that thou maiest know that there is none like me in all the earth.
 15 For now I wil stretche out mine hand, that I may smite thee & thy people with the pestilence: & thou shalt perish from the earth.
Rom. 8, 17. 16 And in dede, *for this cause haue I appointed thee, to ^d shewe my power in thee, & to declare my ^d Name throughout all the world.
Or, so shewe thee ^d That is, y all the world may magnifie my power in our coming thee
 17 Yet thou exaltest thy selfe against my people, and lettest them not go.
 18 Beholde, tomorrow this time I wil cause to raine a mightie great haile, suche as was not in Egypt since the fundatiō thereof was laid vnto this time.
 19 Send therefore now, and ^e gather thy cattel, and all that thou hast in the field: for vpon all the men, & the beastes, which are founde in the field, and not brought home, the haile shal fall vpon them and they shal dye.
 20 Suche ^e then as feared the worde of the Lord among the seruantes of Pharaoh, made his seruants & his cattel flee into the houses:
 21 But suche as ^e regarded not the ^f worde of the Lord, left his seruants, and his cattel in the field.
 22 ¶ And the Lord said to Moses, Stretche forth the thine had toward heauen, that there may be haile in all the land of Egypt, vpon man and vpon beast, and vpon all y herbes of the field in the land of Egypt.
 23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thundie & ^g haile, and ^g lightening vpon the ground: and the Lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.
 24 So there was haile, & fire mingled with the haile, so gineuous, as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt, since ^h it was a nation.
 25 And the haile smote throughout all the lād of Egypt all that was in y field, bothe man and beast: also the haile smote all y herbes of the field, and brake to pieces all the trees of the field.
 26 Onely in the land of Goshen (where the children of Isiael were) was no haile.
 27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aarōn, and said vnto them, I haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

 28 Pray ye vnto y Lord (for it is ynough) that there be no more mightie thunders & haile, and I wil let you go, and ye shal tary no longer.
 29 Then Moses said vnto him, As sone as I am out of y citie, I wil spreade mine handes vnto the Lord, and the thunder shal cease, nether shal there be any more haile, that thou maiest know that the earth is the Lords.
 30 Now I knowe that thou, and thy seruantes feare the Lord God, ^h before I pray.
 31 (And the flaxe, and the barley were smitten: for the barley was eared, and the flaxe was bolled.
 32 But the wheat & the rye were not smitten, for they were ⁱ hid in the grounde)
 33 Then Moses went out of the citie from Pharaoh & spied his hands to the Lord, and the thundre and the haile ceased, nether rained it vpon the earth.
 34 And when Pharaoh saw that the raine and the haile and the thundre were ceased, he sinned againe, and hardened his heart ⁱ bothe he, and his seruants.
 35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: nether wolde he let the children of Isiael go, as the Lord had said ^j by Moses.

 3 Then Moses and Aarōn came vnto Pharaoh, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, How long wilt thou refuse ^b to humble thy selfe before me? Let my people go, that they may serue me.
 4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, tomorrow wil I bring greshoppers into thy coastes.

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharaoh, & he said to them, Go, serue the Lord your God, but who are they that shal go?

9 And Moses answered, We wil go with our yong and with our olde, with our sonnes and with our daughters, with our shepe and with our cattel wil we go: for we must celebrate a feast vnto the Lord.

d That is, I wolde y Lord were no more affectioned toward you, the I am minded to let you go 12 ¶ After, y Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand vpon the land of Egypt for the gresnoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eat all the herbes of the land, even all that the haile hath left.

13 Then Moses stretched forth his rod vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning y East winde brought the gresnoppers.

14 So the gresnoppers went vp vpon all the land of Egypt, and remained in all quarters of Egypt: so greuous gresnoppers, like to these were neuer before, nether after them shal be suche.

Or, he caused the to remaine

15 For they couered all the face of y earth, so that the land was darcke: and they did eat all the herbes of the land, and all the frutes of the trees, which y haile had left, so y there was no grene thing left vpon the trees, nor among y herbes of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And nowe forgiue me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and prayed vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strong West winde, and toke away the gresnoppers, and violently cast the into the Red Sea, so that there remained not one gresnopper in all the coast of Egypt.

g The water leueth red because the sand or grauel is red: y Ebrewes call it y Sea of bulrushes.

24 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and said, Go, serue the Lord: onely your shepe and your cattel shal abide, and your children shal go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must giue vs also sacrifices, and burnt offerings that we may do sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

26 Therefore our cattel also shal go w vs: there shal not an hoofe be left, for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: nether do we knowe how we shal serue the Lord, vntil we come thither.

¹⁷ ¶ Now whē Pharaoh had let the people go, God caried the not by the way of the

Philistims countrey, though it were nerer: (for God said, Lest y^e people repent whē thei se i warre, & turne againe to Egypt)

¹⁹ (And Moses toke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he had made the childre of Israel sweare, saying, *God wil surely visite you, and ye shal take my bones away hence with you) and they were sore afraid: wherefore the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord.

²⁰ ¶ So thei toke their iourney from Succoth, and camped in Etham in the edge of the wildernes.

²² *He toke not away the pillar of the cloude by day, nor the pillar of fyre by night from before the people.

f Thei, which a litle before in their deliuerance reioyced, being now in danger are afraid & murmure.

In this figure foure chief points are to be considered. first that the Church of God is euer subiect in this worlde to the Crosse & to be afflicted after one sort or other. The second, that the ministers of God following their vocation shalbe euil spoken of, and murmured against. euen of them that pretend the same cause and religion that they do. The third, that God deliuereth not his Church incontinently out of dangers, but to exercise their faith and patience continueth their troubles. yea and often tymes augmenteth them as the Israelites were now in lesse hope of their liues then when they were in Egypt. The fourth point is, that when the dangers are moste great, then Gods helpe is moste ready to succour: for the Israelites had on either side the, huge rockes & mountaines, before them the Sea, behinde them moste cruel enemies: so that there was no way left to escape to mans iudgement.

11 And thei said vnto Moses, Hast thou brought vs to dye in the wilderness, because there were no graues in Egypt? wherefore hast thou serued vs thus, to cary vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tel thee this thing in Egypt, saying, Let vs be in rest, that we may serue the Egyptians? for it had bene better for vs to serue the Egyptians, the that we shulde dye in the wilderness.

13 Then Moses said to the people, Feare ye not, stand stil, and beholde the saluacion of the Lord which he wil shewe to you this day. For the Egyptians, whome ye haue sene this day, ye shal neuer se them againe.

14 The Lord shal fight for you: therefore holde you your peace.

15 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Moses, Wherefore cryest thou vnto me? speake vnto the children of Israel that thei go forward:

16 And lift thou vp thy rod, & stretch out thine hand vpon the Sea & deuide it, and let the childe of Israel go on drye ground through the middes of the Sea.

17 And I, beholde I wil harden the heart of the Egyptians that thei may followe the, and I wil get me honour vpon Pharaoh, & vpon all his hoste, vpon his charrets, & vpon his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharaoh, vpon his charrets, & vpon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the Angel of God, which went before the hoste of Israel, remoued & went behinde them: also the pillar of the cloude went from before them, and stode behinde them, 20 And came betwene the campe of the Egyptians and the campe of Israel: it was bothe a cloude and darckenes, yet gaue it light by night, so that all the night log the one came not at the other)

21 And Moses stretched forth the his had vpon the Sea, and the Lord caused the Sea to runne backe by a strong East winde all the night, and made the Sea drye land: for the waters were deuided.

22 The children of Israel wet through the middes of the Sea vpon the drye ground, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the middes of the Sea, euen all Pharaohs horses, his charrets, and his horsemen.

24 Now in the morning I watche, whe the Lord looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, out of the fry and cloudy pillar, he stroke the hoste of the Egyptians with feare.

25 For he toke of their charet wheles, and thei draue them with muche ado: so that the Egyptians enerie one said, I wil flee fro the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ Then the Lord said to Moses, Stretch thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may retaine vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charrets and vpon their horsemen.

1 The Israelites come to the desert of Sin, and murmur against Moſes and Aarón 13 The Lord ſendeth quailles and Manna 27 The ſeuēth day Manna coulde not be founde. 32 It is kept for a remembrance to the poſteritie

Afterward all the Cōgregacion of ſ children of Iſraél departed from Elim, and came to the wildernes of ^a Sin, (which is betwene Elim and Sinai) the fifth day of the ſeconde moneth after their departing out of the land of Egypt. And the whole Cōgregaciō of the children of Iſraél murmured againſt Moſes and againſt Aaron in the wildernes.

3 For the children of Iſraél ſaid to them, Oh ſ we had dyed by the hand of ſ Lord in the land of Egypt, when we ſate by ſ fleſh^b pottes, when we ate bread our bellies full: for ye haue brought vs out into this wildernes, to kil this whole compaignie with famine.

4 ¶ Then ſaid the Lord vnto Moſes, Beholde, I wil cauſe bread to raine ſiō heauen to you, and the people ſhal go out, & gather that ſ is ſufficient for euerie^c day, that I may proue them, whether they wil walke in my Lawe or no.

5 But the ſixt day they ſhal prepare that, which they ſhal bring home, and it ſhal be twiſe as muche as they gather dailey.

6 Then Moſes and Aaron ſaid vnto all the children of Iſraél, At euen ye ſhal knowe, that the Lord broght you out of the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning ye ſhal ſee the glorie of ſ Lord. ^d for he hathe heard your grūdging againſt the Lord: and what are we ſ. ye haue murmured againſt vs.

8 Againe Moſes ſaid, At euē ſhal the Lord giue you fleſh to eat, and in the morning your fil of bread: for ſ Lord hathe heard your murmurings, which ye murmure againſt him: for what are we? your murmurings are not againſt vs, but againſt the^e Lord.

9 ¶ And Moſes ſaid to Aarón, Say vnto all the Cōgregacion of the childrē of Iſraél, Drawe nere before ſ Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 Now as Aarón ſpake vnto the whole Cōgregacion of the children of Iſraél, they looked toward the wildeines, and beholde, ſ glorie of the Lord appeared^f i a cloude.

11 (For the Lord had ſpoken vnto Moſes, ſaying, 12 * I haue heard ſ murmurings of the children of Iſraél: tel them therefore, & ſay, At euen ye ſhal eat fleſh, and in the morning ye ſhal be filled with bread, and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lord your God)

13 And ſo at euē the^g quailles came & couered the campe: & in the morning ſ dewe laye rounde about the hoſte.

14 * And when the dewe that was fallē was aſcended, beholde, a ſmale rounde thing was vpon the face of the wildeines, ſmale as the hore froſt on the earth.

15 And when the children of Iſraél ſawe it, they ſaid one to another, It is ^h M A N, for they wiſt not what it was. And Moſes ſaid vnto them, * This is the bread which the Lord hathe giuen you to eat

16 ¶ This is the thing which ſ Lord hathe commanded: gather of it euerie man according to his eatingⁱ ſ an Omer for^j a mā according to the nombre of your perſones: euerie man ſhal take for the^k which are in his tent.

17 And the children of Iſraél did ſo, & gathered, ſome more, ſome leſſe.

18 And when they did meaſure it with an Omer, ^l he that had gathered muche, had nothing ouer, & he that had gathered little, had no^m lacke: ſo euerie man gathered according to his eating.

19 Moſes then ſaid vnto them, Let no man reſerue thereof til morning.

20 Notwithſtāding thei obeyed not Moſes: but ſome of them reſerued of it til morning, and it was full of wormes, & ⁿ ſtanke: theiſeſo Moſes was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it euerie morning, euerie mā accordig to his eating: for whe the heat of the ſune came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the ſixt day they gathered^o k twiſe ſo muche bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of the Congregation came and tolde Moſes.

23 And he answered the, This is that, which ſ Lord hathe ſaid, To morowe is the reſt of the holy Sabbath vnto the Lord: bake that to daie which ye wil bake, and ſet the ſ which ye wil ſet the, and all that remaineth, lay it vp to be kept til ſ mornig for you.

24 And they laied it vp til the morning, as Moſes bade, and it ſtanke not, nether was there any worme therein.

25 Then Moſes ſaid, Eat that to day: for to day is the Sabbath vnto the Lord: to day ye ſhal not^p finde it in the field.

26 Six dayes ſhal ye gather it, but in ſ ſeuēth day^q is the Sabbath: in it thei ſhal be none.

27 ¶ Notwithſtāding, there^r went out ſome of the people in the ſeuēth day for to gather, and they founde none.

28 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, How lōg reſuſe ye to kepe my commandements, & my lawes?

29 Beholde, how the Lord hathe giue you the Sabbath: therefore he giueth you the ſixt day bread for two dayes: ſay therefore euerie man in his place: let no man go out of his place the ſeuēth day.

30 So the people reſted the ſeuēth day.

e For they, y drowned the children of y Israelites, perished them selues by water. f They are in y place, where the sacrifice was offered: for parte was burnt and the rest eaten.

- 10 Therefore Iethró said, ^d Blessed be the Lord who hath deliuered you out of the hád of y Egyptians, and out of y hand of Pharaoh: who hath also deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptians.
- 11 Now I knowe that the Lord is greater then all the gods: * for as they haue dealt proudly with them, so are they ^e recompensed.

- 12 Then Iethró Moses father in law toke burnt offerings and sacrifices to offere vnto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israël came to eat bread with Moses father in law before God.

- 13 ¶ Now on the morowe, when Moses sate to iudge the people, the people stood aboute Moses from morning vnto euen.

- 14 And when Moses father in lawe sawe all that he did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning vnto euen?

- 15 And Moses said vnto his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto me to seke ^g God.

- 16 Whē they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betwene one and another, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.

- 17 But Moses father in law said vnto him, The thing, which thou doest, is not wel.

- 18 Thou bothe ^h weariest thy selfe greatly, & this people that is wth thee: for the thing is to heauie for thee: thou art not able to do it thy selfe alone.

- 19 * Heare now my ⁱ voyce, (I wil giue thee counfel, and God shalbe with thee) be thou for the people to ^h Godwarde, & reporte thou the causes vnto God,

- 20 And admonish them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, & shewe them the way, wherein they must walke, & the worke y they must do.

- 21 Moreouer prouide thou among all the people ^j men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truely, hating couetousnes: and appoint ^k suche ouer them to be rulers ouer thousandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tens.

- 22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: but euerie great matter let the bring vnto thee, & let them iudge all smale causes: so shal it be easier for thee, when they shal beare the burden with thee.

- 23 If thou do this thing, (and God so commañde thee) bothe thou shalt be able to endure, & all this people shal also go quietly to their place.

- 24 So Moses ^k obeyed y voyce of his father in lawe, and did all that he had said:

- 25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israël, and made them heades ouer the people, rulers ouer thousandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tens.

- 26 And they iudged the people at all seasons, but they brought the hard causes vnto Moses: for they iudged all smale matters them selues.

- 27 Afterward Moses ^l let his father in lawe departe, and he went into his contrey.

k Godlie counsel ought euer to be obeyed, though it come of our inferiours for to suche God oftentimes giueth wisdom to humble them, that are exalted.

- 1 IN the ^a third moneth, after the childre of Israël were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same ^b day came they into the wildernes of Siná.

- 2 For they departed from Rephidim, and came to y desert of Siná, & cāped in the wildernes: euen there Israël camped before the mount.

- 3 * But Moses wēt vp vnto God, for y Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of ^c Iakób, and tel the children of Israël,

- 4 * Ye haue sene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caryed you vpon ^d eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto me.

- 5 Now therefore * if ye wil heare my voyce in dede, & kepe my couenāt, the ye shalbe my chief treasure aboute all people, * though all the earth be mine.

- 6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a kingdome of * Priestes, and an holy nation. These are the wordes which thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israël.

- 7 ¶ Moses then came & called for the Elders of the people, and proposed vnto the all these things, which the Lord commanded him.

- 8 And the people answered altogether, & said, * All that the Lord hath commañded, we wil do. And Moses reported the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

- 9 And y Lord said vnto Moses, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare, whiles I talke with thee, & that they may also beleue thee for euen (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord)

- 10 Moreouer the Lord said vnto Moses,

1 ¶ Thou shalt not receiue a false tale, nether shalt thou put thine had with the wicked, to be a false witness.

2 ¶ Thou shalt not followe a multitude to do euil, nether agree in a controuersie to decline after many & ouerthrow the truth.

3 ¶ Thou shalt not esteeme a poore man in his cause.

4 ¶ If thou mete thine enemies ox, or his asse going a straye, thou shalt bring him to him againe.

5 If thou se thine enemies asse lying vnder his burden, wilt thou cease to helpe him? thou shalt helpe him vp againe with it.

6 ¶ Thou shalt not ouerthrowe the right of thy poore in his sute.

7 Thou shalt kepe thee farre from a false matter, and shalt not slay the innocent and the righteous: for I wil not iustifie a wicked man.

8 ¶ Thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, & peruerteth his wordes of the righteous.

9 ¶ Thou shalt not oppresse a stranger: for ye knowe the heart of a stranger, seing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Moreouer, six yerres thou shalt sowe thy land, and gather the frutes thereof,

11 But the seuenth yere thou shalt let it rest and lye still, that the poore of thy people may eat, and what they leaue, the beastes of the field shal eat. In like maner thou shalt do with thy vineyard, & with thine oliue trees.

21 Beware of him, and heare his voyce, & pooke him not: for he wil not spare your misdedes, because my Name is in him.

22 But if thou hearken vnto his voyce, and do all that I speake, then I wil be an enemy vnto thine enemies, and wil afflict them that afflict thee.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee vnto the Amorites, & the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, and I wil destroye them.

24 Thou shalt not bowe downe to their gods, nether serue them, nor do after the workes of the: but utterly ouerthrowe them, and breake in pecies their images.

25 For ye shal serue the Lord your God, & he shal blesse thy bread and thy water, & I wil take all sickenes away fro the middes of thee.

26 ¶ There shal none cast their frute nor be barren in thy land: the nombre of thy dayes wil I fulfil.

27 I wil send my feare before thee, & wil destroy all the people among whom thou shalt go: and I wil make all thine enemies turne their backs vnto thee:

28 And I wil send hornets before thee, which shal drue out the Hiuites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from thy face.

neither shal the people go vp with him.

3 *Afterward Moses came and tolde the people all the wordes of the Lord and all the lawes: and all the people answered with one voyce, and said, *All the things which the Lord hath said, wil we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and rose vp early, and set vp an altar vnder the mountaine, and twelue pillers according to the twelue tribes of Is-raél.

5 And he sent yong men of the children of Israél, which offered burnt offrings of beues, & sacrificed peace offrings vnto the Lord.

6 The Moses toke halfe of the blood, and put it in basens, and halfe of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 After he toke the booke of the couenant, and read it in the audience of the people:
who said, All that the Lord hath said, we wil do, and be obedient.

8 Then Moses toke the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, & said, Beholde, the and I wil giue thee tables of stone, and y

16 And the glorie of the Lord abode vpon

daies: and the seuenth day he called vnto
Moses out of the middes of the cloude.

17 And the sight of the glorie of the Lord was like consuming fire on the top of the Israél.

18 And Moses entred into the middes of the cloude, & went vp to the mountaine:
& Moses was in the mount fourty daies

Because the facion of the candeltick is so plaine & euident, it nedeth not to describe the particular partes thereof according to the ordre of lettres. Onely where as it is said in the 34. verse, that there shalbe foure bowles or cuppes in the candelticke, it must be vnderstand of the shaft or shanke: for there are but thre for euerie one of the other branches. Also the knoppes of the candeltick are those which are vnder the branches as they issue out of the shaft on either side.

- Chap. 37. 17.* 31 ¶ Also thou shalt make a Candelticke of pure golde: of ⁱ worke beaten out: wth the hāmer shal the Candelticke be made, his shaft, & his brāches, his bolles, his knops: and his floures shal be of the same. 35 And there shalbe a knop vnder two branches made thereof: & a knop vnder two brāches made thereof: and a knop vnder two brāches made thereof according to the six branches coming out of the Candelticke.
- 32 Six branches also shal come out of the sides of it: thre branches of the Candelticke out of the one side of it, and thre branches of the Candelticke out of the other side of it. 36 Their knops and their branches shalbe thereof, all this shalbe one beate worke of pure golde.
- 33 Thre bolles like vnto almondes, one knop and one floure in one branche: and thre bolles like almondes in the other brāche, one knop and one floure: so through out the six brāches that come out of the Candelticke. 37 And y^e shalt make the seuen lāpes thereof, & y^e lāpes thereof shalt y^e put theron, to giue light toward that that is before it.
- 34 And in the shaft of y^e Candelticke shalbe foure bolles like vnto almondes, his knops & his floures. 38 Also the snoffers & snoffedishes thereof shal be of pure golde.

THE GARMENTS OF THE HIGH PRIEST.

A The Ephod, or vpmost coate, which was like cloth of golde and was girded vnto him, wherein was the breast plate with the twelue stones, which was tied aboue with two cheines to two onix stones and beneth with two laces.

a broyded coat, a mitre, & a girdle. so the fo holy garmets shal they make for Aarón thy brother, & for his sonnes, that he may serue me in the Priests office.

5 Therefore they shal take golde, & blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, & fine linen,

6 ¶ And they shal make the Ephod of golde, blewe silke, and purple, skarlet, & fine twined linen of broyded worke.

7 The two shulders thereof shalbe ioyned together by their two edges: so shal it be closed.

8 And y^d a embroyded garde of the same Ephod, which shalbe vpō him, shalbe of y^e selfe same worke and stuffe, even of golde, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onix stones, and grauē vpon them the names of the children of Israël:

10 Six names of the vpon the one stone, & the six names that remaine, vpō the secō-de stone, according to ^e their generaciōs.

11 Thou shalt cause to graue y^e two stones accordig to the names of y^e childre of Is-raél by a grauer of signets, y^e worketh and graueth in stone, and shalt make them to be set and embossed in golde.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the shulders of the Ephod, as stones of ^e remēbrance of y^e children of Israël: for Aa-rón shal beare their names before y^e Lord vpō his two shulders for a remēbrance.

13 So thou shalt make bosses of golde,

14 ¶ And two cheines of fine golde s at the ende, of wrethed worke shalt y^e make them, & shalt fasten the wrethed cheines vpon the bosses.

15 ¶ Also thou shalt make the brest plate of iudgemēt with broyded worke: like the worke of the Ephod shalt thou make it:
of golde, blewe silke, and purple, and skar-let, & fine twined linen shalt y^e make it.

16 A foure square it shalbe and double, an hand bred long and an hand bred broad.

17 Then thou shalt set it ful of places for stones, even foure rowes of stones: y^e ordre shalbe thus, a ^r ruby, a topaze, and a ^c carbū-cle in the first rowe.

18 And in the seconde rowe thou shalt set an ^e emeraude, a saphir, and a ^d diamond.

19 And in y^e third rowe a turkeis, an achafe, and an hematite.

20 And in the fourte rowe a ^c chrysolite, an onix, and a iasper: and they shalbe set in golde in their embossments.

21 And the stones shalbe according to the names of the childre of Israël, twelue, according to their names, grauen as signets, euerie one after his name, & they shalbe for the twelue tribes.

22 ¶ Then thou shalt make vpon the brest plate two cheines at the endes of wrethen worke of pure golde.

23 Thou shalt make also vpō the brest plate two rings of golde, and put the two rings on ^k the two endes of the brest plate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wrethē chei-nes of golde in the two rings in the endes of the brest plate.

25 And the other two endes of the two wre-then cheines, thou shalt fasten in the two embossments, and shalt put them vpō the shulders of the Ephod on y^e fore side of it.

26 ¶ Also thou shalt make two rings of golde, which thou shalt put in the ^l two other endes of the brest plate, vpon the border thereof, toward y^e inside of y^e Ephod.

27 And two other rings of golde thou shalt make, & put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneth in the fore parte of it ouer against the coupling of it vpon the broy-ded garde of the Ephod.

28 Thus they shal binde the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, w^h a lace of blewe silke, that it may be fast vp-on the broyded garde of the Ephod, & y^e the brest plate be not loosed frō y^e Ephod.

29 So Aarón shal ^m beare the names of the childre of Israël in the brest plate of iud-gement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the brest plate of iudgement the ⁿ Vrim & the Thūmim, w^h shalbe vpō Aarons heart, whē he goeth in before the Lord: and Aarón shal beare the iudgemēt of the children of Israël vp-on his heart before the Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the Ephod altogether of blewe silke.

32 And the hole for his heade shalbe in the middles of it, hauig an edge of wouē worke rounde about y^e collar of it: so it shalbe as y^e collar of an habergeō that it rét not.

33 ¶ And beneth vpon the skirtes thereof y^e shalt make pomgranates of blewe silke, & purple, & skarlet, round about the skirtes thereof and belles of golde betwene them round about:

34 That is, ^a a golden bel and a pomgranate, Ecclē. 43. 20.
a golden bel and a pomgranate rounde a-

35 So it shalbe vpon Aarón, when he mini-streth, and his sound shalbe heard, when he goeth unto the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out, and he shal not dye.

36 ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, & graue therō, as signets are grauē,

37 And y^e shalt put it on a blewe silke lace, and it shalbe vpon the mitre: even vpon y^e

3 The y ſhalt put the in one baſket, & preſent them in the baſket with the calf and the two rams,

4 And ſhalt bring Aarón and his ſonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of y Cōgregation, and waſh them with water.

5 Also thou ſhalt take the garments, & put vpon Aarón the tunicle, and the robe of the Ephod, and the Ephod, and the breſt plate, and ſhalt cloſe it to him with the broyded garde of the Ephod.

6 Then thou ſhalt put the mitre vpon his head, and ſhalt put the holy crowne vpon the mitre.

7 And thou ſhalt take the anointing oyle, and ſhalt powre vpon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou ſhalt bring his ſonnes, and put coates vpon them,

9 And ſhalt girde them with girdels, bothe Aarón & his ſonnes: and ſhalt put the bonets on them, and the Prieſtes office ſhal be theirs for a perpetual lawe: thou ſhalt alſo ſil the hands of Aarón, and the hāds of his ſonnes.

10 After, thou ſhalt preſent the calf before the Tabernacle of the Cōgregation, * and Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal put their hāds vpon the head of the calf.

11 So thou ſhalt kil the calf before y Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregation.

12 Then thou ſhalt take of y blood of the calf, and put it vpon the hoines of the altar with thy finger, and ſhalt powre all the reſt of the blood at the fote of the altar.

13 * Also thou ſhalt take all the fat that couereth the inwardes, and the kall, that is on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fat that is vpon the, and ſhalt burne them vpon the altar.

14 But the fleſh of the calf, and his ſkin, and his doig ſhalt thou burne with fire with out the hoſte: it is a ſinne offering.

15 ¶ Thou ſhalt alſo take one ram, and Aarón and his ſonnes ſhal put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

16 Then thou ſhalt kil the ram, and take his blood, and ſprinkle it round about vpon the altar,

17 And thou ſhalt cut the ram in pieces, and waſh y inwardes of him and his legges, & ſhalt put them vpon the pieces thereof, and vpon his head.

18 So thou ſhalt burne the whole ram vpon the altar. for it is a burnt offering vnto the Lord for a ſwete ſauour: it is an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The Israelites impute their deliuerance to the calf. 2 God is appeased by Moyses prayer 19 Moyses breakeeth the Tables 27 He slayeth the idolaters. 32 Moyses zeale for the people.

1 Bt when the people sawe, that Moyses taried long or he came downe from ^o mountaine, the people gathered the felues together against Aarón, & said vnto him, Vp, ^a make vs gods to go before vs: for of this Moyses (the man that broght vs out of the land of Egypt) we knowe not what is become of him.

a The rote of idolatrie is, when we thinke ^o God is not at hand, except they see him carnally

b Thinking ^o they wolde rather forgo idolatrie, then to resigne their moste precious treasures.

2 And Aarón said vnto them, ^b Plucke of the b This sheweth that hūdy crafts are the gifts of Gods Spirit, & therefore ought to be esteemed.

the golden earrings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckte from the e selues the golden earrings, which were in their eares, and they brought them vnto Aarón.

* Who receiued them at their hands, and facioned it with the grauing tole, & made of it a molten calf: then they said, * These be thy gods, ô Isiaél, w^h brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

When Aarón sawe that, he made an altar before it: and Aarón proclaimed, saying, To morowe shalbe the holy day of the Lord.

6 So they rose vp the next day in the morning, and offred burnt offerings, & brought peace offerings: also * the people sate them downe to eat and drinke, and ioie vp to playe.

7 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Mosés, * Go, get the downe: for thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, hath corrupted their waies.

8 They are sone turned out of the way, which I commanded them for they haue made them a molten calf, & haue worshipped it, & haue offred the cto, sayig, * These be thy gods, ô Isiaél, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

9 Againe the Lord said vnto Mosés, * I haue sene this people, and beholde, it is a fustnecked people.

Nowe therefore let me alone, that my wrath may waxe hote against them, for I wil consume them: but I wil make of thee a mightie people.

* But Mosés prayed vnto y^e Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doest thy wrath waxe hote against thy people, which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, with great power and with a mightie hand?

12 ¶ Wherefore shal the Egyptians speake, and say, He hath brought them out maliciously for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the earth: turne from thy fierce wrath, and change thy minde from this euil toward thy people.

13 Remembre s Abraham, Izhák, & Isiaél thy seruants, to whome thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saidest vnto them, * I wil multiplie your sede, as the starres of the heauen, and all this land, that I haue spoken of, wil I giue vnto your sede, and they shal inhe: it for euer.

14 Then the Lord changed his minde from the euil, which he threatened to do vnto his people.

15 So Mosés returned and went downe from the mountaine with the two Tables of the Testimonie in his hád: the Tables were writte on bothe their sides, euen on y^e one side & on the other were they written.

16 And these Tables were the worke of God, and ^h this writing was the writing of God grauen in the Tables.

17 And whē Ioshúa heard the noise of the people, as they shouted, he said vnto Mosés, There is a noise of warre in the hoste.

18 Who answered, It is not the noise of the that haue the victorie, nor the noise of the that are overcome: but I do heare the noise of singing.

19 Nowe, as sone as he came nere vnto the hoste, he sawe the calf and the dancing: so Mosés wrath waxed hote, and he cast the Tables out of his hands, and brake them in peeces beneth the mountaine.

20 ¶ After, he toke the calf, which they had made, & burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and strowed it vpon the water, & made the childē of Isiaél drinke of it.

21 Also Mosés said vnto Aarón, What didst thou do to this people vnto thee, y^e thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 Thē Aarón answered, Let not the wrath of my lord waxe feace: thou knowest this people, that they are euen set on mischief.

23 And they said vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Mosés (the man y^e brought vs out of the land of Egypt.)

24 Thē I said to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it of: and they brought it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came this calf.

25 Mosés therefore sawe that the people were naked (for Aarón had made them naked vnto their shame among their enemies)

26 And Mosés stood in the gate of the cāp, and said, Who pertineth to the Lord? let him come to me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered them selues vnto him.

27 Then he said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Isiaél, Put euerie man his sworde by his side: go to and fro, fro gate to gate, through the hoste, and slay euerie man his brother, and euerie man his companion, & euerie man his neighbour.

28 So the children of Leui did as Mosés had commanded: and there fel of the people the same day about thre thousand me.

29 (For Mosés had said, Consecrat your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euerie man vpon his sonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a blessing this day)

30 And whē the morning came, Mosés said vnto the people, Ye haue committed a grievous crime: but now I wil go vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your sinne.

31 Mosés therefore went againe vnto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people haue sinned.

3 To a land, I say, that floweth with milke & hony: for I wil not go vp with thee, * because thou art a stiffnecked people, lest I consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people heard this euill tidings, they sorrowed, & no man put on his best rayment.

5 (For the Lord had said to Moses, Say vnto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people, I wil come suddenly vpon thee, and consume thee: therefore now put thy costly rayment fro thee, that I may knowe what to do vnto thee.)

^b That either may shewe mercie, if thou repent, or els punish thy rebellion,

6 So the childre of Israel laid their good rayment from them, after Moses came downe from the mount Horé.

9 And as soon as Moses was entred into the Tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the dore of the Tabernacle,

6 Also blewes filke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine linen, and goates heere,

7 And rams skins died red, and badgers skins with Shittim wood:

8 Also oyle for light, & spices for the anointing oyle, and for the swete incense,

9 And onix stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the best plate.

b Read Chap. 28.3

10 And all the wise hearted among you, shal come & make all that the Lord hath commanded:

Chap. 26.31. 11 That is, the Tabernacle, the pauillion thereof, & his couering, & his taches & his boordes, his barres, his pillars & his sockets, 12 The Arke, and the barres thereof: the Mercieseat, & the vaile that couereth it, c Which hang before the Mercieseat that is colde not be seen.

13 The Table, and the barres of it, and all the instrumets thereof, & the shewe bread:

14 Also the Candelsticke of light and his instruments and his lampes with the oyle for the light:

15 *Likewise the Altar of perfume and his barres, and the anointing oyle, and the swete incense, and the vaile of the dore at the entring in of the Tabernacle,

16 The * Altar of burnt offering with his brasse grate, his barres and all his instruments, the Lauer and his fote,

17 The hangings of the courtes, his pillars & his sockets, and the vaile of the gate of the courtes,

18 The pins of the Tabernacle, and the pins of the courtes with their cordes, 19 The ministering garments to minstre in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, that they may minstre in the Priestes office.

d Suche as appertaine to the seruice of the Tabernacle.

20 ¶ Then all the Congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And euerie one, whose hearts encouraged him, & euerie one, whose spirit made him willing, came and brought an offering to the Lord, for the worke of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and for all his vses, and for the holy garments.

22 Bothe men & women, as many as were fre hearted, came and brought taches and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all were iewels of golde: and euerie one that offred an offering of golde vnto the Lord:

23 Euerie man also, which had blewes filke, and purple, & skarlet, and fine linen, and goats heere, and rams skins died red, and badgers skins, brought them.

24 All that offred an oblatiō of siluer & of brasse, brought the offering vnto the Lord: & euerie one, which had Shittim wood for any manner worke of the ministraciō, brought it.

e With whom was found.

25 And all the womē that were wise hearted, did spin with their handes, and brought the spun worke, and the blewes filke, and the purple, the skarlet, and the fine linen.

e Which were witty and expert

26 Likewise all the women, whose heartes were moued with knowledge, spun goat heere.

f That is, they were good spinners.

27 And the rulers brought onix stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the best plate:

28 Also spice, and oyle for light, and for the anointing oyle, and for the swete perfume.

Chap. 30.23.

29 Euerie man and woman of the childre of Israel, whose hearts moued the willingly to bring for all the worke which the Lord had commaded the to make, by the hand of Moses, brought a fre offering to the Lord.

g Vnto Moses as a minister thereof.

30 ¶ Then Moses said vnto the childre of Israel. Beholde, the Lord hath called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudān,

31 And

^a Or, with the spirit of God.

31 And hath filled him with an excellent spirit of wisdom, of understanding, and of knowledge, and in all manner of work, 32 To finde out curious workes, to worke in golde, and in siluer, and in brasce, 33 And in grauing stones to set the, and in karuing of wood, even to make anie manner of fine worke. 34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teache other: bothe he, and Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan: 35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart to worke all manner ^b of conning * & broyded, & needlworke: in blew silke, and in purple, in skarlet, and in fine linen & weauing, even to do all manner of worke and subtile inuentions.

^d Which were like pictures with winges in the forme of children.

1 Then wrought Bezaleel, and Aholiab, and all ^a conning men, to whome the Lord gaue wisdom, and understanding, to knowe how to worke all manner worke for the seruice of the ^a Sanctuary, according to all that the Lord had commanded. 2 For Moses had called Bezaleel, & Aholiab, and all the wise hearted men, in whose hearts the Lord had giue wisdom, even as manie as their heartes encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it. 3 And they receiued of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the worke of the seruice of the Sanctuary, to make it: also ^b they brought stil vnto him fre gifts euery morning. 4 So all the wise men, that wrought all the holy worke, came euery man fro his worke which they wrought, 5 And spake to Moses, saying, The people bring to ^c much, and more then ynough for the vse of the worke, which the Lord hath commanded to be made. 6 Then Moses gaue a commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the hoste, saying, Let nether man nor woman prepare anie more worke for the oblation of the Sanctuary. So the people were stayed from offering. 7 For the stuffe they had, was sufficient for all the worke to make it, and to much. 8 * All the conning men therefore among the workemen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaynes of fine twined linen, and of blew silke, and purple, and skarlet: ^d Cherubims of broyded worke made they vpon them. 9 The length of one curtaine was twenty and eight cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: and the curtaynes were all of one cise.

10 And he coupled five curtaynes together, and other five coupled he together.

11 And he made strings of blew silke by the edge of one curtaine, in the seluedge of the coupling: likewise he made on the side of the other curtaine in the seluedge in the seconde coupling.

12 * Fiftie strings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie strings made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the seconde coupling: the strings were set one against an other. Chap. 26. 10.

13 After, he made fiftie taches of golde, & coupled the curtaynes one to an other with the taches: so was it one Tabernacle. ^e Or, hooks.

14 Also he made curtaynes of goates heere for the ^e couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the number of eleuen curtaynes. ^e Or, panther skin.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaynes were of one cise.

16 And he coupled five curtaynes by them selues, and six curtaynes by them selues:

17 Also he made fiftie strings vpon the edge of one curtaine in the seluedge in the coupling, and fiftie strings made he vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the seconde coupling.

18 He made also fiftie taches of brasce to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And he made a ^e couering vpon the paullion of rams skins died red, & a couering of badgers skins aboue. ^e These two were about the couering of goates heere.

20 Likewise he made the boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittim wood to stand vp.

21 The length of a boarde was ten cubites, & the breadth of one boarde was a cubite, and an halfe. ^f And to beare vp the curtaynes of the Tabernacle.

22 One boarde had two tenons, set in ordre as the fete of a ladder, one against an other: thus made he for all the boardes of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twentie boardes for the Southside of the Tabernacle, even full South.

24 And fourtie sockets of siluer made he vnder the twentie boardes, two sockets vnder one boarde for his two tenons, & two sockets vnder another boarde for his two tenons.

25 Also for the other side of the Tabernacle toward the North, he made twentie boardes, 26 And their fourtie sockets of siluer, two sockets vnder one boarde, & two sockets vnder another boarde.

27 Likewise toward the Westside of the Tabernacle he made six boardes.

28 And two boardes made he in the corners of the Tabernacle, for either side, 29 And they were ^g ioyned beneath, and likewise were made sure about with a ring: ^g Or toward the sea which was the sea called mediterranean westward fro Ierusalem. Chap. 26. 24.

thus he did to bothe in bothe corners.

30 So there were eight boardes and their fixtene sockets of filuer, vnder euerie board two sockets.

Chap. 25, 27.
6 30, 4

31 ¶ After, he made *barres of Shittim wood, fise for the boardes in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And fise barres for the boardes in the other side of the Tabernacle, and fise barres for the boardes of the Tabernacle on the side towarde the West.

33 And he made the middelt barre to shote through the boardes, from the one end to the other.

34 He ouerlaied also the boardes with golde, and made their rings of golde for places for the barres, and couered the barres with golde.

h Which was betwene y^e Sanctuary and y^e Holiest of all.

35 ¶ Moreouer he made a^h vaile of blewe silke, and purple, and of skarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broyred worke made he it:

* Or, brader.

36 And made thereunto foure pillers of Shittim, and ouerlaied them with golde: whose^h hokes were also of golde, and he cast for them foure sockets of filuer.

h which was betwene the court and the Sanctuary.

37 And he made an hanging for the Tabernacle dore, of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen, and nedle worke,

Or, granes borders.

38 And the fise pillers of it with their hokes, and ouerlaied their chapiters & their flets with golde, but their fise sockets were of brasse.

1 The Arke. 6 The Mercifear. 10 The Table. 17 The Candellsticke. 25 The Altar of incense.

Chap. 25, 26

1 A^hfter this, Bezaleel made the *Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and an halfe hie:

a Like bartlemas.

2 And ouerlaied it with fine golde within and without, and made a^a crowne of golde to it round about,

3 And cast for it foure rings of golde for y^e foure corners of it: that is, two rings for y^e one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made barres of Shittim wood, & couered them with golde,

5 And put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

Chap. 25, 27.

6 ¶ And he made the * Mercifear of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of golde, vpon the two ends of the Mercifear: enen of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

b Of the self same matter y^e the Mercifear was.

8 One Cherub on y^e one end, and an other Cherub on the other end: b of the Mercifear made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

9 And y^e Cherubims spred out their wings on hie, and couered the Mercifear wth their wings, and their faces were one towardes an other: toward the Mercifear were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubites was the légth thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he ouerlaied it with fine golde, and made thereto a crowne of golde round about.

12 Also he made thereto a border of an^h had^{Or, fure fure} breadth round about, and made vpon^{100.} y^e border a crowne of golde round about.

13 And he cast for it foure rings of golde, and put the rings in the foure corners that were in the foure fete thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare the Table.

15 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table.

16 * Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure golde: dishes for it, & incens cups for it, and goblets for it, & couerings for it, wherewith it shulde be couered.

17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candellsticke of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candesticke: and his shaft, & his branche, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: thre branches of the Cadelsticke out of the one side of it, and thre branches of the Candellsticke out of the other side of it.

19 In one branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and in an other branche thre bolles made like almodes, a knop & a floure: and so throughout the six branches that proceded out of the Candellsticke.

20 And vpon the Candellsticke were foure bolles after the facion of almondes, the knops thereof and the floures thereof:

21 That is, vnder euerie two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop vnder the secóde branche thereof, and a knop vnder the third branche thereof, according to the six branches comming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one^{*} beaten worke of pure golde.

23 And he made for it seuen lampes with y^e snuffers, & snuffdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a^c talent of pure golde made he it with all the instruments thereof.

c Read chap. 25, 39.

25 Furthermore he made the * perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubite, and the breadth of it a cubite (it was square) and two cubites hie, and the hornes.

Chap. 30, 34.

horne thereof was of the same.

26 And he couered it with pure golde, bo-the the top and the sides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of golde round about.

27 And he made two rings of golde for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it therewith.

28 Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and ouerlaied them with golde.

Chap. 30, 35. 29 And he made the holy * anointing oyle, & the swete pure incense after the apote-caries arte.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

6 The Altar of burnt offerings & The brasen Laver.
9 The Courte & The summe of that the people offered.

Chap 27, 1. 1 Also he made the altar of the burnt offering * of Shittim wood: five cubi-tes was the length thereof, and five cubi-tes the breadth thereof: it was square and three cubites high.

2 And he made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, & he ouerlaied it with brasfe.

Chap 27, 3. 3 Also he made all the instruments of the Altar: * of ashpans, & the besomes, and the basins, & fleshhooks, & the censers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasfe.

4 Moreouer he made a brasfe grate wrought like a net to the Altar, vnder the compas of it beneath in the middes of it, a So y the grid from or grate was halfe to lie as y altar, & stood with in it.

5 And cast foure rings of brasfe for y foure ends of the grate to put barres in.

6 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with brasfe.

7 The which barres he put into the rings on the sides of the altar to beate it with-all, and made it holowe within y boardes.

8 ¶ Also he made the Laver of brasfe, and the fote of it of brasfe of the b glasses of y women that did assemble and came together at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

b R. Kimhi saith, that the women brought their looking glasses, which were of bras-se or fine met-tal and offred them freely vnto the vie of the Tabernacle: & was a beight thing & of great maie-stie.

9 ¶ Finally he made y courte on the South-side ful Southe: the hangings of the courte were of fine twined linen, hauing an hundreth cubites.

10 Their pillers were twentie, & their bra-sen sockets twentie: the hokes of the pillers, and their filets were of siluer.

11 And on the Northside the hangings were an hundreth cubites: their pillers twentie, & their sockets of brasfe twentie, y hokes of y pillers & their filets of siluer.

12 On the Westside also were hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillers with their ten sockets: y hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer.

13 And toward the Eastside, ful East, were hangings of fiftie cubites.

14 The hangings of the one side were fiftie cubites, their three pillers, and their three sockets:

15 ¶ And of the other side of the courte gate on bothe sides were hangings of fiftie cubites, with their three pillers and their three sockets.

Chap 37, 16.

16 All the hangings of the courte round about were of fine twined linen:

17 But the sockets of the pillers were of brasfe: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters of siluer: and all the pillers of the courte were hooped about with siluer.

18 He made also the hanging of the gate of the courte of needle worke, blew silk, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen euen twentie cubites long, and five cubi-tes in height & breadth, like the hangings of the courte.

18 For ouer as said.

19 And their pillers were foure with their foure sockets of brasfe: their hokes of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters, and their filets of siluer.

20 But all the * pins of the Tabernacle and of the courte round about were of brasfe.

Chap 27, 19.

21 ¶ These are the partes of the Tabernacle, I meane, of the Tabernacle of the Testimonie, which was appointed by the commandement of Moses for the office of y Leuites by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

uites might haue the charge

22 So Bezaleel the sonne of Uri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, made all y
the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahisa-mach of the tribe of Dan, a cunning workeman and an embroyderer and a worker of needle worke in blew silk, and in purple, and in skarlet, and in fine linen.

d As a grauer or carpenter,
chap 31, 4.

24 All the golde that was occupied in all y worke wrought for the holy place (which was the golde of the offering) was nine & twentie talents, and seuen hundred thirtie shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

25 But the siluer of them that were nom-bred in the Congregation, was an hundreth talents, and a thousand seuen hundred seuentie and five shekels, after the shekel of the Sanctuary.

26 A portion for a man, that is, halfe a she-kel after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for all them that were nombred from twen-tie yere olde and aboue, among six hundred thousand, and three thousand, & five hundred and fiftie men.

Or, halfe a she-kel

27 Moreouer there were an hundreth talents of siluer, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuarie, and the sockets of the vaile: an hundreth sockets of an hundreth talents, a talent for a socket.

28 But he made the hokes for the pillers of a thousand seuen hundred and seuentie & five shekels, and ouerlaied their chapiters, and made filets about them.

^e Read the weight of a talent, Chap. 35:19.

29 Also the brasſe of the offering was ſeventie talents, and two thouſand, and four hundreth ſhekels.

30 Whereof he made ſix ſockets to the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation and the braſen Altar, & the braſen grate which was for it, with all the inſtruments of the Altar,

Chap. 27, 19.

31 And the ſockets of the courte round about, and the ſockets for the couite gate, & all the * pins of the Tabernacle, and all the pins of the courte round about.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The apparel of Aarón and his ſonnes 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made, and finiſhed 43 Moſes blesseth the people.

^a As coverings for the ARKE, & Cádelticke, the Altars & ſuche like Chap. 31, 10.
35, 19.

1 Moreouer they made a garments of ministration to miniſter in the Sanctuarie of blew ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet: thei * made alſo the holy garments for Aarón, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

2 So he made the Ephód of golde, blew ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beate the golde into thin plates, and cut it into wies, to worke it in the blew ſilke & in the purple, and in the ſkarlet, & in the fine linen, with broyded worke.

4 For the which thei made ſhoulders to couple together: for it was cloſed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broyded garde of his Ephód that was vpon him, was of the ſame ſtuffe, and of like worke: even of golde, of blew
ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, and fine twined linen, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

Chap. 28, 9.

^b That is, of very fine and curious workmanſhip

6 ¶ And they wrought two* onix ſtones cloſed in ouches of golde, and graued, as ^b ſig-nats are grauen, with the names of the children of Iſraél,

Chap. 28, 12.

7 And put the on the ſhoulders of ſix Ephód, as ſtones for a * remembrance of the children of Iſraél, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

8 ¶ Alſo he made the breſt plate of broy-ded worke like the worke of the Ephód:
to wit, of golde, blew ſilke, and purple, & ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made the breſt plate double, and it was ſquare, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broad: it was alſo double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of ſtones. The ordre was thus, a ruby, a topaze, and a carbuncle in the fiſt rowe.

^c Or a figure, which ſtone authors write that it cometh of the vine of the beaſt called Bina.

11 And in the ſeconde rowe, an emeraude,
a ſaphir, and a diamond:

12 Alſo in the third rowe, ^c a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite:

13 Likewise in the fourth rowe, a chryſolite, an onix, and a iaſper: cloſed and ſet in ou-ches of golde.

14 So the ſtones were according to the names of the children of Iſraél, even twelue ^d after their names, grauen like ſignets e- uen one after his name according to the twelue tribes.

^d That is, even the tribe had his name writ ten in a ſtone.

15 After, they made vpon the breſt plate cheines at the endes, of wrethen worke of pure golde.

16 They made alſo two boſſes of golde, & two golde rings, and put the two rings in the two corners of the breſt plate.

17 And they put the two wrethen cheines of golde in the two rings, in the corners of the breſt plate.

18 Alſo the two other endes of the two wre-then cheines they faſtened in the two boſſes, and put them on the ſhoulders of the Ephód vpon the fore fronte of it.

19 Likewise thei made two rings of golde, and put them in the two other corners of the breſt plate vpon the edge of it, which was on the inſide of the Ephód.

20 They made alſo two other golden rings, and put them on the two ſides of the E-phód, beneth on the foreſide of it and ou-er againſt his coupling about the broy-ded garde of the Ephód.

21 Then they faſtened the breſt plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephód, with a lace of blew ſilke, that it might be faſt vpon the broyded garde of the Ephód, and that the breſt plate ſhulde not be lo-ſed from the Ephód, as the Lord had commanded Moſes.

22 ¶ Moreouer he made the robe of the Ephód of wouen worke, altogether of blew ſilke.

^e Which was next vnder the Ephód
^f Where he ſhulde put through his head.

23 And ^f the hole of the robe was in the middles of it, as ſix collar of an habergeon, with an edge about the collar, that it ſhul-de not rent.

24 And they made vpon the ſkirtes of the robe pomegranates, of blew ſilke, & purple, and ſkarlet, and fine linen twined.

25 They made alſo belles* of pure golde, & put the belles betwene the pomegranates vpon the ſkirtes of the robe round about betwene the pomegranates.

Chap. 28, 33.

26 A bel & a pomegranate, a bel & a pomegranate round about the ſkirtes of the robe to miniſter in, as the Lord had comanded Moſes.

27 ¶ After, they made coates of fine liné, of wouen worke for Aarón & for his ſonnes.

28 And the mitre of fine linen, and goodlie bonnets of fine linen, and linen breches* ^{Chap. 28, 42.}
of fine twined linen,

29 ¶ And the girdel of fine twined linen, & of blew ſilke, & purple, & ſkarlet, even of needle worke, as the Lord had comanded Moſes.

Chap. 28, 36.

30 ¶ Finally thei made the plate for the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it a superscription like to the grauing of a signet, *H O L I N E S T O T H E L O R D.

31 And thei tied vnto it a lace of blew silk to fasten it on hye vpon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Chap. 27, 21.

32 ¶ Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, even of the *Tabernacle of the Congregation finished: & the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did thei.

33 ¶ Afterwarde thei broght the Tabernacle vnto Moses, the Tabernacle & all his instruments, his taches, his boardes, his barres, and his pillers, and his sockets, 34 And the couering of rames skins died red, & the couerings of badgers skinnes, and the g couering vaile.

g So called, because it haged before the mercieseat & couered it fro sight chap. 35, 12.

35 The Arke of the Testimonie, and the barres thereof, and the Mercieseat,

CHAP. XL.

The Tabernacle with the appertinances is reared vp.
34 The glorie of the Lord appeareth in the cloude couering the Tabernacle.

THEN the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

In the a first day of the first moneth in the very first of the same moneth shalt thou set vp the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

And thou shalt put therein the Arke of the Testimonie, and couer the Arke with the vaile.

a After Moses had bene 40. daies and 40. nightes in the mount, that is, fro the beginning of August to the 10. of Sept. he came downe, & caused this worke to be done: which being finished, was set vp in Abib, which moneth cometh halfe Marche and halfe April.

4 Also thou shalt bring in the *Table, and set it in ordre as it doeth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candelstick, and light his lampes,

5 And thou shalt set the incense Altar b of golde before the Arke of the Testimonie, and put the c hanging at the dore of the Tabernacle.

b That is, the altar of perfume, or to burne incense on. c This hanging or vaile was betwene the Sanctuarie and the courte.

6 Moreouer thou shalt set the burnt offering Altar before the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregation & the Altar, and put water therein.

8 Then thou shalt appoint the courte round about, and hang vp the hanging at the courte gate.

9 After, thou shalt take the anointing oyle, and anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holye.

10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offering, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may be an altar moste holy.

11 Also thou shalt anoint the Lauer and his fote, and shalt sanctifie it.

12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoint him, & sanctifie him that he may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

14 Thou shalt also bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments,

15 And shalt anoint them as thou diddest anoint their father, that thei may minister vnto me in the Priests office: for their anointing shal be a signe, that the priesthode d shal be euerlasting vnto the throughout their generacions.

d Till bothe the priesthode and the ceremonies shulde ende, which was at Christs coming.

16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

17 ¶ Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth in e the seconde yere.

e Numb. 7, 1.

18 Then Moses reared vp the Tabernacle and fastened his sockets, and set vp the boardes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillers.

e After thei came out of Egypt, Numb. 7, 1.

19 And he spread the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie about it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he toke and put the f Testimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in the rings of the Arke, and set the Mercieseat on hie vpon the Arke.

f That is, the tables of the Lawe, chap. 31, 18. & 34, 29.

21 He broght also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the *couering vaile, Chap. 35, 12, m.i.

and couered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in the Tabernacle of the Congregation in the Northside of the Tabernacle, without the vaile, 23 And set the bread in ordre before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

24 ¶ Also he put the Candellsticke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation ouer against the Table towarde the Southside of the Tabernacle.

25 And he ^glighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

26 ¶ Moreouer he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the vaile, 27 And burnt swete incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

^g Between the Sanctuarie and the court.

28 ¶ Also he haged vp the vaile at the dore of the Tabernacle.

29 After he set the burnt offering Altar without the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & offered the burnt offering and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had comāded Mosés.

30 ¶ Likewise he set the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregation & the Altar, and powred water therein to wash with.

31 So Mosés, and Aarón, and his sonnes, washed their hands & their fete thereat.

32 When thei went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and when thei approached to the Altar, thei washed, as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

33 Finally he reared vp the courte round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the courte gate: so Mosés finished the worke.

34 ¶ Then the cloude couered the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle. ^{Nomb. 9.15. 1.king.8.10.}

35 So Mosés colde not entre into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.

36 Now when the cloude ascēded vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Israél went forward in all their iourneys.

37 But if the cloude ascēded not, then thei iourneied not til the day that it ascēded.

38 For ^h the cloude of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israél, throughout all their iourneys.

ing to their office.

THE ARGUMENT.

AS God daily by moste singular benefites declared him selfe to be mindeful of his Church: so he wolde not that thei shoulde haue anie occasion to trust ether in them selues, or to depend vpon others for lacke of temporal things, or ought that belonged to his diuine seruice and religion. Therefore he ordeined diuers kindes of oblations and sacrifices, to assure them of forgiveness of their offenses. (if thei offered them in true faith and obedience) Also he appointed their Priests and Leuites, their apparel, offices, conuersation and portion: he shewed what feastes thei shoulde obserue, and in what times. Moreouer he declared by these sacrifices & ceremonies that the reward of sinne is death, and that without the blood of Christ the innocent Lambe there can be no forgiveness of sinnes. And because thei shoulde giue no place to their owne inuentions (which thing God moste detesteth as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribed euen to the least things, what thei shoulde do, as what beastes thei shoulde offre and eat: what diseases were contagious and to be auoyded: what ordre thei shoulde take for all maner of filthines and pollution: whose companie thei shoulde flee: what maner of ges were lausful: and what politike lawes were profitable. Which things declared, he promised sauour and blessing to them that kept his Lawes, and threatened his curse to them that transgressed them.

- 4 And he shal put his hand vpon the head of the burnt offering and it shalbe accepted ^{"Ebr is him.} to the Lord, to be his atonement.
- 5 And ^{d The Priest or Leuite.} he shal kil the bullocke before the Lord, and the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal offer the blood, and shal sprinkle it round about vpon the ^{e Of the burnt offering, Exod 27,1} altar, that is by the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
- 6 Then shal he sleie the burnt offering and cut it in pieces.
- 7 So the sonnes of Aarón the Priest shal put fire vpon the altar, and lay the wood in ordre vpon the fire.
- 8 Then the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal lay the partes in ordre, the head and the ^{"Or, the body of the uel or the f is.} kall vpon the wood that is in the fire which is vpon the altar.
- 9 But the inwardes thereof and the legs thereof he shal wash in water, and the Priest shal burne all on the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblatiō made by fire, for a swete sauour ^{f Or a sauour of rest, which pacifieth the angre of the Lord} vnto the Lord.
- 10 ¶ And if his sacrifice for ^{g Read vers 5} y burnt offring be of the flockes (as of the shepe, or of y goates) he shal offer a male without blemish, ^{h Before the altar of the Lord} and he shal kil it on the Northside of the altar ^{"Ebr into his pieces} before the Lord, & the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the Altar.
- 12 And he shal cut it in ^{"Or, fies.} pieces, separat^{ing} his head and his kall, and the Priest shal lay them in ordre vpon the wood that lieth in the fire which is on the altar:
- 13 But he shal wash the inwardes, and the legs with water, and the Priest shal offer the whole & burne it vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offering, an oblatiō made by fire for a swete sauoure vnto the Lord.
- 14 ¶ And if his sacrifice be a burnt offering to the Lord of the foules, the he shal offer his sacrifice of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons.
- 15 And the Priest shal bring it vnto the altar, and wring the necke of it a funder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof shal be shed vpon the side of the altar.
- 16 And he shal plucke out his mawe wth his fethers, and cast them beside the altar on the ^{i The Ebrew e worde signifieth to pinch of with the nayle} Eastparte in the place of the ashes. ^{"Or, strained, or pressed.}
- 17 And he shal cleaue it with his wings, but not deuide it a funder: and the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in y fire: for it is a burnt offering, an oblatiō made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.
- 2 And shal bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priests, and ^{b The Priest} he shal take thence his handfull of the floure, and of the oyle with all the incense, and the Priest shal burne it for a ^{c To signifie that God remembereth him that offereth.} memorial vpon the altar: for it is an offering made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

- 5 ¶ But if thy meat offering be an oblatiō of the fuyng pan, it shalbe of fine floure vnleauened, mingled with oyle.
- 6 And thou shalt parte it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: for it is a meat offering.
- 7 ¶ And if thy meat offering be an oblation made in the caudron, it shalbe made of fine floure with oyle.
- 8 After, thou shalt bring the meat offering (y is made of these things) vnto y Lord, & shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shal bring it to the altar,

- 16 And the Priest shal burne the memorial of it, ^{Or, euen} of that that is beaten and of the oyle of it with all the incense thereof: for it is an offering vnto the Lord made by fire.

CHAP. II.

1 The meat offering is after three sortes: of fine floure vn-

15 And the Elders of the Congregation shal put their hands vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord, and he shal kil the bullocke before the Lord,

16 Then the Priest that is anointed, shal bring of the bullocks blood into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 17 And the Priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and spunkle it seuen times before the Lord, euery before the vaile.

18 Also he shal put some of the blood vpon the hornes of the altar, which is before the Lord, y^e is in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: then shal he powre all the rest of y^e blood at y^e fote of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, 19 And he shal take all his fat from him, & burne it vpon the altar.

20 And the Priest shal do with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for his sinne: so shal he do wth this: so the Priest shal make an atonement for them, and it shalbe forgiven them.

21 For he shal carie the bullocke without y^e holste, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an offering for the sinne of the Congregation.

Meaning of punishment of his sinne shal be laid vpon that beast, or, that he had receiued all things of God, and offered thus willingly.

34 Then the Priest shal take of the blood of the sinne offering with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offering altar, & shal powre all the rest of the blood thereof at the fote of the altar.

35 And he shal take away all y^e fat thereof, as the fat of the lambe of y^e peace offerings is taken away: then the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar with the oblations of the Lord made by fire, & the Priest shal make an atonement for him concerning his sinne that he hathe committed, and it shalbe forgiven him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 What considerations the Priest ought to obserue in iudging the leprosie, 29 The blacke spot or skab, 47 and the leprosie of the garment.

1 Moreover the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shal haue in the skin of his flesh a swelling or a skab, or a white spot, so that in the skin of his flesh ^a it be like y^e plague of leprosie, then he shalbe brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests, me to be ^b lower the the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: therefore the Priest shal loke on him, and "pronounce him vncleane."

4 But if the white spot be in f^y skin of his flesh, and seme not to be lower then the skin, nor the heere thereof be turned vnto white, then the Priest shal shut vp him that hath the plague, seuen daies.

5 After, the Priest shal loke vpon him the seuenth day: & if the plague seme "to him to abide stil, and the plague growe not in the skin, the Priest shal shut him vp yet seuen daies more.

6 Then the Priest shal loke on him againe the seuenth day, and if the plague ^c be darcke, and the sore growe not in the skin, then the Priest shal "pronouce him cleane, for it is a skab: therefore he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the skab growe more in the skin, after that he is sene of the Priest, for to be purged, he shalbe sene of the Priest yet againe.

8 Then the Priest shal consider, and if the skab "growe in the skin, then the Priest shal pronounce him ^d vncleane: for it is leprosie.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shalbe broght vnto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shal se him: & if the swelling be white in the skin, & haue made f^y heere white, & there be rawe flesh in the swelling,

11 It is an olde leprosie in the skin of his flesh: and the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, and shal not shut him vp, for he is vncleane.

12 Also if the leprosie "breake out in the skin, and the leprosie couer all the skin of the plague, from his head euen to his fete, wheresoeuer the Priest loketh, 13 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the leprosie couer all his flesh, he shal pronouce f^y plague to be ^e cleane, because it is all turned into whitens: so he shalbe cleane.

14 But if there be rawe flesh on him when he is sene, he shalbe vncleane.

15 For the Priest shal se the rawe flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe flesh is ^f vncleane, therefore it is the leprosie.

16 Or if the rawe flesh change and be turned into white, then he shal come to the Priest, 17 And the Priest shal beholde him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shal pronouce the plague cleane, for it is cleane.

18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skin there is a bile and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white swelling, or a white spot somewhat reddish, it shalbe sene of the Priest.

20 And whe the Priest seeth it, if it appeare lower then the skin, and the heere thereof be changed into white, the Priest the shal pronounce him ^g vncleane: for it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile.

21 But if the Priest loke on it and there be no white heeres therein, & if it be not lower then the skin, but be darcker, then the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies.

22 And if it spread abroad in the flesh, the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, for it is a sore.

23 But if the spot continue in his place, & growe not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

24 ¶ If there be anie flesh, in whose skin there is an hote burning, and the quicke flesh of the burning haue a ^h white spot, somewhat reddish or pale,

25 Then the Priest shal loke vpon it: and if the heere in that spot be chaged into white, and it appeare lower then the skin, it is a leprosie broke out in the burning: therefore the Priest shal pronouce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest loke on it, and there be no white heere in the spot, and be no lower the the other skin, but be darcker, then the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies.

27 After, the Priest shal loke on him the seuenth day: if it be grown abroad in the skinne, then the Priest shal pronouce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is darcke, it is a ⁱ rⁱ "Or, swelling. ling of the burning: the Priest shal therefore declare him cleane, for it is the drying vp of the burning.

29 ¶ If also a man, or woman hath a sore on the head or in the beard,

30 Then the Priest shal se the sore: and if it appeare lower then the skin, and there be in it a smale yelow^e heere, then the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: for it is a blacke spot, and leprosie of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Priest loke on the sore of the blacke spot, and if it seme not lower then f^y skin nor haue anie blacke heere in it, the Priest shal shut vp him, that hath the sore of the blacke spot, seuen daies.

32 After, in the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the sore: and if f^y blacke spot growe not, & there be in it no yelow^e heere, and the blacke spot seme not lower then the skin, 33 Then he shalbe shauen, but the place of f^y blacke spot shal he not shau^e: but f^y Priest shal shut vp him, that hath the blacke spot, seuen daies more.

34 And the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the blacke spot: and if the blacke spot n.iii.

the *o*ther skin, then y Priest shal clese him, & he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.
35 But if the blacke spot growe abroad in the flesh after his clensing, 36 Then the Priest shal loke on it: and if the blacke spot growe in the skin, y Priest shal not ^k seke for the yelow heere: for he is vncleane.
37 But if the blacke spot seme to him to abide, and that blacke heere growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, he is cleane, and the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.
38 ¶ Furthermore if there be manie white spots in y skin of y flesh of man or womā, 39 Then the Priest shal cōsider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darcke and white withall, it is but a white spot broken out in the skin: there- fore he is cleane.
40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head and is balde, is cleane.
41 And if his head close the ^l heere on the fore parte, & be balde before, he is cleane.
42 But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde fore heade a white reddish fore, it is a leprosie springig in his balde head,
or in his balde forehead.
43 Therefore the Priest shal loke vpon it, and if the rising of the fore be white reddish in his balde head, or in his balde fore head, appearing like leprosie in the skin of the flesh,
44 He is a leper and vncleane: therefore the Priest shal pronounce him altogether vncleane: for the sore is in his head.
45 The leper also in whome the plague is, shal haue his clothes ^m rent, and his head bare, and shal put a couering vpo his ⁿ lip-reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thig that is made of *o*skin, it is a plague of leprosie & shal be shewed vnto tne Priest.

50 Then the Priest shal se the plague, and shut vp it that hath the plague, seuen daies,

52 And he shal burne the garment, or the warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen

the fire.

53 If the Priest yet se that the plague p^rgroor in whatsoeuer thing of skin it be,

54 Then the Priest shal commade them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, & he shal shut it vp seuen dayes more.

55 Againe the Priest shal loke on the plahaue not changed his ^q colour, though the plague spred no further, it is vncleane:

thou shalt burne it in y fire, for it is a frea-ting leprosie, whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in parte thereof.

56 And if the Priest se that the plague be darcker, after that it is washed, he shal cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare stil in the garment or thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprosie:

thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment or the warpe, or y woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed therefrom, then shal it be washed ^r the seconde time, and be cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing of skin, to make it cleane or vncleane.

15 The Priest shal also take of the pinte of oyle, and powre it into the palme of his left hand,

16 And the Priest shal dip his^{} right finger in the oyle that is in his left hād, & sprinkle of the oyle with his finger seuen times before the Lord.

17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hand, shal the Priest put vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clensed, & vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote, ^{where} the blood of the trespass offering was put.

18 But the remnant of the oyle that is in the Priestes hand, he shal powre vpon the head of him that is to be clensed: so the Priest shal make an atonemēt for him before the Lord.

19 And the Priest shal offer the sin offering and make an atonement for him that is to be clensed of his vncleennes: the after shal he kil the burnt offering.

20 So the Priest shal offer the burnt offering & the meat offering vpon the altar: and the Priest shal make an atonement for him: so he shalbe cleane.

21 But if he be poore, & ^{not} able, then he shal bring one labe for a trespass offering to be shake, for his recōciliation, & a^s tenth deale of fine flour mingled with oyle, for a meat offering, with a pinte of oyle.

22 Also two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, as he is able, whereof the one shalbe a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering,

23 And he shal bring them the eight day for his clensing vnto the Priest at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

24 Then the Priest shal take the lambe of the trespass offering, and the pinte of oyle, and the Priest shal^h shake them to and fro before the Lord.

25 And he shal kil the lambe of the trespass offering, & the Priest shal take of y^e blood of the trespass offering, and put it vpon the lap of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right fote.

26 Also the Priest shal powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne^l left hand.

27 So the Priest shal with his right finger sprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seuen times before the Lord.

28 Then the Priest shal put of the oyle that is in his hand, vpon the lap of the right eare of him that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote: vpon the place^{of} the blood of the trespass offering.

29 But y^e rest of the oyle that is in y^e Priestis hād, he shal put vpon the head of him that is to be clensed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 Also he shal present one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, ^{as} he is able:

31 Suche, I say, as he is able, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering^h with the meat offering: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him that is to be clensed before the Lord.

32 This is the^k lawe of him which hathe y^e plague of leprosie, who is not able in his clensing to offe^r the whole.

33 ¶ The Lord also spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come vnto the land of Canaan which I giue you in possession, if I send the plague of leprosie in an house of the land of your possession, 35 Then he that oweth the house, shal come and tel the Priest, saying, Me thinke there is like a plague of leprosie in the house.

37 And he shal marke the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that there be^a depe spots, grenish or reddish, which seme to be lower the wall,

38 Then the Priest shal go out of the house to the dore of the house, and shal cause to shut vp the house seuen daies.

39 So y^e Priest shal come againe the seueth day: and if he se that the plague be increased in the walles of the house,

43 But if the plague come againe and breake out in the house, after that he hathe taken away the stones, and after y^e he hathe scraped and plaistred the house,

44 Then the Priest shal come and see: and if the plague growe in the house, it is a freating leprosie in the house: it is therefore vncleane.

45 And he shal^a breake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the^m morter of the house, and he shal carie them out of the citie vnto an vncleane place.

47 He also that slepeth in the house shal wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shal wash his clothes.

48 But if the Priest shal come and se, that the plague hathe spred no further in the house, after the house be plaistred, the Priest shal pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed.

49 Then shal he take to purifie the house, two sparowes, and cedar wood, & skarlet lace, and hyssope.

50 And he shal kil one sparowe ouer pure water in an earthen vessel,

51 And shal take the cedar wood, and the hyssope, and the skarlet lace with the liue sparowe, and dip them in the blood of the flaine sparowe, and in the pure water, and sprinkle the house seuen times:

52 So shal he clense the house wth the blood of the sparowe and with the pure water, and with the liue sparowe, & with the cedar wood, and with the hyssope, and with the skarlet lace.

53 Afterwarde he shal let go y^e liue sparowe out of the^a towne into y^e broad fields: so shal he make atonement for the house, and it shalbe cleane.

- 9 And Aaron shal offer the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shal fall, and make him a sinne offering.
- 10 But the goat, on which the lot shal fall to be the Scape goat, shalbe presented alive before the Lord, to make reconciliation by him, ~~and~~ to let him go (as a Scape goat) into the wilderness.
- 11 Thus Aaron shal offer the bullocke for his sinne offering, & make a reconciliation for himselfe, and for his house, and shal kill the bullocke for his sinne offering.
- 12 And he shal take a censer full of burning coles from of the Altar before the Lord, & his handfull of sweete incense beat small, and bring it within the ^c vaile;

- 16 So he shal purge the Holy place from the vncleannes of the children of Israel, & from their trespasses of all their sinnes: so shal he do also for the Tabernacle of the Congregation ^g placed with them, in the middes of their vncleannes.
- 17 *And there shal be no man in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the Holy place, vntill he come out, & haue made an atonement for himselfe, & for his householde, and for all the Congregation of Israel.
- 18 After, he shal go out vnto the ^h Altar that is before the Lord, & make a reconciliation vpon it, & shal take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goat, and put it vpon the hornes of the Altar round about:
- 19 So shal he sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and halowe it from the vncleannes of the children of Israel.
- 20 ¶ Whē he hath made an end of purging the Holy place, & the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and the altar, then he shal bring the liue goat:

- 22 So the goat shal beare vpon him all their iniquities into ^j the land that is not inhabited, and he shal let the goat go into the wilderness.
- 23 After, Aaron shal come into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and put of the linen clothes, which he put on whē he went into ^k the Holy place, & leaue the there.
- 24 He shal wash also his flesh with water in ^l the Holy place, and put on his owne raiment, and come out, and make his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for him self, and for the people.
- 25 Also the fat of the sinne offering shal he burne vpon the Altar.
- 26 And he that carryed ^m forthe the goat, called the Scape goat, shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and after that shal come into the hoste.
- 27 Also the bullocke for the sinne offering, and the goat for the sinne offering (whose blood was brought to make a reconciliation in ⁿ the Holy place) shal one ^o carry out with him the hoste to be burnt in the fire, with their skins, and with their flesh, and with their dung.
- 28 And he that burneth them shal wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in water, and afterwarde come into the hoste.
- 29 ¶ So this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto you: the tenth day of the ^p seuenth moneth, ye shal ^q humble your soules, and do no worke at all, whether it be one of ^r your same countrey, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.
- 30 For ^s the day shal the Priest make an atonement for you to cleanse you: ye shal be cleane from all your sinnes before the Lord.
- 31 This shalbe a ^t Sabbath of rest vnto you, and ye shal humble your soules, by an ordinance for euer.
- 32 And the Priest ^u whome he shal anoint, and whome he shal consecrate (to minister in his fathers stede) shal make the atonement, and shal put on the linen clothes & holy vestments;
- 33 And shal purge the holy Sanctuary and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & shal cleanse the Altar, & make an atonement for the Priests, and for all the people of the Congregation.

6 Then the Priest shal sprinkle the blood vpon the altar of the Lord before the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and burne the fat for a swete saour vnto the Lord.

7 And they shal no more offer their offerings vnto deuils, after whome they haue gone a whoring: this shalbe an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generacions.

8 Also thou shalt say vnto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourne among them, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation to offer it vnto the Lord, euē that man shal be cut of from his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, & I haue given it vnto you to offer vpon the altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for this blood shal make an atonement for the soule.

12 Therefore I said vnto the childre of Israel, None of you shal eat blood: nether the stranger that sojourneth among you, shal eat blood.

13 Moreover whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourne among them, which by hunting taketh anie beast or foule that may be eatē, he shal powre out his blood thereof, and couer it with dust:

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto all the Congregation of the children of Israel, and say vnto them, *Ye shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy.
3 *Ye shall feare euerie man his mother & his father, and shall kepe my Sabbaths: for

I am the Lord your God.

4 *Ye shall not turne vnto idoles, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

5 *And when ye shall offer a peace offering vnto the Lord, ye shall offer it freely.

6 *It shall be eaten the day ye offer it, or on the morowe: & that which remaineth vntil the third day, shall be burnt in the fire.

7 For if it be eaten the third day, it shall be vnclane, it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore he that eateth it, shall beare his iniquitie, because he hath defiled the halowed thing of the Lord, and that person shall be cut of from his people.

9 *When ye reape your harvest of your land, ye shall not reape euerie corner of your field, nether shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 Thou shalt not gather the grapes of thy vineyarde cleane, nether gather euerie grape of thy vineyarde, but thou shalt leaue them for the poore and for the stranger: I am the Lord your God.

11 *Ye shall not steale, nether shall ye deale falsely, nether lie one to another.

12 *Also ye shall not sweare by my Name falsely, nether shalt thou defile the Name of thy God: I am the Lord.

13 *Thou shalt not do thy neighbour wrong, nether robbe him. *The worckemans hire shall not abide with thee vntil the morning.

14 *Thou shalt not curse the deafe, *nether put a stumbling blocke before the blinde, but shalt feare thy God: I am the Lord.

15 *Ye shall not do vniustly in iudgement.
*Thou shalt not fauour the persone of the poore, nor honour the persone of the mighty, but thou shalt iudge thy neighbour iustly.

16 *Thou shalt not walke about with tales among thy people. Thou shalt not stand against the blood of thy neighbour:
I am the Lord.

17 *Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but thou shalt plainly rebuke thy neighbour, and suffice him not to sinne.

18 *Thou shalt not auenge, nor be minde-ful of wrong against the childre of thy people, but shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe: I am the Lord.

19 *Ye shall kepe mine ordinances. Thou shalt not let thy cattel gendre with so-

- 30 And euerie persone that shal do anie worke that same day, the same persone also wil I destroye from among his people.
- 31 Ye shal do no maner worke therefore : this shalbe a lawe for euer in your generacions, throughout all your dwellings.
- 32 This shalbe vnto you a Sabbath of rest, and ye shal hūble your soules: in the ninth day of the moneth at euen, from ^o euen to euen shal ye^o celebrate your Sabbath.
- 33 ¶ And y^e Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

- 37 These are y^e feastes of the Lord (which ye shal call holy conuocations) to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto y^e Lord, as burnt offering, and meat offering, ^q sacrifice, and drinke offrings, euerie one vpon his day,
- 38 Beside the Sabbaths of the Lord, & beside your gifts, and beside all your vovs, and beside all your fre offrings, which ye shal giue vnto the Lord.
- 39 But in the fiftieth day of the seuēth moneth, whē ye haue gathered in the frute of the land, ye shal kepe an holy feast vnto the Lord seuen daies: in the first day shalbe a ^r Sabbath: likewise in the eight day shalbe a Sabbath.
- 40 And ye shal take you in the first day the frute of goodlie trees, branches of palme trees, and the boughes of ^s thicke trees, & willowes of the brooke, and shal reioyce before the Lord your God seuen daies.
- 41 So ye shal kepe this feast vnto the Lord seuen daies in the yere, by a perpetual ordinance through your generacions: in the seuēth moneth shal you kepe it.
- 42 Ye shal dwel in bootes seuen daies: all that are Israelites borne, shal dwel in bootes,

- 5 ¶ Also thou shalt take fine floure, & bake twelue * cakes thereof: two ^c tenth deales shal be in one cake.
- 6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six in a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord.
- 7 Thou shalt also put pure incense vpon the rowes, that ^d in stede of the bread it may be for a remembrance, and an offering made by fire to the Lord.
- 8 Euerie Sabbath he shal put the in rowes before the Lord euermore, renewing them of the childre of Israēl for an euerlasting couenant.
- 9 * And the bread shalbe Aarons & his sonnes, and thei shal eat it in the holy place: for it is moste holy vnto him of the offrings of the Lord made by fire by a perpetual ordinance.

6 And the ^d rest of the lād shalbe meat for you, euen for thee, & for thy seruant, & for thy maid, & for thy hyred seruant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:

7 And for thy cattel, and for the beastes that are in thy land shal all the increase thereof be meat.

"Or, weekes"
e In the beginning of the 50. yere was the Iubile, so called, because the ioyful tidings of liberacie was publicly proclaimed by the sounde of a cornet.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt number seven^e Sabbaths of yeres vnto thee, euen seven times seven yere: and the space of the seven Sabbaths of yeres wil be vnto thee nine and fourty yere.

9 * Then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliacion shal ye make the trumpet blowe, through out all your land.

10 And ye shal halowe that yere, euen the fiftieth yere, and proclaime libertie in the land to all the ^f inhabitants thereof: it shal be the Iubile vnto you, and ye shal returne euerie man vnto his ^g possession, and euerie man shal returne vnto his familie.

f Which were in bondage

g Because the tribes shoulde nether haue their possessions, or families diminished nor confounded

11 This fiftieth yere shalbe a yere of Iubile vnto you: ye shal not sowe, nether reape that which groweth of it selfe, nether gather the grapes thereof, that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it shal be holy vnto you: ye shal eat of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the yere of this Iubile, ye shal returne euerie man vnto his possession.

14 And whē thou sellest oght to thy neighbour, or byest at thy neighbours hand, ye shal ^h not oppresse one another:

h By deceit or otherwise.
i If the Iubile to come be nere, thou shalt sel better cheape: if it be farre of, dearer

15 But according to the number of ⁱ yeres after the Iubile thou shalt bye of thy neighbour: also according to the number of the yeres of the reuenues, he shal sel vnto thee.

16 According to the multitude of yeres, thou shalt encrease the price thereof, and according to the fewnes of yeres, thou shalt abate the price of it: for the number of ^k frutes doeth he sel vnto thee.

k And not the full possession of the land.

17 Oppresse not ye therefore anie man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shal obey mine ordinances, and kepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shal dwell in the land ^l in safteie.

"Or, boldly without feare."

19 And the land shal giue her frute, and ye shal eat your fil, and dwell therein in safteie.

20 And if ye shal say, What shal we eat the seuenth yere, for we shal not sowe, nor gather in our increase?

21 I wil^m send my blessing vpon you in the sixt yere, and it shal bring forth the frute for thre yeres.

"Ebr. I wil command"

22 And ye shal sowe the eight yere, and eat of the olde frute vntil the ninth yere: vntil the frute thereof come, ye shal eat the olde.

23 ¶ Also the land shal not be sold to be ⁿ cut of from the familie: for the land is mine, and ye be but strangers and sojourners with me.

l It coulde not be sold for euer, but must returne to the familie in the Iubile

24 Therefore in all the land of your possession ye shal ^m grante a redemption for the land.

m Ye shal sel it on condiciō that it may be redeemed.

25 ¶ If thy brother be impouersished, & sel his possession, the his redemer shal come, euen his nere kinsman, and bye out that which hisⁿ brother solde.

Then shal he counte the yeres of his sale, and restore the ouerplus to the man, to whome he solde it: so shal he returne to his possession.

But if he can not get sufficient to restore to him, then that which is solde, shal remaine in the hand of him that hath bought it, vntil the yere of the Iubile: and in the Iubile it shal come out, and he shal returne vnto his possession.

Likewise if a man sel a dwelling house in a walled citie, he may bye it out againe within a whole yere after it is solde: within a yere may he bye it out.

But if it be not bought out within the space of a ful yere, then the house that is in the walled citie, shalbe stablished, as cut of from the familie, to him that bought it, throughout his generacions: it shal not go out in the Iubile.

But the houses of villages, which haue no walles rounde about them, shalbe esteemed as the field of the countie: they may be bought out againe, and shal go out in the Iubile.

Notwithstanding, the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeme at all seasons.

And if a man purchase of the Leuites, the house that was solde, and the citie of their possession shal go out in the Iubile: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites are their possession among the children of Israel.

But the field of the suburbs of their cities, shal not be solde: for it is their perpetual possession.

Moreover if thy brother be impouerished, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt releue him, and as a stranger and sojourner, so shal he liue with thee.

* Thou shalt take no vsurie of him; nor vantage, but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee.

Thou shalt not giue him thy money to vsurie, nor lend him thy vitayles for increase.

I am the Lord your God, which haue brought you out of the land of Egypt, to giue you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

* If thy brother also that dwelleth by thee, be impouerished, and be solde vnto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serue as a bonde seruant,

But as an hyred seruant, and as a sojourner he shal be with thee: he shal serue thee vnto the yere of the Iubile.

The shal he departe from thee, both he, and his children with him, and shal returne vnto his familie, and vnto the possession of his fathers shal he returne:

For they are my seruants, whome I brought out of the land of Egypt: they shal not be solde as bonde men are solde.

* Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

Thy bonde seruant also, and thy bonde maid, which thou shalt haue, shal be of the heathen that are rounde about you: of the shal ye bye seruants and maids.

And moreouer of the children of the strangers, that are sojourners among you, of them shal ye bye, and of their families that are with you, which they begate in your land: these shal be your possession.

So ye shal take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possess them by inheritance, ye shal vse their labours for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Israel ye shal not rule one ouer another with crueltie.

* If a sojourner or a stranger dwelling by thee get riches, and thy brother by him be impouerished, and sel him selfe vnto the stranger or sojourner dwelling by thee, or to the stocke of the strangers familie,

After that he is solde, he may be bought out: one of his brethren may bye him out, or his vncler, or his vncler sone may bye him out, or anie of the kinred of his flesh among his familie, may redeme him: either if he can get so much, he may bye him selfe out.

Then he shal reken with his byer from the yere that he was solde to him, vnto the yere of Iubile: and the money of his sale shal be according to the number of yeres: according to the time of an hyred seruant shal he be with him.

If there be manie yeres behinde, according to them he shal giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was bought for.

If there remaine but fewe yeres vnto the yere of Iubile, the he shal couete with him, and according to his yeres giue againe for his redemption.

He shal be with him yere by yere as an hyred seruāt: he shal not rule cruelly ouer him in thy sight.

And if he be not redeemed thus, he shal go out in the yere of Iubile, he, and his children with him.

For vnto me the children of Israel are seruants: they are my seruants, whome I haue brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

29 And ye shal eat the flesh of your sonnes, and the flesh of your daughters shal ye deuoure.

30 I wil also destroye your hie places, and ^t cut away your images, and calt your carkeises vpon the ^u bodies of your idoles, & my soule shal abhorre you.

31 And I wil make your cities desolate, and bring your Sanctuarie vnto nought, and ^v wil not shew the sauour of your swete odoures.

32 I wil also bring the land vnto a wilderness, & your enemies, which dwel therein, shal be astonished thereat.

33 Also I wil scatter you among the heathē, and ^w wil drawe out a sworde after you, and your land shal be waste, and your cities shal be desolate.

THE ARGUMENT.

FOrasmuche as God hath appointed that his Church in this worlde shalbe vnder the crosse, bothe because they shoulde learne not to put their trust in worldly things, and also seke his comfote, when all other helpe faileth: he did not straight way bring his peopl, after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he promised them: but led them to and fro for the space of fourtie yeres, and kept them in continual exercises before they enioyed it, to trye their faith, and to teache the to forget the worlde and to depend on him. Which tryal did greatly profit to discerne the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithful and true seruants of God, who serued him with pure heart, where as the other preferring their carnal affections to Gods glorie, and making religions to serue their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lustes, and despised them whome God had appointed rulers ouer them. By reason whereof they prouoked Gods terrible iudge-ments against them, and are set forth as a moste notable example for all ages to beware how they abuse Gods worde, preferre their owne lustes to his wil, or despise his ministers. Notwithstanding God is euer true in his promes, and gouerneth his, by his holy Spirit, that ether they fall not to suche inconueniences, or els returne to him quickly by true repentance: and therefore he continueth his graces toward them, he giueth them ordinances and instructions, as wel for religion as out ward police: he preserveth them against all craft and conspiracie, and giueth them manifold victories against their enemies. And to auoyd all controuersies that might arise, he taketh away the occasiōs, by diuiding among all the tribes, bothe the land, which they had wonne, & that also which he had promised, as semed best to his godlie wisdom.

The offices of the Leuites, when the hoste removed 46 The n^ober of the thre families of Kohath, Gershon, and Merari.

And the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

Take the summe of the sonnes of Kohath frō among the sonnes of Leui, after their families, & houses of their fathers, frō a thirtie yere olde & aboue euen vntil fiftie yere olde, all that entre into the assemblie to do the worke in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

This shalbe the office of the sonnes of Kohath in the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion about the Holiest of all.

¶ When the hoste remoueth, then Aaron & his sonnes shal come & take downe the couering vail, & shal couer the Aike of the Testimonie therewith.

And they shal put thereon a couering of badgers skins, and shal spread vpon it a cloth altogether of blew silk, and put to the barres thereof:

And vpon the table of shewe bread they shal spread a cloth of blew silk, and put thereon the dishes, & y^e mens cups, & goblets, & couerings to couer it with, & the bread shalbe thereon continually:

And they shal spread vpon them a couering of skarlet, and couer the same with a couering of badgers skins, and put to the barres thereof.

a The Leuites were nombred after thre sorts: first at a moneth olde w^h thei were consecrate to the Lord, next at 25 yere olde w^h they were appointed to serue in y^e Tabernacle, & at 30 yere olde to beare the burthen of the Tabernacle

- 18 Ye shal not cut of the tribe of y families of y Kohathites from among y Leuites:
- 19 But thus do vnto them, that they may liue & not dye, when they come nere to the moste holy things: let Aarōn and his sonnes come and appoint n them, euerie one to his office, and to his charge.
- 20 But let them not go in, to se when the Sanctuarie is folden vp, lest they dye.
- 21 ¶ And y Lord spake vnto Moyses, saying,
- 22 Take also the summe of the sonnes of Gershōn, euerie one by y houses of their fathers throughout their families:
- 23 From thirtie yere olde and aboue, vntil fiftie yere olde shalt thou nōbre them, all that o entre into y assemblie for to do seruice in y Tabernacle of y Congregation.
- n Which was receiued into the companye of them that ministered in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.*
- 24 This shalbe the seruice of the families of the Gershonites, to serue and to beare.
- 25 They shal beare y curtaines of the Tabernacle, & the Tabernacle of the Cōgregation, his couering, and the couering of badgers skins, that is on hie vpon it, and y vaile of the o dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

- p Which court compassed bothe the Tabernacle of the Cōgregation & y altar of burnt offering.*
- 27 At the commandement of Aarōn and his sonnes shal all the seruice of the sonnes of y Gershonites be done, in all their charges and in all their seruice, & ye shal appoint them to kepe all their charges.
- 28 This is the seruice of the families of y sonnes of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, & their watch shalbe vnder the q hand of Ithamār the sonne of Aarōn the Priest.
- q Vnder the charge and oversight.*
- 29 ¶ Thou shalt number the sonnes of Merarī by their families, & by the houses of their fathers:
- 30 From thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde shalt thou nōbre them, all that entre into the assemblie, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Cōgregation.
- 31 And this is their office & charge according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: the * boardes of Exod. 26, 31. the Tabernacle with the barres thereof, and his pillers, and his sockets.
- 32 And the pillers round about the court, with their sockets and their pins, and their cordes, w all their instrumentes, euen for all their seruice, & by r name ye shal rekē the instrumentes of their office & charge.
- r Ye shal make an inuentoarie of all the things, w ye comit to their charge.*
- 33 This is the seruice of the families of the sonnes of Merarī, according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation vnder the hād of Ithamār the sonne of Aarōn the Priest.
- 34 ¶ Then Moyses and Aarōn and the princes of the Congregation nombred the sonnes of y Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers,
- 35 Frō thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde, all that entre into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
- 36 So the s numbers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seuen hundred and fiftie.
- s As the number of them.*
- 37 These are the numbers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serue in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, which Moyses and Aarōn did number according to the commandemēt of the Lord by the t hand of Moyses.
- t God appointing Moyses to be y minister & exerceuter thereof.*

- 38 Also the numbers of the sonnes of Gershón throughout their families and houses of their fathers,
- 39 From thirtie yere olde and vpward, euen vnto fiftie yere olde: all that entre into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
- 40 So the numbers of them by their families, & by the houses of their fathers were two thousand six hundred & thirtie.
- 41 These are the nōbers of y families of y sonnes of Gershón: of all that did seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation, whome Mosēs & Aarōn did nōber according to the commandement of the Lord.

- 45 These are y summes of y families of the sonnes of Merari, whome Mosēs & Aarōn nōbred according to the commandemēt of the Lord, by the hand of Mosēs.
- 46 So all the numbers of the Leuites, which Mosēs, & Aarōn, & the princes of Israēl nombred, by their families & by the houses of their fathers,
- 47 Frō thirtie yere olde & vpward, euen to fiftie yere olde, euerie one that came to do his dutie, office, seruice and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
- 48 So the numbers of them were eight thousand five hundred and foure score.
- 49 According to the cōmandement of y Lord by y hād of Mosēs did Aarōn nōber thē, euerie one according to his seruice, & according to his charge. Thus were thei of that tribe nōbred, as the Lord commāded Mosēs.

26 And the Priest shal take an handful of the offering for a memorial thereof, and burne it vpon the altar, and afterward make y^e woman drinke the water.

27 When he hath made her drinke the water, (if she be defiled and haue trespassed against her housband) then shal the cursed water, turned into bitterneſſe, entre into her, and her belly shal swel, and her thigh shal rott, & the woman shal be accursed amōg her people.

¹³² Or, innocent.

28 But if the woman be not defiled, but be cleane, she shal be fre and shal coſciue & beare.

29 This is the lawe of ielousie, when a wife turneth frō her housband & is defiled,

30 Or when a man is moued with a ielous minde being ielous ouer his wife, then shal he bring the woman before y^e Lord, and the Priest shal do to her according to all this lawe, ¹³² The man might accuse his wife and not be reproved.

31 And the man shal be fre from sinne, but this woman shal beare her iniquitie.

¹³² The lawe of the consecration of the Nazarite. 24 The manner to blesse the people.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moſes, saying;

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraēl, and say vnto them, When a man or a woman doeth separate theſelues to vowe a vowe of a Nazarite to separate him ſelfe vnto the Lord, ¹³² a Which separated them ſelues from the world, & dedicated them ſelues to God: whose figure was accomplished in Christ.

3 He shal absteine frō wine & ſtōg drinke, and shal drinke no ſōwre wine nor ſōwre drinke, nor shal drinke anie licour of grapes, nether shal eat fresh grapes nor dried.

4 As long as his abſtinenſe endureth, shal he eat nothing y^e is made of the wine of y^e vine, nether the kernels, nor the huske.

¹³² Indg. 13, 15. 1 Sam. 1, 11.

5 While he is ſeparate by his vowe, the razor shal not come vpon his head, vntil the dayes be out, in the which he separateth him ſelfe vnto the Lord, he shal be holie, and shal let the lockes of the heere of his head growe.

6 During the time that he separateth him ſelfe vnto the Lord, he shal come at no dead body:

¹³² b As at burials, or mournings.

7 He shal not make him ſelfe vnclane at the death of his father, or mother, brother, or ſiſter: for the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

¹³² c In that he ſuffered his heere to growe, he ſignified y^e he was consecrated to God.

8 All the dayes of his ſeparacion he shal be holy to the Lord.

¹³² d Which ſōg here is a ſigne that he is dedicate to God.

9 And if anie dye ſodely by him, or he be ware, then the head of his consecration shal be defiled, and he shal ſhaue his head in the day of his clenſing: in the ſeuenth day he shal ſhaue it.

10 And in the eight day he shal bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons to the Priest, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

11 Then the Priest shal prepare the one for a ſin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, & shal make an atonement for him, becauſe he ſinned by the dead: ſo shal he halowe his head the ſame day, ¹³² e By being preſent, where the dead was.

12 And he shal consecrate vnto the Lord the daies of his ſeparacion, and shal bring a lambe of a yere olde for a trespaſs offering, and the firſt 2 daies shal be voyde: for his consecration was defiled.

¹³² f Beginning at the eight day, when he is purified.

13 ¶ This then is the lawe of the Nazarite: When the time of his consecration is out, he shal come to the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, ¹³² g So that he shal beginne his vowe anewe.

14 And he shal bring his offering vnto the Lord, an he lambe of a yere olde without blemish for a burnt offering, and a ſhe lābe of a yere olde without blemish for a ſin offering, and a ram without blemish for peace offerings,

15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, of cakes of fine floure, mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread anointed with oyle, with their meat offering, and their drinke offerings:

¹³² Leu. 2, 15.

16 The which the Priest shal bring before the Lord, and make his ſin offering and his burnt offering.

17 He shal prepare also the ram for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vnleauened bread, and the Priest shal make his meat offering, and his drinke offering.

18 And y^e Nazarite shal ſhaue the head of his consecraciō at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and shal take the heere of the head of his consecraciō, and put it in the fire, which is vnder the peace offering.

¹³² 18, 29 h In token his vowe ended.

19 Then the Priest shal take the ſodē ſoulder of the ram, and an vnleauened cake out of the basket, & a wafer vnleauened, and put them vpon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath ſhaue his consecraciō.

¹³² i For the heere, which was consecrated to y^e Lord, might not be caſt into anie profane place.

20 And the Priest shal shake them to and fro

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which he hath vowed, and of his offering vnto the Lord for his consecracion, ^k besides that that he is able to bring: according to the vowe which he vowed, so shal he do after the lawe of his consecracion.

22 ¶ And ^y Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

CHAP. IX.

^a The Passeouer is commanded againe. ²⁹ The punishment of him that kepeth not the Passeouer. ¹⁵ The cloude conducteth the Israelites through the wilderness.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Mosés in the wilderness of Sináí, in the first moneth of the secōde yere, after thei were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 The childre of Israël shal also celebrate the ^a Passeouer at the time appointed therunto.

3 In the fourtēth day of this moneth at ^a euen, ye shal kepe it in his due season: according to ^a all the ordinances of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shal ye kepe it.

4 Then Mosés spake vnto the children of Israël, to celebrate the Passeouer.

5 And thei kept the Passeouer in the fourtēth day of the first moneth at euen in ^h wilderness of Sináí: according to all that the Lord had commanded Mosés, so did the children of Israël.

6 ¶ And certein men were defiled ^h by a dead man, thar thei might not kepe the Passeouer the same day: and thei came before Mosés and before Aarón the same day.

7 And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe that we may not ^c offer an offering vnto the Lord in the time thereunto appointed among the children of Israël?

8 Then Mosés said vnto them, Stand stil, and I wil heare what the Lord wil cōmande concerning you.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Mosés, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israël, and say, If anie among you, or of your posteritie shalbe vncleane by the reason of a corps, or be in a long iourney, ^d he shal kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord.

11 In the fourtēth day of the ^c seconde moneth at euen thei shal kepe it: with vnleauened bread and sowe heibes shal thei eat it.

12 They shal leaue none of it vnto the morning, ^e nor breake anie bone of it: according to all the ordinance of the Passeouer shal thei kepe it.

13 But the man that is cleane and is not in a ^f iourney, and is negligent to kepe the Passeouer, the same persone shalbe cut of from his people: because he broght not the offering of the Lord in his due season, that man shal beare his ^g sinne.

14 And if a stranger dwel among you, and wil kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord, as the ordinance of the Passeouer, & as the manner thereof is, so shal he do: ^e ye shal haue one lawe bothe for the stranger, & for him that was borne in the same land.

15 ¶ And whē the Tabernacle was reared ^{Exod 40, 34.} vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, namely the Tabernacle of the Testimonie: & at euen the ^e was vpon the Tabernacle, as the ^g appearance of fire vntil morning.

16 So it was alwaie: the cloude couered it by ^h day, & the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then afterward the children of Israël iourneied: & in the place where the cloude abode, there the children of Israël pitched their tentes.

18 At the ^h commandement of the ^h Lord the children of Israël iourneied, and at the commandement of the Lord thei pitched: as long as the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle, ^h they laye stil.

19 And when the cloude taryed stil vpon the Tabernacle a long time, the children of Israël kept the ¹ watch of the Lord, & iourneied not.

 7 Of the tribe of Iudáh, Caléb the sonne of Iephunnéh:
 8 Of the tribe of Issachár, Igál the sonne of Ioséph:
 9 Of the tribe of Ephráim, ^{Or, Ioshúa.} Oshéa the sonne of Nun:
 10 Of the tribe of Beniamín, Paktí the sonne of Raphú:
 11 Of the tribe of Zebulún, Gaddiél the sonne of Sodí:
 12 Of the tribe of Ioséph, ^{to wit,} of the tribe of Manasséh, Gaddí the sonne of Sufí:
 13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiél the sonne of Gemallí:
 14 Of the tribe of Ashér, Sethúr the sonne of Michaél:
 15 Of the tribe of Naphtalí, Nabbí the sonne of Vophsí:
 16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuél the sonne of Machí.
 17 These are the names of the ^c mē, which Mosés sent to spie out the land: and Mosés called the name of Oshéa the sonne of Nun Iehoshúa.
 18 So Mosés sent them to spie out the land of Canaan, and said vnto thé, Go vp this way toward the South, and go vp into the mountaines, 19 And consider the land what it is, and the people that dwel therein, whether they be strong or weake, ether few or many,
 20 Also what the land ^{is} that they dwel in, whether it be ^d good or bad: and what cities ^{they be,} that they dwel in, whether they dwel in tentes, or in walled townes:
 21 And what the land ^{is}: whether it be fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the frute of the land (for then ^{was} the time of the first ripe grapes)
 22 ¶ So they went vp, & searched out the land, from the wildernesses of ^e Zin vnto Rehób, to go to Hamáth, 23 And thei ascended toward the South, and came vnto Hebrón, where were Ahimán, Sheshái and Talmaí, the sonnes of ^f Anák. And ^g Hebrón was buylt seuen yere before Zoán in Egypt.

 25 That place was called the ^{Or, the valley of Eshcól, that is, of grapes.} riuer Eshcól because of the clustre of grapes, which the children of Israël cut downe thence.
 26 Then after fourty daies they turned againe from searching of the land.
 27 And they went and came to Mosés and to Aarón & vnto all the Cōgregacion of the children of Israël, in the wilderness of

- Parán, to Kadésh, and brought to them, and to all the Congregation tidings, and shewed them the frute of the land.

 29 Neuertheles the people be ⁱ strong that dwel in the land, and the cities ^{are} walled and exceeding great: and moreover, we sawe the ^h sonnes of Anák there.
 30 The Amalekites dwel in ^h Southecō-trey, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, and the Amorites dwel in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the Sea and by the coste of Iorden.
 31 Then Caléb killed the people ^{Or, murmuring against Mosés.} before Mosés, & said, Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it: for vndoubtedly we shal ouercome it.
 32 But the men, that went vp with him, said, We be not able to go vp against the people: for they are stronger then we.
 33 So they brought vp an euil reporte of the lād which they had searched for the children of Israël, saying, The land which we haue gone through to searche it out, is a land that ⁱ eateth vp the inhabitants thereof: for all the people that we sawe in it, are men of great stature.
 34 For there we sawe gyātes, the sonnes of Anák, ⁱ which come of the gyantes, so that we seemed in our sight like greshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

brought vs out of Egypt, & beholde, we are in y citie Kadésht, in thine vtmost border.

¹⁷ I pray thee that we may passe through fieldes nor the vineyardes, nether wil we drinke of the water of the welles: we wil go by the ^h kings way, and nether tume

we be past thy borders.

¹⁸ And Edóm answered him, Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sworde.

¹⁹ Then the children of Israél said vnto him, We wil go vp by the hie way: & if I and my cattel drinke of thy water, I wil then paye for it: I wil onely (without anie harne) go through on my fete.

turned away from him.

²² ¶ And when the children of Israél with ²⁸ And Mosés put of Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazár his sonne: so Aa-rón dyed there in the top of the mouēt: and Mosés and Eleazár came downe from of against Mosés, saying, Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, to dye in the wil-dernes? for ¹³ here is nether bread nor water, and our soule ¹⁴ lotheth this light ¹⁵ bread.

⁶ ¶ Wherefore the Lord sent ¹⁶ a fiery serpen-

⁷ Therefore the people came to Mosés and said, We haue sinned: for we haue spo-

Balák. Balaám

Numbers.

11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt and couereth the face of the earth: come now, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shal be able to ouercome them in battel, and to driue them out.

f He warned him by a dreame y he shulde not consent to the kings wicked request

12 And God f said vnto Balaám, Go not thou with them, nether curse the people, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaám rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balák, Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hath refused to giue s me leaue to go with you.

g Els he shewed him selfe willing, couetousnes had so blinded his heart.

14 So the princes of Moáb rose vp, and wēt vnto Balák, and said, Balaám hath refused to come with vs.

15 ¶ Balák yet sent againe mo princes, and more honoi able then they.

16 Who came to Balaám, and said to him, Thus saith Balák the sonne of Zippór, h Be not thou stayed, I pray thee, from coming vnto me.

h The wicked seke by all means to further their naughty enterprises, though they knowe that God is against them

17 For I wil promote thee vnto great honour, and wil do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaám answered, and sayd vnto the seruantes of Balák, * If Balák wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I cannot go beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to do lesse or more.

Chap 24. 13.

19 But now, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord wil say vnto me i more.

i Because he tempted God so require his contrary to his commandement, his petition was granted, butt earned to his owne cōdemnation.

20 And God came vnto Balaám by night, and said vnto him, If the mē come to call thee, rise vp, and go with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 So Balaám rose vp early, and saddled his asse, and went with the princes of Moáb.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he k went: & the Angel of the Lord stode in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruantes were with him.

k Moped rather with couetousnes, thē to obey God.

23 And * when the asse sawe the Angel of l Lord stād in the way, and his sworde drawn in his hand, the asse turned out of l waye and went into the field, but Balaám smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

l Pet. 2. 16. Jude 11.

24 l Againe the Angel of the Lord stode in a path of the vineyardes, having a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

l The seconde time.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dashed Balaams fote against the wall: wherefore he smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she lay downe vnder Balaám:

10. 4. 11

therefore Balaám was very wrath, and smote the asse with a staffe.

28 Then the Lord m opened the mouth of m the asse, and she said vnto Balaám, What m haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me nowe thre times? m Gaue her power to speake.

29 And Balaám said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I wolde there were a sworde in mine hand, for now wolde I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaám, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon n since thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed at anie time to do thus vnto thee? n Since thou hast bene my master

Who said, Nay.

31 And the Lord o opened the eies of Balaám, and he sawe the Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sworde drawē in his hand: then he bowed him selfe, and fel flat on his face.

o For whose eyes the Lord doeth not open, they can neither se his anger, nor his loue.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse thre times? beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because p thy way is not straight before me.

p Boebe thy heart is corrupt and thine enterprise wicked.

33 But the asse sawe me, and turned fro me now thre times: for els, if she had not turned fro me, surely I had euē now slaine thee, and saved her aliue.

34 Then Balaám said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stodest in the way q against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I will turne q home againe.

q Or, before me, or, so meete me.

35 But the Angel said vnto Balaám, Go with the men: but r what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaám went with the princes of Balák.

r Elu I wil reuerence to me

36 And when Balák heard that Balaám came, he went out to mete him vnto a citie of Moáb, which is in the r border of Arnón, euen in the vtmost coste.

r Nere the place, where the Israelites camped.

37 Then Balák said vnto Balaám, Did I not send for thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not vnto me? am I not able in dede to promote thee vnto honour.

38 And Balaám made answer vnto Balák, Lo, I am come vnto thee, & can I now say s anie thing at all? the worde that God putteth in my mouth, that shal I speake.

s Of my selfe I can speake nothing: onely what God reueleth y wil I utter, seme it good or bad 39 So Balaám went with Balák, and they came vnto the citie of Huzóth.

40 Then Balák offered bullockes, and shepe, and sent t thereof to Balaám, and to t princes that were with him.

t Or, of freere: or, a populus cūctis.

41 And on the morow Balák toke Balaám, and brought him vp into the hie places of Baal, that thence he might se the vtmost parte of the people.

t Where the idole Baal was worshipped.

CHAP. XXIII.

u Balaám causeth seue Altars to be build. u God teacheth him what to answer u In stede of cursing he blessingh Israel. u God is not like man.

u And

AND Balaám said vnto Balák, Buylde me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullockes, and seuen rams.

And Balák did as Balaám said, and Balaám and Balaám offred on euery altar a bullocke and a ram.

Then Balaám said vnto Balák, Stand by the burnt offering, & I wil go, if so be that the Lord wil come and mete me: & whatsoever he sheweth me, I wil tel thee: so he went for the alone.

And God met Balaám, and Balaám said vnto him, I haue prepared seuen altars, & haue offred vpon euery altar a bullocke and a ram.

And the Lord put an answer in Balaás mouth, and said, Go againe to Balák, and say on this wise.

So when he returned vnto him, lo, he stode by his burnt offering, he, & all the princes of Moáb.

Then he vttered his parable, and said, Balák the King of Moáb hathe broght me from Aiam out of the mountaines of the East, saying, Come, curse Iakób for my sake: come, and detest Israël.

How shal I curse, where God hathe not cursed? or how shal I detest, where the Lord hathe not detested?

For fró the top of the rocks I did se him, and from the hils I did beholde him: lo, the people shal dwel by them selues, and shal not be rekened among the nations.

Who can tel the dust of Iakób, and the number of the fourth parte of Israël? Let me dye the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

Then Balák said vnto Balaám, What hast thou done vnto me? I toke thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them altogether.

And he answered, and said, Must I not take hede to speake that, which the Lord hathe put in my mouth?

And Balák said vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with me vnto another place, whence thou maiest se them, and thou shalt se but the vtmost parte of them, and shalt not se them all: therefore curse the out of that place for my sake.

And he broght him into Sede-sophím to the top of Pisgáh and buylt seuen altars, & offred a bullocke, & a ram on euery altar.

After, he said vnto Balák, Stand here by thy burnt offering, and I wil mete the Lord yonder.

And the Lord met Balaám, and put an answer in his mouth, and said, Go againe vnto Balák, and saie thus.

And when he came to him, beholde, he stode by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moáb with him: so Balák said vnto him, What hathe the Lord said?

And he vttered his parable, & said, Rise vp, Balák, and heare: hearken vnto me, thou sonne of Zippór.

God is not as man, that he shulde lie, neither as the sonne of man that he shulde repent: hathe he said, and shal he not do it? and hathe he spoken, and shal he not accomplish it?

Beholde, I haue receiued commandement to blesse: for he hathe blessed, & I can not alter it.

He seeth none iniquitie in Iakób, nor seeth no transgression in Israël: the Lord his God is with him, & the ioyful shoute of a King is among them.

God broght them out of Egypt: their strength is as an unicorn.

For there is no forcerie in Iakób, nor soothsaying in Israël: according to this time it shalbe said of Iakób and of Israël, What hathe God wrought?

Beholde, the people shal rise vp as a lió, and lift vp him self as a yong lion: he shal not lie downe, til he eat of the preie, and til he drinke the blood of the slaine.

Then Balák said vnto Balaám, Nether curse, nor blesse them at all.

But Balaám answered, and said vnto Balák, Tolde not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that must I doe?

Again Balák said vnto Balaám, Come, I pray thee, I wil bring thee vnto another place, if so be it wil please God, that thou maiest thence curse them for my sake.

So Balák broght Balaám vnto the top of Peór, that looketh toward Ieshmón.

Then Balaám said vnto Balák, Make me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullockes, and seuen rams.

And Balák did as Balaám had said, and offred a bullocke and a ram on euery altar.

CHAP. XXIII

Balaám prophesieth of the great prosperitie that shulde come vnto Israël 17 Also of the coming of Christ. 20 The destruction of the Amalekites and of the Kenites.

WHen Balaám sawe that it pleased the Lord, to blesse Israël, then he went not, as certeine times before, to set diuinations, but set his face toward the wilderness.

And Balaám lift vp his eies, and looked vpó Israël, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came vpon him.

And he vttered his parable, and said, Balaám the sonne of Beór hathe said, and the man, whose eies were shut vp, hathe said,

He hathe said, which heard the wordes of God, and sawe the vision of the Almighty.

- 1 ¶ Then Moses spake vnto the childre of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded him,
- 2 Moses also spake vnto the heades of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded,
- 3 Whosoever voweth a vow vnto y^e Lord, or sweareth an othe to bide him selfe by a bonde, he shal not breake his promises, but shal do accordig to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.
- 4 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, & bide her selfe by a bōde, being in her fathers house, in y^e time of her youth,
- 5 And her father heare her vowe & bōde, wherewith she hath bounde her selfe, and her father holde his peace concerning her, then all her vowes shal stand & euerie bonde, wherewith she hath bounde her selfe, shall stand.
- 6 But if her father disallowe her the same daye that he heareth all her vowes & bondes, wherewith she hath bounde her selfe, they shal not be of value, and the Lord wil forgieue her, because her father disallowed her.
- a Because they might declare them to the Israelites.
- b For in so doing, he doeth approue her.
- c By not approving or consenting to her vowe.

dren of Reubén came, & spake vnto Moyses and to Eleazár the Priest, and vnto the princes of the Congregation, saying,

3 The land of Ataróth, and Dibón, and Iazer, and Nímáth, and Heshbón, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebó, and Beón,

4 Which countrey the Lord smote before the Congregation of Israél, is a land mete for cattel, and thy seruants haue cattel:

5 Wherefore, said thei, If we haue founde grace in thy sight, let this land be giuen vnto thy seruants for a possession, & bring vs not ouer Iordén.

6 And Moyses said vnto the childre of Gad, and to the children of Reubén, Shal your brethren go to warre, and ye tary here:

7 Wherefore now "discourage ye y heart of the children of Israél, to go ouer into the land, which the Lord hath giuen the?

8 Thus did your fathers when I sent them from Kadés-barnéa to se the land.

9 For *when they went vp euen vnto the ryuer of Eshcol, and sawe the land: they discouraged the heart of the children of Israél, that thei wolde not go into the lād, which the Lord had giuen them.

10 And the Lords wrath was kindled the same day, and he did sweare, saying,

11 "None of the men that came out of Egypt * from twentie yere olde and aboue, shal se the land for the which I sware vnto Abraham, to Izhák, and to Iaakób, because thei haue not "wholie folowed me:

12 Except Caleb the sonne of Iephunnéh the Kenézite, & Ioshúa the sonne of Nun: for thei haue constantly folowed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was verie angry with Israél, and made them wander in the wilderness fortie yeres, vntil all the generacion that had done "euil in the sight of the Lord were consumed.

14 And beholde, ye a e risen vp in your fathers steade as an increase of sinneful me, stil to augment the fearce wrath of the Lord, toward Israél.

15 For if ye turne away frō following him, he wil yet againe leaue the people in y wilderness, and ye shal destioye all this folke.

16 And thei went nere to him and said, We wil buylde shepe foldes here for o shepe, and for our cattel, and cities for our children.

17 But we our selues wil be ready armed to go before the children of Israél, vntil we haue brought them vnto their "place: but our children shal dwel in the defenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We wil not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israél haue inherited, euerie man his inheritance.

19 Nether wil we inherit with the beyode

Iordén and on that side, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iordén Eastward.

20 ¶ And Moyses said vnto them, If ye wil do this thing, and go armed "before the Lord to warre:

21 And wil go euerie one of you in harness ouer Iordén before the Lord, vntil he hath cast out his "enemies from his sight:

22 And vntil the land be subdued before the Lord, then ye shal returne and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israél: and this land shalbe your possession before the Lord.

23 But if ye wil not do so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sinne "wil finde you out.

24 Builde you then cities for your children and foldes for your shepe, and do that ye haue spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad & the children of Reubén spake vnto Moyses, sayig, Thy seruants wil do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wiues, our shepe, and all our cattel shal remaine there in the cities of Gileád, 27 But *thy seruants wil go euerie one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lord sayeth.

28 So concerning them, Moyses * commanded Eleazár the Priest, & Ioshúa the sonne of Nun, and the chief fatheis of the tribes of the children of Israél:

29 And Moyses said vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reubén, wil go with you ouer Iordén, all armed to fight before the Lord, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shal giue them the land of Gileád for a possession:

30 But if thei wil not go ouer with you armed, then thei shal haue their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Reubén answered, saying, As the Lord hath said vnto thy seruants, so wil we do.

32 We wil go armed before the Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possession of our inheritance may be to vs on this side Iordén.

33 ¶ So Moyses gaue vnto the, euen to the childre of Gad, & to the children of Reubén, & to half the tribe of Manasséh the sonne of Ioséph. y kingdome of Sihón King of the "Amorites, and the kingdome of Og, King of Bashán, the land with the cities thereof and coastes, euen the cities of the countrey round about.

34 ¶ Then the children of Gad buyt Dibón, and Ataróth, and Aroér, 35 And Atróth, Shophán, and Iazer, and Iogbeháh.

CHAP. XXXIII.
1 Two & fourtie journeyes of Israel are nombred 52 They are commanded to kill the Canaanites
2 These are the 4 journeyes of the childre of Israél, which went out of the land of Egypt according to their bandes vnder the hand of Moses and Aaron.
3 And Moses wrote their going out by their journeyes according to the commandement of the Lord: so these are the journeyes of their going out.
4 Now they* departed frō Ramésés y^e first moneth, even y^e fifteth day of the first moneth, on the morowe after the Pascheouer: & the children of Israél went out with an lue hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.
5 (For the Egyptians buried all their first borne, which the Lord had smitten among them: vpon their^b gods also the Lord did execution.)
6 And the children of Israél removed from Ramésés, and pitched in Succóth.
7 And they departed from Succóth, & pitched in Ethám, which is in the edge of the wilderness.
8 And they removed from Ethám, & turned againe vnto^c Pi-hahróth, which is before Baal-zephón, and pitched before Migdól.
9 And they departed from before Hahiróth, and* went through the middes of the Sea into the wilderness, and went three dayes journey in the wilderness of Ethám, and pitched in Maráh.
10 And they removed from Maráh, and came vnto* Elím, and in Elím were twelue fountains of water, and seuentie palme trees, and they pitched there.
11 And they removed from Elím, and camped by the red Sea.
12 And they removed from the red Sea, & laye in the* wilderness of Sín.
13 And they toke their journey out of the wildernes of Sín, and set vp their tentes in Dopikáh.

14 And they departed from Dopikáh and lay in Alúsh.
15 And they removed from Alúsh, and lay in* Rephidim, where was no water for y^e people to drinke.
16 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the* wilderness of Sínai.
17 And they removed from the desert of Sínai, and pitched* in Kibroth Hattaauáh.
18 And they departed frō Kibroth Hattaauáh, and lay at Hazeróth.
19 And they departed from Hazeróth, and pitched in Rithmáh.
20 And they departed from Rithmáh, and pitched at Rimmón Paréz.
21 * And they departed from Rimmón Paréz, and pitched in Libnáh.
22 And they removed from Libnáh, & pitched in Rissáh.
23 And they journeyed from Rissáh, & pitched in Kehelathah.
24 And they went from Kehelathah, & pitched in mount Shápher.
25 And they removed frō mount Shápher, and lay in Haradáh.
26 And they removed from Haradáh, and pitched in Makhelóth.
27 And they removed from Makhelóth, & lay in Taháth.
28 And they departed from Taháth, & pitched in Taráh.
29 And they removed from Taráh, & pitched in Mithkáh.
30 And they wét from Mithkáh, & pitched in Hashmonáh.
31 And they departed from Hashmonáh, & lay in Moseróth.
32 And they departed from Moseróth, and pitched in Bene-iaakan, 33 And they removed from Bene-iaakan, & lay in Hor-hagidgád.
34 And they went from Hor-hagidgád, & pitched in Iotbáthah.
35 And they removed from Iotbáthah, & lay in Ebronáh.
36 And they departed from Ebronáh, and lay in Ezion-gáber.
37 And they removed from Ezion-gáber, & pitched in the* wilderness of Zín, which is Kadésh.
38 And they removed from Kadésh, & pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the lād of Edóm.
39 * (And Aaron the Priest went vp into mount Hor at the commandement of the Lord; and diéd there, in the fourtieth yere after the children of Israél were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the^d fifth moneth.
40 And Aaron was an hundreth, & thie and twéty yere olde, when he diéd in mount Hor.

 17 Certaine men are assigned to deuide the land.
 1. And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
 2. Commande the children of Israél, and say vnto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shal fall vnto your inheritance: that is, the land of Canaan with the coastes thereof.

 * And your Southquarter shalbe from Iosh. 11. 2. the wildernes of Zin, to the borders of Edóm: so that your Southquarter shalbe from the salt Sea coast Eastward:
 4. And the border shal compasse you from the Southe to Maaleh-akrabbím, and reach to Zin, & go out from the Southe to Kadesh-barnéa: thence it shal stretch to Hazar-addár, and go along to Azmón.
 5. And the border shal compasse from Azmón vnto the riuer of Egypt, and shal go out to the sea.
 6. And your Westquarter shal be the great sea: euen that border shalbe your West-coast.
 7. And this shal be your Northquarter: ye shal make out your border from the great sea vnto mount^e Hor.
 8. From mount Hor ye shal point out til it come vnto Hamáth, and the end of the coast shalbe at Zedád.
 9. And y^e coast shal reache out to Ziphron, & go out at Hazar-enán. this shalbe your Northquarter.
 10. And ye shal marke out your Eastquarter from Hazar-enán to Shephám.
 11. And the coast shal go downe from Shephám to Ribláh, and from the Eastside of Ain: and the same border shal descend & go out at the side of the Sea of Chinneréth Eastwarde.
 12. Also that border shal go downe to Iordén, and leaue at the salt Sea. this shalbe your land with the coastes thereof round about.
 13. ¶ Then Moses commanded the children of Israél, saying, This is the land which ye shal inherit by lot, which y^e Lord commanded to giue vnto nine tribes and halfe the tribe.
 14. *For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the householdes of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to their fathers householdes, and halfe the tribe of Manasséh, haue receiued their inheritance.
 15. Two tribes and an halfe tribe haue receiued their inheritance on this side of Iordén toward Ierichó full East.
 16. ¶ Again the Lord spake to Moses, saying,
 17. These are the names of the men which shal deuide the lād vnto you: Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshua the sonne of Nun.
 18. And ye shal take also a prince of euerie tribe to deuide the land.
 19. The names also of the men are these: Of the tribe of Iudáh, Caléb the sonne of Iephunnéh.

25 Of the tribe also of ý sonnes of Zebu-lún, he prince Elizaphán, ý sonne of Par-nách.

26 So of the tribe of ý sonnes of Issachár, the prince Paltiel the sonne of Azzán.

27 Of the tribe also of ý sonnes of Ashér, the prince Ahihúd the sonne of Shelomi.

28 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Naph-tali, the prince Pedahél, the sonne of Am-mihúd.

29 These are they, whome the Lord com-manded to deuide the inheritance vnto the children of Israél, in the land of Ca-náan.

CHAP. XXXV.

Unto the Levites are giuen cities and suburbs. 11 The cities of refuge 16 The lawe of murder. 30 For one mans finnes shal no man be condemned.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses in ý plaine of Moáb by Iordén, toward Ierichó, saying,

2 *Commande the children of Israél, that they giue vnto the *Leuites of the inher- itance of their possession, ^b cities to dwell in: ye shal giue also vnto the Leuites the suburbs of the cities round about them.

3 So they shal haue the cities to dwell in, & then suburbs shalbe for their cattel, and for their substance, & for all their beastes.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shal giue vnto the Leuites, from the wall of the citie outwarde, shalbe a thousand cubites round about.

5 And ye shal measure without the citie of the Eastside, ^c two thousand cubites: and of the Southside, two thousand cubites: & of the Westside, two thousand cubites: & of the Northside, two thousand cubites: & the citie shalbe in the mddes. this shalbe the measure of the suburbs of their cities.

6 And of the cities which ye shal giue vnto the Leuites, ^d there shalbe six cities for refuge, which ye shal appoint, that he which killeth, may flee thither: & to them ye shal adde two and fourty cities mo.

7 All the cities which ye shal giue to ý Leuites, shalbe eight and fourty cities: them shal ye giue with their suburbs.

8 And concerning the cities which ye shal giue, of the possession of the children of Israél: of many ye shal take mo, and of fewe ye shal take lesse: euerie one shal giue of his cities vnto the Leuites, according to his inheritance, which he inheri- teth.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, 10 Speake vnto the children of Israél, and say vnto them, * When ye be come ouer Iordén into the land of Canáan, 11 Ye shal appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you, that the slayer, which slayeth anie persone vnwares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shalbe for you a refuge from the ^d auenger, that he which killeth, dye not, vntil he stand befoie the Cõgre- gacion in iudgement.

13 And of the cities which ye shal giue, six cities shal ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shal appoint thre ^e on this side Ior- dén, and ye shal appoint thre cities in the land of Canáan which shalbe cities of re- fuge.

15 These six cities shalbe a refuge for the children of Israél, and for the stranger, and for him that dwelleth among ^f you, that euerie one which killeth anie perso- ne vnwares, may flee thither.

16 *And if one ^g smite an other with an in- strument of yron that he dye, he is a mur- therer, ^h & the murtherer shal dye ý death.

17 Also if he smite him by casting a ⁱ stone, wherewith he may be slaine, and he dye, he is a murtherer, ^j and the murtherer shal dye the death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hád weapon of wood, wherewith he may be slaine, if he dye, he is a murtherer, ^k and the murtherer shal dye the death.

19 The reuenger of the blood him selfe shal slay the murtherer: when he meteth him, he shal slay him.

20 But if he thrust him ^l of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wait, that he dye,

21 Or smite him through enemitie with his hand, that he dye, he that smote him shal dye the death: ^m for he is a murtherer: the re- uenger of the blood shal slay the murthe- rer when he meteth him.

22 But if he pushed him ⁿ vnaduisedly, and ^o not of hatred, or cast vpon him anie ^p thing, without laying of wait,

23 Or anie stone (whereby he might be slaine) and sawe him not, or caused it to fall vpon him, and he dye, & was not his ene- mie, nether soght him anie harme,

24 Then the Congregation shal iudge be- twene the slayer & the ^q auenger of blood according to these lawes.

25 And the Congregation shal deliuer the slayer out of the hand of the auenger of blood, and the Congregation shal restore him vnto the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shal abide there vnto the death of the ^r hie Priest, which is anointed with the holy oyle.

CHAP. XXXVI.

An ordre for the mariage of the daughters of Zelophehad 7 The inheritances colde not be giuen from one tribe to another.

It seemeth y^e tribes contended who might marry theire daughters to haue their inheritance: and therefore the sonnes of Ioseph propoled the matter to Moses.

Chap. 27.1. Iosh 17.3. Meaning Moises.

Then ^a the chief fathers of the familie of the sonnes of Gilead, the sonne of Machir the sonne of Manasséh, of the families of the sonnes of Ioseph, came, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israél,

2 And said, *The Lord commanded ^b my lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Israél: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they be married to anie of the sonnes of the ^{ether} tribes of the childre of Israél then shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, & shal be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe. so shal it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the Iubile of the children of Israél commeth, then shal their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe: so shal their inheritance be take away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

c Signifying y^e at no time it colde retorne for in y^e Iubile all things returned to their owne tribes.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israél, according to the worde of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Ioseph haue sayd ^d wel.

d For the tribe colde not haue continued in the inheritance which was the maintenance thereon: shuld haue bene abalinated to others.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hath commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shal be wyues, to whome they thinke best, oney to the familie of the tribe of their father shal they mary:

7 So shal not the inheritance of the children of Israél remoue from tribe to tribe, for euerie one of the children of Israél shal ioyn him selfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euerie daughter that possesseth anie inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shal be wife vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israél may enioye euerie man the inheritance of their fathers.

e When there is no male to inherit.

9 Nether shal the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euerie one of the tribes of the children of Israél shal sticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

THE FIFTH BOKE OF

Mofés, called* Deuteronomie.

THE ARGUMENT.

The wonderful loue of God toward his Church is liuely set forth in this boke. For albeit through their ingratitude and sundry rebellions against God, for the space of forty yeres, Deu. 9, 7, they had deserved to haue bene cut off from the nuber of his people, and for euer to haue bene deprived of the vse of his holy worde, & sacraments: yet he did euer preserve his Church euen for his owne mercies sake, and wolde stil haue his Name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, destroyeth their enemies, giueth them their countrey, townes, and goodes, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whose infidelitie, idolatrie, adulteries, murmurings and rebellion, he had moste sharply punished) to feare and obey the Lord, to embrace and kepe his Lawe without adding ther vnto or diminishing there from. For by his worde he wolde be knowen to be their God, and they his people: by his worde he wolde gouerne his Church, and by the same they shulde learne to obey him. By his worde he wolde discerne the false Prophet from the true, light from darknes, error from knollage, and his owne people from all other nations and infiteles: teaching them thereby to refuse and detest, destroy and abolish whatsoeuer is not agreable to his holy wil, seme it otherwise neuer so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise vp Kings and gouernours, for the setting forth of this worde and preseruacion of his Church: giuing vnto them an especial charge for the executing thereof: whome therefore he willett to exercise them selues diligently in the continuall studie and meditation of the same: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their subiects, abhorre couetousnes and vice, and whatsoeuer offendeth the maiestie of God. And as he had to fore instructed their fathers in all things appertaining, bothe to his spiritual seruice, and also for the maintenance of that societe which is betwene men: so he prescribeth here anewe, all suche lawes and ordinances, which ether concerne his Diuine seruice, or els are necessarie for a comon weale: appointing vnto euery estate and degree their charge and duetie: as wel, how to rule and lue in the feare of God, as to nourish friendship towards their neighbours, and to preserve that ordre which God hathe established among men: threatening with all, moste horrible plagues to them that transgress his commandements, and promising all blessings & felicitie to suche as obserue and obey them.

* That is, a seconde lawe: so called, because the Lawe w^{ch} God gaue in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a newe Law and this boke is a commentarie or exposition of the 10 commandments.

CHAP. I.

1 A breue rehearsal of things done before, fro Horéb vnto Kadesh-barnea. 32 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulitie. 44 The Israelites are ouercome by the Amorites because they fought against the commandement of the Lord.

The wordes which Mofés spake vnto all Israel, on this side Iordén in the wilderness, in the plaine, ouer against y^e red Sea, betwene Parán & Tóphel, and Labán, and Hazeroth, and Di-zaháb.

2 There are eleue daies journey from Horéb vnto Kadesh-barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fortieth yere, that Mofés spake vnto the children of Israel according vnto al that the Lord had giue him in commandement vnto them,

4 After that he had slaine Sihón the King of y^e Amorites which dwelt in Heshbón, and Og King of Bashán, which dwelt at Ashtaróth in Edréi.

5 On this side Iordén in the land of Moab began Mofés to declare this Law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake vnto vs in Horéb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long ynough in this mount,

7 Turne you and departe, and go vnto the 8 Beholde, I haue set the land before you: go in and * possesse that land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abrahám, Izhák, and Izaakób, to giue vnto the and to their seide after them.

9 ¶ And I spake vnto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

10 The Lord your God hath multiplied you: & beholde, ye are this day as the starres of heauen in number:

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so manie mo as ye are, and blesse you, as he hathe promised you)

12 How can I alone beare your cumbrance and your charge, and your strife?

13 Bring you men of wisdom and of vnderstanding, and * knowen among your tribes, and I wil make them rulers ouer you:

14 Then ye answered me & said, The thing is good that thou hast commanded vs to do.

15 So I toke the chief of your tribes, and knowen men, and made the rulers ouer

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

3 Ye haue compassed this mountaine long ynough: turne you Northwarde.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shal go through the c coast of your brethren the children of Esäu, which dwel in Seir, and they shal be afraid of you: take ye good hede therefore.

5 Ye shal not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land so muche as a fore breadth,  because* I haue giue mount Seir vnto Esäu for a possession.

6 Ye shal bye meat of them for money to eat, and ye shal also procure water of the for money to drinke.

7 For the Lord thy God hath d blessed thee in all thy workes of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness, & the Lord thy God hath bene with thee this foitie yere, and thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esäu which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the e plaine, from Elath, & from Ezion-gaber, we turned and went by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 Then the Lord said vnto me, Thou shalt not f vex Moab, nether prouoke them to battel: for I wil not giue thee of their land for a possession, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children g of Lot for a possession.

10 The h Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, & many, and tall, as the Anakims.

11 They also were taken for gyantes as the Anakims: whome the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whome the children of Esäu chased out and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their stede: as Israel shal do vnto the land of his possession, which the Lord hath giuen them.

13 Now rise vp, said I, and get you ouer the riuier  Zeréd*: and we went ouer the riuier Zeréd.

14 The s space also wherein we came from Kadesh-barnea vntil we were come ouer the riuier Zeréd, was eight and thirtie yeres, vntil all the generacion of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord sware vnto them.

15 For in dede the h hand of the Lord was against them, to destroye them from among the hoste, til they were consumed.

16 ¶ So when all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people:

17 Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying, 18 Thou shalt go through Ar the coast of Moab this day:

19 And thou shalt come nere ouer against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I wil not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon anie possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession.

20 That also was taken for a land i of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein a foie time, whome the Ammonites called Zamzumims:

21 A people that was great, & many, & tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, & they succeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their stede:

22 As he did to the children of Esäu which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims before them, & they possessed them, and dwelt in their stede vnto this day.

23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazerim euen vnto Azzah, the Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them, and dwelt in their stede.

24 ¶ Rise vp therefore, said the Lord: take your iourney, and passe ouer the riuier Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihon: the k Amorite, King of Heshbón, and his land: begin to possesse it and prouoke him to battel.

25 This day wil I l begin to send thy feare & thy dread, vpon all people vnder the heauens, which shal heare thy fame & shal tremble and quake before thee.

26 Then I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth vnto Sihon King of Heshbón, with wordes of peace, saying, 27 ¶ Let me passe through thy land: I wil go by the hie way: I wil nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sel me meat for money, for to eat, and shalt giue me water for money for to drinke: onely I wil go through on my fote,

29 (As the m children of Esäu which dwelt in Seir, and the Moabites which dwelt in Ar, did vnto me) vntil I be come ouer Iordén, into the land which the Lord our God giueth vs.

30 But Sihon the King of Heshbón wolde not let vs passe by him: for the Lord thy God had n hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinat, because he wolde deliuer him into thine hand, as appeareth this day.

daies of thy life: but teache the thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes:

- 10 Forget not the day that thou stodest before the Lord thy God in Horéb, when ⁱ Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I wil cause them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shal liue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children:

- 11 Then came you nere & ^j stode vnder the mountaine & the mountaine ^j burnt with fire vnto the middes of heauen, and there was darcknes, cloudes and mist.

- 12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, saue a voyce.

- 13 Then he declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to ^k do, euen the ten commandements, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone.

- 14 And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I shulde teache you ordinances and lawes, which ye shulde obserue in the land, whither ye go, to possesse it.

- 15 Take therefore good hede vnto your selues: for ye sawe no ^l image in the day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horéb out of the middes of the fire:

- 16 That ye corrupt not your selues, & make you a grauen image or representation of anie figure: whither it be the likenes of male or female,

- 17 The likenes of anie beast that is on earth or the likenes of anie fethered foule that flieth in the aire:

- 18 Or the likenes of anie thing that crepeth on the earth, or the likenes of anie fish that is in the waters beneth the earth,

- 19 And lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne and the moone and the starres with all the hoste of heauen, shuldest be driuen to worship them and serue them, which the Lord thy God hathe ^m distributed to all people vnder the whole heauen.

- 20 But the Lord hathe také you and brought you out of the ⁿ yron fornace: out of Egypt to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

- 21 And the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and sware that I shulde not go ouer Iordén, & that I shulde not go in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

- 22 For I must dye in this land, and shal not go ouer Iordén: but ^o ye shal go ouer, and possesse that good land.

- 23 Take hede vnto your selues, lest ye forget the couenant of the Lord your God w^h he made with you, & lest ye make you anie grauen image, or likenes of anie thing, as ^k He meaneth Zio, where ⁱ temple shulde be built and God honored

- 24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, and a ielous God.
- 25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children and childrens children, and shalt haue remained long in the land, if ye corrupt your selues, and make anie grauen image, or likenes of anie thing, and worke euil in the sight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to anger,
- 26 I will call heauen and earth to recorde against you this day, that ye shall shortly perish from the land, whereunto ye go ouer Iordén to possesse it: ye shall not prolong your daies therein, but shall vtterly be destroyed.
- 27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, & ye shall be left fewe in number among the nations, whether the Lord shall bring you:
- 28 And there ye shall serue gods, euē the worke of mans hand, wood, & stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eat, nor smel.
- 29 But if from thence thou shalt seke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seke him with all thine heart, and with all thy soule.
- 30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come vpon thee, at the length, if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voyce,
- 31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he wil not forsake thee, neither destroy thee nor forget the couenant of thy fathers, which he swore vnto them.
- 32 For inquire now of the daies ye are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, and aske from the one end of heauē vnto the other, if there came to passe suche a great thing as this, or whether anie suche like thing hath bene heard.
- 33 Did euer people heare his voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued?
- 34 Or hath God assayed to go & take him a nation from among nations, by tentations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mighty hand, & by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?
- 35 Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe, that the Lord he is God, and that there is none but he alone.
- 36 Out of heauē he made thee heare his voyce to instruct thee, & vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voyce out of the middes of the fire.
- 37 And because he loued thy fathers, therefore he chose their sede after them, and hath brought thee out of Egypt in his sight, by his mighty power,
- 38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier than thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.
- 39 Vnderstand therefore this day, and consider in thine heart, that the Lord, he is God in heauen above, and vpon the earth beneath: there is none other.
- 40 Thou shalt kepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandments which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy childre after thee, and that thou maiest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for euer.
- 41 ¶ Then Moses separated thre cities on this side of Iordén toward the sonne rising:
- 42 That the slayer shulde flee thither, which had killed his neighbour at vnwares, and hated him not in time past, might flee, I say, vnto one of those cities, and liue:
- 43 That is, * Bézer in the wildernes, in the plaine cuntry of the Reubenites: and Ramóth in Gileád among the Gadites: & Golán in Bashán among them of Manasséh.
- 44 ¶ So this is the lawe which Moses set before the children of Israël.
- 45 These are the witnesses, and the ordinances, and the lawes which Moses declared to the children of Israël after they came out of Egypt,
- 46 On this side Iordén, in the valey ouer against Beth-peór, in the land of Sihón King of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbón, whome Moses and the children of Israël smote, after they were come out of Egypt:
- 47 And they possessed his land, and the lād of * Og King of Bashán, two Kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Iordén toward the sonne rising:
- 48 From Aroér, which is by the banke of the riuer Arnón, euē vnto mount Sión, which is Hermón,
- 49 And all the plaine by Iordén Eastward, euē vnto the Sea, of the plaine, vnder the * springs of pīsgáh.
- C H A P. V.
- 1 Moses is the meane betwene God and the people.
- 6 The Lawe is repeated. 23 The people are afraid at Gods voyce. 29 The Lord wiseth that the people wolde feare him. 32 They must nether decline to the right hand nor left.
- 1 ¶ Then Moses called all Israël, and said vnto them, Heare o Israël the ordinances and the lawes which I propose to you this day, that ye may learne them, and take hede to obserue them.
- 2 * The Lord our God made a couenant with vs in Horéb.

The Lord ^a made not this couenāt with our fathers, ^{onely}, but with vs, ^{onely} with vs all here alieue this day.

The Lord talked with you ^b face to face in the mount, out of the middes of the fire.

(At that time I stode betwene the Lord and you, to declare vnto you the worde of the Lord: for ye were afraide at the sight of the fire, & went not vp into the mount) and he said, ⁶ ¶ I am the Lord thy God, which haue broght thee out of the land of Egypt, frō the house of bondage.

⁷ Thou shalt haue none ^c other gods before my face.

⁸ Thou shalt make thee no grauen image, or anie likenes of that ^{is} in heauen aboue, or which is in the earth beneth, or that is in the waters vnder the earth.

¹⁰ And shewing mercie vnto thousands of them that ^e loue me, and kepe my commandements.

¹¹ Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord wil not holde him guiltles, that taketh his Name in vaine.

¹² Kepe the Sabbath day, to sanctifie it, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee.

¹³ Six daies ^f thou shalt labour, and shalt do all thy worke:

¹⁶ ¶ Honour thy father & thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee: that thy daies may be prolonged, and that it may go wel with thee vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

¹⁷ * Thou shalt not kil.

¹⁸ * Nether shalt thou commit adulterie.

¹⁹ * Nether shalt thou steale.

²⁰ Nether shalt thou beare false witness against thy neighbour.

²¹ * Nether shalt ^h thou covet thy neighbours wife, nether shalt thou desire thy neighbours house, his field, nor his man seruant, nor his maide, his oxe, nor his asse, nor ought that thy neighbour hath.

²² ¶ These wordes the Lord spake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the middes of the fire, the cloude & the darkenes, with a great voyce, and ⁱ added no more thereto: and wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me.

²³ And when ye heard the voyce out of the middes of the darkenes, (for ^{is} mountaine did burne with fire,) then ye came to me, all the chief of your tribes, and your Elders:

²⁵ Now therefore, why shulde we dye: for this great fire wil consume vs: if we heare the voyce of the Lord our God anie more, we shal dye.

²⁶ For what ^{is} flesh was there euer, that heard the voyce of the liuing God speaking out of the middes of the fire as we haue, & liued?

²⁷ Go thou nere and heare all that ^{is} Lord our God saith: and declare thou vnto vs all that the Lord our God sayeth vnto thee: and we wil heare it, and do it.

²⁸ Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, when ye spake vnto me: and the Lord said vnto me, I haue heard the voyce of the wordes of this people, which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue wel said, all that they haue spoken.

²⁹ * Oh ^{is} that there were such an heart in them to feare me, and to kepe all my commandementes alway: that it might go wel with them, and with their children for euer.

³⁰ Go, say vnto them, Returne you into your tentes.

³¹ But stand thou here with me, & I wil tel thee all the commandements, and the ordinances, and the lawes, which thou shalt teache them: that they may do them in the land which I giue them to possesse it.

³² Take hede therefore, that ye do as the Lord your God hath commanded you: ⁱ turne not aside to the right hand nor to the left,

³³ ^{is} walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may ^{li} liue, and that it may go wel with you: & that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shal possesse.

g By denying of his power refusing lausful meanes, & abusing his graces.

THese now are the comandements, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord your God commanded me to teache you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possesse it:

2 That thou mightest ^a feare the Lord thy God, and kepe all his ordinances, and his commandements which I commade thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, o Israél, and take hede to do it, that it may go wel with thee, and that ye may increase mightly ^b in the land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Heare, o Israél, The Lord our God is Lord onely,

5 And ^{*} thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

6 ^{*} And these wordes which I commande thee this day, shalbe in thine heart.

7 And thou shalt ^c rehearse them continually vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou tariest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest downe, and when thou risest vp:

8 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, and they shalbe ^e as frontlets betwene thine eyes.

9 Also thou shalt write them vpon the ^d postes of thyne house, and vpon thy gates.

10 And when the Lord thy God hath brought thee into the land, which he swa-re vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhák, and Iakób, to giue to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buyldedst not,

11 And houses ful of all maner of goods which thou filledst not, and wels digged which thou diggedst not, vineyardes and oliue trees which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten and art ful, 12 ^e Beware lest thou forget the Lord, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, fro the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and serue him, & shalt ^f sweare by his Name.

14 Ye shal not walke after other gods, after anie of the gods of the people which are round about you, 15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you:) lest the wrathe of the Lord thy God be kindeled against thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16 ¶ Ye shal not ^g tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Massáh:

17 But ye shal kepe diligently the comman-demets of the Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances which he hath commanded thee,

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the Lord: that thou maiest prosper, and that thou maiest go in, and possesse that good land which the Lord swa-re vnto thy fathers,

19 To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath said.

20 When ⁱ thy sonne shal aske thee in time to come, saying, What meane these testimonies, and ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne, We were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord brought vs out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And the Lord shewed signes and wonders great & euil vpon Egypt, vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his housholde, before our eyes,

23 And ^k brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the land which he swa-re vnto our fathers.

24 Therefore the Lord hath commanded vs, to do all these ordinances, & to feare ^j the Lord our God, that it may go euer wel with vs, & that he may preserue vs a liue as at this present.

25 Moreouer, this shal be our ^l righteousness before the Lord our God, if we take hede to kepe all these commandements, as he hath commanded vs.

2 And I wil write vpon y^r Tables the wordes that were vpon the first Tables, which thou brakist, and thou shalt put them in the Arke.

4 Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the first writing (the ten commandements, which the Lord spake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the daye of the ^b assemblie) and the Lord gaue them vnto me.

b When you were assembled to receiue the Law.

5 And I departed, and came downe frō the Mount, & put the Tables in y^r Arke which I had made: and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.

- 6 ¶ And the children of Israel toke their journey from Beerōth of the children of Iaakān to ^c Moserā, where Aarōn dyed, & was buryed, and Eleazār his sonne became Priest in his steade.
- c* This mountaine was also called Hor. Nomb. 20, 28.

7 ¶ From thence they departed vnto Gudgodāh, and from Gudgodāh to Iotbāth a land of running waters.

8 ¶ The same time the Lord separated the tribe of Leui to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and to stand before the Lord, to ^d minister vnto him, and to blesse in his Name vnto this day.

d That is, to offer sacrifices & to declare y^r Lawe to the people.

- 9 Wherefore Leui hath no parte nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his ^e inheritance, as the Lord thy God hath promised him.
- e* So God turned y^r curie of Iaakōb, Gen. 49, 7, vnto blessing.

10 And I taried in the Mount, as at the first time, fortie daies and fortie nights, and the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord wolde not destroye thee.

11 But the Lord said vnto me, Arise, go forth in the iourney before the people, that thei may go in and possesse the land, which I swaie vnto their fathers to giue vnto them.

12 ¶ And now, Israël, what doeth the Lord thy God f require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his wayes, and to loue him, and to serue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule?

13 That thou kepe the commandements of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day, for thy welth?

14 Beholde, heauen, and the heauen of heauens, the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

15 Notwithstanding, the Lord set his delite in thy fathers to loue them, and dyd chose their sede after them, even you aboue all people, as appeareth this day.

16 ¶ Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.

17 For the Lord your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, mightie, & terrible, which accepteth no^{*} persones nor taketh reward:

18 Who doeth right vnto the fatherles and widowe, and loueth the stranger, giuing him sode and rayment.

19 Loue ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 *Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God: thou shalt serue him, and thou shalt cleaue vnto him, and ¹ shalt sweare by his Name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes haue sene.

22 Thy fathers went downe into Egypt ^{}with seuentie persones, & now the Lord thy God hath made thee, as the^{} starres of the heauen in multitude.

CHAP. XI.

1 An exhortacion to loue God, and kepe his Lawes 10 The praises of Canaan. 18 To meditate continually the words of God. 19 To teache is vnto the children. 26 Blessing and cursing

1 Therefore thou shalt loue the Lord thy God, and shalt kepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his Lawes, and his commandements alwaie.

2 And ^a consider this day (for I speake not to your children, which haue nether knowen nor sene) the chastisemēt of the Lord your God, his greatnes, his mightie hand, and his stretched out arme, And his signes, and his actes, which he did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land:

4 And what he did vnto the holste of the Egyptians, vnto their horses and to their charets, when he caused the waters of the red Sea to ouerfloe them, as thei pursued after you, and the Lord destroyed them vnto this day:

5 And ^b what he did vnto you in the wilderness, vntil ye came vnto this place:

7 For your eyes haue sene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.

8 Therefore shal ye kepe ^c all the commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possesse the land whether ye go to possesse it:

9 Also that ye may prolong your daies in the land, which the Lord swaie vnto your fathers, to giue vnto them and to their sede, even a land that floweth with milke and honie.

10 ¶ For the land whether thou goest to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt, ^d whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy sede, and wateredst it with^d thy^d fete as a garden of herbes:

11 But the land whether ye go to possesse it, ^e is a land of mountaines and valleis, ^e drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This land doeth the Lord thy God care for: the eyes of the Lord thy God ^e are alwaies vpon it, from the beginning of the yere, ^e vnto the end of the yere.

15 Also I wil sed grasse in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou maiest eat, and haue ynough.

16 But beware lest your heart ^f deceaue you, and lest ye turne aside, and serue other gods, and worship them,

1. Num. 12. 10.

9 ¶ When y^e ſhalt aſke againe of thy neighbour anye thing lent, thou ſhalt not goe to his houſe to ſet his pledge.

1. As though y^e wouldeſt appoint what to haue, but ſhalt receiue what he may ſpare.

10 But thou ſhalt ſtand without, and the mā that borrowed it of thee, ſhal bring y^e pledge out of the dores vnto thee.

11 Furthermore if it be a poore bodie, thou ſhalt not ſlepe with his pledge, 12 But ſhalt reſtore him the pledge when y^e ſunne goeth downe, y^e he may ſlepe in his rayment, & bleſſe thee: & it ſhalbe righteousnes vnto thee, before y^e Lord thy God.

1. Though he woulde be vnrathful, yet God wil not forget it.

13 ¶ Thou ſhalt not oppreſſe an hired ſeruant that is needy and poore, neither of thy brethren, nor of the ſtranger that is in thy land within thy gates.

14 ¶ Thou ſhalt giue him his hire for his day, neither ſhal the ſunne go downe vpon it: for he is poore, & therewith ſuſtaineth his life: leſt he crye againſt thee vnto the Lord, and it be ſinne vnto thee.

1. Leu. 19. 13. Job. 4. 15.

15 ¶ The fathers ſhal not be put to death for the children, nor the children put to death for the fathers, but euerie man ſhal be put to death for his owne ſinne.

16 ¶ Thou ſhalt not peruert the right of the ſtranger, nor of the fatherles, nor take a widowes rayment to pledge.

1. Because the world did leaſt eſtimate theſe ſortes of people, therefore God hath moſte care to uer them.

17 But remember that thou waſt a ſeruant in Egypt, & how the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence, therefore I commande thee to do this thing.

18 ¶ When y^e cutteſt downe thine harveſt in thy field, & haſt forgotten a ſheaf in the field, thou ſhalt not go againe to ſet it, but it ſhalbe for the ſtranger, for the fatherles, for the widow: that the Lord thy God may bleſſe thee in all the workes

8 And the Lord brought vs out of Egypt in a mightie hand, and a stretched out arme, with great terriblenes, bothe in signes & wonders.

9 And he hath brought vs into this place, and hath giuen vs this land, euē a land that floweth with milke and hony.

f In token of a thankful heart, & mindfull of this benefite.

10 And now, lo, I f haue brought the first frutes of the land which thou, o Lord, hast giuen me, and thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before ŷ Lord thy God:

g Signifying ŷ God giueth vs not goods for our felices only, but for their vices also, which are committed to our charge.

11 And thou shalt reioyce in all the good things which ŷ Lord thy God hath giuen vnto thee and to thine household, ŷ and the Leuite, and the stranger that is among you.

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there and reioyce before ŷ Lord thy God:

8 And thou shalt write vpon the stones all the wordes of this Lawe, d wel, and plainly.

d That euerie one may well read it and vnderstand it.

9 ¶ And Moſes & the Priests of the Leuites spake vnto all Israel, saying, Take heed & heare, o Israel: this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou e shalt hearken therefore vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and do his commandements and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day.

e This condition God hath bode thee vnto, that if ŷ wilt be his people, thou must kepe his Lawes.

11 ¶ And Moſes charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shal stand vpon mount Gerizzim, to blesse the people when ye shal passe ouer Iordén: Simeón, & Leui, & Iudáh, & Issachár, & f Ioséph, & Beniamin.

f Meaning Ephraim & Manasse

¹ The people are exhorted to obserue the comandements. ¹⁰ The whole people from the hest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenāt. ¹⁹ The punishment of him that flattereth him selfe in his wickednes. ²⁴ The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

1 These are the wordes of the couenant which the Lord comandeth Moses to make with the children of Israel in the lad of Moab beside the couenāt which he had made with them in Horēb.

2 ¶ And Moses called all Israel, & said vnto them, Ye haue sene all that the Lord did before your eies in the land of Egypt vnto Pharaoh and vnto all his seruants, & vnto all his land,

3 The great tentacions which thine eies haue sene, those great miracles and wonders:

4 Yet the Lord hath not giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eies to se, and cares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yere in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, nether is thy shooe waxed olde vpon thy fote.

6 Ye haue eaten no bread, nether dronke wine, nor strong drinke, that ye might knowe, how that I am y Lord your God.

7 After ye came vnto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbōn, and Og King of Bashan came out against vs vnto battel, and we slew them, ⁱ Gods plagues vpon the that rebell against him, shal be so strange, that all ages shalbe astonished

22 So that the ^lgeneracion to come, ^{euen} your children, that shal rise vp after you, and the stranger that shal come from a far land, shal say, when they shal see the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shal smite it:

23 (For all that lād shal burne with brimstone and salt: it shal not be sown, nor bring fourth, nor anie grasse shal growe therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of ^{*}Sodom, & Gomorah, Admah, & Zeboim, which the Lord ouerthrewe in his wrath and in his angre)

Gene. 19. 25.

24 Then shal all nacions say, ^{*}Wherefore hathe the Lord done thus vnto this land? how feare is this great wrath?

25 And they shal answer, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he broght them out of the lād of Egypt,

26 And went and serued other gods & worshipped them: ^{euen} gods which they knewe not, & which had giuen them nothing,

^{Mr.} which had not giuen them a lād to possess

27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hote against this land, to bring vpon it euerie curse that is written in this booke.

^{Mr.} In Moses hereby reprooueth their curiosities, which seek those things which are only known to God: & their negligence, that regard not that, which God hath reueiled vnto them, as the Lawe.

28 And the Lord hathe rooted them out of their land in angre, and in wrath, and in great indignacion, and hathe cast them into another land, as appeareth this day.

29 The ^msecret things belong to the Lord our God, but ^ythings reueiled belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this Lawe.

CHAP. XXX.

¹ Mercie shewed when they repent. 6 The Lord doeth circumsise the heart 11 All excuse of ignorance is taken away. 19 Life and death is set before the. 26 The Lord is their life which obey him.

¹ Now whe all these things shal come vpon thee, ^ether the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, and ^y shalt ^aturne into thine heart, among all ^y nacions whether the Lord thy God hathe driuen thee,

^a By calling to remembrance, both his mercies & his plagues

2 And shalt returne vnto ^y Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commaēde thee this day: thou, & thy children with all thine ^b heart and with all thy soule,

^b In true repentance is none hypocrisy.

3 Then ^y Lord thy God wil cause thy captiues to returne, and haue compasison vpon thee, & wil returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where ^y Lord thy God had scattered thee.

4 Though thou werest cast vnto the vtmost parte of ^e heauen, from thence wil ^y Lord thy God gather thee, & from thence wil he ^d take thee,

^c Euen to the worldes end.

5 And the Lord thy God wil bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possesse it, and he wil shewe thee fauour, and wil multiplie thee ^a boue thy fathers.

^d And bring thee into thy country.

6 And the Lord thy God wil ^e circumsise thine heart, and the heart of thy fede, that thou maist loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, that thou maist liue.

^e God will purge all thy wicked affections: & thing is not in thine owne power to do.

7 And the Lord thy God wil lay all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them, that hate thee, and that persecute thee.

8 ^f Returne thou therefore, & obey the voyce of the Lord, & do all his commandements, which I commande thee this day.

^f If we will haue God to worke in vs with his holy spirit, we must turne againe to him by repentance.

9 And ^y Lord thy God wil make thee plentiful in euerie woike of thine hand, in ^y frute of thy body, and in the frute of thy cattel, and in the frute of the land for thy welth: for ^y Lord wil turne againe & ^g reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers,

^g He meaneth not that God is subiect to these passions, to reioyce or to be sad: but he wileth this manner of speech to declare the loue which he beareth vnto vs.

10 Because thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keeping his commandements, & his ordināces, which are written in the booke of this Lawe, when thou shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart & with all thy soule.

11 ¶ For this commandement which I commande thee this day, is ^h not hid fro thee, neither is it farre of.

^h The Law is so euident that none can pretend ignorance.

12 It is not in heauen, that thou shuldest say, ^{*}Who shal go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may do it?

ⁱ Rom. 10. 6. By heauen & it is he meaneth places most farre distant.

13 Neither is it beyonde the ⁱ sea, that thou shuldest say, Who shal go ouer the sea for vs, & bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may do it?

Even the Lawe & the Gospel
14 But the ^k worde is velle nere vnto thee: ^{euen} in thy mouth & in thine heart, for to do it.

15 Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life & good, death and euil.

So that to loue & obey God, is ourly life & felicitie
16 In that I commande thee this day, ^m to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, & to kepe his commandments, & his ordinances, & his lawes ^y thou maifest

He addeth these promises to signifie that it is for our profit y we loue him & not for his.
ⁿ liue & be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whether thou goest to possesse it.

17 But if thine heart turne away, so that ^y wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced & worship other gods, and serue them, 18 I pronounce vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish, ye shal not prolong your dayes in the lād whether thou passest ouer Iordén to possesse it.

Chap 4. 26.
19 * I call heauen & earth to recorde this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. therefore ^o chose life, that both thou & thy seide may liue,

That is, loue & obey God: which thing is not in mans power, but Gods spirit onely worketh it in his elect.
20 By louing the Lord thy God, by obeying his voyce, & by cleauing vnto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy dayes: that thou maist dwel in the land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhák and Iakób, to giue them.

CHAP. XXXI.

27 Moses preparing himselfe to dye, appointeth Ioshua to rule the people 28 He giveth the Lawe to the Levites, that they shoulde read it to the people 29 God giveth the Lawe as a witness betwene him & them 30 God confirmeth Ioshua 31 Moses sheweth them that they wil rebel after his death

1 Then Moses went & spake these wordes vnto all Israél,

5 And the Lord shal giue the ^b before you that ye may do vnto them according ⁿ to euery ^m commandment, which I haue commanded you.

Or, be of good courage
6 Plucke ^v vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God him selfe doeth go with thee: he wil not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

7 ¶ And Moses called Ioshua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israél; Be ^e of a good courage and strong: for ⁿ ou shalt go with this people vnto the land which the Lord hath sworne vnto their fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherit.

8 And the Lord him selfe doeth ^d go before thee: he wil be with thee: he wil not fayle thee, neither forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomfited.

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this Lawe, and deliuered it vnto the Priests ^y sonnes of Leui, (which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) and vnto all the Elders of Israél,

10 And Moses commanded them, saying,

* Euery seuenth yeie ^e whē ^y yeie of freedom shall be in the feast of the Tabernacles:

11 When all Israél shal come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which he shal chose, thou shalt read this Lawe before all Israél that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together: men, & women, and children, and thy stranger: that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and kepe, and obserue all ^y wordes of this Lawe,

13 And that their children which ^f haue not knowne it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as ye liue in the land, whether ye go ouer Iordén to possesse it.

14 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, thy dayes are come, that thou must dye: Call Ioshua, & itad ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregation that I may giue him a charge. so Moses & Ioshua wēt, and stode in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.

15 And the Lord appeared in ^y Tabernacle, in the pillar of a cloude: & the pillar of the cloude stode ouer the dore of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶ And ^y Lord said vnto Moses, Beholde, thou shalt slepe with thy fathers, and this people wil rise vp. and go a whoring after the gods of a strange land (whether they go) to dwel therein, & wil forsake me. and breake my couenant which I haue made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath wil waxe hote against them at ^y day, & I wil forsake them, & wil ^b hide my face from them: then they shal be consumed, and many aduersities & tribulations shal come vpon them: so then they wil say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

18 But I wil surely hide my face in ^y day, because of all the euil, which they shal commit, in ^y they are turned vnto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teache it the children of Israhel: put it in their mouthes, that this song may be my witness against the children of Israhel.

20 For I will bring them into the lād (which I sware vnto their fathers) that floweth with milke and hony, and they shall eat, and fill them selues, and waxe fat: & then shall they turne vnto other gods, and serue them, and contemne me, & breake my couenant.

21 And then when manie aduersities and tribulations shall come vpon them, this song shall answer them to their face as a witness: for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their posteritie: for I knowe their imaginacion, which they go about euen now, before I haue brought them into the land which I sware.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day and taught it the children of Israhel.

23 And God gaue Ioshua the sonne of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israhel into the land, which I sware vnto them, and I will be with thee.

24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the wordes of this Lawe in a booke vntill he had finished them,

25 Then Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the Alike of the couenant of y Lord, saying,

26 Take the booke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Alike of the couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion and thy stiffe necke: behold, I being yet aliue with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord: how much more then after my death?

28 Gather vnto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these wordes in their audience, and call heauen and earth to recorde against them.

29 For I am sure that after my death ye will vtterly be corrupt and turne from the way, which I haue commanded you: therefore euil wil come vpon you at the length, because ye wil commit euil in the sight of y Lord, by prouoking him to anger through the worke of your hādes.

30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregation of Israhel the wordes of this song, vntill he had ended them.

3 For I will publish the Name of y Lord: giue ye glorie vnto our God.

4 Perfect is y worke of the mighty God: for all his wayes are iudgement. God is true, and without wickednes: iust, & righteous is he.

5 They haue corrupted them selues toward him by their vice, not being his children, but a frowarde and crooked generacion.

6 Do ye so rewarde y Lord, o foolish people and vnwise: is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? he hath made thee, and proportioned thee.

7 Remember the dayes of olde: consider the yeeres of so manie generacions: aske thy father, and he will shewe thee: thine Elders, and they will tel thee.

NOW this is the a bleſſing wherewith Mofes the man of God bleſſed the childre of Iſraél before his death, & ſaid, The Lord came from Sinai, and roſe vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared clearely from mount Parán, and he came with ten b thouſands of Saintes, and at his right hand a fry Lawe for them.

Though he loue the people, yet c all thy Saintes are in thine hands: & they are humbled at d thy fete, to receiue thy wordes.

Mofes commāded vs a Lawe for an e inheritance of the Cōgregation of Iaakób.

Thē he was among the righteous people, as King, when the heades of the people, and the tribes of Iſaél were aſſembled.

¶ Let f Reubén liue, and not dye, though his men be a ſmall nombre.

¶ And thus he bleſſed Iudáh, & ſaid, Heare, o Lord, the voice of Iudáh, & bring him vnto his people: his hands ſhalbe g ſufficient for him, if thou helpe him againſt his enemies.

¶ And of Leui he ſaid, Let thy h Thúmim & thine Vrim be w^{ith} thine holy one, whome thou dideſt proue in Maſſáh, and dideſt cauſe him to ſtand at y^e waters of Meribáh.

Who ſaid vnto his father and to his mother, h I haue not ſene him, nether knewe he his brethren, nor knewe his owne children: for they obſerued thy worde, & kept thy cōuenant.

Ther ſhal teache Iaakób thy iudgemēts, and Iſaél thy Lawe: they ſhal put incens before thy face, & the burnt offering vpon thine altar.

Bleſſe, o Lord, his ſubſtance, and accept the worke of his hands: i ſmite through the loines of thē that riſe againſt him, and of them that hate him, that they riſe not againe.

¶ Of Beniamín he ſaid, The beloued of the Lord ſhal k dwel in ſafety by him: the Lord ſhal couer him all the day long, and dwel betwene his ſhoulders.

¶ And of Joſeph he ſaid, Bleſſed of the Lord is his land for the ſwetenes of heauē, for the dewe, and l for the depth lying beneth,

And for the ſwete increaſe of the ſunne, and for the ſwete increaſe of the moone,

And for the ſwetenes of the earth, & abundance thereof: & the good wil of him that dwelt in the m buſhe, ſhal come vpon the head of Joſeph, and vpon the top of the head of him that was n ſeparated from his brethren.

His beautie ſhalbe like his firſt borne bullocke, and o his hornes as the hornes of an vnicorne: with them he ſhal ſmite the people together, euen the ends of the worlde: theſe are alſo the ten thouſands of Ephraím, and theſe are the thouſands of Manaſſeh.

¶ And of Zebulún he ſaid, Reioyce, Zebulún, in thy p going out, and thou, Iſſachár, in thy tentes.

They ſhal call the people vnto the q mountaine: there they ſhal offer the ſacrifices of righteouſnes: for r they ſhal ſucke of the abundance of the ſea, and of the treasures hid in the ſand.

And he looked to him ſelfe at the beginning, becauſe there was a porcion of the s Lawe giuer hid: yet he ſhal come with the heads of the people, to execute the iuſtice of the Lord, & his iudgements with Iſaél.

THE BOKE OF IOSHUA.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this boke the holy Ghost setteth moste liuely before our eyes the accomplishment of Gods promyses, who as he promised by the mouthe of Moses, that a Prophet shulde be raised vp vnto the people like vnto him, whome he willeth to obey, Deut. 18.15: so he sheweth him selfe here true in his promyses, as at all other times, and after the deathe of Moses his faithful seruant, he raiseth vp Ioshua to be ruler and gouernour ouer his people, that nether they shulde be discouraged for lacke of a captaine, nor haue occasion to distrust Gods promises hereafter. And because that Ioshua might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people also might haue none occasion to grudge, as though he were not approued of God: he is adorned with moste excellent giftes and graces of God, bothe to gouerne the people with counsell, and to defend them with strength, that he lacked nothing which ether belonged to a valiant captaine or a faithful minister. So he overcometh all difficultes and bringeth them in to the land of Canaan: the which according to Gods ordinance he deuident among the people & appointeth their borders: he establisheth lawes and ordinances, and putteth them in remembrance of Gods manifold benefites, assuring them of his grace and fauour, if they obey God, and contrariwise of his plagues and vengeance, if they disobey him. This historie doeth represente Iesus Christ the true Ioshua, who leadeth vs into eternal felicitie, which is signified vnto vs by this land of Canaan. From the beginning of the Genesis to the end of this boke are contained 2597 yeres. For from Adam vnto the flood are 1656. from the flood vnto the departure of Abraham out of Caldea, 363. and from thence to the death of Ioseph 290. So that the Genesis containeth 2390. Exodus 140. the other thre boke of Moses 40. Ioshua 27. So the whole maketh 2597 yeres.

CHAP. I.

1 The Lord incourageth Ioshua to invade the land. 4 The borders and limtes of the land of the Israelites. 5 The Lord promiseth to assist Ioshua, if he obey his worde. 11 Ioshua commandeth the people to prepare the selues to passe ouer Iordan. 12 And exhorteth the Reubenites to execute their charge.

^a The beginning of this boke dependeth on the last chap. of Deut. which was written by Ioshua as a preparation to his historie.

Now after y^e ^a death of Moses the seruāt of the Lord, y^e Lord spake vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun, Moses minister, saying,

2 Moses my seruāt is dead, now therefore arise, go ouer this Iordan, thou, and all this people, vnto the land which I giue them, that is, to the children of Israel.

3 ^a Euerie place that the sole of your fote shal tread vpon, haue I giue you, as I said vnto Moses. (chap. 14.2.)

4 ^a Fro the ^b wilderness and this Lebanón cuen vnto y^e great Riuer, the ruer Perath: all the land of the ^c Hittites, cuen vnto the great ^d sea toward the going downe of the sunne, shal be your coast.

5 There shal not a man be able to withstand thee all the dayes of thy life: as I was with Moses, so wil I be with thee: ^a I wil not leaue thee, nor forsake thee.

^b Deut. 31.24. Of Zim, called Kadeth & Paran.

CHAP. II.

- 6 Be strong and of a good courage: for vnto this people shalt thou deuise the land for an inheritance, which I swaie vnto thou fathers to giue them.
- 7 Onely be thou strong, and of a moste valiant courage, that thou maiest obserue and do according to all the Lawe which Moses my seruant hath commadéd thee: thou shalt not turne away from it to the right hád, nor to the left, that thou maiest prosper whether soeuer thou goest.
- 8 Let not this booke of the Lawe departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and night, that thou maist obserue & do according to all that is written therein: for thou shalt thou make thy way prosperous, & then shalt thou haue good successe.
- 9 Haue not I commanded thee, saying, Be strong and of a good courage, f. are not nor be discouraged: for I the Lord thy God wil be with thee, whether soeuer thou goest.
- 10 ¶ Then Ioshúa commanded the officers of the people, saying,
- 11 Passe through the hoste, and commande the people, saying, Prepare you vitales: for after three daies ye shal passe ouer this Iordén, to go in to possesse the land, which the Lord your God giueth you to possesse it.
- 12 ¶ And vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasséh spake Ioshúa, saying,
- 13 *Remember the worde, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commadéd you, saying, The Lord your God hath giuen you rest, and hath giuen you this land.
- 14 ¶ Your wiues, your childre, & your cattel shal remaine in the land which Moses gaue you on this side Iordén: but ye shal go ouer before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, & shal helpe them,
- 15 Vntil the Lord haue giuen your brethré rest, as wel as to you, & vntil thei also shal possesse the land, which y Lord your God giueth them: then shal ye returne vnto the land of your possession and shal possesse it, which land Moses the Lords seruant gaue you on this side Iordén toward the sunne rising.
- 16 Then thei answered Ioshúa, saying, All that thou hast commanded vs, we wil do, and whether soeuer thou sendest vs, we wil go.
- 17 As we obeyed Moses in all things, so wil we obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee as he was with Moses.
- 18 Who soeuer shal rebele against thy commandement, and wil not obey thy wordes in all that thou commandest him, let him be put to death: onely be strö & of good courage.

¶ Then Ioshúa the sonne of Nun sent out of Shittím two men to spie secretly, saying, Go, vewe the land, and also Ierichó: and thei went, and came in to an harlots house, named Raháb, and lodged there.

¶ Then reporte was made to the King of Ierichó, saying, Beholde, there came men hether to night, of the children of Isiaél, to spie out the countrey.

¶ And the King of Ierichó sent vnto Raháb, saying, Bring forth the me that are come to thee, and we are entred into thine house: for thei be come to searche out all the land.

¶ (But the woman had taken the two men and hid them) Therefore said she thus, There came men vnto me, but I wist not whence thei were.

¶ And whē thei shut the gate in the dawke, the men went out, whether the men went I wote not: followe ye after the quickly, for ye shal ouertake them.

¶ (But she had brought the vp to the rooffe of the house, & hyd them with the stalkes of flaxe, which she had spread abroad vpon the rooffe)

¶ And certeine men pursued after them, the way to Iordén, vnto the fourdes, and assone as thei which pursued after them, were gone out, thei shut the gate.

¶ And before thei were a slepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the rooffe,

¶ And said vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hath giuen you the land, and that the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

¶ And when we hearde it, our heartes did faint, and there remained no more courage in anse because of you: for the Lord your God, he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneth.

¶ Now therefore, I pray you, sweare vnto me by the Lord, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye wil also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token, returne, and circumcise the sonnes of Israël the second time.

^e Gilgál was so called, because they were there circumcised.

3 Then Ioshúa made him sharpe kniues & circumcised the sonnes of Israël in the hil of the forekinnes.

4 And this is the cause why Ioshúa circumcised all the people, even the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt, were ^d not circumcised.

^d For they looked daily to remoue ^e the Lords comanement which thing they ^f were newe circumcised, colde not do without great danger

Nomb. 14. 23.

6 For the children of Israël walked fourty yeres in the wildernes, til all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whome the Lord sware, that he wolde not shewe the land, ^{*} which the Lord had sworne vnto their fathers, that he wolde giue vs, even a land that floweth with milke and honie.

7 So their sonnes whome he raised vp in their steade, Ioshúa circumcised: for they were vncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And when they had made an end of circumcising all the people, they abode in the places in the cāpe til they ^{*} were whole.

^e For their sore was so grievous, that they were not able to remoue ^f By bringing you into this promised land contrary to the wicked opinion of the Egyptians or the foreskin, whereby you were like to the Egyptians.

9 After, the Lord said vnto Ioshúa, This day I haue taken away the ^f shame of Egypt from you: wherefore he called the name of that place Gilgál, vnto this day.

10 ¶ So the childre of Israël abode in Gilgál, and kept the feast of the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen in the plaine of Ierichó.

11 And they did eat of the corne of the lād, on the morow after the Passeouer, vncleauened bread, and parched corne in the same day.

12 And the M A N ceased on the morow after they had eaten of the corne of the lād, nether had the children of Israël M A N anie more, but did eat of the fruite of the land of Canaan that yere.

CHAP. VI.

3 The Lord instructeth Ioshúa what he shoulde do, as touching Ierichó. 6 Ioshúa commandeth the Priests and warriors what to do. 20 The walles fall. 22 Raháb is saued. 24 All is burnt saue golde and metal. 26 The curse of him that buyldeth the citie.

1 NOW Ierichó was ^a shut vp, & ^b closed, because of the children of Israël, none might go out nor entre in.

2 And ^y Lord said vnto Ioshúa, Beholde, I haue giuen into thine hand Ierichó and the King thereof, and the strong men of warre.

3 All ye therefore that be men of warre, shal compass the citie, in going round about ^y citie ^d once: thus shal you do six dayes;

4 And seuen Priests shal beare seuen trumpets of ^e rams hornes before the Arke: & the seventh day ye shal compass the citie seuen times, and the Priests shal blowe with the trumpets.

5 And when they make a lōg blast with the rams horne, & ye heare the sounde of the trumpet, all the people shal shoute with a great shoute: then shal the wall of the citie fall downe flat, and the people shal ascend vp, euerie man streight before him.

6 ¶ Then Ioshúa the sonne of Nun called the Priests & said vnto them, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, & let seuen Priests beare seuen trumpets of rams hornes before the Arke of the Lord.

7 But he said vnto the people, ^f Go and compass the citie: and let him that is armed, go forthe before ^y Arke of the Lord.

8 ¶ And when Ioshúa had spoken vnto the people, the seuen Priests bare the seuen trumpets of rams hornes, and went forthe before the Arke of the Lord, and blewe with the trōpēts, and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶ And the men of armes wēt before the Priests, that blewe the trumpets: then the gathering hoste came after the Arke, as they went and blewe the trumpets.

10 (Now Ioshúa had commāded the people, saying, Ye shal not shoute, nether make anie noyse with your voice, nether shal a worde procede out of your mouth, vntil the day that I say vnto you, Shoute, then shal ye shoute)

11 So the Arke of the Lord compassed the citie, and went aboute it ^h once: then they returned into the hoste, and lodged in the campe.

They gathered them selues together, to fight against Ioshúa, & against Israél with one accord.

* But the inhabitants of Gibeón heard what Ioshúa had done vnto Ierichó, and to Aí.

And therefore they wrought craftely: for they went, and fained them selues embassadours and toke olde sackes vpon their asses, and olde bottels for wine, bothe rent & cloude vp,

And olde shooes and clouted vpon their fete: also the raiment vpon them was olde, & all their prouision of bread was dried, & moulded.

So they came vnto Ioshúa into the hoste to Gilgál, & said vnto him, and vnto the men of Israél, We be come from a farre countrey: now therefore make a league with vs.

Thē the men of Israél said vnto the Hittites, It may be that thou dwellest among vs, how then can I make a league with thee?

And they said vnto Ioshúa, We are thy seruants. Then Ioshúa said vnto thē, Who are ye? & whence come ye?

And they answered him, From a very far countrey thy seruants are come for the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard his fame & all that he hath done in Egypt,

And all that he hath done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordén, to Sihón King of Heshbón, & to Og King of Bashán, which were at Ashtaróth.

Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our countrey spake to vs, saying, Take vitales with you for the iourney, & go to mete them, & say vnto them, We are your seruants: now therefore make ye a league with vs.

This our bread we toke it hot with vs for vitales out of our houses, the day we departed to come vnto you: but now behold, it is dried, and it is moulded.

Also these bottels of wine which we filled, were new, and lo, they be rent, and these our garments and our shooes are olde, by reason of the exceeding great iourney.

And these me accepted their tale concerning their vitales, & counseled not with the mouth of the Lord.

So Ioshúa made peace with them, & made a league with thē, that he wolde suffer them to liue: also the Princes of the Congregation sware vnto them.

But at the end of thre daies, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

And the children of Israél toke their iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeón, & Chephutáh, & Beeróth & Kiriathiearím.

And the children of Israél sware them not, because the Princes of the Congregation had sworne vnto them by the Lord God of Israél: wherefore all the Congregation murmured against the Princes.

Then all the princes said vnto all the Congregation We haue sworne vnto thē by the Lord God of Israél: now therefore we may not touche them.

But this we wil do to them, & let them liue, lest the wrath be vpon vs because of the othe which we sware vnto them.

And the Princes said vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shal hewe wood, & drawe water vnto all the Congregation, as the Princes appoint them.

Ioshúa then called them, and talked wth them, and said, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, saying, We are verie farre from you, when ye dwel among vs?

Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shal none of you be freed frõ being bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the house of my God.

And they answered Ioshúa and said, Because it was tolde thy seruants, that the Lord thy God had commanded his seruants Mosés to giue you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land out of your sight, therefore we were exceeding sore afraid for our liues at the presence of you, & haue done this thing:

And beholde now we are in thine hand: do as it seemeth good & right in thine eyes to do vnto vs.

Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the hand of the children of Israél, that they slewe them not.

And Ioshúa appointed them that same daie to be hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the Congregation, & for the altar of the Lord vnto this day, in y place which he shulde chuse.

NOW whē Adoni-zédék King of Ierusalém had heard how Ioshúa had taken Aí and had destroyed it, (* for as he had done to Ierichó and to the King thereof, so he had done to * Aí and to the King thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeón had made peace with Israël, and were among them,

Then thei feared exceedingly for Gibeón was a great cite, as one of the roial cities: for it was greater then Aí, and all the men thereof were mightie.

Wherefore ^a Adoni-zédék King of Ierusalém sent vnto Hohám King of Hebrón, and vnto Pirám King of Iarmúth, and vnto Iapía King of Lachísh, and vnto Debír King of Eglón, saying, Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may smite Gibeón: for thei haue made peace with Ioshúa and with the children of Israël.

Therefore the fiue Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ierusalém, the King of Hebrón, the King of Iarmúth, the King of Lachísh, and the King of Eglón gathered them selues together, & went vp, thei with all their hostes, & besieged Gibeón, and made ^b warre against it.

And the mé of Gibeón sent vnto Ioshúa, enē to the hoste to Gilgál, saying, Withdrawe not thine hand frō thy seruants: come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwell in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs.

So Ioshúa ascended from Gilgál, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshúa, ^c Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them shal stand against thee.

Ioshúa therefore came vnto them sodenly: for he went vp from Gilgál all y night. And the Lord discomfited them before Israël, & slewe them with a great slaughter at Gibeón, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Beth-horón, and smote them to Azekáh and to Makkedáh.

And as thei fled frō before Israël, & were in the going downe to Beth-horón, y Lord cast downe great stones from heauē vpō them, vntil Azekáh, & thei dyed: thei were more that dyed with the ^d haylestones, then they whome the children of Israël slewe with the sworde.

¶ Then spake Ioshúa to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israël, and he said in the sight of Israël, * Sunne, staie thou in Gibeón, and thou moone, in the valley of Aialón.

And the sunne abode, & the moone stode

stil, vntil the people auenged them selues vpō their enemies: (Is not this written in the boke of * Iashér) so the sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to go downe for a whole day.

And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord ^e fought for Israël.

¶ After, Ioshúa returned, and all Israël with him vnto the campe to Gilgál:

But the fiue Kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedáh.

And it was tolde Ioshúa, saying, The fiue Kings are foude hyd in a caue at Makkedáh.

Then Ioshúa said, Roule great stones vpon the mouthe of the caue, and set men by it for to kepe them.

But stand ye not stil: followe after your enemies, and ^f smite all the hindemost, suffre them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hath giuen them into your hand.

And when Ioshúa and the children of Israël had made an end of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter til they were consumed, and the rest that remained of them were entred into walled cities,

Then all the people returned to the campe, to Ioshúa at Makkedáh in ^g peace: no man moued his tongue against the children of Israël.

After, Ioshúa said, Open the mouthe of the caue, & bring out these fiue Kings vnto me for the of the caue.

And thei did so, and broght out those fiue Kings vnto him for the of the caue, ^h euen the King of Ierusalém, the King of Hebrón, the King of Iarmúth, the King of Lachísh, and the King of Eglón.

And when thei had broght out those Kings vnto Ioshúa, Ioshúa called for all the men of Israël, and said vnto the chiefe of y men of warre, which went with him, Come nere, set your fete vpō the ⁱ neckes of these Kings: & thei came nere and set their fete vpon their neckes.

And Ioshúa said vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, ^j but be strong and of a good courage: for thus wil the Lord do to all your enemies, against whome ye fight.

So then Ioshúa smote them, and slewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees, and thei hanged stil vpon the trees vntil the euenning.

And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshúa gaue commandement, that thei shulde take ^k them downe of the trees, & cast them into the caue (wherein thei had bene hid) and thei layed great stones vpō the caues mouthe, which remaine vntil this day.

the King of Makkedah* as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

29 Then Ioshúa went from Makkedah, and all Israël with him vnto Libnáh, & fought against Libnáh.

30 And the Lord gaue ¶ it also & the King thereof into the hád of Israël: & he smote it with the edge of the sworde, & all the soules ¶ were therein: he let none remaine in it: for he did vnto the King thereof, as he had done vnto the King of Ierichó.

31 ¶ And Ioshúa departed from Libnáh, & all Israël with him vnto Lachish, and besieged it, and assailed it.

32 And the Lord gaue ¶ Lachish into ¶ hand of Israël, which toke it the seconde day, and smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the soules that were therein, ac-

they besieged it, and assailed it,

35 And they toke it the same day, & smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the soules ¶ were therein he vtterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Ioshúa went vp from Eglón, and all Israël with him vnto Hebrón, & they fought against it.

37 And when they had také ¶ it, they smote it with the edge of the sworde, and the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, & all the soules that were therein: he left none remaining, according to all as he had done to Eglón: for he destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 ¶ So Ioshúa returned, and all Israël with him to Debír, and fought against it.

39 And when he had taken ¶ it, & the King thereof, and all the cities thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sworde, & vtterly destroyed all the soules ¶ were therein, he let none remaine: as he did to Hebrón, so he did to Debír, & to the King thereof, as he had also done to Libnáh, & to the King thereof.

40 ¶ So Ioshúa smote all the hyl couñtreis, and the Southcountreis, and the valleys, and the ¶ hil sides, & all their Kings, & let none remaine, but vtterly destroyed euery soule, as the Lord God of Is-raél had commanded.

41 And Ioshúa smote them from Kadesh-bainéa euen vnto Azzáh, and all the coun-trei of Goshén, euen vnto Gibeón.

42 And all these Kings, and their land did Ioshúa take at ¶ one time, because the Lord God of Israël fought for Israël.

him returned vnto the campe in ¶ Gil-gál.

¶ Diuers Kings and cities, and countreis overcome by Ioshúa. 15 Ioshúa did all that Moses had commanded him 20 God hardeneth the enemies heartes that they might be destroyed.

1 And when Iabín King of Hazór had heard this, then he ¶ sent to Lobáb King of Madón, and to the King of and by West, and vnto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hiuites vnder ¶ Hermón in the land of Mizpéh.

4 And they came out and all their hostes with them, many people as the sand that is and charets exceeding many.

5 So all these Kings met together, & came and pitched together at the waters of Marórm, for to fight against Israël.

6 ¶ The Lord said vnto Ioshúa, Be not afraid for them: for to morowe about this time wil I deliuer them all slayne before Israél: thou shalt ¶ hough their horses, & burne their charets with fire.

7 Then came Ioshúa and all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Maróm suddenly, and fel vpon them.

8 And the Lord gaue them into the hand of Israël: and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Zidón, and vnto

¶ Misréphóthmaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpéh Eastwarde, & smote them vntil they had none remaining of them.

9 And Ioshúa did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charets with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshúa turned backe, and toke Hazór, and smote the King thereof with the sworde: for Hazór beforeti-me was the head of all those kingdomes.

11 Moreover they smote all the ¶ persones that were therein with the edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying all, leaving none aloue, and he burnt Hazó: with fire.

12 So all the cities of those Kings, and all the Kings of them did Ioshúa take, and gainst Israél in battel to the intent that they shulde destroy them vtterly, and shew them no mercy, but that they shulde bring them to nought:as the Lord had commanded Mosés.

 and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines:as out of Hebrón,out of De-

9 And the ^e separate cities for the childre of the children of Manasséh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they cast not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gézer, but the Canaanites day, and serue vnder tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

The porcion of the halfe tribe of Manasseh. 3 The daughters of Zelophehad 13 The Canaanites are become tributaries 14 Manasseh and Ephraim require a greater porcion of heritage.

THIS was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh: for he was the ^a first borne of Ioséph, to wit, of Machir y^e first borne of Manasséh, and the father of Gileád: now because he was a man of warre, he had Gi-leád and Bashán.

2 And also ^a of the ^a rest of the sonnes of Manasséh by their families, ^a euen of the sonnes of Abiézer, and oí the sonnes of Hélek, and of the sonnes of Azriél, and of the sonnes of Shéchem, and of the sonnes of Hépher, and of the sonnes of Shemidá:
these were the males of Manasséh, the sonne of Ioséph according to their families.

3 ¶ But Zelophehad the sonne of Hépher, ^a the sonne of Gileád, the sonne of Machír, ^a and the sonne of Manasséh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Malhá, and Noáh, Hoglá, and Milchá, and Tirzáh:

4 Which came before Eleazár the Priest, and before Ioshúa the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord cōmanded Moisés to giue vs an inheritance among our ^b brethren: therefore according to the cōmandement of the Lord he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fel ten porcions to ^c Manasseh, beside the land of Gileád and Bashán, which is on the other side Iordén,

6 Because the daughters of Manasséh did inherit among his sonnes: and Manassehs other sonnes had the land of Gileád.

7 ¶ So the borders of Manasseh were from Ashér to Michmetháh y^e north before Shechem, & this border goeth on y^e right hád, euen vnto the inhabitants of En-tappúah.

8 The land of Tappúah belonged to Manasséh, but ^d Tappúah beside the border of Manasséh ^d belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim.

9 Also this border goeth downe vnto the riuer Kanáh Southward to the riuer, the cities of Ephraim ^e are among the cities of Manasséh: and the border of Manasséh is on the Northside of the riuer, and the ends of it are at the ^e Sea,

10 The South pertaineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasséh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in Ashér Northwa:d, and in Issachár Eastward.

11 And Manasséh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean & her townes, & Ibleám, & her townes, & the inhabitants of Dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dó: with the townes thereof, & the inhabitants of Thaanách with her townes, & the inhabitants of Megiddó wth the townes of the same, ^e euen in their countreys.

12 Yet the childre of Manasséh ^e colde not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled in that land.

raél were sit ong, they put the Canaanites

^h According to my father Iakobs prophesie, Genes. 48. 19.

ⁱ If this moue be not large ynough, why dost not thou get more by destrying Gods enemies, as he hath commanded?

15 Ioshua then answered them, If thou be muche people, get thee vp to the wood, & cut trees for thy selfe there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the gyats, if moue Ephraim be tonarowe for thee.

16 Then the children of Ioseph said, The mountaine wil not be ynough for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwel in the lowe countrey haue charrets of yron, as wel they in Beth-shean, and in the townes of the same, as they in the valley of Izreel.

17 And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph, to Ephraim, & to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not haue one lot.

18 Therefore the mountaine shalbe thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it downe: and the ends of it shalbe thine, & thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charrets, and though they be strong.

^k So that thou shalt enlarge thy porcion thereby.

CHAP. XVIII.

^l The Tabernacle set in Shiloh. ^m Certaine are sent to deuide the land to the other seuen tribes. ⁿ The lot of the children of Benjamin.

1 And the whole Congregation of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the Tabernacle of the Congregation there, after the land was subiect vnto them.

^o For they had now remoued it from Gilgal and set it in Shiloh.

2 Now there remained among the childre of Israel seuen tribes, to whome they had not deuided their inheritance.

^p As Eleazar, Ioshua & the heades of the tribes had done to Iudah, Ephraim and halfe of Manasseh.

3 Therefore Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye so slacke to entre and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you?

4 Giue from among you for euery tribe thre men, that I may send them, and that they may rise, and walke through the land, and distribute it according to their inheritance, and returne to me.

^q That is, in so seuen portions, to euery tribe one.

5 And that they may deuide it vnto them into seuen partes, (Iudah shal abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Ioseph shal stand in their coastes at the North)

^r For these had their inheritance already appointed.

6 Ye shal describe the land therefore into seuen partes, & shal bring them hether to me, & I wil cast lottes for you here before the Lord our God.

^s Before the Arke of the Lord.

7 But the Leuites shal haue no part among you: for the Priesthode of the Lord is your inheritance: also Gad and Reuben & halfe the tribe of Manasseh haue receiued their inheritance beyode Iordén Eastward, which Moses the seruāt of the Lord gaue them.

^t That is, the sacrifices and offerings, Chap. 13. 14.

8 ¶ Then the men arose, and went their way: and Ioshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Departe, and go through the land, and describe it, and returne to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

^g By writing the num. s of euery countrey and citie.

9 So the men departed, and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seuen partes in a booke, and returned to Ioshua into the campe at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Ioshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua deuided the land vnto the children of Israel, according to their portions:

^h That euery one shalde be content w Gods appointment.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the childre of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the coast of their lot lay betwene the children of Iudah, and the children of Ioseph.

ⁱ Their inheritance bordered vpon Iudah and Ioseph.

12 And their coast on the Northside was from Iordan, and the border went vp to the side of Iericho on the Northparte, & went vp through the mountaines Westward, and the endes thereof are in the wildernesses of Beth-auen:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, ^u ~~even~~ to the Southside of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atroth-addar, nere the moue, that lieth on the Southside of Beth-horon the nether.

^k Which was in the tribe of Ephraim another Beth-el was in the tribe of Benjamin.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the moue that lieth before Beth-horon Southward: and the endes thereof are at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-earim) a citie of the children of Iudah: this is the Westquarter.

15 And the Southquarter is from the end of Kiriath-earim, and this border goeth out Westward, and cometh to the fountaine of waters of Nephtoa.

^l Or in the Str.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountaine, that lieth before the valley of Beth-hinnom, which is in the valley of the gyantes Northward, & descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Jebusi Southward, and goeth downe to En-rogel,

^m Or, Rephaim.

ⁿ Or, Ierusalem.

17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forth to En-shemesh, & stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

^o Which is in the tribe of Ephraim.

^p Chap. 15. 6.

18 So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: & the endes thereof, that is, of the border, reache to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the end of Iordan Southward: this is the Southcoast.

^q To the very streit, where the river runneth into the salt Sea.

20 Also

20 Also Iordén is the border of it on the Eastside : this is the inheritance of the children of Beniamín by the coastes thereof round about according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Beniamín according to their families, are Ierichó, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-arabah, and Zemarím, and Beth-él,

23 And Auím, and Paráh, and Ophráh,

24 And Chephái, Ammonái, and Ophni, & Gabá: twelue cities with their villages.

25 Gib-ón, and Ramáh, and Beeróth,

THE BOKE OF IVDGES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasing and heinous that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For now when the Israelites were entred into the land of Canaan, and sawe the trueth of Gods promises performed, in stead of acknowledging his great benefites and giuing thanks for the same, they fell to moste horrible obliuion of Gods graces, contrarie to their sol-mne promises made vnto Ioshúa, and so prouoked his vengeance (as muche as in them stode) to their utter destruction. Whereof as they had moste euident signes by the mutabilitie of their state: for he suffered them to be moste cruelly vexed and torment: d by tyrants: he pulled them from libertie, and cast them into slauerie, to the intent they might fele their owne miseries and so call vnto him and be deliuered. Yet to shewe that his mercies indure for euer, he raised vp from time to time suche as shoulde deliuer them and assure them of his fauour and grace, if they wolde turne to him by true repentance. And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executers of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people nor by succession, but raised vp, as it semed best to God, for the gouernance of his people. They were twelue in number besides Ioshúa, and gouerned from Ioshúa vnto Saúl the first King of Israel. Ioshúa and these vnto the tyme of Saúl ruled 336 yeres. In this boke are manie notable points declared, but two especially: first, the battel that the Church of God hath for the mainenance of true religion against idolatrie and superstition: next, what great danger that commune wealthis in, when as God giueth not a magistrate to reteine his people in the purities of religion and in true seruice.

Iudah is preferred.

Iudges.

C H A P. I.

After Ioshua was dead, Iudah was constitute captain. 6 Adoni-bézek is takē. 14 The request of Achish. 16 The children of Keni. 19 The Canaanites are made tributaries, but not destroyed.

a By the iudgement of Vrim: read Exo. 28, 30. nom. 27, 21. 1 Sam. 28, 6. b Who shalbe our Captain?

After y Ioshua was dead, y childre of Israël asked the Lord, saying: Who shal go vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight against them?

2 And the Lord said, Iudah shal go vp: beholde, I haue giuen the land into his hand.

c For the tribe of Simeon had their inheritance within y tribe of Iudah, 1oth. 19, 1.

3 And Iudah said vnto Simeon his brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise wil go with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slawe of them in Bézek ten thousand men.

e Or, the lord of Bézek.

5 And they founde Adoni-bézek in Bézek: and they fought against him, and slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

d This was Gods iust iudgement, as the tyrant him self confessed, y as he had done, so did he receive, Luc. 24, 19.

6 But Adoni-bézek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut of the thumbs of his hands and of his fete.

7 And Adoni-bézek said, Seuentie Kings hauing the thumbs of their hands and of their fete cut of, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hathe rewarded me. so they brought him to Ierusalém, and there he dyed.

8 (Now the children of Iudah had fought against Ierusalém, and had takē it & smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the citie on fire)

e Which was after ward buylt againe, & possesse d by y Iebusites, 2. Sam. 5, 6.

9 ¶ Afterwarde also the children of Iudah went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in y mountaine, and toward the South, and in the lowe countrey.

f Iosh. 15, 14. These three were gyats, & the children of Anák.

10 And Iudah wēt against the Canaanites, that dwelt in Hebrón, which Hebrón beforetime was called *Kiriath-arbá: and they slawe Sheshái, and Ahimán & Talmai.

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debír, and the name of Debír in olde time was Kiriath-sépher.

12 And Caléb said, He y smiteth Kiriath-sépher, & taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsáh my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniél the sonne of Kenáz Calébs yonger brother toke it, to whome he gaue Achsáh his daughter to wife.

g Read Iosh. 25, 18.

14 And whē she came to him, she moued him to aske of her father a field, & she ligh- ted of her asse, and Caléb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she answered him, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me a South contre, giue me also springs of water: and Caléb gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneath.

16 ¶ And the children of Keni Mosés father in lawe went vp out of the citie of the palmetrees with the children of Iudah, into the wilderness of Iudah, that lieth in the South of Arád, and went and dwelt among the people.

h This was one of the names of Mosés father in lawe, read Nom. 19, 29.

17 But Iudah went with Simeon his brother, and they slewe the Canaanites that inhabited Zepháh, and vterly destroyed it, and called the name of the citie *Hormáh.

Nom. 21, 8.

18 Also Iudah toke Azzáh with the coastes thereof, & Askelón with the coastes thereof, and Ekron with the coastes thereof.

i These cities & others were afterward possessed of the Philistines, 1. Sam. 6, 17.

19 And the Lord was with Iudah, and he possessed the mountaines: for he coulde not driue out the inhabitants of the valleys, because they had charrets of yron.

20 And they gaue Hebrón vnto Caléb, as Mosés had said, and he expelled thence the thre sonnes of Anák.

Nom. 34, 34. Iosh. 14, 13.

21 But the children of Beniamín did not cast out the Iebusites, that inhabited Ierusalém: therefore the Iebusites dwel with the children of Beniamín in Ierusalém vnto this day.

k For after y the tribe of Iudah had burnt it, they build it againe.

22 ¶ They also that were of the house of Ioséph, went vp to Beth-él, and the Lord was with them,

23 And the house of Ioséph caused to vewe Beth-él (and the name of the citie beforetime was *Luz)

Gen. 28, 19.

24 And the spies sawe a man come out of the citie, & they said vnto him, Shewe vs, we pray thee, the way into the citie, * and we wil shewe thee mercie.

Iosh. 2, 14.

25 And when he had shewed them the way into the citie, they smote the citie with y edge of the sword, but they let the man & all his householde departe.

26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and buylt a citie, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof vnto this day.

27 ¶ Nether did Manasséh destroy Beth-sheán with her townes, nor Taanách with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her townes, nor the inhabitants of Lbleám with her townes, nether the inhabitants of Megiddó with her townes: but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

Iosh. 17, 12.

28 Neuertheles when Israël was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

l Wherefore God primaried the Canaanites to dwell still in y land, read Chap. 3, 4.

29 ¶ Likewise Ephraím expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gézer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gézer among them.

Iosh. 16, 10.

30 ¶ Nether did Zebulún expel the inhabitants of Kitrón, nor the inhabitants of Nahaiól, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Ashér cast out the inhabitants of Acchó, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahláb, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbáh, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehób, 32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

3 But made them pay tribute as y others did.

33 Neither did Naphtalí drive out the inhabitants of Beth-anáth, nor the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: neuertheless the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh, and of Beth-anáth became tributaries vnto them.

Or, afflicted him.

34 And the Amorites droue the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffred them not to come downe to the valley.

35 And the Amorites dwelt stil in mount Héies in Analón, and in Shaalbim, and when the hand of Iosephs familie preuailed, they became tributaries:

Meaning, when he was stronger than they.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from Maaleh-akrabbim, even from Sélah and vpwarde.

Which was a citie in Arabia, or, as some read, from the rocks.

CHAP. I.

The Angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Canaanites. 11 The Israelites set to idolatrie after Ioshuas death. 14 They are deliuered into the enemies hands. 16 God deliuereth them by Iudges. 22 Why God suffred idolaters to remaine among them.

a That is, messenger, or Prophet, as some think, Phineas.

And an Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgál to Bochím, & said, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, & haue brought you vnto the land which I had swoine vnto your fathers, and said, I wil neuer breake my couenant with you.

Deut 7, 2.

Deut 18, 3.

2 Ye also shal make no couenant with the inhabitants of this land, but shal breake downe their altars: but ye haue not obeyed my voyce. Why haue ye done this?

Iosh 23, 13.

3 Wherefore, I said also, I wil not cast the out before you, but they shalbe as thornes vnto your sides, and their gods shalbe your destruction.

Or, siders.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these wordes vnto all the children of Israel, the people list vp their voyce, and wept.

Or, weeping

5 Therefore they called the name of that place, Bochím, and offred sacrifices there vnto the Lord.

b After that he had deuoted to every man his portion by lot, Iosh 24, 28.

6 Now when Ioshúa had sent the people away, the children of Israel went euerie má into his inheritance to possesse the land.

7 And the people had serued the Lord all the daies of Ioshúa, and all the daies of the Elders that outlyued Ioshúa, which had sene all the great workes of the Lord that he did for Israel.

c Meaning, the wonders & miracles.

8 But Ioshúa the sonne of Nun the scrúat of the Lord dyed, when he was an húdreth and ten yeres olde:

9 And they buried him in the coastes of his inheritance, in Timnath-héies in mount Ephraím, on the Northside of mount Gáash.

d Héies by turning the letters backward is Seréh, as Iosh 24, 28.

10 And so all that generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, and another generacion arose after them, which nether knewe the Lord, nor yet the workes, which he had done for Israel.

11 The children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim, e That is, a manner of idolatry.

12 And forsoke the Lord God of their fathers, which broght them out of the land of Egypt, & followed other gods, enē the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto them, & prouoked the Lord to angre.

13 So they forsoke the Lord, & serued Baal and Ashtaróth.

f These were idols, which had the forme of an ewe of shepe among the Sidonians.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israel, and he deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, that spoiled them, & he solde them into the hands of their enemies round about the, so that they coulde no longer stand before their enemies.

g Psal 44, 13.

15 Whether soeuer they went out, the hand of the Lord was sore against them, as the Lord had said, & as the Lord had swoine vnto them: so he punished them sore.

g In all their enterprises h The vengeance.

16 Notwithstanding, the Lord raised vp Iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppreßors.

i Or, deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressors.

17 But yet they wolde not obey their Iudges: for they went 2 whoing after other gods, and worshipped them, & turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

j Meaning, from the true religion.

18 And when the Lord had raised them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the daies of the Iudge (for the Lord had compassion of their groanings, because of them that oppreßed them & mented them)

k Elr reprimand k Seeing their crueltie.

19 Yet when the Iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse then their fathers, in following other gods to serue them and worship them: they ceased not from their owne inuencions, nor from their rebellious way.

l Chap 3, 12. m Or, corrupt the wayes.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, & he said, Because this people hatne transgressed my couenant, which I commanded their fathers, & haue not obeyed my voyce,

21 Therefore wil I no more cast out before them any of the nations, which Ioshúa left when he dyed, n As the Hittites, Iubusites, Amorites, &c.

^a So ^h bothe outward enemies and false Prophets are but a tryal to proue ^o talen, ^{Deut. 18.9.}

That through them I may ^m proue Israél, whether they wil kepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or nor.

So the Lord left those nacions, & droue them not out immediatly, nether deliuered them into the hand of Ioshúa.

C H A P. I I I.

¹ These now are the nacions which the Lord left, that he might proue Israél by them (^{euen} as many of Israél as had not knownen all the ^a warres of Canaan,

^a Which were ached by ^h hand of God, ² and not by the power of man.

Onely to make the generacions of the children of Israél to knowe, and to teache them warre, which douteles their predecessors knewe ^b not)

Five princes of the Philistims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuites that dwelt in mount Lebanón, from mount Báal hermón vnto one come to Hamath.

And these remained to proue Israél by them, to wit, whether they wolde obey the commandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

And the children of Israél dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebusites,

^a Contrary to Gods commandement, Deut. 7.3.

And they toke ^c their daughters to be their wiues, and gaue their daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods.

^d Trees or woods erected for idolatrye.

¶ So ^h children of Israél did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, & forgate the Lord their God, & serued Baalim, and ^a Ashtoroth.

Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israél, and he solde them into the hád of Chushán rishatháim King of ^a Áram-naharáim, & the childre of Israél serued Chushán rishatháim eight yeres.

¶ And when the children of Israél cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred vp a fauour to the children of Israél, and he saued them, ^{euen} Othniel the sonne of Kenáz, Calebs yonger brother.

^e He was raised vp by the Spirit of the Lord.

^{Or, Syria.}

And the ^c Spirit of the Lord came vpō him, and he iudged Israél, and went out to warre: & the Lord deliuered Chushán rishatháim King of ^a Aram into his hand, and his hand preuailed against Chushán rishatháim.

^f That is, i. vnder Ioshua, & s. vnder Othniel.

So the land had rest ^f fourtie yeres, and Othniel the sonne of Kenáz dyed.

^g So ^h the enemies of Gods people haue no power over them, but by Gods appointment.

¶ The children of Israél againe committed wickednes in ^h sight of the Lord: & the Lord ^s strengthened Eglón King of Moáb against Israél, because they had committed wickednes before the Lord.

And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammón, and Amalék, and went and smote Israél, and they possessed the cite of palmetrees.

So the child:en of Israél serued Eglón King of Moáb eightene yeres.

But when the children of Israél cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a sauiour, Ehúd the sonne of Gerá the sonne of ^a Lemini, a man ^a lame of his right hand: and the children of Israél sent a present by him vnto Eglón King of Moab.

^{Or, Benjamin.}

And Ehúd made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did gird it vnder his raymēt vpon his right thigh,

^{Or, caused a dagger to be made.}

And he presented the gift vnto Eglón King of Moab (and Eglón ^{was} a very fat man)

And whē he had now presented the present, he sent away the people that bare the present,

But he turned againe from the ^b quarris, that were by Gilgál, and said, I haue a secret errand vnto thee, ^o King. Who said, Kepe ^c silence: and all that stode about him, went out from him.

^h Or, as some say, from the places of idoles.

ⁱ Til all be departed.

Then Ehúd came vnto him, (& he sate alone in a somer parler, which he had) & Ehúd said, I haue a message vnto thee frō God. Then he arose out of his throne,

And Ehúd put forthe his left hand, and toke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly,

So that the hafte went in after the blade: and the fat closed about the blade, so that he colde not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.

Then Ehúd gate him out ^a into the porch, and shut the dores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

^{Or, bank.}

And when he was gone out, his seruants came: who seing that ^h dores of the parler were locked, they said, " Surely he doeth his easment in his somer chambre.

^{Or, he cometh his face.}

And they taried til they were ashamed: and seing he opened not the dores of the parler, they toke the key, and opened the, and beholde, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

So Ehúd escaped (while they taried) and was passed the quarris, and escaped vnto Seirath.

And when he came home, ^a he blew a trumpet in mount Ephráim, and the children of Israél went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

^{Or, raised the trumpet so be blown, & so.}

Then said he vnto them, Followe me: for the Lord hathe deliuered your enemies, ^{euen} Moáb into your hand. So they went downe after him, and toke the passages

2 And the Lord solde them into the hand of Iabin King of Canaan, that reigned in Hazór, whose chief captaine was called Sifera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundred charets of yron, and twentie yeres he had vexed the children of Israel very sore)

a By the Spirit of prophetic, recoluing of countersies, & declaring the will of God.

4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophe-tesse the wife of Lapidóth iudgeth Israel.

5 And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palme tre, betwene Ramáh and Beth-el in mount Ephraím, & the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.

d And reuelled vnto me by phetic.

6 Then she sent and called Barák the sonne of Abinóam out of Kédesh of Naph-tali, and said vnto him, Hathe not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Go, and drawe toward mount Tabór, & take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

*Psalm, 33, 10.

go with me, I wil go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I wil not go.

9 Then she answered, I wil surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shal not be for thine honour: for the Lord shal sel Sifera into the hand of a womā. And Deborah arose and went wth Barák to Kédesh.

*Or, he led after him 10000

*f Meaning, y

12 The they shewed Sifera, y Barák y sonne of Abinóam was gone vp to mount Tabór.

13 And Sifera called for all his charets, even people that were with him to Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the river Kishón.

14 Then Deborah said vnto Barák, & Vp:
for this is the day that the Lord hath de-liued Sifera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? so Barák went downe from mount Tabór, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the Lord destroyed Sifera and all his charets, & all his hoste with the edge of the sword, before Barák, so that Si-fera lighted downe of his charet, and fled away on his fete.

16 But Barák pursued after the charets, Psalm 33, 16.
& after the hoste vnto Harosheth of the Gentiles: & all the host of Sifera fel vpon the edge of the sword: there was not a mā left.

17 Howbeit, Sifera fled away on his fete to the tent of Iael the wife of Heber the Kenite: (for peace was betwene Iabin the King of Hazór, and betwene the house of Heber the Kenite)

*h Whose an-ters were strāgers, but wor-

18 And Iael wēt out to mete Sifera, & said vnto him, Turne in, my Lord, turne into me: feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, she couered him with a mantle.

Or, she saith.

19 And he said vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a little water to drinke: for I am thursty.
And she opened a bottle of milke & ga-ue him drinke, and couered him.

21 Then Iael Hebers wife took a nayle of the tent, and toke an hammer in her hand, and went softly vnto him, and smote the nayle into his temples, and fastened it into the ground, (for he was fast asleep, and wearie) and so he dyed.

22 And beholde, as Barák pursued after Si-fera, Iael came out to mete him, and said vnto him, Come, and I wil shewe thee the mā, whome thou seekst: and when he came into her tent, beholde, Sifera lay dead, and the nayle in his temples.

King of Canaan, vntil they had destroyed Iabin King of Canaan.

CHAP. V.

1 The song and thanksgiving of Deborah and Barák
after the victorie

- 1 Then sang Deborah, and Barák the sonne of Abinóam the same day, saying,
- 2 Praise ye the Lord for the auenging of Israël, & for the ^a people that offered the selues willingly.
- 3 Heare, ye Kings, hearken ye princes: I, ^{men} I wil sing vnto y^e Lord: I wil sing praise vnto the Lord God of Israël.
- 4 Lord, * when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the field of *Edóm, the earth trembled, & the heauens rained, the cloudes also dropped water.
- 5 *The mountaines melted before y^e Lord, *as did that Sinái before the Lord God of Israël.
- 6 In the dayes of *Shamgár the sonne of Anáth, in y^e dayes of *Iaél the hye wayes were ^b vnoccupied, and the trauelers walked through bywayes.
- 7 The townes were not inhabited: they decayed, I say, in Israël, vntil I Deborah came vp, which rose vp a ^c mother in Israël.
- 8 They chose newe gods: then was warre in the gates. Was there a ^d shilde or speare sene among fourtie thousand of Israël?
- 9 Mine heart is set on the gouerners of Israël, & on them that are willing among y^e people: praise ye the Lord.
- 10 Speake ye that ride on ^e white asses, ye y^e dwell^f by Middín, and that walke by the waye.
- 11 For the noyse of the archers ^g appaised among the drawers of water: there shal they rehearse y^e righteousness of the Lord, his righteousness of his townes in Israël: then did the people of the Lord go downe to the gates.
- 12 Vp Deborah, vp, arise, & sing a song: arise Barák, & lead ^h thy captiuitie captiue, thou sonne of Abinóam.
- 13 For they that remaine, haue dominion ouer the mightie of the people: the Lord hath giuen me dominion ouer the strong.
- 14 Of Ephráim their roote arose against Amalek & after thee, Beniamin ⁱ shal fight against thy people, ^j Amalek: of Machir came rulers, and of Zebulún they that handle the penne of the ^k water.
- 15 And the Princes of Issachái were with Deborah, & ^l Issachár, and also Baiák: he was set on his fete in the valley: for the diuisions of Reubén were great ^m thoughtes of heart.
- 16 Why abodest thou among the shepoldes, to heare the bleatings of the flockes? for the diuisions of Reubén were great thoughtes of heart.
- 17 ⁿ Gileád abode beyonde Iordén: & why doeth Dan remaine in shippes? Ashér sare on the seashore, and taried in his ^o decayed places.
- 18 But the people of Zebulún and Naphtali haue ieopardie their liues vnto the death in the hye places of the field.
- 19 The Kings came & fought: the fought the Kings of Canáan in Taanách by the waters of Megiddó: they receiued no gaine of ^p money.
- 20 They fought from heauen, ^q even the starres in their courses fought against Sisera.
- 21 The riuer Kishón swept them away, ^r that ancient riuer the riuer Kishón. ^s My soule, thou hast marched valiantly.
- 22 Then were the horschoues broken with the oft beating together of their mighty men.
- 23 Curse ye Merózi: (said the Angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitants thereof, because they came not to helpe the Lord, to helpe the Lord against the mightie.
- 24 Iaél the wife of Heber the Kenite shal be blessed aboute ^t other women: blessed shal she be aboute women dwelling in tents.
- 25 He asked water, & she gaue him milke: she brought forth ^u butter in a lordly dish.
- 26 She put her hand to the naile, and her right hand to the workemans hammer: with the hammer smote she Sisera: she smote of his head, after she had wounded, & pearced his temples.
- 27 He bowed him downe at her fete, he fel downe, & lay still: at her fete he bowed him downe, and fel: and when he had sonke downe, he lay there ^v dead.
- 28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cryed through the lattesse, Why is his charet so long a coming? why tary the ^w wheles of his charets?
- 29 Her wise ladies answered her, Yea. ^x She answered her selfe with her owne wordes, ^y That is, she comforted her selfe.
- 30 Haue they not gotten, & they deuide the spoyle? euerie man hath a maide or two. Sisera hath a praye of diuers couloured garments, a praye of sondry coulours made of needle worke: of diuers coulours of needle worke on bothe sides, ^z for the chief of the spoyle.
- 31 So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but they that loue him, shal be as the ^a sunne when he riseth in his might, and the lād had rest for tie yeies.

CHAP. VI.

1 Israël is oppressed of the Midianites for their wickednes. 14 Gideon is sent to be their deliverer. 37 He slayeth a figure.

Afterward the children of Israël committed wickednes in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord gaue the into the handes of Midian seven ye es.

2 And the hand of Midian preuailed against Israël, ^a & because of the Midianites the children of Israël made them de-dennes in the mountaines, and canes, and strong holdes.

3 When Israël had sowed, then came vp the Midianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came vpon them,

5 For they wēt vp, and their cattel, and came with their tentes as gresfhoppers in multitude: so that they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroye it.

6 So was Israël exceedingly impouerished by the Midianites: therefore the children of Israël cryed vnto the Lord.

c This is the end of Gods punishments, to call his to

7 ¶ And when the children of Israël cryed vnto the Lord because of the Midianites, The Lord sent vnto the children of Israël a Prophet, who said vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israël, I haue brought you vp frō Egypt & haue brought you out of the house of bondage,

9 And I haue deliuered you out of the hād of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and haue cast them out before you, and giuen you their land.

10 And I said vnto you, I am the Lord your God: * for a enot the gods of the Amosites in whose land you dwel: but you haue not obeyed my voyce.

2 King. 17.

11 ¶ And the Angel of the Lord came, and sat vnder the oke which was in Ophrah, that pertained vnto Ioásh the father of the Ezrites, and his sonne Gideón threshed wheat by the winepresse, * to hide it from the Midianites.

10 Or, as prepare his fight

12 Then the Angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and said vnto him, The Lord is with thee, thou valiant man.

13 To whome Gideón answered, Ah my Lord, if the Lord be with vs, why then is all this come vpon vs? and where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and said, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt? but now the Lord hathe forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the hand of the Midianites.

d This came not of distrust, but of weaknes of faith, &

fe can haue a

15 And he answered him, Ah my Lord, whereby shal I saue Israël? beholde, my father is poore in Manasséh, and I am the least in my fathers house.

Or, familie.

16 Then the Lord said vnto him, I wil therefore be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites, as one man.

17 And he answered him, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, then shewe me a signe, that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and bring mine offering, & lay it before thee. And he said, I wil tary vntil thou come againe.

19 ¶ Then Gideón went in, & made ready a kid, & vnleauened bread of an ^hEpháh of floure, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the oke, and presented it.

h Of Epháh
read Exod-
16, 36.

20 And the Angel of God said vnto him, Take the flesh and the vnleauened bread, and lay them vpon this stone, and powre out the broth: and he did so.

21 ¶ Thē the Angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh & the vnleauened bread: and there arose vp fire out of the stone, and consumed the flesh & the vnleauened bread: so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

i By y power

22 And when Gideón perceiued that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideón then said, Alas, my Lord God: * for because I haue sene an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shal dye.

*Exod 33, 20,
chap 13, 22.*

23 And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not dye.

24 Then Gideón made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, Iehouáh shalom: vnto this day it is in Ophrah, of the fathers of the Ezrites.

*Or, the Lord of 27 Then Gideón toke ten men of his seruants, and did as the Lord bade him: but because he feared to do it by day for his fathers housholde and the men of the citie, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the citie arose early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the seconde bullocke offered vpon the altar that was made.

29 Therefore they said one to another, Who hathe done this thing? & when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideón the sonne of Ioásh hathe done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie said vnto Ioásh, Bring out thy sonne, that he may dye: for he hathe destroyed the altar of Baal, & he also cut downe the groue that was by it.

2 To whome he said, What haue I now done in comparision of ^b you? is not ^c the gleaning of grapes of Ephráim better, the vintage of Abiézer?

3 God hath deliuered into your hands the princes of Midián, Oréb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparision of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶ And Gideón came to Iordén to passe ouer, he, and the thre hundredth men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succóth, Giue, I pray you, ^d morsels of bread vnto the people ^e that followe me (for they be weary) that I may followe after Zébah, & Zalmunna Kings of Midián.

6 And the princes of Succóth said, Are the ^f hands of Zébah and Zalmunna now in thine háds, that we shulde giue bread vnto thine armie?

7 Gideón then said, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zébah & Zalmunna into mine hand, I wil ^g teare your flesh with thornes of the wildernes and with breers.

8 ¶ And he went vp thence to Penuél, and spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Penuél answered him, as the men of Succóth answered.

9 And he said also vnto the men of Penuél, When I come againe ^h in peace, I wil breake downe this towre.

10 ¶ Now Zébah and Zalmunna were ⁱ in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousand, all that were left of all ^j the hostes of them of the East: for there was slayne an hundredth and twentie thousand men, that drewe swordes.

11 ¶ And Gideón went through them that dwelt in ^k tabernacles on the Eastside of Nóbah & Iogbeháh, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was careless.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, & toke the two Kings of Midián, Zébah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the hoste.

13 ¶ So Gideón ^l & some of Ioásh returned from battel, ^m the sunne being yet hie,

14 And toke a seruant of the men of Succóth, and inquired of him: and he ⁿ wrote to him the princes of Succóth & the Elders thereof, ^o euen seuentie and seuen men.

15 And he came vnto the men of Succóth, and said, Beholde Zébah and Zalmunna, by whome ye wpbraided me, saying, Are ^p thy hands of Zébah & Zalmunna already in thine háds, that we shulde giue bread vnto thy weay men?

16 Then he toke the Elders of the citie, & thornes of the wildeines & breers, & ^q did teare the men of Succóth with them.

17 Also he brake downe the towre of ^r Penuél, and slewe the men of the citie.

18 ¶ Then said he vnto Zébah & Zalmunna, What manner of mé were they, whom ye slew at Tabór? and they answered, As thou art, so were they: ^s enemie one was like the children of a King.

^h We came all out of one belly: therefore I will be revenged.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, euen my ^k mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I wolde not slay you.

20 Then he said vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp, and slay them: but the boy drewe not his sworde: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

21 Then Zébah and Zalmunná said, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for ^l as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideón arose and slewe Zébah and Zalmunná, & toke away the ^o ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israél said vnto Gideón, Reigne thou ouer vs, bothe thou, & thy sonne, & thy ^m sonnes sonne: for thou hast deliuered vs out of ^y hád of Midián.

23 And Gideón said vnto them, I wil not reigne ouer you, nether shal my childre reigne ouer you, but the Lord shal ⁿ reigne ouer you.

ⁿ His intent was to shewe him selfe thankfull for this victorie by restoring of religion, which, because it was not according as God had commanded, turned to their destruction.

24 Againe Gideón said vnto them, I wolde desire a request of you, that you wolde giue me euerie man the earrings of his praye (for they had golden earrings because they were Ismaelites)

25 And they answered, We wil giue them. And they spred a garmēt, & did cast therein euerie man the earrings of his praye.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he required, was a thousand and seuen hundredeth shekels of golde, beside collers, and iewels, and purple raiment that was on the Kings of Midián, and beside the cheynes, that were about their camels neckes.

27 And Gideón made an ^o Ephód thereof, and put it in Ophrah his citie: & all Israél wēt a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideón and his house.

28 Thus was Midián brought lowe before ^y childre of Israél, so that they lift vp their heads nomore: and the countrey was in quietnes forty yeres in the dayes of Gideón.

29 ¶ Thé Ierubbáal the sonne of Ioásh wēt, and dwelt in his owne house.

^{or, which came out of his thigh.}

30 And Gideón had seuentie sonnes ⁿ begottē of his body: for he had manie wiues.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechém, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimélech.

32 So Gideón the sonne of Ioásh dyed in a good age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Ioásh his father in Ophrah, of the ^p father of the Ezrites.

^p Which citie belonged to the familie of the Ezrites.

33 But when Gideón was dead, the children of Israél turned away and wēt a whoring after Baalím, and made ^q Baal-berith their god.

^q That is Baalim, to whom they had bounde them selues by covenant.

34 And the children of Israél remembred not the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the hands of all their enemies on euerie side.

35 Nether ^r shewed they mercie on the house of Ierubbáal, or Gideón, according to all the goodnes which he had shewed vnto Israél.

^r They were vniuersal of God, and vniuersal to ward him, by whom they had receiued so great a benefit.

CHAP. IX.

¹ Abimélech usurpeth the kingdom, and putteth his brethren to death ⁷ Iothám propoſeth a parable.

²³ Hatred betwene Abimélech & the Shechemites.

²⁶ Gaál conspireth against him, and is overcome.

⁵³ Abimélech is wounded to death by a woman.

1 THEN Abimélech the sonne of Ierubbáal went to Shechém vnto his ^a mothers brethren, and cōmuned with them, and with all the familie, and house of his mothers father, saying,

^a To praſe with his kind-folkes for the attaining of ^y kingdom.

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechém, whether is better for you, that all ^y sonnes of Ierubbáal, which are seuentie persones, reigne ouer you, ether that one reigne ouer you? Remember also, that I am your ^b bone, and your flesh.

^b Of your kindred by my mothers side.

3 Then his mothers brethren spake of him in the audiēce of all the men of Shechém, all these wordes: and their heartes were moued to followe Abimélech. for said they, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him seuentie pieces of siluer out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimélech hired ^c vaine and light fellowes which followed him.

^c Or, idle fellows and vacabonds.

5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and ^c slewe his brethren, the sonnes of Ierubbáal, about seuentie persones vpon one stone: yet Iothám the yongest sonne of Ierubbáal was left: for he hid him selfe.

^c Thus tyrſes to establish their vniuersal power spare not the innocent blood, 1. King 10, 7. 2. chro 21, 4.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechém gathered together with all the house of ^d Milló, and came and made Abimélech King in the plaine, where the stone was erected in Shechém.

^d Which was as the towne house or comē hall, which he calleth the towne of Shechém vers 494

7 And when they tolde it to Iothám, he went and stode in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift vp his voyce, and cryed, and said vnto them, Harken vnto me, you men of Shechém, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 ^e The trees wēt forth to anointe a King ouer them, and said vnto the oliue tre, Reigne thou ouer vs.

^e By this parable he declareth, that those that are not ambitious, are most worthy of honour, and that the ambitious abuse their honour bothe to their owne destruction and others.

9 But the oliue tre said vnto them, Shulde I leaue my fatnes, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to auance me about the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tre, Come thou, and be King ouer vs.

11 But the fig tre answered them, Shulde I forsake my swetenes, and my good frute, and go to auance me about the trees?

12 Then

- 12 Then said the trees vnto the vine, Come thou & be King ouer vs.
- 13 But the vine said vnto them, Shulde I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare God and man, and go to auance me about the trees?
- 14 The said all the trees vnto the bramble, Come thou and reigne ouer vs.
- 15 And the bramble said vnto the trees, If ye wil in dede anoint me King ouer you, come, & put your trust vnder my shadow: and if not, the fire shal come out of the bramble, and consume the cedres of Lebanon.
- 16 Now therefore, if ye do truely and vncorruptly to make Abimélech King, & if ye haue dealt wel with Ierubbáal & with his house, & haue done vnto him according to the deseruing of his hands,
- 17 (For my father fought for you, and aduentured his life, & deliuered you out of the hands of Midíán.
- 18 And ye are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slayne his children, about seuentie persones vpon one stone, & haue made Abimélech the sonne of his maideferuant, King ouer the men of Shechém, because he is your brother)
- 19 If ye then haue delt truely and purely with Ierubbáal, and with his house this day, then & reioyce ye with Abimélech, and let him reioyce with you.
- 20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimélech, and consume the men of Shechém and the house of Milló: also let a fire come for the fró the men of Shechém, & from the house of Milló, and consume Abimélech.
- 21 And Iothám ranne away, and fled, & wēt to Beér and dwelt there for feare of Abimélech his brother.
- 22 So Abimélech reigned thre yere ouer Israél.
- 23 But God ^h sent an euil spirit betwene Abimélech, and the men of Shechém: and the mé of Shechém brake their promes to Abimélech,
- 24 That the cruelrie towards the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbáal & their blood might come and be laide vpon Abimélech their brother, which had slayne them, and vpon y men of Shechém, which had aided him to kil his biethren.
- 25 So y men of Shechém set men in waite for him in the tops of the mountaines: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was tolde Abimélech.
- 26 Then Gáal the sonne of Ebéd came with his brethien, and they went to Shechém: and the men of Shechém put their confidence in him.
- 27 Therefore they ⁱ went out into the field, & gathered in their grapes & troade them, and made mery, and went into the house of their gods, and did eat & drinke, and cursed Abimélech.
- 28 The Gáal the sonne of Ebéd said, Who is Abimélech? and who is Shechém, that we shulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubbáal? & Zebúl is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamór the father of Shechém: for why shulde we serue him?
- 29 Now wolde God this people were vnder mine hád: then wolde I put away Abimélech. And he said to ^k Abimélech, Increase thine armie, and come out.
- 30 ¶ And when Zebúl the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gáal the sonne of Ebéd, his wrath was kindled.
- 31 Therefore he sent messengers vnto Abimélech ^{pruely}, saying, Beholde, Gáal the sonne of Ebéd and his brethren be come to Shechém, and beholde, they fortifie the citie against thee.
- 32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and y people that is with thee, & lie in wayte in the field.
- 33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and assalt the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, shal come out against thee, do to him what thou canst.
- 34 ¶ So Abimélech rose vp, & all the people that were with him by night: and they laie in waite against Shechém in foure bandes.
- 35 Then Gáal the sonne of Ebéd went out and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimélech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, fró lying in waite.
- 36 And when Gáal sawe the people, he said to Zebúl, Beholde, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebúl said vnto him, The ^l shadowe of the mountaines seme men vnto thee.
- 37 And Gáal spake againe, & said, Se, there come folke downe ^{by the middle of the land}, & an other band cometh by the way of the plaine of ^{Meonením}.
- 38 Then said Zebúl vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that said, Who is Abimélech, that we shulde serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them.
- 39 And Gáal ^m went out before the men of Shechém, and fought with Abimélech.
- 40 But Abimélech pursued him, & he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.
- 41 And Abimélech dwelt at Arumáh: and Zebúl thrust out Gáal and his brethren that they shulde not dwel in Shechém.
- 42 ¶ And on the morowe, the people went out into the field: which was tolde Abimélech.
- 43 And he toke the ⁿ people, and deuided them into thre bandes, and laid waite in the fields, and looked, & beholde, the people were come out of the citie, & he rose vp against them, and smote them.

- 44 And Abimélech, and the bandes that were with him, rushed forward, & stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and two other bandes ranne vpon all the people that were in the field and slewe them.
- 45 And whē Abimélech had fought against the citie all that day, he toke the citie, and slewe the people that was therein, & destroyed the citie and sowed salt in it.

^a That it should be vnsuccesful and neuer serue to any vñe.

^p That is, of Baal-berith, as Chap. 34.

- 46 ¶ And when all the men of the towre of Shechem heard it, they entred into an holde of the house of the god Berith.
- 47 And it was tolde Abimélech, that all the men of the towre of Shechem were gathered together.

- 48 And Abimélech gate him vp to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him: and Abimélech toke axes with him and cut downe boughes of trees and toke them, and bare them on his shulder, and said vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue sene me do, make haste, and do like me.

- 49 Thē all the people also cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimélech, & put them to the holde, and set the holde on fire wth them: so all the men of the towre of Shechem dyed also, about a thousand men and women.

^q Meaning that all were destroyed, as well they in the towre as the other.

- 50 ¶ Then went Abimélech to Tebēz, and besieged Tebēz, and toke it.

- 51 But there was a strong towre within the citie, and therher fled all the men and women, and all the chief of the citie, and shut it to them, and went vp to the top of the towre.

- 52 And Abimélech came vnto the towre & fought against it, and went hard vnto the dore of the towre to set it on fire.

^s Sam. 17, 21.

- 53 But a certaine woman cast a piece of a millstone vpon Abimelechs head, & brake his braine pan.

- 54 Thē Abimélech called hastily his page that bare his harnes, and said vnto him, Drawe thy sworde & slay me, that me say not of me, A woman slewe him. And his page thrust him through, and he dyed.

^r Thus God by such miserable death taketh vengeance on tyrants euen in this life.

- 55 And when the men of Israël sawe that Abimélech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne place.

- 56 Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimélech, which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seuenth brethren.

- 57 Also all the wickednes of the mē of Shechem did God bring vpon their heades. So vpon thē came the curse of Iotham the sonne of Itrubbaal.

^t For making a tyrant their king.

CHAP. X.

^a Tolá dyeth. ^s Iair also dyeth. ¹⁷ The Israelites are punished for their sinnes: ¹⁰ They crye vnto God, ¹⁶ And he heareth prayer on them.

After Abimélech there arose to defend Israël, Tolá, the sonne of Puah, the sonne of Dodó, a man of Issachar which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

^{or, his father.}

- 1 And he iudged Israël thre and twentie yere and dyed, & was buried in Shamir.

^{Or, gouerned.}

- 2 ¶ And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, & iudged Israël two and twentie yere.

- 3 And he had thirtie sonnes that rode on thirty assecoltes, & they had thirty cities, which are called Hauoth-Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.

^a Signifying, they were men of autoritie.

^{or, the towne of Iair, as Deu. 34.}

- 4 And Iair dyed, & was buried in Kamon.

- 5 ¶ And the childre of Israël wrought wickednes againe in the sight of the Lord, & serued Baalim and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Aram, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistims, and forsoke the Lord and serued not him.

^{Chap. 2, 21. & 3, 7. & 4, 1. & 6, 1. & 13, 10. Chap. 2, 17. Or, 5, 11.}

- 6 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israël, and he solde them into the hands of the Philistims, and into the hands of the children of Ammon:

^{Or, deliuered.}

- 7 Who from that yere vexed and oppressed the children of Israël eightene yeres, euen all the children of Israël that were beyonde Iordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

^b As the Reubenites, Gadites, & half the tribe of Manassah.

- 8 Moreover the children of Ammon went ouer Iordan to fight against Iudah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so Israël was sore tormented.

- 9 Then the children of Israël cryed vnto the Lord, saying, We haue sinned against thee, euen because we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim.

^c They prayed to the Lord & confessed their sinnes.

- 10 And the Lord said vnto the children of Israël, did not I deliuer you from the Egyptians & from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon & from the Philistims?

^d By raising them vp some Prophet, as Chap. 6, 8.

- 11 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maobites did oppresse you, & ye cryed to me and I saued you out of their hands.

- 12 Yet ye haue forsaken me, and serued other gods: wherefore I wil deliuer you nomore.

^{Deut. 32, 15. 107777-2, 13.}

- 13 Go, and crye vnto the gods which ye haue chosen. let them saue you in the time of your tribulacion.

- 14 And the children of Israël said vnto the Lord, We haue sinned: do thou vnto vs whatsoeuer please thee: onely we pray thee to deliuer vs this day.

^e That is, from this present danger.

- 15 Then they put away strange gods from among them & serued the Lord. & his soule was grieved for the miserie of Israël.

^f This is true repentance to put away the euil, & to serue God aright.

- 16 Then the childre of Ammon gathered themselves together, & pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israël assembled themselves, felues, and pitched in Mizpéh.

18 And the people and princes of Gileád said one to an other, Whosoever wil begin the bartel against the childré of Ammón, the same shal be * head ouer all the inhabitants of Gileád.

Chap. 12, 6.

CHAP. XI.

2 Iphtáh being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Israël. 30 He maketh a rashe vowe. 32 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 And sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

^a Ebr. a man of mightie force. ^b Or, a valiant.

1 Then Gileád begate Iphtáh, & Iphtáh the Gileadite was ^a a valiant man, but the sonne of an ^b harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him sonnes, and when ^c y womás childré were come to age, they thrust out Iphtáh, and said vnto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our fathers house: for thou art ^d y sonne of a ^e strange womá.

^a That is, of an harlot, as ver. 1.

3 Then Iphtáh fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of ^b Tob: and there gathered ydle fellowes to Iphtáh, and ^c went out with him.

^b Where the gouernour of the countrey was called Tob.

4 ¶ And in proceffe of time the children of Ammón made warre with Israël.

^c Ioynd with him, as some thinke, against his brethren.

5 And whē the children of Ammón fought with Israël, ^d the Elders of Gileád went to fet Iphtáh out of the land of Tob.

^d Or, ambassadors, sent for that purpose.

6 And they said vnto Iphtáh, ^e Come and be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammón.

^e Men oft times are constrained to desire helpe of them, whome before they haue refused. ^f Oft tymes those things, w^{ch} we resist, God chooseth to do great enterprises by.

7 Iphtáh then answered the Elders of Gileád, Did not ye hate me, and ^f expel me out of my fathers house: how then come you vnto me now in time of your tribulation?

8 Then the Elders of Gileád said vnto Iphtáh, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou maiest go with vs, & fight against the children of Ammón, & be our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gileád.

9 And Iphtáh said vnto the Elders of Gileád, If ye bring me home againe to fight against ^g y children of Ammón, if the Lord giue them before me, shal I be your head?

10 And ^h y Elders of Gileád said to Iphtáh, The Lord ⁱ be witnes betwene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

^h Ebr. be the hearer.

11 Then Iphtáh went with the Elders of Gileád, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtáh rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpéh.

12 ¶ Then Iphtáh sent messengers vnto the King of the children of Ammón, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the King of the children of Ammón answered vnto the messengers of Iphtáh, * Because Israël toke my lād, whē they came vp frō Egypt, from Arnón vnto Iabbók, and vnto Iordén: now therefore restore those ^j lands, quietly.

^j Numb. 21, 13.

^k Ebr. in peace.

14 Yet Iphtáh sent messengers againe vnto the King of the children of Ammón, 15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iphtáh, * Israël toke not the land of Moáb, nor the land of the children of Ammón.

16 But when Israël came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernes vnto the red Sea, then they came to Kadésh.

17 * And Israël sent messengers vnto the King of Edóm, saying, Let me, I pray thee, go through thy lād: but the King of Edóm wold not consent: and also they sent vnto the King of Moáb, but he wolde not: therefore Israël abode in Kadésh.

18 Then they went through the wildernes, and compassed the land of Edóm, and the land of Moáb, and came by the Eastside of ^k y lād Moáb, and pitched on the other side of Arnón, * and came not within ^l y coast of Moáb: for Arnón was ^m y border of Moáb.

19 Also Israël sent messengers vnto Sihón, King of the Amorites, the King of Heshbón, & Israël said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, by thy lād vnto our place.

20 But Sihón ⁿ consented not to Israël, that he shulde go through his coast: but Sihón gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iaház, and fought with Israël.

21 And the Lord God of Israël gaue Sihón and all his folke into the hands of Israël, and they smote thé: so Israël possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey.

22 And they possessed * all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnón vnto Iabbók, and from the wildernes euen vnto Iordén.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israël hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israël, & shuldest thou possesse it?

24 Woldest not thou possesse that which Chemósh thy god gueth thee to possesse?

So whomesoeuer the Lord our God drieth out before vs, them wil we possesse.

25 * And art thou now farre better then Balaák the sonne of Zippor King of Moáb: did he not strue with Israël and fight against them,

26 When Israël dwelt in Heshbón and in her townes, and in Aroér & in her townes, and in all the cities that are by the coasts of Arnón, thre hundredth yeres: why did ye not then recouer ^o them in that space?

27 Wherefore, I haue not offended thee: but thou doest me wrōg to warre against me.

The Lord the Iudge ^p be iudge this day betwene the children of Israël, and the children of Ammón.

28 Howebeit the King of the children of Ammón hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iphtáh, which he had sent him.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Iphtáh, & he passed ouer to Gileád and to Manasséh, and came to Mizpéh in.

^h For we ought more to beleue and obey God, the living, than idols. ⁱ Numb. 22, 2. ^j deut. 23, 4. ^k 1st 24, 9.

30 And Iphtáh ^m vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammón in to mine hands,

Thé that thing that commeth out of the dores of mine house to mete me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammón, shal be the Lords, and I wil offer it for a burnt offering.

And so Iphtáh went vnto the children of Ammón to fight against them, and the Lord deliuered them into his hands.

And he smote them from Aroér euē tilly come to Minnith, twentie cities, and so forth to Abél of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter. Thus the childré of Ammón were humbled before the children of Israël.

Now whē Iphtáh came to Mizpéh vnto his house, beholde, his daughter came out to mete him with timbrels and dances, which was his onely childe: he had none other sonne, nor daughter.

And she said vnto him, My father, if thou haste opened thy mouthe vnto the Lord, do with me as thou hast promised, seeing that the Lord hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammón.

Also she said vnto her father, Do thus muche for me: suffice me two monethes, that I may go to the mountaines, and bewaile my virginittie, I and my fellowes.

^p For it was to be married.

And he said, Go: and he sent her away two monethes: so she went with her companions, and lamented her virginittie vnto the mountaines.

And after the end of two monethes, she turned againe vnto her father, who did with her according to his vowe which he had vowed, and she had knowen no man, and it was a custome in Israël.

The daughters of Israël went yere by yere to lament the daughter of Iphtáh the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yere.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manóah, & the Angel of God came againe vnto the wife, as the ſate in the field, but Manóah her houſband was not with her.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Samſón deſireth to haue a wife of the Philiftims. 6 He killeth a lyon. 12 He propoundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirtie. 20 His wife forſaketh him and taketh another.

1 NOW Samſón went downe to Timnath, and ſawe a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philiftims,

2 And he came vp and tolde his father and his mother, and ſaid, I haue ſene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philiftims: now therefore giue me her to wife. ⁿ Or, take her for me to wife.

3 The his father and his mother ſaid vnto him, Is there ^o neuer a wife among ^o ſ daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou muſt go to take a wife of the vncircūciſed Philiftims? And Samſón ſaid vnto his father, Giue me her, for ſhe pleaſeth me wel.

ther tolde he his father nor his mother what he had done.

7 And he went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samſón.

Or, to take her to his wife.

8 ¶ And within a fewe dayes, whē he returned to receiue her, he went aside to se the carkeis of the lyon: and beholde, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the body of the lyon.

9 And he toke thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eat: but he tolde not them, that he had taken the hony out of the bodie of y^e lyon.

*a Meaning, when he was married.
c That is, her parents or friends.*

10 So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samſón made there a d^d feast: for so vsed the yong men to do.

11 And when e^e they sawe him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

12 Then Samſón said vnto them, I wil now put forthe a riddle vnto you: & if you can declare it me within seven dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I wil giue you thirtie shetes, and thirtie f^f change of garmets.

f To weare at feastes, or some dayes.

13 But if you cannot declare it me, then shal ye giue me thirtie shetes and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forthe thy riddle, that we may heare it.

14 And he said vnto them, Out of the eatter came meat, and out of the strong came sweetenes: & they colde not in thre dayes expounde the riddle.

Or, drewe heretofore it was y^e fourth day

15 And when the seuenth day was e come, they said vnto Samſons wife, Entise thyne housband, that he may declare vs the riddle, lest we burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. Haue ye called vs, to possesse vs? is it not so?

Or, is impou-riste vs.

16 And Samſons wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me and louest me not: for thou hast put forthe a riddle vnto the h^h children of my people, and hast not tolde it me. And he said vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father, nor my mother, and shal I tel it thee?

h Vnto them, which are of my nation.

17 Then Samſons wife wept before him a feuen dayes, while their feast lasted: and when the seuenth day came, he tolde her, because she was importunate vpon him: so she tolde the riddle to the children of her people.

Or, to the seuenth day, beginning at the fourth.

18 And the men of the citie said vnto him the seuenth day before the sonne went downe, What is sweeter, then honie? and what is stronger then a lyon? Then said he vnto them, k If ye had not plowed w^w my heiffer, ye had not founde out my riddle.

k If ye had not vied the helpe of my wife.

19 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe l to Ashkelon, and slewe thirtie men of them & spoiled the, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: & his wrath.

CHAP. XV.

4 Samſon tieth firebrādes to the foxe tails. 6 The Philistims burne his father in lawe & his wife. 15 With the iame bone of an asse he killeth a thousand men. 19 Out of a great tothe, in the iawe God gaue him water.

1 B^BUt within a while after, in the time of wheat haruest, Salsón visited his wife with a kid, saying, I wil a go into my wife into the chāber: but her father wolde not suffre him to go in.

a That is, wil vse her as my wife.

2 And her father said, I thought that thou haddest hated her: therefore gaue I her to thy companion. Is not her yonger sister fairer then she? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other.

3 The Samſón said vnto them, Now am I more b blameles the the Philistims: therefore wil I do them displeasure.

b For through his fathers in laws occasion, he was moued againe to take vengeance of y^e Philistims.

4 ¶ And Samſón went out, & toke thre hundred foxes, and toke firebrands, & turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in the middes betwene two raiies.

5 And when he had set the brandes on fier, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistims, and burnt vp bothe the c^c riekes & the standing corne with the vineyardes & oliues.

c Or, that was reaped & gathered.

6 Then the Philistims said, Who hathe done this? And they answered, Samſón the sonne in lawe of the d^d Timnite, because he had taken his wife, & giuen her to his companion. Then the Philistims came vp and e burnt her and her father with fire.

d Or, y^e citize of Timnath.

7 And Samſón said vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet wil I be auenged of you, and then I wil cease.

*e So y^e wicked punish not vice for loue of iustice, but for feare of danger, w^h els might come to them.
Or, bofeme & fectmes.*

8 So he smote them h^hippe and thigh with a mighty plague: then he went and dwelt in the toppe of the rocke Etám.

9 ¶ Then y^e Philistims came vp, & pitched in Iudáh, & were spred abroad in Lēhi.

Or, camped.

10 And the men of Iudáh said, Why are ye come vp vnto vs? And they answered, To f binde Samſón are we come vp, and to do to him as he hathe done to vs.

f And so being our prisoner, to punish him.

11 Then thre thousand men of Iudáh wēt to the toppe of the rocke Etám, and said to Salsón, Knowest thou not that y^e Philistims are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then hast y^e done thus vnto vs? And he answered the, As they did vnto me, so haue I done vnto the.

g Suche was their grosse ignorance, that they iudged Gods great benefite to be a plague vnto them.

12 Againe they said vnto hī, We are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hand of the Philistims. And Samſón said vnto them, Swear vnto me, that ye wil not fall vpon me your selues.

h Thus they had rather betray their brother, then vse y^e means that God had giue for their deliuerance.

13 And they answered him, saying, No, but we wil binde thee and h^h deliuer thee vnto their hand, but we wil not kil thee.

And they bound him with two newe cordes, and broght him from the rocke.

14 When he came to Léhi, the Philistims shouted againt him, and the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire: for the bandes losed from his hands.

i That is, of an asse lately slayne.

15 And he found a newe iawebone of an asse, and put forth his hand, and caught it, and slewe a thousand men therewith.

16 Then Samson said, With the iawe of an asse are heapes vpon heapes: wth the iawe of an asse haue I slayne a thousand men.

17 And when he had left speaking, he cast away the iawebone out of his hand, & called that place, Ramath-Léhi.

19 Then God brake the cheeke to the, that was in the iawe, and water came thereout: and when he had dronke, his Spirit came againe, and he was reuiued: wherefore the name thereof is called, En-hakkoré, w^{ch} is in Léhi vnto this day.

1 Then went Samson to Azzah, & sawe there an harlot, & went in vnto her.

Or, visitier.

2 And it was tolde to the Azzathites, Samson is come hether. And they went about, & layed wait for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the night, b That is, he lodged wth her.

saying, Abide til the morning earely, and we shal kil him.

3 And Samson slept til midnight, & arose at midnight, and toke the dores of the gates of the citie, and the two postes and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his sholders, and caried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before Hebrón.

Or, plasur.

4 ¶ And after this he loued a woman by y^e riuier of Sorék, whose name was Delilah:

5 Vnto whome came the princes of y Philistims, and said vnto her, Entise him, and se wherein his great strength lieth, and by what meane we may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and punishe him, and euerie one of vs shal giue thee eleuen hundred shekels of siluer.

c Of y value of a shekel read Gen. 23, 15

6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tel me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bounde, to do the hurt.

7 Samson then answered vnto her, If they binde me with seuen greene cordes that were neuer dryed, thē shal I be weake, and be as an other man.

8 And the princes of y Philistims broght her seuē greene cordes that were not drye, and she bound him therewith.

d Certaine Philistims in a secret chamber.

9 (And she had d men lying in wayte wth her in y chāber) Then she said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he brake the cordes, as a thread of towē is broken, when it feleth fire: so his strength was not known.

e Whē fire cometh nere it.

10 ¶ After Delilah said vnto Samson, Se, y^e hast mocked me and tolde me lies. I pray thee now, tel me wherewith y^e mightest be bound.

f Though her falsehood tended to make him, lose his life, yet his affection so blinded him y he coulde not be ware.

11 Then he answered her, If they binde me with newe ropes y^e neuer were occupied, then shal I be weake, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore toke newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson: (& men lay in wait in the chāber) & he brake them from his armes, as a thread.

13 ¶ Afterward Delilah said to Samson, Hether to thou hast beguiled me, and tolde me lies: tel me how thou mightest be bound. s And he said vnto her, If thou plattest seuē lockes of mine head with the thredes of the woufe.

g It is impossible, if we giue place to our wicked affections, but at length we shal be destroyed.

14 And she fastened it with a pinne, & said vnto him, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his slepe, and went away with the pinne of y webbe and the woufe.

h For this Samson vsed to saye, I loue thee.

15 Againe she said vnto him, How canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these thre times, and hast not tolde me where in thy great strength lieth.

16 And because she was importunate vpon him with her wordes continually, and vexed him, his soule was peined vnto y death.

i Thus his immoderate affections towards a wicked woman caused him to lose Gods excellent gifts, & become slauē vnto thē, whome he shulde haue ruled.

17 Therefore he tolde her all his heart, & said vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God frō my mothers wombe: therefore if I be shauen, my strength wil go from me, & I shal be weake, & be like all other men.

18 And whē Delilah sawe that he had tolde her all his heart, she sent, & called for the Princes of y Philistims, saying, Come vp once againe: for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philistims came vp vnto her, and broght the money in their hands.

k Not for the losse of his heere, but for y contempt of y ordinance of God, w^{ch} was y cause y God departed from him.

19 And she made him slepe vpon her knees, & she called a man, & made him to shauē of y seuē lockes of his head, & she begā to vexē hī, & his strength was gone frō hī.

20 Then she said, The Philistims be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his slepe, and thought, I wil go out now as at other times, & shake my selfe, but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philistims toke him, and put out his eyes, and broght him downe to Azzáh, and bound him with fetters: and he did grunde in the prison house.

l Yet had he not his strength againe, til he had called vpon God, and reconciled his selfe.

22 And the heere of his head begā to growe againe after that it was shauen.

23 Then the princes of the Philistims gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice vnto Dagón their god, and to reioyce: for they said, Our god hath deliuered Samsón our enemy into our hāds.

24 Also when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath deliuered into our hands our enemy and destroyer of our countrey, which hath slaine manie of vs.

25 And when their heartes were mery, they said, Call Samsón, that he may make vs pastime. So they called Samsón out of the prison house, and he was a laughing stocke vnto them, and they set him betwene the pillers.

m Thus by Gods iust iudgements they are made liames to infidels, which neglect their vocacion in defying the faithfull.

26 Then Samsón said vnto the seruant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touche the pillers that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 (Now the house was ful of men & women, and there were all the princes of the Philistims: also vpon the rooffe were about thre thousand men & women that behelde while Samsón played)

28 He was murthered

28 Then Samsón called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me: O God, I beseeche thee, strengthen me at this time onely, that I may be at once auenged of the Philistims for my two eyes.

29 He speaketh not this of despair, but humbling his selfe for neglecting his office & offence thereby given.

29 And Samsón layed holde on the two middle pillers whereupō the house stode, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

30 Then said Samsón, Let me lose my life with the Philistims: and he bowed him wth all his might, and the house fel vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein. so the dead which he slue at his death were mo then they which he had slayne in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came downe and toke him, and broght him vp & buried him betwene Zoráh and Eshtaól, in the sepulchre of Manóah his father: now he had iudged Israël twentie yeres.

CHAP. XVII.

2 Michahs mother according to her vowe made her sonne two idoles. 5 He made his sonne a Priest for his idoles. 10 And after he hired a Leuite.

1 There was a man of mount Ephráim, whose name was Michah,
2 And he said vnto his mother, The eleuen hundred shekels of siluer that were taken from thee, for the which thou cursedst, & spakedst it, euē in mine hearing, behold, the siluer is with me, I toke it. Then his mother said, Blessed be my sonne of the Lord.

a Some thinke this historie was in y^e time of Othniel, or as Iosephus writeth, immediately after Ioshua.

3 And when he had restored the eleuen hundred shekels of siluer to his mother, his mother said, I had dedicate y^e siluer to y^e Lord of mine hand for my sonne, to make a grauen and molten image. Now therefore I wil giue it thee againe.

b Contrary to the commendement of God and true religion praescribed vnder Ioshua, they forsoke y^e Lord and fel to idolatrie.

4 And whē he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundred shekels of siluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a graue and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah.

5 And this man Michah had an house of gods, & made an Ephód, & Teraphim, and consecrated one of his sonnes, who was his Priest.

8 And the man departed out of the citie, out of Bethléhem Iudah, to dwel where he colde finde a place: and as he iourneied, he came to mount Ephráim to the house of Michah.

9 And Michah said vnto him, Whence comest thou? And the Leuite answered him, I come from Bethléhem Iudah, and go to dwel where I may finde a place.

f For in those daies y^e seruice of God was corrupt in all estates and the Leuites were not looked vnto.

10 Then Michah said vnto him, Dwel wth me, and be vnto me a father and a Priest, and I wil giue thee ten shekels of siluer by yere, and a sute of apparel, & thy meat and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was content to dwel wth the man, and the yong man was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie, fise men out of their coasts, euen men expert in warre, out of Zoráh & Eshtaól, to vewe the land and sear- che it out, and said vnto them, b Go, and sear- che out the land. Then thei came to mount Ephraím to the house of Micháh and lodged there.

3 When thei werē in the house of Micháh, thei knewe the c voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and being tuined in thether, thei said vnto him, Who broght thee he- ther? or what makest thou in this place? & what hast thou to do here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micháh with me, and hathe hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 Againe thei said vnto him, Aske counfel now of god, that we may knowe whether the way which we go, shal be prosperous.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, d Go in peace: for y Lord guideth your way which ye go.

7 Then the fise men departed and came to Laísh, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt careles, after the man- ner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, be- cause no man made any trouble in the land, or vsurped any dominion: also they were far from the Zidonians, and had no buşines with other men.

8 ¶ So thei came againe vnto their brethré to Zoráh and Eshtaól: and their brethren said vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And thei answered, Arise, that we may go vp against them: for we haue sene the land, and surely it is very good, and e do ye sit still be not slouthful to go and enter to possesse the land.

10 (If ye wil go, ye shal come vnto a care- les people, and the countrey is large) for God hathe giuen it into your hand. It is a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the woulde.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the fa- milie of the Danites, from Zoráh and from Eshtaól, six hūdreth men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And thei went vp, & pitched in Kiriáth iearím in Iudáh: wherefore they called that place, Mahanch-Dan vnto this day: and it is behinde Kiriáth iea: im.

13 And thei went thence vnto mount Ephraím, and came to the house of Mi- cháh.

14 Then answered the fise men, that wēt to spie out the countrey of Laísh, and said vnto their brethren, f Knowe ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephód, & Teraphím, and a grauen and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye haue to do.

15 And thei turned thetherwarde and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Micháh, and salu- ted him peaceably.

16 And the six hundreth men appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stode by the en- tring of the gate.

17 Then the fise men that went to spie out the land, went in thether, and toke the g grauen image and the Ephód, and the Teraphím, and the molten image: and the Priest stode in the entring of the gate with the six hundieth men, that were ap- pointed with weapons of waire,

18 And the other went into Michahs house and fet the grauen image, the Ephód, and the Teraphím, and the molten image. Then said the Priest vnto them, What do ye?

19 And thei answered him, Holde thy pea- ce: laye thine hand vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto the house of one man, or that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israël?

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and he toke the Ephód and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the h people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children and the cattel, and the substā- ce i before them.

22 ¶ When thei were farre of frō the hou- se of Micháh, the men that were in the houses nere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cryed vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said vnto Mi- cháh, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcrye?

24 And he said, Ye haue taken away my k gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your waies: & what haue I more? how then say ye vnto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard amōg vs, lest l angry fellowes runne vpon thee, & thou lose thy life with the liues of thine hous- holde.

26 So the children of Dan went their waies: and when Micháh sawe that they were to strong for him, he turned, & went backe vnto his house.

27 And thei toke the i things which Mi- cháh had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Laísh, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, and smote the with the edge of the sworde, & burnt

^{Ebr. before him: to wit, with others.} 3 And her husband arose and went after her, to speake friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe: he had also his seruant with him, and a couple of asses: and he broght him vnto her fathers house, and when the yong womans father sawe him, he reioyced of his comming.

^{Ebr. to her heart.} 4 And his father in lawe, the yong womans father retained him: and he abode with him thre daies: so they did eat & drinke, and lodged there.

^{Or, as his men.} 5 ¶ And when the fourth day came, thei arose early in the morning, & he prepared to departe: then the yong womans father said vnto his sonne in lawe, * Comforte thine heart with a morfel of bread, and then go your way.

^{Or, rose vp.} 6 So they sate downe, & did eat and drinke bothe of them together. And the yong womans father said vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tary all night, & let thine heart be mery.

^{Or, strengthen.} 7 And when the mā rose vp to departe, his father in lawe was earnest: therefore he returned, and lodged there.

^{Or, compelled him.} 8 And he arose vp early the fiftē day to departe, & the yong womans father said, * Comforte thine heart, I pray thee: and they taryed vntil after midday, and they bothe did eat.

9 Afterwarde when the man arose to departe with his concubine and his seruant, his father in lawe, the yong womans father said vnto him, Beholde now, the day draweth toward euen: I pray you, tary all night: beholde the sunne goeth to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be mery, & to morowe get you early vpon your way, and go to thy tent.

^{Ebr. as weake.} ^{Or, the day lodgeth.} 10 But the man wolde not tary, but arose and departed, & came ouer against Iebús, (which is Ierusalém) and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him.

^c To wit, to the towne or citie where he dwelt. 11 When thei were nere to Iebús, the day was fore spent, and the seruant said vnto his master, Come, I pray thee, & let vs turne into this citie of the Iebusites, & lodge all night the: e.

^{Or, with downe.} 12 And his master answered him, * We wil not turne into the citie of strangers that are not of the children of Israël, but we wil go forth to Gibeah.

^d Though in these daies, there were most horrible corrupcions, yet very necessitie coulde not compell the to haue to do with them that professed not the true God. 13 And he said vnto his seruant, Come, and let vs drawe nere to one of these places, that we may lodge in Gibeah or in Ramáh.

14 So they went forward vpon their way, and the sunne went downe vpon them nere to Gibeah, which is in Beniamin.

^{Or, gathered them.} 15 ¶ Then thei turned thether to go in and lodge in Gibeah: and when he came, he sate him downe in a strete of the citie: for there was no man that toke them into his house to lodging.

16 And beholde, there came an olde man from his worke out of the field at euen, and the man was of mount Ephráim, but dwelt in Gibeah: and the men of the place were the children of * Iemini.

^e That is, of the tribe of Beniamin. 17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, he sawe a wayfaring mā in the stretes of the citie: then this olde man said, Whether goest thou, and whence camest thou?

^{Or, a man walking.} 18 And he answered him, We came from Beth-léhem Iudah, vnto the side of mount Ephráim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-léhem Iudah, and go now to the house of the Lord: and no man receiueth me to house,

¹ The Israelites assemble in Mizpéh, to whome the Leuite declareth his wrong ~ 13 They sent for them that did the vilence. 25 The Israelites are wisely overcome, 46 And at length get the victorie

¹ Then * all the childrē of Israël wēt out and the Congregation was gathered together as ^a one man, from Dan to Bēr sheba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the ^b Lord in Mizpéh.

2 And the ^c chief of all the people and all the tribes of Israël assembled in the Con- gregation of the people of God foure hū- dreth thousand foremen y ^c diewe sword. (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the childrē of Israël were gone vp to Mizpéh) Then the children of Israël ^d said, How is this wickednes committed?

4 And the same Leuite, the womans hous- band that was slaine, answered and said, I came vnto Gibeah that is in Benjamin with my concubine to lodge,

5 And the ^{mē} of Gibeah arose against me, ^{Or, chief, or} and beset the house round about vpon me by night, thinking to haue slaine me, and haue forced my cōcubine that she is dead.

6 Then I toke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent ^e her through out all the countrey of the inheritance of Israël: for they haue committed abominacion and vilenie in Israël.

7 Beholde, ye are all children of Israël: gi- ue your aduise, and counsel herein.

8 The all y people arose as one mā, saying, There shal not a man of vs go to his tent, nether anie turne into his ^f house.

9 But now this is that thing which we wil do to Gibeah: ^{we wil go vp} by lot against it,

10 And we wil take ten men of the hūdreth throughout all the tribes of Israël, and an hūndreth of the thousand, and a thou- sand of ten thousand to bring ^g a vitaille for the people that they may do (when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin) accord- ing to all the vilenie, that it hath done in Israël.

11 So all the men of Israël were gathered against the citie, knit together, as one mā.

12 And the tribes of Israël sent mē through all the ^h tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickednes is this y is cōmitted amōg you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away euil from Israël: but the children of Benjamin wolde not obey the voyce of their bre- thren the children of Israël.

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered them selues together out of the cities vnto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israël.

15 And the children of Benjamin were nombred at that time out of the cities six and twentie thousand men that diewe sworde, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were nombred seuen hundreth cho- sen men.

16 Of all this people were seuen hundreth chosen men, being * left handed: all the- se colde sling stones at an heere breadth, and not faile.

17 And also y men of Israël, beside Bēiāmin, were nōbred foure hundreth thousand mē that drewe sworde, euen all men of waie.

18 And the children of Israël arose, & wēt vp ^h to the house of God, & asked of God, sayig, Which of vs shal go vp first to fight against the children of Benjamin? And the Lord said, Judāh shal be first.

19 Then the childrē of Israël arose vp ear- ly and camped against Gibeah.

10 And the men of Israél went out to battel against Beniamín, and the men of Israél put the selues in array to fight against them beside Gibeáh.

21 And the children of Beniamín came out of Gibeáh, & slewe downe to the grounde of the Israelites that day ¹ two and twentie thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israél plucked vp their hearts, and set their battel againe in array in the place where they put them in array the first day.

23 (For the children of Israél had gone vp and wept before the Lord vnto ^y euening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shal I go againe to battel against the children of Beniamín my brethren? & the Lord said, Go vp against them)

24 ¶ Then the children of Israél came nere against the children of Beniamín the seconde day.

25 Also the seconde day Beniamín came forth to mete the out of Gibeáh, & slewe downe to the groude of the childré of Israél againe eightene thousand men: " all they colde handle the sworde.

26 Then all the children of Israél went vp & all the people came also vnto the house of God, & wept and faste there before the Lord & fasted that day vnto the euening, and offred burnt offerings & peace offerings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israél asked the Lord (for ^m there was the Aike of the couenant of God in those dayes, 28 And Phinehás the sonne of Eleazár, the sonne of Aarón ^a stode before it at that time) saying, Shal I yet go anie more to battel against the childré of Beniamín my brethren, or shal I cease? And the Lord said, Go vp: for tomorowe I wil deliuer them into your hand.

29 And Israél set men to lye in wait round about Gibeáh.

30 And the children of Israél went vp against the children of Beniamín the third day, and put them selues in array against Gibeáh, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Beniamín coming out against the people, were ^o drawe from the citie: and they began to smite of the people and kil as at other times, ^{en} by the wayes in the field (whereof one goeth vp to the house of God, & the other to Gibeáh) vpon a thirtie men of Israél.

32 (For the childré of Beniamín said, They are fallen before vs, as at the first. But the children of Israél said, Let vs flee & plucke them away from the citie vnto the hie p wayes)

33 And all the men of Israél rose vp out of their place, & put them selues in array at Baál tamár: and the men that lay in waite of the Israelites came forth of their place, ^{en} out of the medowes of Gibeáh, 34 And they came ouer against Gibeáh, ten thousand chosen men of all Israél, & the battel was sore: for they knewe not that the ^q euil was nere them.

35 ¶ And ^y Lord smote Beniamín before Israél, and the children of Israél destroyed of the Beniamites the same day fise and twentie thousand and an hundreth men: all they colde handle the sworde.

36 So the childré of Beniamín sawe that they were striken downe: for the men of Israél ^r gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted to the men that lay in wait, which they had laid beside Gibeáh.

37 And they that lay in waite halted, and brake forth towarde Gibeáh, and the embushment ^r drewe them selues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sworde.

38 Also the men of Israél had appointed a certaine time with the embushmets, that they shulde make a great flame, and smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And whē the men of Israél retired in the battel, Beniamín began to ^r smite and kil of the men of Israél about thirtie persons: for they said, Surely they are striken downe before vs, as in the first battel.

40 But when the flame began to arise out of the citie, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde, the flame of the citie began to ascende vp to heauen.

41 Then ^y men of Israél turned ^r againe, and the men of Beniamín were attonied: for they saw that euil was nere vnto the.

42 Therefore they fled before the men of Israél vnto the way of the wildernes, but the battel ouertoke them: also they which ^u came out of the cities, slewe them among them.

43 Thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them ^r at ease, and ouerran them, euen ouer against Gibeáh on the Eastside.

44 And there were slaine of Beniamín eightene thousand men, which were all men of warre.

45 And they turned and fled to the wildernes vnto the rocke of Rimmón: and the Israelites ^x glained of them by the way fise thousand mé, & pursued after the vnto Gidóm, & slewe two thousand mé of the.

46 So that all that were slaine that day of Beniamín, were ^y fise and twentie thousand men that drewe sworde, which were all men of warre:

47 But six hundreth men turned & fled to the wildernes, vnto the rocke of Rimmón and abode in the rocke of Rimmón foure moneths.

THE BOKE OF RVTH.

THE ARGVMENT.

This boke is intituled after the name of Ruth: which is the principall persone spoken of in this treatise. Wherein also figuratiuely is set forth the state of the Church which is subiect to manifold afflictions, and yet at length God giueth good, and ioyful issue: teaching vs to abide with patience til God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein also is ascribed howe Iesus Christ, who according to the flesh ought to come of Dauid, proceeded of Ruth, of whome the Lord Iesus did vouchesane to come, notwithstanding she was a Moabite of base condicison, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles shulde be sanctified by him and ioyned with his people, and that there shulde be but one shepsfode, and one shepherde. And it semeth that this historie apperteineth to the time of the Iudges.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimélech goeth with his wife and childrē into the lād of Moab. 3 He and his sonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-léhem.

"Ebr. iudged.

a In the land of Canaan. b In y^e tribe of Iudáh, which was also called Beth-léhé Ephrathah, because there was another citie so called in the tribe of Zebulun.

IN the time that the iudges^a ruled, there was a dearth in the^a land, and a mā of Beth-léhem^b Iudáh went for to sojourne in the cōntrei of Moáb, he, and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 And the name of the mā was Elimélech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: and the names of his two sonnes, Mahlón, & Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-léhem Iudáh: and when they came into the land of Moáb, they continued there.

3 Then Elimélech the housbād of Naomi dyed, & she remained with her two sonnes,

4 Which toke them wiues of the^c Moabites: the ones name was Orpáh, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlón and Chilion dyed also bothe twaine: so the woman was left destitute of her two sonnes, & of her housbād.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moáb: for she had heard say in the countrei of Moáb, that the Lord had^d visited his people, and giuen them bread.

7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her, and they wēt on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudáh.

8 Thē Naomi said vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go, returne eche of you vnto her owne mothers house: y^e Lord shewe fauour vnto you, as ye haue done with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grante you, that you may finde^e rest, ether of you in the house of her housbād. And when she kissed them, they list vp their voyce and wept.

10 And they said vnto her, Surely we wil returne with thee vnto thy people.

11 But Naomi said, Turne againe, my daughters: for what cause wil you go with me: are there anie mo sonnes in my wombe, that they may be your housbands?

12 Turne againe, my daughters: go your way: for I am to olde to haue an housbād. if I shulde saie, I haue hope, & if I had an housbād this night: yea, if I had borne sonnes,

13 Wolde ye tary for them, til they were of age: wolde ye be differred for them from taking of housbands? nay my daughters: for it griueth me^f muche for your sakes y^g the hād of y^h Lord is gone out against me.

14 Then they list vp their voyce, and wept againe, and Orpáhⁱ kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode stil with her.

15 And Naomi said, Beholde, thy sister in lawe is gone backe vnto her people & vnto her gods: s returne y^j after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth answered, Intreat me not to leaue thee, nor to departe from thee: for whither thou goest, I wil go: and where thou dwellest, I wil dwell: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God.

17 Where y^k dyest, wil I dye, and there wil I be buried. the Lord do so to me & more also, if^l ought but death departe thee & me.

18 ¶ When she sawe that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 So they went bothe vntil they came to Beth-léhé: & whē they were come to Beth-léhem, it was^m noised of them through all the citie, and thei said, Is not this Naomi?

20 And she answered the, Call me not Naomi, but call meⁿ Mará: for the Almighty hathe giuen me muche bitternes.

21 I wēt out ful, & y^o Lord hathe caused me to returne empty: why call ye me Naomi, seing the Lord hath hūbled me, & the Almighty hathe broght me vnto aduersitie.

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth y^p Moabite her daughter in law with her, when she came out of the countrei of Moab: & they came to Beth-léhem in the beginning of^q barley haruest.

CHAP. II.

ther eares of corne after hī, in whose sight
I find fauour. And she said vnto her, Go my daughter.

3 ¶ And she went, & came & gleaned in y field after the reapers, & it came to passe, that she met w the portion of the field of Bóaz, who was of y familie of Elimélech.

4 And beholde, Bóaz came from Beth-lé-hem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you: & thei answered him, The Lord blesse thee.

5 The said Bóaz vnto his seruāt y was appointed ouer y reapers, Whose maid is this?

6 And the seruāt that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish mayd, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Móab:

7 And she said vnto vs, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers amōg the sheaues: so she came, and hathe continued from that time in the morning vnto now, saue y she taried a litle in the house.

8 ¶ Then said Bóaz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? go to none other field to gather, neither go from hence: but abide here by my maidens.

9 ¶ Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and go thou after the maidēs. Haue I not charged the seruants, that they touch thee not? Moreouer when thou art a thirst, go vnto the vessels and binke of that which the seruants haue drawen.

10 Then she fel on her face, and bowed her self to the ground, & said vnto im, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that y shuldēt knowe me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Bóaz answered, and said vnto her,
All is tolde and shewed me that y hast done vnto thy mother in law, since y death of thine housband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people w thou knewest not in time past.

12 The Lord recompence thy worke and a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Isiaél, vnder whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord: for y halt cōsorted me, and spoken comfortably vnto thy maid,
thogh I be not like to one of thy maids.

14 And Bóaz said vnto her, At y meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, & dip thy morsel in y vinegre. And she sate beside the reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and she did eat, and was suffised, and left thereof.

15 ¶ And when she arose to glean, Bóaz cōmāded his seruants, saying, Lether gather among y sheaues, and do not rebuke her.

16 Also let fall some of the sheaues for her,

& let it lie, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field vntil euening, and she threshed that she had gathered,
and it was about an Ephā of barley.

18 ¶ And she toke it vp, & went into the ci-tie, and her mother in lawe sawe what she had gathered: also she toke forthe, and gaue to her that which she had reserued, when she was suffised.

19 Then her mother in lawe said vnto her,
Where hast thou gleaned to day? & where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in lawe, with whome she had wrought, & said, The mans name with whome I wrought to day, is Bóaz.

20 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in lawe, Blessed be he of the Lord: for he cea-seth not to do good to the liuing and to the dead. Againe Naomi said vnto her,
The mā is nere vnto vs, & of our affinitie.

21 And Ruth the Moabitése said, He said also certainly vnto me, Thou shalt be w my seruāts, vntil they haue ended all mine haruest.

22 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is best, my daughter, that thou go out with his maids, that thei mete thee not in another field.

23 The she kept her by the maids of Bóaz, to gather vnto the end of bailey haruest, & of wheat haruest, and dwelt with her mother in lawe.

CHAP. III.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counsel. 2 She slepeth at Bóaz fete.
12 He acknowledgeth him selfe to be her kinsman.

1 Afterward Naomi her mother in law said vnto her, My daughter, shal not
I see^a rest for thee, that y maiest prosper?

2 Now also is not Bóaz our kinsman, with whose maids y wast? beholde, he winoweth barley to night in the floore.

3 Wash thy selfe therefore, & anoint thee, & put thy raiment vpō thee, and get thee downe to y floore: let not y mā knowe of thee, vntil he haue left eating & drinking.

4 And when he shal slepe, maike the place where he layeth him downe, & go, & vncouer the place of his fete, and lay thee downe, & he shal tel thee what y shalt do.

5 And she answered her, All that thou biddest me, I wil do.

6 ¶ So she went downe vnto the floore, & did according to all y her mother in lawe bade her.

7 And when Bóaz had eaten, and dronke, & cheared his heart, he went to lie downe at the end of the heape of corne, & she came softly, & vncouered the place of his fete, & lay downe.

8 And at midnight the man was aſiaied & caught holde: & lo, a womā lay at his fete.

ne^e besides thee to redeme it, & I am after thee. Then he answered, I wil redeme it.

c For thou art

6 And the kinsman answered, I can not redeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeme my right to thee, for I cā not redeme it.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabiteffe the wife of Mahlón, haue I bought to be my wife, to sterre vp the name of y^e dead vpon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his^f place: ye are witnesses this day.

THE FIRST BOKE OF Samuél.

THE ARGUMENT.

According as God had ordeined Deut. 17, 14. that when the Israelites shoulde be in the land of Canaan, he wolde appoint them a King: so here in the first boke of Samuel is declared the state of this people vnder their first King Saúl, who not content with that ordre, which God had for a time appointed for the gouernement of his Church, demanded a King, to the intent that might be as other nations & in a greater assurance as they thought: not because they might the better thereby serue God, as being vnder the safegarde of him, which did represent Iesus Christ the true deliuerer: therefore he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the persone of a King is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power preserue and kepe them. And therefore he punisheth the ingratitude of his people & sendeth the continual warres bothe at home and abroad. And because Saúl, whome of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a King, did not acknowledge Gods mercie towarde him, but rather disobeyed the worde of God and was not zealous of his glorie, he was by the voice of God put downe from his state, and Dauid the true figure of Mesiáh placed in his steade, whose patience, modestie, constancie, persecucion by open enemies, fained friends, and dissembling flatterers are left to the Church and to euery member of the same, as a paterne and example to beholde their state ad vocation.

CHAP. I.

- 1 The genealogie of Elkanáh father of Samuél 2 His two wiues. 3 Hannáh was baren and prayed to the Lord. 15 Her answer to Eli. 20 Samuél is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

a There were two Ramaths, so that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim: that is, the learned men and Prophets.

Here was a man of one of the two ^a Ramatháim Zophím, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanáh the sonne of Ierohám, the sonne of Elihú, the sonne of Tóhú, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephraimite:

- 2 And he had two wiues: the name of one was Hannáh, and the name of the other Peninnáh: and Peninnáh had childré, but Hannáh had no children.

Deut. 16, 16. 3 * And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worship & to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in ^b Shilóh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophní and Phinehás Priests of the Lord.

¶ For the Arke was there at that time.

- 4 And on a day, when Elkanáh sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnáh his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters porcions, a Some read, a porcion with an heauy cheere.

- 5 But vnto Hânáh he gaue a worthy ^c porcion: for he loued Hannáh, and the Lord had made her baren.

- 6 ¶ And her aduersarie vexed her sore, for asmuche as she vpbraided her, because the Lord had made her baren.

- 7 (And so did he yere by yere) & as oft as she wēt vp to the house of ^d the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eat.

- 8 Then said Elkanáh her housbād to her, Hannáh, why wepest thou? and why eatest thou not? & why is thine heart troubled?

d Let this suffice thee, that I love thee no lesse, then if I hadest many children.

- 9 So Hannáh rose vp after that they had eaten and dronke in Shilóh (and Eli the Priest sat vpō a stole by one of ^e the postes of the Temple of the Lord)

e That is, of the house, where the Arke was.

- 10 And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore:

- 11 Also she vowed a vowe, & said, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt loke on the trouble of thine handmayd, and remēber me, and not forget thine handmayd, but giue me vnto thine handmayd a manchild, then I wil giue him vnto the Lord all the daies of his life, * and there shal no raser come vpon his head.

Nomb 6, 1. iudg. 13, 5.

- 12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

- 13 For Hânáh spake in her heart: her lippes did moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had bene drunken.

- 14 And Eli said vnto her, How long wilt thou be dronké? Put away thy dronkenes from thee.

¶ 12 by wine.

- 15 Then Hannáh answered and said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I haue drōke neither wine nor it: ōg drinke, but haue * powred out my soule before the Lord.

¶ Ebr of an inward spirit.

f That is, pray vnto the Lord for me

18 She said againe, Let thine handmaid finde f grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and loked no more sad.

19 ¶ Then they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramáh. Now Elkanáh knewe Hannáh his wife, and the Lord z remembred her.

g According to her peticio

20 For in proceſſe of time Hannáh cōceiued, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuél, Because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord.

h This Elkanáh was a Leuite, 1 Chro 6, 27. and as some write, once a yere they accustomed to appeare before the Lord wth their families.

21 ¶ So the man h Elkanáh & all his house went vp to offer vnto ŷ Lord the yeelelie sacrifice, and his vowe:

22 But Hannáh went not vp: for she said vnto her housbād, i wil tary vntil the childe be weined, then I wil bring him that he may appeare before the Lord, & there abide for euer.

23 And Elkanáh her housband said vnto her, Do what semeth thee best: tary vntil thou hast weined him: onely the Lord accomplish his i worde. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntil she weined him.

*i Because her prayer toke effect, therefore it was called ŷ Lords promises.*

21 And the Lord visited Hannáh, so that she conceived, and bare thre sonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuél grewe before the Lord.

22 ¶ So Eli was very olde, & heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israél, & how they laye with the women that assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Con- gregation.

23 And he said vnto thé, Why do-ye suche things? for of all this people I heare euil reposites of you.

CHAP. III.

There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuél thre times, 11 And sheweth what shal come vpon Eli: and his house. 18 The same declareth Samuél to Eli.

Now the childe Samuél ministred vnto the Lord a before Eli: and the worde of the Lord was b precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision.

2 And at that time, as Eli laye in his c place, his eyes began to waxe dimme that he colde not se.

3 And yer the d light of God went out, Sa- muél slept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was.

4 Then the Lord e called Samuél: and he said, Here I am.

5 And he ran vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: go againe and slepe. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Sa- muél. And Samuél arose, and went to Eli, & said, I am here: for thou didest call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my son- ne: go againe and slepe.

7 Thus did Samuél, before he knewe f the Lord, and before the worde of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuél againe the third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli g perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuél, Go and slepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake day in the morning, beholde, Dagón was fallen vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, and they toke vp Dagón, and set him in his place againe.

4 Also they rose vpearly in the morning the next day, & beholde, Dagón was fallē vpon his face on the grounde before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagón and the two palmes of his hands were cut of Dagón was left to him.

5 Therefore the Priestes of Dagón, and all that come into Dagon's house^c treade not on the thresholde of Dagón in Ash-

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauy vpo^e them of Ashdód, and destroyed them, and smote them with^e emerods, bothe Ashdód, and the coastes thereof.

7 And whē the men of Ashdód sawe this, they said, Let not the Arke of the God of Israél abide with vs: for his hand is fore vpon vs and vpon Dagón our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and said,^d What shal we do with the Arke of the God of Israél? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israél be caryed about vnto Gath: & thei caryed the Arke of the God of Israél about.

9 And when they had caryed it about, the hand of the Lord was against the ci-tie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie bothe small and great, & they had emerods in their secret partes.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and as sone as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue broght the Arke of^e the God of Israél to vs to slay vs and our people.

11 Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims and said, Send^e away the Arke of the God of Israél, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for there was a destruction & death through out all the citie, & the hād of God was very sore
there.

12 And the men that dyed not, were smittē with the emerods: and the crye of the ci-tie went vp to heauen.

wonderfully among them, * did they not let them go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a newe carte, and take two melche kine, on whome there hath come no yoke: & tye the kine to the carte, and bring the calves home from them.

d Meaning y goldē emerods and the golden mice.

8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the carte, and put the d iewels of golde which ye giue it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.

e The God of Israél.

9 And take hede, if it go vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shémesh, it is e he that did vs this great euil: but if not, we shal knowe then, that it is not his hád that smote vs, but it was a f chance that happened vs.

f The wicked attribute almost all things to fortune and chance, whereas in dede there is nothing done without Gods providence & decree.

10 And the men did so: for they toke two kine that gaue milke, and tyed them to the carte and shut the calves at home.

11 So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the carte, and the coffer with the mice of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.

12 And the kine went the streight way to Beth-shémesh, & kept one path and lowed as they went, & turned nether to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistims went after s thē, vnto the borders of Beth-shémesh.

g For the trial of the matter

13 Now they of Beth-shémesh were reaping their wheat haruest in the valley, & they lift vp their eyes, and spyed the Arke, and reioyced when they sawe it.

14 ¶ And the carte came into the fiede of Ioshúa a Bethshemite, & stode stil there. there was also a great stone, and h they claue the wood of the carte and offred the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

h To wit, the men of Beth-shémesh, w were Israélites.

15 And the Leuites toke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of golde were, & put them on the great stone, and the men of Beht-shémesh offred burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.

16 And when the five princes of the Philistims had sene it, they returned to Ekrón the same day.

17 ¶ So these are the goldē emerods, which the Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for i Ashdód one, for Gazá one, for Askelón one, for Gath one, & for Ekrón one, i These were the five principal cities of the Philistims which were not all cōque- red vnto the time of Dauid.

18 And goldē mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Pilistims, belonging to the five princes, bothe of walled townes and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of ^o Abél, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in the field of Ioshúa the Bethshemite.

For the plaine, or lamentation.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shémesh, because they k had loked in the Arke of the Lord: he slewe euen among the people fiftie thousand men and thre score and ten men. and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine y people with so great a slaughter.

k For it was not laulful to anie ether to touche or to se it, saue onely to Aaron & his sonnes, Nom. 4, 15 & 20.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth-shémesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whome shal he go from vs?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-earim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe & take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

i The Arke is brought to Kiriath-earim. 3 Samuél exhorteth the people to forsake their sinnes and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistims fight against Israél & are overcome 16 Samuél iudgeth Israél.

1 Then the men of a Kiriath-earim came, and toke vp the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hil: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to kepe the Arke of the Lord.

a A citie in y tribe of Iudá, called also Kiriath báal, Iosh. 15, 69.

2 (For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-earim, the time was long, for it was twētie yeres) and all the house of Israél lamented b after the Lord.

b Lamented for their sinnes & followed the Lord.

3 ¶ Thē Samuél spake vnto all the house of Israél, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your hearte, * put away the strange gods frō among you, & * Ashtaróth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him * onely, and he shal deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistims.

5 And Samuél said, Gather all Israél to Mizpéh, and I wil pray for you vnto y Lord.

c For Shiloh was now desolate, because the Philistims had takē thence the Arke.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpéh, and d drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, & said there, We haue sinned against the Lord And Samuél iudgeth the children of Israél in Mizpéh.

7 When the Philistims heard that the children of Israél were gathered together to Mizpéh, the princes of the Philistims wēt vp against Israél: and when the children of Israél heard that, they were afraid of the Philistims.

8 And the children of Israél said to Samuél, Cease not to e crye vnto the Lord our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims.

vnto the Lord, and Samuél cryed vnto the Lord for Israël, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuél offred the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israël: but the Lord ^f thundred with a great thundie that day vpon the Philistims, & scatred them: so they were flaine before Israël.

11 And the men of Israël went from Mizpéh and pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntil they came vnder Beth-car.

12 Then Samuél toke a stone and pitched it betwene Mizpéh and ^g Shen, and called ^h y name thereof, Ebén ézer, and he said, Hitherto hathe the Lord holpen vs.

13 ¶ So ⁱ y Philistims were broght vnder, & they came nomore againe into the coastes of Israël: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuél.

14 Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israël, were restored to Israël, from Ekión euen to Gath: & Israël deliuered the coastes of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: & there was peace betwene Israël & the ^h Amorites.

15 And Samuél iudged Israël all the dayes of his life,

16 And went about yere by yere to Beth-él, and Gilgál and Mizpéh, and iudged Israël in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramáh: for there was his house, & there he iudged Israël: also he buylt an altar there vnto the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Samuél maketh his sones iudges ouer Israël, who followe not his steppes 5 The Israelites aske a King 11 Samuél declareth in what state they shulde be vnder the King 19 Notwithstanding they aske one still, & the Lord willett Samuél to grante vnto them.

1 W Hē Samuél was now become old, he ^a made his sonnes iudges ouer Israël.

2 (And the name of his eldest sonne was ^b Ioél, and the name of the seconde Abiáh) euen iudges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sonnes walked not in his waies but turned aside after lucie and ^c toke rewardes, and peruered the iudgement.

4 ¶ Wherefore all the Elders of Israël gathered them together, & came to Samuél vnto ^c Ramah,

5 And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy waies: ^d make vs now a King to iudge vs like all nacions.

6 But the thing ^d displeased Samuél, when they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuél prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lord said vnto Samuél, Heare the voice of the people in all that they shal say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I shulde not reigne ouer them.

8 As thei haue euer done since I broght the out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so do they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearkē vnto their voyce: howbeit yet ^e testific vnto them & shewe the maner of the King that shal reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuél tolde all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a King of him.

11 And he said, This shalbe the ^f maner of the King that shal reigne ouer you: he wil take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his hoisemen, and ^g some shal iunne before his charet.

12 Also he wil make them his captaines ouer thousandes and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his grounde, and to reape his haruest, & to make instruments of ware, and the things that serue for his charets.

13 He wil also take your daughters and make them apoticaries, and cookes and bakers.

14 And he wil take your fieldes, and your vineyardes, and your best oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he wil take the tenth of your sede, and of your vineyardes, and giue it to his Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And he wil take your men seruants and your maid seruants, and the chief of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 He wil take the tenth of your shepe, and ye shalbe his seruants.

18 And ye shal crye out at that day, because of your King, whome ye haue chosen you, and the Lord wil not ^h heare you at that day.

19 But ⁱ y people wolde not heare the voyce of Samuél, but did say, Nay, but there shalbe a King ouer vs.

20 And we also wil be like all other nacions, and our King shal iudge vs, & go out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuél heard all the wordes of the people, he rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuél, ⁱ Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a King And Samuél said vnto the men of Israël, Go euerie man vnto his citie.

THere was now a man of Beniamín a mightie in power named * Kish the sonne of Abiél, the sonne of Zerór, & sonne of Bechoiáth, the sonne of Aphíab, the sonne of a man of Ieminí.

And he had a sone called Saúl, a ^b goodly yong man and a faie: so that among the children of Isiaél there was none good-lier then he: from the sholders vpward he was hier then anie of the people.

And the asses of Kish Saules father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saúl his sonne, Take now one of the seruants with thee,
and arise, go, and seke the asses.

So he passed through mount Ephraím & went through the land of Shalisháh, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shalím, and there they were not: he went also through the land of Ieminí, but they found them not.

When they came to the land of ^d Zuph, Saúl said vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs.

And he said vnto him, Beholde now, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saieth cometh to passe: let vs now go thither, if so be that he can shewe vs what way we may go.

Then said Saúl to his seruant, Wel then, let vs go: but what shal we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the mā of God: what haue we?

And the seruant answered Saúl againe, & said, Beholde, I haue found about me the fourth parte of a shekelle of siluer: that wil
I giue the man of God, to tel vs our way.

(Beforetime in Isiaél when a man went to seeke an answer of God, thus he spake, Come, & let vs go to the ^f Seer: for he that is called now a Prophet, was in y^e olde time called a Seer.)

The said Saúl to his seruant, Wel said, come, let vs go: so they went into the ci-tie where the man of God was.

¶ And as thei were going vp the hie way to the citie, they founde maydes that came out to drawe water, and said vnto the,
Is there here a Seer?

And they answered them, and said, Yea:
lo, he is before you. make haste now, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an offring of the people this day in the hie place.

When ye shal come into the citie, ye shal finde him streight way yer he come vp to the hie place to eat: for the people wil not eat vntil he come, because he wil ^h bleſſe y^e sacrifice: and then eat: they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore go vp: for euē now shal ye finde him.

Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuél came out against them, to go vp to the hie place.

¶ But the Lord had reueiled to Samuél secretly (a day before Saúl came) saying,

Tomorrow about this time I wil send thee a man out of the land of Beniamín:
him shalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Isiaél, & he may saue my people out of the hands of the Philistims:
for I haue looked vpon my people, & their crye is come vnto me.

When Samuél therefore sawe Saúl, the Lord answered him, Se, this is the man whome I spake to thee of, he shal rule my people.

Then went Saúl to Samuél in the mid-des of the gate, and said, Tel me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.

And Samuél answered Saúl, and said, I am the Seer: go vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shal eat with me to-day. and tomorrow I wil let thee go, & wil tel thee all that is in thine heart.

And as for thine asses y^e were lost thre dayes ago, care not for them: for they are founde, and ⁱ on whome is set all the desire of Isiaél: is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers house?

¶ But Saúl answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Ieminí of the smaleſt tribe of Isiaél? & my familie is the least of all the families of y^e tribe of Beniamín. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

And Samuél toke Saúl and his seruant, and broght them into the ^m chamber, and made them sit in the chiefeſt place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie persones.

And Samuél said vnto the cooke, Bring for the the portion which I gaue thee, & whereof I said vnto thee, Kepe it with thee.

And the cooke toke vp the shoulder, &
that ⁿ was ^o vpon it, & set it before Saúl.
And Samuél said, Beholde, that which is left, set it before thee & eat: for hitherto hathe it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I haue called the people. So Saúl did eat with Samuél that day.

And whē they were come downe frō the hie place into y^e citie, he communed with Saúl vpon the top of the house:

And whē they arose early about y^e spring of y^e day, Samuél called Saúl to the ^p top of the house, saying Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saúl arose, and they went out, bothe he, and Samuél.

And when they were come downe to the end of the citie, Samuél said to Saúl, Bid the seruant go before vs, (and he went)

9 And whē he had turned his backe to go from Samuél, God gaue him another heart: & all thoſe tokens came to paſſe that ſame day.

10 And whē thei came thether to the hil, beholde, the companie of Prophets met him, and the Spirit of God came vpon him, and he prophecied among them.

11 Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when thei ſawe that he prophecied among the Prophets, ſaid eche to other, What is come vnto the ſonne of Kiſh? Is Saúl alſo among the Prophets?

12 And one of the ſame place answered, and ſaid, But who is their father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saúl alſo among the Prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of propheciing, he came to the hie place.

14 And Sauls vnclē ſaid vnto him, and to his ſeruāt, Whether went ye? And he ſaid, To ſeke the aſſes: and when we ſawe that thei were no where, we came to Samuél.

15 And Sauls vnclē ſaid, Tel me, I pray thee, what Samuél ſaid vnto you.

16 Then Saúl ſaid to his vnclē, He tolde vs plainly that the aſſes were ſoude: but concerning the kingdome whereof Samuél ſpake, tolde he him nor.

17 And Samuél aſſembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpéh,

18 And he ſaid vnto the children of Iſraél, Thus ſaith the Lord God of Iſraél, I haue brought Iſraél out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hands of all kingdomes that troubled you.

19 But ye haue this day caſt away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduerſities and tribulacions: and ye ſaid vnto him, No, but appoint a King ouer vs. Now therefore ſtand ye before the Lord according to your tribes and according to your thouſands.

20 And when Samuél had gathered together all the tribes of Iſraél, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 Afterwarde he aſſembled the tribe of Benjamin according to their families, & the familie of Matrí was taken. So Saúl the ſonne of Kiſh was taken, and when thei fought him, he colde not be founde.

22 Therefore thei aſked the Lord againe, if that man ſhulde yet come thether. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he hathe hid him ſelfe among the ſuffe.

23 And thei anne, and brought him thence: and when he ſtoode among the people, he was hieer then any of the people from the ſhoulders vpward.

24 And Samuél ſaid to all the people, Se ye not him, whome the Lord hathe choſen, that there is none like him among all the people: And all the people ſhowred and ſaid, God ſaue the King.

25 Then Samuél tolde the people the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and layed it vp before the Lord, & Samuél ſent all the people away euery man to his houſe.

26 Saúl alſo went home to Gibeáh, & there followed him a band of men, whoſe heart God had touched, a After that Saul was chosen King: for feare of whom they asked a King, as Chap 12, 12.

1 Nahásh the Ammonite warreth against Iabésh Gileád, who asketh helpe of the Israelites: 6 Saul promisseth helpe: 11 The Ammonites are slayne. 14 The kingdome is remoued.

Then Nahásh the Ammonite ^a came vp, and besieged Iabésh Gileád: and all the men of Iabésh said vnto Nahásh, Make a couenant with vs, and we wil be thy seruants.

a And Nahásh the Ammonite answered them, On this condicion wil I make a couenant with you, that I may thrusse out all your ^b right eyes, & bring that shame vpon all Isráél.

b This declaration, that the more nere that tyrants are to their destruction, the more cruel they are.

c To whome ^y Elders of Iabésh said, Giue vs seuen daies respat, that we may send messengers vnto all the coastes of Isráél: & then if no man deliuer vs, we wil come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeáh of Saúl, & tolde these tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people lift vp their voyces and wept.

5 And beholde, Saúl came following the cattel out of the field, & Saúl said, What ayleth this people, ^y thei wepe? And thei tolde him the tidings of the mé of Iabésh.

c God gaue him the spirit of strength & courage to go against this tyrant.

6 Then the Spirit of God ^c came vpon Saúl, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angry,

7 And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coastes of Isráél by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever commeth not forthe after Saúl, and after ^d Samuél, 8 so shal his ox be serued. And the feare of the Lord fel on the people, and thei came out ^e with one consent.

9 Then ^e thei said vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabésh Gileád, Tomorowe by then the sunne be hote, ye shal haue helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabésh, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Iabésh said, Tomorowe we wil come out vnto ^f you, & ye shal do with vs all that pleaseth you.

f That is, to y Ammonites, doubting that they had hope of aide.

¶ And when the morowe was come, Saúl put the people in thre bands, & thei came in vnto the hoste in the morning watch, & slewe the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: and thei that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuél, 13 Who is he that said, Shal Saúl reigne ouer vs? bring those mé that we may slaye them.

g By this victorie the Lord wone y hearts of the people to Saúl.

13 But Saúl said, There shal no man ^h dye this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Isráél.

h By shewing mercie he thought to ouercome their malice.

14 ¶ Then said Samuél vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgál, & renew the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgál, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgál: and there thei offered ⁱ peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saúl & all the mé of Isráél reioyced exceedingly.

i In signe of thanksgiving for y victory.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Ierubbáal ^f & Bedan & *Iphtáh, & *Samuél, & deliuered you out of the hands of your enemies on euerie side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 Notwithstanding when you sawe, that Nahásh the King of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said vnto me, & No, but a King shal reigne ouer vs: whē yet the Lord your God was your King.

18 Then Samuél called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thundre and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord & Samuél exceedingly.

19 And all the people said vnto Samuél, Pray for thy seruants vnto the Lord thy God, that we dye not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a King, beside ^l all our other sinnes.

³ The Philistims are smitten of Saúl & Ionathán. 13 Saúl being disobedient to Gods commandement is shewd of Samuél that he shal not reigne. 19 The great seruice, wherein the Philistims kept the Israelites.

1 Saúl now had bene King ^a one yere, & She reigned ^b two yeres ouer Israël.

^a Whiles these things were done ^b Before he toke vpon him the state of a King.

2 Then Saúl chose him thre thousand of Israël: & two thousand were with Saúl in Michmásh, and in mount Beth-él, and a thousand were with Ionathán in Gibeáh of Beniamin: and the rest of the people he sent euerie one to his tent.

3 And Ionathán smote the garison of the Philistims, that was in the ^c hill: and it came to the Philistims eares: and Saúl blew the ^d trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Heare, ^e ye Ebrewes.

^c Of Kirjath-earim, where the Ark was, Chap 10, 5 ^d That euerie one shulde prepare them selues to warre.

4 And all Israël heard say, Saúl hathe destroyed a garison of the Philistims: wherefore Israël was had in abominació with the Philistims: and the people gathered together after Saúl to Gilgál.

5 ¶ The Philistims also gathered them selues together to fight with Israël, thirtie thousand charrets and six thousand horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seas side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmásh Eastwarde from ^e Beth-áuen.

^e Which was also called Beth-el, in the tribe of Beniamin.

6 And whē the men of Israël sawe that they were in a strait (for the people were in distress) the people hid the selues in caues, & in holdes, & in rockes, & towres, & in pittes.

7 And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iordén vnto the land of ^f Gad & Gileád: and Saúl was yet in Gilgál, and all the people for feare followed him.

8 And he taried seuen dayes, according vnto the time that Samuél had appointed: but Samuél came not to Gilgál, therefore the people were ^g scared from him.

9 And Saúl said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

11 And Samuél said, What hast thou done? Then Saúl said, Because I sawe that the people was ⁱ scared from me, and that thou camest not within the dayes appointed, and that the Philistims gathered the selues together to Michmásh, ⁱ In hough these causes seme sufficiente in was iudgement: yet because they had not the worde of God, they turned to his destruction.

12 Therefore said I, The Philistims wil come downe now vpon me to Gilgál, and I haue not made supplicacion vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuél said to Saúl, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy ⁱ God, which ⁱ Who willed thee to obey him and rest vpon the wordes spoken by his Prophet.

he commaded thee: for the Lord had now stablished thy kingdome vpon Israël for euer.

14 But now thy kingdome shal not continue: the Lord hathe fought him a ^a man after his owne heart, and ^y Lord hathe commaded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuél arose, and gate him vp frō Gilgál in ¹ Gibeáh of Beniamín: & Saúl nombred the people that were foude with him, about six hundreth men.

16 And Saúl and Ionathán his sonne, & the people that were founde with them, had their abiding in Gibeáh of Beniamín: but the Philistims pitched in Michmásh.

17 And there came out of the hoste of the Philistims ⁴ thre bādes to destroy, one bāde turned vnto the way of Ophráh vnto the land of Shuál,

18 And another bande turned toward the way to Beth-horón, and the ^m thirde bāde turned toward the way of the coast that loketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wildernes.

19 Thē there was no smith founde through out all the land of Israël: for the Philistims said, Lest the Ebrewes make them swordes or speares.

20 Wherefore all the Israelites wēt downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euerie man his share, his mattocke, & his axe and his weding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattockes, and for the pickeforkes, & for the axes and for to sharpen the goades.

22 So when the day of battel was come, there was nether ⁿ sworde nor speare founde in the hands of anie of the people that were with Saúl & with Ionathán: but onely with Saúl and Ionathán his sonne was there founde.

23 And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmásh.

CHAP. XIII.

14 Ionathán and his armour bearer put the Philistims to flight. 24 Saúl bindeth the people by an othe, not to eat til euening. 33 The people eat with the blood. 38 Saúl wolde put Ionathán to death. 45 The people deliuer him.

1 THEN on a day Ionathán the sonne of Saúl said vnto the yong man that bare his armour, ^a Come and let vs go ouer toward the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the other side, but he tolde not his father.

2 And Saúl taryed in the border of Gibeáh vnder a pomegranate tre, which was in Migrón, and the people that were with him, were about six hundreth men.

3 And Abiáh the sonne of Ahitúb, ^{*} Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehás, the sonne of Elí, was the Lords Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephód: and the people knewe not that Ionathán was gone.

4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Ionathán fought to go ouer to ^y Philistims garison, there was a ^a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozéz, & the name of the other Séneh.

5 The one rocke stretched frō the North toward Michmásh, & the other was from the South toward Gibeáh.

6 And Ionathán said to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs go ouer vnto the garison of these ^b vncircumcised: it may be that the Lord wil worke with vs: for it is ^c not hard to the Lord ^d to saue with manie, or with fewe.

7 And he that bare his armour, said vnto him, do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee: beholde, ^e I am with thee as thine heart desireth.

8 Then said Ionathán, Beholde, we go ouer vnto those men, and wil shewe our selues vnto them.

9 ^d If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntil we come to you, then we wil stand stil in our place, and not go vp to them.

10 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then we wil go vp: for ^e the Lord hathe deliuered them into our hand: and this shalbe a signe vnto vs.

11 So they bothe shewed them selues vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, Se, the Ebrewes come out of ^y holes wherein they had hid the selues.

12 And the men of the garison answered Ionathán, & his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we wil shewe you a thing. Then Ionathán said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hathe deliuered them into the hand of Israël.

13 So Ionathán went vp vpon ^f his hands, and vpon his fete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fel before Ionathán, & his armour bearer slewe others after him.

14 So the ^g first slaughter which Ionathán and his armour bearer made, was about twentie mē within that cōpasse, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plowe.

15 And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the field, and amōg all the people: the garison also, and they that went out to spoile, were afayed them selues: and the earth ^h trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God.

16 Thē the watchmen of Saúl in Gibeáh of Beniamín sawe: and beholde, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.

17 Therefore said Saúl vnto the people that

18 And Saúl said vnto Ahiáh, Bring hither the Arke of God (for y^e Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israël)

19 ¶ And while Saúl talked vnto the Priest, the noise, that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spread farther abroad, & encreased: therefore Saúl said vnto the Priest, Withdrawe thine hand.

20 And Saúl was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battel: & beholde, * euerie mans sword was against his fellowe, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreouer y^e Ebrewes that were with the Philistims before time, & were come with them into all partes of the hoste, euē they also turned to be with the ^h Israelites that were with Saúl and Ionathán.

22 Also all the men of Israël which had hid them selues in mount Ephráim when they heard, that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battel.

23 And so the Lord saued Israël that day: and the battel continued vnto Beth-áuen.

24 ¶ And at that time the men of Israël were pressed with hunger: for Saúl charged the people with an othe, saying, ⁱ Curfed be the man y^e eateth "foode til nyght, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted ^{any} sustenance.

25 And all they of the lād came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, & beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hād to his mouth: for the people feared the ^o othe.

27 But Ionathán heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hād, and dipt it in an hony cōbe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his ^e eyes receyued sight.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made y^e people to sweare, saying, Curfed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.

29 Then said Ionathán, My father hathe troubled the land: se now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a litle of this hony:

30 How muche more, if the people had eatē to day of the spoyle of their enemies which they founde: for had there not bene now a greater slaughter among the Philistims?

31 ¶ And they smote y^e Philistims that day, from Michmásh to Aialón: and the people were exceding faint.

32 So the people turned to the spoyle, and toke shepe, & oxen, and calues, & slewe the on the ground, and the people did eat the * with the blood.

33 Then men told Saúl, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye haue trespassed: poule a great stone vnto me this day.

34 Againe Saúl said, Go abroad among y^e people, & bid them bring me euerie man his oxe, and euery mā his shepe, and slaye them here, and eate and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people broght euery man his oxe in his hand that night and slewe them there.

35 Then Saúl made an altar vnto the Lord, & that was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

36 ¶ And Saúl said, Let vs go downe after the Philistims by night, and spoyle them vntil the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a mā of them. And they said, Do whatsoever thou thinkest best. Then said the Priest, Let vs draw nere hither vnto God.

37 So Saúl asked of God, saying, Shall I go downe after the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israël? But he answered him not at that time.

38 ¶ And Saúl said, * All y^e chief of y^e people, come ye hither, and knowe, and se by whome this sinne is done this day.

39 For as the Lord liueth, which saueth Israël, though it be done by Ionathán my sonne, he shal dye the death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said vnto all Israël, Be ye on one side, & I and Ionathán my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saúl, Do what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saúl said vnto the Lord God of Israël, Giue a perfet lot. And Ionathán & Saúl were taken, but the people escaped.

42 And Saúl said, Cast lot betwene me and Ionathán my sonne. And Ionathán was taken.

43 Then Saúl said to Ionathán, Tel me what thou hast done. And Ionathán told him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with y^e end of the rod, that was in mine hand, & lo, I must dye.

44 Againe Saúl answered, God do so and more also, vnles y^e dye y^e death, Ionathán.

45 And the people said vnto Saúl, ¶ Shal Ionathán dye, who hathe so mightely deliuered Israël? God forbid. As y^e Lord liueth there shal not one heere of his head fall to the ground: for he hathe wrought wth God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathán that he dyed not.

e The wicked spirits are at Gods commandment to execute his will against y^e wicked.

15 And Sauls seruāts said vnto him, Beholde now, y^e euil spirit of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our lord therefore commande thy seruants, that are before thee, to seke a man, that is a conning player vpon the harpe: that when the euil spirit of God commeth vpon thee, he may playe with his hand, & thou maiest be eased.

17 Saúl then said vnto his seruāts, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that can play wel, & bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his seruants, and said, Beholde, I haue sene a sonne of Ishái, a Bethlehemite, that can playe, & is ittiōg, valiāt & a mā of warie & wise in matters, & a comely person, & y^e Lord is with him.

CHAP. XVII.

The Philistims make warre against Israél. 10 Goliáth defieth Israél. 17 Dauid is sent to his brethren. 34 The strength and boldnes of Dauid. 47 The Lord saueh not by sword nor speare. 50 Dauid killeth Goliáth and the Philistims flee.

NOW the Philistims gathered their armies to battel, and came together to Shochóh, which is in Iudáh, & pitched betwene Shochóh and Azekáh, in the coast of Dammim.

2 And Saúl, and the men of Israél assembled, and pitched in the valley of Eláh, & put them selues in battel array to meté the Philistims.

3 And the Philistims stode on a mountaine on the one side, and Israél stode on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betwene them.

4 ¶ Then came a mā betwene them: bothe out of the rentes of the Philistims, named Goliáth of Gath: his height was six cubits and an hand breadth,

5 And had an helmet of brasse vpō his head, and a brigandine vpon him: and the weight of his brigandine was five thousand shekels of brasse.

6 And he had bootes of brasse vpō his legges, & a shilde of brasse vpō his shoulders.

7 And the shafte of his speare was like a weauers beame: and his speare head weyed six hundred shekels of yron: and one bearing a shilde went before him.

8 And he stode, and cryed against the hoste of Israél, and said vnto them, Why are ye come to set your battel in array? am not I a Philistim, and you seruāts to Saúl? chose you a mā for you, & let him come downe to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and kil me, then wil we be your seruāts: but if I ouercome him, and kil him, then shal ye be our seruāts, and serue vs.

10 Also the Philistim said, I defie the hoste of Israél this day: giue me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saúl and all Israél heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afayed.

12 ¶ Now this Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-léhem Iudáh, named

Ishái, which had eight sonnes: and this mā was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saúl.

13 And the thre eldest sonnes of Ishái went and followed Saúl to the battel: and the names of his thre sonnes that wēt to battel, were Eliáb the eldest, & the next Abinadáb, and the third Shammáh.

14 So Dauid was the least: and the thre eldest went after Saúl.

15 Dauid also went, but he returned from Saúl to fede his fathers shepe in Beth-léhem.

16 And the Philistim drewe nere in y morning, and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Ishái said vnto Dauid his sonne, Take now for thy brethren an Ephláh of this parched corne, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren.

18 Also cary these ten fresh cheses vnto the captaine, and loke how thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge.

19 (Then Saúl and they, and all the men of Israél were in the valley of Eláh, fighting with the Philistims)

20 ¶ So Dauid rose vp early in the mornig, and left the shepe with a keper, and toke and went as Ishái had commanded him, & came within the compasse of the hoste: & the hoste went out in array, and showed in the battel.

21 For Israél and the Philistims had put them selues in array, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the things, which he bare, vnder the hands of the keper of the cariage, and ran into the hoste, & came, and asked his brethren how they did.

23 And as he talked with them, beholde, the man that was betwene the two armies, came vp, (whose name was Goliáth the Philistim of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistims, and spake suche wordes, & Dauid heard them.

24 And all the men of Israél, when they sawe the man, ran away from him, & were fore afayed.

25 For euery man of Israél said, Sawe ye not this man that cometh vpon euery man to reuile Israél? is he come vp: and to him that killeth hī, wil the King giue great riches, and wil giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house fre in Israél.

26 ¶ Then Dauid spake to the men that stode with him, and said, What shalbedone to the man that killeth this Philistim, and taketh away the shame from Israél? for who is this vncircumcised Philistim, that he shulde reuile the hoste of the liuing God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, Thus shal it be done to the

the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliáb his eldest brother heard whē he spake vnto the men, & Eliáb was very angry with Dauid, and said, Why comest thou downe hether? and with whom hast y left those fewe shepe in the wilderness: I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to se the battel.

For his fathers sending was a iuste occasion, & also he telt him self inwardly moued by Gods Spirit.

29 Then Dauid said, What haue I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former wordes.

31 ¶ And then that heard the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saúl, which caused him to be broght.

32 So Dauid said to Saúl, Let no mā's heart faile him, because of him: thy seruant wil go, and fight with this Philistim.

Here Saran saith Dauids faith by the infidelitie of Saul.

33 And Saul said to Dauid, Thou art not able to go against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth.

Dauid by the experience y he hath had in time past of Gods helpe, nothing doubting to overcome this danger, seing he was zealous for Gods honour.

34 And Dauid answered vnto Saúl, Thy seruant kept his fathers shepe, and there came a lyon and likewise a beare, and toke a shepe out of the flocke, 35 And I went out after him & smote him, & toke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the bearde, and smote him, and slewe him.

For by these examples he sawe that the power of God was w him.

36 So thy seruant slewe bothe the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shalbe as one of them, seing he hath railed on y hoste of the liuing God.

37 ¶ Moreouer Saul said, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of the lyon, and out of the pawe of the beare, he wil deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saúl said vnto Dauid, Go, and the Lord be with thee.

Or, assayed

38 And Saúl put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Thē giued Dauid his sworde vpon his rayment, and began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid said vnto Saúl, I can not go with these: for I am not accustomed, wherefore Dauid put them of him.

To y intent that by these weake meanes God might only be knowen to be y autor of this victorie.

40 Then toke he his staffe in his hand, and chose him fise smothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherdes bag or skuppe, & his sling was in his hād, and he drewe nere to the Philistim.

41 ¶ And the Philistim came & diewe nere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now when the Philistim looked about and sawe Dauid, he disdained him: for he was but yong, rudely & of a comely face.

43 And the Philistim said vnto Dauid, Am

I a dog, that thou comest to me with staues? And the Philistim cursed Dauid by his gods.

He swaie by his gods that he wolde destroye him.

44 And y Philistim said to Dauid, Come to me, and I wil giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the field.

45 ¶ Thē said Dauid to y Philistim, Thou comest to me with a sworde, and with a speare, and with a shield; but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israël, whome thou hast railed vpon.

46 This day shal the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shal smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carcases of the hoste of the Philistims this day vnto the foules of the heauen, & to the beastes of the earth, y all the worlde may knowe that Israël harbe a God, Dauid being assured bothe of his cause & of his calling, prophesied of the destruction of the Philistims.

47 And that all this assemblie may knowe, that the Lord saueh not with sworde nor with speare (for the battel is the Lords) & he wil giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistim arose to come and drawe nere vnto Dauid, Dauid hastened & ran to fight against the Philistim.

Being moued with a feruent zeale to be reuenged vpon this blasphemer of Gods Name.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bag, and toke out a stone, & slang it and smote the Philistim in his forehead, that the stone stuck in his forehead, and he fel groueling to the earth.

50 So Dauid ouercame the Philistim with a sling and with a stone, & smote the Philistim, & slewe him, when Dauid had no sworde in his hand.

Eccles-47, 4. 1. MAC. 4, 30.

51 Then Dauid ran, and stode vpon the Philistim, and toke his sworde & drew it out of his sheath, and slewe him, & cut of his head therewith. So whē the Philistims sawe, that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israël and Iudáh arose, and showed, and followed after the Philistims, vntil they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Ekion: and the Philistims fel downe wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath and to Ekion.

That is, of what familie & tribe is he? or els, he had forgotten Dauid, albeit he had receiued so great a benefit by him.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The amitie of Ionathán and Dauid. 2 Saúl enuieeth Dauid for the praise that the women gaue him 11 Saúl wolde haue slayne Dauid 17 He promiseth him Merab to wife, but giueth him Michal 27 Dauid deliuereth to Saúl two hundred foreskinnes of the Philistims. 29 Saúl feareth Dauid, seing that the Lord is with him.

1 ANd when he had made an end of speaking vnto Saúl, the ^a soule of Ionathán was knyt with the soule of Dauid, and Ionathán loued him, as his owne soule.

^a His affection was fully bent toward him

2 And Saúl toke him that day, and wolde not let him retorne to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathán and Dauid made a covenant: for he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathán put of the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it Dauid, and his garments, euen to his sworde, & to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whether soeuer Saúl sent him, & behaued him selfe. ^b wisely: so that Saúl set him ouer the mé of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants.

^b That is, he prospered in all his doings.

6 ¶ When thei came againe, and Dauid returned from the slaughter of the ^c Philistim, the women came out of all cities of Israél, singing and dancing to mete King Saúl, with timbrels, with ^d instruments of ioye, and with rebeckes.

^c To wit, Goliath.

7 And the women sang by cours in their playe, & said, * Saúl hathe slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand.

^d Ebr Answered, playing Chap. 21. 11. & 29. 5 Psalms 47. 7.

8 Therefore Saúl was exceding wrath, and the saying displeased him, & he said, Thei haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, & to me thei haue ascribed ^e but a thousand, & what can he haue mote saue the kingdome?

9 Wherefore Saúl ^d had an eye on Dauid from that day forward.

^d Because he bare him enuie & hatred.

10 ¶ And on the morowe, the euil spirit of God came vpon Saúl, & he ^e prophesied in the middes of the house: and Dauid played with his hand like as at other times, and there ^f was a speare in Sauls hand.

^e That is, spoke as a madde man beside himselfe: for so the people abused this worde, when thei colde not vnderstand.

11 And Saúl toke the speare, and said, I wil smite Dauid through to y wall. But Dauid auoyded twise out of his presence.

12 And Saúl was afraid of Dauid, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saúl.

13 Therefore Saúl put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, and he went ^f out and in before the people.

^f Meaning, he was captaine ouer y people.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his waies: for the Lord ^g was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saúl sawe that he was very wise, he was afraid of him.

16 For all Israél and Iudah loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ The Saúl said to Dauid, Beholde mine eldest daughter Merab, her I wil giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, and ^h fight the Lords battels: for Saúl thought, Mine hand shal not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistims shalbe vpon him.

^g Fight against them y warre against Gods people

18 And Dauid answered Saúl, What am I, and what is my life, or the familie of my father in Israél, that I shulde be sonne in lawe to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab Sauls daughter shulde haue bene giue to Dauid, ^h she was giue vnto Adriel a Meholahite to wife.

^h By whome he had bene sonnes, which Dauid put to death at the request of the Gileadites, 2 Sam 21. 3.

20 ¶ Then Michal Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and thei shewed Saúl, & the thing pleased him.

21 Therefore Saúl said, I wil giue him her, that she may be a ⁱ snare to him, and that the had of the Philistims may be against hi. Wherefore Saúl said to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in lawe in the ^j one of the twaine.

ⁱ So his hypocrisie appeareth: for vnder pretence of rauiour he sought his destruction.

22 And Saúl comanded his seruants, Speake with Dauid secretly, and say, Beholde, the King hathe a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruants spake these wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said, ^k Semeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings sonne in lawe, seing that I am a poore man and of small reputacion?

^k Meaning, y he was not able to endowe his wife with riches.

24 And then Sauls seruants broght him worde againe, saying, Suche wordes spake Dauid.

25 And Saúl said, This wise shal ye say to Dauid, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistims, to be auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saúl thought to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philistims.

26 And when his seruants tolde Dauid these wordes, it pleased Dauid wel, to be the ^l Kings sonne in lawe: and the daies were not expyed.

^l Because he thought him selfe able to compass the Kings request.

27 Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistims two hundred men: and Dauid broght their foreskinnes, and ^m thei gaue them whole to the King that he might be the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saúl gaue him Michal his daughter to wife.

5 And Dauid said vnto Ionathán, Beholde, tomorowe is the first day of the moneth, and I shulde sit with the King at meat:
but let me go, that I may hide my selfe in 7 And if he say thus, It is wel, thy seruant shal haue peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickednes is concluded of him.

8 So shalt thou shewe mercy vnto thy seruant: *for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, &
if there be in me iniquitie, slaye thou me:
for why shuldest thou bring me to thy

9 ¶ And Ionathán answered, God kepe y^e from thee: for if I knowe that wickednes were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, wolde not I tel it thee?

^e That he were

10 Thē said Dauid to Ionathán, Who shal

swere thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathán said to Dauid, Come and let vs go out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Ionathán said to Dauid, O Lord God of Israhél, when I haue groped my fathers minde tomorowe at this time, or with in this thre dayes, & if it be wel with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shewe it thee,

13 The Lord do so & muche more vnto Ionathán: but if my father haue minde to do thee euil, I wil shewe thee also, & send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace:
and the Lord be with thee as he hath bene with my father.

14 Likewise I require not whiles I liue: for I dout not but thou wilt shewe me the mercy of the Lord, ^h that I dye not.

15 But I require that thou cut not of thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not whē the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euerie one from the earth.

16 So Ionathán made a bonde with the house of Dauid, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Ionathán sware vnto Dauid, because he loued him (for he loued him as his owne soule)

18 Thē said Ionathán to him, Tomorowe is y^e first day of the moneth: and thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shalbe empty. ⁱ Or, mentioned.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe thre

I haue spoken of, beholde, the Lord be 24 ¶ So Dauid hid him selfe in the field: & when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to eat meat.

25 And the King sate, as at other times vpō his seat, euen vpon his seat by the wall: & Ionathán arose, and Abnér sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was empty.

26 And Saúl said nothing that day: for he thoght, Some thing hath befallen him, thogh he were cleane, or els because he was not purified.

^k Yet he might haue some basines to let

27 But on the morow^e which was the secōd his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of Ishái to meat, nether yesterday nor to day?

^l Thus he of Dauid.

28 And Ionathán answered vnto Saúl, Da-uid required of me, that he might go to Bethléhem.

29 For he said, Let me go, I pray thee: for our familie offreth ^m a sacrifice in the ci-tie, and my brother hath sent for me:
therefore now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me go, I pray thee, & se my brethrē: this is the cause that he cometh not vnto the Kings table.

^m That is a

30 Then was Saúl angry with Ionathán, & said vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I knowe, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishái to thy confusio and to the confusio and shame of thy mother?

^o Thou art e-uer contrary vnto me as thy mother is.

31 For as long as the sonne of Ishái liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he shal surely dye.

^p Ebr. sonne of 32 And Ionathán answered vnto Saúl his father,

father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shal he dye: what hathe he done?

33 And Saúl cast a speare at him to hit him, whereby Ionathán knewe, that it was determined of his father to slaye Dauid.

34 ¶ So Ionathán arose from the table in a great angre, and did eat no meat the secód day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, and because his father had reuiled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Ionathán went out into the field, and at the time appointed with Dauid, and a litle boy with him.

36 And he said vnto his boy, Runne now, seke the arrowes which I shoote, & as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyonde him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Ionathán had shot, Ionathán cryed after the boy, & said, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

38 And Ionathán cryed after the boy, Make speede, haste and stand not stil: and Ionathás boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master, 39 But the boy knewe nothing: onely Ionathán and Dauid knewe the matter.

40 Then Ionathán gaue his bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, & said vnto him, Go, carie them into the citie.

41 ¶ As sone as the boy was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the South, and fel on his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe thre times: and they kyssed one an other, and wept bothe twaine, til Dauid exceded.

42 Therefore Ionathán said to Dauid, Go in peace: that which we haue sworne bothe of vs in the Name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be betwene me & thee, and betwene my seede and betwene thy seede, let it stand for euer.

43 And he arose and departed, and Ionathán went into the citie.

1 THEN came Dauid to Nob, to Ahimélech the Priest, and Ahimélech was astonied at the meeting of Dauid, and said vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no mā with thee?

2 And Dauid said to Ahimélech the Priest, The King hathe commanded me a certeine thing, and hathe said vnto me, Let no man knowe whereabout I send thee, & what I haue commanded thee, and I haue appointed my seruants to suche and suche places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hand, giue me fīue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, & said, There is no commune bread vnder mine hand, but here is halowed bread, if yong men haue kept them selues, at least from women.

5 Dauid then answered the Priest, and said vnto him, Certeinly women haue bene separate frō vs these two or thre dayes since I came out: and the vessels of yong men were holy, though the way were prophane, & how muche more then shal euery one be sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was no bread there, saue the shewbread that was takē from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saúl abiding before the Lord, named Doég the Edomite, the chiefest of Sauls herdemen)

8 And Dauid said vnto Ahimélech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sword? for I haue nether brought my sword nor mine haines with me, because the Kings busines required haste.

9 And y Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistim, whome thou slewest in the valley of Eláh, beholde, it is wrapt in a clothe behinde the Ephód: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that here, & Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

10 And Dauid arose & fled the same day from the presence of Saúl, & went to Achish the King of Gath.

11 And the seruants of Achish said vnto hī, Is not this Dauid the King of the land? did they not sing vnto him in dances, saying, Saúl hathe slaine his thousand, & Dauid his ten thousand?

12 And Dauid considered these wordes, & was fore afraid of Achish the King of Gath.

13 And he chāged his behauiour before thé, and fained him selfe mad in their hands, & scrabled on the dores of the gate, & let his spetle fall downe vpon his bearde.

David therefore departed thence, and ^a said him selfe in the caue ^a of Adullám: and when his brethren and all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

^a Which was in the tribe of Iudáh and nere to Beth-léhem.

2 And there gathered vnto him all mé that were in trouble and all men that were in det, & all those that were vexed in minde, and he was their prince, and there were with him about foure hundred men.

^b Or, captain.

3 And David went thence to Mizpéh in Moáb, and said vnto the King of Moáb, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, til I knowe what God will do for me.

^c For there was another so called in Iudáh.

4 And he ^c broght them before the King of Moáb, and they dwelt with him all the while that David kept him selfe in ^d the holde.

^e For he feared the rage of Saul against his house. ^d That is, in Mizpéh, which was a strong holde.

5 And the Prophet Gad said vnto David, Abide not in the holde, but departe & go into the lād of Iudáh. Thē David departed and came into the forest of Hárezh.

6 And Saúl heard that David was ^e discovered, and the men that were with him, and Saúl remained in Gibeáh vnder a tre in Ramáh, hauing his speare in his hand, and all his men stode about him.

7 And Saúl said vnto his seruáts that stode about him, Heare now, ye sonnes ^f of Iemini, wil the sonne of Ishái giue euerie one of you fields and vineyardes? wil he make you all captaines ouer thousands, & captaines ouer hundredths?

^f Ye that are of my tribe & lineage.

8 That all ye haue cōspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a couenant with ^g y sonne of Ishái? & there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth me, that my ^g sonne hath stirred vp my seruant to lye in wait against me, as ^h appeareth this day.

^g Hereby he wolde perswade the y this cōspiracie was moſte horrible, where the sonne cōspired against the father, and the seruant against his master.

9 Thē answered Doég the Edomite (who was appointed ouer the seruants of Saúl) and said, I sawe the sonne of Ishái when he came to Nob, to Ahimélech the sonne of Ahitúb, 10 Who asked counſel of the Lord for him & gaue him vitails, and he gaue him also the sworde of Goliáth the Philistín.

11 Then the King sent to call Ahimélech the Priest the sonne of Ahitúb, and all his fathers house, ⁱ to wit, ⁱ the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.

^h Which were the remnant of the house of Eli, whose house God threatened to destroye.

12 And Saúl said, Heare now, thou sonne of Ahitúb. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 Then Saúl said vnto him, Why haue ye cōspired against me, thou and the sonne of Ishái, in that thou hast giuen him vitails, and a sworde, and hast asked counſel of God for him, that he shulde rise against me, & lye in waite as appeareth this day?

14 And Ahimélech answered the King, & said, Who is so faithfull among all thy seruáts as David, being also the Kings sonne in lawe, & goeth at thy commandement, and is honorable in thine house?

15 Haue I this day first begon to aske counſel of God for him? he is far fró me, let not the King impute any thing vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruant knewe nothing of all this, lesse nor more.

ⁱ Haue I not at other times alſo, whē he had great affaires, consulted w the Lord for him?

16 Then the King said, Thou shalt surely dye, Ahimélech, thou, and all thy fathers house.

17 And the King said vnto the ^j sergents that stode about him, Turne, & slaye the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with David, and because they knewe when he fled, and shewed it not to me. But the seruáts of the King ^k wolde not moue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord.

^j Or, sergents.

18 Thē the King said to Doég, Turne thou and fall vpon the Priests. And Doég the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priests, and slewe that same day foure score and siue persones that did weare a linen Ephód:

^k For thei knewe y thei ought not to obey y wicked cōmandement of the King in slaying y innocents.

19 Also Nob the citie of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sworde, bothe man and woman, bothe childe and suckling, bothe ox and asse, and shepe with the edge of the sworde.

20 But one of the sonnes of Ahimélech the sonne of Ahitúb (whose name was Abiathár) ^l escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abiathár shewed David, that Saúl had slaine the Lords Priests.

22 And David said vnto Abiathár, I knewe it the same day, when Doég the Edomite was there, that he wolde tel Saúl. I am the cause of the death of all the persones of thy fathers house.

^l This was Gods providence, who according to his promises preferred some of the House of Eli, Chap. 41.

10 Then said Dauid, O Lord God of Israël, thy seruant hath heard, that Saúl is about to come to Keilah to destroy the citie for my sake.

11 Wil the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand: and wil Saúl come downe, as thy seruant hath heard? O Lord God of Israël, I beseeche thee, tel thy seruant. And the Lord said, He wil come downe.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuél dyeth. 3 Nabál & Abigáil 38 The Lord kil- leth Nabál 43 Abigáil & Ahimám Dauids wives. 44 Michal is giuen to Phalti.

- 1 ¶ Then Samuél dyed, and all Iſraél aſſembled, and mourned for him, & buried him in his owne houſe at Ramáh. And Dauid aroſe and went downe to the wildernes of Parán.
- 2 Now in Maón was a man, who had his poſſeſſion in Carmél, and the man was exceeding mighty and had thre thouſand ſhepe, and a thouſand goates: and he was ſheering his ſhepe in Carmél.
- 3 The name alſo of the man was Nabál, & the name of his wife Abigáil, and ſhe was a woman of ſingular wiſdome, and beautiful, but the man was churlifh, and euil conditioned, and was of the familie of Caléb.
- 4 And Dauid heard in the wildernes, that Nabál did there his ſhepe.
- 5 Therefore Dauid ſent ten yong men, & Dauid ſaid vnto the yong men, Go vp to Carmél, and go to Nabál, and aſke him in my name how he doeth.
- 6 And thus ſhal ye ſay eⁿ for ſalutation, Bothe y^e, and thine houſe, and all that thou haſt, be in peace, welth, and proſperitie.
- 7 Beholde, I haue heard, that thou haſt ſheers: now thy ſhepherds were with vs, and we did them no hurt, nether did they miſſe anie thing all the while they were in Carmél.
- 8 Aſke thy ſeruants & they wil ſhewe thee. Wherefore let theſe yōg mé finde fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good ſeaſon) giue, I praye thee, whatſoeuer cometh to thine hand vnto thy ſeruants, & to thy ſonne Dauid.
- 9 ¶ And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabál all theſe wordes in the name of Dauid, and helde their peace.
- 10 Then Nabál answered Dauids ſeruants, and ſaid, Who is Dauid? and who is the ſonne of Iſhái? there is manie ſeruants now a dayes, that breake awayes euery mā from his maſter.

- 11 Shal I then take my bread, & my water, & my fleſh that I haue killed for my ſhe-rers, and giue it vnto mé, whome I knowe not whence thei be?
- 12 ¶ So Dauid's ſeruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all thoſe things.
- 13 And Dauid ſaid vnto his men, Girde e-uery man his ſworde about him. And they girded euery man his ſworde: Dauid alſo girded his ſworde. And about foure hundred men went vp after Dauid, and two hundred abode by the " carriage.
- 14 Now one of the ſeruants tolde Abigáil Nabals wiſe, ſaying, Beholde, Dauid ſent meſſengers out of the wildernes to ſalute our maſter, and he " rayled on them.
- 15 Notwithſtanding the men were very good " vnto vs, and we had no diſpleaſure, nether miſſed we any thing as long as we were conuerſant with them, when we were in the fields.
- 16 Thei were as a wall vnto vs bothe by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping ſhepe.
- 17 Now therefore take hede, and ſe what thou ſhalt do: for euil " wil ſurely come vpon our maſter, and vpon all his familie:
for he is ſo wicked " y a man can not ſpeake to him.
- 18 ¶ Then Abigáil made haſte, and toke two hundred " cakes, and two bottles of wine, and five ſhepe ready dreſſed, & five meaſures of parched corne, and an hundred " ſiailes of Raiſins, and two hundred of figges, and laded them on aſſes.
- 19 Then ſhe ſaid vnto her ſeruants, Go ye before me: beholde, I wil come after you:
yet ſhe tolde " not her houſband Nabál.
- 20 And as ſhe rode on her aſſe, ſhe came downe by a ſecret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe againſt her, and ſhe met them.
- 21 And Dauid ſaid, In dede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellowe had in the wil-dernes, ſo that nothing was miſſed of all that pertained vnto him: for he hathe requited me euil for good.
- 22 So and more alſo do God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for ſurely I wil not leaue of all that he hathe, by the dawning of the day, any that " ſiſſeth againſt the wall.
- 23 And when Abigáil ſawe Dauid, ſhe ha-ſted and lighted of her aſſe, & fel before Dauid on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the ground,
- 24 And fel at his fete, & ſaid, Oh, my lord,
I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmaid ſpeake " to thee, & heare thou the wordes of thine hádmayd.
- 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regarde this wicked man Nabál: for as his name is, ſo is he: " Nabál is his name, and ſoly " with him: but I thine handmayd ſawe not the yong men of my lord whome " ſenteſt.
- 26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord li-ueth, and as thy ſoule liueth (the Lord, "
ſay, that hathe withholdē thee from com-ming to ſhed blood, and that " thine hand ſhulde not ſaue thee) ſo now thine enemies ſhalbe as Nabál, and thei that intende to do my lord euil.
- 27 And now, this " bleſſing which thine handmayd hathe broght vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yongmé, that " ſol- lowe my lord.
- 28 I pray thee, forgiue the treſpaſſe of thine handmayd: for the Lord wil make my lord a " ſure houſe, becauſe my lord ſigh-teth the battels of the lord and none euil hathe bene founde in thee " in all thy life.
- 29 Yet " a man hathe riſen vp to perſecute thee, and to ſeke thy ſoule, but the ſoule of my lord ſhalbe bounde in the " bundel of life with the Lord thy God: and the ſoule of thine enemies ſhal God caſt out, as out of the midle of a ſling.
- 30 And when the Lord ſhal haue done to my lord all the good that he hathe promi-ſed thee, and ſhal haue made thee ruler ouer Iſraél,
- 31 Then ſhal it be no grief vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hathe not ſhed blood cauſeles, nor that my lord hathe " not preſe:ued him ſelfe: & whē the Lord ſhal haue dealt wel with my lord, remember thine handmayd.
- 32 Then Dauid ſaid to Abigáil, Bleſſed be the Lord God of Iſraél, which ſent thee this day to meete me.
- 33 And bleſſed be thy counſel, and bleſſed be thou, which haſte kept me this day ſiō comming to ſhed blood, " and that mine hand hathe not ſaued me.
- 34 For in dede, as the Lord God of Iſraél liueth, " who hathe kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddeſt haſted and met me, ſurely there had not bene left vnto Nabál by the dawning of the day, any that " ſiſſeth againſt the wall.
- 35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which ſhe had broght him, & ſaid to her, Go vp in peace to thine houſe: beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue " granted thy petition.
- 36 ¶ So Abigáil came to Nabál, & beholde, he made a feaſt in his houſe, like the feaſt of a King, and Nabals heart was mery within him, for he was very drōken: whereſore ſhe tolde him " nothing, nether leſſe nor more, vntil the morning aroſe.
- 37 Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabál, his wiſe tolde him thoſe wordes, & his heart dyed within him, and he was like " a ſtone.

smote Nabál, that he dyed.

39 ¶ Now when Dauid heard, that Nabál was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabál, & hath kept his seruant from euil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednes of Nabál vpon his owne head. Also Dauid sent to commune with Abigáil to take her to his wife.

^{40r, renewed.}

^f For he had experience of her great godlines, wildome & humilitie.

40 And when the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigáil to Carmél, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed her self on her face to the earth, & said, Beholde, let thy hand mayd be a seruant to wash the fete of the seruants of my lord.

^{42r, went as her fete.}

42 And Abigáil hasted, and arose, and rode vpon an asse, & her five maids^g followed her, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and was his wife.

^{10th 15, 15.}

43 Dauid also toke Ahinóam of^{*} Izreél, & thei were bothe his wiues.

^{11. Sam. 3, 15.}

44 Now Saúl had giue^{*} Michál his daughter Dauids wife to Phaltí the sonne of Láish, which was of^h Gallím.

ⁱ Which was a place bordering on the country of the Moabites.

CHAP. XXVI.

^{Chap. 23, 19.}

^{40r, in Gibeáh.}

^{40r, the milý daret.}

1 A Gaine the Ziphims came vnto Saúl to Gibeáh, saying, * Doeth not Dauid hide him selfeⁱ in the hil of Hachiláh before^j Ieshimón?

2 Then Saúl arose, and went downe to the wilderness of Ziph, hauing thre thousand^k chosen men of Israél with him, for to seke Dauid in the wilderness of Ziph.

^a That is, of the moste skilful and valiant soldiers.

3 And Saúl pitched in the hil of Hachiláh, which is before Ieshimón by the waye side. Now Dauid abode in the wilderness, and he sawe that Saúl came after him into the wilderness.

^{40r, so a certaine place.}

4 (For Dauid had sent out spies, & vnderstode, that Saúl was come^l in very dede)

5 Then Dauid arose, and came to the place where Saúl had pitched, and when Dauid beheld the place where Saúl lay, & * Abnér the sonne of Ner which was his chief captaine, (for Saúl lay in the forte, and the people pitched round about him)

^{Chap. 14, 10. & 17, 55.}

6 Then spake Dauid, & said to Ahimélech the^m Hittite, and to Abishái the sonne of Zeruiáh, brother toⁿ Ioáb, saying, Who wil go downe with me to Saúl to the hoste? Then Abishái said, I wil go downe with thet.

^b Who was a stranger & not an Israelite. ^c Who afterwarde was Dauids chief captaine.

7 So Dauid & Abishái came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saúl laye sleping within the forte, & his speare did sticke in the grounde at his^o head: and Abnér and the people lay round about him.

^{40r, disliker.}

8 ¶ The said Abishái to Dauid, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to^p the earth, and I wil not smite him^q againe.

9 And Dauid said to Abishái, Destroye him not: for who can lay his hand^r on the Lords anointed, and be giltles?

^d Meaning, he wolde make him sure at one stroke. ^e To wit, in his owne priuate cause: for Iehu slew two Kings at Gods appointment, 2. King. 9, 24.

10 Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, ether the Lord shal smite him, or his day shal come to dye, or he shal descende into battel, and perishe.

11 The Lord kepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lords anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs go hence.

12 So Dauid toke the speare and the pot of water from Sauls head, & thei gate them away, and no man sawe it, nor marked it, nether did any awake, but thei were all aslepe: for^s the Lord had sent a dead slepe vpon them.

^{40r, the dead slepe of the Lord was fallen vpon them.}

13 Then Dauid went into the other side, & stode on^t the toppe of an hil a far of, a great space being betwene them.

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abnér the sonne of Ner, saying, Hearest thou not Abnér? Then Abnér answered, and said, Who art thou that cryest to the King?

^{40r, answered.}

15 ¶ And Dauid said to Abnér, Art not^u a man^v and who is like thee in Israél? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the King^w for there came one of the folke in to destroye the King thy lord.

^f Effected me. ^g He valiant, and mete to saue the King?

16 This is not wel done of thee: as the Lord liueth, ye are^x worthy to dye, because ye haue not kept your master the Lords Anointed: and now se where the Kings speare is, and the pot of water that was at his head.

^{40r, sonnes of death.}

17 And Saúl knewe Dauids voyce, & said, Is this thy voyce, & my sonne Dauid? And Dauid said, It is my voyce, my lord^y O King.

^g Hereby it appeareth, y the hypocrite persecuted Dauid against his owne conscience, and contrary to his promises.

18 And he said, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done? or what euil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I beseeche thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seruant. If the Lord haue stured thee vp against me, let him smel the saour of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, cursed be thei before the Lord: for thei haue cast me out this day fro abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serue other^z gods.

^h Let his anger towards vs be pacified by a sacrifice.

20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israél is come out to seke a flye, as one wolde hunt a partridge in the mountaines.

ⁱ As much as laye in them, they compelled him to idolatrie, because they forced him to see to the idolaters.

21 Then

21 Then said Saúl, I haue sinned : come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I wil do thee nomore harme, because my soule was ^kprecious in thine eyes this day: beholde, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly.

^k Because thou sinnedst my life this day

22 Then Dauid answered, & said, Beholde the Kings speare, let one of the yong me come ouer and fet it.

23 And let the Lord rewarde euerie man according to his ^lrighteousnes & faithfulness: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine háds this daie, but I wolde not lay mine hand vpon the Lords anointed.

^l Thus he professeth his innocencie toward Saúl not defending his justice in the sight of God, in whose presence none is righteous, Psal 143, and 110, 3.

24 And beholde, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulacion.

25 Then Saúl said to Dauid, Blessed art thou, my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt do great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saúl returned to his m place.

^m To Gibeath of Beniamin

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achísh King of Gath, who giueth him Ziklag. 8 Dauid destroyeth certeine of the Philistims. 10 Achísh is deuyed by Dauid.

1 ANd Dauid said in his heart, I shal now ^aperish one day by the hand of Saúl: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the land of the Philistims, and that Saúl may haue no hope of me to seke me anie more in all the coastes of Israël, and so escape out of his hand?

^a Dauid distrusteth Gods protection, and therefore fleeth vnto the idolaters, who were enemies to Gods people

2 Dauid therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him, wet vnto Achísh the sonne of Maóch King of Gath.

3 And Dauid ^bdwelt with Achísh at Gath, he, and his men, euerie man with his household, Dauid with his two wiues, Abinóam the Izreelite, and Abigáil Nabals wife the Carmelite.

^b Thus God by his providence chageth the enemies hearts & maketh them to fauour him, in their necessities

4 And it was tolde Saúl that Dauid was fled to Gath: so he sought nomore for him.

5 And Dauid said vnto Achísh, If I haue now founde grace in thine eyes, let them giue me a place in some ^cother cite of the countrey, that I may dwel there: for why shulde thy seruant dwel in the head cite of the kingdome with thee?

^c Let thine officers appoint me a place.

6 Then Achísh gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the Kings of Iudáh vnto this day.

^d In the night of the day

7 And ^dthe time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certeine dayes.

8 Then Dauid and his men went vp, and inuaded the ^eGeshurites, and the Girzites and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the land from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the land of Egypt.

^e These were the wicked Canaanites, whom God had appointed to be destroyed.

9 And Dauid smote the land, & left nether man nor woman aliue, and toke shepe, & oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparel, and returned and came to Achísh.

10 And Achísh said, ^eWhere haue ye bené a rousing this day? And Dauid answered, Against the Southe of Iudáh, and against ^fthe Southe of the ^gIerameelites, & against the Southe of the Kenites.

^e Or, against whome.

^f Which were a familie of the tribe of Iudáh, 1. Chro 29.

11 And Dauid saved nether man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they shulde tel on vs, and say, So did Dauid, and so will be his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistims.

12 And Achísh beleued Dauid, saying, He hath made his people of Israël vtterly to abhorre him: therefore he shaibe my seruant for euer.

^g Or, he doeth vtterly abhorre his people.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Dauid hathe the chief charge promised about Achísh. 8 Saúl consulteth with a witch, and she causeth him to speake with Samuél. 18 Who declareth his rume.

1 NOW at that time the Philistims assembled their bandes and armie to fight with Israël: therefore Achísh said to Dauid, ^aBe sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battel, thou, and thy men.

^a Albeit it was a great griefe to Dauid to fight against the people of God, yet such was his infirmite, he durst not deny him

2 And Dauid said to Achísh, Surely thou shalt knowe what thy seruant can do. And Achísh said to Dauid, Surely I wil make thee keeper of mine head for euer.

3 ^b(Samuél was then dead, and all Israël had lamented him, and buried him in Ramáh his owne cite: and Saúl had ^cput away the forcerers, and the sothesayers out of the land)

^b Chap 25, 1.

4 Then the Philistims assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shuném: and Saúl assembled all Israël, & they pitched in Gilboa.

^c According to the commandement of God, Exod 22, 18. Deut 18, 10.

5 And when Saúl sawe the hoste of the Philistims, he was afrayed, and his heart was fore astonied.

6 Therefore Saúl asked counsel of ^dthe Lord, & the Lord answered him not, nether by dreames, nor by ^eVrim, nor yet by Prophetes.

^e Meaning the Urim & Thummim, Exod 28, 30.

7 ¶ Then said Saúl vnto his seruants, Seke me a woman that hathe a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Beholde, there is a woman at Endor that hathe a familiar spirit.

8 Then Saúl ^dchanged him selfe, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two me with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him vp whome I shal name vnto thee.

^d He seeketh not to God in his miserie, but is led by Satan to vnlawful means, which in his conscience he condemneeth

9 And the woman said vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saúl hathe done, how he hathe destroyed the forcerers, and the so the sayers out of the land: wherefore the sekeith thou to take me in a snare to cause me to dye?

Or, said she to him.

10 And Saúl sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shal come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the womā, Whome shal I bring vp vnto thee? And he answered, Bring me vp * Samuél.

e He speaketh according to his grosse ignorance, not considering the state of the Saints after this life, and howe Satan hathe no power ouer the 12 And when the woman sawe Samuél, she cryed with a loude voyce, and the woman spake to Saúl, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saúl.

13 And the King said vnto her, Be not afayed: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saúl, I sawe gods ascēding vp out of the earth.

14 Then he said vnto her, What facion is he of? And she answered, An olde man cometh vp lapped in a mantel: and Saúl knewe that it was f Samuél, and he enclined his face to the ground, & bowed him selfe.

f To his imaginaciō, albeit it was Saúl, who so blinde his eyes toke vpon him the forme of Samuél as he cā do of an Angel of light

He by the hād of Prophet

15 ¶ And Samuél said to Saúl, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saúl answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, & God is departed frō me, and answereth me no more, nether by Prophetes nether by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tel me, what I shal do.

16 Then said Samuél, Wherefore the doest thou aske of me, seing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy?

g That is, to Dauid.

Chap 23, 28.

Or, minister

17 Euen the Lord hathe done to g him, as he spake * by mine hand: for the Lord wil rent the kingdome out of thine hand, and giue it thy neighbour Dauid.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his feare wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hathe the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 Moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Israël with thee into the hāds of the Philistims: h and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me, & the Lord shal giue the hoste of Israël into the hands of the Philistims.

h Ye shal be dead, Chap 23, 6

20 Then Saúl fel streyght way all along on the earth, and was sore i afayed because of the wordes of Samuél, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

i The wicked, whē they heare Gods iudgements, tremble and despair, but can not seke for mercie by repentance.

21 Then the woman came vnto Saúl, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and said vnto him, Se, thine handmayd hathe obeyed thy voyce, & I k haue put my soule in mine hand, and haue obeyed thy wordes which thou saidest vnto me.

k I haue renoued my life.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee, that thou mayest eat & get thee strength, and go on thy iourney.

23 But he refused, and said, I wil not eat: but his seruants and the woman together compelled him, & he obeyed their voyce. so he arose from the earth, and sate on the bed.

24 Now the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and toke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it l vnleauened bread.

l Because it required haste.

25 Then she brought them before Saúl, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stode vp, and went away the same night.

CHAP. XXIX.

4 The princes of the Philistims cause Dauid to be sent backe from the battel against Israël, because they distrust him.

1 SO the Philistims were gathered together with all their armies in Aphék: & the Israelites pitched by the founteine, Or, in Ain. which is in Izreél.

Or, captiues.

2 And the princes of the Philistims went forth by a hundreths and thousands, but Dauid and his men came behinde with Achísh.

a According to their bandes, or squadres.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistims, What do these Ebrewes here? And Achísh said vnto the princes of the Philistims, Is not this Dauid y seruant of Saúl the King of Israël, who hathe bene with me these dayes, b or these yeres, and I haue founde nothing in him, since he dwelt with me vnto this day?

b Meaning, a long tyme, y is foure monethes and certeyne dayes, Chap 27, 7. "Ebr fell, as Gen. chap 25, 18. 1 Chr 12, 19.

c Wolde not Saúl receiue him to fauour, if he colde betraye vs?

Chap 28, 7. Or 21, 11.

5 Is not this Dauid, of whome they sang in dances, saying, * Saúl slewe his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand?

6 ¶ The Achísh called Dauid, & said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vpriight and good in my sight, when thou d wentest out and in with me in the hoste, nether haue I founde euil with thee, since y camest to me vnto this daye, but e the princes do not fauour thee.

d That is, was conuersant w me "Ebr thou art good in the eyes of the princes.

7 Wherefore now returne, and go in peace, that thou displeasē not the princes of the Philistims.

8 ¶ And Dauid said vnto Achísh, But what haue I done? and what hast thou founde in thy seruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may e not go & fight against the enemies of my lord the King?

e This dissimulation can not be excused: for it grieued him to go against his people of God.

9 Achísh the answered, and said to Dauid, I knowe thou pleasest me, as an Angel of

God:

God: but the princes of the Philistims haue said, Let him not go vp wth vs to battel.

f With them that fled vnto cace frō saul.

30 Wherefore now rise vp early in y^e morning with thy f^r masters seruants that are come with thee: and when ye be vp early, allone as ye haue light, departe.

31 So Dauid and his men rose vp early to departe in the morning, and to returne into the land of the Philistims: & the Philistims went vp to Izreél.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklág. 5 Dauids two wiues are taken prisoners 6 The people wold stone him. 8 He asketh counsel of the Lord and pursuing his enemies, recouereth the praye. 24 He deuoth himself equally. 36 And sendeth parte to his friends.

a After that he departed from Achish. b That is, destroyed y^e citie.

1 BVt when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklág a the third day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklág, and had b smitten Ziklág, and burnt it with fire,

2 And had taken the women that were therein prisoners, bothe small and great, and slewe not a man, but caryed them away, and went their wayes.

c For these onely remained in the citie, when the mē were gone to warre.

3 ¶ So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, and their c wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then Dauid & the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntil they colde wepe nomore.

5 Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinóam the Izreélite, and Abigáil the wife of Nabál the Carmelite.

d Thus we se, ym troubles & aduersitie we do not consider Gods prouidence, but like raging beastes forget bothe our owne duettie and comēne Gods appointment ouer vs.

6 And Dauid was in great sorowe: for the people d entended to stone him, because the heartes of all the people were vexed euerie mā for his sonnes and for his daughters: but Dauid comforted him selfe in the Lord his God.

7 ¶ And Dauid said to Abiathár the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephód. And Abiathár brought the Ephód to Dauid.

8 Then Dauid asked counsel at the Lord, saying, Shal I followe after this companie? shal I ouertake them? And he answered him, Followe: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and e recouer all.

e Though God seeme to leaue vs for a time, yet if we trust in him, we shal be sure to finde comforte.

9 ¶ So Dauid and the six hundreth mē that were with him, wēt, and came to the riuer Besór, where a parte of them abode:

10 But Dauid and foure hundreth men followed (for two hundreth abode behinde, being to wearye to go ouer y^e riuer Besór)

11 And they founde an Egyptiá in the field, and brought him to Dauid, and gaue him f bread and he did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke.

f God by his prouidence bothe provided for the necessitie of this poore strāger, and made him a guide to Dauid to accomplish his enterprise.

12 Also they gaue him a fewe figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor dronke anie water in thre dayes, and thre nights.

13 ¶ And Dauid said vnto him, To whome belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a yong mā of Egypt, and seruānt to an Amalekite: and my master left me thre daies ago, because I fellicke.

14 We roued vpon the South of Chéreth, & vpon the coast belonging to Iudáh, and vpon the South of Caléb, and we burnt Ziklág with fire.

15 And Dauid said vnto him, Canst thou bring me to this companie? And he said, I sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt nether kil me, nor deliuer me into the hands of my master, and I wil bring thee to this companie.

g For othes were in all ages had in moke reuerence euen among the heathen

16 ¶ And when he had brought him thither, beholde, they lay scatered abroad vpon all the earth, h eating and drinking, & dancing, because of all y^e great pray that thei had taken out of the land of y^e Philistims, and out of the land of Iudáh.

h The wicked in their pōpe and pleasures consider not y^e iudgement of God, which is the at hand to smite them.

17 And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening i of the next morowe, so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundreth yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled.

i Some reade, & vnto y^e morowe of y^e two evening: that is, thre daies.

18 And Dauid recouered all that y^e Amalekites had takē: also Dauid rescued his two wiues.

19 And thei lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all.

20 Dauid also toke all the shepe, and the oxē, & they draue them before his cattel, and said, This is Dauids k praye.

k Which the Amalekites had taken of others, & Dauid from the besides the goods of Ziklág.

21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundreth mē that were to wearie for to followe Dauid: whome they had made also to abide at the riuer Besór: and they came to mete Dauid, and to mete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came nere to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the euil and wicked of the mē that went with Dauid, and said, Because they went not with vs, therefore wil we giue them none of the praye, that we haue recouered, saue to euery man his l wife and his children: therefore let them cary them away and departe.

l Vnder these are comprehēded the cattel and goods, w^{ch} appertained to euery man.

23 Then said Dauid, Ye shal not do so, my biethren, with that which the Lord hathe giuen vs, who hathe preferred vs, and deliuered the companie that came against vs, into our handes.

24 For who wil obey you in this matter? but as his parte is that goeth downe to the battel, so shal his parte be, that tareth by the stuffe: they shal parte alike.

m Some referre these wordes to Dauid, that he ledged an olde curome & law, as if it were writ, It is bothe now and hath bene euer.

25 M So from that day forward hee made it a statute and a lawe in Israél, vntil this day.

26 ¶ When Dauid therefore came to Ziklág, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudáh & to his friends, saying, Se, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

27 He sent to them of Beth-él, and to them of South Ramóth, and to them of Iattír, 28 And to them of Aroér, and to them of Siphmóth, and to them of Eshtemóa,

29 And to them of Rachál, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them of Hormáh, & to them of Chor-ashán, and to them of Athách, 31 And to them of Hebrón, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had hanted.

THE SECONDE BOKE of Samuél.

THE ARGUMENT.

This boke and the former beare the title of Samuel, because they containe the conception, nativitie and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and actes of two Kings, to wit, of Saúl and Dauid, whome he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first boke containeth those things, which God broght to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel and Saúl: so this seconde boke declareth the noble actes of Dauid, after the death of Saúl, when he began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdom: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles & dangers, which he sustained bothe within his house and without: what horrid & dangerous insurrections, vprores, & treasons were wrought against him, partly by false counsellers, flattered friends & flatterers, and partly by some of his owne children and people and how by Gods assistance he overcame all difficulties, and enioyed his kingdom in rest and peace. In the persone of Dauid the Scripture teacheth for the Christ Iesus the chief King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on euery side with outward and inward enemies, as wel in his owne persone, as in his members, but at length he overcometh all his enemies and giueth his Church victorie against all power bothe spiritual & temporal: and so reigneth with them, King for euermore.

g Psal 109, 17.

After the death of Saúl, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites and had bene two dayes in Ziklag, Beholde, a man came the third day out of the hoste from Saúl with his clothes red, and earth vpon his head: & when he came to Dauid, he fel to the earth, and did obeisance.

Then Dauid said vnto him, Whence comest thou? And he said vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israël I am escaped.

And Dauid said vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tel me. Thē he said, y^e the people is fled from the battel, and many of y^e people are ouerthrowen, and dead, and also Saúl and Ionathán his sonne are dead.

And Dauid said vnto the yong man, that tolde it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Ionathán his sonne be dead?

Then the yong man that tolde him, answered, b As I came to mount Gilboa, beholde, Saúl leane vpon his speare, and lo, the charets and c horsemen followed hard after him.

And whē he looked backe, he sawe me, and called me And I answered, Here am I.

And he said vnto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an c Amalekite.

Then said he vnto me, I pray thee, come vpon me, and slaye me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my d life is yet whole in me.

So e I came vpon him, and slewe him, & because I was sure that he colde not liue, after that he had fallen, I toke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and broght thē hither vnto my lord.

Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, & rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

And they mourned and wept, and fasted vntile euen, for Saúl and for Ionathán his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, and for the house of Israël, because they were slaine with the sworde.

f Afterward Dauid said vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

And Dauid said vnto him, * How wast thou not afrayed, to put forth the thine hand to destroy the Anoynted of the Lord?

Then Dauid called one of his yong mē, & said, Go nere, and fall vpo him. And he smote him that he dyed.

Thē said Dauid vnto him, f Thy blood be vpon thine owne head, for thine owne mouth hath testified agāst thee, saying, I haue slaine the Lords Anoynted.

Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionathán his sonne,

(Also he bade them teache the children of Iudá to g shoote, as it is written in y^e boke of * h Iasbér)

O noble Israël, h he is slaine vpon thy hie places: how are the mighty ouerthrowen?

* Tel it not in Gath, nor publish it in the stretes of Ashkelón, lest the daughters of the Philistims reioyce, lest the daughters of the vncircumcised triumphe.

Ye mountaines of Gilboa, vpon you be nether dewe nor raine, nor i k there fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mightie is cast downe, the shield of Saúl, as thogh he had not bene anoynted with oyle.

The bowe of Ionathán neuer turned backe, nether did the sworde of Saúl retorne empty from the blood of the slaine, and from the fat of the mighty.

Saúl and Ionathán were louely and pleasant in their liues, and in their deathes they were not k deuided: they were swifter the negles, they were strōge then lions.

Ye daughters of Israël, wepe for Saúl, which clothed you in ska: let, l with pleasures, and hanged ornaments of golde vpon your appaie.

How were the mighty slaine in the middes of the battel? o Ionathán, thou wast slaine in thine hie places.

Wo is me for thee, my brother Ionathán: very kinde hast thou bene vnto me: thy loue to me was wonderful, passing y^e loue of m women: how are the mighty o uerthrowen, and the weapons of waie destroyed?

- 5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the mé of Iabésh Gileád, & said vnto them, Blessed are ye of y Lord, that ye haue shewed suche kindenes vnto your lord Saúl, that you haue buried him.
- 6 Therefore now the Lord shewe mercie and ^dtrueth vnto you: and I wil recompence you this benefite, because ye haue done this thing.
- 7 Therefore now let your hands be strö, and be you valiant: albeit your master Saúl be dead, yet neuertheless the house of Iudáh hath anointed me ^e King ouer them.
- 8 ¶ But Abnér the sonne of Ner that was captaine of Sauls hoste, toke Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl, and broght him to Mahanáim,
- 9 And made him King ouer Gileád, and ouer the Ashurites, and ouer Izreél, and ouer Ephráim, and ouer Beniamín, and ouer ^fall Isráél.
- 10 Ish-bósheth Sauls sonne was fourty yere olde when he began to reigne ouer Isráél, and reigned two yere: but the house of Iudáh followed Dauid.
- 11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebrón ouer the house of Iudáh, was seuē yere and six monethes)
- 12 ¶ And Abnér the sonne of Ner, and the seruants of Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl went out of Mahanáim to Gibeón.
- 13 And Ioáb the sonne of Zeruiáh, and the seruants of Dauid went out and met one an other by the poole of Gibeón: and they fite downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side of the poole.
- 14 Then Abnér said to Ioáb, Let the yong men now arise, and ^h playe before vs. And Ioáb said, Let them arise.
- 15 Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Beniamín by number, which pertained to Ish-bósheth the sonne of Saúl, and twelue of the seruants of Dauid.
- 16 And euerie one caught ⁱ his fellowe by the head, & thrust his sworde in his fellowes side, so they fel downe together: wherefore the place was called Helkath-hazzurim which is in Gibeón.
- 17 And the battel was exceeding sore that same day: for Abnér and the men of Isráél fel before the seruants of Dauid.
- 18 And there were thre sonnes of Zeruiáh there, Ioáb, and Abishái, and Asahél. And Asahél was as light on foote as a wilde roe.
- 19 And Asahél followed after Abnér, & in

- 20 Then Abnér looked behinde him, & said, Art thou Asahél? And he answered, Yea.
- 21 Then Abnér said, Turne thee ether to y right hand or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons: but Asahél wolde not departe from him.
- 22 And Abnér said to Asahél, Departe frō me: ¹ wherefore shulde I smite thee to the ¹ Why doest thou prouoke me to kill thee? gioude? how shulde I be able to holde vp my face to Ioáb thy brother?
- 23 And when he wolde not departe, Abnér with the hindre end of the speare smote him vnder the ^m fift rib, that the speare came out behinde him: and he fel downe there, and dyed in his place. And as manie as came to the place where Asahél fel downe and dyed, stode stil.
- 24 Ioáb also and Abishái pursued after Abnér: and the sunne went downe, when they were come to y hil Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wildernes of Gibeón.
- 25 And the children of Beniamín gathered them selues together after Abnér, & were on an heape and stode on the top of anhil.
- 26 Then Abnér called to Ioáb, and said, Shal the ⁿ sworde deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it wil be bitternes in the latter end? how long shal it be, or thou bid the people returne frō following their brethren?
- 27 And Ioáb said, As God liuerh, if thou haddest not ^o spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euerie one backe from his brother.
- 28 ¶ So Ioáb blewe a trumpet, and all the people stode stil, and pursued after Isráél nomore, nether foght they anie more.
- 29 And Abnér and his men walked all that night through the ^p plaine, & wēt ouer Iorden, & past through all Bithrón til they came to Mahanáim.
- 30 Ioáb also returned backe from Abnér: & whē he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruants ninetene men and Asahél.
- 31 But the seruants of Dauid had smitten of Beniamín, and of Abners men, so that thre hundred and threescore men dyed.
- 32 And they toke vp Asahél, and buried hī in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-léhem: and Ioáb and his men wēt all night, and ~~when they came~~ to Hebrón, the daie arose.

5 And the sixth, Ithreám by Egláh Dauids wife: these were borne to Dauid in Hebrón.

6 ¶ Now while there was warre betwene the house of Saúl and the house of Dauid, Abnér made all his power for y^e house of Saúl.

7 And Saúl had a concubine named Rizpáh, the daughter of Aijáh. And Ish-bósheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in to my fathers concubine?

d Doeſt thou esteeme me no more then a dog, for all my seruice done to thy fathers house?

8 Thē was Abnér very wrothe for the wordes of Ish-bósheth, & said, Am I a^d dogs head, which against Iudáh do shewe mercy this day vnto the house of Saúl thy father, to his brethren, & to his neighbours, and haue not deliuered thee into the hand of Dauid, that thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

e We ſee how the wicked can not abide to be admonished of their fautes, but ſeeke their diſpleaſure, & go about to bring them from their wickednes.

9 ¶ So do God to Abnér, and more also, except, as the Lord hathe sworne to Dauid, euen so I do to him, i Rather for malice that he bare towards Ish-bósheth, then for loue he bare to Dauid.

17 ¶ And Abnér hadⁱ comunicaciō with the Elders of Israél, saying, Ye fought for Dauid in times past, that he might be your King.

18 Now then do it: for the Lord hathe spoken of Dauid, saying, By the hand of my seruant Dauid I wil saue my people Israél out of the hands of the Philistims, and out of the hands of all their enemies.

19 Also Abnér spake^j to Beniamín, and afterwarde Abnér went to speake with Dauid in Hebrón, concerning all that Israél was content with, and the whole house of Beniamín.

4 Then the King said vnto him, Where is he? And Zibá said vnto y King, Beholde, he is in the house of Machír the sonne of Ammiél of Lo-debá.

6 Now when Mephibósheth the sonne of Ionathán, the sonne of Saúl was come vnto Dauid, he fell on his face, and did reuerence. And Dauid said, Mephibósheth? And he answered, Beholde thy seruant.

7 Then Dauid said vnto him, Feare not: for I wil surely shewe thee kindnes for Ionathán thy fathers sake, and wil restore thee all the ^{*} fields of Saúl thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

3. Chr. 19.2.

1 After this, the ^{*} King of the children of Ammón dyed, & Hanún his sonne reigned in his steede.

2 Then said Dauid, I wil shewe kindnes vnto Hanún the sonne of Nabásh, as his father ^{*} shewed kindnes vnto me. And Dauid sent his seruants to cōsole him for his father. So Dauids seruants came into the land of the children of Ammón.

^{*} The children of God are not vniuersal of a benefice receiued

3 And the princes of the children of Ammón said vnto Hanún their lord, Thinkest thou y Dauid doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? hath not Dauid ^{rather} sent his seruants vnto thee, ^b to searche the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrowe it?

^b Ebr. Is it? Is eyes dash Dauid

4 Wherefore Hanún toke Dauids seruants, and shaued of the halfe of their bearde, & cut of their garments in the middle, euen to their buttockes, and sent them away.

^b Their arrogant malice wolde not suffer them to see the simplicitie of Dauids heart: therefore their counsel turned to the destruction of their countrey.

5 ¶ When it was tolde vnto Dauid, he sent to mete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King said, Tarie at Ierichó, vntil your beardes be growen, then retu:ne.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammón sawe that they ^c stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammón sent and hired the ^e Aramites of the house of Rehób, and the Aramites of Zobá, twentie thousand footemen, and of King Maacáh a thousand men, & of Ish-tób twelue thousand men.

^c That they had defouled Dauids displeasure, for y inuirtue done to his ambassadors

7 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioáb, and all the hoste of the strong men.

8 And the children of Ammón came out, & put their armie in array at the entring in of the gate: & the Aramites of Zobá, and of Rehób, and of Ish-tób, and of Maacáh were by them selues in the field.

^d These were diuers parts of the countrey of Syria, whereby appeareth that the Syrians serued, where they might haue interteinement, as now the Switzers do.

9 When Ioáb sawe that the fronte of the battel was against him before and behinde, he chose of all the choise of Israél, and put them in array against the Aramites.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abishái his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammón.

11 And he said, If the Aramites be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me, & if the children of Ammón be to strong for thee, I wil come and succour thee.

12 Be strong and let vs be valiant for ^e our people, and for the cities of our God, and let the Lord do that which is good in his eyes.

^e Here is declared wherefore warre ought to be undertaken: for the defence of true religion and Gods people.

13 Then Ioáb, & the people that was with him, ioyned in battel with the Aramites, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammón sawe that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishái, and entred into the citie. so Ioáb returned from the children of Ammón, and came to Ierusalém.

15 ¶ And when the Aramites sawe that they were smitten before Israél, they gathered them together.

CHAP. XI.

The citie Rabbah is besieged & Dauid committeth adulterie 17 Vriah is slaine 27 Dauid marieth Bathsheba.

1 And when the yere was expired in the time when Kings go forth to battell, Dauid sent Ioab, and his seruants with him, & all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah:
but Dauid remained in Ierusalem.

2 And when it was evening tide, Dauid arose out of his bed, and walked vpon the rooffe of the Kings palace: and from the rooffe he sawe a woman washing her selfe: and the womā was very beautiful to loke vpon.

3 And Dauid sent and inquired what woman it was: and one said, It is not this Beth-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, wife to Vriah the Hittite.

4 Then Dauid sent messengers, and toke her away: and she came vnto him and he lay with her: (now she was purified from her vnclennes) and she returned vnto her house.

5 And the womā conceived: therefore she sent & tolde Dauid & said, I am with childe.

6 Then Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send me Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent V-riah to Dauid.

7 And when Vriah came vnto him, Da-uid demanded him how Ioab did, & how the people fared, and how the warre proceeded.

8 Afterwarde Dauid said to Vriah, Go downe to thine house, and wash thy feet.
So Vriah departed out of the Kings palace, & the King sent a present after him.

9 But Vriah slept at the dore of the Kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house.

10 Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Vriah went not downe to his house: and Dauid said vnto Vriah, Comest thou not from thy iourney? why didest thou not go downe to thine house?

11 The Vriah answered Dauid, The Arke of Israel, and Iudā dwel in tents: and my lord Ioab and the seruants of my lord abide in the open fields. Shall I then go in to mine house to eat and drinke, and lie with my wife by thy life, & by the life of thy soule, I will not do this thing.

12 Then Dauid said vnto Vriah, Tarry yet this daye, and tomorrow I will send thee away. So Vriah abode in Ierusalem that day, and the morowe.

13 Then Dauid called him, & he did eat and drinke before him, & he made him drinke:
& at euening he went out to lie on his couch with the seruants of his lord, but went not downe to his house.

14 And on the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of V-riah.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, Turne ye Vriah in the forefote of the strength of the battell, & recule ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and dye.

16 So when Ioab besieged the citie, he assigned Vriah vnto a place, where he knewe that strong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Ioab: & there fell of the people of the seruants of Dauid, & Vriah the Hittite also dyed.

18 Then Ioab sent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre,

19 And he charged the messenger, saying,
When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the warre vnto the King.

20 And if the Kings anger arise, so that he say vnto thee, Wherefore approached ye vnto the citie to fight? knowe ye not that they wolde hille from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech sonne of Ierubesheth did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone vpon him from the wall, and he dyed in Thebez? why went you nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead.

22 So the messenger went, and came and shewed Dauid all that Ioab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said vnto Dauid, Certainly the men preuailed against vs, and came out vnto vs vnto the field, but we pursued them vnto the entering of the gate.

24 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy seruants, and some of the Kings ser-uants be dead: and thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead.

uoueth " one aswel as another : make thy battel more strong against the cite & destroy it, & encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Vriáh heard that her housband Vriáh was dead, she mourned for her housband.

27 So when the mourning was past, Dauid sent & toke her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a sonne: but the thing that Dauid had done, displeased the Lord.

He. was euil in the eyes of the Lord.

CHAP. XII.

1 Dauid reproved by Nathán confesseth his sinne. 18 The childe conceiued in adulterie dyeth. 24 Salomón is borne. 26 Rabbáh is taken. 31 The citizens are grievously punished.

a Because Dauid layd nowe drowned in sinne, the louing mercie of God, which is freeth not him to perith, wa- keten his conscience by this similitude, and bringeth him to repentance

Then the Lord sent Nathán vnto Dauid, who came to him, and said vnto him, There were two men in one cite, the one riche, and the other poore.

The riche man had exceeding many shepe and oxen:

But the poore had none at all, saue one litle shepe which he had bought, & nourished vp: and it grewe vp with him, and with his children also, and did eat of his owne morsels, & dranke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosome, and was vnto him as his daughter.

Or. wayfaring man. Or. fered.

Now there came a stranger vnto the riche mā, who refused to take of his owne shepe, and of his owne oxen to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him, but toke the poore man shepe, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

He. The au- gre of Dauid was giued.

The Dauid was exceeding wrothe with the mā, and said to Nathán, As the Lord liueth, the man that hath done this thing, shall surely dye,

He. is the childe of dauid. Enod. 22.1.

And he shall restore the labe foure folde, because he did this thing, and had no pittie thereof.

3 Sam. 16.13.

Then Nathán said to Dauid, Thou art the man. Thus sayth the Lord God of Israél, * I anointed thee King ouer Israél, and deliuered thee out of the hand of Saúl, b For Dauid succeeded Saul in his kingdome.

And gaue thee thy lords house, and thy lords wives into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israél, and of Iudáh, & wolde moreouer (if that had bene tolitle)

c The Tewes vnderstand this of Egláh and Michal, or of Rizpáh and Michal.

haue giuen thee such and such things.

d That is, greater things than these: for Gods loue and benefites increase toward him, if by their ingratitude they stay him not.

Wherefore hast thou despised the commandement of the Lord, to do euil in his sight: thou hast killed Vriáh the Hittite with the sworde, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sworde of the children of Ammón.

e Thou hast moste cruelly giuen him into the hands of Gods enemies.

Now therefore the sworde shall neuer departe from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Vriáh the Hittite to be thy wife.

Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I wil raise vp euil against thee out of thine owne house, and wil take thy wiues before thine eyes, & giue them vnto thy neighbour, and he shall lye with thy wiues in the sight of this sunne.

Deu. 28.30. chap. 16.22.f Meaning, openly, as at none dayes.

For thou didest it secretly: but I wil do this thing before all Israél, and before the sunne.

Then Dauid said vnto Nathán, * I haue sinned against the Lord. And Nathán said vnto Dauid, The Lord also hath put away thy sinne, thou shalt not dye.

g For the Lord seeth but the sinner wolde turne to him.

Howbeit because by this dede thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the childe that is borne vnto thee shall surely dye.

h In saying, that the Lord hath appointed a wicked man to reigne ouer his people.

So Nathán departed vnto his house: and the Lord stroke the childe that Vriahs wife bare vnto Dauid, and it was sicke.

Dauid therefore besought God for the childe, and fasted and went in, and laye all night vpon the earth.

i To wit, to be- prauise chaiber.

Then the Elders of his house arose to come vnto him, and to cause him to rise from the ground: but he wolde not, neither did he eat meate with them.

k Thinking by his instant prayer that God wolde haue restored his childe, but God had otherwise determined.

So on the seventh day the childe dyed: & the seruants of Dauid feared to tel him that the childe was dead: for they said, Beholde, while the childe was aliue, we spake vnto him, and he wolde not hearken vnto our voyce: how then shall we say vnto him, The childe is dead, to vex him more?

l Ebr. & he wil do him false euil.

But when Dauid sawe that his seruants whispered, Dauid perceiued that the childe was dead: therefore Dauid said vnto his seruants, Is the childe dead? And they said, He is dead.

Then Dauid arose from the earth, & washed and anointed him selfe, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshiped, & afterward came to his owne house, and bade that they shulde set bread before him, and he did eat.

l Shewing that our lamentations ought not to be excessive, but moderate: and yet we must praise God in all his doings.

Then said his seruants vnto him, What thing is this, that thou hast done? thou didest fast and wepe for the childe, while it was aliue, but whē the childe was dead, thou didest rise vp, and eat meate.

m As they considered not that God granteth manie things to the sobbes & teares of the faithfull.

And he said, While the childe was yet aliue, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tel whether God wil haue mercie on me, that the childe may liue?

But now being dead, wherefore shulde I now fast? Can I bring him againe anie more? I shall go to him, but he shall not returne to me.

n By this consideration appaied his sorrowe.

¶ And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, and she bare a sonne, & he called his name Salomón: also the Lord loued him.

Mat. 2.6. o To wit, the Lord, i. Chre. 22.9.

25 *Therefore

- 25 For the Lord had sent by Nathán the Prophet: therefore ^p he called his name Iedidiáh, because the Lord loved him.
- 26 ¶ Then Ioáb fought against Rabbáh of the children of Ammón, and toke the citie of the kingdome.
- 27 Therefore Ioáb sent messengers to Dauid, saying I haue fought against Rabbáh, and haue taken the citie of ^r waters.
- 28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the citie, that thou maiest take it, lest the victorie be attributed to me.
- 29 So Dauid gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbáh, and besieged it, and toke it.
- 30 ¶ And he toke their Kings crowne from his head, (which wayed a talent of golde, with precious stones) & it was set on Dauids head: and he brought away the spoile of the citie in exceeding great abundance.
- 31 And he caryed away the people that was therein, and put them vnder sawes, and vnder yron harowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the tyle kyln: euen thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammón. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

CHAP. XIII.

- 24 Amnón Dauids sonne defileth his sister Tamár.
 25 Tamár is comforted by her brother Absalóm.
 26 Absalóm therefore killeth Amnón.

- 1 Now after this so it was, that Absalóm the sonne of Dauid hauing a faire sister, whose name was ^a Tamár, Amnón the sonne of Dauid loued her.
- 2 And Amnón was so fore vexed, that he fellicke for his sister Tamár: for she was a ^b virgin, & it semed harde to Amnón to do any thing to her.
- 3 But Amnón had a friend called Ionadáb, the sonne of Shimeáh Dauids brother: and Ionadáb was a very subtile man.
- 4 Who said vnto him, Why art thou the Kings sonne so leane frō day to day? wilt thou not tel me? Then Amnón answered him, I loue Tamár my brother Absalós sister.
- 5 And Ionadáb said vnto him, Lye downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shal come to se thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamár come, and giue me meat, and let her dresse me in my sight, that I may se it, and eat it of her hand.
- 6 ¶ So Amnón laye downe, & made him selfe sicke: and when the King came to se him, Amnón said vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamár my sister come, & make me a couple of ^d cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meat at her hand.
- 7 Then Dauid sent home ^e Tamár, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnóns house,

- and dresse him meat.
- 8 ¶ So Tamár went to her brother Amnons house, and he laye downe: and she toke floure, and knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.
- 9 And she toke a panne, & powred them out before him, but he wolde not eat. The Amnón said, Cause ye euery man to go out from me: so euery man went out frō him.
- 10 Then Amnón said vnto Tamár, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamár toke the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnón her brother.
- 11 And when she had set them before him to eat, he toke her, and said vnto her, Come, lye with me, my sister.
- 12 But she answered him, Naye, my brother, do not force me: for no such thing ought to be done in Israél: commit not this folie.
- 13 And I, whether shal I cause my shame to go: and thou shalt be as one of the fooles in Israél: now therefore, I pray thee, speake to the King, for he wil not denye me vnto thee.
- 14 Howbeit he wolde not hearken vnto her voyce, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
- 15 Then Amnón hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue, wherewith he had loued her: and Amnón said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
- 16 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euil (to put me away) is greater then the other that thou didest vnto me: but he wolde not heare her.
- 17 But called his seruant that serued him, and said, Put this woman now out from me, and locke the dore after her.
- 18 (And she had a garment of diuers coulers vpon her: for with suche garmets were the Kings daughters that were virgins, appareled) Then his seruant brought her out, and locked the dore after her.
- 19 And Tamár put ashes on her head & rent the garment of diuers coulers which was on her, and layed her hand on her head, & went her way crying.
- 20 And Absalóm her brother said vnto her, Hathe Amnón thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be styl, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamár remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.
- 21 ¶ But when King Dauid heard all these things, he was very wrothe.
- 22 And Absalóm said vnto his brother Amnón nether good nor bad: for Absalóm hated Amnón, because he had forced his sister Tamár.

39 And King Dauid deſired to go forthe vnto Abfalóm, becauſe he was pacified concerning Amnón, ſeing he was dead.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 Abfalóm is reconciled to his father by the ſubtiltie of Ioab. 24 Abfalóm may not ſee the Kings face 25 The beautie of Abfalóm. 30 He cauſeth Ioabs come to be burnt, and is brought to his fathers preſence.

1 ¶ Then Ioáb the ſonne of Zeruiáh perceived, that the Kings heart was towarde Abfalóm, a That y King fauoured him.

2 And Ioáb ſent to Tekóah, and brought thence a ſubtile woman, & ſaid vnto her, I pray thee, ſaine thy ſelfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparel, & anoint not thy ſelfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead.

b In token of mourning: ſo thei vſed appointing to ſeeme cheareful.

3 And come to the King, and ſpeake of this maner vnto him (for Ioáb taught her whar ſhe ſhulde ſay)

¶ Ebr. put words in her mouth.

4 ¶ Then the woman of Tekóah ſpake vnto the King, and fel downe on her face to the grounde, & did obeifance, and ſaid, Helpe, o King.

¶ Ebr. ſaue.

5 Then the King ſaid vnto her, What ayleth thee? And ſhe answered, I am in dede a widowe, and mine houſband is dead:

¶ Ebr. a widowe woman.

6 And thine hádmayd had two ſonnes, & they two ſtroue together in the field: (and there was none to parte them) ſo the one ſmote the other, and ſlewe him.

c Under this parable ſhe deſcribeth the death of Amnón by Abfalóm.

7 And beholde, the whole familie is riſen againſt thine handmayd, & thei ſaid, Deſtroy him that ſmote his brother, that we may kil him for the ſoule of his brother whome he ſlewe, that we may deſtroy the heire alſo: ſo they ſhal quench my ſparkle which is left, and ſhal not leaue to mine houſbád nether name nor poſteritie vpon the earth.

d Becauſe ſhe hathe ſlaine his brother, he ought to be ſlaine according to the Lawe, Gen 9, 6 exod 21, 12.

8 And the King ſaid vnto the woman, Go to thine houſe, and I wil giue a charge for thee.

9 Then the woman of Tekóah ſaid vnto the King, My lord, o King, this trespaffe be on me, and on my fathers houſe, & the King and his throne be giltyes.

e Astonching the breache of y Lawe v puniſtieth blood, let me beare the blame.

10 And y King ſaid, Bring him to me that ſpakeſh againſt thee, and he ſhal touche thee nomore.

¶ Or, innocent.

11 Then ſaid ſhe, I pray thee, let the King remember the Lord thy God, that thou woldeſt not ſuffer many reuengers of blood to deſtroy, leſt thei ſlaye my ſonne. And he answered, As the Lord liuerh, there ſhal not one heere of thy ſonne fall to y earth.

f Swear that thei ſhal not reuenge the blood, which are many number.

12 Then the woman ſaid, I pray thee, let thine hádmáid ſpeake a wordc to my lord the the King. And he said, Say on.

13 Then the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou s^t thought suche a thing against the people of God? or why doeth ^g Why doest thou give contrary sentence in thy sonne Abfalóm? ^g Why doest thou give contrary sentence in thy sonne Abfalóm? ^g Why doest thou give contrary sentence in thy sonne Abfalóm? ^g Why doest thou give contrary sentence in thy sonne Abfalóm?

14 For we must nedes dye, & we are as water spilt on the grounde, which can not be gathered vp againe: nether doeth God spare anie persone, yet doeth he appoint ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the King, ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

16 For the King wil heare, to deliuer his handmaid out of the hand of the man that wolde destroye me, and also my sonne fró the inheritance of God.

17 Therefore thine handmaid said, The worde of my lord the King shal now be ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

18 Then the King answered, and said vnto the woman, Hide not fró me, I pray thee, the thing that I shal aske thee. And ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

19 And the King said, Is not ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

20 For to the intent that I shoulde ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

21 ¶ And ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

22 And ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

23 ¶ And ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

24 And the King said, Let him ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

25 Now in all Israél there was none to be so muche praised for beautie as Abfalóm: from the sole of his foote euén to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And whē he polled his head, (for at euerie yeres end he polled it: because it was to heauy for him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the hære of his head at two hundred ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

27 And Abfalóm had thre sonnes, and one daughter named Tamar, which was a faire woman to loke vpon.

28 ¶ So Abfalóm dwelt ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

29 Therefore Abfalóm sent for Ioáb to send him to the King, but he wolde not come to him: and when he sent againe, he wolde not come.

30 Therefore he said vnto his seruants, Beholde, Ioáb harhe ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

31 Then Ioáb arose, and came to Abfalóm vnto his house, and said vnto him, Wherefore haue thy seruants burnt my field with fire?

32 And Abfalóm answered Ioáb, Beholde, I sent for thee, saying, Come thou hither, and I wil send thee to the King for to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshúr? It had bene better for me to haue bene there stil: now therefore let me se ^h Or, accepts. ^h God hath rewarded waies (as sanctuaries) to saue the oft times, whome manudgeth worthy death ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir. ^h For I thought they w^d olde kill this same heir.

33 Then Ioáb came to the King, and tolde him: and he called for Abfalóm, who came to the King, and bowed him selfe to the grounde on his face before the King, and the King kissed Abfalóm.

II. Samuél.

The Arke returneth.

6 And on this maner did Absalóm to all Israël, what came to the King for iudgement: so Absalóm ^d stole the heartes of the men of Israël.

7 ¶ And after ^e fortie yeres, Absalóm said vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebrón, and reade my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord.

8 For thy seruant vowed a vowe when I remained in Geshúr, in Arám, saying, If the Lord shal bring me againe in dede to Ierusalém, I wil ^f serue the Lord.

9 And the King said vnto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebrón.

10 ¶ Then Absalóm sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israël, saying, When ye heare the sounde of the trumpet, ye shal say, Absalóm reigneth in Hebrón.

11 ¶ And with Absalóm went two hundredth men out of Ierusalém, that were ^g called: and they wēt in their simplicitie, knowing nothing.

12 Also Absalóm sent for Ahithóphel the Gilonite Dauids counseler, from his citie Gilóh, while he offered sacrifices: and the treason was great: for the people ^h increased still with Absalóm.

13 ¶ Then came ⁱ a messenger to Dauid, saying, The heartes of the men of Israël are turned after Absalóm.

14 Then Dauid said vnto all his seruants that were with him at Ierusalém, Vp, and let vs flee: for we shal not escape fró ^k Absalóm: make spede to departe, lest he come sodenly and take vs, & bring euil vpó vs, and smite the citie with the edge of the sworde.

15 And the Kings seruants said vnto him, Beholde, thy seruants ^l are ready to do according to all that my lord the King shal appoint.

16 So the King departed and all his household ^m after him, and the King left ten concubines to kepe the house.

17 And the King went forth and all the people after him, and taried in ⁿ a place farre of.

18 And all his seruants went about him, and all the ^o Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all ^p the Gittites, ^q euen sixe húdredth men which were come after him fró Gath, went before the King.

19 Then said the King to ^r Ittái the Gittite, Wherefore comest thou also with vs? Returne and abide with the King, for thou art a stranger: depart thou therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and shulde I cause thee to wander to day and go with vs? I wil go whither I can: therefore returne thou, and cary againe thy ^s brethren: mercie and ^t trueth be with thee.

21 And Ittái answered the King, and said,

As the Lord liueth, & as my lord the King liueth, in what place my lord the King shalbe, whether in death or life, euen there surely wil thy seruant be.

22 Then Dauid said to Ittái, Come, & go forwarde. And Ittái the Gittite went, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and ^u all the people went forward, but the King passed ouer the brooke Kidión: and all the people wēt ouer towarde the way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadók also ^v was there, and all the Leuites with hym, ^w bearing the Arke of the couenant of God: & they set downe ^x the Arke of God, and Abiathár wēt ^y vp vntil the people were all come out of the citie.

25 Then the King said vnto Zadók, Carie the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I shal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, he wil bring me againe, & shewe me ^z bothe it, and the ^{aa} Tabernacle thereof.

26 But if he thus say, I haue no delite in thee, beholde, ^{ab} here am I, let him do to me as semeth good in his eyes.

27 The King said againe vnto Zadók the Priest, Art not thou a ^{ac} Sacer? returne into the citie in peace, & your two sonnes with you: ^{ad} to wit, Ahimáaz thy sonne, and Ionathán the sonne of Abiathár.

28 Beholde, I wil tarie in the fieldes of the wilderness, vntil there come some worde from you to be tolde me.

29 Zadók therefore and Abiathár caryed the Arke of God againe to Ierusalém, and they taried there.

30 And Dauid went vp the mount of oliues and wept as he went vp, and had his head ^{ae} couered, and wēt barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euerie man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

31 Then one tolde Dauid, saying, Ahithóphel is one of them that haue conspired with Absalóm: and Dauid said, ^{af} O Lord, I pray thee, turne the ^{ag} counsel of Ahithóphel into foolishnes.

32 ¶ Then Dauid came to the toppe of the mount where he worshiped God: and beholde, Hushái the Archite came against him with his coate torne, & hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whome Dauid said, If thou go with me, thou shalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Absalóm, I wil be thy ^{ah} seruant, ^{ai} O King, (as I haue bene in time past thy fathers seruant, so wil I now be thy seruant) then thou shalt bring me the counsel of Ahithóphel to noight.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadók and Abiathár the Priests? therefore whatsoeuer

2 And ^h King said vnto Zibá, What meanest thou by these? And Zibá said, They be ^b asses for the Kings household to ride on, and bread and dryed figges for the yong men to eat, and wine, that the faint may drinke in the wildernes.

3 And the King said, But where is thy masters sonne? Thē Zibá answered the King, Beholde, he remaineth in Ierusalém: for he said, This day shal the house of Israël restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then said the King to Zibá, Beholde, thine are all that ^{pertained} vnto Mephibósseth. And Zibá said, I beseeche thee, let me finde grace in thy sight, my lord, o King.

5 And when King Dauid came to ^e Bahurím, beholde, thence came out a man of the familie of the house of Saúl, named Shimeí the sonne of Gerá: and he came out, and cursed.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of King Dauid: and all the people, and all the men of warre were on his ^d right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimeí when he cursed, Come forthe, come forthe thou ^{murtherer}, and ^{wicked} man.

8 The Lord hathe broght vpon thee all the blood of the house of Saúl, in whose stead thou hast reigned: and the Lord hathe deliuered the kingdome into the hand of Absalóm thy sonne: and beholde, thou art ^{taken} in thy wickednes, because thou art a murtherer.

9 Then said Abishái the sonne of Zeruiáh vnto the King, Why doeth this ^{dead} dogge curse my lord the King? let me go, I pray thee, and take away his head.

10 And the King said, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiáh: for he curfeth, euen because the Lord hathe ^{bidden} him curse Dauid: who darie then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And Dauid said to Abishái, & to all his seruants, Beholde, my sonne ^w came out of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: then how muche more now may this sonne of Ieminí? Suffire him to curse: for the Lord hathe bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord wil loke on ^{mine} affliction, and ^{do} me good for his cursing this day.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Shimeí went by the side of the móũtaine ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threwe stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came ^h King & all the people that were with him weary, and refreshed them selues ^{there}.

15 And Absalóm, and all the people, the men of Israël came to Ierusalém, & Ahithóphel with him.

16 And when Hufháí the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Absalóm, Hufháí said vnto Absalóm, God saue the King, God saue the King.

17 Then Absalóm said to Hufháí, Is this thy kindenes to thy ^{friend}? Why wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 Hufháí then answered vnto Absalóm, Nay, but whome the Lord, & this people, and all the men of Israël chuse, his wil I be, and with him wil I dwell.

19 And ^{moreouer} vnto whome shal I do seruice? not to his sonne: as I serued before thy father, so wil I before thee.

20 Then spake Absalóm to Ahithóphel, Giue counsell what we shal do.

21 And Ahithóphel said vnto Absalóm, Go in to thy fathers cōcubines, which he hathe left to kepe the house: and when all Israël shal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shalbe strong.

22 So they spred Absalóm a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalóm went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israël.

23 And the counsell of Ahithóphel which he counseled in those dayes, was like as one had asked ¹ counsell at the oracle of God: so was all the counsell of Ahithóphel bothe with Dauid and with Absalóm.

7 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath giue, is not ^f good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong me, and are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: also thy father is a valiant warrior, and wil not lodge with the people.

10 Then he also that is valiant whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall ⁱ shrinke and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stowte men.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou go to battel in thine owne persone.

^j Or, we will catch him.

12 So shall we come vpon him in some place, where we shall finde him, and we wil vpon him as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we wil not leaue him one.

^k Or, determined.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better, then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had ^k determined to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, that the Lord might ^k bring euil vpon Absalom.

^l That counsel which seemed good at the first to Absalom.

^g Or, the well of Rogel.

^h Meaning, the message from their fathers.

18 Neuertheles a yong man sawe them, and tolde it to Absalom: therefore they bothe departed quickly, & came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And ^h the wife toke and spred a couering ouer the welles mouth, and spred grounde come thereon, that the thing should not be knowne.

ⁱ Thus God sendeth succour to his in their greatest dangers.

20 And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaz and Ionathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and colde not finde them, they returned to Ierusalem.

^j The Chalde text readeth, now they haue passed the Iordā.

21 And as soon as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde King Dauid, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for ^k such counsel hath Ahithophel giuen against you.

^k To wit, to pursue thee with all haste.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iordan ^l vntil the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iordan.

^l They traueled all night, & by morning had all their companie passed ouer.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel sawe that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his asse, and arose, and he went home vnto his citie, and put his householde in ordre, and ^m hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buried in his fathers graue.

^m Gods iuste vengeance euē in this life is powred on them, which are enemies, traitours, or persecuters of his Church.

24 ¶ Then Dauid came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed ouer Iordan, he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa capitaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mans sonne named Ithra an Israelite, that wet in to Abigail the daughter of ⁿ Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Iobabs mother.

ⁿ Who was also called Ishai Dauid's father.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the sonne of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lodebar, and Barzelai the Gileadite out of Rogel

a For certein of y Reubenites, Gadites, & of the halre tribe, colde nor beare the insolencie of y soone againt y father, & therefore ioyned with Dauid

Then Dauid a nobred the people that were with him, & set ouer them captaynes of thousands and captaynes of hundreds.

3 And Dauid sent forthe the third parte of the people vnder the hand of Ioáb, and the third parte vnder the hand of Abishái Ioabs brother the sonne of Zeruah: and the other third parte vnder the hād of Ittái the Gittite. & the King said vnto the people, I wil go with you my selfe also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forthe: for if we flee away, they wil not regarde vs, nether wil they passe for vs, thogh halfe of vs were flaine: but thou art now worthe tē thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

b Signifying, y a good gouernour ought to be so deare vnto his people, that they wil rather iole their liues, the y ought shulde come vnto hi.

4 Then the King said vnto them, What semeth you best, that I wil do. So y King stode by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the King commanded Ioáb and Abishái, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Abfalóm gently for my sake. and all the people hearde when the King gaue all the captaynes charge concerning Abfalóm.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Israél, & the battel was in y wood of Ephraim:

c So called because y Ephraimites (as some say) fed their cattel beyāde Jordén in this wood.

7 Where the people of Israél were flaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twentie thousand.

8 ¶ For the battel was skatred ouer all the cuntry: and the wood deuoured muche more people that day, then did the sworde.

9 ¶ Now Abfalóm met the seruants of Dauid, and Abfalóm rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp ¶ betwene the heauen and the earthe: & the mule that was vnder him went away.

¶ This is a terrible exanple of Gods vengeance againt them that are rebels or disobedient to their parents

10 And one that sawe it, tolde Ioáb, saying, Beholde, I sawe Abfalóm hanged in an oke.

11 Then Ioáb said vnto the man that tolde him, And hast thou in dede sene why then didest not thou there smite him to the ground, and I wolde haue giuen thee tū *shekels of siluer, and a girdle

Gen 23.15

12 Then the man said vnto Ioáb, Thogh I shulde receiue a thousand shekels of siluer in mine hād, yet wolde I not lay mine hād vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishái, & Ittai, saying, Beware, lest anie touche the yong man Abfalóm.

15 And ten seruāts that bare Ioabs armour, compassed about and smore Abfalóm, and slewe him.

16 Then Ioáb blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israél: for Ioáb helde backe the people.

d For he had put of y people, which was seduced by Abfaloms flatterie.

17 And they toke Abfalóm, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israél seld euerie one to his rent.

e Thus God turned his vaine glorie to shame.

18 Now Abfalóm in his life time had take and reared him vp a piller, which is in the Kings dale: for he said, I haue no sonne to kepe my name in remembrance. & he called y piller after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Abfaloms place.

19 ¶ Then said Ahimáaz the sonne of Zadók, I pray thee, let me runne, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hathe deliuered him out of the hand of his enemies.

"Ebr Judged.

20 And Ioáb said vnto him, Thou shalt not be y messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the Kings sonne is dead.

g For Ioáb bare a good affection to Ahimáaz, & doubted now Dauid wold take the reports of Abfaloms death.

21 Thē said Ioáb to Cushí, Go, tel the King, what thou hast sene. And Cushí bowed him selfe vnto Ioáb, and ran.

22 Thē said Ahimáaz the sonne of Zadók agame to Ioáb, What, I pray thee, if I also runne after Cushí? And Ioab said, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my sonne, seing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then he said vnto him, Rúne. So Ahimáaz ranne by the way of the plaine. and ouerwent Cushí.

h He sate in the gate of y citie of Mahanaim.

24 Now Dauid sate betwene y two gates. And the watchman went to the toppes of the gate vpon the wall, & lift vp his eyes, and sawe, and beholde, a man came running alone.

25 And the watchman cryed, & tolde the King. And the King said If he be alone, he bringeth tidings. And he came apase, and stode nere.

"Ebr stande vnto the king.

26 And the watcheman sawe an other man running, and the watcheman called vnto the porter, and said, Beholde, another man runneth alone. And the King said, He also bringeth tidings.

1 Eb, I f the running.
27 And the watcheman said, "Me thinketh the running of the fo: most is like the running of Ahimáaz the sonne of Zadók. Then the King said, He is a good man, & commeth with good tidings.

1 He had had experience of his fidelitie, Chap 17, 21.
28 And Ahimáaz called, and said vnto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fel downe to the earth vpon his face before ý King, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hathe o shup vp the men that lift vp their hands against my lord the King.

Or, deliuered 72
29 And the King said, Is the yong man Absalóm safe? And Ahimáaz answered, Whē Ioáb sent the Kings k seruant, and me thy seruāt, I sawe a great tumulte, but I knewe not what.

k To wit, Chusai, who was an Ethiopian 30 And the King said vnto him, Turne aside, & stand here. so he turned aside and stood stil.

31 Eb, tidings is brought 31 And beholde, Cushí came, and Cushí said, "Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hathe deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

32 Then the King said vnto Cushí, Is the yong man Absalóm safe? And Cushí answered, The enemies of my lord ý King, & all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that yong man is.

1 Because he considered both the judgement of God against his sinne, & cold: nor otherwile hude his fatherly affection toward his sonne.
33 And the King was 1 moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: & as he went, thus he said, O my sonne Absalóm, my sonne, my sonne Absalóm: wolde God I had dyed for thee, o Absalóm, my sonne, my sonne.

And it was tolde Ioáb, Beholde, the King wepeth and mourneth for Absalóm.

2 Eb, saluation, or, deliuerance.
2 Therefore the "victorie of that day was turned into mourning to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The King sorroweth for his sonne.

3 Eb, by Bealethe.
3 And the people wēt that day into the ci-tie secretly, as people confounded hide them selues when they flee in battel.

4 As they do that mourne.
4 So the King a hid his face, and the King cryed with a lowde voyce, My sonne Absalóm, Absalóm my sonne, my sonne.

5 At Mahanaim.
5 ¶ Then Ioáb came into b the house to the King & said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruāts, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and the liues of thy concubines,

6 In that thou louest thine enemies, & hastest thy friendes: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy "princes nor seruants: therefore this day I perceiue, that if Absalóm had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that the it wolde haue pleased thee wel.

Or, captaine.
7 Now therefore vp, come out, and speake "cōfortably vnto thy seruāts: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there wil not tary one man with thee this night: and that wil be worfe vnto thee, then all ý euil that fel on thee from thy youthe hetherto.

8 Then the King arose, & sate in the gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Beholde, the King doeth sit in the gate: & all the people came before the King: for Israél had fled euerie man to his tent.

d Euerie one blamed another & strone who shulde first bring him home.
9 ¶ Then all the people were at d strife throughout all the tribes of Israél, saying, The King saued vs out of the hād of our enemies, & he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philistims, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalóm.

10 And Absalóm, whome we anoīte d ouer vs, is dead in battel: therefore why are ye so slowe to bring the King againe?

*e That they shulde reprove the negligence of ý elders, seeing the people were so forwarde.*
11 But King Dauid sent to Zadók and to Abiathár the e Priests, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudáh and say, Why are ye behind to bring ý King againe to his house, (for the saying of all Israél is come vnto the King, euen to his house) z

12 Ye are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are ye: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the King againe?

13 Also say ye to Amasá, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captaine of the hoste to me for euer in ý f iourne of Ioáb.

*f By this policie Dauid thought ý by winning of the captaine, he shulde haue ý heartes of all the people.*
14 So he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iudáh, as of one man: therefore they sent to the King, saying, Returne thou with all thy seruants.

15 ¶ So the King returned, & came to Iordén. And Iudáh came to Gilgál, for to go to meete the King, & to conduct him ouer Iordén.

20 For thy seruát doeth knowe, that I haue done amisse: therefore beholde, I am the first this day of all the house of i Ioseph, that am come to go downe to meete my lord the King.

21 But Abishái the sonne of Zeruiáh answered, and said, Shal not Shimeí dye for this, because he cursed the Lords anointed?

22 And Dauid said, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiáh, that this day ye shulde be aduersaries vnto me? shal there anie man dye this day in Israel? for do not I knowe, that I am this day King ouer Israel?

23 Therefore the King said vnto Shimeí, Thou shalt not dye, and the King sware vnto him.

o He thought it not meete to receiue benefites of him to whome he was not able to do seruice againe.

36 Thy seruant wil go a litle way ouer Iordén with the King, and why wil the King recompence it me with suche a rewarde?

When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalém, the King toke the ten women his concubines, that he had left behinde him to kepe the house, & put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhode.

¶ The said the King to e Amasá, Assemble me the mé of Iudáh within thre daies, and be thou here present.

So Amasá wét to assemble Iudáh, but he taried longer then the time which he had appointed him.

And there went out after him Iobabs mé, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mightie men: & thei departed out of Ierusalém, to followe after Shéba the sonne of Bichrí.

¶ Whé thei were at the great stone, which is in Gibeón, Amasá went before them, & Iobabs garment, that he had put on, was girded vnto him, & vpon it was a sworde girded, which hanged on his loines in the sheath, & as he went, it vsed to falle out.

And Iobab said to Amasá, Art thou m health, my brother? & Iobab toke Amasá by the beard with the right had to kisse him.

But Amasá toke no hede to the sworde that was in Iobabs hand: for therewith he smote him in the fist rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, & smote him not the seconde time: so he dyed. then Iobab & Abishái his brother followed after Shéba the sonne of Bichrí.

And one of Iobabs men b stode by him, & said, He that fauoreth Iobab, & he that is of Dauids parte, let him go after Iobab.

And Iobab answered, & said, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I shulde deuoure, or destroye it.

¶ The matter is not so, but a má of mouit Ephraím (Shéba the sonne of Bichrí by name) hath lift vp his hand against the King, euen against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, & I wil departe from the citie. And the woman said vnto Iobab, Beholde, his head shalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall.

¶ Then the woman went vnto all the people with her wisdom, and thei cut of the head of Shéba the sonne of Bichrí, & cast it to Iobab: then he blewe the trumpet, and thei retired from the citie, euery man to his tent: and Iobab returned to Ierusalém vnto the King.

8 But the King toke the two sonnes of Rizpáh the daughter of Aiah, whome she bare vnto Saúl, euē Armoni & Mephibósheh and the five sonnes of Michál, the daughter of Saúl, whome she bare to Abiáí the sonne of Barzillái the Meholahite.

f Here Michál is named for Merab Adriels wife as appeareth 1 Sam 18. 19. for Michál was the wife of Paltiel, 1 Sam 25. 44. & neuer had child. 2 Sam 6. 23. 1 Chr 11. 1

9 And he deliuered them vnto the hands of the Gibeonites, which háged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they dyed all seuen together, and they were slaine in the time of maruest: in the first dayes, & in the beginning of barly haruest.

g Which was in the moneth Abib or Nisan, which containeth parte of Marche and parte of April. h To make her a tē, wherein she prayed to God to turne away his wrath.

10 Then Rizpáh the daughter of Aiah toke sackcloth & háged it vp for her vpō the rocks, from the beginning of haruest, vntil water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffered nether the birdes of the aire to light on them by day, nor beastes of the field by night.

i Because drought was y cause of this famine, God by sending of raine shewed y he was pacified. 1 Or, 18.

11 And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpáh the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saúl had done.

1 Sam. 31. 10.

12 And Dauid went and toke the bones of Saúl and the bones of Ionathán his sonne from the citizens of Iabésh Gileád, which had stollen them from the strete of Bethshán, where the Philistims had handged them, when the Philistims had slaine Saúl in Gilbóa.

13 So he brought thence the bones of Saúl and the bones of Ionathán his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saúl and of Ionathán his sonne buried they in the countrei of Beniamín in Zeláh, in the graue of Kish his facher: and when they had performed all that the King had commanded, God was then appeased with the land.

15 Againe the Philistims had warre with Israël: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistims, and Dauid fained.

17 But Abishái the sonne of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistim, and killed him. Then Dauids men sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with vs to battel, lest thou quenche the light of Israël.

18 And after this also there was a battel with the Philistims at Gob, then Sibbechái the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of the sonnes of Harapháh.

19 And there was yet another battel in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanáh the sonne of Iaaie-oregím, a Bethlehemite slewe Goliáth the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare was like a weauers beame.

p That is, Lahmi the brother of Goliáth, whome Dauid slewe. 1 Chro 20. 5 20 Afterward there was also a battel in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on euerie hand six fingers, and on euerie foote six toes, foure and twentie in number: who was also the sonne of Harapháh.

21 And when he reuiled Israël, Ionathán the sonne of Shímá the brother of Dauid slewe him.

1 Sam. 18. 9.

22 These foure were borne to Harapháh in Gath, and dyed by the hand of Dauid and by the hands of his seruants.

CHAP. XXII.

Dauid after his victories praiseth God. 8 The angre of God toward the wicked. 44 He prophesieth of the redemption of the Iewes, and vocacion of the Gentiles.

1 And Dauid spake the wordes of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saúl.

a Intoken of the wonderful benefices, that he receiued of God

2 And he said, The Lord is my rocke and my fortresse, and he that deliuereth me.

Psal 18. 2. b By the diuinitie of these cōreble names, he sheweth how his faith was strengthened in all tentacions

3 God is my strength, in him wil I trust: my shield, and the hope of my saluacion, my hie towre and my refuge: my sauiour, thou hast saued me from violence.

4 I wil call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised. so shal I be safe from mine enemies.

c As Dauid (who was the figure of Christ) was by Gods power deliuered frō all dangers: so Christ and his Church shal ouercome moe greuous and is tyrannie and weath

5 For the pangis of death haue compassed me: the floods of vngodlines haue made me as aide.

6 The sorowes of the graue compassed me about: the snares of death ouertoke me.

O. ii.

7 But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and crye to my God, & he did heare my voice out of his temple, & my crye did enter into his eares.

8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the fundacions of the heauens moued, and shoke, because he was angry.

^d That is, cloudes, and vapors. ^e Lightning & thudering. ^f So it seemeth when the aire is darcke. ^g To flie in a moment through the world.

9 ^d Smoke went out at his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat.

10 He ^f bowed the heauens also, and came downe, and darkenes was vnder his feete. ^g And he rode vpon Cherub and did flye, and he was sene vpon the wings of the winde.

12 And he made darknes a tabernacle rounde about him, ^h euē the gatherings of waters, and the cloudes of the aire.

^h By this description of a tempest he declaroth the power of God against his enemies

13 At the brightnes of his prefence ^h the coles of fire were kindled.

14 The Lord thundred from heauen, & the moste hye gaue his voyce.

15 He shot arrowes also, and scatred them: ⁱ to wit, lightning, and destroyed them.

ⁱ He alludeth to the miracle of the red Sea.

16 The ⁱ chanel also of the sea appeared, euē the fundacions of the worlde were discouered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from aboue, and toke me: he drew me out of manie waters.

18 He deliuered me from my strong enemies, and from thē that hated me: for they were to strong for me.

^k I was so beset, that all meanes seemed so faile.

19 They ^k preuented me in the day of my calamitie, but the Lord was my stay,

20 And brought me forth into a large place: he deliuered me, because he fauored me.

^l Toward Saul and mine enemies

21 The Lord rewarded me according to my ^l righteousnes: according to the purenes of mine hands he recompenced me.

22 For I kept the wayes of the Lord, and did not ^m wickedly against m. God.

^m I attempted nothing without his commandement

23 For all his lawes were before me, and his statutes: I did not departe therefrom.

24 I was vpright also towarde him, and haue kept me from my wickednes.

25 Therefore the Lord did rewarde me, according to my righteousnes, according to my puienes before his eyes.

26 With ⁿ godlie thou wilt shewe thy selfe godlie: with the vpright man thou wilt shewe thy selfe vpright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shewe thy selfe pure, and with the ⁿ fiowarde thou wilt shewe thy selfe frowarde.

ⁿ Their wickednes is cause, that thou seemest to forget thy wanted mercie

28 Thus thou wilt saue the poore people: but thine eyes are vpon the hautie to humble them.

29 Surely thou art my light, o Lord: and the Lord wil lighten my darknes.

30 For by thee haue I broken through an hoste, and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall.

31 The way of God is o vncorrupt: the worde of the Lord is tryed in the fire: he is a shield to all that trust in him.

^o The manner God vseth to succour his, neuer faileth

32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mighty, saue our God?

33 God is my strength in battel, and maketh my way vpright.

34 He maketh my feete like ^p hindes feete, and hathe set me vpon mine hie places.

^p He vseth extraordinarye meanes to make me winne moste strong holdes. Or, strele.

35 He teacheth mine hands to fight, so that a bowe of ^q brasse is broken with mine aimes.

36 Thou hast also giuen me the shield of thy saluacion, and thy louing kindenes hathe caused me to increase.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me, and mine heeles haue not slid.

38 I haue pursued mine enemies and destroyed them, and haue not turned againe vntil I had consumed them.

39 Yea, I haue consumed them and thrust them through, and they shal not arise, but shal fall vnder my feete.

40 For thou hast ^q girded me with power to battel, and them that arose against me, hast thou subdued vnder me.

^q He acknowledgeth that God was the auctor of his victories, who gaue him strength.

41 And thou hast giuen me the neckes of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked about, but there was none to saue them, euē vnto the ^r Lord, but he answered them not.

^r The wicked in their necessity are compelled to flie to God, but it is to late.

43 Then did I beate thē as small as the dust of the earth: I did tread them flat as the clay of the streete, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou hast also deliuered me from the conciecions of my ^s people: thou hast preserved me to be the head ouer nations: the people which I knewe not, do serue me.

^s Meaning, of Jewes, who conspired against me

45 Strangers ^t shalbe in subiection to me: as sone as they heare, they shal obeye me.

^t Not willingly obeying me, but dissemblingly.

46 Strangers shal shrink away, and feare in their priue chambers.

47 Let the Lord liue, ^u and blessed be my strength: and God, euē the force of my saluacion be exalted.

^u Let him shewe his power, that he is the gouernour of all the worlde

48 It is God that giueth me power to reuege me, and subdue the people vnder me, 49 And rescueth me from mine enemies: ^y also hast lift me vp from them that rose against me, thou hast deliuered me from the cruel man.

50 Therefore I wil praise thee, o Lord, among the ^z nations, and wil sing vnto thy Name)

7 But the man that shal touche them, must be defended with yron, or with the shaft of a speare. & they shal be burnt with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ These be the names of the mighty men whome Dauid had. He that sate in y seate of e wisdome being chief of the princes, was Adinó of Ezni, he slewe eight hundred at one time.

9 And after him was  Eleazár the sonne of Dodó, the sonne of Ahohí, one of the thre worthies with Dauid, when they defied y Philistims gathered there to battel, when the men of Israél were f gone vp.

10 He arose and smote the Philistims vntil his hand was weary, and his hand g claue vnto the sworde: and the Lord gaue great victorie the same day, and the people returned after him onely to spoile.

11 After him was  Shammáh the sonne of Agé the Hararite: for y Philistims assembled at a towne, where was a piece of a field ful of lentils, and the people fled fro the Philistims.

12 But he stode in the middes of the field, and defended it, and slewe the Philistims: so the Lord gaue h great victorie.

13 ¶ Afterward thre of the thirty captaines went downe, and came to Dauid in the haruest time vnto the caue of Adullám, & the hoste of the Philistims pitched in the valley of Repháim.

14 And Dauid was then in an holde, and the garison of the Philistims was then in Beth-léhem.

15 And Dauid i longed, and said, Oh, that on wolde giue me to drinke of the water of the well of Beth-léhem, which is by the CHAP. XXIIII.

¹ Dauid causeth the people to be nombred. 10 He repenteth, and chuseth to fall into Gods hands 25 Seuente thousand perish with the pestilence.

¹ AND the wrath of the Lord was ^a against kindled against Israël, and ^b he moued Dauid against them, in that he said, Go, nomb: 1 Israël and Iudáh.

² For the King said to Ioáb the captaine of the hoste, which was with him. Go spe-dely now through all the tribes of Israël, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba and nomber ye the people, that I may knowe the number of the people.

³ And Ioáb said vnto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people an hun dred fold: mo then they be, and that the eyes of my lord the King maye see it: but why doeth my lord the King desire this thing?

⁴ Notwithstanding the King worde pe-ruailed against Ioáb & against the captai-nes of the hoste: therefore Ioáb & the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the King, to number the people of Israël.

⁵ And they passed ouer Iordén, and pitched in Aroér at the right side of the citie that is in the middes of the valley of Gad and towa ¹ Izzér.

⁶ Then they came to Gileád, and to ² Tah-um hodshi, so they came to Dan Iaan, &
so about to Zidon;

⁷ And I came to the forteresse of Ty rus and to all the cities of the Hittites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudáh, euen to Beer-sheba.

⁸ So when they had gone about all the lād, they returned to Ierusalém at the end of nine moneths and twentie dayes.

⁹ And Ioáb deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the King: and there were in Israël ^d eight hūdreth thousand strong m n that drewe swordes, and the men of Iudáh were ^e fine hundreth thousand men.

¹⁰ Thē Dauids heart smote him, after that he had nombred the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beseeche thee, take away the tres-passe of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.

¹¹ And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids ^f Seer, saying,

¹² Go, and say vnto Dauid, Thus sayth the Lord, I offre thee thre things, chose thie which of them I shal do vnto thee.

¹³ So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed hī; and said vnto him, Wilt thou that ^g I uen ye: es famine come vpon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee thre moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be thre daies pestilence in thy land: now aduise thee, and se, what answer
I shal giue to him that sent me.

¹⁴ And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderful straite: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hād of man.

¹⁵ So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israël, from the morning euen to the time appointed: and there dyed of the people ^h fiō Dan euen to Beer-sheba seuentie thousand men.

¹⁶ And when the Angel stretched out his hand vpon Ierusalém to destroy it, the Lord ⁱ repēted of the euil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people. It is sufficient, ^j holde now thine hand And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunáh the Iebusite.

¹⁷ And Dauid spake vnto the Lord (when he sawe the Angel that smote the people) & said, Beholde, I haue sinned, yea, I haue done wickedly: but these shepe, what haue they ^k done? let me stand, I praye thee, be against me & against my fathers house.

¹⁸ So Gad came the same day ^l to Dauid, and said vnto him, Go vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Araunáh the Iebusite.

¹⁹ And Dauid (according to the saying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded.

²⁰ And Araunáh looked, and sawe the King and his seruants comming towarde him, and Araunáh went out, and bowed him selfe before the King on his face to the grounde,

²¹ And ¹ Araunáh said, Wherefore is my lord the King come to his seruant? Then Dauid answered, To bye the threshing floore of thee, for to buyle an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

²² Then Araunáh said vnto Dauid, Let my lord the King take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: be holde the oxen for the burnt offering, and charrets, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

²³ All these things did Araunáh ^m as a King giue vnto the King: & Araunáh said vnto the King, The Lord thy God be fauo-rable vnto thee.

THE FIRST BOKE OF the Kings.

THE ARGUMENT.

BEcause the children of God shoulde loke for no continual rest and quietnes in this worlde, the holy Ghost setteth before our eyes in this boke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israël from the death of Dauid, Salomón and the rest of the Kings, vnto the death of Aháb, declaring how that flourishing kingdomes, except they be preserved by Gods protection, (who then fauoreth them when his worde is truly set forth, vertue esteemed, vice punished and concorde maintained) fall to decay and come to naught: as appeareth by the diuiding of the kingdome vnder Robohám, and Ierobohám, which before were but all one people, and now by the iuste punishment of God were made two, whereof Iudáh and Beniamín came to Robohám: and this was called the kingdome of Iudáh, and the other ten tribes helde with Ierobohám, and this was called the kingdome of Israël. The King of Iudáh had his throne in Ierusalém, and the King of Israël in Samaria, after it was buylt by Amri Ahabs father. And because our Saviour Christ according to the flesh shoulde come of the stocke of Dauid, the genealogie of the Kings of Iudáh is here described, from Salomón to Ioram the sonne of Iosaphát, who reigned ouer Iudáh in Ierusalém, as Aháb did ouer Israël in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

- 3 Abishág kept Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adoniah vsurpeth the kingdome. 20 Salomón is appointed King. 50 Adoniah fleeth to the altar.

^a He was about 70 yere olde, 2 Sam. 5, 4.
^b For his natural heate was worne away with trauels.

Now when King Dauid was ^a olde, and stricken in yeres, they couered him w clothes, but no ^b heate came vnto him.

Wherefore his seruáts said vnto him, Let there be sought for my lord the King a yong virgin, and let her stand before the King, and cherish him: & let her lye in thy bosome, that my lord the King may get heate.

- 3 So they sought for a faire yong maid throughout all the coastes of Israël, and founde one Abishág ^c a Shunammite, and brought her to the King.

^c Which citie was in the tribē of Issachar.

4 And the maid was exceeding faire, & cherished the King, and ministred to him, but the King knewe her not.

- 5 ¶ Then Adoniah the sonne of Haggith exalted him selfe, saying, I wil be King. And he gate him charets and horsemen, & ^d fifty men to runne before him.

11 Wherefore Nathán spake vnto Bath-sheba the mother of Salomón, saying, Hast thou not heard, that Adoniah the sonne of Haggith doeth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

^g 2 Sam. 3, 4.

- 12 Now therefore come, & I wil now giue thee counsel, how to saue thine owne ^h life, and the life of thy sonne Salomón.

^g For Adoniah wil destroy thee and thy sonne, if he reigne.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, & say vnto him, didest not thou, my lord, o King, swear vnto thine hádmaid, sayig, Assuredly Salomón thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne? why is then Adoniah King?

- 14 Beholde, while y yet talkest there with the King, I also wil come in after thee, & ^h comfirmethy wordes.

^h By declaring suche things, as may further the same.

15 ¶ So Bath-sheba went in vnto the King into y cláber, & the King was very olde, and Abishág the Shunammite ministred vnto the King.

O. liii.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed and made obeisance vnto the King. And the King said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swearst by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Salomón thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne.

18 And beholde, now is Adonijah King, & now, my lord, O King, thou knowest it not.

19 And he hath offered many oxen, and fat cattel, and shepe, and hath called all the sonnes of the King, & Abiathar the Priest, & Ioab the captaine of the hoste: but Salomón thy seruant hath he not bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, O King, knowest that the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shouldest tel them, who shoulde sit on the throne of my lord the King after him.

21 For els when my lord the King shall slepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Salomón shall be reputed vile.

22 And lo, while she yet talked with the King, Nathán also the Prophet came in.

23 And they tolde the King, saying, Beholde, Nathán the Prophet. And when he was come in to the King, he made obeisance before the King vpon his face to the ground.

24 And Nathán said, My lord, O King, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne?

25 For he is gone downe this day, & hath slain many oxen, and fat cattel and shepe, and hath called all the Kings sonnes, & the captaines of the hoste, & Abiathar the Priest and beholde, they eat & drinke before him, and say, "God saue King Adonijah."

26 But methy seruant, and Zadók the Priest and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and thy seruant Salomón hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the King, & thou hast not shewed it vnto thy seruant, who shoulde sit on the throne of my lord the King after him?

28 ¶ Then King Dauid answered, & said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into the Kings presence, and stood before the King.

29 And the King sware, saying, As the Lord liueth, who hath redeemed my soule out of all aduersitie, 30 That as I have sworn vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Salomón thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my throne in my place, so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, & did reuerence vnto the King, & said, God saue my lord King Dauid for ever.

32 ¶ And King Dauid said, Call me Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá. And they came before the King.

33 Then the King said vnto them, Take with you the seruants of your lord, and cause Salomón my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, & cary him downe to Gihón.

34 And let Zadók the Priest and Nathán the Prophet anoint him there King ouer Israel, and blowe ye the trumpet, and say, God saue King Salomón.

35 Then come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpon my throne: and he shall be King in my steade: for I haue appointed him to be prince ouer Israel and ouer Iudah.

36 Then Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá answered the King, & said, So be it, O the Lord God of my lord the King ratifie it.

37 As the Lord hath bene with my lord the King, so be he with Salomón, & exalt his throne about the throne of my lord King Dauid.

38 So Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites & the Pelethites went downe, and caused Salomón to ride vpon King Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihón.

39 And Zadók the Priest took an horn of poynt out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomón anointed him with the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue King Salomón.

40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes & reioyced with great ioye, so that the earth rang with the sounde of them.

41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the gesses that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Ioab heard the sounde of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise & uprore in the citie?

42 And as he yet spake, beholde, Ionathán the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came: & Adonijah said, Come in: for thou art a worthy man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Ionathán answered, and said to Adonijah, Verely our lord King Dauid hath made Salomón King.

44 And the King hath sent with him Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet, and Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the Kings mule.

45 And Zadók the Priest, and Nathán the Prophet haue anointed him King in Gihón: and they are gone vp fro thence with ioye, and the citie is moued: this is the noise

47 And moreover the Kings feruants came to blesse our lord King Dauid, saying, God make the name of Salomón more famous then thy name, & exalt his throne about thy throne: therefore the King worshiped vpon the ^c bed.

48 And thus said the King also, Blessed be the Lord God of Israël, who hath made one to sit on my throne this day, euen in my sight.

Mat. 23, 33. Wisd. 7, 11.

1 Salomón^a the made affinitie with Pharaoh King of Egypt, and toke Pharaohs daughter, and brought her into the^a citie of Dauid, vntil he had made an end of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Ierusalem round about.

2 Onely the people sacrificed in^b the hie places, because there was no house buylt vnto the Name of the Lord, vntil those dayes.

3 And Salomón loued the Lord, walking in the ordināces of Dauid his^c father: onely he sacrificed and offered incense in the hie places.

4 And the King wēt to^d Gibeón to sacrifice there, for that was the chief hie place: a thousand burnt offerings did Salomón offer vpon that altar.

5 In Gibeón the Lord appeared to Salomón in a dreame by night: and God said, Aske what I shal giue thee.

6 And Salomón said, Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant Dauid my father great mercy,^e when he walked before thee in trueth, & in righteousnes, and in vprightnes of heart with thee: & thou hast^f kept for him this great mercy, and hast giuen him a sonne, to sit on his throne, as appeareth this day.

7 And now, o Lord, my God, thou hast made thy seruant King in stead of Dauid my father: and I am but a yong childe, and knowe not how to^g go out and in.

8 And thy seruant is in the middes of thy people, which^h thou hast chosen, euen a great people which cannot be tolde nor nombred for multitude.

9 *Giue therefore vnto thy seruant an^a vnderstanding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may discern betwene good & bad: for who is able to iudge this thy^g mighty people?

10 And this pleased the Lord wel, that Salomón had desired this thing.

11 And God said vnto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, & hast not asked for thy selfe long life, nether hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked^h thy life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding to heare iudgement, 12 Beholde, I haue done according to thy wordes: lo, I haue giuen thee a wife and an vnderstanding heart, so that there haue bene none like thee before thee, nether after thee shal arise the like vnto thee.

13 And I haue also^a giuen thee that, which thou hast not asked, bothe riches and honour, so that among the Kings there^a shal be none like vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to kepe mine ordinances and my commandments,^a as thy father Dauid did walke, Chap. 15, 34 I wil prolong thy dayes.

15 And when Salomón awoke, beholde, it wasⁱ a dreame, and he came to Ierusalem, and stode before the Aike of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

16 ¶ Then came two^j harlottes vnto the King, and^k stode before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I & this woman dwell in one house, & I was deliuered of a childe with her in^l my house.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered also: and we were in the house together: no stranger was with vs in the house, saue we twaine.

19 And this womans sonne dyed in the night: for she ouerlay him.

20 And she rose at midnight, and^m toke my sonne from my side, while thine handmaid slept, & layed him in her bosome, & layed her dead sonne in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my sonne sucke, beholde, he was dead: and when I had wel considered him in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne, whom I had borne.

22 Then the other woman said, Naye, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead: againe she said, No, but thy sonne is dead, & mine aliue: thus they spake beforeⁿ the King.

23 The said the King, She sayth, this that liueth is my sonne, & the dead is thy sonne: and^o the other sayth, Naye, but the dead is thy sonne, and the liuing is my sonne.

24 Then^p the King said, Bring me a sworde: & they brought out a sworde before^q the King.

25 And the King said, Deuide ye the liuing childe in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

26 Then spake the woman, whose the liuing childe was, vnto the King, for her compassion was kindled toward her sonne, & she said, Oh my lord, giue her the liuing childe, and^r slay him not: but the other said, Let it be nether mine nor thine, but deuide it.

27 Then the King answered, & said, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: this is his mother.

28 And all Israél heard^s the iudgement, which the King had iudged, and they feared the King: for they sawe that the wisdom of God was in him to do iustice.

Salomons prouision.

1 And King Salomón was King ouer all Israël.

2 And these were ^a his princes, ^b Azariáh the sonne of Zadók the Priest, Elihóreph and Ahíah the sonnes of Shishá scribes, Iehoshaphát the sonne of Ahilúd, the recorder,

4 And Benaiáh the sonne of Iehoiadá was ouer the hoste, and Sadók and ^c Abiathár Priests,

5 And Azariáh the sonne of Nathán was ouer the officers, and Zabúd the sonne of Nathán Priest was the Kings friend,

6 And Ahishár was ouer the houtholde: & ^d Adoniráam the sonne of Abdá was ouer the tribute.

7 And Salomón had twelue officers ouer all Israël, which provided vitailles for the King and his houtholde: eche man had a moneth in the yere to prouide vitailles.

8 And these are their names: the sonne of Hur in mount Ephíaim:

9 The sonne of Dekár in Makáz, and in Shaalbím and Beth-shémesh, and ^e Elón and Beth-hanán:

10 The sonne of Hésed in Arubóth, to whome pertained Sochóh, & all the land of Hépher:

11 The sonne of Abinadáb in all the regiõ of Dor, which had Tapháth the daughter of Salomón to wife.

12 Baaná the sonne of Ahilúd in Taanách, and Megiddó, & in all Beth-sheán, which is by Zartánah beneth Izreél, from Beth-sheán to Abel-meholáh, euen til beyonde ouer against Iokmeám:

13 The sonne of Géber in Ramóth Gileád, & his were the townes of ^f Iair, the sonne of Manasséh, which are in Gileád, and vnder him was the regiõ of Argób which is in Bashán: threescore great cities with walles and barres of brasle.

14 And Adinadáb the sonne of Iddó had to Mahanáim:

15 Ahimáaz in Naphtalí, and he toke Basmath the daughter of Salomón to wife:

16 Baaná the sonne of Hushái in Ashér and in Alóth:

17 Iehoshaphát the sonne of Parúah in Issachár.

18 Shimeí the sonne of Eláh in Beniamín: 19 Góber the sonne of Vrí in the countrei of Gileád, the land of Sihón King of the Amorites, and of Og King of Bashán, and was officer alone in the land.

20 Iudáh and Israël were manie, as the sand of the sea in number, ^g eating, drinking, and making meary.

21 And Salomón reigned ouer all kingdomes, from the ^h Riuer vnto the land of the Philistims, and vnto the border of Egypt, and they brought presentes, and serued Salomón all the dayes of his life.

22 And Salomons vitailles for one day were thirtie measures of fine floure, and threescore measures of meale:

23 Ten fat oxen, and twentie oxen of the pastures, and an hundreth shepe, beside hartes, and buckes, and bugles, and fat foule.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the Riuer, from Tiphshá euen vnto Azzáh, ouer all the ⁱ Kings on the other side the Riuer: & he had peace rōude about him on euerie side.

25 And Iudáh and Israël dwelt without feare, euerie man vnder his vine, and vnder his fig tree, from Dan, euen to Beer-sheba, all the dayes of Salomón.

26 And Salomón had ^j fortie thousand stables of horses for his charets, and twelue thousand horsemen.

27 And these officers provided vitaille for King Salomón, and for all that came to King Salomons table, euerie man his moneth, and they suffred to lacke nothing.

28 Barly also and strawe for the horses and mules brought they vnto the place where the officers were, euerie man according to his charge.

29 And God gaue Salomón wisdome and vnderstanding exceding muche, and a ^k large heart, euen as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Salomons wisdome excelled the wisdome of all the children of the East and all the wisdome of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser then any man yea, then were Ethán the Ezrahite, then Heman, then Chalcól, then Darda the sonnes of Mahól: and he was famous throughout all nations rounde about.

32 And Salomón spake thre thousand ^m proverbes: and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanón, euen vnto the hyssope that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beastes, and of foules, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to heare the wisdome of Salomón, frō all Kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdome.

CHAP. VII.

1 The buylding of the Temple and the forme thereof.
12 The promises of the Lord to Salomón.

1 And^g in the foure hundred and foure score yere (after the children of Israél were come out of the land of Egypt) and in the fourth yere of the reigne of Salomón ouer Israél, in the moneth^a Zif, (which is the seconde moneth) he buylt the^b house of the Lord.

2 And the house which Kig Salomón buylt for the Lord, was thre score cubites long, & twétié broade, and thirty cubites hie.

3 And the porche before the Temple of the house was twétié cubites long according to the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broade before the house.

4 And in the house he made windowes, broade without, and narowe within.

5 And by the wall of the house he made^g galleries rounde about, Or so open as thus euen by the walles of the house rounde about the Té- ple and^d the oracle, and made chambres rounde about.

6 The nethermost gallerie was fíue cubites broade, and the middlemost six cubites broade, & the thide seuē cubites broade: for he made^e restes rounde about without the house, that the beames shulde not be fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And whē the house was buylt, it was buylt of stone perfite, before it was brought, so that there was nether hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of yron heard in the house, while it was in buylding.

8 The dore of the middle^h chambre was in the right side of the house, & men went vp with winding steires into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So he buylt the^f house and finished it, & cieled the house being vawted with cie- ling of cedar trees.

10 And he buylt the galleries vpon all the wall of the house of fíue cubites height, & they were ioyned to the house with beams of cedar.

14 So Salomon buylt the house and finished it.

15 And buylt the walles of the house within, with bordes of cedre tre from the pavement of the house vnto the walles of the cieling, and within he couered them with wood and couered the floore of the house with planks of firre.

h Meaning vnto the roofe, which was also couered.

16 And he buylt twentie cubites in the sides of the house with bordes of cedre, fro the floore to the walles, and he prepared a place within it for y oracle, then the moste holy place.

17 But the house, that is, the temple before it was fouentie cubites long.

18 And the centre of the house within was kerued with knoppes, and grauen with flowres: all was cedre, so that no stone was sene.

19 ¶ Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the middes of the house within, to set the Arke of the couenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad; and twentie cubites he, and he couered it with pure golde, and couered the altar with cedre.

21 So Salomon couered the house within with pure golde: and he shut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde, and couered it with golde.

22 And he ouerslaied the house with golde, vntil all the house was made perfite. also he couered y whole altar, that was before the oracle, with golde.

- 27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner house, and the Cherubims stretched out their wings, so that the wing of y one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other Cherub touched the other wall: and their other wings touched one another in the middes of the house.
- 28 And he overlaid the Cherubims with golde.

20 And the Lord hathe made ^g good his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and sit on ^y throne of Israël, as the Lord promised, and haue buylt the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israël.

14 And Hiram had sent the King six score talents of golde:

d For his tribute toward the buylding e The common talent was about threescore pounde weight.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of y tribute why King Salomón raised tribute, to wit, to buylde y house of the Lord, & his owne house, and Milló, and the wall of Ierusalém, & Hazór, and Megiddó, and Gézer.

f Milló was as y towne house or place of assemblie which was open about.

16 Pharaoh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gézer, and burnt it with fire, & slew the Canaanites, that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Salomons wife.

them in the land, whome the children of Israél were not able to destroye, those did Salomón make tributaries vnto this day.

Leui. 25. 39.

22 But of the children of Israél did Salomón make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his seruants, and his princes, and his captaines, and rulers of his charets and his horsemen.

 The ouerfers of Salomons worke were deuised into 3 partes. the first couered 3300 & se conde 300 and 33, 150, which were Israellites: so here are contained the two last parts, which make 330.*

24 ¶ And Pharaohs daughter came vp frō the citie of Dauid vnto the house which Salomón had buyt for her: the did he buyt de Milló.

25 And thrise a yere did Salomón offer burnt offrings and peace offrings vpon the altar which he buyt vnto the Lord: & he burnt incense vpon the altar, that was before the Lord, when he had finished the house.

26 ¶ Also King Salomón made a nauie of shippes in Ezeon-géber, which is beside Elóth, and the brincke of the red Sea, in the land of Edóm.

27 And Hiram sent with the nauie his seruants, y^e were mariners, & had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Salomón.

The queene of Sabá cometh to heare the wisdom of Salomón 18 His royal throne 23 His power and magnificence

2 Chron. 9. 1. 12. 42. 1 In 12. 31 a Josephus saith that she was queene of Benepi, and y^e Sheba was the name of y^e ciuitie of Méroe, which is an yland of Nilus.

1 And the queene of Shebá hearing the fame of Salomón (concerning the Name of the Lord) came to proue him with hard questions,

2 And she came to I rusalém with a very great traine, & camels that bare swete odors, and golde exceeding muche, & precious stones: and she came to Salomón, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Salomón declared vnto her all her questions: nothing was hid frō the King, which he expounded not vnto her.

4 Then the queene of Shebá sawe all Salomons wisdom, and the house that he had buyt.

6 That is, the whole ordre, and trade of his house

5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, and the ordre of his ministers, & their apparel, & his drinking vessels, and his burnt offrings, that he offered in the house of the Lord, and she was greatly astonied.

"For there was no more spirit in her"

6 And she said vnto the King, It was a true worde that I heard in mine owne land of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I beleued not this reporte, til I came, and had sene it with mine eyes: but lo, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thou hast more wisdom and prosperitie, the I haue heard by reporte.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy seruants, which stand euer before thee, and heare thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loued thee, to set thee on the throne of Israél, because the Lord loued Israél for euer and made thee King, to doe equitie and righteousness.

e But muche more happie are they, & heare the wisdom of God reueiled in his worde d It is a chief signe of Gods fauour, when godlie & wise rulers sit in y^e throne of iustice e This is the cause, why Kings are appointed.

10 And she gaue the King six score talents of golde, and of swete odors exceeding muche, and precious stones. There came no more suche abúdance of swete odors, as the queene of Shebá gaue to King Salomón.

2 Chron. 9. 100

11 The nauie also of Hiram (that caried golde from Ophír) brought likewise great plenty of Almuggím trees from Ophír and precious stones.

12 And the King made of the Almuggím trees pillars for the house of the Lord, & for the Kings palace, and made harpes & psalteries for singers. There came no more suche Almuggím trees, nor were anie more sene vnto this day.

13 And King Salomón gaue vnto the queene of Shebá, whatsoeuer she wolde aske, besides that, which Salomón gaue her of his kinglie liberalitie: so she returned & went to her owne countrey, both she, and her seruants.

21 And all King Salomons drinke vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanón were of pure golde. none were of siluer: for it was nothing esteemed in the daies of Salomón.

22 For the King had on the sea the nauie of Tharshish with the nauie of Hiram: once in thre yere came y^e nauie of^b Tharshish, & brought golde and siluer, yuerie, & apes and peacokes.

^b By Tharshish is meant Cilicia, w^h was abundant in varietie of precious things.

23 So King Salomón exceded all y^e Kings of the earth bothe in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the worlde fought to se Salomón, to heare his wisdom, which God had put in his heart,

25 And thei brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and raiment, and armour, and swete odors, horses and mules, from yere to yere.

26 Then Salomón gathered together^a charrets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and foure hundred charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whome he placed in the charet, cities, and with the King at Ierusalém.

* I wil surely rent the kingdome frō thee,

14 ¶ Then the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Salomón, euen Hadád the Edomite, of the Kings h seedes, which was in Edóm.

15 * For when Dauid was in Edóm, & Ioáb the captaine of the hoste had smitten all the males in Edóm, and was gone vp to bury the slayne,

16 (For six moneths did Ioáb remaine there, and all Israél, til he had destroyed all the males in Edóm)

17 Then this Hadad k fled and certeine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a litle childe.

18 And they arose out of Midián, & came to Parán, and toke men with them out of Parán, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaóh
King of Egypt, which gaue him an house, and appointed him vntailes, and gaue him land.

19 So Hadád l founde great fauour in the sight of Pharaóh, & he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Tahpenés the quene.

20 And the sister of Tahpenés bare him Genubáth his sonne, whome Tahpenés wayned in Pharaohs house: & Genubáth was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaóh.

21 And when Hadád heard in Egypt, that Dauid slept with his fathers, & that Ioáb the captaine of the hoste was dead, Hadád said to Pharaóh, Let me departe, that I may go to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaóh said vnto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that thou woldest thus go to thine owne countrey? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me go.

23 ¶ * And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, Rezón the sonne of Eliadáh, which m fled from his lord Hadadézer King of Zobáh.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, & had bene captaine ouer the companie, when Dauid slewe them. And thei went to Damascus, and dwelt there, n and thei made him King in Damascus.

25 Therefore was he an aduersarie to Is-raél all the daies of Salomón: besides the euil that Hadád did, he also abhorred Is-raél, and reigned ouer Arám.

26 ¶ * And Ieroboám y sonne of Nebát an Ephrathite of Zeréda Salomons seruant (whose mother was called Zeruáh a wi-

27 And this was the cause that he lift vp his hand against the King, when Salomón buyt Milló, he repared the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this man Ieroboám was a man of strength and courage, and Salomón seing that the yong mā was mete for the worke, he made him o ouersee of all the laboure of the house of Ioséph.

29 And at that time, when Ieroboám went

34 But I wil not take the whole kingdome out of his hād: for I wil make him prince all his life long for Dauid my seruants sake, whome I haue chosen, & who kept my commandments and my statutes.

sonnes hand, and wil giue it vnto thee; eue
the ten tribes.

36 And vnto his sonne wil I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant maye haue a slight alwaie before me in Ierusalém the citie, which I haue chosén me, to put my Name there.

¶ He hathe respect vnto his Meisiah, who shoulde be the bright starre & shoulde shine through all the world.
¶ Also in all that the Jewe.

37 And I wil take thee, & thou shalt reigne, euen as thine heart desireth, & shalt be King ouer Israél.

38 And if thou hearké vnto all that I commandethee, and wilt walke in my wares, and do right in my sight, to kepe my statutes and my commandements, as Dauid my seruant did, then wil I be with thee, & buylde thee a sure house, as I buylt vnto Dauid, and wil giue Israél vnto thee.

39 And I wil for this afflicte the seede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 ¶ Salomón foght therefore to kil Ieroboám, and Ieroboám arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Shishák King of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntil the death of Salomón.

¶ Which boke, as is thought, was lost in their captivity.

41 And the rest of the wordes of Salomón, & all that he did, and his wisdom, are thei not written in the boke of the actes of Salomón?

42 The time that Salomón reigned in Ierusalém ouer all Israél, was fourtie yere.

43 And Salomón slept with his fathers and was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboám his sonne reigned in his steade.

4 Thy father made our yoke grieuous: now therefore make thou the grieuous seruitude of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, a lighter, & we wil serue thee.

¶ Oppresse vs not with so great charges, which we are not able to susteine.

5 And he said vnto them, Departe yet for thre dayes, then come againe to me. And the people departed.

¶ Or, had bene of his ancient followers.

6 And King Rehoboám take counsel with the olde men that had stande before Salomón his father, while he yet liued, and said, What counsel giue ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

7 And thei spake vnto him, saying, If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and serue them, and answer them, and speake kinde wordes to them, thei wil be thy seruants for euer.

¶ Thei shewed him that there was no way to winne the peoples hearts, but to grante thei their iust petition.

8 But he forsoke the counsel that the olde men had giuen him, and asked counsel of the yong men, that had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said vnto them, What counsel giue ye, that we may answer this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

¶ There is nothing harder for them, that are in authority, the to bridle their affections, and followe good counsel.

10 Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and said, Thy father hathe made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: thus shalt thou say vnto the, My least parte, shalbe bigger then my fathers loynes.

¶ Or, little finger. I am muche more able to kepe you in subiection then my father was 11 Now where as my father did burde you with a grieuous yoke, I wil yet make your yoke heauier: my father hathe chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

¶ Or, scourges.

12 ¶ Then Ieroboám and all the people came to Rehoboám the third day, as the King had appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

¶ The people declare their obedience in this, that they wolde attempt nothing before the King had giuen the iuste occasion

13 And the King answered the people sharply, and left the olde mens counsel that thei gaue him, 14 And spake to them after the counsel of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I wil make your yoke more grieuous: my father hathe chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

¶ Or, the Lord was the cause.

¶ Chap. 12. 11.

15 And the King hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of the Lord, that he might performe his saying, which the Lord had spoken by Ahiah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát.

16 So when all Israél sawe that the King regarded them not, the people answered the King thus, saying, What porciō haue we in Dauid? we haue none inheritance in the sonne of Ithái. To your tents, O Israél: now se to thine owne house, Dauid. So Israél departed vnto their tents.

¶ Though thei cause were good, yet it is moste hard for the people to bridle their affections, as these vile wordes declare

17 Howbeit ouer the children of Israél, which dwelt in the citie of Iudáh, did Rehoboám reigne still.

18 ¶ Now the King Rehoboám sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israél stoned him to death: then King Rehoboám made spede to get him vp to his chariot, to flee to Ierusalém.

21 And whē Rehoboám was come to Ierusalém, he ^h gathered all the house of Iudáh with the tribe of Beniamín an hundredth and four score thousand of chosen men (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israël & to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboám the sonne of Salomón.

22 * But the worde of God came vnto She-maiah the ¹ man of God, saying,

23 Speake vnto Rehoboám the sonne of Salomón King of Iudáh, and vnto all the house of Iudáh and Beniamín, and the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus sayth the ^k Lord, Ye shal not go vp, nor fight against your brethrin the children of Israël: retorne euerie man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeyed therefore the worde of the Lord and returned, and departed, according to the worde of the Lord.

25 ¶ Then Ieroboám buylt Shechem in mount Ephraím, and dwelt therein, & wēt from thence, and buylt Penuél.

26 And Ieroboám thought in his heart, Now shal the kingdome retorne to the house of Dauid.

27 If this people go vp and do sacrifice in the house of the Lord ^l at Ierusalém, the shal the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lord, euē to Rehoboám King of Iudáh: so shal they kil me and go againe to Rehoboám King of Iudáh.

28 Whereupon the King toke counsel, and made two calves of golde, and said vnto them, ^m It is to muche for you to go vp to Ierusalém: beholde, ^o Israël, thy gods, which brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-él, and the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people wēt (because of ^y one) euē to Dan.

31 Also he made an ⁿ house of hye places, and made Priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leuī.

32 And Ieroboám made a feast the ^o fiftēth day of the eight moneth, lyke vnto ^y feast that is in Iudáh, and offred on the altar. So did he in Beth-él and offred vnto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-él the Priests of the hye places, which he had made.

33 And he offred vpon the altar, which he had made in Beth-él, the fiftēth day of the eight moneth (euē in the moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) & made a solēne feast vnto the childre of Israël & he went vp to the altar, to burne incense.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Ieroboám is reprehended of the Prophet. 4 His hand dryeth vp 15 The Prophet is seduced, 24 And is killed of a lyon. 33 The obstinacie of Ieroboám.

1 And beholde, there came ^a a man of ^A God out of Iudáh (by the commandement of the Lord) vnto ^b Beth-él, and Ieroboám stood by the altar to offer incense.

2 And he cryed against the altar by the commandement of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus sayth ^y Lord, Beholde, a childe shal be boine vnto the house of Dauid, * Iosiah by name, and vpon thee shal he sacrifice the Priests of the hye places that burne incense vpon thee, and they shal burne mens bones vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a signe ^y same time, saying, This is the ^c signe, that the Lord hathe spoken, Beholde, the altar shal rent, and the ashes that are vpon it, shal fall out.

4 And whē the King had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cryed against ^y altar in Beth-él, Ieroboám stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, ^d Lay holde on him: but his hand which he put forth against him, dryed vp, & he coulde not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar also claued asundre, & the ashes fel out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had giuen by the ^e commandement of the Lord.

6 Then the King answered, and said vnto the man of God, ^e I beseeche thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored vnto me. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Thē the King said vnto the mā of God, Come home with me, that thou maist ^f dine, and I wil giue thee a rewarde.

8 But the man of God said vnto the King, If thou woldest giue me halfe thine house, I wolde not go in with thee, neither wolde I eat bread nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so ^g was it charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, ^f Eat no bread nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest.

16 But he answered, I may not returne with thee, nor go in with thee, nether wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, and an Angel spake vnto me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drinke water: but he lied vnto him.

19 So he went againe with him, and did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe.

24 And when he was gone, ^k a lyon met him by the way, and slewe him, and his bodie was cast in the way, and the asse stode thereby: the lyon stode by the corps also.

25 And beholde, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the lyon standing by the corps: and they came and tolde it in the towne where the olde Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet, that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hath bene disobedient vnto the commandemēt of the Lord: therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the lyon, which hath rent him and flaine him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake vnto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sonnes, saying,

Saddle me the asse. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and founde his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lyon stode by the corps: and the lyon had ¹ not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

29 And y Prophet roke vp the body of the man of God, and layed it vpon the asse, and broght it againe, and the olde Prophet came to the cite, to lament and bury him.

30 And he layed his body in his ^m owne graue, & they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother.

31 And when he had buried him, he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried: laye my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cryed by the worde of the Lord against the altar that is in Beth él, and against all the houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shal surely come to passe.

33 Howbeit after this, Ieroboám ⁿ conuerted not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who wolde, might ⁿ cōsecrate him selfe, and be of the Priests of the hie places.

8 And Abiiám ſlept with his fathers, & they buried him in the citie of Dauid : & Aſá his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

^a Chro. 14, 2.

9 ¶ And in the twentie yere of Ieroboám King of Iſraél reigned Aſá ouer Iudáh.

10 He reigned in Ieruſalém one & fourtie yere, and his mothers name was Maacháh, the daughter of Abiſhalóm.

^e That is, his grand mother, as Dauid is oftentimes called farther of the, whoſe grand father he was.

11 And Aſá did right in ^ſ eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

12 And he toke away the Sodomites out of the land, and put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

^d Neither kindred nor authority ought to be regarded, when they blaſpheme God & become idolaters, but muſt be puniſhed.

13 And he ^d put downe Maacháh his mother alſo from her eſtate, becauſe ſhe had made an idole in a groue : & Aſá deſtroyed her idoles, & burnt the by the broke Kidión.

14 But they put not downe the hie places. Neuertheles Aſas heart was ^e vpright with the Lord all his dayes.

^e For in that that he ſuffered them to worſhip God in other places, then he had appointed, it came of ignorance and not of malice.

15 Alſo he broght in the holy veſſels of his father, & the things that he had dedicate vnto the houſe of the Lord, ſiluer, & golde, and veſſels.

16 ¶ And there was warre betwene Aſá and Baafhá King of Iſraél all their dayes.

17 Then Baafhá King of Iſraél went vp againſt Iudáh, and buylt ^f Ramáh, ſo that he wolde let none go out or in to Aſá King of Iudáh.

^f Of the ſame purpoſe that Ieroboám did becauſe the people ſhulde not go vp to Ieruſalém left they ſhulde followe Aſá.

18 Then Aſá toke all the ſiluer & the gold ^ſ was left in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lord, and the treaſures of the Kings houſe, and deliuered them into the hands of his ſeruants, and King Aſá ſent them to

^g And vexe me no longer.

20 So Ben-hadád hearkened vnto King Aſá, and ſent the captaines of the hoſtes, which he had againſt the cities of Iſraél, and ſmote Iſón, and Dan, and Abélberth-maacháh, and all Cinneróth, with all the land of Naphtalí.

21 And when Baafhá heard thereof, he left buylding of Ramáh, and dwelt in Tirzáb.

22 Then King Aſá aſſembled all Iudáh, ^g none excepted. & they toke the ſtones of Ramáh, & the timber thereof, wherewith Baafhá had buylt, & King Aſá buylt with them Géba of Beniamín and Mizpáh.

23 And the reſt of all the actes of Aſá, and all his might and all that he did, and the cities which he buylt, are they not writé in the boke of the Chronicles of ^ſ Kings of Iudáh: but in his olde age he was diſeaſed in his ^h feece.

25 And Nadáb the ſonne of Ieroboám began to reigne ouer Iſraél the ſecóde yere of Aſá King of Iudáh, and reigned ouer Iſraél two yere.

26 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, & in his ſinne wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne.

27 And Baafhá the ſonne of Abiiáh of the houſe of Iſſachár conſpired againſt him, & Baafhá ſlewe him at Gibbethón, which belonged to the Philiftims: for Nadab & all Iſraél laid ſiege to Gibbethón.

28 Euen in the third yere of Aſá King of Iudáh did Baafhá ſlay him, and reigned in his ſteade.

29 And when he was King, he ^k ſmote all the houſe of Ieroboám, he left non aliue to Ieroboám, vntil he had deſtroyed him, according to the ^l worde of ^ſ Lord which he ſpake by his ſeruant Ahiiáh the Shilonite,

31 And the reſidue of the actes of Nadáb and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſraél:

33 In the third yere of Aſá King of Iudáh, began Baafhá the ſonne of Abiiáh to reigne ouer all Iſraél in ^m Tirzáb, and reigned foure and twentie yeres.

^m Which was ^ſ place where the Kings of Iſraél remained.

34 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, walking in the way of Ieroboám, & in his ſinne, wherewith he made Iſraél to ſinne.

⁶ So Baashá slept with his fathers, & was buried in Tirzáh, & Eláh his sonne reigned in his steade.

^c That is, the Prophet did his message

⁷ And ^c also by the hand of Iehú the sonne of Hanáni the Prophet came the worde of the Lord to Baashá, & to his house, that he shulde be like the house of Ieroboám, euen for all the wickednes that he did in the sight of the Lord, in prouoking him with the worke of his hands, and because he killed ^d him.

^d Meaning, Naamán Ieroboáms sonne

⁸ In the six and twentie yere of Asá Kíng of Iudáh began Eláh the sonne of Baashá to reigne ouer Israél in Tirzáh, & reigned two yere.

⁹ And his seruant Zimrí, captaine of halfe his chariots conspired against him, as he was in Tirzáh drinking, til he was drunken in the house of ^e Arzá stuarde of his house in Tirzáh.

^e The Chaldee text hath thus, Drunken til he was drunken in the temple of Arzá & stole by his house in Tirzáh.

¹⁰ And Zimrí came & smote him & killed him in the seuen and twenty yere of Asá Kíng of Iudáh, & reigned in his steade.

¹¹ And when he was Kíng, and sate on his throne, he slewe all ^f house of Baashá, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wall, nether of his kinsfolkes nor of his friends.

¹² So did Zimrí destroy all the house of Baashá, according to the worde of ^g Lord which he spake against Baashá by the hád of Iehú the ^h Prophet,

^f Nothe Hanáni his father and he were Prophetes

¹³ For all the sinnes of Baashá, and sinnes of Eláh his sonne, which they sinned and made Israél to sinne, and prouoked the Lord God of Israél with their vanities.

¹⁴ And the rest of the actes of Eláh, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of

Israél

¹⁵ In the seuen and twentie yere of Asá Kíng of Iudáh did Zimrí reigne seuen dayes in Tirzáh, and the people was then in the hostes besieging Gibbethón, which belonged to the Philistims.

^g Which siege had continued from the time of Nadáb Ieroboáms sonne.

¹⁶ And the people of the hoste heard say, Zimrí hath conspired, & hath also slaine the Kíng. Wherefore all Israél made Omrí the captaine of the hoste Kíng ouer Israél that same day, euen in the hoste.

¹⁷ Then Omrí went vp from Gibbethón, and all Israél with him, and they besieged ^h Tirzáh.

^h where Zimrí kept his selfe in holde.

¹⁸ And whē Zimrí sawe, that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of the Kings house, and burnt him selfe and the Kings house with fire, & so dyed, ⁱ Ebr burnt the Kings house upon him.

²⁰ And the rest of the actes of Zimrí, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israél

²¹ There were ^j people of Israél deuided into two partes: for ^k halfe ^j people followed Tibní the sonne of Gináth to make him Kíng, & the other halfe followed Omrí.

^k That is, the people which were not at the siege of Gibbethón for there they had chosen Omrí.

²² But the people that followed Omrí, preuailed against the people that followed Tibní the sonne of Gináth: so Tibní dyed, and Omrí reigned.

²³ In the one and thirtie yere of Asá Kíng of Iudáh began Omrí to reigne ouer Israél, & reigned twelue yere. Six yere reigned he in Tirzáh.

²⁵ But Omrí did euil in the eyes of the Lord, and did ^m worse then all that were before him.

^k For such is the nature of idolatrie, & the superstition thereof doeth daily increase, & the elder it is, the more abominable it is before God and his Church.

²⁶ For he walked in all the way of Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israél to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israél with their vanities.

²⁷ And the rest of the actes of Omrí, that he did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israél

²⁸ And Omrí slept with his fathers, & was buried in ⁿ Samaria: and Aháb his sonne reigned in his steade.

^l He was the first Kíng that was buried in Samaria, after that the Kings house was burnt in Tirzáh.

²⁹ Now Aháb the sonne of Omrí began to reigne ouer Israél, in the eight and thirtie yere of Asá Kíng of Iudáh:

and Aháb ſonne of Omrí reigned ouer Iſraél in Samaria two and twentie yere.
 30 And Aháb the ſonne of Omrí did worſe in the light of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the ſinnes of Ieroboám the ſonne of Nebát, except he toke Iezebél alſo the daughter of Eth-báal King of the Zidonians to ^m wife, and went and ſerued Baal, and worſhiped him?

^m By whoſe meanes he fel to all wicked, & ſtrange idolatrie, & cruel perſecution.

32 Alſo he reared vp an altar to Báal in the houſe of Báal, which he had buylt in Samaria.

33 And Aháb made a groue, and Aháb proceeded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Iſraél more then all the Kings of Iſraél that were before him.

19 And he ſaid vnto her, Giue me thy ſonne. and he toke him out of her boſome, & carried him vp into a chamber, where he abode, and laied him vpon his owne bed.

20 Thē he called vnto the Lord, & ſaid, O Lord my God, haſt thou ^k puniſhed alſo this widow, with whome I ſoiourne, by killing her ſonne?

^k He was a ſiade, left Gods Name ſhuld haue bene blaſphemed and his miſters contemned, except he ſhulde haue continued his mercie, as he had begonne the, ſpecially while he there remained.

21 And he ſtretched him ſelfe vpon the childe thre times, and called vnto ^y Lord, and ſaid, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this childe ſoule come into him againe.

22 Thē the Lord heard the voyce of Eliáh, and the ſoule of the childe came into him againe, and he reuiued.

23 And Eliáh toke the childe, and brought him downe out of the chamber into the houſe, and deliuered him vnto his mother, and Eliáh ſaid, Beholde, thy ſonne liueh.

24 And the woman ſaid vnto Eliáh, Now I knowe that thou art a man of God, and that the worde of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

^l So hard a thing, it is to deſend on God, except we be confirmed by miracles.

Prophetes 40 Eliáh killeth all Baals prophetes as he obtaineth raine.

- 1 After that he departed from the riuer Cherath. After many daies, the worde of the Lord came to Eliáh, in the ^a third yere, saying, Go, shewe thy selfe vnto Aháb, and I wil send raine vpon the earth.
- 2 And Eliáh went to shewe him selfe vnto Aháb, and there was a great famine in Samaria.
- 3 And Aháb called Obadiáh the gouernour of his house: (and Obadiáh ^b feared God greatly)
- 4 For when Iezébel destroyed the Prophetes of the Lord, Obadiáh toke an húdreth Prophetes, & hid them, by fiftie in a caue, and he fed them with bread and water.
- 5 And Aháb said vnto Obadiáh, Go into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, and vnto all the riuers, if so be that we may finde grasse to saue the horses & the mules aliue, lest we deprue the land of the beastes.
- 6 And so thei deuided the land betwene them to walke through it. Aháb went one way by him selfe, and Obadiáh went another way by him selfe.
- 7 And as Obadiáh was in the way, beholde, Eliáh ^c met him: & he knewe him, and fel on his face, and said, Art not thou my lord Eliáh?
- 8 And he answered him, Yea, go tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliáh is here.
- 9 And he said, What haue I sinned, that thou woldest deliue thy seruauit into the hand of Aháb, to slaye me?
- 10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nació or kígdom, whether my lord hathe not sent to seke thee: and when thei said, He is not here, he toke an othe of y kingdome and nació, if thei had not founde thee.
- 11 And now thou saist, Go, tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliáh is here.
- 12 And when I am gone fró thee, the Spirit of the Lord shal cary thee into some place that I do not knowe: so when I come and tel Aháb, if he can not finde thee, then wil he kil me: but I thy seruauit ^d feare the Lord from my youth.
- 13 Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezébel slewe the Prophetes of the Lord, how I hidde an hundreth men of the Lords Piophetes by fifties in a caue, & fed them with bread and water?
- 14 And now thou saiest, Go, tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliáh is here, that he may slaye me.
- 15 And Eliáh said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whome I stand, I wil surely shewe ^e my selfe vnto him this day.
- 16 So Obadiáh went to mete Aháb, and tolde him: and Aháb wét to mete Eliáh.
- 17 And when Aháb sawe Eliáh, Aháb said

vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israél?

- 18 And he answered, I haue not troubled Israél, but ^f thou, and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the cōmandements of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim.
- 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israél vnto mount Carmél, and the prophetes of Báal foure húdreth & fiftie, & the prophetes of the groues foure hundreth, which eat at Iezebels table.
- 20 So Aháb sent vnto all the children of Israél, & gathered the prophetes together vnto mount Carmél.
- 21 And Eliáh came vnto all the people, & said, How long ^g halt ye betwene two opinions? If the Lord be God, followe him. but if Báal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not a woide.
- 22 Then said Eliáh vnto y people, I onely remaine a Piophet of the Lord: but Baals prophetes are foure hundreth & fiftie mé.
- 23 Let them therefore giue vs two bullocks, and let them chuse the one, and cut him in pieces, and laye him on the wood, but put no fyre vnder, and I wil prepare the other bullocke, and laye him on the wood, and wil put no fyre vnder.
- 24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I wil call on the Name of the Lord: and the God that answereth ^h by fyre, let him be God. And all the people answered, and said, It is wel spoken.
- 25 And Eliáh said vnto the prophetes of Báal, Chuse you a bullocke, and prepare him first, (for ye are many) & call on the name of your gods, but put no fyre vnder.
- 26 So thei toke the one bullocke, y was giuen them, & thei prepared it, & called on y name of Báal, from morning to noone, saying, O Báal, heare vs: but there was no voyce, nor anie to answer: and thei ⁱ leapt vpon the altar that was made.
- 27 And at noone Eliáh mocked them, and said, Crie loud: for he is a ^k god: ether he talketh or pursueth his enemies, or is in his journey, or it may be that he slepeth, and must be ^l awaked.
- 28 And they cryed loude, and cut them selues as their maner was, with kniues and lancets, til the blood gushed out vpon them.
- 29 And when mydday was passed, and thei had prophecied vntil the offing of the evening sacrifice, there was nether voyce, nor onie to answer, nor anie that regarded.
- 30 And Eliáh said vnto all the people, Come to me. And all y people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.
- 31 And Eliáh toke twelue stones, accordig to the number of the tribes of the sonnes S.i.

46 And the hād of the Lord was on Eliáh, and he girded vp his loynes, and ran before Aháb til he came to Izreél.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ Eliáh being from Izreél, is nourished by the Angel of God. He is commanded to anoint Hazáel, Jehu, and Elishá.

q He was so strengthened wth Gods Spirit, that he ran fa-

1 NOW Aháb tolde Izebel all that Eliáh had done, & how he had slayne all the prophetes with the sworde.

a To wit, of Báal.

2 Then Izebel sent a messenger vnto Eliáh, saying, The gods do so to me and more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morowe this time.

3 ¶ When he sawe that, he arose, and went for his life, & came to Beer-sheba, which is in Iudáh, and left his seruant there.

4 But he went a daies journey into the wilderness, and came and sate downe vnder a iuniper tre, & desired that he might dye, and said, It is now ynough: o Lord, take my soule, for I am no better, then my fathers.

c So hard a

5 And as he laie and slept vnder the iuniper tre, beholde now, an Angel touched him, and said vnto him, Vp, & eat.

6 And when he loke about, beholde, there was a cake baken on the coles, and a pot of water at his head: so he did eat and drinke, and returned and slept.

7 And the Angel of the Lord came againe the seconde time, and touched him, and said, Vp, & eat: for thou hast a great journey.

d He declareth

8 ¶ Then he arose, and did eat and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meat fourtie daies & fourtie nights, vnto Horeb the mount of God.

9 And there he entred into a caue, & lodged there: and beholde, the Lord spake to him, and said vnto him, What doest thou here, Eliáh?

10 And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes: for the children of Israél haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophetes with the sworde: & I onely am left, and thei seeke my life to take it away.

Rom. 11.13.

11 And he said, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And beholde, the Lord went by, and a mightie strong winde rent the mountaines, and brake the rockes before the Lord: but the Lord was not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

f For the na-

12 And after the earthquake came fyre: but the Lord was not in the fyre: & after the fyre came a still and soft voyce.

13 And whē Eliáh heard it, he couered his face with his mantel, & went out, & stood in the entering in of the caue: & beholde,

there

there came a voyce vnto him, and said,
What doest thou here, Eliáh?

g We ought not to depend on the multitude in maintaining Gods glorie, but because our duetie so requireth, we ought to do it.

14 And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for y Lord God of hostes, & because the children of Israël haue forsakē thy couenant, cast downe thine altars and slaine thy Prophetes with the sworde, & I onely am left, and they seke my life to take it away.

2. King 9. 1. e. 1. 48. 8.

16 And Iehú the sonne of Nimshí shalt thou anoint King ouer Israël: & Elíshá the sonne of Shaphat of Abí Mehóláh shalt thou anoynt to be Prophet in thy ioume.

Rom. 11. 4.

h He declarereth that wicked dissenters and idolaters are not his.

17 And him that escapeth frō the sworde of Hazael, shal Iehú slaye: and him that escapeth from the sworde of Iehú, shal Elíshá slay.

i Though this natural affection is not to be cōdemned, yet it ought not so moue vs when God calleth vs to serue him.

k He wolde not stay till wood was bought, so greaue was his desire to followe his vocacion.

18 Yet wil I leaue seuē thousand in Israël, euen all the knees that haue not bowed vnto Báal, and euerie mouthe that hath not kissed him.

19 So he departed thence, and founde Elíshá y sonne of Shaphát who was plowing with twelue yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelft: & Eliáh went towards him, and cast his mantel vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, & ran after Eliáh, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, and then I wil followe thee. Who answered him, Go, returne: for what haue I done to thee?

21 And when he wēt backe againe frō him, he toke a couple of oxen, and slawe them, and sod their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, & they did eat: then he arose and went after Eliáh, and ministred vnto him.

CHAP. XX.

Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord promisetht the victory to Aháb by a Prophet. 31 The King of Israël made peace with Ben-hadád, and is reprovēd therefore by the Prophet.

Or, Syria.

n That is, gōuernours, and rulers of prouinces

Or, Shomēda.

1 Then Bē-hadád the King of Arám assembled all his armie, and two and thirtie Kings with him, with horses, & charets, and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Aháb King of Israël, into the citie,

3 And said vnto him, Thus sayeth Bē-hadád, Thy siluer and thy golde his mine: also thy women, and thy faire children are mine.

o I am content to obey and pay tribute.

4 And the King of Israël answered, and said, My lord King, according to thy sayings, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came againe, they said, Thus comandeth Bē-hadád, & sayth, When I shal send vnto thee, and cōmande, thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer & thy golde, & thy women, & thy childrē,

6 Or els I wil send my seruants vnto thee by to morow this time: and they shal searce thine house, and the houses of thy seruants: and what soeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shal take it in their hands, and bring it away.

7 Then the King of Israël sent for all the Elders of the land; and said, Take hede, I pray you, and se how he seeketh mischief: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, and for my children, and for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not.

8 And all the Elders, & all the people said to him, Hearnē not vnto him, nor cōsēt. 9 Wherefore he said vnto the messengers of Bē-hadád, Tel my lord the King, All that thou didest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I wil do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and broght him an answer.

10 And Bē-hadád sent vnto him, & said, The gods do so to me & more also, if the dust of Samaria be ynough to all y people y followe me, for euerie mā an hādful

11 And the King of Israël answered, and said, Tel him, Let not him that girdeth his harness, boast hī selfe, as he y putteth it of.

12 And when he heard y tidings, as he was with the Kings drinking in the pavilions, he said vnto his seruants, Bring forthē your engines, and thei set them against the citie.

13 And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Aháb King of Israël, saying, Thus saith y Lord, Halt thou hīe all this great multitude y beholde, I wil deliuer it into thine hand this day, that y maest knowe, s that I am the Lord.

14 And Aháb said, By whome? And he said, Thus saith the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He said againe, Who shal ordre the battel? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he nombred the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundred, two and thirtie: & after the he nombred the whole people of all the children of Israël, euen seuē thousande.

16 And they wēt out at noone: but Bē-hadád did drinke til he was drunken in the tents, both he & the Kings: for two & thirtie Kings helped him.

17 So the seruants of the princes of the prouinces went out first: & Bē-hadád sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet aliue.

19 So they came out of the citie, to wit, the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, and the hoste wh h followed them.

e He wolde not accept his answer, except he did out of hand deliuer whatsoever he shulde aske: for he sought an occasion, how to make warre against him.

f They thought it their dutie rather to venture their liues, then to grant to that thing which was not lawful, onely to satisfie the lust of a tyrāt.

g Muche lesse shal there be founde anie pray, that is worthe anie thing, when they shal be so manie. f Boast not before the victorie be gotten. Or, Put your siluer in a dra.

g Before God went about y signes and miracles to ouer Aháb frō his impietie, and now againe y wonderful victories.

h That is, y men trained in the seruice of princes.

20 And they slewe euerie one his²⁰ enemy: and the²⁰ Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-hadad the King of Aram escaped on an horse with his²⁰ horsemen.

21 And the King of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, and with a great slaughter slewe he the Aramites.

22 (For there had come a Prophet to the King of Israel, & had said vnto him, Go, be of good courage, and consider, and take hede what thou doest: for when the yere is gone about, the King of Aram wil come vp against thee.)

23 ¶ The seruants of the King of Aram said vnto him, Their²³ gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, and douteles we shal ouercome them.

24 And this do, Take the Kings away, euerie one out of his place, and place captai-nes for them.

25 And nomber thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with suche horses, and suche charets, and we wil fight against them in the plaine, and douteles we shal ouercome the: and he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Ben-hadad nombred the Aramites, and went vp to Aphék to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were nombred, and were all²⁷ assembled and went against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and spake vnto the King of Israel, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, Because the Aramites haue said, The Lord is the God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleis, therefore wil I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shal knowe that²⁸ I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, & in the seuenth day the battel was ioyned: and the children of Israel slewe of the Aramites an hundreth thousand fotemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphék into the citie: and there fel a wall vpon seuen & twentie thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the citie, and came into³⁰ a secret chamber.

31 ¶ And his seruantes said vnto him, Beholde now, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are merciful Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sackcloth about our³¹ loynes, and ropes about our heades, and go out to the King of Israel: it may be that he wil saue thy life.

32 The they girded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heades, and came to the King of Israel, and said, Thy seruant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue: and he said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

33 Now the men toke diligent hede, if they³³ colde cathe³³ any thing of him, and made haste, & said, Thy brother³³ Ben-hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto the charet.

34 And Ben-hadad said vnto him, The cities, which my father toke fro thy father, I wil restore, and thou shalt make stretes for thee in³⁴ Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said³⁴ Ahab, I wil let thee go with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him go.

35 ¶ Then a certeine man of the³⁵ children of the Prophetes said vnto his neighbour by the comandemēt of the Lord, ¶ Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as sone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shal³⁶ slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slewe him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and disguyfed him selfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cryed vnto the King, and said, ¶ Thy seruant went into the middes of the battel: and beholde, there went away a man, whome³⁹ another man broght vnto me, & said, Kepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shal go for his, or els thou shalt paye a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy seruant had here and there to do, he was gone: and the King of Israel said vnto him, So shal thy iudgement be: thou hast giuen sentence.

41 And he hasted, and toke the ashes away from his face: & the King of Israel knew him that he was of the Prophetes:

42 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, ¶ Because thou hast let go out of thine⁴² hands a man whome I appointed to dye, thy life shal go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the King of Israel went to his house heavy and in displeasure, and came to⁴³ Samaria.

^a After these things Nabóth the Izreelite had a vineyarde in Izreél, hard by the palace of Aháb King of Samaria.

² And Aháb spake vnto Nabóth, saying, Giue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a garden of herbes thercof, because it is nere by mine house: and I wil giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or if it please thee, I wil giue thee the worthe of it in money.

And Nabóth said to Aháb, The Lord kepe me from giuing the inheritāce of my fathers vnto thee.

⁴ Then Aháb came into his house heauy & in displeasure, because of the worde which Nabóth the Izreelite had spoké vnto him. for he had said, I wil not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay ^b vpon his bed and turned his face and wolde eat no bread.

⁵ Then Iezébel his wife came to him and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad? thou eatest no bread?

⁶ And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Nabóth the Izreelite, and said vnto him, Giue me thy vineyarde for money, or if it please thee, I wil giue thee another vineyarde for it: but he answered, I wil not giue thee my vineyarde.

⁹ And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a ^d fast, and set Nabóth among the chief of the people,

¹⁰ And set two wicked men before him, and let the witness against him, saying, Thou didest blaspheme God and the King: the cary him out, and stone him that he may dye.

¹² They proclaimed a fast, and set Nabóth among the chief of the people,

¹³ And there came two wicked men, & sate before him: and the wicked men witnessed against Nabóth in the presence of the people, saying, Nabóth did ["]blaspheme God and the King. The they caryed him away out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, that he dyed.

¹⁴ Then they sent to Iezébel, saying, Nabóth is stoned and is dead.

¹⁵ And when Iezébel heard that Nabóth was stoned and was dead, Iezébel said to Aháb, ^f Vp, & take possession of the vineyard of Nabóth the Izreelite, which he refused to giue thee for money: for Nabóth is not aliue, but is dead.

¹⁶ And when Aháb heard that Nabóth was dead, he rose to go downe to the vineyard of Nabóth the Izreelite, to take possession of it.

¹⁷ And the worde of the Lord came vnto Eliiáh the Tishbite, saying,

¹⁸ Arise, go downe to mete Aháb King of Israél, which is in Samaria. lo, he is in the vineyarde of Nabóth, whether he is gone downe to take possession of it.

²¹ Beholde, I wil bring euil vpon thee, & wil take away thy posteritie, and wil cut of from Aháb him that ["]pilleth against ^g wall, aswel him that is ["]shut vp, as him that is left in Israél,

²³ And also of Iezébel spake the Lord, saying, ⁱ The dogs shal eat Iezébel, ["]by the wall of Izreél.

²⁴ The dogs shal eat him of Ahabs stocke, that dyeth in the citie: and him that dyeth in the fields, shal the foules of the ayre eat.

²⁵ But there was none like Aháb, who did sell him selfe, to worke wickednes in the sight of the Lord: whome Iezébel his wife prouoked.

²⁶ For he did exceedig abominably in following idoles, accordig to all that the Amorites did, whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israél.

²⁷ Now when Aháb heard those wordes, he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth vpō him and fasted, and lay in sackcloth and went ^k softly.

²⁸ And the worde of the Lord came to Eliiáh the Tishbite, saying,

²⁹ Seest thou how Aháb is humbled before me? because he submitteth him selfe before me, I wil not bring that euil in his dayes, but in his sonnes dayes wil I bring euil vpon his house.

AND * they continued * thre yere without warre betwene Aram and Israel.

And in the third yere did Jehoshaphat the King of Iudah come downe to the King of Israel.

(Then the King of Israel said vnto his seruants, Knowe ye not that Ramoth Gilead was ours: and we staye, and take it not out of the hand of the King of Aram?)

And he said vnto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battel against Ramoth Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

Then Jehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israel, Aske counsel, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.

Then the King of Israel gathered the Prophetes vpon a foure hundred men, and said vnto them, Shal I go against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shal I let it alone? And they said, Go vnto the Lord shal deliuer it into the hands of the King.

And Jehoshaphat said, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him?

And the King of Israel said vnto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Michaiiah the sonne of Imlah) by whome we may aske counsel of the Lord, but I hate him: for he doeth not prophetic good vnto me, but euil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so.

Then the King of Israel called an Eunuiche, & said, Call quickly Michaiiah the sonne of Imlah.

And the King of Israel & Jehoshaphat the King of Iudah sate either of them on his throne in their apparel in the voyde place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the Prophetes prophesied before them.

And Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him hornes of yron, & said, Thus sayth the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, vntil thou hast consumed them.

And all the Prophetes prophesied so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth Gilead, & prosper: for the Lord shal deliuer it into the Kings hand.

And the messenger that was gone to call Michaiiah spake vnto him, saying, Beholde now, the wordes of the Prophetes declare good vnto the King with" one accorde: let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of one of them, & speake thou good.

And Michaiiah said, As the Lord liueth, whatsoeuer the Lord sayth vnto me, that wil I speake.

So he came to the King, and the King said vnto him, Michaiiah, shal we go against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shal we leaue of? And he answered him, Go vp, & prosper: and the Lord shal deliuer it into the hand of the King.

And the King said vnto him, How oft shal I charge thee, that thou tel me nothig but that which is true in the Name of y Lord.

Then he said, I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the mountaines, as shepe that had no shepherd. And the Lord said, These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.

(And the King of Israel said vnto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tel thee, that he wolde prophetic no good vnto me, but euil?)

Againe he said, Heare thou therefore y worde of the Lord. I sawe the Lord sit on his throne, & all the hoste of heauen stode about him on his right hand and on his left hand.

And the Lord said, Who shal entise Ahab that he may go and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one said on this maner, and another said on that maner.

Then there came forth a spirit, & stood before the Lord, and said, I wil entise him. And the Lord said vnto him, Where-wit?

And he said, I wil go out, and be a false spirit in the mouthe of all his prophetes. The he said, Thou shalt entise him, & shalt also preuaile: go forthe, and do so.

Now therefore beholde, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouthe of all these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath appointed euil against thee.

Then Zidkiah y sonne of Chenaanah came nere & smote Michaiiah on y cheke, and said, When went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speake vnto thee?

And Michaiiah said, Beholde, y shalt se in that day, when thou shalt go from chamber to chambers to hide thee.

And the King of Israel said, Take Michaiiah, & cary him vnto Amón y gouernour of se citie, and vnto Ioash the Kings sonne,

And say, thus sayth the King, Put this man in the prison house, & fede him with bread of affliction, & with water of affliction, vntil he returne in peace.

And Michaiiah said, If y returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken all ye people.

- Kíng of Iudáh wēt vp to Ramóth Gileád.
- 30 And the King of Israél said to Iehoshaphát, I wil change mine apparel, and wil entre into the battel, but put thou on thine apparel. And the King of Israél changed him selfe, and went into the battel.
- 31 And the King of Arám commanded his two & thirtie captaines ouer his charrets, saying, Fight nether with smal, nor great, saue onely against the King of Israél.
- 32 And when the captaines of the charets sawe Iehoshaphát, they said, Surely it is y King of Israél, & they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphát cryed.
- 33 And when the captaines of the charets sawe that he was not the King of Israél, they turned backe from him.
- 34 Then a certaine man drue a bowe mightely and smote the King of Israél betwene the ioyntes of his brigádine. Wherefore he said vnto his charret man, Turne thine hád & cary me out of the hoste: for I am hurt.
- 35 And the battel encreased that day, and the King stode stil in his charret against the Aramites, and dyed at euen: and the blood ran out of the woúde into the middes of the charret.
- 36 And there went a proclamatiō through out y hoste about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrei.
- 37 So the King dyed, and was broght to Samaria, & they buryed y King in Samaria.
- 38 And one washed the charret in the poole of Samaria & the doggs licked vp his blood (& they washed his armour) accordig vnto the worde of the Lord w he spake.

- 40 So Aháb slept with his fathers, & Ahaziáh his sonne reigned in his steade.
- 41 And Iehoshaphát the sonne of Asá began to reigne vpon Iudáh in the fourth yere of Aháb King of Israél.
- 42 Iehoshaphát was fíue and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned fíue and twentie yere in Ierusalém. And his mothers name was Azubáh the daughter of Shilhí.
- 43 And he walked in all the wayes of Asá his father, and declined not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord. Neuertheles the hie places were not taken away: for the people offred stil and burnt incense in the hie places.
- 44 And Iehoshaphát made peace with the King of Israél.
- 45 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoshaphát, and his worthie dedes that he did, and his battels which he focht, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?
- 46 And the Sodomites, which remained in the dayes of his father Asá, he put cleane out of the land.
- 47 There was then no King in Edóm: the deputie was King.
- 48 Iehoshaphát made shippes of Tharshísh to saile to Ophír for golde, but they wēt not, for the shippes were broken at Ezrón Gáber.
- 49 Then said Ahaziáh the sonne of Aháb vnto Iehoshaphát, Let my seruáts go with thy seruáts in y shippes. But Iehoshaphát wolde not.
- 50 And Iehoshaphát did slepe with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father and Iehorám his sonne reigned in his steade.
- 51 Ahaziáh the sonne of Aháb began to reigne ouer Israél in Samaria, the seuententh yere of Iehoshaphát King of Iudáh, & reigned two yeres ouer Israél.
- 52 But he did euil in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, & in the way of his mother, and in the way of Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát, which made Israél to sinne.

THE SECONDE BOKE of the Kings.

THE ARGUMENT.

THIS seconde boke conteineth the actes of the Kings of Iudáh and Israél: to wit, of Israél, from the death of Aháb vnto the last King Hoshea, who was imprisonned by the King of Assyria, & his citie Samaria taken, & the tē tribes ly the iuste plague of God for their idolatrie & disobedience to God led into captiuitie. And also of Iudáh, frō the reigne of Iehorám sonne of Iehoshaphát vnto Zedechiá who for contemning the Lords cōmandement by his Prophetes, & neglecting his sundry admonitions, by famine & other meanes was taken by his enemies, sawe his sonnes moste cruelly slaine before his face, & his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: and also by the iuste vengeance of God for contempt of his worde Ierusalém was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and he and all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this booke are notable examples of Gods fauour towards those rulers and people which obey his Prophetes and imbrace his worde: and contrary wise of his plagues towards those commune weales which neglect his ministers and do not obey his commandements.

CHAP. I.

9 Ahaziah by a fall falleth sicke & cōsuleth with Baal-zebub 3 He is reproveth by Eliiah. 10 The captiues ouer fifty were sent to Eliiah, whereof two were burne with fire frō heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahaziah dyeth, and Iehorám his brother succedeth him.

1 Then Moáb rebelled against Israél after the death of Aháb:

And a Ahaziah fel through the lattesse win dowe in his vpper chamber which was in Samaria: so he was sicke: the he sent messengers, to whome he said, Go, & enquire of b Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, if I shal reco- uer of this my diseafe.

Then the Angel of the Lord said to Eliiah the Tishbite, Arise, & go vp to mete the messengers of the King of Samaria, and say vnto them, c Is it not because there is no God in Israél, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus sayth the Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death. So Eliiah departed.

5 And the messengers returned vnto him, to whome he said, Why are ye now returne?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and said vnto vs, Go, and returne vnto the King which sent you, and say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, d Is it not because there is no God in Israél, that thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

7 And he said vnto them, What manner of man was he which came and met you, and tolde you these wordes?

8 And they said vnto him, He was an e heerie man, and girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then said he, It is Eliiah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent vnto him a captaine ouer fifty with his fifty men, who went vp vnto him: for beholde, he sat on the toppē of a mountaine, & he said vnto him, O man of God, the King hath commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliiah answered, & said to the captaine ouer the fifty, If that I be a man of God, let fyre come downe frō the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fifty. So fyre came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fifty.

11 Againē also he sent vnto him another captaine ouer fifty, with his fifty. Who spake, and said vnto him, h O man of God, thus the King commandeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliiah answered & said vnto them, i If I be a man of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fifty. So fyre came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fifty.

13 Yet againe he sent the third captaine ouer fifty wth his fifty. And the third captaine ouer fifty went vp & came, & fel on his knees before Eliiah, & besought him, & said vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these thy fifty seruantes be precious in thy sight.

14 Beholde, there came fyre downe from the heauen and deuoured the two former captaines ouer fifty with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Eliiah, Go downe wth him, be not afrayd of his pefence. So he arose, and wēt downe with him vnto the King.

16 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the God of Ekron, (was it not because there was no God in Israél to inquire of his worde) therefore thou shalt not come downe of the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

17 So he dyed according to the worde of f Lord which Eliiah had spoken. And g Iehorám begā to reigne in his fteade, in the seconde yere of Iehorám the sonne of Iehoshaphāt King of Iudáh, because he had no sonne.

18 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ahaziah, that he did, are thei not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israél.

CHAP. II.

1 Eliiah dyedeth the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken vp into heauen. 13 Elisha taketh his cloke & deuiderth Iordan. 20 The better and venomous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Elisha, are rent in pieces with beastes.

1 And when the Lord wolde take vp Eliiah into heauē by a whirle wind, Eliiah went with Elisha from a Gilgāl.

2 Then Eliiah said to Elisha, Tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

h He spake this in mockery, & therefore prouoked Gods wrath so muche the more. i Meaning, that God wolde shewe by effect, whether he was a true Prophet or not.

k Which humbly my selfe before God & his seruants. l That is, spare my life & let me not dye as the other two.

m Thus f Lord giveth boldnes to his that they feare not the threatnings of tyrants, & otherwise of them selves are afrayde to do Gods message.

n Jehoshaphāt going to battle against the Syrians, made his sonne Iehorám King in the 17 yere of his reigne: and in the 18 yere, & was the seconde yere of his sonne, Iehorám f sonne of Aháb reigned in Israél: and in the fiftie yere of this Iehorám Iehoshaphāt dyed and the kingdome of Iudáh was confirmed to his sonne.

a Which was f place where the childre of Israél were circumcised after they came ouer Iordan & had bene foure yeres in wilderness, as Iosh 5.9.

a So that he 2 was punished for his idolatry after two sortes: for the Moabites, & were wont to pay him tribute, rebelled, & he fel downe at a grate: & was vpon his house to give light beneath. 3 b The Philistines, & dwelt at Ekron, worshipped this idole, & signified f god of flies, thinking that he coulde preserue them from the biting of flies: or els he was so called, because flies were ingreded in great abundance of the blood of f sacrifices that were offered to that idole. 4 He sheweth that idolaters haue not the true God, for els they wolde seke to none but to him alone. d Ignorance is the mother of error and idolatry.

e Some thinke f this is meane of his garments & were rough & made of heere.

3 And the b children of the Prophetes that were at Beth-el, came out to Eliſhā, and ſaid vnto him, Knoweſt thou that y Lord wil take thy maſter from e thine head this day? And he ſaid, Yea, I d knowe it: holde ye your peace.

4 Againe Eliſhā ſaid vnto him, Eliſhā, tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hathe ſent me to Ierichó. But he ſaid, As y Lord liueth, and as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came to Ierichó.

5 And the children of the Prophetes that were at e Ierichó, came to Eliſhā, & ſaid vnto him, Knoweſt thou, that the Lord wil take thy maſter from thine head this day? And he ſaid, Yea, I knowe it: holde ye your peace.

6 Moreouer Eliſhā ſaid vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hathe ſent me to Iorden. But he ſaid, As the Lord liueth, & as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they went bothe together.

7 And ſittie men of the ſonnes of the Prophetes went and ſtoode on the other ſide a-farre of, and the two ſtoode by Iorden.

8 ¶ Then Eliſhā toke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and ſmote the f waters, and they were deuided herther and thether, & they twaine went ouer on the drye land.

9 Now when they were paſſed ouer, Eliſhā ſaid vnto Eliſhā, Aſke what I ſhal do for thee before I be taken from thee. And Eliſhā ſaid, I pray thee, Let thy Spirit e be double vpon me.

10 And he ſaid, Thou haſt aſked an hard thing: yet if thou ſe me when I am taken from thee, thou ſhalt haue it ſo: & it not, it ſhal not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a chariot of fyre, and horſes of fyre, and did ſeparate them twaine. * So Eliſhā went vp by a whyllende into b heauen.

12 And Eliſhā ſawe it, and he cryed, My father, my father, the chariot of Iſraél, and the horſemen thereof: & he ſawe him no more: and he toke his owne clothes, & rent them in two pieces.

13 ¶ He toke vp alſo the cloke of Eliſhā that fel from him, and returned, and ſtoode by the banke of Iorden.

14 After, he toke the cloke of Eliſhā, that fel from him, and ſmote the waters, and ſaid, Where is the Lord God of Eliſhā, and he him ſelfe? Againe alſo he ſmote the waters, and they were ſeparated this waye and that waye: and Eliſhā went ouer.

15 And when the children of the Prophetes, which were at Ierichó, ſawe him on the other ſide, they ſaid, i The Spirit of Eliſhā doeth reſt on Eliſhā: and they came to mete him, & fel to the grounde before him,

16 And ſaid vnto him, Beholde now, there be with thy ſeruants ſittie ſtrong men: let them go, we pray thee, and ſeke thy k maſter, if ſo be the Spirit of the Lord hathe taken him vp, and caſt him vpon ſome mountaine, or into ſome valley. But he ſaid, l Ye ſhal not ſend.

17 Yet they were inſtant vpon him, til he was aſhamed: wherefore he ſaid, Send. So they ſent ſittie mē, which ſoght thre daies, but founde him not.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for he taried at Ierichó) and he ſaid vnto them, Did not I ſay vnto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the citie ſaid vnto Eliſhā, Beholde, we pray thee: the ſituacion of this citie is pleaſant, as thou, my lord, ſeeſt, but the water is noght, & the grounde baren.

20 Then he ſaid, Bring me a newe cruſe, & put ſalt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went vnto the ſpring of the waters, and caſt there m the ſalt, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death ſhal no more come thereof, neither barenes to the grounde.

22 So the waters were healed vntil this day, according to y worde of Eliſhā which he had ſpoken.

23 ¶ And he wēt vp from thence vnto Beth-el. And as he was going vp the waye, litle children came out of the citie, and mocked him, and ſaid vnto him, Come vp, thou balde head, come vp, thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe & looked on them, and n curſed them in the Name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the foreſt, and tare in pieces two and fourtie children of them.

25 So he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

 9 So went the King of Israél & the King of Iudáh, and the King of Edóm, and when they had compassed the way seven daies, thei had no water for the hoste, nor for the cattel that followed them.
 10 Therefore the King of Israél said, Alas, that f Lord hathe called these thre Kígs, to giue them into the hand of Moáb.
 11 But Iehoshaphát said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the King of Israels seruants answered, & said, Here is Elifhá f sonne of Shaphát, which powred water on the hands of Eliáh.

13 Then he said vnto him, Say vnto her now, Beholde, thou hast had all this great care for vs, what shal we do for thee? Is there anie thing to be spokē for thee to the King or to the captaine of the hoste? And she answered, I ^k dwel among mine owne people.

14 Againe he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazí answered, In dede she hathe^l no sonne, and her housband is old.

15 Thē he said he, Call her. And he called her, and she stode in the dore.

16 And he said, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Oh my lord, thou man of God, do not lye vnto thine handmaid.

17 So the womā conceiued, and bare a sonne at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elifhá had said vnto her.

18 ¶ And when the childe was growen, it fel on a day, that he went out to his father, & to the reapers.

1 Naamán the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Elisha refuseth his gifts 27 Geház is striken with leprosie, because he toke money, & raimēt of Naamán.

NOW was there one Naamán capitaine of the hoste of the King of Arám, a great man, and honorable in the sight of his lord, because that by him ^y Lord had ^a deliuered the Aramites. He also was a mightie man and valiant, but a lepre.

a Here appeareth that among the infidels God hath his, and also that the infidels haue them in estimation, w do good to their cōtrei. b Ebr. she was before. c Meaning, Elishá.

c That is, Naamán tolde it to the King of Syria.

4 And ^c he went in, and tolde his lord, saying, Thus and thus saith the maid that is of the land of Israël.

5 And the King of Arám said, Go thy way thether, and I wil send a letter vnto the King of Israël. And he departed, and toke ^d with him ten talents of siluer, and six thousand pieces of golde, and ten chāge of raiments, d To giue this as a present to the Prophet. e Ebr. in his hand.

6 And broght the letter to the King of Is-raél to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstād, that I haue sent thee Naamán my seruāt, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosie.

7 And when the King of Israël had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kil and to giue life, that he doeth send to me, that I shulde heale a man from his leprosie? wherefore confidre, I pray you, and se how he seketh a quarel against me.

8 But when Elishá the man of God had heard that the King of Israël had rent his clothes, he sent vnto the King, saying, ^e Wherefore hast thou rēt thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shal knowe, that there is a Prophet in Israël.

e The Prophet rebuketh the King because he did not consider that God was true in his promises & therefore wolde not leaue his Church destitute of a Prophet, whose prayers he wolde heare, and to whome other shulde haue recourse for comforte. f. Mans reason murmureth, when it considereth onely the signes and outward things & hath not regarde to the worde of God, which is there contained.

9 ¶ Then Naamán came with his horses, & with his charrets, and stode at the dore of the house of Elishá.

10 And Elishá sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Iordén seuen times, and thy flesh shal come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naamán was ^f wroth & went away, and said, Beholde, I thought with my selfe, He wil surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God & put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abanáh and Pharpár, riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israël? may I not wash me in them, and be cleansed? So he turned, and departed in displeasure.

13 But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, and said, ^g Father, if the Prophet had comāded thee a great thing, woldest thou not haue done it? how muche rather then, whē he saith to thee, Wash, and be cleane?

g This declarereth that seruants ought to reuerence and loue their mastres as childre their fathers, and likewise masters toward their seruants muste be affectioned as toward their children Luk. 4. 27.

14 Then went he downe, and ^h washed himselfe seuen times in Iordén, according to the saying of the mā of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a litle child, and he was cleane.

15 ¶ And he turned againe to the man of God, he, and all his companie, and came & stode before him and said, Beholde, now I know that there is no God in all ⁱ worlde, but in Israël: now therefore, I pray thee, take ^a a rewarde of thy seruant.

He felseth his conscience wōlded in being present at idoles seruice, and therefore desireth God to forgive him, lest others by his example might fall to idolatrie: for as for his owne parte he cōfesseth that he wil neuer serue aue, but the true God.

17 Moreouer Naamán said, Shal there not be giue to thy seruant two mules loade of this earth? for thy seruant wil henceforth offer nether burnt sacrifice, nor offering vnto anie other god, saue vnto the Lord.

And the man of God said, Where fel it?
And he shewed him the place. Then he cut

Then he said, Take it vp to thee. And he

CHAP. VII.

1 Elishá propheseth plentie of vntaile and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians runne away, and haue no man following them. 17 The prince that wolde not beleue the worde of Elishá is troden to death.

1 Then Elishá said, Heare ye the worde of the Lord: thus saith the Lord, ^a Tomorrow this time a measure of fine floure shalbe solde for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a prince, on whose hand the King ^b leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord wolde make c windows in the heauē, colde this thing come to passe? And he said, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but y shalt not ^d eat thereof.

3 Now there were foure leprouse men at y ^e entrie in of y gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here vntill we dye?

4 If we say, We wil entre into the citie, the famine is in the citie, & we shal dye there: and if we sit here, we dye also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall in: o the campe of the Aramites: if thei saue our liues, we shal liue: & if they kil vs, we are but dead.

5 So they rose vp in the twilight, to go to the campe of the Aramites: and when they were come to the vmoste parte of the campe of the Aramites, lo, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the campe of y Aramites to heare a ^f noise of chariots & a noise of hostes, & a noise of a great armie, so y they said one to another, Beholde, the King of Israél hath hired against vs the Kings of the Hittites, & the Kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, & left their tentes & their hostes, & their asses, ^g euen the campe as it was, and s fled for their liues.

8 And when these lepers came to y vmost part of the campe, they entred into one tent, and did eat and drinke, and caried thence siluer and golde, and raiment, and went and hid it: after they returned, and entred into another tent, & caried thence also, and went, and hid it.

9 Then said one to another, We do not wel: this day is a day of good tidings, and we holde our peace. if we tary til day light, some mischief wil come vpon vs. Now therefore come, let vs go, and tel the Kings housholde.

10 So they came, & called vnto the porters of the citie, & tolde the, saying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, & lo, there was no man there, nether voyce of mā, but hostes

12 Then the King arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, ^h I wil shewe you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They knowe that we are affamished, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide them selues in the field, saying, When thei come out of the citie, we shal cathe them aliue, and get into the citie.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let men take now fiue of the horses that remaine, & are left in the citie, (beholde, they are euen as all the multitude of Israël that are left therein: beholde, I say, they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) & we wil send to se.

14 So they toke two chaires of horses, and the King sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Go and se.

15 And they went after them vnto Iordén, and lo, all the way was ful of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their haste : & the messengers returned, and tolde the King.

Elisha prophesieth vnto the Shunammite the dearth of seuen yere 12 He prophesieth to Hazaël that he shalbe King of Syria 15 He reigneth after Benhadad. 16 Jehoſaphat reigneth ouer Iudah. 20 Edom falleth from Iudah Obadiah succedeth Iehoram.

^a Where thou canst finde a commodious place to dwell, where as is plenty.

1 Then spake Elisha vnto the woman, ^a whose sonne he had restored to life, saying, Vp, and go, thou, and thine house, and sojourn where thou ^a canst sojourn: for the Lord hathe called for a famine, & it cometh also vpon the land seuen yeres.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went bothe she & her householde and sojourned in the land of the Philistims seuen yeres.

3 ¶ And at the seuen yeres end, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistims and went out ^b to call vpon the King for her house and for her land.

^b That is to complaine on the which had taken her possessions while she was absent.

4 And the King talked with Gehazi the seruāt of the man of God, saying, Tel me, I praye thee, all the great actes, that Elisha harhe done.

5 And as he tolde ^c the King, how he had restored one dead to life, beholde, the woman, whose sonne he had raised to life, called vpon the King for her house & for her land. Then Gehazi said, My lord, o King, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whome Elisha restored to life.

^c Gods wonderfull providence appeareth in this that he caused ý King to be desirous to heare of hi, whome before he contemned, & also hereby prepared an entrance to the poore widows sute.

6 And when the King asked the woman, she tolde him: so the King appointed her an Eunuche, saying, Restore thou all that are hers, and all the ^d frutes of her landes since ý day she left the land, euē vntil this time.

^d The King caused that to be iustly restored which was wrongfully holden from her

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to Damascus, & Benhadad the King of Arám was sicke. & one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hether.

8 And the King said vnto Hazaël, Take a present in thine hand, and go mete the man of God, that thou maiest inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease?

9 ¶ So Hazaël went to mete him, and toke the present in his hand, and of euerie good thing of Damascus, euen the burden of fourty camels, and came and stode before him, and said, Thy sonne Benhadad King of Arám hathe sent me to thee, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease?

^e Of all the chiefest & precious things of ý countrey.

10 And Elisha said to him, Go, & say vnto him, Thou shalt recouer: howbeit ý Lord hathe shewed me, that he shal surely dye.

11 And he loked vpon him stedfastly til Hazaël was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

^f Meaning that he shulde recouer of this disease: but he knewe ý this messenger Hazaël shulde slay him to obtaine the kingdom.

12 And Hazaël said, Why wepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I knowe the euil that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israël: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fyre, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the sworde, and shalt dash their infants against the stones, & rent in pieces their women with childe.

13 Then Hazaël said, What is thy seruāt a dog, that I shulde do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hathe shewed me, ý thou shalt be King of Arám.

^g That I shulde be without all humanity and pity.

14 ¶ So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He tolde me that thou shuldest recouer.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of of Iudáh went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Aháb in Izreél, because he was sicke.

- 18 So there went one on horse backe to mete him, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Ichú said, What hast thou to do with peace? turne behinde me. And the watchemā tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.
- 19 Then he sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Ichú answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turne behinde me.
- 20 And the watchman tolde, saying, He came to them also, but commeth not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Ichú the sonne of Nimshí: for he marcheth furiously.

- 22 And when Iehorám sawe Ichú, he said, Is it peace, Ichú? And he answered, What is peace? the whoredomes of thy mother Iezébel, and her witchcraftes are yet in great number.
- 23 Then Iehorám turned his hand, & fled, and said to Ahaziáh, O Ahaziáh, there is treason.
- 24 But Ichú toke a bowe in his hand, and smote Iehorám betwene the sholders, that the arrowe went through his heart: and he fel downe in his charet.
- 25 Thē said Ichú to Bidkár a captaine, Take, & cast him in some place of the field of Nabóth the Izreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Aháb his father, the Lord^e layed this burden vpon him.

26 * Surely I haue sene yesterday the blood of Nabóth, and the blood of his^b sonnes, said the Lord, and I wil render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take and cast him in the field, according to the worde of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziáh the King of Iudáh sawe this, he fled by the way of the gardé house: and Ichú pursued after him, & said, Smite him also in the charet: & thei smote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleám. And he fled to Megiddó, and theredied.

28 And his seruants caryed him in a charet to Ierusalém, & buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in y^e citie of Daurid.

29 ¶ And in the^k eleuenth yere of Iorám the sonne of Aháb, begā Ahaziáh to reigne ouer Iudáh.

30 And when Ichú was come to Izreél, Iezébel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, & looked out at a wyndow.

31 And as Ichú entred at the gate, she said, Had^m Zimrí peace, & slewe his master?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and said, Who is on my side, who? Then two or thre of her^e Eunuches looked vnto him.

33 And he said, Cast her downe: and they cast her downe, and he spinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses, and he trode her vnder fote.

34 And whē he was come in, he did eat and drinke, and said, Visite now yonder cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a^o Kings daughter.

35 And thei went to bury her, but thei found no more of her then the skul & the fete, and the palmes of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came againe and tolde him. And he said, This is the worde of the Lord, which he spake^{by} by his seruāt Eliáh the Tishbite, saying, * In the field of Izreél shal the dogs eat the flesh of Iezébel.

37 And the carkeis of Iezébel shalbe as dounge vpon the grounde in the field of Izreél, so y^e none shal say, P This is Iezébel.

12 ¶ And he arose, and departed and came to Samaria. And as Iehú was in the waye by an house where the shepherdes did there, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziáh King of Iudáh and said, Who are ye? And thei answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziáh, & go downe to salute the children of the King and the children of the queene.

19 Now therefore call vnto me all the prophets of Báal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Báal: whosoever is lacking, he shal not liue. But Iehú did it by a subtiltie to destroye the seruants of Báal.

20 And Iehú said, Proclaime a solempne ⁱ asseblie for Báal. And thei proclaimed it.

21 So Iehú sent vnto all Israél, and all the seruants of Báal came, and there was not a mā left that came not. And thei came into the house of Báal, & the house of Báal was ful from end to end.

22 Then he said vnto him that had y^e charge of the vestrie, Bring forth the vestments for all the seruants of Báal. And he broght them out vestments.

23 And when Iehú went, & Iehonadáb the sonne of Recháb into the house of Báal, he said vnto the seruants of Báal, Searche diligently, and loke, lest there be here with you any of the seruants of the Lord, but the seruants of Báal onely.

31 But Iehú regarded not to walke in y^e lawe of y^e Lord God of Israël with all his heart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboám, which made Israël to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lord began to lothe Israël, and Hazaél smote them in all the coastes of Israël,

8 And ye shal compass the King round about, euerie man with his weapon in his hand, and whosoever commeth within the ranges, lethem be slaine: be you with the King, as he goeth out and in.

9 ¶ And the captaines of the hundreth did according to all that Iehoiadá the Priest cōmanded, & they toke euerie man his mē that entred in to their charge on the Sabbath with them that went out of it on the Sabbath, and came to Iehoiadá the Priest.

10 ¶ And the Priest gaue to the captaines of hundreth the speares and the shields that were King Dauides, and were in the house of the Lord.

11 And the garde stode, euerie mā with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side, about the altar & about the house, round about the King.

12 Then he broght out the Kings sonne, and put the crowne vpo him and gaue him the Testimonie, & they made him King: also they annointed him, and clapt their hands, and said, God saue the King.

13 ¶ And when Athaliáh heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came in to the people in the house of the Lord.

14 And when she looked, beholde, the King stode by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the King, and all the people of the land reioyced, & blew with trumpets. Then Athaliáh rent her clothes, and cryed, Treason, treason.

15 But Iehoiadá the Priest cōmanded the captaines of the hundreth: that had the rule of the hoste, and said vnto them, Haue her forthe of the ranges, & he that followeth her, let him dye by the sword: for the Priest had said, let her not be slaine in the house of the Lord.

16 Then they layed hāds on her, & she went by the way, by the w^h the horses go to the house of y^e King, and there was she slaine.

17 And Iehoiadá made a couenant betwene the Lord and y^e King, and the people, that they shulde be the Lords people: likewise betwene the King and y^e people.

18 Then all the people of the land wēt into the house of Baal, and destroyed it with his altars, & his images brake they downe courageously, and slewe Mattán the priest of Baal before the altars: & the Priest set a garde ouer the house of the Lord.

19 Then he toke the captaines of hundreth, and the other captaines, and the garde, and all the people of the land: and they broght the King from the house of the Lord, and came by y^e way of the gate of y^e garde to y^e V.ii.

13 And Ioásh slept with his fathers, & Ieroboám sate vpon his seat: & Ioásh was buried in Samaria among ^h Kings of Israël.

14 ¶ When Elishá fel sicke of his sicknes, whereof he dyed, Ioásh the King of Israël came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, & said, ⁱ O my father, my father, the charret of Israël, & the horsémē of ^j y same.

15 Thē Elishá said vnto him, Take a bowe and arowes. And he toke vnto him bowe and arowes.

16 And he said to the King of Israël, Put thine hand vpon the bow. And he put his hand vpon it. And Elishá put his hands vpon the Kings hands, 17 And said, Open the window ^k Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elishá said, Shote. And he shot. And he said, Beholde the arowe of the Lords deliuerance & the arowe of deliuerance against Arám: for thou shalt smite ^l y Aramites in Aphék, til thou haist consumed them.

18 Againe he said, Take the arowes. And he toke them. And he said vnto the King of Israël, Smite the ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased.

19 Then the man of God was ^m angry with him, and said, Thou shuldest haue smitten fise or six times, so thou shuldest haue smitten Arám, til thou hadest consumed it, where now thou shalt smite Arám but thrise.

20 ¶ So Elishá dyed, & they buried him. And certeine bands of the Moabites came into the land that yere.

21 And as they were buying a man, beholde, they sawe the souldiers: therefore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elishá. And when the man was downe, & touched the bones of Elishá, ⁿ he ^o reuiued & stode vpon his fete.

to them Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, which was steward of the house, & Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabshakeh said vnto them, Telye Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus sayth the great King, euē the great King of Asshur, What confidence is this wherein y trustest?

20 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, f but counsel and strength are for the warre. On whome then dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Lo, thou trustest now in this broken staffe of reede, to wit, on g Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wil go into his had, & pearce it: so is Pharaoh King of Egypt vnto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in y Lord our God, is not that he whose he places, and whose altars Hezekiah hath h taken away, and hath said to Iudah and Ierusalem, Ye shal worship before this altar in Ierusalem?

23 Now therefore giue i hostages to my lord the King of Asshur, and I wil giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able to set riders vpon them.

24 For how canst thou despise anie captain of the least of my masters seruants, & put thy trust on Egypt for charrets and horsemen?

25 Am I now come vp without the k lord to this place, to destroy it? the lord said to me, Go vp against this land, & destroy it.

26 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah and Shebnah, and Ioah said vnto Rabshakeh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy seruants in the Aramites language, for we vnderstand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh said vnto the, Hathe my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speake these wordes, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their owne dounge, & drinke their owne pisse with you?

28 So Rabshakeh stode and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, & spake, saying, Heare the wordes of the great King, of the King of Asshur.

29 Thus sayth the King, Let not Hezekiah disceiue you: for he shal not be able to deliuer you out of mine hand.

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord wil surely deliuer vs, and this citie shal not be giuen ouer into the hand of the King of Asshur.

31 Harken not vnto Hezekiah: for thus saith the King of Asshur, Make appointment with me, and come out to me, that euerie man may eat of his owne vine, and euerie man of his owne figtre, and drinke euerie man of the water of his owne well, Til l I come, and bring you to a land like your owne land, euē a land of wheat and wine, a land of bread and vineyardes, a land of oliues oyle, & hony that ye may liue and not dye: and obey not Hezekiah, for he disceiuech you, saying, The Lord wil deliuer vs.

32 Hathe anie of the gods of the naciōs deliuered his land out of the hand of the King of Asshur?

33 Where is the god of Hamah, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Henna and Iuah? how haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?

34 Who are they among all the gods of the naciōs, that haue deliuered their land out of mine hand, that the m Lord shulde deliuer Ierusalem out of mine hand?

35 But the people held their peace, and answered not him a worde: for the Kings commandment was, saying, Answer ye him not.

36 Then Eliakim, the sonne of Hilkiah w was steward of the house & Shebnah the chancellor, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabshakeh.

10 Thus shal ye speake to Hezekiah King of Iudâh, & say, Let not thy God disceiue thee in whome thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shal not be deliuered into the hand of the King of Asshúr.

11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the Kings of Asshúr haue done to all lands, how they haue destroyed them: and shalt thou be deliuered?

12 Haue the gods of the heathē deliuered them which my fathers haue destroyed, as Gozân, and Harân, and Rêzeph, and the childre of Eden, which were in Thelafar?

13 Where is the King of Hamâth, and the King of Arpâd, and the King of the citie of Sepharuâim, Henâ and Iudâ?

14 ¶ So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and red it: & Hezekiah wēt vp into the house of the Lord, and Hezekiah spred it before the Lord.

ⁱ Before the Arke of the couenant

^k He sheweth what is the true refuge & succour in all dangers, to wit, to flee to the Lord by earnest prayer.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israël, which dwellest betwene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: thou hast made the heauen & the earth.

^l Shew by effect that thou wilt not suffer thy Name to be blasphemed

^m By this title he discerneth God from all idoles and false gods.

16 Lord, bowe downe thine eare, and heare: Lord open thine eyes and beholde, and heare the wordes of Saneherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the living God.

17 Truerh it is, Lord, that the Kings of Asshúr haue destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And haue set fyre on their gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hâds, euen wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseeche thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou, O Lord, art only God.

ⁿ He sheweth for what end the faithful desire of God to be deliuered to wit, that he may be glorified by their deliuerance

20 ¶ Then Isaiâh the sonne of Amôz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israël, I haue heard that which thou hast prayed me, concerning Saneherib King of Asshúr.

21 This is the worde that the Lord hath spoken against him, O virgine, daughter of Zîon, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne: O daughter of Ierusalem, he hath shaken his head at thee.

^o Because as yet Ierusalem had not bene taken by the enemy, therefore he calleth her virgine.

22 Whome hast thou railed on: and whome hast thou blasphemed: and against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on hye: euen against the Holy one of Israël.

^p God counterth that inuention done to him, and will reuenge it & is done to anse of his Salutes.

23 By thy messengers thou hast railed on the Lord, and said, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the top of the mountaines, by the sides of Lebanon, and wil cut downe the hie cedies thereof, and the faine fyre trees thereof, and I wil go into the lodging of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel.

^q Meaning Ierusalem, & Isaiâh calleth the hight of his borders, to wit, of Iudâh, Isa 37, 22

^r Or, pleasaunt countrey.

^s Or, the waters of cresser before.

^t He declareth that forasmuch as he is the ^u autor and beginning of his Church, he wil neuer suffer it to be destroyed, as other cities and kingdomes

^v Thus he describeth the wicked, which for a time flourish, and afterwards fade and decay like flowres

^x God did not onely promise him the victorie but gueth him a signe to confirme his faith

24 I haue digged, and dronke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feete haue I dried all the floods closed in.

25 Hast thou not heard, how I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago: and shulde I now bring it, that it shulde be destroyed, and layed on ruinous heapes, as cities defensed?

26 Whose inhabitants haue small power, and are afraied, and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field, and grene herbe, or grasse on the house toppes, or as corne blasted before it be growen.

27 I knowe thy dwelling, yea, thy goying out, and thy comming in, and thy fury against me.

28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I wil put mine hoke in thy nostrils, and my bridel in thy lippes, & wil bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

29 And this shal be a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eat this yere suche things as growe of the selues, and the next yere suche as growe without sowing, and the third yere sowe ye and reape, & plant vineyardes, and eat the frutes thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudâh, shal againe take a roote downewarde, and beare frute vpwarde.

^y The Lord wil multiplie in great number that small remnant of Iudâh that is escaped

^z The loue, & God beareth toward his Church, shal overcome the counseils and enterprises of men

31 For out of Ierusalem shal go a remnant, and some that shal escape out of mount Zîon: the zeale of the Lord of hostes shal do this.

32 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, concerning the King of Asshúr, He shal not entrie into this citie, nor shote an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it:

33 But he shal returne the way he came, and shal not come into this citie, sayth the Lord.

34 For I wil defend this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, & for Dauid my seruants sake.

35 ¶ And the same night the Angel of the Lord went out and smote in the campe of Asshúr an hundred and foure score and fyue thousand: so when they rose early in the morning, beholde, they were all dead corpses.

CHAP. XX.

Hezekiáh is sicke, and receiveth the signe of his health
12 He receiveth rewardes of Berodách, 13 Sheweth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isaiáh 22 He dyeth and Manasséh his sonne reigneth in his steade

ABout that time ² was Hezekiáh sicke vnto death: and ³ the Prophet Isaiáh the sonne of Amóz came to him, and said vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Put thine house in an ordre: for thou shalt dye, and not liue.

2 Then he turned his face to the ^a wall, & prayed to the Lord, saying,

3 I beseeche thee, O Lord, remember now, how I haue walked before thee in trueth & with a ^b persit heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiáh ^c wept sore.

4 And afore Isaiáh was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tel Hezekiáh the captaine of my people, Thus sayth the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy ^d prayer, and sene thy teares: beholde, I haue healed thee, and the third day thou shalt go vp to the ^e house of the Lord,

6 And I wil adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yere, & wil deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the King of Asshúr, and wil defend this citie for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 Then Isaiáh said, Take a ^f lompe of drie figs. And they toke it, and layed it on the boyle, and he recovered.

8 For Hezekiáh had said vnto Isaiáh, What shalbe the signe that the Lord wil heale me, and that I shal go vp into the house of the Lord the third day?

9 And Isaiáh answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord wil do that he hath spoken, Will thou that the shadowe go forward ten degrees, or go backe ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiáh answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to passe forward ten degrees: not so then, but let the shadowe ^g go backe ten degrees.

11 And Isaiáh the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought againe the shadowe ^h ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the ⁱ dial of Aház.

12 ¶ The same season Berodách Baladán

the sonne of Baladán King of Babel, sent letters and a ^j present to Hezekiáh: for he had heard how that Hezekiáh was sicke.

13 And Hezekiáh heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the siluer, & the golde, & the spices, and the precious ointment, & all the house of his armour, and all that was founde in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his ^k realme, that Hezekiáh shewed them not.

14 Then Isaiáh the Prophet came vnto King Hezekiáh, and said vnto him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiáh said, They be come from a farre countrey, even from Babel.

15 Then said he, What haue they sene in thine house? And Hezekiáh answered, All that is in mine house haue they sene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Isaiáh said vnto Hezekiáh, Heare the worde of the Lord.

17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue laied vp in store vnto this day, ^l shal be caried into Babel: Nothing shalbe left, saith the Lord.

18 And of thy sonnes, that shal procede out of thee, & which thou shalt beget, shal they take away, and they shalbe eunuches in the palace of the King of Babel.

19 Then Hezekiáh said vnto Isaiáh, The worde of the Lord which thou hast ^m spoken, is good: for said he, Shal it not be good, if ⁿ peace and trueth be in my dayes?

20 Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiáh, and all his valiant dedes, and how he made a poole & a cōdite, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

21 And Hezekiáh slept with his fathers: & Manasséh his sonne reigned in his steade.

1 King 8. 29. & 9. 3. 2 King. 7. 10. 7 And he set the image of the groue, that he had made, in the house, whereof y^e Lord had said to Dauid and to Salomón his sonne,* In this house, and in Ierusalém, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israél, wil I put my Name for euer.

8 Nether wil I make y^e sette of Israél moue anie more out of the land, which I gaue their fathers: so that they wil ^b obserue and do all that I haue commanded them, & according to all the Lawe that my seruuant Moisés commanded them.

b Therefore seeing they obeyed not the comādemēt of God, they were iustly cast forthe of that lād which they had but on cōdicion. 9 Yet they obeyed not, but Manasséh led them out of the way, to do more wickedly then did the heathen people, whome the Lord destroyed before the children of Israél.

10 Therefore the Lord spake by his seruāts the Prophetes, saying,

Iere. 15. 4. 11 *Because that Manasséh King of Iudáh hath done suche abominaciōs, and hath wrought more wickedly then all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, & hath made Iudáh sinne also wth his idoles, d Meaning. y^e whoſo euer shal heare of this great plague, shal be astonished 13 And I wil stretch ouer Ierusalém the line ^d of Samaria, and the plommet of the house of Aháb: and I wil wipe Ierusalém, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth, and turneth it vpside downe.

d As I haue destroyed Samaria and the house of A-láb, so wil I destroy Iudáh 14 And I wil forsake the ^e remnant of mine inheritance, and deliuer them into the hād of their enemies, and they shal be robbed & spoiled of all their aduersaries, e Meaning Iudáh and Benjamin, which were onely left of the rest of the tribes. 15 Because they haue done euil in my sight, and haue prouoked me to angre, since the tyme their fathers came out of Egypt vntil this day.

f The Ebrewes write that he ſlew Iosiah y^e Prophet, who was his father in Lawe. 16 Moreover Manasséh shed ^f innocent blood exceding much, til he replenished Ierusalém from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith he made Iudáh to sinne, and to do euil in the sight of the Lord.

17 Concerning the rest of the actes of Manasséh, and all that he did, and his sinne y^e he sinned, are they not writen in y^e booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh? 18 And Manasséh slept with his fathers, and was buried in y^e gaidē of his owne house, enen in the garden of Vzzá: and Amón his sonne reigned in his steade.

2 Chro 33. 20. 19 ¶ *Amón was two and twentie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned two yere in Ierusalém: his mothers name also was Meshullémeth the daughter of Harúz of Iotbáh.

20 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, as his father Manasséh did.

21 For he walked in all the wate, that his father walked in, and scrued the idoles that his father scrued, and worshipped them.

22 And he forsoke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the ^g way of the Lord. g That is, according to his comādemētis.

23 And the seruants of Amón conspired against him, and slewe the King in his owne house.

24 And the people of the land slewe all them that had conspired against King Amón, and the people made Iosiah his sonne King in his steade.

25 Concerning the rest of the actes of Amón, which he did, are they not writen in the boke of y^e Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

Or, he buried him in the garden of Vzzá: and Iosiah his sonne reigned in his steade. 26 And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Vzzá: and Iosiah his sonne reigned in his steade.

CHAP. XXII.

4 Iosiah reparaeth the Temple & Hilkiah findeth the booke of the Lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosiah. 12 He sendeth to Huldah the prophetesse to enquire the Lords wil.

1 Iosiah was* eight yere olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned one and thirtie yere in Ierusalém. His mothers name also was Iedidáh the daughter of Adaiáh of Bozcáth.

2 And he did vprioughtly in the sight of the Lord, & ^a walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed nether to the right hand, nor to the left.

2 Chro 34. 2. a His zeale was prophesied of, & his name mencioned by Iedidáh the Prophet, more then three hundred yeres before, 1 King. 13. 2: and being but eight yere olde, he sought y^e God of his father Dauid, 2 Chro 34. 3. Or, cyar, 46 ver 9 3 ¶ And in the eighteenth yere of King Iosiah, the King sent Shaphán the sonne of Azaliáh the sonne of Meshullám the chamberler to the house of the Lord, saying,

b Certaine of the Priests were appointed to this office, as Chap 12. 9 c From the tyme of Iosiah for the space of 224 yeres the Temple remained without reparatiō through the negligence of y^e Priests this declareth that they that haue a charge and execute it not, ought to haue it taken from them. 4 Go vp to Hilkiah the hie Priest, that he may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lord, which the keepers of the ^b dore haue gathered of the people.

5 And let them ^c deliuer it into the hand of them that do the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord: let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to repaire the decayed places of the house:

6 To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters & masons, and to bie tymbre, and hewed stone stone to repaire the house.

7 Howbeit let no reckening be made with them of the money, that is deliuered into their hand: for they deale ^d faithfully.

d So God promised him of faithful servants, being he went about to zealously to set forth the worke of God. e This was the copie that Moses left them, as appeareth 2 Chro 34. 14 which ether by the negligence of the Priests had beene lost, or els by the wickednes of idolatrous Kings had bene abolished.

f Hee melted.

8 And Hilkiah the hie Priest said vnto Shaphan the chancellor, I haue founde the ^e booke of the Lawe in the house of the Lord: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan, and he red it.

9 So Shaphan the chancellor came to the King, and broght him worde againe, & said, Thy seruants haue gathered the money, that was founde in the house, and haue deliuered it vnto the hands of them that do the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

10 Also Shaphan the chancellor shewed the King, sayig, Hilkiah the Priest hathe deliuered me a booke. And Shaphan red it before the King.

11 And when the King had heard the wordes of the booke of the Lawe, he rent his clothes.

12 Therefore the King commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Achbór the sonne of Michaiáh, and Shaphan the chancellor, and Asahiah the Kings seruant, saying, f Meaning to some Prophet whome God reueleth the knowledge of things vnto, as Jer 21. though at other times they inquired the Lord by Vrim & Thummim.

13 Go ye and ^f inquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Iudáh, concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the wordes of this booke, to do according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 ¶ So Hilkiah the Priest and Ahikam, and Achbór and Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shallúm, the sonne of Tikuah, the sonne of Harhás keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalém in the ^g colledge) and they communed with her.

g Or, the house of doctrine. w was nere to the Temple, & where the learned assembled to intreat the Scriptures, & the doctrine of the Prophetes.

15 And she answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israél, Tel the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus sayth the Lord, Beholde, I wil bring euil vpon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, ^h euem all the wordes of ⁱ ý booke which ^j ý King of Iudáh hathe red,

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me with all the ^k h workes of their hands: my wrath also shalbe kindled against this place, and shal not be quenched.

h The workes of mans hand here signifie all that man inuenteth beside the worde of God: w are abominable in Gods seruice. i Meaning that hee did repent as they, that do not repent, are said to harden their heart, Psa 95. 8.

18 But to the King of Iudáh, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shal ye say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israél, The wordes that thou hast heard shal come to passe.

19 But because thine heart did melt, and thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, ^k to wit, that it shulde be destroyed and accused, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I haue also heard it, sayth the Lord.

20 Beholde therefore, I wil gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shal not see all the euil, which I wil bring vpon this place. Thus they broght the King worde againe.

1 Iosiah readeth the Lawe before the people 3 He maketh a couenant with the Lord 4 He putteth downe the idoles, after he had killed their priests 22 He kepeth Possouer 24 He destroyeth the conuersers 29 He was killed in Megiddo, 30 And his sonne Iehoiakim reigneth in his Steade 33 After he was taken, his sonne Iehoiakim was made King.

1 ^Then the King sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudáh and of Ierusalém.

2 And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudáh and all the inhabitants of Ierusalém with him, and the Priests and Prophetes, and all the people bothe small & great: and he red in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant, which was found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the King stode by ^b the pillar, and made a ^c couenant before the Lord, that they shuld walke after the Lord, and kepe his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all ^d their heart, & with all ^e their soul, that they might accomplish the wordes of this couenant written in this booke. 4 Then the King commanded Hilkiah the hie Priest and the ^g d Priests of the second ordre, and the keepers of the dore, to bring out of the Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Bál, and for the groue, and for all the hoste of heauen, and he burnt them without Ierusalém in the fields of Kedrón, and caryed ^h e the powdre of them into Beth-él.

where the women wove hangings for the groue.

8 Also he broght all the priestes out of the cities of Iudáh, and defiled the hie places where the priests had burnt incense, even from Géba to Beer-sheba, and destroyed the hie places of the gates, that were in y^e entering in of the gate of Ioshúa the gouernour of the citie which was at the left hand of the gate of the citie.

9 Neuertheles the priests of the hie places came not vp to the altar of the Lord in Ierusalém, saue onely thei did eat of the vnleauened bread among their brethren.

10 He defiled also ^k Tópheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnóm, that no man shulde make his sonne or his daughter passe through y^e fyre to Mólech.

11 He put downe also the ^l horses that the Kings of Iudáh had giuen to the sunne at the entering in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nethan-mélech the eunuche, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the charrets of the sunne with fyre.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Aház, which the Kings of Iudáh had made, and the altars which Manasséh had made in the two courtes of the house of the Lord, did the Kíng breake downe, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the brooke Kedrón.

13 Moreover the King defiled the hie places that were before Ierusalém and on the right hand of the ^m mount of corruption (which ^{*}Salomón the King of Israél had buyt for Ashtórieth the idole of the Zidonians, and for Chemósh the idole of the Moabites, and for Milchóm the abomination of the children of Ammón)

14 And he brake the images in pieces, and cut downe the groues and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Furthermore the altar that was at Beth-él, & the hie place made by Ieroboám the sonne of Nebát, which made Israél to sinne, bothe this altar and also the hie place brake he downe, & burnt the hie place, & stamp it to powder and burnt the groue.

16 And as Iosiah turned him selfe, he spied the graues, that were in the mount, and sent and toke the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar, and polluted it, according to the worde of the Lord that the ^o man of God proclaimed which cryed the same wordes.

17 Thē he said, What tittle is that which I see? And the mé of the citie said vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudáh, and tolde these things that thou hast done to the altar of Beth-él.

18 Thē said he, Let him alone: let none remoue his bones. So his bones were saued with the bones of the ^p Prophet that came from Samaria.

19 Iosiah also toke away all the houses of the hie places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the Kings of Israél had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the factes that he had done in Beth-él.

20 And he sacrificed all the priests of the hie places, that were there vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Ierusalém.

21 ¶ Then the King commanded all the people, saying, ^{}Kepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord your God, ^{}as it is written in the boke of this couenant.

22 And there was no Passcouer holden ^q like that from the daies of the Iudges that iudged Israél, nor in all the dayes of the Kings of Israél, and of the Kings of Iudáh.

23 And in the eighteenth yere of King Iosiah was this Passeouer celebrated to the Lord in Ierusalém.

24 Iosiah also toke away them that had familiar spirits, & the sothesayers, and the images, and the idoles, & all the abominations that were espied in the land of Iudáh & in Ierusalém, to performe the wordes of the ^{*}Lawe, which were written in the boke that Hilkiáh the Priest founde in the house of the Lord.

25 Like vnto him was there no King before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soule, & with all his might according to all the Lawe of Mofés, nether after him arose there anie like him.

26 Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the ^r fearcenes of his great wrath wherewith he was angrie against Iudáh, because of all the prouocations wherewith Manasséh had prouoked him.

27 Therefore the Lord said, I wil put Iudáh also out of my sight, as I haue put away Israél, and wil cast of this citie Ierusalém, which I haue chosen, and the house whercof I said, ^{*}My Name shalbe there.

28 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iosiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudáh?

33 And Pharaoh Nechoh put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, while he reigned in Ierusalem, and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of siluer, and a talent of golde.

34 ¶ And Pharaoh Nechoh made Eliakim the sonne of Josiah King in steade of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Iehoiakim, and toke Ichoahaz away, which when he came to Egypt, dyed there.

35 And Iehoiakim gaue the siluer and the golde to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to giue the money, according to the commandement of Pharaoh: he leuyed of euerie man of the people of the land, according to his vallew, siluer and golde to giue vnto Pharaoh Nechoh.

3 Surely by the commandement of y Lord came this vpon Iudah, that he might put them out of his sight for the finnes of Manasseh, according to all that he did,
4 And for the innocent blood that he shed, (for he filled Ierusalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord wolde not pardone it.
5 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoiakim, & all that he did, are they not writen in the booke of the Chronicles of y Kings of Iudah?

6 So Iehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his sonne reigned in his steade.
7 ¶ And the King of Egypt came no more out of his land: for the King of Babel had taken from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the riuer Perath, all that pertained to the King of Egypt.

8 ¶ Iehoiachin was eightene yere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned in Ierusalem thre months. His mothers name also was Nechostaz, the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem.

9 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father had done.

10 ¶ In that time came the seruants of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel vp against Ierusalem: so the citie was besieged.

11 And Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel came against the citie, & his seruants did besiege it.

12 Then Iehoiachin the King of Iudah came out against the King of Babel, he, and his mother, and his seruants, and his princes, and his eunuches: and the King of Babel toke him in the eight yere of his reigne.

13 ¶ And he carryed out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and brake all the vessels of golde, which Salomon King of Israel had made in the Temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.

14 And he carryed away all Ierusalem, and all the princes, and all the strong men of warre, even ten thousand into captiuitie, & all the workemen, & conning men: so none remained sauing the poore people of the land.

15 ¶ And he carryed away Iehoiachin into Babel, and the Kings mother, & the Kings wiues, and his eunuches, and the mightie of the land, even he away into captiuitie from Ierusalem to Babel, 16 And all the men of warre, even seven thousand, and carpenters, & lockesmithes a thousand: all that were strong and apt for warre, did the King of Babel bring to Babel captiues.

17 ¶ And the King of Babel made Mattaniah his vncle King in his steade, & changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was one & twentie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleue yeres in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Iehoiakim had done.

20 Therefore certainly the wrath of the Lord was against Ierusalem & Iudah vntil he cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babel.

1 And in the ninth yere of his reigne, the tenth moneth & tenth day of the moneth Nebuchad-nezzár King of Babél came, he, & all his hoste against Ierusalém, and pitched against it, and they buylt fortres against it rounde about it.

2 So the citie was besieged vnto the eleueth yere of King Zedekiah.

3 And the ninth day of the moneth the famine was sore in the citie, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 Then the citie was broken vp, and all the men of warre fled by night, by the waye of the d gate, which is betwene two walles that was by the Kings garden: now the Caldees were by the citie rounde about: and the King went by the way of the wildernes.

5 But the armie of the Caldees pursued after the King, and toke him in the deserts of Ierichó, and all his hoste was scared from him.

6 Then they toke the King, and caryed him vnto the King of Babél to Ribláh, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slewe the sonnes of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bounde him in chaines, & caryed him to Babél.

8 And in the fift moneth, & f seuenth day of the moneth, which was the nintenth yere of King Nebuchad-nezzár King of Babél, came Nebuzar-adán chief steward and seruant of the King of Babél, to Ierusalém, 9 And burnt the house of the Lord, and the Kings house, and all the houses of Ierusalém, & all the great houses burnt he with fyre.

10 And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the chief stewarde, brake downe the walles of Ierusalém rounde about.

11 And the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and those that were fled and fallen to the King of Babél, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adán chief stewarde carye away captiue.

12 But the chief stewarde left of the poore of the land to dresse the vines, and to till the land.

13 Also the pillars of brasie that were in the house of the Lord, and the bases, and the brasen Sea that was in the house of the Lord, did the Caldees breake, and caryed the brasie of them to Babél.

14 The pottes also and the besomes, and the instruments of musike, and the incense asses, & all the vessels of brasie that they ministred in, toke they away.

15 And the asse pannes, and the basens, and all that was of golde, & that was of siluer, toke the chief stewarde away,

16 With the two pillars, one Sea & the bases, which Salomón had made for the house of the Lord: the brasie of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eightene cubites, and the chapter thereon was brasie, and the height of the chapter was with networke thre cubites, and pomegranates vpon the chapter rounde about, all of brasie: and likewise was the seconde pillar with the networke.

18 And the chief stewarde toke Seraiah the chief Priest, and Zephaniáh the seconde Priest, and the thre keepers of the dore.

19 And out of the citie he toke an eunuche that had the ouersight of the me of warre, and f fene men of them that were in the Kings presence, which were founde in the citie, and Sophér captaine of the hoste, who mustred the people of the land, and threscore men of the people of the land, that were founde in the citie.

20 And Nebuzar-adán the chief stewarde toke them, and brought them to the King of Babél to Ribláh.

21 And the King of Babél smote them, and slewe them at Ribláh in the land of Hamáth. So Iudáh was caryed away captiue out of his owne land.

22 Howbeit there remained people in the land of Iudáh, whome Nebuchad-nezzár King of Babél left, & made Gedaliáh the sonne of Ahikám the sonne of Shaphán ruler ouer them.

23 Thé when all the captaines of the hoste & their men heard, that the King of Babél had made Gedaliáh gouernour, thei came to Gedaliáh to Mizpáh, to wit, Ishmaél the sonne of Nethaniáh, and Iohanán the sonne of Káreah, and Seraiah the sonne of Tanhúmeth & Netophathite, & Iazaniáh & sonne of Maachathi, thei & their me.

24 And Gedaliáh sware to thé, & to their men, and said vnto them, Feare not to be the seruants of the Caldees: dwel in the land, and serue the King of Babél, and ye shal be wel.

25 But in the seuenth moneth Ishmaél the sonne of Nethaniáh the sonne of Elishamá of the Kings sede, came, and ten men with him, & smote Gedaliáh, & he dyed, and so did he the Iewes, and the Caldees that were with him at Mizpáh.

26 Then all the people bothe small & great and the captaines of the armie arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afayed of the Caldees.

THE FIRST BOKE OF the "Chronicles, or Paralipomenon.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Iewes comprehend bothe these boke in one, which the Grecians because of the length deuide into two: and they are called Chronicles, because they note briefly the histories from Adam to the returne from their captiuitie in Babilon. But these are not those boke of Chronicles, which are so oft mentioned in the boke of Kings of Iudah and Israel, which did at large set forth the storie of bothe the kingdomes, and afterward perished in the captiuitie: but an abbridgement of the same, and were gathered by Esra, as the Iewes write, for their returne fro Babylon. This first boke containeth a brief rehearſal of the children of Adam vnto Abraham, Iſhak, Iacob, and the twelue Patriarches, chiefly of Iudah and of the reigne of Dauid, because Christ came of him according to the fi sh. And therefore it setteth forth the more amply his actes, bothe cocerning civil gouernement, and also the administration, and care of things concerning religion, for the good successe whereof he reioyceth, and giueth thanks to the Lord.
